Embracing Islam ...

does this national trend put North America in peril?

U.S. President Barack Obama forbids the use of the phrase "Islamic terrorism" in his administration. He is completely silent about the persecution and slaughter of Christians in many Muslim nations. When Franklin Graham spoke out against the 9/11 terrorist attack – the Pentagon, of which he is Commander in Chief cancelled him as speaker and chairman of America's Day of Prayer.

- How much danger is North America in today because of the march toward the embrace of Islam, spurred by the current administration?
- Why do 50% of Americans doubt President Obama's Christianity?
- What is the President's position on the Bible, Christ, heaven and hell?

- Why is President Obama promoting the passage of a United Nations "Hate Law" bill that favors Islam and endangers Christians around the world?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe provide the startling answers to these and many other critical questions in their breath-taking new video. Do not miss a single moment of this crucial video teaching! Send for it now.

Attack on Christian America:

The UN's Threat to Your Beliefs

By Dr. Jack Van Impe

Why do half of all Americans question President Barack Obama's Christianity? What does he really believe about the Bible?

About the Lord Jesus Christ? About heaven and Hell?

Now you can know the truth — through a shocking new video entitled, Attack on Christian America: The UN's Threat to Your Beliefs, by Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe.

Why would the President and his Administration forbid the use of terms such as Islamic terrorist — after acts of terrorism have been perpetrated in the USA by Islamic individuals?

Why would the President show favoritism toward Islam over Christianity by canceling Rev. Billy Graham's son as chairman and speaker at America's Day of Prayer? What was wrong with Franklin Graham speaking out against the massacre and cremation of 3,000 innocent victims on 9/11? A leading Muslim organization took credit for this cancellation victory as reported in USA Today.

You can learn more of the answers — the shocking answers — through the new video, Attack on Christian America.

Why is this President so silent about the brutal persecution and horrific slaughter of Christians in most Muslim nations?

Why is he promoting the passage of a United Nations "Hate Law" resolution that favors Islam while Hilary Clinton opposes it?

Why is he so quiet about the teaching of Islam concerning their prophet Jesus? (Do you realize President Ahmadinejad of Iran believes that a supreme "Mahdi" (their Messiah) will return, with Jesus as his chief lieutenant who enforces Islam as the true religion because he has become a Muslim by conversion while he was away?) This new video exposes the entire story of how they believe it is Christ's duty to get Christians to accept Allah as the true god and to judge those who refuse to convert.

The answers will astound you ... in the new 85-minute video, Attack on Christian America, by Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe.

The President has repeatedly stated that we are NOT at war with Islam, nor will we ever be. Wrong! What's happening in Iraq and Afghanistan even now as you read these words is not a ping pong tournament! Islam is raging in its effort to dominate the world. Khamenei, the chief cleric of Iran, recently said, "It matters not how many Muslims must die in a nuclear war as long as the flag of Islam flies over all nations."

The United Nations is pushing for the "Hate speech" law. This law will call for persecuting, jailing, and judging people who speak against the Koran or Muhammad, and could also make it illegal to declare the age-old truth that Jesus Christ is the only way to heaven and eternal life! This extraordinary video reveals the radical Muslim threat to Western civilization as it's never been seen before.

Never before has a single video been so important for your security, and the security of your family and loved ones — in this earthly realm, and in eternity!

The people of America deserve the truth — they need the truth — and the video entitled Attack on Christian America: The UN's Threat to Your Beliefs provides it.

In this unique video experience, you'll learn:

- The meaning of Mark 7:6 (“This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me”) and Luke 16:15 (“Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts”)
- What Louis Farrakhan, the radical Muslim leader, says about Barack Obama (“Our Messiah has come”)
- Four Muslim nations that want President Obama to come and conduct peace negotiations between the Jews and the Palestinians — Why would they ever invite a Christian to lead them? Strange.
- How the various denominations within Islam (Shiites & Sunnis) are killing each other's members and destroying each other's mosques erected to worship Allah

- How the President's beliefs about Heaven and Hell contradict the Scriptures in 219 biblical texts!
- Why Georgetown University covered symbols of Christ and the cross, demanded by the White House, before President Obama would come to speak!
- How a Catholic leader, Bishop Sheen, decades ago forecasted that the day would come when the Cross would be disrespected by leaders of his church.
- Why the President's belief that there are “many paths to heaven” are found to be wrong 400 times in the New Testament which states that Jesus is the only way and another 700 verses state it's the shed Blood of Jesus Christ that brings remission of sins.
- And more!

This is serious business when the President of the United States claims to be a Christian but contradicts the most fundamental truths of God's Word. Those who believe, with him, in this New Age abominable doctrine will be lost for eternity! Who said so? Jesus said in John 3:36, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.”

Could anything be more plain than John 8:24 when Jesus said, “Ye shall die in your sins, for if ye

Dear Dr. Van Impe,

I just want to say Thank you both. I watch online each week, and would be lost without your program. I feel Jack is like a close disciple of Jesus and also much like Moses, because he leads us to Him. My wife and I had stopped going to church a while ago because nobody preaches the true gospel anymore, and they accept un-Christian behavior. So thank you Jack Van Impe. Your commanding voice of wisdom of the Gospel of Jesus Christ makes me feel like I'm listening to Jesus himself. Don't ever stop! I could go on and on about how much I appreciate you but then I would be typing forever. God Bless You Both.

believe not that I am He (God and Savior) ye shall die in your sin,” and in John 14:6, “I am the way the truth and the life:, no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

These are only three verses of 400 stating that Christ is the only way to Heaven. Imagine, we have 397 verses to go and you will see and hear many of them in this new video study.

Attack on Christian America: The UN's Threat to Your Beliefs is the essential video to rightly divide fact from fiction — the President's delusions about the Word of God ... from the everlasting, life-transforming truth of the Scriptures!

I urge you to request one of the most important video studies we've ever released. Your ministry gift of $24.95 will be the most important investment you'll ever make in bringing the truth to many hearts as well as supporting our global ministry. 🌍

Doomsday

COMING MAY 21ST?

You may have heard of Harold Camping who is an executive of Family Radio Network — not Family Life Radio network.

But did you know he has predicted the world will end on May 21, 2011? That's only weeks away! Plus he has billboards erected in major cities predicting this cataclysmic event.

With great urgency, Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe have examined the evidence Camping presents for this bold and erroneous assertion in their latest DVD teaching, Harold Camping — End of the World, May 21, 2011? In this DVD teaching you will get the answers to vital questions such as:

- Is Harold Camping's teaching on the End of the World believable?
- Should we accept his teaching that the End of the Church Age, including Baptism and the Lords Supper, ended in 2002?
- How does he come to this conclusion dating Adam and Eve's creation in 11,013 BC? When did their creation scripturally begin?
- Why did Jesus say no one can know the day or the hour of His return? Dr. Van Impe's answer is shocking! As he discusses oceanography and the world's continents, you will hear information that few have ever heard. Early one morning the Holy Spirit awakened him with the thought of studying these two subjects. What a revelation from God you will receive.

- Can we know the time of Christ's return is near?
- Biblical evidence that the world will not end on May 21, 2011 or ever. This is a must that produces comfort for you, your loved ones and friends
- Where and when will Christ set up His Kingdom on earth forever and forever? Will it be in our galaxy?
- How we can be prepared for Christ's Biblical return?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe in this DVD present the finest explanation of Bible prophecy you will ever hear, and it's perfect for anyone who has an interest in "doomsday" predictions. Send for it now!

Dr. Van Impe states that you need this video in such an hour of history to prove that: "The world will never end." Over 120 Bible verses dogmatically declare this truth. This is the most important DVD created for believers to prove to loved ones, neighbors, and friends that the doomsday theories for May 21, 2011, December 21, 2012, or any upcoming date in history, will never happen. It's a world without end.

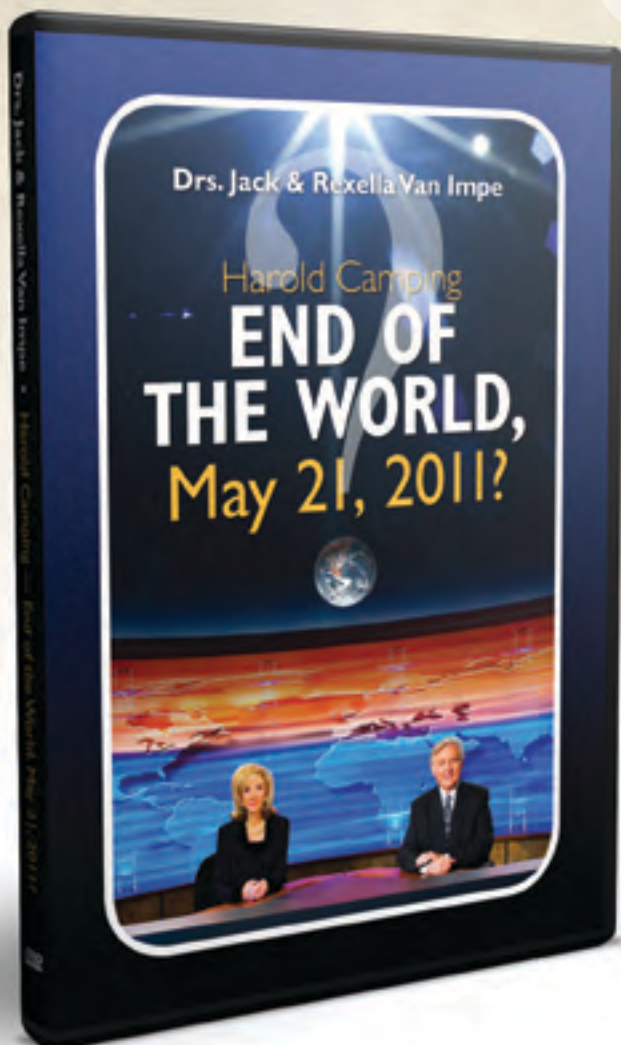

Order this video and be ready since other doomsday scenarios will be spoken of in the near future.

THE LORD JESUS CHRIST THE SINNER'S SUBSTITUTE

by DR. JACK VAN IMPE

EACH OF US IS FAMILIAR with the term substitute. During our school days when the regular teacher became ill, another instructor filled his or her position. The replacement was called a “substitute” teacher. They were one who took the place of another. In theological studies, this principle is contained in the doctrine of the substitutionary or “vicarious” work of Christ. In other words, the Son of God, because of His enormous love for sinners, took our place or became our substitute.

Christ bore our sin

In His substitutionary work, the Lord Jesus Christ took upon himself the sinner’s sin. Oh, what love that a Holy God should leave heaven for earth's misery, in order that He might — in a body of flesh — take upon himself our sin. Yes, Jesus is God. “God was manifest in the flesh” (1 Timothy 3:16). In Hebrews 1:8, the Father, speaking to His Son, says, “Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever.” Jesus was in the form of God (a spirit) and came to earth to be made in the likeness of men. He did so in order that He might take the place of each sinner, thereby becoming the sinner's substitute (see Philippians 2:6 - 8).

As the God-man, He never experienced or tasted the dregs of sin because He was the Holy One. Isaiah was overwhelmed with the holiness of God, and he said in chapter 6, verse 3, “Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.” Three times the prophet uttered that phrase — once for each member of the Trinity.

He continued in verse 5, “Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips.” What made Isaiah feel so lowly? He had witnessed the holiness of God. The remainder of the verse tells the story. “For mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.” I believe the one Isaiah saw was the Lord Jesus Christ because He is the one who bears the title, “KING OF KINGS.”

In Revelation 19:11, the Lord Jesus Christ returns to earth, and the text states, “I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True.” Verse 13: “And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood [this speaks of Christ's redemptive work as Saviour by the shedding of His blood]; and his name is called The Word of God [this ties in with His preexistence as expressed in John 1:1].” Then, in verse 16, we are presented with His glorious title: “And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS. AND LORD OF LORDS.”

Oh, dear friend, Jesus was, is, and always will be the Holy One. While upon earth He did no sin (see 1 Peter 2:22), He knew no sin (see 2 Corinthians 5:21), and He could victoriously challenge the crowds with the words, “Which of you convinceth me of sin?” (John 8:46).

The tremendous truth that I am about to present is that this totally holy, spotless Christ was willing to take mankind's filthy, vile, loathsome, abominable sin upon His being at Calvary. The Prophet Isaiah, so humbled as he beheld the King in His beauty and holiness, also saw Him bearing the degraded, depraved wickedness of all of earth's race. Thus, in chapter 53, verse 6, he said, “All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.”

This agrees with 2 Corinthians 5:21: “For he [Jehovah] hath made him [Christ] to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.” This is the good news — “Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again the third day” (see 1 Corinthians 15:3,4). Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree (1 Peter 2:24). “Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood” (Revelation 1:5).

Our sin grieved Christ

Can you imagine this Holy One bearing all the filth of the world at Calvary? This is what so deeply disturbed the Lord Jesus Christ in Gethsemane. He knew He had come to shed His blood for sinners, for He planned it with the Father and Holy Spirit before the world was created. Proof? “Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world” (1 Peter 1:20). Jesus Christ is “the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world” (Revelation 13:8). The crucifixion was not taking Him by surprise, for He had helped plan it.

His reason for crying out, “My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death, and O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me” (Matthew 26:38,39), was Christ's dreadful hatred of sin — my sin and your sin! The iniquity of all sinners, heaped upon Christ at His crucifixion, caused His Father to turn His face away from Him — forsaking Him during the hours that He was hanging upon that tree, bearing our wickedness.

Jesus knew that soon the cry of Matthew 27:46, “Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why has thou forsaken me?” would become a reality. Just the thought of the weight of bearing all this sin was undeniably heavy for the Holy One who had never sinned. Nevertheless, He took our place and became our substitute. He bore our grief and sorrow as He filled our shoes. Isaiah 53:4 says, “Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows.”

Consider the extent of Christ's grief by meditating upon John 19:34: “But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.” Medical men at one time thought this to be an impossibility. The human body does not have enough water in that particular area to produce a flow. Through advanced science and technology in the medical field, today's doctors inform us that water may freely run from that area if an incision is made after one dies in grief. The supreme sacrifice made to save us, through the shedding of His blood, tormented and broke Christ's heart as revealed through the flowing of water from his side.

To bear every sinner's sin is an experience that none of us shall ever taste because Christ, the Holy One, has already endured it for us and was the only One who could. However, many of you know the torment of mind you are presently experiencing because of some hidden secret sin you are harboring. Multiply this billions of times or trillions of times and you will begin to comprehend just what Jesus experienced at Golgotha.

First Corinthians 6:9-11 lists just a few of the sins that Christ bore as He took our place: "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God." Wait! The next verse says, "And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus."

Christ, through His blood, can remove any and all sin if one will just call on Him. Read Romans 1:28-32 and Galatians 5:19-21 and discover that Christ also bore wickedness, maliciousness, envy, murder, deceit, backbiting, hatred of God, pride, disrespect for parents, uncleanness (or dirty, double-meaning jokes), lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft (which comes from the Greek word pharmakeia meaning "drug use"), hatred of others, strife and fighting, heresies, and drunkenness.

Yes, He even died to save false, heretical teachers who deny the virgin birth, the deity of Christ, the blood atonement, and the bodily resurrection. The precious blood of the Lord Jesus Christ is so powerful and efficacious that over 2,000 years after it was shed, all these sins, plus many others not mentioned, will be immediately blotted out when one comes to Christ, for "the blood of Jesus Christ his [God's] Son cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7).

The total meaning of Christ's substitutionary sacrifice is best expressed in 2 Corinthians 5:21: "For he [God] hath made him [Christ] to be sin for us...that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

Christ died our death

The Bible states, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die" (Ezekiel 18:4). "For the wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). "Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death" (James 1:15). This is not only referring to the first death (the grave), but also the "second death" which is the lake of fire (see Revelation 20:14,15).

There is no doubt about physical death being experienced by the Lord Jesus at the cross. Christ died that we might live. Yet, He said, "He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die" (John 11:25,26). That which we call death today is but a transference into a richer, greater experience if one is born again. Philippians 1:21 states, "To die is gain." Why? For the Christian, to be absent from the body (that's what death is, a departure from the body) is to be present with the Lord (see 2 Corinthians 5:8).

What, then, is the "second death" or the lake of fire? It is a place of eternal suffering and separation from God. Not only did Jesus suffer physically at Calvary, He also suffered spiritually — being forsaken of God during His hours of agony. Because the vicarious or substitutionary sacrifice of Christ included the giving of His body and soul (physical and spiritual death), we see that the Lord Jesus Christ also bore the punishment of our second death (separation from the Father).

Yes, Jesus also suffered spiritually upon the cruel cross, for Isaiah 53:10 states, "Thou [Yahveh] shalt make his soul an offering for sin." This means that during those excruciating hours on the cross, the Lord Jesus Christ bore in His soul every pang and pain our eternal judgment would have brought to us. Matthew 27:34 states, "They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall." Notice that this took place twice — once before He was crucified (see Matthew 27:34) and again while He was dying upon the cross (verse 48). Gall was a pain killer. Verse 34 continues, "And when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink." In effect, Christ was saying, "No, no, I've come to bear the sentence of death for the sinner in My body and in My soul, physically and spiritually, and I will bear every pang. Away with your narcotic pain killer." Yes, Jesus gave His soul unto death (Isaiah 53:12).

As stated previously, the water, which flowed from the Saviour's side, indicated that tremendous grief was experienced as His body and soul were made an offering for sin. Surely all the fires of eternal hell surrounded Him as He hung upon the cross. No wonder He said, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:46). Thus, when all the sins ever committed were laid upon Jesus, the Father could not look at His Son until the sacrifice was completed. Praise God, when our Substitute finished His sacrifice, the Father approved and looked upon Him once again. That is the meaning of the Resurrection (see Romans 4:25).

May I suggest that you read all of the accounts of the crucifixion story (Psalm 22, Isaiah 53, Matthew 27, Mark 15, Luke 23, and John 19) and then reread them. You will clearly see that the Lord Jesus Christ took both your first and second death — the grave and the lake of fire — upon himself when He died. Because He took your place, bearing your sin and taking your penalty, you can receive forgiveness and eternal life simply by receiving what Christ did for you.

John 1:12: "As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God." When you receive Him, your judgment day will be past. "[We are] passed from death [judgment or condemnation] unto life" (John 5:24). Romans 8:1: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus." Why? He paid the penalty for you. When you receive Christ, God says, "[Your] sins and iniquities will I remember no more" (Hebrews 8:12 and 10:17).

Potentially, your sin has been paid for by Christ through the cross. Experientially, you must receive what has been provided. Think of it! No sin, no judgment, and no hell. No sin because His blood can cleanse all from every stain and taint of the past. No judgment because His blood does such a thorough job of cleansing sinners that there's nothing left to judge. No hell because one whose sins have been washed away and who's sins cannot be found cannot be punished — Hebrews 8:12.

Praise the Lord! Your past can be liquidated, obliterated, and forgotten — and this will be your blessed experience today if you let the Lord Jesus Christ come into your life. If you reject Him, however, your sins will take you into the grave and then into the second death — the lake of fire — to be separated from the presence of God forever and forever and forever. Oh, be ready to meet the Lord Jesus Christ when the call to leave this world comes at your appointed time (Job 7:1). 🙏

He Spoke Her Name

BY DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

SPRINGTIME IS ABOUT TO ARRIVE in Michigan, soon to be blossoming forth in beauty and majesty. The earth will rise from her cold, barren slumber, exclaiming to anyone who will hear: “Look at me — I’m alive!” Everywhere you will look, it will be so shockingly spectacular.

The month of April is said to derive its name from the Latin verb aperio, which means “to open.” As I look at the sights and sounds breaking forth around me, I can’t help but feel the month is aptly named. There is the budding of the foliage. The grass has become a soft carpet of green once again. Even the robins have returned home to nest, chirping happily above me in the trees.

Deep inside, I feel my own state of mind coming alive with the countryside. There is a new sense of joy and expectation with each decision that I face!

That is why I always look forward to this exciting, flowery season of the year. To me, the experience of life bursting forth from a wintry grave is the perfect setting in which to celebrate the Resurrection. As a matter of fact, I feel spring is almost as beautiful as the Easter holiday itself — for both typify life, hope and love.

Think about that first, remarkable Resurrection morning with me...

For three dark days, the cold bite of death had filled the air as our Savior's body lay lifeless in a tomb.

The cost was immense. Only His crimson blood was sufficient to take away the sins of the world. Only His shed blood could make our spirits safe and ready for heaven. On the morning of the third day, the sacrifice was accepted. The price of our salvation was paid in full.

Just two days before, several women had stood nearby the hill of Golgotha, witnessing the painful events of the cross. They had left their homes several months earlier to journey with Jesus as He shared His teachings throughout the Judean countryside. At the foot of the blood-stained cross stood Mary the mother of Jesus, His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene out of whom Jesus had cast seven devils. (Mark 15:40,41; John 19:25, Mark 16:9)

But where did these women go? On the miraculous morning of the Resurrection, only Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, would come forward to minister to the entombed body of Jesus. (Mark 16:1)

Then Jesus said to her, "Mary." That's all it took. He quietly spoke her name. She turned herself and said unto Him, "Rabboni!" which is to say, "Master." (John 20:16)

Mary Magdalene receives a blessing

The painful memories of the cross must have run time and time again in Mary's mind. If ever she loved her Lord, it must have been at this special moment in history — as she realized the cost of salvation being purchased for her through the life of God's Son. I am sure the image of her bleeding Savior continued to melt her already tender heart with love and grace.

How strikingly beautiful to recognize that the one who had been forgiven of so much would be the first to see our Lord after His resurrection. (Mark 16:9)

Perhaps one reason our sovereign Lord provided Mary with this distinction is because she was in the right place. Her arrival at the tomb was a selfless act of servanthood. She came before the morning light to care lovingly for the dead body of Jesus and anoint it with the proper spices of embalming (Mark 16:1).

With the stone rolled away, Mary frantically ran to tell Peter and John. (John 20:2) "They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre," she cried, "and we know not where they have laid him!"

Later, Mary would return to the site of the tomb, where she would weep in agony for the lost body of her Master. As she cried, she stooped down to take a look inside the cold, empty sepulchre. There she saw the linen wrappings, with the face cloth, in a place by itself. She saw two angels in white, one at the head and one at the feet where the body of Jesus had been lying. They said to her, "Woman, why weepest thou?"

"Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have taken Him," she replied.

Then she turned around and saw Jesus standing before her. But she didn't know it was He (John 20:11-14). Jesus said to her, "Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou?" (John 20:15).

Perhaps her eyes were so flooded with tears — the agony and distress of the past three days — that she did not recognize the Lord. (Of course, the fact that Jesus was also in a glorified body also could have changed His perspective to her.) Mary thought He was the gardener.

Mary Magdalene recognized His voice

Then Jesus said to her, "Mary." That's all it took. He quietly spoke her name. She turned herself and said unto Him, "Rabboni!" which is to say, "Master." (John 20:16)

After all that she had been through ... after witnessing the grueling death on the cross ... after believing the body of her Lord had been stolen ... I can hardly begin to imagine how wonderful it must have felt to recognize His voice.

It must have been an incredible moment, as she realized "He is alive!"

Faith must have welled up within her. Peace flooded her soul. "Everything is going to be all right," she must have thought. "My Lord is alive ... and He has everything under control."

Mary had listened to Him on many occasions, sharing

After witnessing and experiencing all these amazing things in her life, Mary must have been overwhelmed with a sense of excitement! I can't imagine any other reaction, except running out and telling others about the Good News of what she had seen ... and that is precisely what she did! (John 20:18) have faced. But I have never personally heard an audible voice, speaking my name.

Yet one day we will! One incredible, glorious day He will say to you and me, "Come up hither" (Revelation 4:1). When He does, on that great and glorious day, we will recognize His familiar voice! (John 10:27).

Mary Magdalene rejoiced in His promise

Seeing the risen Lord standing before her, I am confident Mary was reminded of the many times Jesus predicted and promised His Resurrection. (Matthew 16:21; John 10:17,18; John 2:19-21)

At the time these words were spoken, they probably seemed confusing, meaningless and without hope to her. But now, as she looked into the compassionate eyes of her risen Savior, she couldn't help but rejoice in the promises He had spoken. Her weeping ceased and her emotions instantaneously turned to joy.

As you and I receive the Lord, we experience this same sense of excitement and comfort in our soul, as we realize the truth that is found in the promises of God's Word. We rejoice in the salvation purchased for us at Calvary (John 3:16; Romans 3:24,25), and in the fact that we are new creatures in Christ Jesus (2 Corinthians 5:17), and that we are not saved by the works of the law, but totally as a gift of faith (Galatians 3:13). These promises comfort our soul.

In the same way, we should also receive tremendous joy in the promises Jesus has spoken in His Word the truth and comfort of God's Word throughout the Judean countryside. Nothing could comfort Her soul like the matchless voice of the Master. And now, He stood miraculously before her!

By faith, you and I accept His teaching as His voice in our lives today.

I have experienced His voice as He speaks to me through His Word — through the sense of peace in regard to a decision I am making through prayer — and through the direction of circumstances I

Dear Dr. Van Impe,

I always believed I couldn't go to heaven because I was a sinner, so I gave up hope. But, then I saw your program one night and through your program I was saved! Thank you! Bless you and Rexella.

that have yet to be fulfilled. He is coming again, friend, and He is preparing a place for you and me (John 14:1-6).

Mary Magdalene shared the Good News

Look at all the events that transpired in the life of Mary Magdalene: She experienced the joy of receiving forgiveness from Jesus Christ. She was set free from the bondage of demons that controlled her life. She witnessed the precious redemption of men's souls at the cross of Calvary. Now, she is seeing the resurrected Lord standing before her, in one of the most historical events in history — an event around which the entire universe revolves.

After witnessing and experiencing all these amazing things in her life, Mary must have been overwhelmed with a sense of excitement!

I can't imagine any other reaction, except running out and telling others about the Good News of what she had seen ... and that is precisely what she did! (John 20:18)

This is the same excitement that should reside inside of us, after we encounter the salvation of the Lord in our lives.

Jesus is alive. Jesus is alive in us! (Galatians 2:20). May our hearts bud and bloom with a holy desire to share the Good News of the Lord during this wonderful time of the year! ☺

How this precursor of the prophesied one-world government may hope to hobble Christianity!

Right now, U.S. President Barack Obama supports a United Nations "hate law" that favors Islam and puts Christians at risk! Could this be the issue that shows how the UN's "one-world government" fulfills a final role in Bible prophecy?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe have prepared an important new video teaching that you'll want to share with your friends, family and church — because it answers troubling questions about the future of North America and Christianity itself!

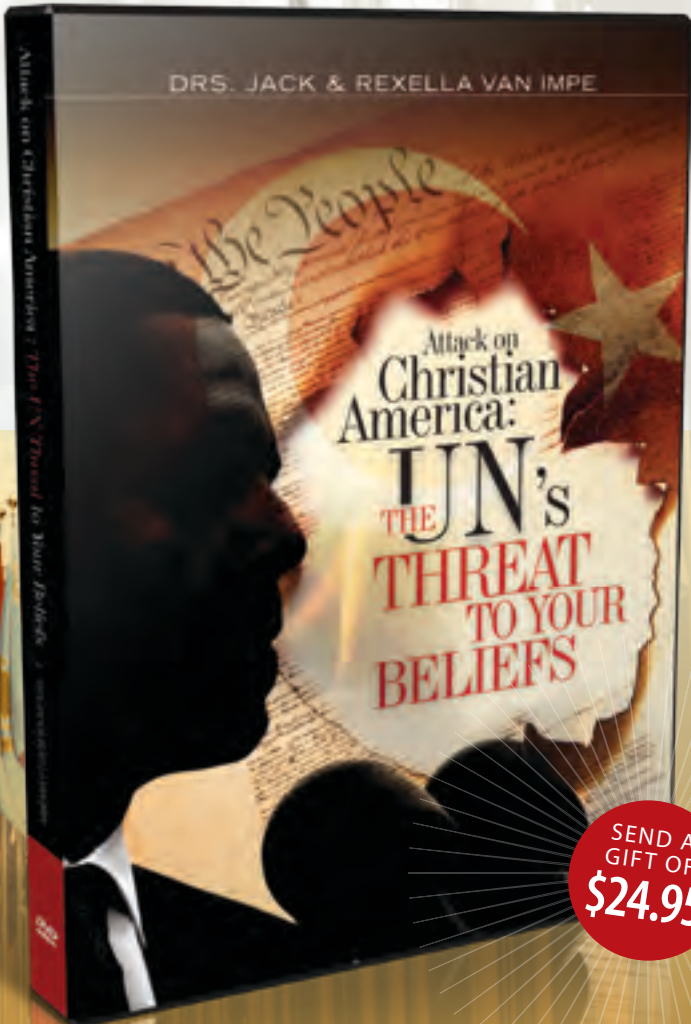

- Why do 50% in America question President Obama's Christianity?
- What is his position on the Bible, Christ, heaven, and Hell?
- Why does he and his Administration forbid the use of terms such as Islamic terrorist after the horrific acts of terrorism perpetrated by Islamic individuals and groups within our nation?

- Why did President Obama show his preference for Islam over Christianity by having the Pentagon, of which he is the Commander in Chief cancel Billy Graham's son as chairman and speaker at America's Day of Prayer after Franklin Graham spoke out against the massacre and cremation of 3,000 innocent victims on 9/11?
- Why is our president silent concerning the persecution and slaughter of Christians in most Muslim nations?

- Why does the President repeatedly insist that we are not at war with Islam, and never will be?
- Why is he quiet about the teaching of Islam concerning their prophet Jesus?
- What did Barack Obama learn in Islamic schools in Muslim Indonesia in his childhood?
- Which world leader believes Jesus will convert to Islam and serve as second-in-command under a Muslim sovereign? Does President Obama agree?
- How much danger are we in today because of the march toward embrace of Islam in Washington, D.C., and at the United Nations?

WORLD Report

Al Qaeda Promises U.S. Death By A ‘Thousand Cuts’

ABC News reports: “Printer bombs planted on two cargo flights cost only a few thousand dollars and were intended to affect the American economy, according to a newly published Al Qaeda-affiliated magazine.

The attempt was called ‘Operation Hemorrhage,’ boasted the magazine, and the entire plot cost Al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula, or AQAP, only $4,200.

... A special edition of Inspire magazine — an English-language propaganda publication produced by AQAP — gave a detailed description of how the attempted attack was conceived and produced.

‘Two Nokia mobiles, $150 each, two HP printers, $300 each, plus shipping, transportation and other miscellaneous expenses add up to a total bill of $4,200,’ one article said. ‘That is all that Operation Hemorrhage cost us. In terms of time, it took us three months to plan and execute the operation from beginning to end.’

The magazine also revealed the attack was not meant to kill more than the plane’s pilot and co-pilot, and was meant to force the U.S. government to spend billions of dollars on preventive security screening measures.

The strategy, the magazine said, was ‘of attacking the enemy with smaller, but more frequent operations is what some may refer to as the strategy of a thousand cuts. The aim is to bleed the enemy to death.’...” (President Obama states: We are not at war with Islam and never will be. That’s wishful thinking on his part. 9/11 began the war as 3,000 of America’s people were slaughtered and cremated. Our President admires President Franklin D. Roosevelt. When Japan slaughtered 2,200 of our military men at Pearl Harbor December 7th, 1941, Roosevelt and Congress declared war the next day — December 8, 1941.)

‘Iran is a latter-day Nazi Germany’

Haaretz reports: “If it were up to Reza Kahlili, he would immediately order a bombing of his native Iran, in order to halt its nuclear program and bring down the Islamic Republic and the ayatollahs. And since he doesn’t believe the United States will do that, he hopes Israel will.

‘I strongly believe that it’s 1938 all over again,’ he says in a telephone interview from California, when the world groveled before Germany, hoping to appease the looming Nazi monster. ‘The difference is that this time the consequences would be much worse than World War II. The West had the opportunity to overthrow this regime in Tehran without firing a single bullet last year when the mass uprising happened, but now I truly believe it will be war whether we want it or not, and for that reason I think we should determine the terms of it. The question to ask ourselves is: Do we want to confront them now or when they have the nukes? That’s going to make a big difference to the millions who will lose their lives once they get the nukes.’...” (The above headline is intriguing. Hitler was an occultist and proclaimed that when the destruction of Atlantis occurred the spirits of the deceased entered the bodies of the Germans and Iranians — hence his title for both races as “Aryans,” was the Master Race. Whatever the case, Ahmadinejad and Hitler both had and have one goal — the destruction of the Jews and Israel — Psalm 83:4.)

One EMP burst and the world goes dark

USA Today reports: “The sky erupts. Cities darken, food spoils and homes fall silent. Civilization collapses.

End-of-the-world novel? A video game? Or could such a scenario loom in America’s future?

There is talk of catastrophe ahead, depending on whom you believe, because of the threat of an electromagnetic pulse triggered by either a supersized solar storm or terrorist A-bomb, both capable of disabling the electric grid that powers modern life.

Electromagnetic pulses (EMP) are oversized outbursts of atmospheric electricity. Whether powered by geomagnetic storms or by nuclear blasts, their resultant intense magnetic fields can induce ground currents strong enough to burn out power lines and electrical equipment across state lines...

Fear is evident. With the sun’s 11-year solar cycle ramping up for its stormy maximum in 2012, and nuclear concerns swirling about Iran and North Korea, a drumbeat of reports and blue-ribbon panels center on electromagnetic pulse scenarios.

‘We’re taking this seriously,’ says Ed Legge of the Edison Electric Institute in Washington, which represents utilities. He points to a North American Electric Reliability Corp. (NERC) report in June, conducted with the Energy Department, that found pulse threats to the grid ‘may be much greater than anticipated.’

There are ‘some important reasons for concern,’ says physicist Yousaf Butt of the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics in Cambridge, Mass. ‘But there is also a lot of fluff.’

At risk are the more than 200,000 miles of high-voltage transmission lines that cross North America, supplying 1,800 utilities the power for TVs, lights, refrigerators and air conditioners in homes, and for the businesses, hospitals and police stations that take care of us all.

‘The electric grid’s vulnerability to cyber and to other attacks is one of the single greatest threats to our national security,’ Rep. Ed Markey, D-Mass., said in June as he introduced the bill to the House of Representatives...” (2 Timothy 3:1: “This know also that in the last days perilous [dangerous] times shall come.” See also Joel 2:30, 31; Acts 2:19, 20; and Matthew 24:29.)

‘Hizbullah has 10,000 operatives manning 40,000 missiles’

The Jerusalem Post reports: “A report in the French daily Le Figaro revealed new information on the military wing of Hezbollah’s structural make-up, with details on the guerrilla group’s 10,000 operatives and arsenal of some 40,000 rockets. The report also focused on Syria’s role in Hizbullah operations, in both manufacture and transportation of rockets.

According to the Le Figaro report, which quoted anonymous officials in the French Defense Ministry and Western intelligence sources, Hizbullah has three units dedicated to the transportation and maintenance of its rocket arsenal.

The unit responsible for transporting weapons from Damascus, Unit 108, received a delivery of Syrian missiles headed to Lebanon in January last year, according to Le Figaro. The shipment, which was apparently spotted by US military intelligence, was said to have contained 26 M-6002 missiles with a range of 250km. Unit 108’s main barracks are located near Syria’s border with Lebanon, in the Shi’ite town of Doma, the report added, with operatives also positioned within Damascus. The unit has another base next to Damascus Airport, which is vital for the handling of weapon shipments from Iran — Hezbollah’s main backer.

The Le Figaro report also revealed that Unit 112 is in charge of transporting missiles, usually by night and towards the end of the month. The weapons are moved using trucks with false number plates, according to the report.

Hezbollah’s Unit 100 reportedly deals with deployment and training, and making sure the missiles reach their final destinations, in various camps located within 150km from Israel’s northern border. As has been widely reported, Le Figaro noted that Iranian officers are responsible for training Hizbullah guerrilla fighters...” (Dangerous times are ahead for Israel and the Mid-East as Russia and many Muslim nations unite to attack Israel, but Israel will win as Yahweh God comes to the aid of His beloved and chosen people — Ezekiel 38:1, 2, 8, 16; Ezekiel 39:1-13. Russia’s Muslim allies — Daniel 11:40; Isaiah 17:1; Ezekiel 38:5-7 and Psalm 83:5-7. Their purpose — Psalm 83:4. But it fails — Isaiah 56:15.)

Christian woman sentenced to death in Pakistan ‘for blasphemy’

The London Daily Telegraph reports: “Asia Bibi, a 45-year-old mother-of-five, denies blasphemy and told investigators that she was being persecuted for her faith in a country where Christians face routine harassment and discrimination.

Christian groups and human rights campaigners condemned the verdict and called for the blasphemy laws to be repealed.

Her supporters say she will now appeal against the sentence handed down in a local court in the town of Sheikhpura, near Lahore, Pakistan.

Ashiq Masih, her husband, said he had not had the heart to break the news to two of their children.

‘I haven’t told two of my younger daughters about the court’s decision,’ he said. ‘They asked me many times about their mother but I can’t get the courage to tell them that the judge has sentenced their mother to capital punishment for a crime she never committed.’ Mrs. Bibi has been held in prison since June last year.

The court heard she had been working as a farmhand in fields with other women, when she was asked to fetch drinking water.

Some of the other women — all Muslims — refused to drink the water as it had been brought by a Christian and was therefore ‘unclean,’ according to Mrs. Bibi’s evidence, sparking a row.

The incident was forgotten until a few days later when Mrs. Bibi said she was set upon by a mob.

The police were called and took her to a police station for her own safety.

Shahzad Kamran, of the Sharing Life Ministry Pakistan, said: ‘The police were under pressure from this Muslim mob, including clerics, asking for Asia to be killed because she had spoken ill of the Prophet Mohammed.

‘So after the police saved her life they then registered a blasphemy case against her.’ He added that she had been held in isolation for more than a year before being sentenced to death on Monday.

‘The trial was clear,’ he said. ‘She was innocent and did not say those words.’ Earlier this year, Pakistan’s internet service providers were ordered to block Facebook to prevent access to supposedly blasphemous images.

Human rights groups believe the law is often used to discriminate against religious minorities, such as the country’s estimated three million Christians.

Although no one has ever been executed under Pakistan’s blasphemy laws — most are freed on appeal — as many as 10 people are thought to have been murdered while on trial...” (The blasphemy law is wicked and favors Islam. The UN is pushing for its passage led by President Obama and 56 Muslim nations and is being created to persecute Christians. Beloved in Christ, stand firm on Jude 1:3,4: “Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.”) 🙏

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

We want to take this opportunity to thank the Godly men of integrity that serve on the Board of Directors of Jack Van Impe Ministries and Jack Van Impe Ministries of Canada without financial compensation. Many ministries have boards consisting only of husband, wife, and son or daughter; this is a dangerous policy because such boards can vote for excessive salaries and materialism. We are thankful to say that that is not the practice of Jack Van Impe Ministries and Jack Van Impe Ministries of Canada. The faithfulness and dedication of these men to the service of the Lord is a great encouragement to Rexella and me.

Letters We Love

Dr. Van Impe,

I am a former member of what I now call a “cult,” and one night in 2004, I was “channel surfing” and saw you and your lovely wife and was so spellbound because I had been brainwashed for so long, and when I heard you speak, I knew it was the true word of God! I accepted Jesus Christ as my personal savior that night. I have since moved from Florida to California, found a great Bible-based Church, and I watch your program 2 or 3 times a week, and love it! Please keep speaking the truth, you and Rexella have such an impact on us “lost souls.” Thank you.

Christine T.

Dear Drs. Jack & Rexella Van Impe

Rexella and you have brought a miracle into my life. You see, I have been married to a loving, wonderful man for fifteen years, and in 2009 he finally gave his life to the Lord Jesus. And I have your ministry to thank for it! Now my husband talks about the Bible to everyone he meets, especially those people he meets at work. He is a police officer and has talked to many people about our Lord Jesus. My husband has never been one to read anything, but through your ministry you have given him the hope of Jesus Christ, and he reads the Bible all the time. Also every Friday night he always asked me, “Are you ready to watch Jack?”

Wendi J.

Dear Jack & Rexella,

I caught your show On January 3, 2011, and was very glad to hear you talk about the lack of truth being told about the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you for speaking the truth and always being a standard for others to look up to as a spiritual example. My wife is a Methodist minister, and is always preaching the truth about Jesus. She has told her church that the Lord Jesus is coming soon! She has been told to water down her sermons about the end time events. Hmm. My wife God bless her continues to speak about the soon return of our Lord. You give the same message and I want to let you know I’m praying for you. God bless you and your wonderful wife on your message in these last days. I will try and send you some money to support your great work on this important message to the world. The Holy Spirit is urging me to tell one and all about the Lord’s soon return to this earth! I work for a major hospital, and I’m always talking to the sick and dying about life after death. I’ve been told I’d be fired if I continue to tell the cancer patients about Jesus, and how they can receive salvation through Christ. I told the head administrator that someday I will stand before the God of creation and be called into account about my actions and words in this life. I let them know it’s more important to me to let the dying know the truth and spend eternity in heaven, than to lose my job and have them lose their souls. Well, as you can imagine this doesn't play well in the "politically correct" world that I work in. Please pray for me that I'm protected by the Lord, and I'm able to tell those who have one step in eternity about our Lord Jesus Christ. God Bless.

Ray S.

Dear Jack and Rexella,

Your television and website ministry has been such a source of comfort to me since I lost my father to cancer in February of 2010. My father loved the Lord so much and actually looked forward to "going home" to be with Jesus. He loved to watch your television program and was so excited to see the Lord come for him very soon in the rapture. He would share this with the people he knew. Even on the sidelines of my children's soccer games. I now faithfully watch your program every week. I even DVR it to make sure I don't miss it. I love Jesus with all my heart and am so excited that I am part of the generation that will hear "come up hither." Not only do I long to see my savior but I am comforted in knowing that soon I will see my dad again too! Thank you for faithfully sharing the hope we have in the Lord's return. I love you both.

Rich & Cindy M

I just wanted to give a big THANK YOU to the both of you for giving us all such hope and faith. I've been a "lukewarm Christian" most of my life but after I started watching your show, I have "seen the light!" I, too, believe we are living in the end times and am trying to get right with the Lord before he returns. I also wanted to thank Dr. Van Impe for the Prophecy Bible. I actually wanted it for Christmas and decided to buy it for myself because if I waited on my husband to get it, I'd still be waiting! When he came home and saw me reading it, he said "Oh Lord!" I replied, "Exactly!" You both have been truly blessed to find your calling and each other and I'm truly blessed to be able to share fellowship with you in these times we're in.

God bless you both,
Mrs. Angela H.
Naperville, IL

Hello, Drs. Jack and Rexella,

I am sitting here at work and I wanted to take a moment to express my thanks and appreciation for everything you do for your viewers, I being one of them. While you do not know us personally, you come into our homes each week and lift our hopes and spirits more than you realize. Your messages are always on point and you both touch so many hearts. So many of us have had a very difficult year, and it is always a blessing to tune into you each week, listen intently and be reminded so lovingly about how God is with each and every one of us, guiding helping us through our trials and pain. Thank you for all you do.

I cannot wait for His return!

With love and gratitude,
Sue in PA

Drs. Jack and Rexella,

I wait eagerly for each new program and Newsletter. Surely the Lord has enabled you to decipher, understand and share the Word of God like none other.

I am compiling, what I call, a rapture packet for my atheist daughter. My hope and goal is to explain what is happening before her eyes. That she will know what to prepare for — what to do and what not to do. I have included your DVD Left Behind and many pages that I print from your website. She knows I am preparing it and says she will look for it — which surprised me as she usually has a big attitude concerning Christianity.

Without your ministry, the packet might be empty and me less informed about the world events and what they mean.

G. C. H.

Oh, the depth of the riches & wisdom & knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments & how inscrutable His ways! Rom. 11:33 (ESV)

Dear Mr. Jack Van Impe,

May God continue to use you mightily on impacting the lives of millions of His precious people. You will never know in this lifetime how many lives you & Mrs. Van Impe have reached. But sure enough, in the life to come you both will have stars in your crown. Do not get discouraged or disheartened, continue to focus, you have come thus far, press for the mark of the price of the high calling in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Yours Same,
Brother, Marcel B.

Dear Jack & Rexella,

I am forever in your debt. I had seen you often when I was much younger and much more foolish. Now at 55 I have come to know so much from you, your ministry and your wonderful Bible. You are doing the work of our savior Jesus the Christ, our rock, our faith, our hope, and our confidence. You have been a true blessing to my wife and our children as well as my wife's mother and soon I hope my own dear mother.

We pray for you all and may the Lord continue to bless each and everyone of you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Don, Sandy, Kaylia & little Debbie

Hi Pastors Jack and Rexella,

I am from Adelaide, South Australia and I watch your programme on the "Church Channel," on Christian TV, and also via the internet.

May I encourage you with some positive feedback?

You are a real blessing to the body of Christ.

Jack, I love hearing about the "rapture" and your views and comments regarding the signs of his return and what's happening in the earth right now. Your knowledge of the scriptures is amazing.

Rexella, I love how you speak into the camera to those who may not know the Lord — your loving, gentle and kind spirit is very evident as you share Jesus with the viewers.

Both you and Jack have the love and joy of the Lord all over your faces and that is a wonderful testimony of the reality of Jesus in your hearts!!

God bless your precious hearts. Keep up the good work!!

If I don't have the privilege of meeting you in person one day, I look forward to seeing you "in the clouds" with our Lord Jesus and sisters and brothers in Christ — what an exciting, awesome, unspeakably joyous occasion that will be — THE RAPTURE of God's people!!! ("No eye has seen, nor ear has heard the things that God has prepared for those who love Him").

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,
Juneeta C.

Dearest Rexella and Jack,

I want to thank you for your obedience to our Heavenly Father. You have poured yourselves out for The Lord with great cost to you both. I want you to know Rexella that although you had no children of your own you do have children. There are many like me who consider you to be a spiritual mother. Your example of grace and joy have encouraged me to press in deeper to know the heart of God and to serve Him with honour and delight. Christ in you the hope of glory! One day, many will introduce themselves to you in Glory and thank you in person, me included. Until then, press on and keep shouting Jack ... keep shouting!

Karen L.

Dear Rexella and Jack Van Impe,

A big thank you from me here in Peru. I always wait for your program to come on, even when it is 11.30 pm, I wait until it is over before going to bed. I watch you on Church Channel online. The more I listened to your teaching, the more I am excited to know that Jesus is coming soon to call us to Himself. I am ready to go. I am a missionary working here in Peru taking care of sick and poor children. I am so blessed with your teachings too, for in the catholic church, I have never heard teachings like this, and so I am blessed and deeply appreciated Jack's knowledge of God's Word, and memorizing them too. What a "computer memory." I pray for you and your ministry. God bless.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY:

will your beloved pets be in heaven?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe understand how passionately many of us care for our pets — our furry and feathered friends. To bring hope to anyone who has ever loved and lost a pet, they've now created this lovely video teaching.

- Many major Christian leaders had much to say about pets in heaven.
- Scriptures do foretell there will be animals in heaven.
- God's glory is revealed through the animal kingdom.
- There is hope that we'll see our pets again.

How does the USA's lack of support for Israel play into the Antichrist's hands?

The United States' policy shifts away from support of Israel could be leading to an actual biblical curse on North America — and eventually to Armageddon itself!

- What makes Israel so beloved by the heavenly Father?
- If they're His Chosen People, why have Israelites traditionally been persecuted, and continue to suffer the animosity of their neighbors?
- When God promised to curse those who curse Israel, what did He mean? What will happen to nations that curse Israel?
- God also promised to bless those who bless Israel — what is the reward for a nation faithful to Israel?
- How is Russia's support for a nuclear Iran fulfilling Bible prophecy?
- How does the attitude of Barack Obama's administration impact this scenario?
- And so much more!

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe's video explains the critical importance of Israel, and specifically the city of Jerusalem, in Bible prophecy ... and how crucial it is for the USA never to lose Israel as an ally.

- China will be a mighty power ... and it is, right now!
- Israel would become a nation ... and it is, right now!
- The Roman Empire will be revived ... and it has been, in the European Union!
