Their new video answers your most burning questions.

- When are apocalyptic judgments going to begin?
- Do Muslims really want to take over America?
- What do all these natural disasters mean — and will there be more?
- What does Revelation say about a one-world government?
- Is World War III on the horizon?
- And much more!

This video teaching is critical for every believer, and is a MUST to share with non-believers who desperately need to know the truth about Bible prophecy and the soon return of the Savior.

TIME FOR NORTH AMERICA TO WAKE UP!

Before it's eternally too late!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

Awake!
The four horsemen of the apocalypse are about to ride!

Here comes the Antichrist!
Here comes his irreligious comrade, the blasphemous false prophet! Here come the wars they start — including Armageddon!

Rapidly approaching catastrophe — that's the forecast by some of the world's foremost secular scholars, historians, and journalists: Henry Kissinger, Ted Koppel, Newt Gingrich, Charles Krauthammer, Cal Thomas, and others. Meanwhile, global leaders are laying plans for the spectacular rise of the New World

Order, and one-world religion!
Leaders of Christianity, Judaism, and Islam are all issuing their final warnings!

The clock is ticking, counting down to the so-called doomsday deadline: December 21st, 2012.
Centuries ago, the Mayans pinpointed this date. So did the Aztecs. So did I Ching. So did the Web Bot Prophecies. What does it all mean? What is the truth?

Will you be ready? Are the people of North America slumbering as they hurtle toward cataclysm?

I dug deeply into my studies — of Bible prophecy, of historical works, of scholarly volumes, and more — and armed with this wealth of information, Rexella and I have produced a new teaching video, *Awake America:

The World's Final Warning*. The riveting questions answered in this fast-paced one-hour-and-45-minute exposé are among the most intriguing and compelling of all time! I have come to a deep biblical conviction that we are the final generation. The Rapture could occur at any moment. At least 50 compelling reasons are presented as to why the Holy Spirit has led me this way. The following are shocking questions answered in this video:

- Are we in the last days? Are the apocalyptic judgments about to begin December 21, 2012?

- Which Old Testament prophecies are already happening, proving the Messiah — our Christ — is about to return?
- What does God’s Word say about the world ending in 2012?
- How do famines, pestilences, earthquakes, floods, tornadoes, and other natural disasters relate to Christ’s coming? What do they mean? Will there be more devastating catastrophes from 2012 onward leading up to Christ’s coming?
- What are the six-day and three-day theories, regarding the approximate time of the Rapture and then Christ’s return to earth? You will be shocked.
- Who are the seven groups, including secret organizations, working to develop a one-world government, the New World Order?
- What does the book of Revelation have to say about the final sign, a one-world government?
- Dr. Rick Warren has reportedly spoken at two Muslim conventions with Islamic leaders and terrorists present. What does the Bible say about mixing Christianity with other faith systems like Islam? What is Dr. Warren’s responsibility? Has he failed?
- What do the Muslims believe about Jesus, from their own Koran? This is rank blasphemy about our Christ.
- How much should Christians be involved in the one-world religion currently emerging?

What should Christians think and do about Chrislam?

- What is the Mark of the Beast? Who will control it worldwide?
- Do Muslims really want to take over America? *The documented evidence reported on my video will shock you.
- What kind of anti-Christian persecution is currently occurring in the Middle East? Thousands of believers are dying in Islamic nations. Get the facts!
- Will Putin be re-elected in Russia? If so, will he head up World War III?
- With so many nations increasing the size of their military, how likely — and how far away — is World War III?
- What is happening in Israel — and what will happen to Israel in the days ahead?
- How can we as Christians face the immediate future?
- And more!

Beloved, I am not a doomsday preacher. The Bible itself declares, in 2 Timothy 3:1: “This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.” Jesus said in Luke 21:25-27: “And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring” — we’re there! “Men’s hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.” We’re there! “And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.” We’re almost there! Get ready!

I say it is time to awaken the world, especially North America. The Holy Spirit has awakened me in the middle of the night, on three separate occasions, and compelled me to warn the world (Ezekiel 33:3).

This is why our television outreach is so critically important! This is why Rexella and I are giving our very lives for this cause! This is why our new video is absolutely crucial — you need to experience the teaching on this video, and share it with those you care about most. It’s closing time, beloved!

Request it today. It’s the most important study of all our 150 books and videos that Rexella and I have created. Help us sound the alarm to awaken North America and the world, and call the lost to faith in Christ before it’s eternally too late! 🙏

I have enjoyed your teachings for years. I pray that the Lord Jesus will keep you in His loving arms and give you strength to take us to His coming. Thank you for teaching the Word, because a lot of preachers aren’t telling what the Bible says about these “last days.”

Supreme Sacrifice
• OF THE •
LORD JESUS CHRIST

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

The world will never know a sacrifice greater than that made by the Lord Jesus Christ in paying the price of mankind's redemption. He willingly relinquished His claim to the attributes and possessions to which He was fully entitled as God. By investigating Christ's sacrifice in detail, one immediately begins to appreciate the Savior's work on his behalf.

The Apostle Paul beautifully told the story in Philippians 2:5-8: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Again in 2 Corinthians 8:9 we find, For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

Christ's heavenly home

First of all, the Lord Jesus sacrificed His heavenly home. Heaven is a place where joy, happiness, and pleasure abound. The psalmist, speaking to his God in Psalm 16:11; said, In thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. In heaven there is no fear of being mugged, robbed, or raped, because the wicked are not there to make trouble, and there the weary be at rest (Job 3:17).

Christ the Savior came from that heaven to give His life and blood to save sinners. He said, I am the living bread which came down from heaven (John 6:51). Jesus so loved sinners that He left the palatial mansions of His home above to become a poverty-stricken pauper, if I may use that terminology reverently.

During His sojourn upon earth, Jesus had no home and few possessions. In Matthew 8, a scribe flippantly told the Lord that he wanted to follow Him. Immediately Christ informed him of the cost involved, saying, The foxes have holes [a place into which they crawl at night for sleep], and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man [Jesus] hath not where to lay his head (verse 20). No home — not even His own bed. Oh, our Lord had so little as He walked this earth.

Christ's honor

Secondly, the Lord Jesus sacrificed His honor. I do not mean by this statement that He did wrong, because [He] did no sin (1 Peter 2:22). [He] knew no sin (2 Corinthians 5:21). Christ is holy, harmless, undefiled, [and] separate from sinners (Hebrews 7:26).

Instead, my thought is that the world dishonored Him. Psalm 22 is messianic, meaning that it is all about the Lord Jesus Christ in prophetic form. Prophetically, we hear Jesus saying the following, I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head (verses 6-7).

Verses 11-15: There is none to help. Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round. They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws;

and thou hast brought me into the dust of death. Verse 17: I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me. Oh, when one considers these verses, his soul should cry out, “Lord Jesus, I love You. If ever I loved You, my Savior, it’s now.”

Was Christ ridiculed and hated? Did these predictions materialize? You be the judge. The “religious” Pharisees said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils (Matthew 12:24). The scribes claimed, He hath an unclean spirit (Mark 3:30). Again, the Pharisees said, We be not born of fornication [sexual impurity] (John 8:41). They even mocked the precious virgin birth as so many apostate preachers do today. If you have done this, you ought to repent, turn to Christ, and experience real Christianity.

The Pharisees also said, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day (John 9:16). The Pharisees again said to the man whose blindness was healed by Jesus, Give God the praise: we know that this man [Jesus] is a sinner (John 9:24). Imagine! They called Jesus “a sinner.” However, the man replied, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see (John 9:25).

Oh, friend, so many yet today are blind as to who Jesus really is. He is the Savior of the world — the only Savior. They could have their eyes opened if only they would give Him a chance and receive Him. Still, they refuse to believe, just like the scribes and Pharisees who said, He hath a devil, and is mad [demented and out of His mind] (John 10:20). For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God (John 10:33).

Reflect a moment on these slanderous accusations. They called Jesus the prince of the devils. They claimed He had an unclean spirit (see Mark 3:30). They said He was one born of sexual impurity, one who kept not the Sabbath, one who was a sinner, one who had a devil, one who was mad and demented, one who was a blasphemer. Yet this One of whom they spoke was the Lord Jesus Christ — God in the flesh. Oh, when He came to die, He certainly sacrificed His honor.

*I am poured
out like water,
and all my bones are out of joint*

Why did Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, allow all of this? Philippians 2:6-8 again tells the story. Who, being in the form of God [before He came to earth] ... made himself of no reputation. How? [By taking] upon him the form of a servant ... made in the likeness of men. Why? Verse 8: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Christ’s sacrificial love

Perhaps the most unfathomable aspect of Christ’s sacrifice is the fact that His love chose this lifestyle. He wanted to sacrifice His all to save us. Yes, He became poor that we, dear friend, might become rich. The way one can become rich is to partake of the eternal life He provided as He shed His blood on Calvary’s cross. When one has life — abundant, eternal life — he has the wealth of all of the international bankers combined. They will die after 70 years and leave it behind. The Christian’s wealth, however, will abide forever.

Have you claimed this eternal life by receiving Jesus Christ? The Bible says in John 3:36, He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life. Jesus said in John 6:47, Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Christ’s efficacious blood

The fourth and most important possession sacrificed by Christ was His life through the shedding of His blood. This sacrifice must be continually emphasized in a day and age when the bloodshed of Christ upon a cross has become insignificant. This fact must be reiterated thousands of times when unbelieving clergymen scoff at the message of His precious blood, calling it a “slaughterhouse religion.”

How pathetic that ministers can be so blind as to preach a system of man-made works to get sinners into heaven. Laymen who make cookies for the bake sale and sell old socks at the church rummage bazaar in order to work their way into heaven also need to know that the old Book, God’s Word, contains 700 verses pointing to the shed blood as God’s offering and only — ONLY — plan of salvation.

Titus 3:5: Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration. This washing is through Christ's blood as Revelation 1:5 declares, Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. The sacrifice which wrought salvation brought great agony and suffering to the body and soul of Jesus Christ our Lord. Just before He was crucified, He said, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death (Matthew 26:38). Hebrews 12:2 states, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith.

I like that. Jesus is the Author and Finisher — or the Originator and Consummator — of our faith. Our salvation is not based on works, creeds, ceremonies, prayers, or a code of ethics, but in Christ. The text goes on to say, who for [or because of] the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

In modern English, we would say, "Because He could see what His shed blood on the cross was going to accomplish — the Christian's presence with Him for all eternity — Christ was willing to endure the suffering of being nailed to the tree."

Christ also suffered for us (1 Peter 2:21). Christ ... suffered for sins, the just [Jesus] for the unjust [you and me], that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened [or made alive] by the Spirit (1 Peter 3:18). Observe the suffering Savior in Isaiah 53:4-6: Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities:

the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him [Jesus] the iniquity of us all.

This wounding and bruising took place so that Christ's blood might flow freely for the remission of sin. Envision for a moment Jesus on the cross of Calvary. A crown of thorns is on His head, and the blood is flowing down His cheeks into His beard. His body has been lacerated by blows with sticks and fists, and the blood flows from these wounds as well. Portions of His beard have literally been ripped from his face. In Isaiah 50:6, Christ in prophetic utterance cries, I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair. Can you visualize it? Do you see Him? His chest, arms, and back are torn wide open as a result of the Roman scourge. Do you see the nails in His hands and feet? He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities.

Christ's body was bruised horribly, terribly, almost beyond recognition. That's why Isaiah said in chapter 53, verse 2, he hath no form nor comeliness. All of this was for the sin of mankind. There is no other way to be saved but through Christ's shed blood.

Acts 20:28 mentions the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. The true Church has been purchased by Christ's blood, and your church is swindling you if it offers a stone of self-righteous human attainment — the dry vegetable offering or religion of Cain, the murderer (see Genesis 4). First Peter 1:18-19 states that we are redeemed ... with the precious blood of Christ. First John 1:7: The blood of Jesus Christ His [God's] Son cleanseth us from all sin. Ephesians 1:7: In whom we have redemption through his blood. Only the sacrifice of Christ's blood can save. Had Jesus died of strangulation or heart failure upon the cross, we could not be saved, because without shedding of blood [there] is no remission [of sin] (Hebrews 9:22).

If you are sincerely seeking the truth, quit listening to bloodless, pompous platitudes from the pulpit. They can only mislead you on earth and will make you miss being in the presence of God for eternity. If some lost clergyman has deceived you into thinking that the shed blood for salvation is passé in the 21st century, then hear Christ Himself. The scene is the Last Supper, and Jesus illustrates through bread and juice His coming sacrifice upon the cross. Matthew 26:26-28: And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

There is no mistaking or denying it. Christ's blood was shed for the remission of sin. If you reject this truth because some ordained wolf in sheep's clothing has told you that such talk is passé for modern Christians, I can only have sorrow for his condition and yours. Why? Because both of you have listened to man rather than Jesus Christ, the Savior. Hear Him, believe Him. His shed blood is the only way of salvation. 🙏

DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

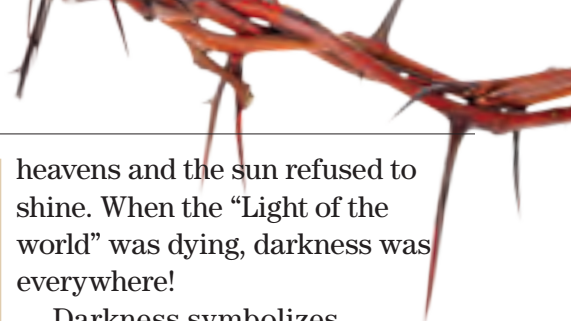

One of my favorite songs often heard at Easter time is the beautiful old spiritual, “Were You There?” The simple but haunting words of this great classic remind us of the suffering and sacrifice of our Lord at Calvary, as well as the triumphant victory of His Resurrection.

Because Christ suffered and died — not for His own sins but for yours and mine — in a very real sense we were there at Golgotha on that awesome day of destiny 2,000 years ago. And it is important that we remind ourselves of what happened there — of the death

that gave us life — of the penalty paid that set us free.

Were you there at the place of the skull which became the place of life everlasting?

Dr. Van Impe and I have gone to the outer edge of the old city of Jerusalem to Golgotha, the place of the skull, to view the place where Jesus died for us. Perhaps it is only fitting that today there is an ancient cemetery on top of this rugged, rocky hill. And sure enough, when viewed from below at enough distance for good perception, the shape of Mt. Calvary is much like a human skull!

When I was there, the ugly reality of what really happened to Jesus on that spot struck me. He was tortured, maimed, and killed there. He was mocked and humiliated, then nailed to a rough-hewn cross. His blood poured out and stained the wood, the rocks, and the ground.

Not long ago a friend of mine asked, “But why did Jesus have to die?” The answer is clear — mankind sinned, and the Bible says the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23).

For centuries, God allowed men to sacrifice the blood of animals as a temporary covering for their sins. This was an imperfect sacrifice, with limited efficacy. The blood of goats and calves could not take away sin (see Hebrews 10:4).

Only the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, the perfect, sinless Son of God, was pure and holy enough to wash away the stain of sin for all mankind. No wonder John the Baptist, upon seeing Jesus, cried out, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world (John 1:29).

Because of Christ’s willing sacrifice, the place of death became the place of life — yes, everlasting life — for all who receive the Lord.

Were you there for the noonday darkness where we received the Light of the world?

The gospels tell us that Christ was crucified at 9 a.m., and that from noon until 3 p.m., darkness covered the earth! Imagine the daylight hours as dark as midnight, when there was no light in the heavens and the sun refused to shine. When the “Light of the world” was dying, darkness was everywhere!

Darkness symbolizes trouble and despair, fear and hopelessness. We’ve all gone through dark days when it seemed there was no way out of our desperate situation, and everything around us looked black. Jesus tasted of that awful darkness for us, when there was no joy or no hope. But in the midst of the darkest hour in all of human history, He brought new light!

How fitting that the prophet Isaiah was anointed by the Spirit of God to look down the corridors of time to the coming of Jesus and proclaim, The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined (Isaiah 9:2).

Today the world seems dark again. I know people who don’t even want to watch the news on TV or read the newspaper because everything looks so black and bleak. If ever we needed the light of the world, it’s today. There’s no other way out of the darkness. But if we follow Him, we can live in the joy of His sunshine in our lives.

Were you there at the place where Jesus said, “I thirst,” and from which now comes living water?

One of the worst forms of human suffering is to be thirsty. I remember being in Israel while we were taping a TV special. On a blindingly bright, blistering hot day (120 degrees Fahrenheit), I was recording a song on a hill overlooking Masada. The sun beat down mercilessly, and the desert wind swirled the sand around us.

After a while I got so thirsty I could hardly speak, much less sing. My mouth was almost too dry to swallow — it felt like waves of desperation mounting until I was finally given something to drink.

I thought of Jesus hanging on a cross, after having been beaten with whips, crowned with cruel thorns, and nailed to the beams that suspended

Him between heaven and earth. In the midst of the agony of crucifixion, He also was stricken with thirst.

When they offered Jesus a drink, He realized that it contained something to help dull the pain of His suffering — and He refused it. He allowed nothing to keep Him from experiencing the utter depths of the thirsty soul.

All of us have a thirst within that cannot be satisfied except by the Living Water of God. We may drink from the waters of pleasure and ambition, even taste the juice of riches and self-indulgence. But nothing earth has to offer can quench the thirsting of our souls.

Jesus said, Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life (John 4:14).

Were you there for the weeping and sorrow which led to joy and blessings?

The cross of Calvary was a place of weeping and sorrow. The Bible says that women stood weeping at the foot of the cross. The disciples of Jesus were also overcome with sorrow. No doubt there were those who had been healed, taught, and blessed by the Lord who looked on that day. Their hearts must have been broken to see this Miracle Worker dying. And other followers who thought Jesus was to be Israel's new leader and deliverer must have been our griefs, and carried our sorrows (Isaiah 53:3-4).

Because of His sacrifice, we know that all our tears will be wiped away and our sorrow replaced by divine joy. Thank God, the psalmist wrote, Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning (Psalm 30:5).

Were you there for the time of anguish which provides our comfort?

On Calvary, Jesus gave His body and soul as a sacrifice for us. He suffered unendurable sorrow and pain. Here He bore our sins. We cannot even imagine what it was like for the Perfect One, God in the flesh, to feel the defilement of every sin in the universe. Here was bitterly disappointed, too. "What's happening?" they cried. "We thought this was our Messiah!"

But if Jesus had not experienced such great sorrow, He would never have understood the sorrows of mankind. Isaiah prophesied, He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief ... surely he hath borne

Jesus, who never did cheat, steal, lie, commit adultery, or do any other sin, suddenly burdened with the vileness and degradation of the whole world — for every person who would ever live!

It was absolutely overwhelming. No wonder the Savior cried out, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (Matthew 27:46).

God the Father had to turn His head because He could not look on sin (see Isaiah 59:2). So Jesus endured that anguish ... alone. And because He took our sins, we can now come to God.

Jesus knows the awful sadness and bitterness sin produces. And because He took our sins upon himself, He can comfort us in any situation. The Word of God says, For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need (Hebrews 4:15-16).

Were you there at the place of punishment from whence comes redemption?

The penalty for sin is death! That punishment must be endured — that penalty must be paid. And that was the reason for Christ's death on the cross — the purpose of Calvary. On that day, the place

I watch your program all the time and just love both of you. You are such a blessing to me. I want Mrs. Van Impe to know that she looks absolutely beautiful in pink! It is great to see you two match!

of punishment became the place of redemption for all mankind ... for the whole world.

Without the gallows of Golgotha there could be no salvation, no forgiveness of sin, no redemption.

The old spiritual concludes by asking, "Were you there when He rose up from the grave?" Thank God, through Christ our Lord, we were there!

Through His sacrifice, we've faced death and overcome it with life everlasting.

We've gone through the darkness of this world and moved into His marvelous light.

We've overcome the desperation of unquenchable thirst by receiving a well of living water springing up within our souls.

We've found the only source of joy and blessings that overcomes life's sorrows, and the only comfort in the time of anguish and tears.

And we've met Jesus at the place of punishment and found it has become a place of redemption.

Only by going to Calvary to see what Christ has done for us can we really experience the full joy of Easter! Were YOU there?

Oh, truly, "sometimes it causes me to tremble" to realize how much we owe — how rich we are. My mind can scarcely comprehend the wonder of it all. How marvelous!

No wonder Jesus commissioned us to go tell this great good news to every person in all the world! Let's go tell it to all who will hear! 🙏

You and your family must not be caught off-guard by the tumult about to ensue on planet earth!

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe are helping to prepare you with a video teaching that addresses the most important prophetic issues.

- What are some of the Old Testament prophecies that must happen before our Messiah comes?

- What does God's Word say about the world ending in 2012?
- How does what's currently happening (things like famine and pestilences) fit with the coming of the Lord?
- What do the natural disasters mean? Will there be more leading up to Christ's coming?
- How does Israel's becoming a nation and taking control of Jerusalem point to Christ's coming?
- What are the six-day and three-day theories, regarding the time of Christ's coming?
- Concerning a "world government," who are the seven groups or secret organizations trying to develop a New World Order?
- What does Revelation have to say about the One-World Government?
- How close are we to the latter days?
- And much more!

ANTICHRIST'S HANDS?

The United States' policy shifts away from support of Israel could be leading to an actual biblical curse on North America — and eventually to Armageddon itself!

- What makes Israel so beloved by the heavenly Father?
- If they're His Chosen People, why have Israelites traditionally been persecuted, and continue to suffer the animosity of their neighbors?
- When God promised to curse those who curse Israel, what did He mean? What will happen to nations that curse Israel?
- God also promised to bless those who bless Israel — what is the reward for a nation faithful to Israel?

Hi Drs. Jack and Rexella, Rexella's CD is lovely — how God has truly gifted her with a special talent. And Dr. Jack's "Soul Food" devotional is awesome. I have already been blessed daily by your wisdom, and enthusiastically look forward to each new day's anointed message.

We can't begin to tell you both how much your broadcast means to us — for it is you who the Lord used to soften our hard hearts and save us! Praise Jesus!

Thank you both for letting the Lord's light shine through. We gratefully partner and stand in faith with you to reach he lost.

May our Heavenly Father provide more than enough to meet your ministry needs throughout 2012.

All God's blessings,
—R.&P.K.

Drs. Jack and Rexella,

I know how busy you are so I will keep this note short and simple.

I needed/wanted to increase my giving so I went through who would be best in these last days. I could not think of any other ministry that is doing what you are. Helping the poor is important and I do that. But NO ONE else is preparing us for what is coming, warning the people and taking the BOLD STANDS AGAINST SIN and those who are misleading so many.

That's all I'm trying to say.

THANK YOU BOTH for refusing to compromise the biblical truth in spite of the obvious risks.

May God bless, protect, and prosper your/His ministry in every way.

—G.S.

Drs. Jack and Rexella,

My husband and I have been contributing to your "Partnership Plan" for a number of years....

We are proud of your work, both you and Rexella, and thank you for the privilege of being able to contribute to your work these past few years. I became saved by Our Savior's precious blood through your Jack Van Impe Presents program 25 years ago. My husband and I have grown in our faith over the years and have both of you to thank.

God bless you both, and may your good work continue for many more years.

Hello Dr. Van Impe (and hello Rexella!),

I am not very impressed with many TV preachers, and I know there are many phonies out there (too many, in fact). But you impress me as an honest man with a straightforward message. And, you do not beg for money on your program (that impresses me greatly as well) like too many other TV preachers.

I am grateful there are still a few genuine honest voices on air preaching the true Bible during these latter troubled times. May God grant you and Rexella continued health and blessings so your fine work can continue!

—R.M.

Good afternoon. I am proud of you, buddy. It took a lot to do what you did, but I have been sick to my stomach with all the Joel Osteens and Rick Warrens of the world. It is sad, the level of Pantheism that they are spreading like cancer, in the name of Jesus. They are sending believers to hell by the boatload, thinking that they are going to heaven. TBN has been on a progressive decline for some time. Paul and Matt do not follow the same path that the network was founded on and will be its downfall. Hang in there. It isn't popular, but it is right. There is a remnant that still cares about the truth.

—J.E.

Hi Dr. Van Impe,

First of all, I thank our God for the ministry and gifts that He has given you. Secondly, I want to thank you for the way you encourage me to stand in the pulpit and preach the Bread of Life like we preachers should be doing. Jesus is coming back soon, and we need to keep doing what it takes to get the Gospel message out. We love you here in our household. May God continue to richly bless you both.

Love in Christ,
—Pastor A.P.

Dear Jack and Rexella,

I listen to your program Sunday mornings and SO look forward to it! I could sit and watch and listen to you and Rexella for hours. You have so much knowledge about Scripture, yet present it in such a plain and simple way that no one listening is without excuse or able to misinterpret.

Thank you for the humble and loving spirits in both of you!! I'm so sick of these so-called "ministers" with their arrogance and pride that just oozes out of them (how very sad — it must make our Lord sad, too!). I'm so sick of the jealousy between them and their ministries! It hurts me to say this, friends, but many of them need to get out of the ministry and get a real job, rather than milking the people with their guilty or misleading speeches while they live in luxury! I'm all for keeping our precious pastors very well taken care of, as Scripture states, but many of these in the ministry nowadays are in it for the lifestyle rather than a broken heart over precious souls Jesus bled and died for!!

Thank you so very much for just being yourselves, not trying to impress in anyway but with the sheer precious Word, and that with power and urgency — souls are dying for lack of this precious Word! Many I know are not attending church because of these reasons — I among them! Pastor, whenever I try out another church, I end up sitting in the pew sobbing — it totally breaks my heart! Yes, I'm older and remember the old sawdust "floors" in the tent services, saw many powerful miracles and heard the wonderful, precious Gospel preached where many came sobbing (and sometimes running) to the altar under such conviction. They got up from their knees totally changed!

—E.S.

P.S. I heard on Gospel for Asia this morning something so good that I wanted to share in case you missed it. He said when he looked at many of the ministers, he couldn't understand their arrogance, jealousy, etc., but still preach. He said the Lord told him, "They know the Scriptures, but they don't know ME!" Boy that certainly hit the nail on the head with what I've written to you about. Thank you, again, for not being a part of this group! You DO know the Scriptures, BUT you preach the pure and simple Gospel and are wonderful examples of His marvelous love!!

from all

I have just learned today that you have left TBN because they wanted to control what you say and who you name. I do not watch TBN frequently. I know that they have some cultic practices and non-Christian teachings. I don't always agree with you 100%, BUT I applaud you for the positive stance that you have taken and agree with this completely. I wonder if TBN will be used by the Antichrist to lead millions astray. My personal feeling is that the stage is being set to do just that.

Again, I applaud your correct stance and action in leaving TBN. Tell me where I can listen to your broadcasts.

Dear Jack and Rexella and team members at JVIM,

Thanks again for sending the lovely “Soul Food” devotional book to the partners this past Christmas. It really is a book of mini Bible teachings, very good. I’m very pleased. I believe the book has come at a good time in that reading it daily will help to prepare us even more for the coming of the Lord. I have supported many Christian ministries over the years and few have shown the love and appreciation to partners as JVI. May the Lord bless all, shine through you, and bless the work of your hands this 2012.

Your ministry is a continual blessing in the last moments of time! Sadly, in our country, there is no teaching like what you and Rexella are presenting through your worldwide telecast, website, and “Perhaps Today” periodical.

I am a theology student in Scotland where the theological teaching is amillennial, replacement (almost anti-Semitic), and anti-Catholic.

Much love and blessing in the Lord Jesus.

The Spirit of the Lord is working through your programme over Radio Africa. The message I heard on your show is really more than a double-edged sword searching the depth of my heart.

Whoever listens to your word is quickly drawn into the valley

I take this golden opportunity to thank you very much for what you are doing for us listeners of Radio East Africa. Before, I have to say that I was not worthy at all in the eyes of God. But, listening to you has completely changed my life. I now walk as a servant of God. So please continue with His work, for He chose you to His service.

My wife, daughter, and I follow your program all the time. We love all the articles, etc., that you provide to help clarify in our minds the times that we live in.

Keep up the good work!

Keep up the amazing work of the Lord that you are both doing! I have been watching your program since about 1986 when I became a Christian. It has been quite an experience to watch you share the unfolding of Bible prophecy with the world.

I felt strongly in my spirit the last time I watched your program that you were like a modern-day Noah. Your heart for people and the warning and pleading that you do. Millions know what is coming because of your and Rexella’s devotion to His message.

May God bless you exceedingly in the anointing that is on you.

We're grateful for your faithful generosity to the global soul-winning outreach of Jack Van Impe Ministries!

Now there's another way you can reach the lost — even beyond your lifetime — through your last will and testament and other approaches to estate planning.

You can create a bequest in your will, leaving a gift to Jack Van Impe Ministries. Or include the ministry in some other way as part of your estate plan.

Your gift will help Jack Van Impe Ministries reach lost souls even after you've gone home to heaven!

One December Jack Van Impe Ministries had $38 in our bank account while facing bills the thousands of dollars for TV airtime. The hour looked bleak. Our outreach to all the world would probably cease unless a miracle occurred. God intervened that very week. The wills of two precious families arrived. Because of it, tens of thousands have come to Christ since that year. Those precious believers will receive unbelievable rewards for their faithfulness at the time of the Rapture when Christ presents rewards to His faithful followers — II Corinthians 5:10; I Corinthians 3:11-15.

SYRIA'S CHRISTIANS 'CAUGHT IN THE CROSSFIRE'

ChristianToday.com reports: "The situation for Syria's Christians is worsening amid anti-regime protests, Open Doors USA has warned.

Despite international outcry over the brutality of the crackdown on the uprising, Syrian President Bashar al-Assad has ignored calls to step down.

In an interview with US TV channel ABC News, he denied issuing orders to kill his own people and questioned the credibility of the UN and its latest report putting the number of people killed since the outbreak of protests at 8,500.

Open Doors said Christians in the country are afraid of what might happen to them in the future, especially if radical Muslims gain power.

The organisation's President, Dr Carl Moeller, fears Christians may soon have to think about leaving Syria.

'Christians inside Syria are caught in the crossfire as they

'Until the protests started against the regime of President Bashar al-Assad, the Christian community enjoyed some protection. Now they are afraid of the future. Will they have to flee their country like Iraqi Christians have done over the last several years? Please lift them up in your prayers.'

There are around 1.5 million Christians in Syria, including 100,000 Christian refugees who fled from Iraq because of violence and persecution there...."

GULF STATES BRACE FOR UNWANTED US-IRAN WAR

SpaceDaily.com reports: "The Arab states that lie just miles across the Gulf from Iran are nervously eyeing the prospects of a war between Tehran and the West that none of them want and all know could devastate their economies.

This very real fear is prompting the oil-rich states to enhance their defences while hoping that diplomacy can rein in Tehran's regional ambitions and put an end to its worrying nuclear programme.

'No one in the Gulf States wants war but everyone is preparing for the possibility that it might happen,' said military analyst Riad Kahwaji.

Tension has escalated as the West continues to squeeze Tehran over its nuclear programme, with the EU threatening a total ban on Iranian oil imports.

Iran has threatened to close the strategic Strait of Hormuz — which links the Gulf to the Arabian Sea and through which 20 percent of the world's sea-transported oil flows — if its petroleum sales are blocked.

The United States, whose navy's Fifth Fleet is based in the Gulf state of Bahrain and which has a military presence in a number of other countries — has told Tehran bluntly that it will not tolerate any such move....” (Ted Koppel reported on Brian Williams' program Rock Center that the American embassy housing 17,000 American employees and staff is only 20 miles for Iran's border. ## REPORT: ISRAEL PREPARING FOR NUCLEAR IRAN WITHIN A YEAR

Haaretz reports: “Israel is preparing for an Iran with nuclear capabilities within the next 12 months, according to a report by the Institute for National Security Studies (INSS), an Israeli think tank.

The U.K. daily Times newspaper published extracts of the report by the Tel Aviv

University institute according to an AFP report.

The INSS was asked to prepare possible scenarios in case Iran carries out nuclear weapons tests by security, intelligence and diplomatic officials, AFP reported the Times as saying.

According to INSS predictions, Iranian nuclear weapons tests would change the balance of power in the Middle East region.

If Tehran carries out nuclear weapons tests, the U.S. will offer Israel a defense pact, but would urge Israel not to respond with an attack on Iran, according to AFP.

Russia would be expected to sign a deal with the U.S. in order to prevent armament in the region, and Saudi Arabia would be likely to develop its own nuclear capabilities, according to the report....” (World leaders are concerned. ## REPORT: SAUDI TEXTBOOKS TEACH ANNIHILATION OF JEWS

YnetNews.com reports: “Despite promises to clean up violent and xenophobic content from textbooks, recent editions in Saudi Arabia continue [to] teach school children barbaric practices, Fox News reported.

The news network, which was able to obtain translated copies of the recently-printed books from the Institute for Gulf Affairs in Washington, DC, said that the books [teach] ninth graders that the annihilation of Jews is imperative.

‘The hour (of judgment) will not come until the Muslims fight the Jews and kill them,’ one part reads. ‘There is a Jew behind me, come and kill him.’

The reviewed editions were printed for the 2010-2011 academic year. Another book teaches 10th graders how to cut off the hands and feet of a thief.

‘This is where terrorism starts, in the education system.’ Ali Al-Ahmed, director of the Institute for Gulf Affairs, said, noting that the books were financed by the Saudi government....” (Proverbs 22:6 states: Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. This, of course, is talking about the teaching of God's Holy Word. All of Islam in every nation is promoting Anti-Semitism including Wahabism, the Muslim denomination that is the most brutal. It began in Egypt. Iran of the Shia denomination informs the world that his messiah, Mahdi, comes after a slaughter of most of the Jews. See Matthew 24:9; John 16:2; Psalm 83:4. This all fails — Isaiah 56:5: I will give them [Israel] an everlasting name....)

A THREAT TO NORTH AMERICA?

What if President Obama's apparent preference for Islam is a threat to Christianity and our way of life?

Right now, U.S. President Barack Obama supports a United Nations "hate law" that favors Islam and puts Christians at risk! Could this be the issue that shows how the U.N.'s "one-world government" fulfills a final role in Bible prophecy?

- Why do 50% in America question President Obama's Christianity?
- What is his position on the Bible, Christ, heaven, and hell?
- Why do he and his Administration forbid the use of terms such as Islamic terrorist after the horrific acts of terrorism perpetrated by Islamic individuals and groups within our nation?
- Why did President Obama show his preference for Islam over Christianity by canceling Billy Graham's son as chairman and speaker at America's Day of Prayer after Franklin Graham spoke out against the massacre and cremation of 3,000 innocent victims on 9/11?
- Why is our President silent concerning the persecution and slaughter of Christians in most Muslim nations?
- Why does he repeatedly insist that we are not at war with Islam, and never will be?
- Why is he quiet about the teaching of Islam concerning their prophet Jesus?
- What did Barack Obama learn in Islamic schools in Muslim Indonesia in his childhood?
- Which world leader believes Jesus will convert to Islam and serve as second-in-command under a Muslim sovereign? Does President Obama agree?
- How much danger are we in today because of the march toward the embrace of Islam in Washington, D.C., and at the United Nations?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe have prepared an important new video teaching you'll want to share with your friends, family, and church — because it answers troubling questions about the future of North America and Christianity itself!
