Beware: False Prophets, Damnable Heresies, and Doctrines of Demons DVD (DBFV)

Beware:

FALSE PROPHETS DECEIVING CHRISTIANS TODAY!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

The Holy Spirit woke me at 4:30 in the morning — and I could do nothing but obey.

My doctors had warned me to stay in bed. I was recovering from successful surgery, but I endured four days of significant pain, and I had been ordered to submit to complete bed-rest.

But now — it was impossible.

With a jolt, I awakened to a revelation too critically important to be ignored. The Holy Spirit in that moment was burning into my heart and mind a message both powerful and urgent. It could not be delayed. What if further illness prevented me from sharing it with you, and with multitudes globally? Or what if those who have threatened my life finally succeeded in stopping or sidetracking my ministry, and preventing me from producing the video which — I knew instantly — must be produced.

No, this message must be communicated immediately.

So I rose from my sickbed, went into the studio with Rexella, and recorded a new video — a shocking message of warning — a message concerning the enormous compromise currently inundating Christianity:

BEWARE! False Prophets, Damnable Heresies, and Doctrines of Demons

Strong words, but true!

II Peter 2:1 speaks in these same powerful terms: “But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.”

Yes, beloved, this video had to be made — because false prophets, damnable heresies, and doctrines of demons are the final signs — the final dangers — facing Christianity in the 21st Century!

The warnings are clear, in the pages of Scripture. The Bible’s warning in I Timothy 4:1 cannot be misunderstood: In the latter days, ministers will betray the Lord Jesus Christ — why? They will believe lies. They will be taken in by the delusions and deceptions of apostates, antichrists, and super deceivers. They will give heed to “seducing spirits and doctrines of demons” (I Timothy 4:1).

This is no longer “prediction” — this is “present day”! This is happening now!

Look at the damning evidence. Astonishingly, major Bible translators have cut out 91 verses from our Holy Scriptures. Their reason: These verses claim that Christ is the Son of God. Why should this be a problem? Because such a claim might offend Muslims! It is almost beyond imagining, yet it is happening: The fundamental doctrinal points of the Christian faith have been excised from the Bible by these apostate antichrists — who claim to be God’s people!

It is nothing short of blasphemy ... and these blasphemers have eradicated these major Bible doctrines and more:

1. Christ’s Second Coming
2. Christ’s virgin birth
3. Salvation

4. The bodily resurrection of our Lord
5. The Deity of Christ
6. The sacrificial blood atonement

But this outrage will not lie hidden for long. In our new video, I expose these Judas Iscariots — not by inference, not by suggestion, but by name. I also answer the obvious question: Have they committed the unpardonable sin against Christ and the Holy Spirit? What does the Word of God say? Please request this video and you will soon know the answer!

The new BEWARE video also answers these compelling questions of the hour:

- » Exactly how are these new Bible translations undermining and destroying the message of Christianity?
- » How can you be sure whether your own church is apostate or not? What are the biblical guidelines? What are the telltale signs?
- » If you realize that your church is apostate, what should you do? What is the appropriate response? What does the Bible say?
- » Is it right to judge false prophets? How can we know for sure?
- » Who is actually driving the false prophecy so rampant in the Church today? Where are these false prophets to be found?
- » Who is advancing the unholy mixture of Christianity and Islam known as “Chrislam”?
- » And more!

With radical Islam on the march, and diabolical Chrislam deceiving more and more Christians, I have studied the “holy book” of Islam, the Koran. I can tell you that in seven separate places, the Koran threatens eternal hell for anyone who claims that Jesus is the Son of God. I am aghast that anyone could claim “common ground” between Christianity and Islam — yet many are doing exactly this. They are deluded. They are deceivers. They are lost!

There is no question: The world must be warned. It is absolutely essential that the truth be told — or millions will be lured into a Christless eternity! This is why Rexella and I are so passionately committed to sounding the alarm. And this is why I ask you with such holy boldness to help me continue producing and broadcasting our programs. This is for your sake, and for the sake of multitudes the world over!

Please request our new video today. Why would the Holy Spirit awaken me at 4:30 in the morning — unless you needed the message of BEWARE! Take action today! Thank you! 🙏

PROFESSORS OR POSSESSORS?

This most important truth I proclaimed in 1,020 crusades, where thousands were converted. Today's Christianity, including numerous Christian colleges, such as Moody Bible Institute and Cornerstone University, which were started and governed by anti-liquor leaders, has violated and vetoed many of the sins mentioned in this article to their spiritual detriment, and perhaps their soul's salvation.

Christianity is in dire need of revival. Sin is rampant throughout the entire Church of Jesus Christ, and instead of bowing our heads in shame and sorrow and clothing ourselves in sackcloth and ruins as Old Testament saints did, we ignore or excuse the immoralities and improprieties as normal behavior because we are saved by grace. Thus, we excuse the vilest of sins as mere weaknesses of the flesh, and unconcernedly believe that because we are under grace rather than under Law, we have a special dispensation to practice sin. If one disagrees with such reasoning, he's labeled a legalist.

We Must Be Careful That Our Grace Message Does Not Produce Disgrace

Much lopsided, unscriptural teaching abounds in our world because the devil is the instigator of confusion. He will influence a sincere Christian to become unbalanced along one doctrinal line. The believer's constant harping about his pet theory, finding every verse to support it and ignoring the complete revelation on the particular subject, causes chaos. One will become enamored over the teaching of "predestination" to the point of becoming bitter over all "whosoever will" texts. Another will constantly talk "repentance" to the exclusion of the "grace of God." Even so, multitudes will talk "grace" until the subject of "works" is considered a dirty word among enlightened "grace advocates."

Martin Luther was so dogmatic about "grace" as presented in the Book of Romans that he bitterly lambasted the "works" emphasis found in the Book of James.

Let's be consistent and believe all of God's Word. It fits together beautifully when one studies it with an unprejudiced mind. Don't ever build a doctrine on one verse or one book of the Bible. It leads to false doctrine. Combine all of God's revelation together before determining the truth on any subject. No prophecy of the scripture is of any private [single or solo] interpretation (II Peter 1:20). One can prove anything by building on the foundation of one verse. Study the text, then the context, and then trace the subject throughout the entire Bible to arrive at the truth. A text out of context becomes a pretext.

When one takes all of God's Word into account concerning "grace" and "good works," he concludes that salvation is "faith plus nothing." It is all God, and nothing man does saves or keeps him saved. Salvation is by "grace," offered freely through Christ's sacrifice, and is received by faith, apart from works. However, the completed teaching is that this salvation which is "Christ in you," manifests the "good works" that the holy nature of Christ within produces (Ephesians 2:8-10).

James discusses this in chapter 2:14-20. The outflow of works is a sign that an inward faith is operative. You say, "I believe, I believe, and that settles it." It does if this genuine belief produces love, holiness, and good works. However, a faith that is void of works is phony. James continues in verse 19: The demons also believe, and tremble. The demons who eventually fill hell believe, but never produce righteous acts or good works. Why? They make an intellectual assent to facts rather than have an experience that partakes of God's nature. Friends, if this is all you have, you will join the myriads of demons in the eternal Lake of Fire. If one lives like the devil, acts like the devil, talks like the devil, and runs with the devil, he will end up with the devil. When one truly believes, he will be “a new creature” in Christ Jesus, and the results will be holiness and good works.

Professors and Possessors

With the thought in mind that genuine Christianity produces good fruit, let's consider two texts. The one depicts a professor of religion, the other a possessor of Christ. One has to do with an intellectual acceptance of facts that does not save the soul, even though one can quote every verse on grace in the Bible. The other depicts a heart experience that manifests the fruit of salvation. Jesus describes both.

Please notice that in the first reference, Matthew 7:1, Christ says, Judge not, that ye be not judged. I have heard this text misconstrued, misinterpreted, and misappropriated often. Hear me. This verse refers to the judging of one's motives in Christian service. For instance, it is wrong to say, “Oh, she sings to be seen of men.” This type of judgment is wrong because no one knows the motives of another. Thus, we are not to judge others regarding motives.

If people sin, they are to be judged, for Christ says in verse 16, Ye shall know them by their fruits. The Savior then dogmatically tells us exactly what their rotted fruits produce in verses 22-23. Hear Him: Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And I then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

This is shocking. Christ is talking about ministers who preached His Word. Wait! He is talking about a specialized group who manifest the sign gifts of Romans 7 and I Corinthians 12-14. In spite of their masterful expositions of Scripture and their miraculous exorcisms and healings, they are forever lost because Christ says, “I NEVER—get it—

NEVER—NEVER—knew you.”

Why? They were workers of iniquity. They lived in sin and wallowed in the mire of depravity while ministering the Word of God.

On the other hand, Christ depicts those who have been incontrovertibly saved by grace, saying in John 10:27, My sheep hear my voice, and I KNOW THEM AND THEY FOLLOW ME (emphasis mine).

To the one crowd of reverends and Christian workers, possessing even sign gifts, Christ says, “I NEVER KNEW YOU, YOU WORKERS OF INIQUITY.”

To the other group He declares, “I KNOW MY SHEEP BECAUSE THEY FOLLOW ME.”

To the wolves in sheep's clothing (Matthew 7:15), Christ says, Depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Matthew 7:23).

To the sheep He says, I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand (John 10:28).

WHERE DO YOU STAND?

Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith (II Corinthians 13:5).

May I plead with you for honesty as you study the following truths? Eternity is a long time to either be saved or lost.

Lost Preachers and Miracle-Workers

Matthew 10:1-8 records Christ's calling of 12 men to preach. In this text, Judas Iscariot was called to preach. Question: Did he preach? Did he heal? Did he perform miracles? The answer is yes! Luke 9 gives the names of the 12, and verse 6 states, And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere. Judas usually went on preaching and healing missions with Matthew who wrote the first Gospel. However, even Matthew, a real saint, was deceived by Judas. You see, this hypocrite had mastered the theological jargon of the hour so beautifully that everyone who heard him said, “If any man has the old-time religion, he does!”

The question arises: Was Judas a saved man who lost what he had, or was and is it possible to teach, preach, witness, and heal the sick without knowing the Lord? Let's see.

In John 6:64, Jesus said, But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. Christ knew that Judas was a fake from day one. That's why Christ added, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? [or diabolos, “devil in the flesh”] (John 6:70).

Again, consider John 12:5-6. A woman anointed the feet of Jesus with perfume and dried them with her hair. Judas, seeing the act, said, Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare [stole] what was put therein. Thus, Judas was a thief, a crook, and a scoundrel throughout his entire ministry. Since no practicing thief can enter heaven (see I Corinthians 6:10), it's obvious that Judas was a lost preacher, healer, and miracle-worker.

If that sounds far-fetched, study I John 2:19 about antichrists in the ministry. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. Let's dissect the verse. “They went out from us,” were ordained and approved by us, “but they were not of us ... if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out [or turned their backs on us] that it might be made manifest that they were not all of us.”

Don't let mighty signs and wonders deceive you. Satan can counterfeit everything but the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22). Here is proof.

II Corinthians 11:13-15: For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if HIS MINISTERS also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness (emphasis mine). This is happening in abundance today!

Proof of the New Birth

How, in a day of confusion, can one know who and what is genuine? There are two C's that prove a man is born again, and one of the two must always be operational.

The first is the changed life. The new birth is not just a new label, it is a new life! When God comes into one's body, there must be a change — and that is what happens at salvation. II Peter 1:4 says that we become partakers of the divine nature. No one can receive God's nature and not be different. Read also Romans 6:4; Romans 10:10; II Corinthians 5:17; and I John 5:4. This change means we no longer are what we were.

Watch the two tenses in the English language. Romans 6:17: But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you (emphasis mine).

I Corinthians 6:9-11: Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators [the sex sin between the unmarried], nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed (emphasis mine).

Many of the Corinthians had been such sinners, but they were changed. They no longer were the vilest of the vile. They did not remain in adultery, did not continue the practice of homosexuality, and did not continue to be alcoholics. That is what they were.

Friend, when one is saved, he no longer is what he was. If one still is what he was, he ain't! (That's poor grammar, but good theology!) That's why Paul sums it up masterfully and correctly in I Timothy 1:12 by saying, I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy.

Heaven is for those whose lives have been transformed by the power of God, because they became partakers of His holy nature through the new birth experience. This is not to say that they can never do wrong, for if we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us (I John 1:8). Instead, it simply means that a truly born-again Christian cannot live in sin, love sin, enjoy sin, and practice sin endlessly. He that committeth [or, in the Greek, practiceth] sin is of the devil (I John 3:8).

One who is born of God becomes a partaker of God's nature. The result is a changed life. Thus, because God is living within the Christian, [he] doth not commit [practice] sin; for his seed [God's nature] remaineth in him: and he cannot [practice] sin, because he is born of God (I John 3:9). So when a Christian sins, he can expect to hear from heaven.

Spiritual Spanking

In this light, let's consider the second "C," the chastised life. Can a believer do wrong, slip, or sin? Of course, but a sinning Christian becomes the most miserable person upon earth, because God chastises him until he returns to the pathway of holy living which he originally experienced.

God's chastening, or spiritual spanking, is discussed in Hebrews 12:5–11. Verse 10 points out that our Heavenly Father administers chastisement "that we might be partakers of his holiness." If holy living is not part of one's Christian experience, or if repeated chastisement is not encountered in order to drive the backslider to return to his original experience, such a person did not have a genuine salvation experience. Hear God again: But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards [illegitimate children; false professors], and not sons (Hebrews 12:8). Not sons? NOT SONS! God wants all of His children to remain the "new creations" that they were when He saved them (II Corinthians 5:17). When they fail, He will lovingly discipline His own to bring them back.

So desirous is God of holiness within His family that He has programmed a holy walk for every one of His children.

(A) In eternity past, He chose us to be holy. According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love (Ephesians 1:4).

(B) Presently, He calls us to the goal of holiness that was planned for us before the foundation of the world. [God] saved us, and called us with an holy calling (II Timothy 1:9). Again, in I Thessalonians 4:7 we find that God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

(C) Should we step out of line spiritually, leaving the plan and calling of God, He chastises or spansks us in order that we may return to His plan (Hebrews 12:10).

Do you see the three steps? We are chosen, called, and chastised unto holiness. Without these proofs, one is lost.

Are YOU walking as Christ walked? Is chastisement a reality when you walk out of the Lord's will? Herein lies the verification of salvation and true Christianity. The evidence is not in knowing theological truth or in quoting the creeds and clichés of the Christian faith. Instead, the evidence is holiness unto the Lord.

Those who argue in favor of liquor, drugs, tobacco, pornographic magazines, R- and X-rated movies, suggestive music, premarital sex, extramarital flings, and every ungodly pleasure in existence prove that they have experienced little, if any, of the holiness that true salvation produces. Get the real evidence — before it is eternally too late!

Does God really expect holiness within His family?

Search the Scriptures:

Ye shall be holy; for I am holy (Leviticus 11:44). For thou art an holy people, The redeemed of the Lord (Isaiah 62:12). Even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness (Romans 6:19).

In Colossians 1:22, we find that Christ wants to present us holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight [at His coming]. Indeed, Christians are to follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord (Hebrews 12:14). There is no hedging with respect to God's command: Be ye holy; for I am holy (1 Peter 1:16).

The evidence has been presented. Christianity is "Christ in you." When one partakes of His divine, holy nature, a change occurs. The reciting of every religious creed in the world is meaningless if one's life is polluted with the world's defilements. Those who think that anti-worldly preaching constitutes unnecessary sermonizing on secondary issues had better examine their own lives to see if they are truly in the faith. Holy living is a fruit of Holy Spirit-produced salvation. It is mandatory for entrance into God's presence.

Christ makes the difference. He died at Calvary, shedding His blood, was buried, and rose again to save you. The purpose was that he might deliver us from this present evil world (Galatians 1:4). Although we must live in this world, we do not have to perpetually and constantly partake of its filthiness. Christ's death, burial, and resurrection guarantees that. Receive Him now, and be genuinely saved.

For those on the path of departure from holy living, severe chastisement is coming. Consider in conclusion some of God's additional C's in administering chastisement:

1. A contrite heart
2. A catastrophe
3. A casket

Judgment is never immediate for the child of God. Before the beloved Heavenly Father makes any attempt to discipline His son, He first makes the heart of the sinning child heavy. Because the Holy Spirit dwells within believers' bodies, and because He can be grieved (see Ephesians 4:30), those in whom He lives feel the effects of His grieved heart. That's why David, after committing adultery, cried, Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation (Psalm 51:12).

However, if one sins and sin's effect does not break his heart and spirit, the indicator that he is God's is inoperative and undoubtedly proves he is lost. But if he feels broken, it proves that the grieved Spirit within is at work and that he is truly the Lord's.

Next, after step one of God's plan is administered, and one continues to sin, some (or multiplied) catastrophes will come to turn one from his wayward condition. Then if he continues to rebel and backslide, There is a sin unto death [a casket—a premature homegoing] (1 John 5:16).

But God loves His children, and there is a better way. It's called revival, and it produces self-judgment and confession of sin. God says, If we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged [chastised] (1 Corinthians 11:31). So confess your waywardness and come back to the Lord Jesus Christ and His holiness. For if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9). 🌟

Remembering

BY DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

In the past few weeks of the holiday season, Jack and I have heard from so many of our friends and partners. How we enjoyed receiving all the beautiful cards, notes, letters, and emails. Every personal message was appreciated, especially those which said, “Dr. Van Impe and Rexella, I’m thinking of you and praying for you.” I treasure these precious expressions of love.

And at the same time, what a special joy it was for us to remember many of our friends, sending cards, letters, and small tokens of appreciation. When Jack and I see what God is doing through the outreaches of this ministry, we always remember special people like you who have helped make it all possible with your prayers and faithful support.

Remembering is a wonderful thing. It is the means the Lord has provided for us to relive and enjoy anew the special experiences, people, and blessings He sends into our lives. Remembering can fill us with joy over and over again as we recall and give thanks for what God has done.

During the past year, we've all had occasion to observe the news coverage of great calamities such as hurricanes, floods, fires, and other disasters in which people lose all their possessions. One thing that strikes me is that the victims do not mourn over the loss of cars, houses, furniture, and other "things." The bitterest loss, it seems, is the destruction of personal mementoes, family pictures, children's scrapbooks, heirlooms, and other items with relatively little monetary value. But they are priceless and irreplaceable because each item is inexorably linked to a memory. These keepsakes were important because each time a family member looked at them, he or she remembered a part of the family's heritage — a person, place, or event — with loving and significant meaning. People grieve over the loss of such treasured items because of the threat to their ability to remember what is really important in their lives.

As a child, I loved to get my dad or mom started by recalling special stories from their childhood. I'd sit in rapt fascination as my parents remembered simple, down-to-earth stories about life and living in their generation — how things were different, how things were still the same. And I learned so much from their memories.

Remembering the good things, the important values of life, is tremendously important. It is especially essential for us to remember the work of God in our lives.

I started singing when I was five years old, and one of the first songs Mother taught me was a wonderful message wrapped up in a lovely melody. It said: Count your blessings, name them one by one, and it will surprise you what the Lord has done. One reason that song was so powerful is that it caused you to stop and remember! God is so good to us. In fact, some of my childhood friends used to change the words of that song a bit to say, "Count your blessings, weigh them ton by ton."

Have you been blessed? Has God blessed you and your loved ones? Remember ... and be thankful.

Remember, too, the instructions and directions of the Lord. For example, God's Word says in Galatians 2:10 to remember the poor. We are to remember those in affliction — and minister to them of our means, encouraging them and lifting them up. I've found that reaching out to bless others comes almost naturally IF we first remember what God has done for us. Jesus said, freely ye have received, freely give (Matthew 10:8).

“But there are also times in our lives when we must remember to forget!”

I love the beautiful words of the Psalmist David: I will remember the works of the Lord: surely I will remember thy wonders of old (Psalm 77:11). Throughout the rest of his song, David gave thanks and praise to God as he remembered who He was and what He had done. He recalled that God is the Maker of all things, including such wonders as the waters, the sky and the clouds, the lightning and thunder. How great and wonderful is our God!

Certainly it is good for us to remember certain specific events and blessings and the great things about God. But there are also times in our lives when we must remember to forget! Hear the thrilling words of Paul: Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:13-14). What are we to forget? Things of the past! Things like faults, failures, mistakes — things that would hinder or discourage us in pushing forward to fulfill God's calling for our lives. Forgetting doesn't mean that yesterday's mistakes didn't happen — that they're not a part of history. In this context, forgetting means not allowing the past to negatively impact the present. To remember yesterday's sins that Christ has forgiven is to carry a burdensome weight that hinders our efforts and slows us down.

Paul said, in effect, "Forget the sins and failures of the past. Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily bests us, and run with patience the race that is before us" (see Hebrews 12:1).

Do you suppose the sin that so easily trips us up could be the heaviness of remembering the past? It seems to me that so many people cripple themselves and make their efforts ineffective by allowing memories of the past to make them bitter. One thing is for sure: if we are brooding over the past, we cannot be pressing on to attain the prize of Christ's high calling in our lives.

Why should we keep dragging up the sins and failures of the past? Christ doesn't. Once He has forgiven us, He forgets our transgressions and never remembers them again! Read — and remember — God's remarkable promise in Hebrews 8:12: For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities I will remember no more.

The Bible is filled with examples of things that God does for us, but this is one thing He refuses to do: He will not recall the sins of the past! The record of all those shameful, hurtful, sinful deeds is no longer on the books. It has been washed away by the blood of Jesus.

Perhaps you're saying, "But Rexella, how can I expect Him to keep on forgiving me when I come back again and again — 10 times ... 11 — with the same failure, the same sin?"

If you have honestly confessed that sin to the Lord and accepted His forgiveness, forget it! Why? Because He also remembers to FORGET your

“Once you have accepted Christ’s forgiveness, the past can be forgotten

sin. He will not recall it. And if He will not, why should you?

What a great weight you can lay aside! Never again do you need to agonize over the lie you told, the angry outburst, the date with a sweetheart in which you allowed things to go too far, the jealousies, the broken promises — whatever haunts your memories. Remember to forget the sins of the past. Once you have accepted Christ's forgiveness, the past can be forgotten forever.

Starting a new year is one of my favorite things. It always seems to me that each January is a fresh start, a new opportunity, a clean slate. And I look forward to it with faith and joy.

Of course, I'm aware that crossing this new threshold takes me into the unknown. I've never been there before. I don't know what to expect or what lies ahead. Will Jesus come back this year? Will death strike a loved one? Will I face unseen hardships or unexpected blessings? In the words of an old gospel song: "Many things about tomorrow I don't seem to understand, but I know Who holds tomorrow, and I know Who holds my hand." God knows what is ahead, and He is walking by my side. He is with me ... and with you.

So we can walk boldly into the New Year, not with trepidation or dread, but with glorious expectancy. We can choose not to allow the ghosts of the past to haunt us in this New Year. Because He remembers our sins no more, when the Lord speaks this year, it will not be with a voice of accusation.

Yet, we have the assurance that God remembers us — He knows who we are, where we are and what we're going through. He never forgets us in times of need, but comes to us just when we need Him most.

What more can we ask than the assurance that comes from remembering the good things and the unfailing promises of God? And what an exciting challenge to start a brand-new year with a fresh, clean record! Something inside me tells me that 2015 is going to be a year to remember!

So begin this month, this week, this day expecting good things from the Lord. His will for you is GOOD. Remember to let God be your guide in 2015, and it will, indeed, be a happy new year. ☺

“I love you very much and have watched you for years. You both are fine examples to the Body of Christ in the way you proclaim the Word and the love and respect you have for each other.”

Your generous support for Jack Van Impe Ministries is reaching into prison cells across North America and around the world, leading inmates to faith in Jesus Christ!

More than 10,000 people have come to the Lord in prisons and jails through our broadcast ministry since 2008 alone.

Many go on to take Dr. Van Impe's course on the book of Revelation — for which they receive college credit!

"I was in prison, and ye came unto me," Jesus said in Matthew 25:36. You are fulfilling these words of Scripture as you give to keep Jack Van Impe Presents on the air!

“ Deliverance to the Captives ”
Luke 4:18

Here are just a few expressions of gratitude from prison inmates you've reached:

My friend in Jesus, I am writing this letter to say thank you so much for all your true words of Revelation Revealed. I know that the Spirit was the greatest help of all for you. After reading this book three times, I saw many things that brought more truth to me.

Thank you for sending your books to prison so that we have a church to learn more from. You are a great man of God. I want to say thank you again. God bless you always. J.B.

I must say I enjoyed reading and studying your book Revelation Revealed. It was quite insightful and written so that it was easy to understand and follow. In the past, I would shy away from the perplexing book filled with symbolism. I feel very comfortable with Revelation now thanks to your wonderful text. Thank you so very much. J.E. Calhoun State Prison, Georgia

I thank God that you have been a great help in my understanding of the book of Revelation. I was always thrown off by many things ... but you shined a light upon it all. I highly appreciate your approach to God's Word, and I trust you. I thank you to the utmost and salute you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. M.S.

“Into All the World” Mark 16:15

You are reaching the entire world through your giving to Jack Van Impe Ministries!

Our broadcast ministry now reaches 100% of North America and every nation on earth.

We've actually heard firsthand from people in more than 200 nations in the past year alone!

Let's go on a brief, whirlwind tour of the places where you've shared the Good News recently...

From Adelaide, South Australia, we want to thank you so very much for your end-time teaching. We tape every program to share them around to as many people as possible. Very little is taught in the churches here on this subject or what is happening globally, or anything about the Rapture.

Once again, thank you for your TV ministry. It means so much to us here. God bless you. S.I.

SOUTH AMERICA

I live in Santa Fe, Argentina, and what a blessing you are in my life. I see your programs every Wednesday and go to your website whenever I want. All my children live in the USA with my husband, an Argentinian who laughs at me about my watching Christian programs. He believes in God but has no personal relationship with Jesus. I have prayed for him over the years, but to no avail.

Your programs are such a blessing to me, and I thank the Lord for you. My life would be so empty otherwise. God bless you. I'm anxious to see you in heaven. It will be like seeing old friends. Praise the Lord. J.S. Argentina

“Your programs are such a blessing to me, and I thank the Lord for you.”

“I have been regularly listening to your program on Radio Africa, and it’s turned my life around for Christ.”

You have a great and singular ministry. Today nobody speaks about eschatology as you do. I live in Colombia, South America. We watch your TV program through Enlace. It’s a great opportunity to understand how Israel is like a chronograph to the world, and that every prophecy in the Bible was and will be all truth. Jesus is coming. I’m waiting for Him, but I’m hoping so many people in my country meet Jesus too. Time is short, so thank you. You’re doing a great job. God bless you.

N.B. Colombia

I write from Honduras in Central America on behalf of my mother ... She is now a lady of 63 years and always remembers lovingly the encouraging words in each of your programs. Her desire is to one day meet you. God’s mercy and His sacrifice came down from heaven to die on the cross and give health and salvation.

With respect always, I greet you and I hope that in reading this letter your heart will be glad and rejoice in the Lord ... and that His blessings will always be with you and all of your projects.

F.L. Honduras

I have been watching your program since 2007, and it changed my views about the world and I became a Christian in August of that year.

I thank you for informing us with the truth, and I told my relatives and friends about you and your program. Your explanation of Bible prophecy changed my life.

R.S. Namibia

I am very much delighted to watch and get teachings on the fulfillment of prophecies. Jack, the way you quote scripture is astounding. The many territories you cover in one program is so educational, and I make sure to watch. Your program is watched by Ethiopian Christians. Every week my wife makes sure that we are at home not to miss it. Keep delivering the message boldly in relation to the latter days. You make a difference in the lives of many. God bless you.

B.H. Ethiopia

I got saved through the airwaves, and so have my fellow listeners who are getting more knowledge about God through the radio. I thank you very much for the work that you are doing.

The work of the Lord is marching everywhere especially through you. It’s very good and encouraging.

Thank you so much, for I believe many souls are going to be transformed through you.

S.M. Kenya

Beloved, I was restored back to the faith of our Lord Jesus. I was born-again before but backslid into the things of the world.

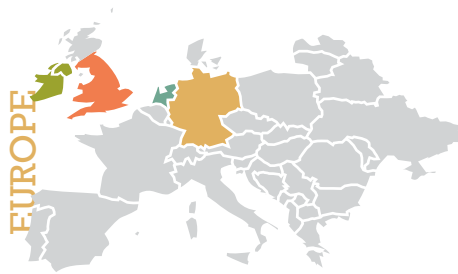

Thank you for your program, heard here in Nigeria every Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. and Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Nigeria time.

O.R. Nigeria

I have been regularly listening to your program on Radio Africa, and it’s turned my life around for Christ. Being an evangelist and elder in our ministry, I have always relied on your broadcast to help me both in my study and sermons, and I will always continue to listen to your program for helps.

I.M. Ghana

May the Lord our God continue to bless you both until we are all gathered up together. My son, who is autistic, and I always take great care never to miss your television programs here in England (we tape them all). We both enjoy the no-nonsense way you give the message. You tell it as it is. That is so refreshing to have a man of God talk the truth with no sugar-coating.

My son and I are both Messianic Jews. We love the Lord Yeshua, heart and soul, but because of your broadcasts, we have discovered a new understanding of the Word. As Jews, people think we have the answers to most of today's problems. The problem is we don't, only God is the way, the truth, and the life.

Thank you both for making our lives richer and more enjoyable. May God continue with you always and fulfill your dreams. I look forward to talking with you both in heaven. E.G. England

My heart delights in the Lord when I watch you on TV. The hope

I get from Jesus coming soon through your good news does not stop me from thanking our King of Glory for using you effectively and with the spirit of boldness. You are surrounded by our Abba in heaven with His holy angels. I love Jesus' beauty in your faces, dear Brother Jack and Sister Rexella. I see God's glory in your program.

Thanks for your love, service, and being happy in the service of the King of Glory! O.B. Germany

I have been blessed with your program for a few years. God continues giving you such wisdom and boldness to preach and tell us the truth about future events. God bless you, Jack and Rexella.

G.R. Holland

Hi, friends: Jack, Rexella, and Chuck. I live in Dublin, Ireland, and watch your show every week. I found you on the Internet over a year ago and love the solid teachings. I love real food — God's Word — and can't bear the wrong food that is dished out in many places today. I like how Rexella always gives a line of scripture out at the end of the programme.

Shalom, and thank you.

M.S. Ireland

I view your inspiring messages regularly by satellite television. A.D. Iraq

Greetings from Jerusalem!

You will never know how very much your ministry blesses and refreshes me here in the land of our Saviour's birth.

Jack, you are a marvel with the Scriptures, and Rexella, your sweet spirit refreshes my spirit because I know that it is the Spirit of the Lord within you. A recent Perhaps Today article of yours brought me to tears.

As a retiree, I don't have a lot to give, but I feel that the Lord wants me to bless you both for staying true to the pure Word of God. Therefore, I would like to become a monthly partner! J.M. Israel

May the Lord bless your life and your family and all those around you.

Dear brother in Christ, with reference to viewing your program on God TV, I was amazed with motivation and empowered to know the truth. O.N. India

IF THE CHURCH ITSELF FALLS ...

HOW WILL YOU AND YOUR FAMILY STAND?

Could your church be among those that are “falling away” from the cross of Jesus Christ?

The great apostasy prophesied in Scripture is here — enemies of the cross are at battle with the true faith right now. You must protect yourself and your family.

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe will help you stand in defense of the cross with this fast-paced teaching video that will answer these important questions:

- Can people deny Jesus as a “useless Savior” and still go to heaven?
- Who are leaders of the New Age Movement who hypocritically claim the Christian faith?
- How are Wycliffe’s new Bible translations destroying Christianity?
- What does the Bible say about the False Prophet?
- Do you think the current Pope will be in office when Christ returns? An amazing answer!
- How can you be ready for the Lord’s return?
- And more!

THE APOCALYPTIC PROPHECY FUELLING ISLAMIC STATE MILITANTS

October 8, 2014 — Sky News reports: “An ancient prophecy that sees an ‘infidel horde’ in a monumental battle with an Islamic army in the Syrian town of Dabiq has apparently been seized upon by IS fundamentalists.

The Sunni Muslim tale dates back more than 1,300 years and tells of the ‘horde’ flying 80 banners before an Islamic triumph that triggers the end of days.

It has become a fundamental part of the philosophy that drives Islamic State militants.

Having captured Dabiq in August, the town’s symbolic significance far outweighs its relatively minor strategic importance to the group, compared with cities it controls such as Raqqa in Syria and Mosul in Iraq.

But as the militants come under heavy bombardment from the air by the U.S. and allies seeking to halt their march, Dabiq is increasingly becoming a rallying call.

Shadi Hamid, a fellow at the Brookings Institute, said: ‘It raises morale.’

‘It is fair to assume that the vast majority of (IS) fighters believe in this type of talk.’

The prophecy itself was made by the Prophet Mohammed, according to his companion Abu Hurayrah’s report, or hadith.

Abu Hurayrah is described as the most prolific narrator of hadith — accounts of the Prophet Mohammed’s deeds, teachings and sayings — in Sunni Islam, adding to the importance of the prophecy in the eyes of IS.

Among IS supporters on social media, Dabiq has become a byword for a struggle against the West, with the U.S.-led coalition portrayed as modern-day Crusaders. IS has even named its official magazine Dabiq...”

(Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings. Thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

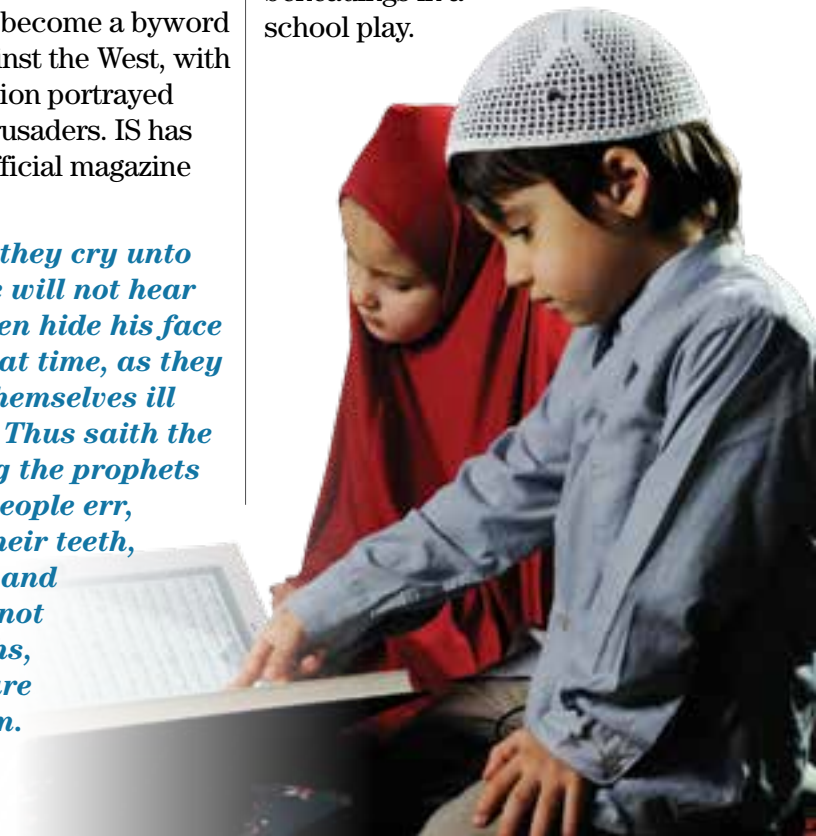

Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God. — Micah 3:5-7)

CANADA MOSQUE TEACHES 4-YEAR-OLDS HOW TO BEHEAD

October 6, 2014 — WND.com reports: “An Ontario mosque is coming under fire for using young Muslim children to conduct mock beheadings in a school play.

Video footage of the Islamic Jaffari Center in Thornhill, Ontario, shows children as young as 4 years old watching and learning to conduct beheadings in a play that reportedly took place two years ago.

The video was featured on the Canada's Sun News Network television program, Byline with Brian Lilley.

A young boy can be seen sitting on the floor as another boy approaches him from behind with a machete.

At the end of the play, the boy playing the part of the executioner announces, 'Here are the heads'...." (Hell won't be hot enough for these monsters of hate and death: And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. —Mark 9:42)

ISLAMIC STATE GRAFFITI FOUND THROUGHOUT WASHINGTON, D.C.

October 9, 2014 — Breitbart.com reports: "Graffiti that appears to be in support of the Islamic State terrorist group has been popping up throughout the District of Columbia. The most frequently displayed message reads 'Allahu Akbar' (God is Greater) in Arabic, and at the bottom, 'ISIS,' for the Islamic State of Iraq and al-Sham. The FBI is reportedly investigating the acts of vandalism.

On Tuesday, New York Magazine reported two findings of the pro-IS graffiti between the Dupont Circle and Adams Morgan neighborhoods of Northwest D.C.

FBI Spokesman Andrew Ames told New York Magazine regarding the findings: 'We are aware of the graffiti' and 'urge anyone who sees suspicious activity or if anyone has any information about this vandalism to report it to the local authorities or to the FBI.'

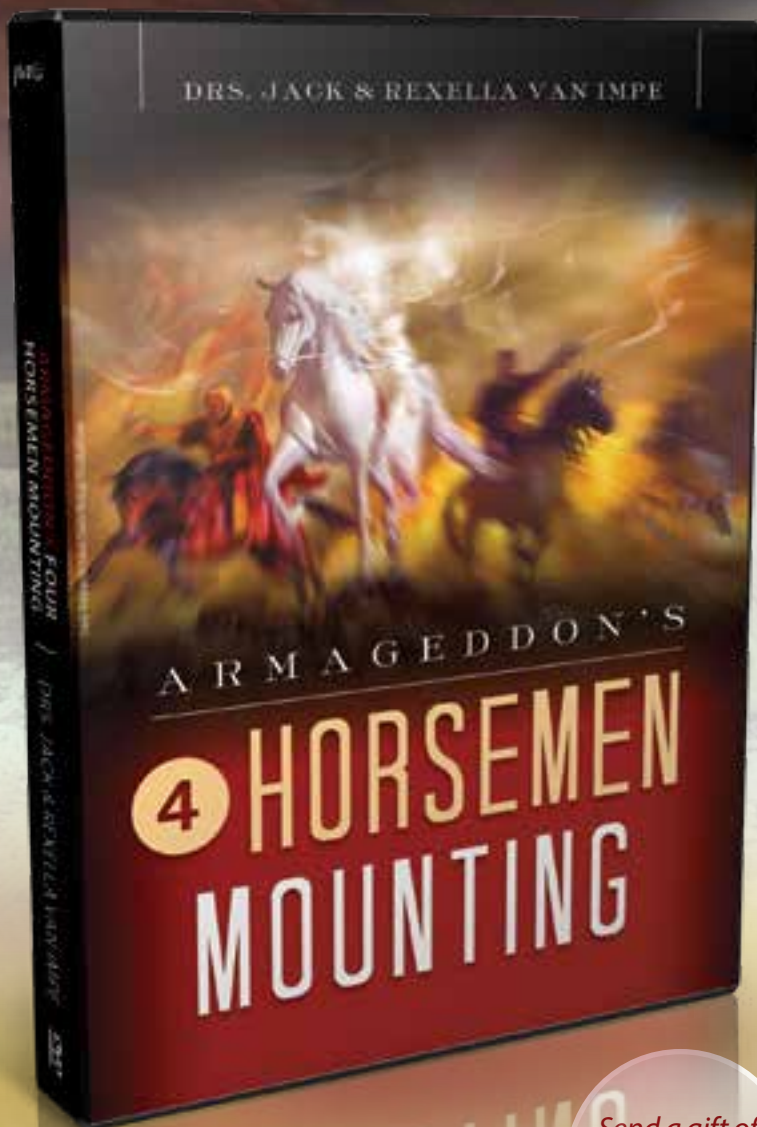

A couple weeks ago, a woman found the slogan posted on an electrical box on the cross section of N street and Connecticut Ave NW...." (Genesis 6:11 states: The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. Jesus picked up on this text and compared it to the hour of His return: But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. — Matthew 24:37-39.)
