Dr. Jack Van Impe

IN PERSON

The single most electrifying message he's ever preached ... can be YOURS on DVD!

I give all the glory and honor to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ when I look over the course of my lifetime in ministry and realize that, almost certainly, no one other than Billy Graham has preached "live" to more people than this plainspoken accordion-playing child of an alcoholic father from Michigan ... a man simply named Jack ... Jack Van Impe!

This is not a matter of my being "better" than anyone else; no way! As the apostle Peter declares in Acts 10:34-35, "God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him." I have simply dedicated my entire life to "working righteousness" for the sake of being "accepted with him" — obeying the leading of the Lord with every ounce of energy, every fiber of my being! I have memorized 15,000 verses of the Bible. I have spent more than 100,000 total hours of my life in Bible study (the equivalent of 11 years of continuous study). I have read more than 11,000 books. And using this willing vessel, God does supernatural work! In my lifetime I have preached in more than 800 week-long evangelistic crusades in various churches. I have proclaimed the Gospel in 253 city-wide crusade meetings. The cumulative attendance at all of these evangelistic outreaches: 10 million people. I praise God that during my six decades of ministry, we have witnessed the salvation of two and a half million souls!

But today — with our commitment to you, Beloved, through television, and to lost souls around the world — it is impossible for me to preach “live” and in person week after week. Production of the television program takes an extraordinary amount of time weekly, but we faithfully give ourselves to this process because our television ministry, which reaches you and millions upon millions of others, is simply the most effective and efficient way to reach so many people. In fact, I only allow myself to schedule an in-person appearance one time in each calendar year.

I want you to experience that one amazing “live” ministry event for 2010 — through video!

I was invited to preach to the jammed 5,000-seat World Harvest Church, led by Pastor Rod Parsley in Columbus, Ohio. This was an incredible evening of Holy Spirit anointing and power! I have truly never experienced such an electrifying move of God!

But also — you know how I love humor. Well, as you will see on the DVD of this service, Pastor Parsley and I began the evening with a rip-roaring 20 minutes of humor together!

And then — for one solid hour — I proclaimed Christ’s return. I presented a whirlwind panoramic view of prophetic events unfolding all around us! I want you to experience this message — but also share it with unsaved loved ones. In it, I answer such questions as:

- How can I know I’m ready for the Rapture?
- How can I know when the Lord will return?
- How do Israel, Russia, China, Iran, and the European Union each fit into the most monumental upcoming battle in history?
- How is the new world government fulfilling prophecy?
- How many verses of the Bible talk about the return of the Lord? (This will shock you!)
- What are the 21 judgments?
- What are the six “predicting signs”?
- What does it mean to be “pre-trib”?
- What exactly is the Rapture?
- What happens right after the Rapture?
- What have scholars predicted about the latter days we’re living in today?
- What is I Thessalonians 4:16-18 describing when it says, “For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words”?
- What is the “abomination of desolation”?
- What is the “Club of Rome”? Why are they creating divisions of the nations, and how is this

- significant in fulfilling prophecy?
- What is the imminent timetable for implanting a microchip under the skin of every human being by law?
- What is the meaning of I Corinthians 15:51,54? “Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.... So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: ‘Death is swallowed up in victory.’”
- What is the next thing on God’s calendar?
- Which biblical predictions must happen before the Rapture can occur?
- Who are the Bilderbergs? How are they connected to the coming microchip law?
- Will believers go through the Tribulation?
- Will I have a new body in heaven?
- Will the world really end as some say?
- And many, many more — an astonishing hour-long torrent of fascinating prophetic truths!

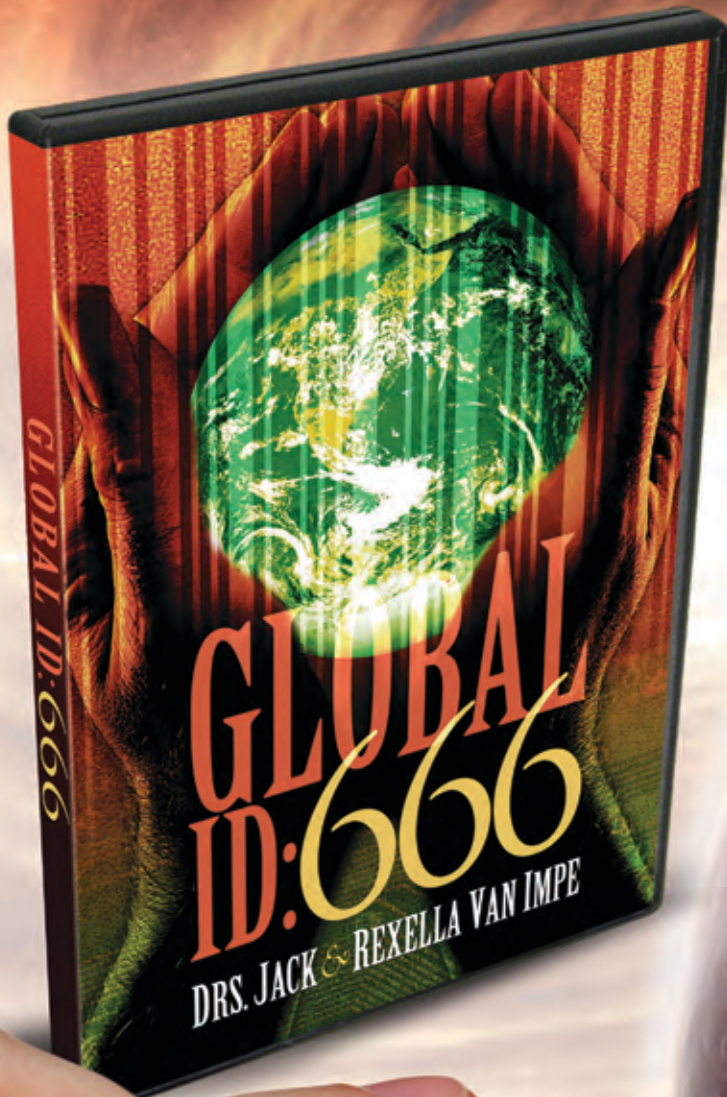

Your spirit will be stirred as never before when you view this astounding event. Please request it today as you give a gift of $25 or more toward our evangelistic television outreach into your home and into 247 nations!

Thank you ...
God bless you! 🙏

A hiker with a blue backpack and a pink shirt is seen from the back, looking towards a large, snow-capped mountain peak. The hiker is wearing a camouflage headband and holding a green trekking pole. The background is a vast, mountainous landscape under a clear sky.

THE SHEPHERD

Perhaps one of the biggest misconceptions a person can have when he becomes a Christian is that everything is going to be fine now — sunshine and roses, a gentle stroll on a smooth, safe road that winds its way through heaven's gates.

But the world we live in can be a very hostile place, and the highway to heaven is often a narrow, uphill path, filled with rocks and obstacles, beset with difficulties on every hand.

BY DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

the rough spots. When I am unsteady, His hand gives me support. When I grow weary, I can lean on Him to make it to a place of rest. He is always with me! I am never alone! Let the searing heat of the sun beat down, or the howling winds and the drenching rains of adversity assail — I am sheltered in the arms of God!

Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong (verses 9-10).

In good times and bad times, when the road is smooth or rough, the Shepherd is with us, providing strength for the day and grace for the journey. Jack

ON A DANGEROUS ROAD

Jesus said, Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it (Matthew 7:13-14).

Wait a minute — what's the deal? I come to Jesus expecting to be led on an easy path. Instead I find myself on a rough trail over treacherous terrain, with no other road so dangerous. What benefit or advantage is mine as a Christian? Ah, here it is, in Hebrews 13:5 — for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

We are never alone

The road may be narrow, but it is wide enough for Jesus, the Great Shepherd, to walk along beside me and guide me gently over the rugged pathway. When I feel weak, He lifts me over

There may be times when I feel as strong and agile as a mountain goat, bounding up the pathway, dancing across narrow ledges over deep crevices. Then the Shepherd stays with me step for step, rejoicing in each victorious move I take. And when exuberance drives me to walk too closely to the edge and deliberately wander into harm's way, His staff firmly directs me back upon the solid rock.

On other days my feet may be clumsy, stumbling over the smallest pebble on the roadway, tripping over the tiniest crack. And my strength may fail before the day is half done. But my companion on the road, the Great Shepherd, is close at hand. Can you hear His words of encouragement? Listen! My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness (2 Corinthians 12:9).

Oh, my soul cries out with the Apostle Paul, Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

and I receive many letters and e-mail messages from friends across this country and literally from all over the world who are seeking prayer. The needs and problems they share are absolutely overwhelming. A young man struggles to overcome his addiction to drugs ... a single mother tries to be both mother and father to her children and earn enough to keep them fed, clothed, and sheltered ... a despairing husband watches his companion of 40 years being dragged into the darkness of Alzheimer's disease ... many families are victims of unrelenting financial pressure.

What can you say to people with such great hurts and sufferings? How about: ... with God all things are possible (Matthew 19:26). And: ... lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the age (Matthew 28:20). Truly those are great promises of faith and strength to hold on to in times of trouble.

But here's one that speaks even more eloquently to the troubled heart — Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling.... (Jude 24). Do you grasp the profound message of those simple words?

The Shepherd keeps us from falling

When hope is gone and strength has failed, He is able to keep you from falling.

When sorrow and sadness have bowed you to despair, and you are ready to cast yourself down in the pit — He is able to keep you from falling.

When you have exhausted all resources, and the enemy of your soul is closing in for the kill — He is able to keep you from falling!

When the toils and trials of this world have ground you down, and you barely have enough strength left to take one more step — He is able to keep you from falling.

The Great Shepherd will not let you fall! He will assist you, calm you, support you, protect you, sustain you, shelter you, nourish you, and lift you up. Oh, yes, life ultimately will take you to the place where you must walk through the valley of the shadow of death. There is no way to avoid that pathway. But you can walk into the darkness unafraid, fearing no evil. Why? Because the Good Shepherd is with you, comforting you, anointing you, making a way for you where there seems to be no way.

Do you have that kind of relationship with God, the Shepherd? Have you ever exclaimed, with David, But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped (Psalm 73:2)? Of course, you have. How did you make it then, and how will you make it today and tomorrow? My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever (verse 26).

Some people are reluctant to give their hearts to God because they are afraid that living for Him will be too hard. They are afraid to set out on that narrow road for fear that they will stumble and fall. At first it seems so much easier to walk on the world's broad road. But too soon that thoroughfare leads to destruction.

When the devil's easy road begins breaking up, where do its sojourners turn for help? There is no one. When illness strikes, there is no healer. When heartache devastates travelers on Broad Avenue, there is no comforter, no one to talk to. When trouble crashes down on every side, there is no place to turn for help.

Through the straight gate and on the narrow road, the thirsty are led beside still waters and the despairing receive restoration for their souls. And the one who wanders astray is rescued by the Shepherd, who picks up the lost and carries him back to safety.

In our journeys to the Holy Land, and in other parts of the world as well, Jack and I have had occasion to observe modern-day shepherds still performing their age-old duties. We've photographed herds of sheep grazing peacefully in the meadows under the watchful eye of their keeper. We've seen a shepherd, staff in hand, leading a flock over a high mountain pass to a hidden field of lush vegetation on the other side. And on occasion, approaching some small village, we've had to stop our vehicle and wait while a shepherd led his sheep across the dusty road and up into the safety of the waiting fields.

I've always been impressed by how much the sheep seemed to trust the shepherd. They would stay with him, follow him, and obey his commands. They depended on the shepherd to provide for their needs and to keep them safe. Experience soon taught them that the shepherd always knows the way to the green grass, the still waters, and the place of refuge from the predators of life.

I've also noticed that shepherds are constantly talking to their sheep. Walking along the road, they call out words of encouragement, direction, sometimes a warning! In quiet times, they tend to little lambs or to a sheep with a hurt leg, speaking quietly and lovingly. The Bible tells how little David used to sing to his sheep, perhaps sharing some of the beautiful psalms he composed.

The point is that the sheep soon know and recognize the voice of their shepherd. Jesus said that when a shepherd goes before his flock, the sheep follow him: for they know his voice (John 10:4). And He said, I am the good shepherd (John 10:11).

Do you know His voice? When He speaks, do you recognize the tone and timbre of His voice on those dark nights on the lonely road of life? For that to happen, you must be listening to His voice in the clear light of day ... every day.

Listen to the Great Shepherd

How do you recognize God's voice? Every time you open the Bible, God's Holy Word, He is speaking to you. Meditating on what you read in your daily devotions is a means of listening for His voice. As you develop a daily habit of delving into the Word of God, you will begin to see how the Holy Spirit guides you and imparts instruction to you.

Prayer is important, too — especially when you learn that prayer isn't you doing all the talking, but taking time to listen as well. Also, I've found that prayer time is enriching when I talk to God — out loud, for me — about what I've been reading in His Word. It's sort of a way for me to keep “chewing” on the Word, much as sheep and cattle stand and chew their cud.

Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart (Jeremiah 15:16). If you haven't discovered this source of daily blessing, I highly recommend that you give it a try!

How's your journey along life's narrow way? Are you well aware that you are traversing a dangerous road, depending on the care and guidance of the Shepherd? Do you live each day in “joy and rejoicing” because of the ministry of God's Word in your life? Have you discovered that come what may, He walks beside you and His goodness and mercy are following you all the days of your life?

The psalmist declared, Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory (Psalm 73:24).

“HATESpeech”

That's not what I call it
...because that's not what God's Word says!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

“Hate speech.”

That's what it will soon be called when I preach the truth stating:

“Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life, and that no man comes unto the Father but by Christ.”

The Bible says it, and I have preached it for decades.

I will continue to preach it regardless of any persecution that may come because of recent threats I have received.

But Israel My Glory magazine recently made this disheartening observation: If present trends continue, it will soon be illegal to say that Jesus is the only way of salvation.

Franklin Graham, Billy's son, also reported to America of the present administration's canceling of his speaking engagement at the Day of Prayer because of his outspokenness about Muslims after the disaster of 9/11.

It is far more than simply one magazine's editorial opinion. On Newsmax.tv, and on the Mike Huckabee program on the Fox

News Channel, where the Rev. Franklin Graham was recently interviewed, he stated: “My invitation to speak on the National Day of Prayer was revoked by the Pentagon because of pressure by anti-Christian groups.” In USA Today, the Muslims took credit for making it happen.

“Oh, no question. It’s coming,” Graham said. “...When you preach that Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life, I think we’re going to see one day that people will say, ‘This is hate speech, because you’re being so narrow and you’re excluding other people.’ I believe that, I think we’re going to see that come.”

My heart is breaking for my country. To see America turn her back on God is devastating.

I wish I could say our leaders are striving to resist the tide. But tragically, this turning away from God is keenly evident at the highest level of American government. The awful truth is revealed in a new book and DVD combination — Radical Rulers: The White House Elites Who Are Pushing America toward Socialism plus The Obama White House Radicals. These resources are so critically important to every Christian in North America that I have arranged for Jack Van Impe Ministries to make them available — I urge you to request them today. In this volume and this video presentation, you will see for yourself what is sadly unique about the Administration of Barack Obama compared to every President in U.S. history: the sheer number of radical people he has assembled at very high levels of decision-making power. It is not unreasonable to say that Barack Obama is actually the most radical leader ever to sit in the White House. In less than 18 months in office, he has surrounded himself with what can easily be described as the most radical group of advisors of any Administration in American history — including Communist sympathizers, pro-abortionists, pedophile sympathizers, and socialists. His record of controversial high-level appointments is unprecedented (a number of them deviously appointed outside the constitutional system, to avoid the need for approval by the Senate) — and these appointees are poised to radically change America.

This should come as no surprise. During the election campaign, Obama repeatedly insisted, “We are going to change this country and change the world. We need change, real change, now.” This very claim is found on almost every page of Rules for Radicals: A Pragmatic Primer for Realistic Radicals by the notorious Saul Alinsky. Alinsky talked change but meant revolution — a socialist communist revolution!

The tragedy unfolding in America today dovetails precisely with Bible prophecy. As I have consistently taught, from the pages of God’s Word, regarding the signs of the times, God’s latter-day clock is ticking, Jesus is coming soon — and one of the final signs will be this: a great charismatic leader will move into position as dictator of the New World Order.

Now we see some prominent figures observing that Barack Obama, from the time he was a young man, was groomed to become the leader of a New World Order. Simultaneously, we have witnessed, in just in the past several months, the single biggest move toward socialism and globalism in the history of the United States. Events are aligning with astonishing precision — multiple prophecies being fulfilled simultaneously, beyond anything that anyone could engineer, or even imagine!

Free men and women of the West need to know the truth, and respond. You need to understand what is happening in your world, and in Bible prophecy, at this moment in human history. You need to recognize the power-brokers, the decision-makers, the world-shapers, who are guiding events.

This is why I am so passionate about people requesting Radical Rulers: The White House Elites Who Are Pushing America toward Socialism and its companion DVD. To me, this is literally one of the most powerful books I have ever read. When combined with the DVD, I can honestly say that I personally have never viewed such explosive, enlightening, dynamic, and thorough documentation ever.

There is no question that America is in trouble. The work of our ministry is more important than ever in these latter days. We must continue to proclaim the Gospel. We must speak out. We must call sin

Dear Dr. Van Impe,

I really love watching you both on TV. I love the inspiration and insight I get into God’s working in these last days, and the Scripture verses read word for word.

Thank you for caring and loving people enough to tell them the Truth and to speak it with urgency and love. Thank you for your life’s work and the effort and heart you have put into it. May God bless you richly.

—J.H.

“sin.” And we must proclaim, without fail, that Jesus Christ is the only way to salvation. This truth is mentioned four hundred times in the New Testament.

“Hate speech”? No. This is a message of love and redemption, of salvation and peace. But no matter what accusations may be thrown at me, I will never quit. I will never cower. I will preach, without fear or favor, concerning the truth about our Savior from the pages of Scripture until I draw my last breath and I go home to be with the Lord. Please stand with me. Let us stand together for the authority of God’s Word. 🙏

We Love

My dearest brother,
In 1972, I listened to the radio and heard your message, The Coming War with Russia. I gave my heart to Christ that night. Your voice is needed, so please, never quit. Your wife and you are a blessed reminder of God's grace and of true Christianity and bravery, to show us who our president really is, an Obamination.
My respect for you is infinite, and your health is always in my prayers.

Hello there, and God bless you both very much. I found great joy in your program this evening. Not many preachers tell us about the latter days or actually how close we are to the Rapture of the Church taking place. Not even the church we attend talks about it.

I prayed with you both and turned my life over to Jesus, because both my girlfriend and I both want to be in heaven after the Rapture. We do not want to face the Tribulation about to befall us.

Thank you both very much, and I promise we will watch your program every week.

—J.S.

I know there is a loving God, and it is proven each time you come on the TV. My heart leaps when I hear the King is coming soon! If I miss a program, I feel lost. We all need you to remind us to LOOK UP — the time is near.

I am terminally ill ... Do I want to be healed on this earth? No. I want to see my precious Savior. I am not afraid, thanks to your and Rexella's encouragement. I have Christian love for all. I have seen my dad, mother, and mother-in-law through their time of need until they went home. I have adopted my grandchildren and now they are almost grown. I had an animal rescue and saved 265 animals. I don't want to be told I have been a good person, for I am a sinner. We all sin and come short. Thanks to God for amazing grace!

I pray for all of you. Thanks to you and your wife for saving me out of this stagnant sin pool. God bless and keep you always.

—C.M.

I watch your program weekly and looking forward to seeing it every time.

I used to be addicted to drugs and alcohol, but by the grace of God, he delivered me and I haven't been back in over a year. Praise God. He saved me! Your ministry has helped me so much.

Again, thank you. I'm looking for Jesus to come back any day now.

—C.R.

My prayer for you, Dr. Van Impe, is like a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ. As God allowed Simeon to live to see our blessed hope, Christ Jesus, maybe, by the grace of God, you will be allowed to see with your own eyes the coming of our Jesus as you meet him in the clouds. May your health and blessed work continue until that time.

—J.B.

Dear Jack and Rexella,

I just wanted to tell you both I LOVE YOU MORE THAN WORDS CAN SAY! My favorite part of the day is watching your program and reading your daily devotions! I used to have a very close relationship with the Lord a few years ago, but since then I have done a lot of backsliding. In the last year and a half, I have been blessed with two little angels — the greatest gift in life! I have been trying really hard to be the best mother and wife that I know I can be, and I know the only way to do so is to have GOD in my life. I just wanted to tell you both thank you so much — you have helped me greatly in my journey! When I watch your program, it's as if you are talking directly to me, and I learn so much from you. Thank you again, and God bless you both. You are doing a great service to MILLIONS!!

—T.S.

Thank you for preaching the truth and letting so many who watch your program know where Obama stands and what he knows about the Bible (not very much). I am very sure that one day soon he will get an awakening along with many others.

I am sure glad that you are not afraid to stand up for the truth. I love your program and try to listen every week. May God bless you!

—J.L.

I just wanted to thank all of you for your hard work. I have been watching your program since I was a child with my grandfather, who is with the Lord. I used to feel scared and resentful of the coming times, but I am not afraid anymore. I look forward to the Rapture, which I learned about from Jack many years ago.

I only wish I could personally tell you how much you and your lovely wife have helped me with my own decision-making, and the light you brought into my life. I can hear your words in my mind motivating me toward the ways of our Lord. I am 24 years old and am married because I refused to live out of wedlock with a woman. That is just one of many things I was taught by you.

You are my spiritual leader and always will be. I will always lean on anything you preach because you tell it truthfully from the Word of God. You are the most devoted teacher of God's Word that I have ever seen in my short life. I anxiously await Christ's return, and I long to be with Him in the new world that He will rule forever and ever. I could go on and on, so in closing, I love you all for what you do in the name of Jesus our Lord.

—K.R.

Thank you for your ministry and the lives that have been radically changed by your words and, without a doubt, inspired by the Holy Spirit.

After recommitting my life to Christ 18 months ago, and struggling with an addiction to crack cocaine, I realized through your teaching that we serve a God who TRULY loves us. Addiction comes in all walks of life, not just the poor and homeless. I can speak from my heart that wealth and material things will not keep one from sin as I personally experienced.

I look forward to your emails and broadcasts weekly to inspire me to never look back, and to realize that God is calling me to those very people who struggle with similar addictions, who have lost hope for life as I had.

Words cannot express my thanks for helping me stay on track with the Lord.

—G.R.

I am truly moved by the Book of Revelation. After I journeyed through it, everything became clear. Now I repented, was baptized, and received the gift of the Holy Ghost. However, I did not receive in-depth teaching on the Scriptures. Even so, God always knew what my heart longed for and gave it to me through you and Rexella.

Thank you for opening my understanding of prophecy. Now I am more equipped than ever to help others to understand. Because of you two, I no longer have just pieces of the Bible. I now have the puzzle in its entirety! Thank you very much. You are the ministers after my own heart!

—T.F.

WORLD

Report

Netanyahu turns to Bible in tussle over Jerusalem

Reuters reports: “Beset by questions about Jerusalem’s future in talks with the Palestinians, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu reached for the Bible to stake out the Jewish state’s contested claim on the city.

Netanyahu told a parliamentary session commemorating Israel’s capture of East Jerusalem from Jordan in the 1967 war that ‘Jerusalem’ and its alternative Hebrew name ‘Zion’ appear 850 times in the Old Testament, Judaism’s core canon.

‘As to how many times Jerusalem is mentioned in the holy scriptures of other faiths, I recommend you check,’ he said.

Citing such ancestry, Israel calls all of Jerusalem its ‘eternal and indivisible’ capital — a designation not recognized abroad, where many powers support Arab claims to East Jerusalem as the capital of a future Palestinian state.

The dispute is further inflamed by the fact East Jerusalem houses al-Aqsa mosque, Islam’s third-holiest shrine, on a plaza that Jews revere as the vestige of two biblical Jewish temples.

Heckled by a lawmaker from Israel’s Arab minority, Netanyahu offered a lesson in comparative religion from the lectern.

‘Because you asked: Jerusalem is mentioned 142 times in the New Testament, and none of the 16 various Arabic names for Jerusalem is mentioned in the Koran. But in an expanded interpretation of the Koran from the 12th century, one passage is said to refer to Jerusalem,’ he said.

Responding to Netanyahu’s citations, Palestinian chief negotiator Saeb Erekat said: ‘I find it very distasteful, this use of religion to incite hatred and fear. East Jerusalem is an occupied Palestinian town, and East Jerusalem cannot continue to be occupied if there is to be peace.’...”

(Prime Minister Netanyahu found that Jerusalem is mentioned 850 times in the Old Testament. It is also found 142 times in the New Testament for a total of 992 times as he includes Zion, the original name for Jerusalem. Sad that President Obama has promised it to the Muslims whose Koran never mentions Jerusalem even once.)

Report: Obama promised Abbas a Palestinian state within two years

Haaretz reports: “U.S. President Barack Obama told Palestinian leader Mahmoud Abbas that he was committed to seeing the creation of a sovereign Palestinian state within two years, an Egyptian official told the Arabic-language daily Al-Hayat.

Obama promised Abbas that the United States would make great effort to help see that Palestinian goal achieved, the official told the London-based newspaper.

The official also told Al-Hayat that Israel had rejected special U.S. envoy George Mitchell’s proposal to withdraw Israel Defense Forces troops from Palestinian-occupied sections of the West Bank, as it did on the eve of the Second Intifada in 2000.

According to the report, Israel told Mitchell that it could not guarantee such a move before beginning direct peace negotiations with the Palestinian Authority.

In place of withdrawing troops, the official told Al-Hayat, Israel offered other goodwill gestures, such as removing checkpoints and releasing certain Palestinian prisoners.

Last week, Abbas urged the Obama administration to impose a solution to the Middle East conflict that would give his people an independent state, and rejected the idea of creating a state within temporary borders...” (Not only has President Obama promised the Palestinian’s a state, he has also promised that the city of Jerusalem will be given to them. Who but a dictator could make such promises and fulfill them? Daniel 9:27; Isaiah 28:15; Daniel 8:25; I Thessalonians 5:3.)

World Jewish leader to Obama: Is U.S. committed to Israel’s security?

Haaretz reports: “World Jewish Congress President Ronald Lauder has publically questioned U.S. President Barack Obama’s commitment to Israel’s security, in a letter he reportedly drafted with the approval of his close friend Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

‘Our great country and the tiny State of Israel have long shared the core values of freedom and democracy,’ wrote Lauder, in a letter published as an advertisement in The Washington Post and The Wall Street Journal.

‘It is a bond much treasured by the Jewish people. In that spirit I submit, most respectfully, that it is time to end our public feud with Israel and to confront the real challenges that we face together,’ wrote Lauder.

In his letter, Lauder asks why the Obama administration has taken such a critical stance toward Israel amid efforts to revive stalled Middle East peace talks.

‘Why does the thrust of this administration’s Middle East rhetoric seem to blame Israel for the lack of movement on peace talks? After all, it is the Palestinians, not Israel, who refuse to negotiate,’ wrote Lauder.

‘Can it be true that America is no longer committed to a final status agreement that provides defensible borders for Israel? Is a new course being charted that would leave Israel with the indefensible borders that invited invasion prior to 1967?’...” (Under numerous presidencies since Harry Truman, Israel has been secure. Under Obama, the situation is in turmoil, the worst in 35 years — Jeremiah 30:7; II Kings 17:34.)

North Korea warns it will use nuclear weapons if invaded SpaceDaily.com reports: “North Korea warned it was prepared to use nuclear weapons if it was invaded by the United States and South Korea.

The official Korean Central News Agency (KCNA) carried the remarks by the North’s Joint Chief, General Ri Yong-Ho, during a national meeting on the eve of the birthday of the communist country’s armed forces.

‘The revolutionary armed forces of the DPRK (North Korea) are fully ready to frustrate any provocation of the aggressors at a single blow,’ Ri said.

‘They will mobilise all means including the nuclear deterrent ... should the U.S. imperialists and the south Korean puppet warmongers dare intrude into the inviolable sky, land and seas of the DPRK even 0.001mm,’ he said.

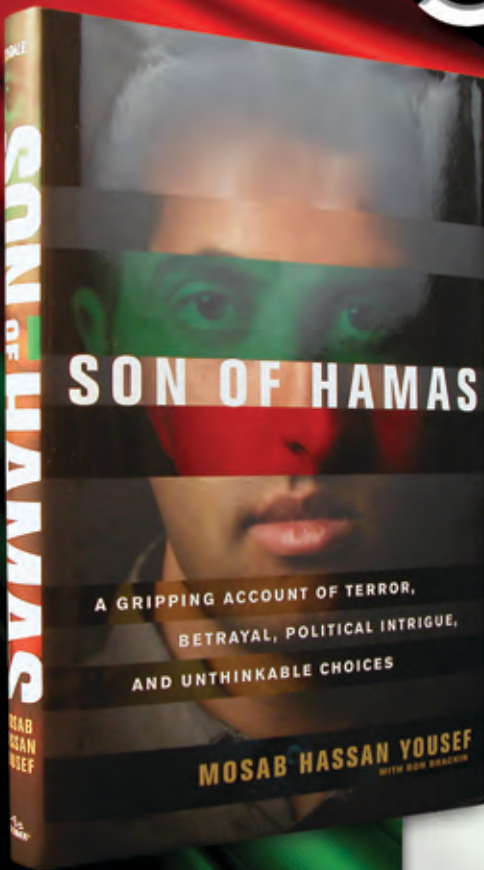

He added that ‘a grave situation is now prevailing on the Korean Peninsula’ because of the neighbouring South and its ally the United States, who he said wanted to start a war.

The harsh rhetoric comes as tensions between the two Koreas are high over the sinking of a South Korean warship last month near the disputed sea border in the Yellow Sea with a loss of 46 lives.

Seoul has been careful not to point the finger directly at the North over the incident in the Yellow Sea, which has stoked already tense ties, and Pyongyang has denied it was to blame.

The tensions prompted U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton to say she hoped there would be ‘no miscalculation’ that could spark a new war between the Koreas...” (North Korea will probably be one of the kings of the East invading Israel during Armageddon — Revelation 16:12; Revelation 9:14-18.) 🌐
