MIDDLE-OF-THE-NIGHT
REVELATIONS PRODUCE

SHOCKING TWIN VIDEOS!

There was no question: when the Holy Spirit awakened me at 3:30 a.m., bringing scores of Scriptural texts and historical events to my mind in a flood of revelation and insight, I knew Rexella and I had to produce a shocking video. The result:

NEW WORLD ORDER RISING!
Who? What? Where? When? Why?

Then the Holy Spirit spoke to my mind and heart again, and gave me another astonishing message for you — which Rexella and I also produced as an incredible video:

Dictator of the New World Order: Alive and Waiting in the Wings

These two videos are so critically important — perhaps the most important combination of video teachings you will receive from us prior to the Rapture — that we have combined them in a single set, releasing them as a 3.5-HOUR BLOCKBUSTER TWIN-PACK — and an amazingly powerful witnessing tool!

This teaching paints an astounding picture of two final-day leaders: the dictator of the “new world order” and the apostate head of a world religion which will unite all faiths! Will these two leaders produce global peace, or World War III? These videos reveal the answers!

You will see how the prophetic stage is being set at this very moment — and how you yourself are living in the fulfillment of the final biblical prophecy before Christ returns!

You will be shocked

“I find that you are very good at giving information simply so that most people can understand the message — not using a 10-dollar word to get a five-dollar reply. Thank you for that.”

-G.S.

by the many surprising twists and turns in DICTATOR OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER and NEW WORLD ORDER RISING:

- Multiple world leaders pointing to Barack Obama as the world's savior!
- One-world government no longer "theory" — it's already being promoted ... and under construction!
- What are the seven specific characteristics that will identify the world dictator?
- Who is currently in position to become dictator of the new world order according to the Bible's description. Some scholars say Juan Carlos of Spain, or Tony Blair of England; or President Obama as promoted by Henry Kissinger.
- What is the final sign pointing to Christ's return ... which is forming right now?
- How will the world leader gain control of the world's religions, governments, and economies?
- What is the chronology of events leading up to the takeover by the final world dictator? How many of these events are already happening?

- Who is planning the micro-chipping of every person on the planet by the year 2017? How do microchip implants relate to the coming new world order?
- What shadowy power-brokering groups are championing the cause of a one-world government? Who are the seven major organizations dedicated to creating a "new world order"?
- How did Walter Cronkite describe the coming of a "one world leader"?
- What secret society planned three World Wars in advance? When will the third one begin?
- How will the global dictator attempt to block Christ's coming to power on earth?
- How were Hitler, Stalin, Mussolini, and Mao tse-Tung disqualified from being the Antichrist? What about Chavez of Venezuela or Ahmadinejad of Iran?
- Some Christians claim that we will never see the coming of Jesus in our lifetime — What does the Bible say about them?
- When will believers go through a time of investigative judgment for their service on earth?
- How and when will we as believers return to earth with Jesus?
- When will we begin our reign with Jesus for 1,000 years on earth?
- Will the Rapture happen before, during, or after the Tribulation? How can we know?
- Will the final world dictator appear before or after the Rapture?
- Who coined the term "new world order" in our lifetime?

- How will a "counterfeit church" arise?
- What is the prophetic significance of the years 2013 to 2019?
- All this and much more!

God has placed a burden on my heart to get the truth in these videos into as many hands as possible. I urge you to request them, watch them, and share them. You need the information in these videos — and your unsaved loved ones urgently need them, with their clear-cut invitation to receive Jesus Christ as personal Lord and Savior ... before it's eternally too late!

Do not be deceived. These videos are not speculation, beloved — they are Truth, from the Scriptures themselves — based on my 120,000+ lifetime hours of study of the Bible, my reading of 12,000 volumes on Bible prophecy, and intensive research in recent months based on the latest world events!

(Plus: Dictator of the New World Order includes numerous surprises we can't share on TV!)

Excerpts from

Are We Living in the Last Days?"

by John Blair

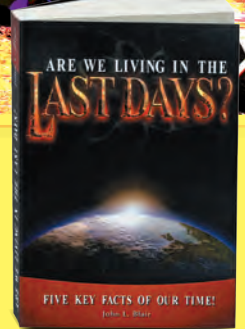

Dr. Van Impe has read a total of 12,000 books during his 65 years of ministry. Dr. John Blair has written a masterpiece that is so Spirit-anointed that he was immediately contacted requesting permission to use excerpts for promotional purposes.

Never has Dr. Van Impe been so blessed by such a Spirit-filled volume.

You'll agree that it's the need of the hour for our churches, which have drifted from the traditional to the contemporary order of alleged worship services, from the spiritual to the fleshly.

"Are We Living in the Last Days?" speaks to the heart, and it will yours.

Order this glorious Holy Spirit-anointed volume as soon as possible. It's the need of the hour for what's lacking in most of today's lukewarm church services.

The Bible, unashamedly, declares that there will be scoffers in the last days. The Bible has been banned, burned, banished and belittled for centuries but it has never been shown to be untrue. Their challenge has been for thousands of years to disprove and discredit the precious Word of God. These skeptical critics have abounded for centuries and yet the Bible has not been refuted or destroyed. The Apostle Paul wrote a young pastor, named Timothy, about the scriptural claim of God's Holy Word. In the second letter he wrote to Timothy, he declared that the word of God was, indeed, the foundation of the believer in Christ.

(2 Timothy 3:16 & 17):

"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

The disciples of socialism, communism, humanism, secularism, atheism, and agnosticism have not given one shred of evidence that proves to the world that the Bible is anything contrary to what it claims to be.

If the Word of God professes something, we can be guaranteed that it will happen just as it declares.

Pseudo-believers will come out into the open to hijack the Christian faith and attempt through revisionist zeal to rewrite orthodox historical Christianity. They will, by their own ambitions, slip into churches as pastors, deacons, teachers, or other leadership positions of the church.

We are living in a materialistic world that motivates people to sell their souls for a few trinkets. Where idolaters abound idols abound also. Many people of God are falling prey to a new “Madison-Fifth Avenue” approach to Christianity. Their mantra seems to be that if we dress Christianity up and make it acceptable to the World, then it will be more accessible to the people. This insidious doctrine, though it may sound logical, is indeed unbiblical and unchristian. This approach is being taught in many of today’s seminaries and Bible schools across the country. This philosophy is being preached from the pulpits and the lecterns of Christendom. In the guise of church growth, congregations have been told unless we compromise with the World’s standards, we cannot be successful and effective in our world today. Churches that refuse to “buy into” this philosophy are scorned, mocked, and scoffed at as old-fashioned and out of touch.

We have conditioned people today to have a fast-food mentality when searching for a church home. The “drive-up” agenda is the same in all of these types of churches: entertain the masses, feed their egos, and throw in a few Scriptures to appease the spiritual members. Would you like fries with that order? How about a cappuccino? Their recipe for success is to appeal to the carnal nature of people and you will numerically increase your group. In this carnival show-time atmosphere, it boils down to a very simple economic equation: more people produce more hard cash. “Onward Christian Soldiers” has been replaced by “show me the money” as the rallying cry of church-growth experts today.

Their revisionist desires will seek to distort the historical truths and practices of our holy faith. Their cotton-candy faith will produce an anemic Church that is neither hot nor cold and woefully ineffective in a world of darkness.

They will sneer at the ideal of people going out to share Christ in evangelistic efforts. They will laugh and call the concept of visitation a relic of the past and is not really Christian. The altar call, or decision time, will be called passé or even, better yet, unbiblical. Sunday night services and Wednesday night prayer meetings will be considered archaic and not necessary for today’s informed and busy people. Hymns will be judged as irrelevant and not entertaining enough for church members and seekers today. The preaching of the Word of God will be relegated to short devotional talks about hot topics or contemporary subjects. The Word of God will be relegated to 15 minutes of obligation while the bulk of the service will be given to entertainment. Their scoffing contempt for the Church and their desire to be clever will create an atmosphere of amusement and carnality. The scoffers will create a “Corinthian Church” at its best and a “Laodicean Church” at its worst. Their scoffing contempt for the things of God will motivate them to revise biblical Christianity so that carnal Christians, and people without Christ, will feel cozy about their sin and comfortable with their anemic worship. In their carnival-

The altar call, or decision time, will be called passé or even, better yet, unbiblical.

“Evangelism that is biblical is one that is based in presenting the Gospel in a clear and precise way. True evangelism is where an individual is given the opportunity to understand and receive the forgiveness of Christ’s atoning work.”

like atmosphere, they will confuse quantity with biblical quality. It is no wonder many have referred to it as “show-time religion.” Meanwhile, the cause of Christ in the last days will fall into a state of an impotent religion and will suffer the barbs of skeptical critics and scoffers alike. Can you agree with me that Jesus is due any moment?

Be sure that your congregation is involved with a true biblical evangelism program. Not a bake sale touted as some evangelistic outreach. Not a motorcycle or television raffle that is advertised as the church’s latest outreach tool. Evangelism that is biblical is one that is based in presenting the Gospel in a clear and precise way. True evangelism is where an individual is given the opportunity to understand and receive the forgiveness of Christ’s atoning work. It is not some pseudo-religious campaign to get someone into the church building but one that brings the salvation of Christ to the individual.

If the church you attend does not have practical evangelistic programs, get one started or go to a church that has one. I do not think that Jesus is pleased with a congregation that does not take to heart His Great Commission to reach the world for Him as found in Matthew 28:16-20, Mark 16:15, and Acts 1:8.

The Bible, in Revelation chapter three, gives us essential prophetic clues of this last day Church age. This is generally characterized as the self-absorbed narcissistic congregation just before Jesus comes back in the Rapture of the Church.

The Church of Laodicea will be a congregation that, much like Adam, wallows in the pathetic wiles of satanic rebellion. What the Church, in general, has accepted for thousands of years, as the “gospel truth,” will be open for questioning and overtly challenged by a people filled with this religious seditious spirit. They will know what the Bible says but they will always have an excuse to sin so that they may justify their rejection of God’s truth. Once more, the sad conclusion to all of this is that they will openly rejoice and be blatantly proud of their enlightened state of abandonment, which will ultimately lead to the “Great Apostasy” of the Tribulation period.

The problem of the Laodicean Church was not the matter of conviction, but rather the lack of it. The lost were without the unction of the Spirit’s drawing and the saved were without the regard of His disciplinary action. Perhaps this problem is because of the latter-day Church’s deliberate ignoring of Holy Scriptures. Remember that this is the church that has substituted the entertainment of the world and the philosophy of their time for the authority of the Word of the Living God and, thus, the conviction of the Holy Spirit. No, it is not a dreadful thing to realize one’s need for regeneration or revival. The worst-case scenario is to be like members of the church of Laodicea who were in the desperate need of the Holy Spirit’s ministry and not realize it. The sad reality was that because of their ignorance of the function of God’s Holy Word, they were blinded to their true need and the Holy Spirit’s ministry.

Many churches today are turning to Madison-Fifth Avenue-type consultants for their church-growth strategies rather than the Word of God. We must always remember that the size of the congregation is not always a proper indication of the spiritual condition of any church. The Lord is not interested in the Mega church’s eminence or the small church’s intimacy. Mega, or mini, the value of the congregation is in the spiritual depth of their heart and not their dimension or their numbers.

Because the love of many has “waxed cold,” evangelism has been replaced, in most churches, by popular psychological trends, masqueraded in costumes of entertainment and baited with sermons of self-improvement. Gone is the “altar call” or “decision time” in most churches today. Many justify their absence because of changing times and people. There are even some who claim that Jesus never gave an altar call so why should we? Beloved, if the Church does not give individuals the opportunity for receiving Christ anymore, who will? If we will not share the love of Christ with our congregations and give people the opportunity to respond to the call of the Holy Spirit, who will? Jesus told us, “For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost” (Luke 19:10). Should we not be busy about the work of the Master?

The evangelistic invitation about the love of God has been replaced with secular marketing techniques and blatant selfish consumerism.

Remember that this is the church that has substituted the entertainment of the world... for the authority of the Word of the Living God...

May the Lord help us to awake from our spiritual blindness and stop commercializing the Church, and start sharing the love of Jesus! I do not care what the size of a church is; a church without the love of God is a poor substitution for the vibrant early church of the New Testament. I just cannot imagine that the early church was considering a basketball camp for their children, raffling off motorcycles, or even sponsoring secular rock groups to entice young people to attend their churches. Just preach the Word, let the Holy Spirit do His work, and get out of the way! Wake up, beloved, Laodicea is here and Jesus is coming soon. Are you ready?

Beloved, do not be a sellout and frequent these centers of crass entertainment and neglect the true light of God's Word. Find a church where the Bible is the foundation of worship and not some 15-minute afterthought of obligatory duty. Seek out a congregation where the light of God's Word, the Holy Scriptures, has not been replaced by the latest popular pop-psychology, carnal worldly pleasure of the latest hot-topic humanistic philosophy. Search, diligently, for a church where the preacher is not a CEO but a shepherd of God's people. Beloved, life is too short and Jesus' coming is so soon. Do not be found in the Rapture in a Laodicean Church.

Finally, we see that they have excluded the Lord; God Himself. Once more, we must remember that Jesus is on the outside of the Church of Laodicea and knocking on their door. The sad reality of this truth is two-fold. The Lord has been excluded from their services, and He waits for an invitation to come and preside over their gathering. We will never see true church growth, both numerically and spiritually, until the Lord is in His house.

Christian, free yourself from these organizations and groups that seek to market themselves to the felt needs of carnal Christians and lost church members in the name of spirituality and evangelism. Determine now to quickly find a congregation with a pastor who is willing to follow God's Word in God's purpose and in God's procedure. Do not waste one day of your life or the life of your family in a church that presents a compromised version of Christianity. God is not pleased with a church that accommodates this sinful world in any way, shape, or form. In fact beloved, the Bible tells us to not have fellowship with them at all. "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you" (2 Corinthians 6: 17). Your presence there only proclaims acceptance of their wickedness. Your attendance only declares your allegiance to their sinful alliance with the world. It is not by accident that the Lord proclaims to the Church of Laodicea that they made Him sick. Do you really want to be in a church that makes God sick?

Jesus is coming soon, beloved! Christian friend, do not be like Lot and be found in a position of compromise and discontentment when Jesus returns. Do not be like Lot and exchange a biblical lifestyle for a politically correct mission statement only to lose your family and your faith. Determine now to come out from among them before it is too late. 🙏

Dear

Dear Dr. Van Impe and Rexella,

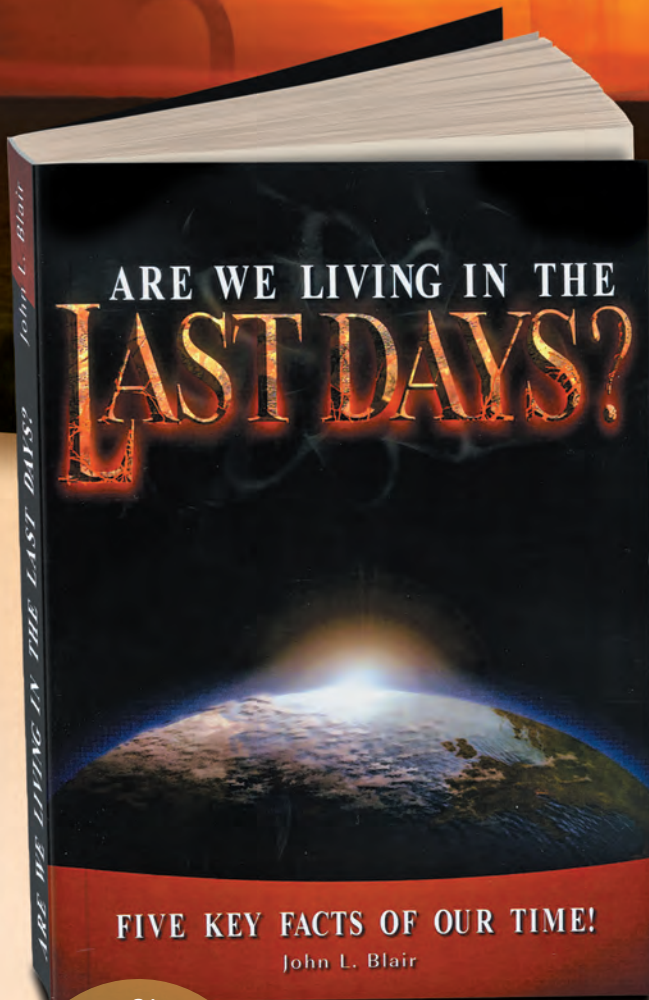

I want to thank you personally for your ministry on the air. When my father was living he would watch your program faithfully every week. My Dad and I lived in different states, and our daily contact was the telephone. Every day for five years he would call me in the mornings and I would call him at night. It wouldn't take long before our conversations would turn to the topic of your television program. He would always ask me that weekly question, "Did you watch Dr. Jack this week?" He knew that I had, but he loved to discuss the program each week. Your informative format and your team presentation with your wife always make for an interesting program. Dad particularly liked it when you got a little animated. He would always say, "Boy, Dr. Jack gave it to them this week, didn't he?" Then we would spend another 15 minutes discussing that particular topic.

Dr. Van Impe, your faithfulness and your ministry on the air were such a blessing to my dad. He was very sick with heart complications and very rarely went outside for any length of time. The last few years of his life he didn't go to church at all. As a pastor that always concerned me, but my anxiousness was always alleviated when he would remind me that he had watched Jack Van Impe Presents. In a very real sense, you were his pastor. Again, I want to thank you for touching my dad's life in a very special way, and, of course, mine too.

Sincerely,
John Blair

the LATTER DAYS —here, now?

Bible scholar, professor, and pastor Dr. John Blair has studied Bible prophecy for more than 40 years and has been in the ministry for 30.

He has discovered five key facts from the Bible pointing to the proof that we are living in the “latter days” of Bible prophecy!

1. A Time of Disdain
2. A Time of Desolation
3. A Time of Departure
4. A Time of Distress
5. A Time of David

Although we know that the Bible promises a “world without end,” we also know that God’s Word gives us multiple signs and ample warnings of coming days of terror and consternation. Could those days begin now? Are we living in the final days of human history?

Give Me Your Hand

DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

In my daily Bible reading, I've been noticing how much is mentioned about the hands of our Lord.

Again and again the Gospels relate how He reached out to people in their need and hurt and sorrow. And when He touched them, they were never the same again.

biblical account of how the hands of Jesus blessed and comforted the little children. He specifically told His disciples not to prevent them from coming to Him. And in my mind's eye, I can see the Lord sitting down and opening His arms to them. As they eagerly jostled about, perhaps He lifted a toddler onto His lap, shook hands with an older lad, touched the cheek of a shy little girl. And as His gentle hands patted little shoulders and smoothed tousled hair, the Lord blessed these little ones. Somehow I think they probably never forgot that day when the hands of Jesus touched them.

His hands healed the sick

After He began His earthly ministry, great multitudes thronged about Him wherever He went. Those who were sick, blind, and lame — even those marked for death with the curse of leprosy — came to Him seeking to be healed and made whole.

When the hands of Jesus touched them, pain and suffering ceased, diseases and infirmities were cured, and lives shattered and ruined by sickness were restored.

His hands fed the multitude

It was the hands of Jesus that fed the multitudes who followed Him out into the desert to hear His words. When evening came, Christ's disciples urged Him to send the people away. But Jesus saw their hunger and weariness and, in compassion, desired to minister to them.

Taking a few small loaves and fishes — barely enough for one small boy's lunch — the Lord blessed the food. Then His hands began to break and divide the bread and fish into portions which He gave to His disciples to serve.

We're told that 5,000 men were fed that day, not counting the women and children. And when everybody had eaten all they wanted, there were 12 baskets full of leftovers! The hands of Jesus not only provided enough ... but plenty to spare.

His hands blessed the children

Loving children as I do, my heart is touched to read the

The hands of the Master

No doubt the hands of Jesus were strong and powerful. Growing up around Joseph's carpenter shop, He probably learned to hold and use various tools to shape and assemble wood into useful items. His hands knew how to work.

It was those strong hands that later would grasp a whip as an indignant Jesus drove the callous money changers out of the holy halls of the Temple. Those hands were instruments of righteousness and justice.

It was those hands that reached out to lift and save impetuous Peter who, after walking on the water toward Jesus, took his eyes off the Lord and began to sink.

There are so many other references to the hands of Jesus. But the single most important reference to Christ's hands is when they were nailed to the cross.

A very dear, life-long friend gave me a beautiful wall plaque, which I have hanging in our kitchen. It says:

I asked Jesus, "How much do You love me?"

"This much," He answered, and He stretched out His arms and died.

Greater love hath no man than this, said Jesus, that a man lay down his life for his friends (John 15:13).

And who is Jesus' friend? The deeply spiritual and very religious? The learned and respectable? The proud traditionalists?

No, our Lord said that He was called a friend of ... sinners! (Luke 7:34).

The Apostle Paul reminds us that Christ died for the ungodly ... in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:6,8).

It is strangely and beautifully significant that the first person to benefit from Christ's sacrifice at Calvary was a thief on the cross next to His! Think of it — the first person to whom the Lord stretched out His nail-pierced hands was someone totally unworthy of His love.

Love-scarred hands

Some time ago, Jack and I were guests at a Christian fellowship comfort her, they were rough and calloused, scarred by long hours of hard work, week after month after year. Those hands were scarred

Never forget that for many people in the world, their first glimpse of Christ may be in you ...

dinner in another city. During the meal, I got acquainted and began talking with a dear little mother who sat next to me. After a while, with tears streaming down her cheeks, she leaned over and whispered the sad story of a wayward daughter who had run away from home, fallen into the very depths of sin, and, sad to say, even into a life of prostitution.

"I pray for her every day," she said, "and every time I hear from her I beg her to come home. My husband doesn't make a lot of money, so I got a job to help pay off the debts our daughter made. I'm doing everything I know how to do to help her. Please pray with me."

When I reached out to take hold of this precious mother's hands to by love ... by a mother's selfless sacrifice and desperate desire to reach and save her wayward daughter.

As I held those hands and prayed, I was reminded of Christ's nail-scarred hands that also were pierced for that lost daughter ... and for every lost sinner in the whole world. They were scarred for me ... and for you!

Just as the hands of our Lord ministered to men and women, boys and girls, wherever He went during His time on earth, so we today can feel the touch of His hands in our daily lives. His power is still available to us today.

In our times of pain and suffering, He is still the Great Physician who lays His hands upon us and restores our bodies. Whether our healing comes through medication, the skill of a surgeon, or by the power of faith alone, we know that He is the source of all healing.

When we are hungry and experiencing a lack of supply — when we're empty physically, emotionally, spiritually — Christ's hands will bless and multiply the smallest things we have to offer Him and make it sufficient to meet our need ... with plenty to spare.

When we've tried and failed — when, like Peter, we're sinking into the depths of trials and tribulations, with no hope in sight — He will come to us, walking on the waters of our stormy sea. His hand will save us, lift us up, and lead us safely to the solid rock!

The challenge of Easter

I love spring! There's something special about seeing the sun light up winter's gray skies and nature stir the grass and trees into new life. Surely it is no coincidence that we celebrate Easter in the springtime.

Each Easter we are reminded that Christ died for us — but He rose again! Without Easter, we might be tempted to forget that it is through the outstretched arms and nail-pierced hands of Jesus that we have life eternal. Had it not been for His sacrifice on Calvary and His bodily resurrection, there would be no everlasting life.

As we look around us and see all of nature coming back to life anew, let us be reminded of Christ's great love for us.

But let us also be challenged to reach out in His love into every man's world with a helping hand. Let us emulate our Lord's great example and use the resurrection power that flows through us to minister to the needs of those around us.

Never forget that for many people in the world, their first glimpse of Christ may be in you ... the only hands that will touch them in love, that will comfort, lift, and bless them, may be your hands.

Reach out whenever you can, wherever you can, to whomever you can. However unlovely or unworthy the person you find may be, remember that Christ's sacrifice is sufficient ... and that He loves that individual just as much as He loves you.

Do not be afraid to stretch forth your hand to anybody. For you minister, not in your own strength and ability, but in His love. So when you reach out, it will not be just your hand that touches them, but the hand of God through you!

I love the beautiful gospel chorus that cries out:

*Oh, to be His hand extended,
Reaching out to the oppressed,
Let me touch Him,
let me touch Jesus,
So that others may know
and be blessed.*

Look around you today and find someone who is hurting or needy, someone who is in trouble. Ask God to guide you to someone who needs Jesus.

When you find them, don't hesitate or delay. Go to them with a smile filled with the light of His love and simply say....

“Give me
your hand.”

I have seen your program. I feel so filled with God's love when I watch it. There really is hope for us all. Thank you for your inspirational show.

Letters we love

DR. VAN IMPE'S HEART WAS MOVED TO
TEARS AS HE READ
THIS LETTER BECAUSE OF THE GREAT SOUL-
WINNER RON'S FATHER HAD BECOME.

December 17, 2012

Dear Dr. Van Impe,

I just wanted to send you a note letting you know my father went home to be with the Lord on September the 19th. It was about fifty plus years ago that you came to Eureka, CA, at Grace Baptist Church and later at the Eureka Memorial Auditorium. You held crusades where my father came forward to accept Christ as his Savior.

I was a young boy at the time, but remember well the many times he shared about the personal interest you took in him. You even visited him in the hospital on a return trip to our community. My father continued to have health problems throughout his lifetime, but God was gracious to allow him to live to age 75.

I really want to say thank you, Dr. Van Impe, for your faithfulness in your service to the Lord. While it is true that one sows and another waters, but God causes the growth (1 Cor. 3:6), the impact of your ministry in the life of one man — my father — resulted in all five of his children's salvation, many grandchildren and now great grandchildren, and my father's sister and her extended family as well. Because of your faithfulness, many in our family will be together in eternity with the Lord.

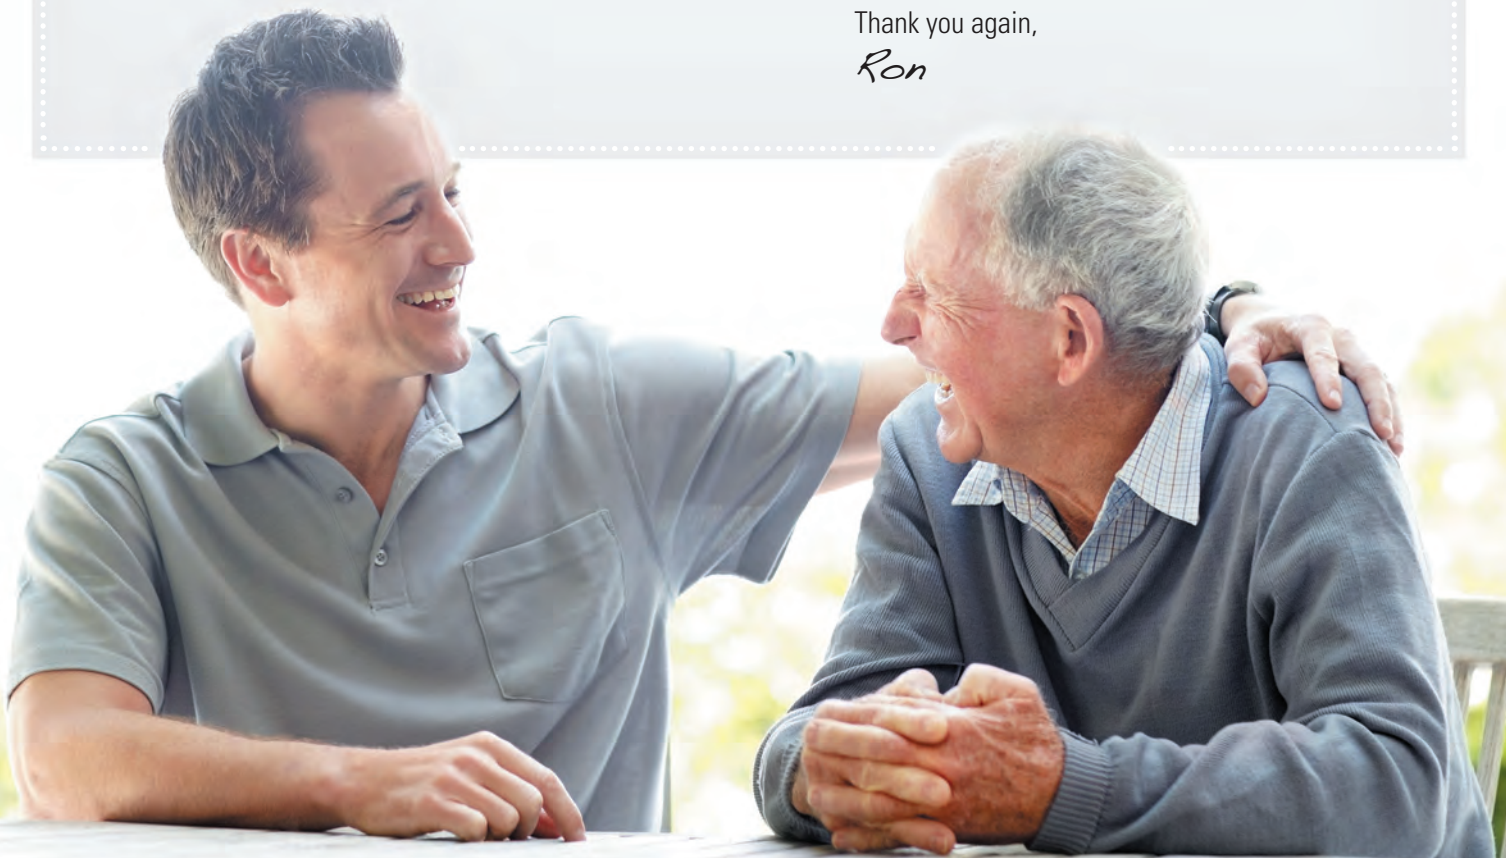

You are one of those people that, as the Scripture says, "I thank God upon every remembrance of you."

Should the Lord's return tarry, and you are called home, I know my father will be one of many who will be waiting to greet and welcome you home.

With heartfelt thanks, I pray God's continued blessing, comfort, and strength for both you and Rexella.

Thank you again,

Ron

“I’m becoming transformed
by the power of Christ

I just started watching the show. I love it! It’s so informative. I would love to receive the salvation booklet. I feel like it will change my life.

I was an atheist until recently, so a lot of this stuff is new to me. But it’s all very exciting. I’m becoming transformed by the power of Christ.

—A.B.

I prayed that prayer with you tonight, and I feel so clean and fresh and new! I believe Jesus is the only way.

Thank you for helping me find my way back to Jesus. I will be watching again every week. God bless you!

—R.K.

I know what it’s like to be rejected for standing up for what the Bible says. I have been different all my life and suffered because of it, but in those times of pain and loneliness, Jesus is there!

It’s nice to see, as a Roman Catholic, a Protestant Evangelical who doesn’t cut down my church. It would be nice to meet you and Rexella, but until then, you’re in my thoughts and prayers!

—R.D.

Blessings on you, dear Jack. We honor you and your beloved Rexella for being so courageous — God’s watchmen on the wall. We’ve been blessed by you for 30 years, and now Christ is coming soon — PTL!

—A.O.

Thank you so much for your love and faithfulness to the Lord. We so need you and Rexella in our lives. There are so many preaching falsehoods, and it's refreshing and a wonderful blessing to us to have someone we can trust, who preaches, teaches, and lives the truth of our Lord. May God bless you.

—S.B.

I never miss your Sunday morning program in my area. I am a shut-in and have been for many years; so I depend upon radio and television and Internet preaching for some of my spiritual feeding. Your program is my favorite out of all those that I watch or listen to.

I pray for you, Rexella and Jack, and for your ministry. I have a friend from Nebraska who accepted Christ many years ago after hearing one of Jack's messages on TV.

I cannot tell you how thankful I am that the Lord spared Jack's life and allowed his ministry to continue to so many in the world.

Praising God,

—D.A.

I can't tell you how much I appreciate all you and Rexella do and how you stand up for the truth and what is right.

Even though I attend a church, I really consider you my pastor. I wouldn't know much about these latter days and what's really going on without you.

God bless you both!

—R.C.

I can't begin to thank you for your continued preaching of God's Word all these years. We watch your program every week and have learned so much about latter-day prophecy and what is happening right now that is ushering in our Lord's return. Thank you for never compromising to please the world's view.

We are both excited and anxious for Christ's return. Excited because we know where we are going, but anxious because many of our friends and family are not believers. Keep preaching the truth, and God will continue to bless your ministry.

—J.B.

Wow! What an impact your show is to my husband and me. We watch it every Sunday morning. We know that your teachings are always backed up by Scripture. The truth is all we want. You are a blessing to us, and we share with others what we learn from you.

Our co-worker is getting married, and we are giving your Bible to them for a wedding present. It will be a blessing to them. We also have one for ourselves.

Thank you for all you have done. You are in the will of our Heavenly Father. You are a faithful servant.

We love you ... see ya in heaven!

—T.C.

This morning I awoke with feelings of despondency, that I'm so insignificant, lonely, in despair, and so on. And then I read my email newsletter from Rexella, and it spoke to my heart. YES. I needed to be reminded about what was written in Jeremiah and that God knew me before I was even born. That he loves me and that I never walk alone in this world or the next. It saved my life from spiraling down any further, and I praise God for that message. It literally felt like it was a word from the Lord personally reminding me of His love and care.

God bless you both. I thank you so much for your ministry. I even had my questions answered on the daily broadcast, the VERY DAY I asked them on your website. How amazing is our God!

Keep up the good work, and, once again, thank you for saving me.

—W.W.

Thank you for opening my eyes
and heart

I watch you every week! Your ministry has had a profound effect on my son's life. He recently got back into church and was saved. Because of your ministry, he is no longer drinking and on drugs, and he also enjoys your show.

Thank you for the good work your ministry is doing. Keep saving souls!!

—M.M.

Thank you both for being so faithful to the Lord and His people. You really help us stand in these difficult times.

You are in my prayers for health and safety and funds. The Lord will continue to keep you safe and healthy and give you many blessings for telling His people the truth.

Churches here in Montana are falling — crosses taken down, old Baptist church now a community center. This all reminds me that our Lord's return could happen at any time, as you report.

—M.F.

I used to watch your show every week and had stopped. I am glad I watched tonight. I was one of those Christians who believe there are many ways to heaven. Thanks to your teaching, I realize I was wrong.

Thank you for opening my eyes and heart.

I grew up and was baptized in the Baptist Church. I later changed to Missouri Synod Lutheran Church. Ever since hearing y'all, I've done nothing but thirst for the Word of God. I prayed the prayer of salvation. My heart aches for the Word. I'm sure my family and friends see a difference in me. I do. Now I want to find a church that will teach me what's coming.

Thank you again.

WORLD

Report

ISLAMISTS' HARSH JUSTICE IS ON THE RISE IN NORTH MALI

The New York Times reports:

“Moctar Touré was strapped to a chair, blindfolded, his right hand bound tight to the armrest with a rubber tube. A doctor came and administered a shot. Then Mr. Touré’s own brother wielded a knife, the kind used to slaughter sheep, and methodically carried out the sentence.

‘I myself cut off my brother’s hand,’ said Aliou Touré, a police chief in the Islamist-held north of this divided nation. ‘We had no choice but to practice the justice of God.’

Such amputations are designed to shock — residents are often summoned to watch — and even as the world makes plans to recapture northern Mali by force, the Islamists who control it show no qualms about carrying them out.

After the United Nations Security Council authorized a military campaign to retake the region last week, Islamists in Gao, Mr. Touré’s town, cut the hands off two more people accused of being thieves the very next day, a leading local official said, describing it as a brazen response to the United Nations resolution. Then the Islamists, undeterred by the international threats against them, warned reporters that eight others ‘will soon share the same fate’....” (This is but one of the numerous methods used to deal with thieves under Sharia law. Also, death to unmarried females who have had sex, homosexuals, apostate Muslims, and infidels [all religions not Islamic] is pronounced and carried out on such offenders of Sharia law, by crucifixion and beheading Sura 5:33, and 47:4, as demanded in the Sunnah’s, and hadiths of Mohammed and the Koran.)

IRAN URGES OIC TO MOVE TO HARNESS INSULT TO ISLAM

The Fars News Agency reports:

“Iran condemned the insults leveled against the prophet of Islam in the US and European movies and magazines, and called on the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) to compile a convention to prevent such blasphemous acts.

Speaking to reporters in his weekly press conference in Tehran on Tuesday, Iranian Foreign Ministry Spokesman Ramin Mehman-Parast deplored certain western media for promoting and supporting sacrilegious acts against divine sanctities and the prophet of Islam.

‘We want those who are behind this move to go on trial and be punished and we expect the OIC to take urgent action to compile a convention to prevent such acts and don’t allow these publications to create a rift among divine religions,’ he underlined.

His remarks came after a number of western movies and cartoons were released in the western media in recent years which insulted the prophet of Islam and Muslims....” (What about the blasphemies spoken against Christ within Islamic writing?

1. Jesus is not the Son of God
2. Jesus never died on the cross for the sins of mankind
3. Jesus is not the Savior of the world
4. Jesus is coming back as a radical Muslim
5. Jesus will come back just outside of Damascus
6. Jesus will be subordinate to the Muslim Messiah Mahdi
7. Jesus will rule under divine law — Sharia law
8. Jesus becomes a great Muslim evangelist and preaches for the Muslim faith
9. Jesus will testify against Christians, the ones who Jesus will abolish Christianity and execute those who will not become Muslims.
10. Jesus will abolish Christianity and execute those who will not become Muslims.)

A Special Word

from a Friend of Jack Van Impe Ministires

Bob Grieve, a Canadian brother and one of our faithful partners in ministry, has written a tremendous article which was sent to various Canadian newspapers. It so blessed my heart and agreed with my thinking that I felt it should be shared with hundreds of thousands of my readers.

—Dr. Jack Van Impe

We note that our municipal taxes are escalating each year because of the need for more police and fire protection. All this because there is a parallel escalation in drug and alcohol abuse, rise in domestic, ethnic, and gang-related violence.

We see mindless acts of vandalism, arson, cruelty. We fear to walk our streets alone by day, never by night. We fear to leave our vehicles unattended, even in an open parking area. And, there is the “attitude problem,” we see it on the highway — “road rage” — in the home, the school, work place, where surliness and anger have become the norm.

While sociologists, psychologists struggle for answers, here’s one that they won’t agree with a bit! I suggest that the root cause of the social malaise we are in is a direct result of the programmed atheism with which we have been indoctrinated for most of the last century. As the Christian faith has been replaced with Darwinism, the need for, even the existence of, a Creator to whom we are all eventually accountable has become ever more remote from the mindset of the majority of our citizens.

If we accept the hypothesis of evolution as the manner in which the human race got on this planet, is there any real incentive for moral living? Why not lie, cheat, talk back to authority figures, beat up anyone we dislike, take alcohol, do drugs, steal to feed the habit, cheat on our mates, have sex wherever proffered, rape where it is refused? Why not steal the car, burn the building, trash the park, start the riot? Small wonder we need more police and firemen!

Must we see more of our people murdered by the Bin Ladens of this world? Must we see resources needed to feed and house, provide medical attention, diverted to pay for the costs of policing our nation? Maybe we should explore the mindset of these terrorists to see why intelligent young men are willing to blow up themselves in the process of blowing up others.

Bin Laden refers to us as infidels. If he is right, we can thank Charles Darwin and his disciples for the label! If we really want to diffuse the perceptive arguments of the Bin Ladens of the world, the first line of attack should be to put the purveyors of Darwinism on trial. We are entitled to demand scientific proof that they can provide to back up their position. They should face mathematicians who have worked out probability factors, biologists who demand fossil evidence of transitional forms, chemists who probe the effects of oxidation on the “primordial soup....”

Here in Canada, the CBC has, for over 20 years, funded David Suzuki’s *The Nature of Things. The subject of Origins was fully evolution. Despite the fact that the CBC was mandated to provide equal time for controversial issues, they studiously persisted indoctrinating Canadians with the “proven fact” of evolution. To date, all efforts to provide access to a competent scientist willing to debate the issue have been disregarded.

If we fail to persuade our politicians to insist that the CBC comply, and continue with the indoctrination in our schools and universities, Bin Laden & Co. will be proven right, that we have become “a nation of infidels”! We will deserve the tax burdens, not only those already discussed, at the municipal level, but the costs associated with the acts of terrorism. The costs of running a society which has chosen to ignore the Creator are incalculable!

Deadly Sharia law coming your way!

Warning — Danger ahead!
Why? From 2002 until 2011, the U.N. attempted, by vote, to install Sharia law in the nations of the world.

America's President, whose early schooling was in a Wahhabite school, Bin Laden's denomination, favored it while Hillary Clinton firmly opposed it. In 2011, the annual vote was discontinued.

In 2013, Islamic fanatics and apostate Christian ministers renewed the fight to make Sharia law a reality globally, as well as a unifying move for a one-world religion.

Under Sharia law, jihad (holy war) is permitted and even commanded. Children are indoctrinated with Sharia law at mosques and madrassas which include lessons about abhorrent behavior including wife abuse, polygamy, underage and forced marriages, honor killing for unmarried daughters, and death to adulterers, homosexuals, Muslim defectors, and infidels of all other religions as demanded by Muslim Imans — yes, ministers of Allah.

Sharia law is a complete way of life within Islamic nations — social, cultural, military, religious, and political — governed from cradle to grave by Islamic Sharia law. It poses a great threat and there is a considerable awareness about its aggressive design on humanity wherever it becomes law.

The former Archbishop of Canterbury, Rowan Williams, in promoting Sharia law for the United Kingdom said: The British legal system needs to adopt parts of Islamic Sharia law — a legal code based on the Quran and the sayings of Mohammed.

It has now emerged that Sharia courts with these powers have been set up in London, Birmingham, Bradford, and Manchester, with two more being planned for Glasgow and Edinburgh.

The homeland of my parents, Belgium, as well as Holland, in cities such as Brussels, Antwerp, Amsterdam, and Rotterdam, are already being warned and prepared for a takeover as announced by Islamic leaders on television in both nations.

Under Sharia law, jihad (holy war) is permitted and even commanded.

In America, 15,000 Islamists just met in Hartford, Connecticut, to create Sharia law, and a lawsuit has been filed in Oklahoma's courts by Muslims to establish Sharia law there.

I have 300 hours of research as to the future of Islamic Sharia law and the one-world religion.

Find out why America and Canada are in trouble, and which Christian leaders are behind the uniting of Islam and Christianity — the One World Religion called Christlam which began in 32 states in June of 2011. 🌍
