THE RAPTURE, THE REVELATION,

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

PROPHETICAL SIGNS

Christ's return is described as the "blessed hope" in Titus 2:13: Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

The happiness of the greatest event in world history has to do with seeing Jesus. John said in Revelation 22:4, And they shall see his face. If this thought does not affect one's emotions positively, something is drastically wrong. The song often sung by believers should be the position of every child of God. This song declares: "Friends will be there I have loved long ago; joy like a river around me will flow. Yet just a smile from my Saviour, I know, will through the ages be glory for me." Amen. Even so, come quickly, Lord Jesus.

The Rapture

Multitudes today are unaware of the fact that there are two stages or phases within the process of the Second Coming — the Rapture and the Revelation — and that these events are separated by a seven-year period of time. I believe that the Rapture is the next occurrence on God's calendar. This Rapture is the literal, visible, and bodily return of Christ in the heavens — Acts 1:9-11.

Has Christ already returned?

Some cultists declare that He came in 1914 or 1918 as an invisible spirit. This is nonsense! The Bible declares that He shall return as He left. A person can easily know how He be taken bodily to meet Him in the clouds. Yes, one day soon, the people of God are going to disappear from the earth in a blaze of glory.

As a new Christian, I painted a message on the glove compartment of my automobile. It said, "The driver of this car is awaiting the return of Christ. At His coming, Christians will disappear bodily from the earth. Should I suddenly vanish, take over the steering wheel!" I can still remember the look on the faces of hitchhikers as they read my startling message. Some of them declared, "Buddy, the next corner is as far as I go!" Yes, the unsaved world has great difficulty accepting the glorious teaching of the Rapture.

"I've found my first contradiction in the Bible! How can Christ bring the dead with Him (vs. 14) and come after the dead (vs. 16)?" There are no contradictions in the Word of God. Instead, it is the finite, limited intellect of human beings that cannot grasp the infinite, unlimited mind of the omniscient God. If one is led by the Holy Spirit and burns the midnight oil in study under His direction, the so-called contradictions immediately fade into obscurity.

Christ can bring the dead with Him in verse 14 and come after the dead in verse 16. Here is the solution: When a believer dies, his spirit and soul go into the presence of God, but his body goes into the grave. To be absent from the body [is] to be present left by studying Luke 24:39. Christ, in His new, resurrected body, said, Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

This soul, absent from the body, is with Christ until the great day when body, soul, and spirit are reunited at the coming of Jesus.

He adds in verse 41, Have ye here any meat? The disciples gave Christ a piece of broiled fish and honeycomb which He took and ate before them (vss. 42-43). The risen Savior had a body of flesh and bones — a body that could be seen, touched, and fed. This same Christ, in the same body, shall come "in like manner" from heaven. When He returns in the heavens, all believers, dead and living, will also

The Christian, on the other hand, accepts by faith the declarations of the Word of God concerning this glorious subject. First Thessalonians 4:16-18 states, For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Verse 14 declares that when Christ comes at the time of the Rapture, He will bring those who sleep (the dead) with Him. At this point, someone cries, with the Lord (2 Corinthians 5:8). This soul, absent from the body, is with Christ until the great day when body, soul, and spirit are reunited at the coming of Jesus. So, Christ brings the dead (the soul and spirit) with Him in verse 14 to come after the dead (the body) in verse 16. When "the dead rise first," it is the body — only the body — that comes out of the grave to be reunited with the soul and spirit brought to the body from heaven. This does away with the unscriptural teaching of "soul sleep."

The next point is of extreme importance. If the Lord comes to receive the bodies of the dead in Christ, will He leave the bodies of the living in Christ behind? If this were the case, the wisest thing to do at the sound of the trumpet would be to commit suicide. This, however, is not the case, for the Bible declares, the dead in Christ shall rise first: then, we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [the dead] in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Thus, we see that the Rapture is a bodily resurrection for the dead and living who are in Christ, or who are born-again.

The entire occurrence is going to take place in half a blink: Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep [be dead], but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible [the dead] must put on incorruption, and this mortal [the living] must put on immortality (1 Corinthians 15:51-53). One scientific company has calculated the twinkling of an eye to be approximately 11/100 of a second. In this moment of time, we take upon ourselves immortality, and are transformed to be like Jesus. First John 3:2 reports: When [we see Jesus] we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. Again, Philippians 3:20-21 verifies the fact that our bodies will be changed as we enter into God's presence in whirlwind style. These verses tell us that our citizenship is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Saviour ... who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body.

There are those who say, "I don't believe in the Rapture, because the word cannot be found in the Bible." The word "Bible" cannot be found in the Bible either, but this does not disprove the Book's existence. Terms are coined to portray the experiences they picture, and the word "rapture" comes from the Latin word rapio, rapere, which means "a snatching away." The passages above offer proof enough that the Bible teaches a snatching away. Thus, since God tells us that there shall be a snatching away, and since rapio translated from Latin to English means "a snatching away," only the willfully ignorant will reject such a clear-cut term to describe the first phase of the second coming of Christ.

The Revelation

The second phase of the second coming, described as "the Revelation," will take place seven years after the Rapture. Again, the term "revelation" is a coined word, picturing the truth it depicts. "Revelation" comes from the word "revealing." When Christ returns to earth, He will reveal himself to all the inhabitants of the globe. Hence, this event is called "the Revelation," or "revealing of Christ." Why quibble about labels when they so beautifully describe the doctrinal truths presented?

Scripturally, Revelation 4:1 describes phase one of the return of Christ, while Revelation 19:11 depicts phase two. Fix these two chapters firmly in your mind, and prophecy will become a stabilized blessing in your life. The "come up hither" of Revelation 4:1 is the Rapture, the meeting in the air. The appearance of the white horse rider and His armies in Revelation 19:11 is the revelation of Jesus Christ. Chapter 4 removes the believer from the judgments described in chapters 6-18, while chapter 19 restores him to his earthly sojourn after the judgments are completed. Chapter 4, depicting the Rapture, occurs before the seven years of Tribulation described in chapters 6-18, and chapter 19 describes the return of the King and His people, after the horrendous catastrophes of chapters 6-18 occur. We know this to be true because the Book of Revelation is written chronologically, with the Tribulation Hour taking place in chapters 6-18. Four precedes six, and 19 follows 18. It's just that simple. The Church is removed in chapter 4, and the Tribulation follows in chapters 6-18. Then the saints return at the conclusion of the Tribulation Hour in chapter 19.

In addition, Revelation 3:10 states, Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from [not through (preservation) but from (the Greek — ek — OUT of)] the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. This will be the world's most terrifying hour. All the wars of the past will look like Sunday school picnics in comparison. Read the following passages for an overview of this time: Jeremiah 30:7; Daniel 12:1; Joel 2:1-2; Matthew 24:21; Isaiah 66:15; Joel 2:3; Zephaniah 1:18; Zechariah 14:12; Revelation 8:7; and Revelation 9:18).

The Tribulation Hour lies just ahead for the human race. The saved will be removed before it begins. They are described as taken in Revelation 4:1, and they experience the judgment seat of Christ before the chapter ends. In fact, we find them placing crowns (their rewards) at the feet of the Savior in verses 10 and 11. This is proof that the saved are safe and secure when the judgments begin in chapter 6. Then, when the blitzkrieg ends in chapter 18, the saved return with Christ as He appears to the inhabitants of the earth and becomes their King. Read Revelation 9:11-16 for a glimpse of the momentous event.

This is the revealing of Christ to the nations. At His revelation, every eye will see His glory. Behold he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him (Revelation 1:7). The armies following Him from heaven to earth are the saints who were removed from earth in Revelation 4:1. They were evacuated before the great holocaust began. They are the same crowd mentioned in Jude, verse 14: Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of His saints. The Hebrews and Greeks had no terminology to describe millions, billions, trillions, quadrillions, etc. They simply said, “ten thousands.” Thus, the innumerable company of saints following the Lord to earth is the redeemed.

The Significance of Prophetic Signs

What relationship exists between the Rapture, the Revelation, and prophetic signs? Where do they fit into the schedule of events described in God’s Word? Many think the signs point to phase one, the Rapture, because they identify the snatching away as the second coming of Christ in their minds. Doctrinally speaking, this is not so. The actual second coming of Christ is the second phase, the Revelation, or the revealing of Christ to the inhabitants of earth. Since He came to earth at His first advent, He must come to earth at His second advent. The Rapture is not Christ’s appearance upon earth, but a meeting in the heavens — an intermediary evacuation of believers from earth before the storm. Seven years later, Christ will come to earth, touching down on the Mount of Olives (Zechariah 14:4).

The prophetic signs, then, point to Christ’s return to earth with His saints at the close of the Tribulation Hour — not to the Rapture. Can I prove my statements? Yes! Take two Bibles and place them side by side. Open one to Revelation 6, where the signs begin to be fulfilled. Then open the other to Matthew 24, Mark 13, and Luke 17 or 21, where Christ’s prophetic predictions are recorded. The inescapable conclusion is that the signs are identical! Now get this. The Church is taken in Revelation 4, and the signs take place two chapters later. The signs of Revelation 6 are identical to the predictions of Christ in the four Gospels, proving that the signs Jesus gave point to His revelation, the second phase of the second coming. Even if there were not a sign yet in existence, we believers could be called home any moment. This is true because each of the signs could occur during the seven-year period following the believers’ departure. Remember, the signs point to Christ’s second coming to earth (Revelation 19).

Now, the reason I believe we may go home at any moment is that Jesus said, When ye shall see all these things [signs — not one, not two, but all the signs occurring simultaneously, then] know that it is near; even at the doors (Matthew 24:33). What is near when a person sees all the signs occurring? Christ’s return to earth, the Revelation, phase two. When this event takes place, we Christians will return with Him. All the signs pointing to the return of Christ with His saints — the return of the King with His armies — are already in their initiatory or beginning stages. The signs say that we are coming back with the Lord soon. How can this be, as long as we are still present on earth? There is but one logical conclusion. We must be removed very soon via phase one, the Rapture, in order to return with Christ, via phase two, the Revelation. 🌿

Thus, the innumerable company of saints following the Lord to earth is the redeemed.

Baffled, Bewildered, Befuddled

Searching for security in a world without meaning

Take a walk down Main Street in your hometown, or visit the local shopping mall. Look at those around you, and study the faces in the crowds coming out of sports arenas or entertainment auditoriums. Notice how few seem to be really enjoying themselves, or laughing, genuinely having a good time.

Even if they put up a jovial front with those around them, watch how soon the laughter dies and the smiles fade when they are alone again and confront the reality of daily living. For too many individuals, the world seems to be a grim and joyless place.

My husband, Jack, and I hear from so many people each week, and often they say, “I can’t stand to watch the TV news anymore. Everything that’s on is bad or ugly. The way the world is going is frightening and depressing. The more I see and hear, the more baffled, bewildered, and befuddled I get!”

A good many of these folks go on to say, “We just couldn’t make it through the week without seeing the ‘Jack Van Impe Presents’ telecast. It’s the only good news we hear. You always have a message of hope — that God is still in control!”

What does it all mean?

Baffled, according to the dictionary, means “confused, puzzled, frustrated.” Bewildered speaks of losing one’s bearings, being perplexed and overwhelmed by the complexity and the multitude of considerations. Befuddled means to muddle about, virtually stupefied, unable to cope with the complications.

Have you ever had feelings like these?

Certainly there seem to be more concerns and problems in the world today than ever before in human history. Perhaps many of them were there but we just didn’t know about all of them. Today’s communications technology makes us aware of conflicts and trouble going on in every part of the world.

One thing we do know is that Jesus didn’t say that if we saw wars or famines or pestilences or persecutions

His coming is near. In Matthew 23:33, He said, when ye shall see ALL these things, know that it is near, even at the doors (emphasis mine). It seems to me that all the signs are now present!

Lately I've been asking the people I meet in my weekly activities about what issues they are concerned about, and I feel sure that what they've told me probably includes the same things that trouble you. I believe the world once again has plunged to the low point of being as it was in the days of Noah, when the earth was totally corrupt and filled with violence. So surely this means that it's time to look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh (Luke 21:28).

“He said, when ye shall see ALL these things, know that it is near, even at the doors....”

When and where will terrorists strike again?

The number one thing on people's minds, I think, is the threat of international terrorism. The 9/11 attacks certainly changed the outlook of all Americans. And the later terrorist attacks in England and other European countries have made millions of other people realize that the whole world is vulnerable. Most thinking people now realize that it's not a question of if there will be major terrorist attacks again, but when!

Another concern is the growing threat of nuclear war. It seems everyone is talking about nuclear proliferation involving more countries, like North Korea and Iran. And of course, huge nations like India, China, and Russia are flexing their muscles and saying, “You can't tell us what to do.” So there are opportunities for confrontation on every corner. There's no peace in the world at all.

In fact, there have been more wars in the twentieth century than in all prior centuries put together. In the last 2,000 years, it's constantly been nation against nation, kingdom against kingdom. As a result, millions have died from warfare, including genocide — the systematic slaughter of entire ethnic groups, as well as from starvation and famines. But the frightening part today is that more nations have nuclear weapons that could wipe out entire continents!

Is the world getting too warm?

There is also a growing concern around the world about global warming. Many scientists believe that the impact of mankind's pollution is upsetting the delicate balance of nature. Our oceans and waterways are becoming fouled, and the very atmosphere is being damaged. The resulting increases in average temperatures, say the experts, might already be affecting weather patterns, producing record numbers of violent storms like typhoons, hurricanes, and tsunamis. They say the warming trend ultimately could kill most marine life, destroy agricultural food production, and eventually melt the remaining glaciers and ice packs, putting more low-lying land under water. Not everyone agrees with these dire predictions, but while the debate rages on, more and more people are becoming fearful of what the future holds.

Are sickness and disease getting worse?

In addition to these major concerns, there is heightened awareness of the expansion of both new and old diseases. Cancer, heart disease, mental disorders, Alzheimer's disease, and other deadly maladies affect millions. In America, the cost of medical care is so great that even major corporations are saying they cannot afford to provide health insurance for employees. Often the elderly have to choose between buying food or the prescription drugs that help keep them alive!

Worldwide, diseases once thought to be eradicated are coming back with a vengeance, especially in poverty-stricken areas where there is poor nutrition and virtually no hygiene. AIDS and HIV-related disease have literally decimated the populations of many African nations, producing millions of AIDS orphans.

Add to these fears the problems of animal disorders like Mad Cow disease and avian (or bird) flu that could threaten food supplies and perhaps even pose the threat of infecting humans.

World health experts have no answers, no workable plans to conquer the threatened pandemics of killer diseases. No wonder there is a growing universal lack of confidence.

The curse of pharmakeia

Perhaps these things help explain why so many have turned to drugs and alcohol in their desperate attempts to cope with such grim problems in their world. It seems obvious that the war against drugs is over — and we lost! Drug trafficking appears to be almost unrestrained, not only in the United States but worldwide. And the abuse is not limited to illegal drugs, but also to over-the-counter medications and prescription drugs as well. The battle against drug abuse of all kinds seems almost hopeless. In 2003, there were 1.74 million arrests for illegal drug abuse in the U.S.!

The Bible refers specifically to this problem in Revelation and Galatians using the Greek word pharmakeia, which is the source word for our term, pharmacy. Sometimes the word has been mistranslated as “sorcery” or “witchcraft,” but many biblical scholars, including my husband, believe the Scriptures are actually referring to drugs and drug abuse!

The number one drug problem — or substance abuse — in America is alcohol! Over 50 million Americans are dependent on alcohol — 500,000 of them between the ages of 9 and 12! Our citizens spend $90 billion a year on booze — and $5.5 billion of it is spent by students. Alcohol is involved in half of all U.S. driving fatalities, 40 percent of all industrial fatalities, and 47 percent of industrial injuries.

The problem certainly is not isolated to America. There are similar — or worse — statistics for virtually any country in the world. Throughout Europe, alcoholic beverages are served freely to children, and in certain areas in Russia, alcoholism has helped to produce extremely high unemployment.

“Without natural affection” — why?

Space does not permit me to list all the other issues that trouble people today — things like the decay of morality, virtue, and values that has produced unprecedented sexual promiscuity, and the alarming rise of physical and sexual abuse against children, women, even animals! Hardly a week goes by without a major news report of a father destroying his whole family, or a mother maiming or killing her children — a direct fulfillment of the prophetic sign that people will be “without natural affection” (2 Timothy 3:3). Spousal abuse is epidemic. There are 50,000 reports of suspected child abuse or neglect every week in America. And how often do you read news accounts or see TV reports of pets or livestock being tortured, abused, and killed?

No wonder so many can’t stand to read the newspaper or watch the evening news! No wonder people are baffled, bewildered, and befuddled by the goings on in their neighborhood, their city, their world. How can one understand, rationalize, or explain what is happening? How can one deal with the resulting confusion, perplexity, anger, and frustration, or cope with the endless barrage of bad news and challenges that defy human solution?

Has anyone you know tried to “end it all”?

Sadly, suicide is on the rise — it is the 11th leading cause of death in the U.S. Suicide deaths outnumber homicide deaths by a five-to-three margin, numbering 29,350 in the year 2000. And among children, adolescents, and young adults, the suicide rate is escalating. Suicide was the third leading cause of death of youngsters in both the 10-14 and 15-24 age ranges. And older adults, who comprise 13 percent of the U.S. population, account for 18 percent of the suicide deaths! So suicide knows no age boundaries, striking victims from childhood to age 85.

These statistics from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services are alarming. But America is not the only nation with this problem. Suicide rates are soaring around the world. In fact, Japan is the number one country in the world for total suicides.

So we can see that people around the world are in deep despair, feeling baffled, “Politicians can seldom deliver on their promises of peace. But God is all powerful. And He is never baffled, bewildered, or befuddled!”

“Thank you for building us up in the faith, Jude 20–21. I see Christ in both of you. I know the Lord is rejoicing and singing because of your love for Him and for proclaiming His Word to the world.”

bewildered, befuddled ... and totally hopeless. Feeling that life is not worth living, too frightened to face the future, they destroy themselves. How tragic! How my heart aches for those whose pain and desolation sweeps them to utter destruction.

Is there no hope for the world and its people?

Oh, yes! There is hope and healing and deliverance! This is my Father's world, and He is still in control. Man's wisdom may fail. Scholars and scientists may admit defeat. Politicians can seldom deliver on their promises of peace. But God is all powerful. And He is never baffled, bewildered, or befuddled!

God has given us His wisdom and direction — His mind — on every subject in His Word, the Holy Bible. He gave us the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:3-17) as guidelines for happiness and success. The commandments were not to restrict us or make us unhappy, but to keep us from things that could hurt us.

Then, Jesus told us not to fear when we saw today's world conditions coming to pass. Be not troubled!...Be not terrified!...Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid (Matthew 24:6, Luke 21:9, John 14:27).

We know that human agencies and alliances can never solve the problems of the world. They never get it quite right. For example, on the front of the United Nations building in New York City is a scriptural quotation from Isaiah 2:4:

...they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. The implication is that this is what the U.N. will accomplish.

There's just one problem — they left out God. In the previous verses (see 2:2-3), Isaiah says these things will happen “in the last days” when people begin to say, “Come, let us go up to the house of God— He will teach us His ways, and we will walk in His paths.”

The Word of God is quite specific that the answers mankind is seeking will not come from the U.N., the European Union, or any other earthly alliance. Acts 4:12 says, Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

Yet, we can clearly see where the world is headed. Paul-Henri Spaak, the founder of the European Common Market and the general secretary of NATO, emphatically declared in a speech:

“We don't want another committee — we already have enough of them. What we want is a man of such stature that he be capable to gain the alliance of peace — the politics to pull us out of the economic chaos into which we are sinking. Send us this man, and be he god or the devil, we will welcome him!”

This is the baffled, bewildered, befuddled mindset that will usher in the Antichrist. For the day will come — and soon — when such a man will emerge out of the European Union and bewitch the political leaders of the world. He will announce a grand scheme for universal peace and prosperity that the world's leaders will agree to, and draw up a seven-year contract. All nations — even Israel — will sign it. But in the middle of the peace, after three and a half years, everything falls apart and deadly conflicts break out again, culminating in the prophetic battle of Armageddon, in Israel's Valley of Megiddo.

Then, thank the Lord, Jesus does come back and stops all the warfare before mankind destroys the whole world and all its inhabitants.

It's all spelled out for us in the Word of God, the Holy Bible. Everything we need to know is there so we can do all God wants us to do. As we rely on the Word and seek God in prayer every day of our lives, we can live in calm assurance. As we keep our attention focused on Him, we can have peace in the midst of the storm.

How can you overcome the desperate feelings of being baffled, bewildered, and befuddled in today's world? George Mueller wrote, “The beginning of anxiety is the end of faith; the beginning of faith and trust is the end of anxiety.”

In the remaining time just before Christ's return, we will explore together how we can overcome the obstacles and challenges of modern life that can keep you from living in quiet confidence and strength. As we discover how to deal victoriously with the world's complications and confusions, you will be able to affirm, in the words of an old, old Gospel song —

*Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand,
But I know Who holds the future,
And I know Who holds my hand.* 🌟

Letters We Love

I am glad that you are at least one truthful voice "crying in the wilderness" to unveil the hypocrisy, lies, deceit, and much more of the destructive Obama mess. My consolation is that I have asked God to come into my heart, and, secondly, that it is all prophesied in the Bible. You greatly help me in my steadfastness. Thank you for defending Christians, Billy Graham, and the Bible. I agree with you, wholeheartedly.

—M.R.

Thank you so much for your electronic newsletters, video productions, and faithfulness over the years. You continue to be a great source of encouragement and information for where we are now in Bible prophecy. I reached my 61st birthday this past February and continue to thank God for you and His love for us all.

I thank Him so much that the best is yet to come when we step into His eternal glory and leave a fallen sin-sick world behind. God bless.

—D.J.

I have been watching you, Mr. and Mrs. Van Impe, for approximately three decades now and I cannot tell you how much you have helped me as well as the others I have told about you. One dear friend who started watching you was eased into salvation, redemption, and heaven because of your program being one of the tools God used to save her soul.

Keep doing all the wonderful and mighty works our Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are directing you to do. God bless you both and keep you...

God watch over you and keep you under His wing, because you tell it like it is and call names of those who are leading and deceiving people.

I pray for your safety.

I love you both and look forward to each and every word the Lord lays on your hearts. You are beautiful people inside and out.

—Y.A

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Just a note and a gift to you for use wherever you need it most. We really love you, Jack and Rexella, and we praise God daily for you and the work you are doing.

You led both Kathy and me back to the Lord and we will never stop thanking you.

We thank Jesus daily for you not backing down from preaching from God's Word as it is, and not pulling any punches.
We can't wait for your program to come on each Sunday. Thank you!

—C.C.

On January 2, 1993, I was watching your program in Thompson, Manitoba, Canada, and prayed with you to accept the Lord as my Savior at age 32. I just wanted to let you know and thank you, as I was reminded yesterday that I have been born-again for 20 years. I never did write to you but did receive many of your materials after that experience and they always encouraged me to continue in the faith.

Since 1993, I had been led to attend Bible school and acquired a B.Th., have been administrator in two Bible schools and churches, and pastored both full-time and itinerantly.

Again, thank you for your faithfulness to the call on your life.

—B.S.

My husband and I watch your show every week on our DVR and are so thrilled you are still preaching the Word, but I want to give you a little background about us and about knowing you.

Although we retired to South Carolina, we were Michiganders all of our lives until we moved here 13 years ago. In fact, we both remember you coming to speak in our areas. I grew up in Lapeer County and remember you coming to the Center Building when all the local churches closed for two weeks with the Van Impes coming. I remember the train song, and Rexella's beautiful voice.

I also want to tell you that I had never heard anyone preach on the Rapture, etc., as a child until you. One day after the service, I made sure of my salvation with my mother in our home. I am now 65 and the Lord has kept me in His service all of my life. My husband and I still work with the children at our church; in fact, I just finished 37 years of doing that.

My husband was not saved until he was 33, and he went to hear you after his salvation at the IMA building in Flint. The two of us met after that time, and we lived and served Him in Davison, Michigan.

Then last fall, we attended a senior camp at the Wilds in North Carolina where Rexella's brother was our speaker for three days. I was remembering how my mother listened to Christian radio all day long, and he and some others he spoke of were familiar to me, so I had to ask him, as it had been such a long time. Yes, it was like a reunion, although I had never met him before. Oh, how precious the Lord is and those who love Him!

The Lord certainly has been good to you and us too.

Love in Christ,

—J.F.

We are born-again Christians who left the Mormon Church about seven years ago. We were brought to Jesus after listening to your TV show for years.

Our son recently left the Mormon Church after a divorce. We haven't had a relationship with him for a long time because his wife didn't want that. Please pray that he will find that the real Church is made up of true believers in Christ who have a personal relationship with Him ... and that he will renew his association with us.

We are yearly contributors and plan to be as long as we are on earth. We love and appreciate you all. To God be the glory!

—G.B.

Blessings to you from our home and hearts. Thank you for following your calling. Thank you for caring enough about our families, our souls, our eternal home. We depend

I am a Roman Catholic, and I think you're a warrior for Christ — a good and godly man. Thank you for what you and Rexella do!

—K.R.

on you, and your faith keeps us grounded.

We are Catholics and often targets, but we don't feel that from you. You truly follow Christ's commandments to love. God bless you and keep you!

—S.F.

Thank you for telling the truth and staying with God's Word. I am a Catholic, and our priest never speaks about hell and the consequences of sin. Never speaks out on homosexuality. It is just never spoken of. They also never talk about what is happening in the world today. I have learned more from you than I ever learned from my church. I have a hunger to learn more, and I am reading many different books now, as well as the Bible. God bless you and Rexella for teaching the Truth.

—C.A.

Your animated presentations with dear Rexella truly inspire me and continue to enhance my Catholic faith. It is because of you that I have added another dimension to my beliefs.

—M.B.

We have been your Catholic partners for a long time, and it pains us greatly to see after so many good popes that we may now be looking this time at a false prophet. But the truth is the truth, and it must come out and must be told.

Please pray for so many Catholics who might be deceived by the twisted theology that will now come out of Rome. I fear so much, especially for fervent and well-meaning Christians who will be deceived and accept the lies. May God help us.

Keep up your good work of pointing people to Jesus and His wonderful kingdom. God bless. Love and prayers.

—J.N.

RUSSIAN OFFICIALS IN EGYPT TO DISCUSS ARMS DEAL

Israel National News reports: “The most senior Russian officials to visit Egypt in years will arrive Wednesday [11/13/13] to discuss weapons deals, further signaling Egypt’s shift in alliance from the US to Russia. Al Jazeera reports that the delegation includes Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov and Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu.

Their visit comes amid reports that Russian President Vladimir Putin will visit Egypt as well later this month, further solidifying the new alignment between Russia and Egypt.

The Russian Foreign Ministry issued a statement that the delegation would discuss ‘the full spectrum’ of ties between the two countries, including ‘military-technical cooperation.’

Talk of an Egyptian $15 billion dollar arms deal with Russia partially funded by Saudi Arabia, which similarly seems to be turning from the US to Russia, appears to be materializing in the visit. The deal reportedly would have Egypt purchase MiG-29 planes and other military equipment....” (I, in 1951, began warning America and Canada that Ezekiel 38:1-2 and 39:1-2 predicts that Armageddon would occur in the future under the cities named as Gog of Magog [Russia], as the Greeks called the Scythians who populated Russia. The other names Meshech [Moscow], Tubal [Tubalsk, Southwest of Siberia], where the famous U-2 pilot, Gary Powers, was shot down in 1960.

I also named the Islamic cities that would join Russia and China for the greatest war ever as predicted in Revelation 9:14-18 and fought in the ‘latter years and latter days’ — Ezekiel 38:8, 16.

One of the main Muslim nations was Egypt, the leader and King of the South [Daniel 11:40], and another nation was Persia, which changed its name to Iran in 1935. It’s about to happen. Jesus is about to return, for as He comes He stops those who are destroying the earth as well as one another — Revelation 11:18.)

MICHIGAN MUSLIMS PLOT ISLAMIC-LAW COURT

WND.com reports: “A leader in a front group for the movement that aims to turn the U.S. into an Islamic state is among the Muslims in the Detroit area talking about establishing religious courts that would grant women a divorce under Islamic law, or Sharia.

About 15 Muslim leaders — including Dawud Walid, executive director of the Council on American-Islamic Relations’ Michigan chapter — discussed the issue at a monthly gathering Sept. 25.

The discussion was prompted by a story in the Arab American News that described the difficulties that Muslim women experience when their husbands refuse to grant them a religious divorce, noted the blog Creeping Sharia.

The Arab American News article said many are forced to go ‘imam shopping’ and travel across the U.S. to find an imam willing to grant them an Islamic divorce...” (This is a beginning of the ‘No-go Zones’ Islam is creating in nations across the world, especially in the European Union. There they will ignore one’s national laws where they reside, and warn intruders to stay out of their law, making zones as they promote their brand of Sharia Law.)

BRUNEI ANNOUNCES TOUGH NEW CODE OF ISLAMIC LAW

BBC News reports: “The sultanate of Brunei has announced it will enforce a tough new Sharia law penal code.

The code — to apply only to Muslims — is expected to introduce death by stoning for adulterers and the severing of limbs for theft.

Brunei already adheres to a stronger form of Islamic law than neighbouring Malaysia and Indonesia, banning the sale and consumption of alcohol.

The new code, to be enforced in six months, will strengthen that policy.

Punishments could also include flogging for such crimes as consumption of alcohol or abortion, according to a copy of the code seen by news agency AFP.

Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, 67, who is one of the world’s wealthiest men, introduced the code, calling it ‘a part of the great history of our nation.’

The sultan had already made religious education compulsory for Muslim children and ordered businesses to close during Friday prayers....” (The world’s most dangerous days are just ahead as Islam sets up Sharia Law throughout the world. Their law puts to death daughters who have had premarital sex, homosexuals, apostates [their own citizens who criticize Muhammad or the Koran], and infidels — members of all other religions. God’s Judeo-Christian commandments forbid killing — Exodus 20:13.)

RAND PAUL CALLS FOR DEFENSE OF CHRISTIANS

WND.com reports: “Sen. Rand Paul, R-Ky., is leading an effort by politicians and human rights groups to push the United States government to make the fight against Christian persecution a policy priority, including increased pressure on Iran to free American pastor Saeed Abedini.

In a bipartisan move, 23 U.S. senators have sent President Obama a letter asking him to step up pressure on Iran to release Abedini, held for being a Christian since September 2012.

In a statement, the American Center for Law and Justice said the letter is further evidence of the Senate’s commitment to Abedini’s freedom.

‘Led by Sen. Ted Cruz, R-Texas, the letter calls Pastor Saeed’s transfer a potential ‘death sentence’ and urges President Obama to immediately speak out for his freedom. Now nearly a quarter of the U.S. Senate is urging action from the U.S. government on Pastor Saeed’s behalf,’ ACLJ said.

In a recent speech, Paul said he believes there’s an all-out war against Christianity, and he wants the U.S. government to focus on fighting against persecution....” (Thank God for Rand Paul who cares for and warns America of what’s coming while our Christian ministers are mute to the dangers to God’s People. These jelly-fish, spineless clergy members would rather have their rock bands and coffee clutches introducing their services since they are ‘lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God’ — 2 Timothy 3:4-5. Soon they’ll be sorry as Revelation 6:9 occurs in America and around the world: And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held ... and 20:4: And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.)
