The Coming Cataclysm... and YOU!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

When you read or hear the term Armageddon, what is your immediate response?

Terror?

Or triumph?!

There is no question that Armageddon is hurtling ever closer. The drums of war are beating. We stand on the brink of the ultimate global conflict! This is clearly evidenced by the news headlines that you and I are consuming every day, super-imposed upon the ancient prophecies of Scripture that I have given my entire life to studying and sharing. When the president of Iran calls Israel a “tumor,” saying it should be “wiped out from the map,” and denies that the holocaust ever occurred, while pushing to build nuclear weapons capability — we can see Armageddon coming! When Russia makes unprecedented alliances with Islamic countries, we can see Armageddon approaching! As economic chaos sets the stage for a one world dictator, there is no question: Armageddon is coming! The signs are clear.

But here is something you might regard as one of the strangest statements I have ever made: With Armageddon upon us, Christians should not be thinking about doom and gloom!

Yes, beloved, it’s true! As I study God’s Word and absorb a never-ending supply of articles, journals, books, and blogs to keep you informed of the latest events of prophetic significance, my heart leaps with joy! This is no time for confusion, alarm, or dread. Those of us who know Jesus as Lord have hope — because Christ is coming to put a stop to this horrendous war ... and set up His glorious kingdom of peace for 1,000 years! Revelation 11:18, 19:16, and 20:4, and Isaiah 2:4 make it clear!

What a tragedy that Christians the world over are troubled, agonizing, about Armageddon. We should save that energy — and invest it in evangelism! Today, you have an unparalleled opportunity to get the facts — experience complete understanding — about the coming Armageddon cataclysm ... through our video: WORLD WAR III: 2012?

This extraordinary video teaching experience will give you more hope for the future than you have ever experienced in your lifetime! Here are just a few of its remarkable features:

Armageddon

by DR. JACK VAN IMPE

Since the fall of man, earth's population has been training for Armageddon. Every tiny skirmish and world war has been a preliminary to the battle of battles: Armageddon. Following the defeat of Russia and her armies by Israel and her allies, the final world dictator will be revealed for who he is and what he'll become. The length of his reign after the Israeli defeat of Russia will be 3½ years (42 months), and during that time he will bring the world to its most violent hour.

The World's Most Violent Hour

There is considerable speculation as to just what triggers the Battle of Armageddon. Why do the armies of the world gather in the Middle East at the end of the Tribulation period? Is there a rebellion in the kingdom of the Antichrist? What precipitates the final conflict? Although there is mystery surrounding some of these questions, there are a number of certainties about Armageddon.

1. It takes place in the middle of the seven-year period of the Tribulation (Rev. 16:16).
2. It involves all the nations of the world (Zechariah 14:2).
3. It pits all nations against the Lord and His anointed (Ps. 2:1-6).
4. It ends with the revelation of Christ as King of Kings and Lord of Lords (Rev. 19:11-21).

While many latter-day events are hidden from us, it is not difficult to sort out some important developments during the Tribulation period that lead to the Battle of Armageddon.

The Consolidation of the Power of the Antichrist

When the Beast (the Antichrist) makes peace with Israel and guarantees her security at the beginning of Daniel's 70th week, he is not in complete control of the world. Although he is headed for ultimate dictatorship, the earth is at that time still given to considerable nationalism. The Beast will have to fight for total control of the earth. To gain unchallenged dominion, he will have to face the military might of both the Russian confederacy and a powerful Eastern force, probably China. Writing of this international turmoil, Daniel explained: "And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over" (Dan. 11:40).

That this crisis is not confined to the northern alliance is made clear in Daniel 11:44: "But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many."

Following the miraculous defeat of the Russian armies and their allies for Israel's sake, the global leader will vent his fury against the massive Eastern force of 200 million moving toward the Middle East to challenge his power. The casualties in this confrontation will total one-third of the world's population. Take a moment here to read Revelation 9:14-19 for John's description of the struggle and slaughter.

With all the world subservient to him, the final world dictator will deify himself, demanding worship in the Jews' temple in Jerusalem. He will then assume total economic control, requiring his mark in the hand or forehead in order for a person to transact any business. The Beast will rule the earth, assisted by the false prophet and energized by Satan. The entire world will be under the control of a satanic trinity (Rev. 13:4-8).

It is clear then that all opposition to the Beast will finally be put down, making him a world dictator. Threats from the north, the south, and the east will be overcome — "therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious mountain..." (Dan. 11:44-45).

The Antichrist will have accomplished the dream of Hitler, Napoleon, the Caesars, and others. He will be dictator of the world.

The 144,000 Converted Jews

Another important factor as the world moves toward Armageddon will be the conversion to Christ of 144,000 Jews — 12,000 from each of the 12 tribes of Israel (see Rev. 7:4-8). The result of their missionary activity during history's most difficult time will be phenomenal. They will reap converts from all nations, even though conversion will mean martyrdom for many (Rev. 7:9-17; 13:15; 20:4).

The message of these 144,000 Hebrew Christian evangelists will be the gospel of the kingdom — that is, it will be the Gospel with a kingdom emphasis. They will be announcing the coming kingdom of Christ, and during their ministry Matthew 24:14 will be fulfilled: “And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall Christ come.”

An added dimension to the kingdom message of the 144,000 servants of God will be their ability to announce the approximate time of the Lord’s return. Tribulation chronology will make this possible.

A number of prophecies state that the rule of the final world dictator will continue for 3½ years after breaking the agreement for peace with Israel. Daniel described this period as “a time and times and the dividing of time” (Dan. 7:25). John similarly spoke of “a time, and times, and a half a time” (Rev. 12:14). Becoming more specific, he wrote: “And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months” (Rev. 13:5).

It is not difficult to imagine the reaction of the world dictator to those who publicly proclaim the end of his reign and announce the coming kingdom of Christ. His anger will explode in an avalanche of persecution. Multitudes will be martyred. These are the millions who are saved after the Rapture (Rev. 7:9, 14). There will be no Sunday go-to-meeting Christians during the Tribulation. Great numbers will be called upon to seal their testimonies with blood.

The Impact of the Defeat of Russia

The deliverance of the Jews from the Russian invaders will cause many of them to turn to Christ, claiming Him as their Messiah and Lord: “So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward” (Ezek. 39:22).

This desertion of the dictator by numbers of Jews will intensify his hatred of both Jews and Christians, especially Jews who have been converted to Christ. A wave of anti-Semitism will sweep the earth, motivated by Satan and promoted by the Antichrist: “And the dragon was wroth with the woman [Israel], and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ” (Rev. 12:17).

The Two Witnesses

The Antichrist and his kingdom will bring great trouble to the earth. But he will also be troubled. Irritations will increase with the message of Christ’s return preached throughout the world. Every tribe and nation will be made aware of the timetable of the end, the eventual fall of the Antichrist, and the coming kingdom of Christ. To add to his miseries, two powerful prophets will appear in Jerusalem and will witness there for 3½ years, guaranteeing the truth of the kingdom message of the 144,000 servants of God.

These two witnesses will be miraculously protected for “a thousand two hundred and threescore days” (42 prophetic months of 30 days each). Their power to bring plagues will draw the attention of the world to their ministry and message: “These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will” (Rev. 11:6).

They will undoubtedly herald the countdown of the Tribulation timetable, pointing to the time of the Lord’s return to set up His kingdom. It seems likely that many of the Old Testament prophecies concerning the kingdom of Christ will be repeated by these men of God. Perhaps they will cry that the great stone of Daniel’s vision is about to fall from heaven, bringing the downfall of all earthly rule and establishing the millennium kingdom (Dan. 2:44-45).

When the two witnesses have concluded their work, they will be slain, and television cameras will beam the sight of their dead bodies lying in the street of Jerusalem to all the world. The news of their death will cause a celebration among the ungodly of all nations: “And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth” (Rev. 11:10).

After 3½ days, they will be resurrected and will ascend to heaven in a cloud while their enemies watch, paralyzed with fear.

The Call to Armageddon

The world dictator and his associates will have seen and heard enough. Furious over the success of the 144,000 evangelists and bitter because many Jews have rejected his rule and have turned to Jesus Christ, this dictator will announce a campaign to destroy the Jewish race once and for all. He will blame them for every ill on earth. Every problem in his kingdom will be laid at their door. Every wrong on earth, economic and political, will be charged to them. The hatred and animosity of all the Hamans and Hitlers of history will culminate in this latter-day evil ruler.

Having been warned of the time when Christ will return to set up His kingdom, the Antichrist will summon the armies of the earth to the Middle East to destroy the Jews and defeat their Messiah at His coming.

Demonic Power will be Unleashed

Miracles performed through satanic power will convince the leaders of the earth who are subservient to the Antichrist to move all their military might to the Middle East to do battle with Christ at His return to the Mount of Olives (Zech. 14:4). “For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God almighty” (Rev. 16:14).

Armageddon will demonstrate man at the height of his pride and folly. Convinced of the power of their weaponry and deceived by a leader energized by Satan, the armies of earth will march to their doom, expecting to destroy the Christ they have rejected.

Does this appear to be madness? It did to the psalmist who looked through the centuries and saw it unfold in prophetic vision. He asked: “Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?” (Ps. 2:1).

Explaining the reason for his question, he wrote: “The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us” (Ps. 2:2-3).

Here is the rebellion of man at its logical end.

And Armageddon will end the rebellion of man.

The King is Coming

Tribulation chronology will have allowed the global dictator and others to know the time of the return of Christ. The armies of earth under the direction of the leader of the new world order will have gathered to destroy the Jews and to battle the Lord Himself. Armageddon will have arrived: “And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon” (Rev. 16:16).

At Armageddon, the most awesome array of deadly weapons ever assembled will be waiting to destroy the returning Christ. In effect, the world’s latter-day inhabitants will echo the cry of those who rejected the Savior at His first coming: “We will not have this man to reign over us” (Luke 19:14).

But the enemies of the Lord will be defeated — Revelation 19:19-21.

In the wake of the destruction of Armageddon, there will be work to do. The Church, having returned with the King, will share in these responsibilities. The kingdom of Christ will be established, and the violent drama of the ages will end. There will be peace at last as they “beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.” Amen and amen! 🙏

GOD BLESS You!

by Dr. Rexella Van Impe

During the holiday season, time and again I hear people warmly greeting each other and saying, “I hope you have a wonderful holiday — Happy New Year, and God bless you!”

I can remember numerous times when I’ve personally said something similar to friends, and many other times when I’ve had the experience of people saying to me, “God bless you, Rexella, God bless you!” But have you ever had the feeling that those words, which should always express a sincere, prayerful wish, had almost become a cliché — empty and largely meaningless? “God bless you” — almost like the throwaway greeting, “How are you?”

Jack and I had a good friend, Willard Mason, now gone on to heaven. He was a big, fun-loving man with a great sense of humor and a streak of mischief that never quite went away. One evening when we met for dinner and were greeting each other, I asked, “How are you, Willard?”

Instead of responding with the usual “Fine,” he replied, “Thanks for asking, Rexella. Are you just being nice or do you really want to know?” When I stammered a little at his unexpected query, Willard burst into laughter, and the rest of us joined in.

I believe when we say “God bless you,” the implication of those words should penetrate our own hearts and motivate us to help bring those words to reality. This may well require us to give something of ourselves to be a blessing in someone else’s life. If we are really, genuinely honest, how can we say “God bless you” to someone and then walk away?

How can you be a blessing?

One of the best things we can possibly do to be a blessing to someone else is to pray for that individual. The apostle Paul wrote to the believers at Philippi, I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now (Philippians 1:3-5).

When we wish the blessing of God upon a friend or neighbor, pray joyfully for that person, asking the Lord to be near them and to meet their needs. How often do we do that? The Bible says, The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much (James 5:16). Do we believe this?

There have been times when I “blessed” an acquaintance and walked on. Sometimes I would whisper a hurried prayer — “Lord, please be near to her and meet every need of her life” — as I went on to my next errand or appointment. But too often I didn’t remember to pray again

...IT MAY WELL BE THAT YOU CAN GIVE THE MOST PRECIOUS
GIFT OF ALL,
SOME OF YOUR TIME.

— certainly not in what I would consider an “effectual fervent” way.

As long as I’m confessing, I must admit there have even been times when someone would ask me to pray about a circumstance or situation in their lives, and I’d promise that I would. But before I actually got around to it, time passed! Sometimes I wouldn’t remember to pray until I saw those acquaintances again, or someone else mentioned their problem or need. Has this ever happened to you?

You can write this down and underscore it for emphasis — if you have the opportunity to say “God bless you” to someone, you also have the responsibility to pray for that person and ask God to bless him or her and supply every need! That is why whenever someone approaches Jack and me with a burden and prayer request, we will step off to the side with that person and immediately go before God’s throne in prayer.

Give of yourself by sharing your time

What can you do to be a blessing? You may not feel that you are a great intercessor — you may have limited financial resources and very modest means. But it may well be that you can give the most precious gift of all, some of your time. You see, our lives are made up of seconds, minutes, hours, and days. So when we give a portion of time to another, we are giving part of our very being ... something we can never get back.

The Bible says, Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2). What if you just dropped by to share a cup of tea and an hour’s conversation with a lonely friend? What if you did some chores or ran some errands for a shut-in? Would that be a blessing and lift a burden? Absolutely!

The tangible touch!

I don’t believe you can say “God bless you” to someone in obvious need and mean it if you don’t do something real and practical to meet his or her need.

“GOD HAS NO HANDS ON EARTH BUT OURS!”

That’s not just my idea — the apostle John has something to say about that. But whoso hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? ... Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth (1 John 3:17, 18).

The beloved cartoonist, Charles Schulz, once drew a Peanuts cartoon strip that illustrated the lesson of faith versus works described in James 2:15-16. In the first panel, Charlie Brown, bundled up in a heavy coat, boots, mittens, a hat, and scarf, passes by the dog, Snoopy, shivering in the wind and cold of a snowstorm.

“Be of good cheer, Snoopy,” says Charlie Brown. “Be warmed and fed.” The next panel shows Lucy passing by Snoopy. She is also bundled up in warm clothing from head to toe. “Yes, Snoopy,” she says, “Stay warm and be of good cheer.” In the third panel, Charlie and Lucy go inside their warm houses out of the howling wind and blowing snow of the blizzard. In the last panel, a shivering, miserable Snoopy hugs his body and looks woefully at the closed door of Charlie Brown’s house.

The apostle James also reminds us of our failures. He said, If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? (James 2:15-16).

God has no hands on earth but ours

There is no need to ever say, “I wish I knew what I could

SO WE ARE ONLY TRYING TO FOLLOW IN HIS FOOTSTEPS
SAY “GOD BLESS YOU,”
AND THEN SHARE WHAT HE HAS GIVEN US TO MAKE THAT

do to serve the Lord.” I believe that every time we have the opportunity to say “God bless you” to someone, there is also an underlying opportunity to do something tangible, within our means and ability, to help make that blessing happen.

Yes, God has unlimited power and resources, and, if need be, He could provide for any individual’s needs supernaturally, miraculously. But most of the time, He chooses to supply needs and answer prayers through the love and help of other people. In the words of a famous prayer, “God has no hands on earth but ours!”

So when the Lord leads you to a person who needs to hear you say “God bless you,” look also for ways your hands can be anointed and used to make that prayer come true. As the poet wrote —

*Dream large, my soul, dream large,
God thinks His thoughts through you!*

The blessing of unconditional love

If God’s blessings are to flow through us to others, they must be wrapped and bathed in love — unconditional love. We have such a limited view of what and how to love. Too often we offer our love only IF — if you meet my conditions, if you behave the way I think you should, if you look right or smell right, or do what I want you to do. But God loves us just the way we are.

The Bible says, And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. And also, the fruit of the Spirit is love.... (see 1 Corinthians 13:13, Galatians 5:22).

Are you a lover — a lover of God, a lover for God?

The other day at a meeting, someone paid me a wonderful compliment. A woman asked, “Rexella, do you know so-and-so?” And I replied, “I don’t believe I do.” One of the girls standing near me said, “No, but she would love to know everyone!”

That was a real blessing and encouragement to me. Because I believe we should have that kind of love, don’t you? Love that accepts ... love that opens its arms to all ... and love that gives all it has to give.

God says, “My children, I want to bless you.” So what does He do? He gives us His love. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:8). He gives us His peace. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:7). He gives us His comfort. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest (Matthew 11:28). He gives us His wisdom. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him (James 1:5). He gives us everlasting life. That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation (Romans 10:9-10).

Isn't that a blessing? So we are only trying to follow in His footsteps when we say "God bless you," and then share what He has given us to make that blessing a reality.

One of my favorite old hymns cries out —

*What shall I give thee, Master,
Thou hast given all
for me,
Not just a part,
or half of my heart,
I will give all to Thee.*

That's really all that is required if we are to be a channel for His blessing. God bless you, my friend! 🍀

Dear Jack and Rexella,

I've never enjoyed a show as much as I enjoy yours. I love how you tell it like it is, and sometimes even tell a few folks how badly they're missing it! You are the cutest couple ever — you always dress so sharp, and (yes, I notice) you match! I may never get the opportunity to meet you in person, but I will be riding a white horse right next to yours when we return with our beloved Yeshua to rule and reign for a thousand years. My love to you, beloved of God.

Radical Rulers

Powerful book exposes our leaders' appalling agenda

The Bible clearly spells out the decimation of civilization, morality, and values that must take place before the coming of the Lord and Armageddon — and the radicalization of the White House and federal government seems to be the fulfillment of this prophecy!

This astounding book and DVD set was thoroughly researched and impeccably documented to truthfully present the facts that show:

- The shocking appointments to U.S. government ... abortion advocates, pedophile sympathizers, socialists, pro-communists, and other radicals.
- The “czars” of diversity, climate change, safe schools ... nearly all are promoting a radical agenda.
- The newly-created, unelected, taxpayer-funded government positions with aims that completely contradict the values of our Founding Fathers.
- The relentless march toward: socialism, slaughter the unborn, anti-Christian censorship, health care rationing for the elderly, and national bankruptcy!

WORLD Report

OTHER EARTHS? A NEW ESTIMATE RAISES THE ODDS OF FINDING THEM.

The Christian Science Monitor reports: “The prospects for finding Earth-sized planets around other sun-like stars in the Milky Way appear to be improving.

A new estimate predicts that for every four sun-like stars, one should host at least one planet with anywhere from one-half to twice Earth’s mass.

The estimate was among the results of a study by an international research team commissioned by NASA to identify potential targets for as-yet unbuilt space telescopes.

The study, which will appear in the journal Science, doesn’t directly address the Holy Grail for planet hunters — finding an Earth-size planet at a life-sustaining distance from its host star. The researchers’ prediction involves Earth-size objects in orbits that would fall well inside the orbit of Mercury, the inhospitable first rock from the sun. Their estimate was based on careful observations of stars from a volcano-based telescope in Hawaii.

But if Earth-scale planets are present at the distance the study’s researchers predict, it would imply a greater likelihood that such objects would be present in more-distant orbits as well — including within a star’s so-called habitable zone, they say.

At the least, such close-in objects would be among the first Earth-size planets NASA’s Kepler mission is expected to detect. The Kepler spacecraft, which was launched in March 2009 and trails Earth in its orbit around the sun, is designed to detect Earth-size planets in ‘life-friendly orbits’ around distant stars.

If the international research team’s prediction holds up, Kepler, in addition to the planets it is already looking for, would also find as many as 260 of the star-hugging Earths the researchers predict....” (“And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.” Luke 21:11,25,26.)

CHINESE SUPERCOMPUTER LIKELY TO PROMPT UNEASE IN U.S.

The Wall Street Journal reports: “A newly built supercomputer in China appears poised to take the world performance lead, another sign of the country’s growing technological prowess that is likely to set off alarms about U.S. competitiveness and national security.

The system was designed by China’s National University of Defense Technology and is housed at the National Supercomputing Center in the city of Tianjin. It is part of a new breed that exploits graphics chips more commonly used in playing videogames — supplied by Nvidia Corp. — as well as standard microprocessors from Intel Corp.

Supercomputers are massive machines that help tackle the toughest scientific problems, including simulating commercial products like new drugs as well as defense-related applications such as weapons design and breaking codes. The field has long been led in the world.

But Nvidia says the new system in Tianjin — which is being formally announced Thursday at an event in China — was able to reach 2.5 petaflops. That is a measure of calculating speed ordinarily translated into a thousand trillion operations per second. It is more than 40% higher than the mark set last June by a system called Jaguar at Oak Ridge National Laboratory that previously stood at No. 1 on a twice-yearly ranking of the 500 fastest supercomputers....” (Imagine! A computer that is capable of 2,500 trillion calculations per second, and Japan is planning to push this number to four times this amount, or 10,000 trillion calculations per second. The Antichrist and false prophet will have no problem keeping track of the citizens of the tribulation seven-year era. Revelation 13:1-18; 14:9,11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; and 20:4.) ☞

We Love

Dear Dr. Jack and Dr. Rexella Van Impe,

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the wonderful email messages you send to us on a regular basis.

Words cannot begin to express how much we have grown to love you both, for the awesome teachings and the blessings you pour on us each day. You have lifted us up to a place we could only dream about before.

Your teachings are beyond anything we have experienced, and we both look forward to giving you a big hug when we meet in heaven — and to tell you how much we love you both with a Christian love that is above all other.

May the Lord pour His blessings upon your wonderful ministry — He has certainly blessed us. You pour so much into your messages that we get excited just listening and waiting for the Rapture!! (And we wait, in anticipation, for the next message!)

With a Christian love and heartfelt thanks,
A & J
South Africa

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Van Impe,

I have been watching your weekly show on television for years now and have just started to get your newsletter. I wanted to let you know that my husband, who is saved, has also been watching your program lately and your words seem to literally reach out and grab him (as they do me also). We are both so blessed to be able to watch your program weekly. There have been times we have fallen; and yet I have rededicated myself to the Lord in recent weeks, partly due to the sharing of the Word from you both.

There are times I see my husband gripping the seat in front him in church and I constantly pray that he will recall your words, those of our pastor's, and leave his seat and rededicate himself to the Lord and be baptized in His holy name. He is such a wonderful man, husband, father, and son-in-law — a wonderful Christian....

I can only say THANK YOU so much for your moving program, for I KNOW it has touched him and led him to being under conviction. I pray that the next time I get a chance to write you and thank you that he will have been baptized and we both are following that straight and narrow path that we so try to do each and every day.

I just felt compelled to let you know how much you touch the lives of those fortunate enough to view your weekly program. We do not have cable television, but instead the antennae on the roof like days of old, and the converter box for the new version of television transmission it requires; it has answered my prayers that one of the few stations that we DO receive has your program on at EXACTLY the right time before we have to leave for church, and it is a wonderful precursor for our attendance at church; we feel so blessed by being able to get the station that carries your program. I just wanted you to know that, dear friends in Christ.

Please keep up the wonderful program, reaching through the television, touching lives, and bringing so many to Christ through your intense study and knowledge of the Word. We love you, and may God CONTINUE to bless you both.

God bless you and THANK YOU,
Patricia and Isaac

Dear Jack and Rexella:

I am a long-time watcher of your TV show and am a Christian. I enjoy your ministry and just wish to convey that recently a beloved pug dog of ours passed away. I dearly loved her; she was a very sweet, very playful little dog. I bought your video several years ago about animals in heaven. It has really been such a great comfort to know that I will see her again. I am so grateful for your ministry!

Thanks,
Tom

Dr. Van Impe,

Thank you very much for this week's program where you exposed Islam and the Muslim religion for what they are.

You did an excellent job comparing Christ with Muhammad, the Bible with the Koran, and Christianity with Islam.

I have never heard a preacher tell it so forcefully and so truthfully.

You are one of the last remaining voices to warn our governments and believers of the dangers lurking ahead.

And to put my money where my mouth is, I sent a $200 donation to help you continue with this wonderful and timely ministry.

May God continue to bless and use you.

Keep up the good work till the Lord Jesus comes back to take us to Himself.

Yours in Christ,
S.Z.

It is great to see how the Lord has used both of you in winning so many to the Lord. And you give God the glory and praise. You are a very special couple, so happy in the Lord.

Through your ministry in 2005, I got on my knees and prayed the sinner's prayer and wanted to make sure of my salvation. I was living with someone then; God spoke to my heart, never again. It was like a big burden was lifted off my back. I told the person I was living with how the Lord changed my life around; my life is to please the Lord from now on. My desire is to put God first.

Keep up the good work. God bless you both.

Love in Christ,
C.L.

First off, I would like to say hello to both of you and wish God's grace upon you.

I watch your program faithfully. I have to tell you, Jack, I never would've gotten so into the Bible if it weren't for Rexella and yourself. Listening to television late one night, I heard Jack speaking about what Rexella just read in the newspapers, and it caught my attention because here comes Jack quoting the Bible that just tied everything up with what his wife just read!

Needless to say, I was in utter amazement how it fit so perfectly.

I enjoy your show and wish it were an hour instead of just 30 minutes. It seems to go by so fast. Jack and Rexella, you are a blessing to watch. I did not even know who or what the tri-lateral commission or the Bilderbergs were until I heard you speaking about them on your program.

May God bless you and Rexella with happiness, health, and an everlasting love that you both look like you have for each other.

Sincerely yours and your sister in Christ,
J.K.Z.

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Jack Van Impe,

I had the pleasure of meeting you at Bronner's CHRISTmas Wonderland in Frankenmuth, MI, not long ago. I am an employee who shared with you, briefly, my life's testimony, and I promised you I would send you a letter. I apologize for taking so long.

I wanted to start from the beginning. I was born and raised in Germany in the Lutheran faith. Growing up, I always believed in God, but He felt so far away from me — way up there in heaven — that I never truly understood.

When I was 20 years old, I had a serious operation, and during my recovery I knew I had been given a second chance at life from the Lord. I remember that moment vividly because all of a sudden, the world looked so different to me. All of God's creation looked so good and beautiful.

I married my husband, an American soldier, a couple of years later. We realized we were both sinners and needed God's help. If only you knew how much He HAS helped us ever since!

We moved to the United States a few years later and were blessed with two children. We tried to be good citizens, but as you know, there is more to life than that. One Saturday night my mother-in-law, a driving force, visited with your Revelation Revealed tapes in her hand that she wanted us to watch. At the time, it sure looked like a lot of videos to watch! We all settled on the couch and got comfortable and she put in the first of your tapes.

It was all very overwhelming at first. It was very foreign too. I was scared of the things to come. After that, I realized that I did not want to be left behind, and so my husband and I began a journey.

We changed — things changed.

I praise God for the salvation He has given my family and me through His Son, Jesus. I never want to live another day without Him, not after knowing what true life is. I was fortunate to have God's hand in my life, bringing my husband and me together and eventually finding salvation. The family I had to leave behind in Germany are not so fortunate. The culture is very different over there and my heart cries out to God for these lost sheep. May I have your agreement in prayer for my family's salvation? This would be deeply appreciated.

I wish you the best in continuing your ministry to bring in the lost. May God bless all you say and do.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
G.M.

My Dear Friends,

You both touch my life and my heart with each weekly letter you send out. I am alone and disabled. But just having your letter and your programs has given me encouragement to get up each day and seek my purpose in this world. I come in contact with very few people and this has really opened my eyes and heart. I am unable to afford your Bible, but I am saving the money so hopefully soon I can purchase it. I have gained so much knowledge in hearing your programs and feel as if I am a small part of a much larger purpose. I do not feel as alone anymore. I miscarried my first pregnancy and mourned that loss. A year after that, I became pregnant and gave birth to a healthy son. He died in a car accident at 21 years old. That occurred 10 years ago. Your comments about unborn children caught my attention. I know now that they are both together with Jesus, safe in His arms. Your words lifted a burden from me I really did not realize I was carrying in my heart. Thank you for your encouragement, prayers, and love of our Lord that just flows from you both. I can't wait for next week's letter.

J.M.

Praise God!!! He has someone that still teaches the WORD!!!

We view you on satellite TV and record it since we aren't awake at 1 a.m. We enjoy the program and have for many years. May God keep blessing you and yours.

Pray you ENOUGH,
The Carpenters
