SHOCKING NEW VIDEO BY DRS. JACK & REXELLA VAN IMPE

ENEMIES OF THE CROSS

Never in my lifetime — never in well over six decades of ministry — have I witnessed so shocking a movement ... such a global desertion, by ministers and laypeople, an utter abandonment of the bedrock biblical truths of the Christian faith!

So-called Christian leaders have been deluded into believing absolutely outrageous falsehoods — but it hasn't stopped there. They have not settled for believing a lie; they have devoted themselves to preaching and promoting the lies, and, in the process, deceiving multitudes.

What we are seeing, beloved, is a colossal shift, like the huge turning of a tide, away from the truth about the Cross of Jesus Christ. The Cross — the very centerpiece of our faith, the Cross on which our Savior bled and died to save the world, the instrument for which there could never be a substitute, the absolutely essential means by which we experience salvation — has been utterly rejected.

The Cross has been removed from the outside of church buildings, to keep from “offending.” The Cross has been removed from the inside of church sanctuaries, to keep things “positive.” And when was the last time we heard a preacher in one of these Cross-less churches utter the word “sin”? It's too “confrontational,” too “troubling”! Yet look at the Word of God, beloved: The Bible speaks of sin directly 613 times. When have they preached about the promise of heaven, and the hazard of hell? The stark truth — believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you go to heaven testimonies

Thank you very much for your ministry. I have attended church all my life, but you are 'my pastor.'

for eternity, reject the Lord Jesus Christ and you go to hell for eternity — has evaporated into a New Age cloud of flimsy, meaningless platitudes! The Bible speaks of heaven 690 times. The Bible speaks of hell 162 times. Heaven and hell are real! We are called to one — and called to warn the lost about the other!

Beloved, we are living in the prophecy of II Thessalonians 2:3: "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition." This is a description of the massive apostasy which must come before Christ's return. Well, look around: The apostasy is no longer "coming" — it's here!

What is our response, as people of God? I can tell you what my response is: I will never stop fighting these deceptions. I will never retreat in my preaching the Truth of the Gospel, the absolute necessity of the old rugged Cross. Until my dying day, I will continue to proclaim Jesus as the only way to heaven, and hell as the inevitable destination of anyone who turns their back on Him.

Here is my response to the apostasy of our age, beloved: I will lead a global crusade for the Cross of Christ. Beginning with Holy Week, I call on true Christians to wear a Cross. I hereby call for all believers in 247 nations during 2014 to buy or make a Cross to wear as a witness to the "enemies of the Cross of Christ" — including atheists, New Age blasphemers, Muslim destroyers of the Cross of Jesus, and others.

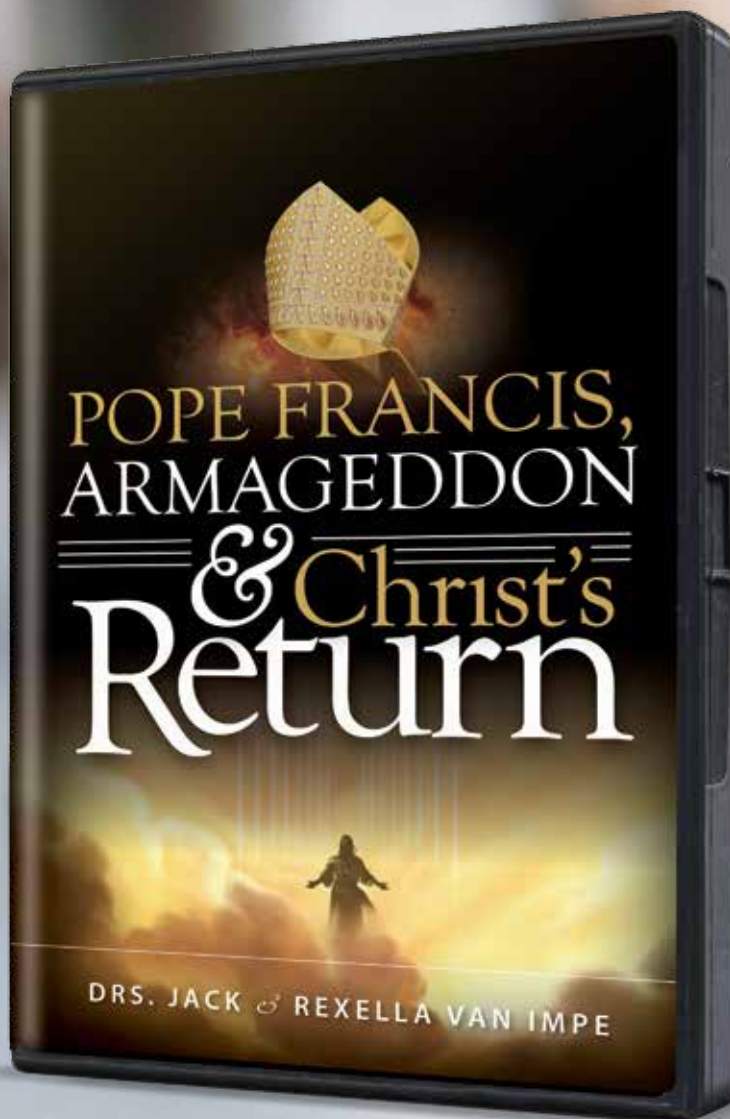

The Apostle Paul said: "God forbid that I should glory save (except) in the Cross of Christ" (Galatians 6:14). I URGE YOU TO STAND WITH REXELLA AND ME IN THIS GLOBAL CRUSADE. First, I urge you to pray for my call from God to uplift our precious Jesus and the old rugged Cross, where eternal life begins. Secondly, stand with us for the Cross of Christ by requesting my powerful new video, ENEMIES OF THE CROSS. It is power-packed, and it will equip you with biblical answers to crucial questions:

THE LAST 7 SAYINGS OF CHRIST UPON THE CROSS

SEVEN is the number of perfection and holiness, and Christ uttered seven cries from the tree that held His body in suspension between heaven and earth. Let's look at the seven sayings in order of their utterance and then analyze the tender compassionate heart of Christ. We will immediately notice that even the order or progress of the seven cries is Christ-like, for He begins with His enemies and ends with Himself. All through His life it was others first, self last. Thus, Jesus died even as He had lived.

THE ORDER IS

Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do (LUKE 23:34)

②

Today shalt thou be with me in paradise (LUKE 23:43)

③

Woman, behold thy son!...Behold thy mother! (JOHN 19:26-27)

④

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (MATTHEW 27:46)

⑤

I thirst (JOHN 19:28)

⑥

It is finished (JOHN 19:30)

⑦

Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit (LUKE 23:46)

Oh, what love, what compassion, what heartache, and what suffering. It was all for us. Everyone at this point should repeat the latter part of Galatians 2:20, [Christ] loved me, and gave himself for me.

God's love

Now, let's analyze each of these statements.

1 The first thing Jesus did when He got to His cross was to seek forgiveness for those who had viciously nailed Him to it. Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. He was beginning His ministry of intercession for His enemies by virtue of His blood vehemence and hatred that it dislocated His bones (Psalm 22:14) were recipients of His tender supplications to His Father.

2 The second expression, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise, is closely aligned with the first, in that the Savior forgives one individual who has shown nothing but hatred toward Him. In the Gospel accounts we find both thieves heckling Christ. Mark 15:32: They [plural] that were crucified with him reviled him.

The religious leaders said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

Then, as he looked at the center cross and saw Christ, he heard an unbelievable utterance falling from the Lord's lips: Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do (Luke 23:34). The thief was startled by the love shown to such villains. It was superhuman. Because of it, he suddenly changed his mind about Christ. Soon the one who hurled infamous blasphemies at Christ called upon Him for salvation. His cry was, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom (Luke 23:42).

Did Christ really forgive this one who so hatefully slandered Him? Did Jesus mean what He prayed when He said, "Father, forgive them?" The answer is tenderly given in the second expression: Today shalt thou be with me in paradise (verse 43).

3 The third statement ringing from the Savior's lips also resounds the message of love: Woman, behold thy son! Let's turn from the outer circle of sin-blinded religious leaders, brutal soldiers, and hardened criminals to the inner circle of believers. The lesson unfolded now is very moving.

Mary was the instrument of God used to bring His Son into the world. This pure young lady was a virgin who had never known a man in an intimate way (Luke 1:34). She became impregnated through the miracle-working power of the Holy Spirit — a special act of creation (verse 35). Therefore Joseph had nothing to do with the birth of Christ and was only called his father because he adopted Christ. As Christ hung upon the cruel cross, dying for the sins of an entire

The thief was startled by the love shown to such villains. It was superhuman. Because of it, he suddenly CHANGED HIS MIND about Christ.

— already freely flowing from His veins. This cry was not being made for His admirers and devotees, but for the rabble-rousers who had mercilessly mangled and mutilated His flesh. It was for the brutes who used the Roman cat-o-nine-tails and shredded the skin of His chest, arms, and back. It was for the villains who barbarously battered His face with sticks and fists and yanked His beard out by the roots (Isaiah 50:6).

The sinners who had spit in His face ridiculing, vilifying, and disqualifying Him as the Saviour of the world were also part of His intercessory cry. Even the soldiers who had nailed His hands and feet to the tree and who dropped the cross into a hole with such

He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God (Matthew 27:42,43). Now look at verse 44: The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth [or face].

Since both thieves were making these identical statements and accusations against Christ's saving ability, what triggered the sudden change of attitude in the one convict? I believe it was love. This thief saw the hatred the world had heaped upon Christ as well as upon himself. His heart was so incensed with the brutes who nailed him to a tree next to Christ that he would have strangled his executioners with his bare hands had it been possible.

IT IS THE WORK OF CHRIST — and only the work of Christ — that is sufficient forever.

world, Joseph was not present — all evidence suggests that he was already dead.

Jesus looked at the lonely little woman who bore Him, and His tender heart was grieved. He wanted assurance that someone would take care of her after His departure. He looked at Mary and said, Woman, behold thy son! Then to His beloved disciple John He said, Behold thy mother! (John 19:26-27). Yes, Christ in His dying moments, was concerned about the future welfare of Mary, who had bore Him and whose soul was now pierced with a sword (Luke 2:35).

Jesus had no earthly possessions to leave His mother (2 Corinthians 8:9). He brought nothing into the world at His birth, and He had nothing to leave behind as He left this life. He died as poor as He had lived. All that He could leave His mother was His love. He wanted His followers to love as He loved. Jesus said in Matthew 19:19, Honour thy father and thy mother.

What a lesson there is for this thoughtless, cruel age in which we live. Thousands weep because they have been forgotten. Lord, forgive us for we know not what we do. Love is the proof of salvation — love for parents, in-laws, believers, neighbors, and for lowly sinners. Do you have the evidence?

God's holiness

4 The fourth cry, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (Matthew 27:46), reveals the holiness of God and the depravity of man. God is love (1 John 4:8). However, this does not mean that He sentimentally allows man's ungodliness and debased practices to go unpunished. Perish the thought! He is also a God of holiness and wants mankind to partake of this righteous attribute. First Peter 1:16 says, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

The problem is that man is inherently wicked. Every member of the human race arrives on the scene with the nature of Adam (Romans 5:12). Yes, every one of us is born with this sinful, wicked, Adamic nature. It is this sin principle with which we are born that makes us lie, cheat, swindle, curse, blaspheme, and become enslaved to every known vice that mankind creates. We do not become sinners because we commit these abominable practices, but rather we practice these wicked iniquities because we were born with a nature that hungers after sin.

Because the God of holiness cannot look upon sin, and because this God of holiness is also a God of love, we begin to understand the words of the Savior, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? At the cross, God's two attributes of holiness and love were made manifest — His love, in that His Son was being offered to rid mankind of sin, and His holiness, as He forsook the Son He loved. Romans 8:32 says that God spared not His own Son.

The reason the Father turned His back upon His Son at Calvary, refusing to look at Him, was that Christ was covered from head to toe with every loathsome sin mankind had ever and would ever commit. Please remember that Christ was not dying for His own sin. He was the Holy One of God who did no sin (1 Peter 2:22). He... knew no sin (2 Corinthians 5:21). He was holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners (Hebrews 7:26). The "good news" is that Christ died for our sins

(1 Corinthians 15:3). He loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood (Revelation 1:5).

As Jesus hung there stained, saturated, and sin-laden, the Father refused to look at His Son. Why? Christ was bearing every vile, degrading vice that depraved human beings had ever committed or would ever commit. His body and soul were completely immersed with man's abominations. He bore the disobedience of Adam, the murderous act of Cain, the adultery of David, and the murders of the Christians by Saul of Tarsus. He bore every sin committed since the inception of history and every sin which will be committed until the world disintegrates by fire.

Never in the annals of history had so much sin been carried at one time, and it was all carried by the sinless One. It was all upon the holy God-man, Christ Jesus, and this is why the Father turned away from the voice of His Son as Christ took our place (Psalm 22:1). God could not look upon the scene. Truly, it was our sin, our wickedness, our transgressions, our iniquities, and our abominations that turned God's face from the heartbreaking event.

5 Christ had suffered severe abuse at the hands of His tormentors. Many were His anguished cries. Psalm 22:1 tells us that He literally roared upon that cruel tree because of the excruciating pain. Naturally, His mouth became parched, pasty, and dry. Thus He cried, I thirst (John 19:28).

What a paradox that Christ, the Water of Life, the One who satisfies the eternal thirst of the soul, cried for water. The blessing of these words becomes understandable when one realizes that the God-man was willing to suffer physical thirst in order that our spiritual thirst might be quenched for all eternity.

This truth is taught in John 4:13-14. Jesus, conversing with the woman at the well, said, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again. Why? Mankind must continually replenish the fluid in his body or death will ensue. But, Christ continued, whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

I personally drank of this Water many years ago, and the Lord has satisfied every desire and longing in my heart. Quit trying to quench the thirst of your spiritual being with liquor, drugs, sex, pleasure, or money. Drink of the Water of Life freely. God's invitation to you is found in the last chapter of the Bible, Revelation 22:17: Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. It is yours without money, without works, without man-made rites and ceremonies, without Lenten observations. God offers it freely. The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord (Romans 6:23).

Christ finished the plan

6 The sixth utterance is the greatest statement ever recorded, historically. It is finished (John 19:30). The original Greek does not carry three words, but one: finished.

Friend, do you get the significance of this statement? Does it simply mean that Christ expired or died upon a tree as far as your understanding of the subject is concerned? If so, get ready for some thrilling theological truth. The terminology It is finished had to do with the eternal plan the Trinity originated in heaven before the world was created.

First Peter 1:20 proves this teaching. Who [Christ] verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world. Revelation 13:8 states that Christ is the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. When was He slain? Before and from the foundation of the world.

Christ said in Hebrews 10:4-5, For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. Wherefore...a body hast thou prepared me. This prepared body had blood. It was pure, holy blood because of the virgin birth. It was not contaminated with Adam's virus of sin. John the Baptist recognized Christ's earthly mission and victoriously cried out in John 1:29, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Animal blood had covered sin to this point, but soon Christ, God's Lamb, would shed His blood and take away the sin that was hitherto covered.

When Christ shed His blood at Calvary, He cried, Finished! The programmed plan from eternity past had now come to completion. The shedding of blood was finished forever. Hebrews 9:12 says, Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. Hebrews 10:12 states that he — offered one sacrifice for sins for ever. This is why it is finished. He did it once for all — and forever. This is why man's works are useless. It is the work of Christ — and only the work of Christ — that is sufficient forever.

7 Into thy hands I commend my spirit (Luke 23:46). In essence, Christ was saying, "Father, You sent Me into the world (Galatians 4:4). My work upon Calvary's cross is finished. I have shed My blood for the sins of the world. Now I commend My Spirit unto You."

What a beautiful example Christ sets in this last utterance from the cross. He is at perfect peace and is soon going home. The liberals and apostacized religionists of our day may laugh about heaven. They may try to insult real Christians with such phraseology as "pie in the sky when you die by and by." Yet, death must and will come for every member of Adam's race and there is nothing more satisfying than the assurance of eternal life. What joy and satisfaction there is when one believes the Word of God and the sayings of Jesus — especially when the night of death approaches.

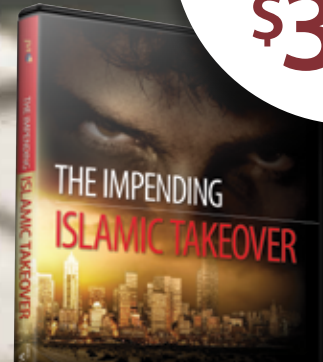

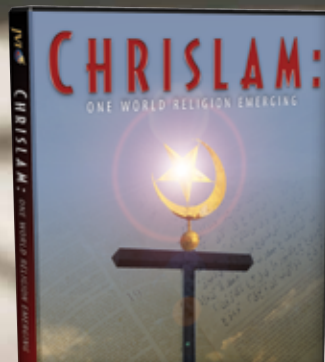

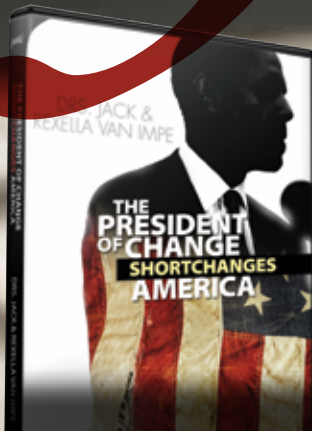

Does it bother you to think about the inevitability of decease? It does not have to be this way. Death is not a sad ending but a glorious beginning for those who have trusted in Christ. He who said, Into thy hands I commend my spirit, also said in John 14:1-3, Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Verse 6: I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. He died, was buried, and rose again for us. That's the Gospel. Where He went, you can go — if He lives in your heart. Receive Him now! 🌿

WERE YOU THERE?

One of my favorite songs often heard at Easter time is the beautiful old spiritual, "Were You There?" The simple but haunting words of this great classic remind us of the suffering and sacrifice of our Lord at Calvary, as well as the triumphant victory of His Resurrection.

Because Christ suffered and died — not for His own sins but for yours and mine — in a very real sense we were there at Golgotha on that awesome day of destiny 2,000 years ago. And it is important that we remind ourselves of what happened there — of the death that gave us life — of the penalty paid that set us free.

BY DR. REXELLA
VAN IMPE

“When they offered

Were you there at the place of the skull which became the place of life everlasting?

Jack and I have gone to the outer edge of the old city of Jerusalem to Golgotha, the place of the skull, to view the place where Jesus died for us. Perhaps it is only fitting that today there is an ancient cemetery on top of this rugged, rocky hill. And sure enough, when viewed from below at enough distance for good perception, the shape of Mt. Calvary is much like a human skull!

When I was there, the ugly reality of what really happened to Jesus on that spot struck me. He was tortured, maimed, and killed there. He was mocked and humiliated, then nailed to a rough-hewn cross. His blood poured out and stained the wood, the rocks, and the ground.

Not long ago a friend of mine asked, “But why did Jesus have to die?” The answer is clear — mankind sinned, and the Bible says the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23).

For centuries, God allowed men to sacrifice the blood of animals as a temporary covering for their sins. This was an imperfect sacrifice, with limited efficacy. The blood of goats and calves could not take away sin (Hebrews 10:4).

Only the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, the perfect, sinless Son of God, was pure and holy enough to wash away the stain of sin for all mankind. No wonder John the Baptist, upon seeing Jesus, cried out, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world (John 1:29).

Because of Christ’s willing sacrifice, the place of death became the place of life — yes, everlasting life — for all who receive the Lord.

Were you there for the noonday darkness where we received the Light of the world?

The gospels tell us that Christ was crucified at 9 a.m., and that from noon until 3 p.m., darkness covered the earth! Imagine the daylight hours as dark as midnight, when there was no light in the heavens and the sun refused to shine. When the “Light of the world” was dying, darkness was everywhere!

Darkness symbolizes trouble and despair, fear and hopelessness. We’ve all gone through dark days when it seemed there was no way out of our desperate situation, and everything around us looked black. Jesus tasted of that awful darkness for us, when there was no joy or no hope. But in the midst of the darkest hour in all of human history, He brought new light!

How fitting that the prophet Isaiah was anointed by the Spirit of God to look down the corridors of time to the coming of Jesus and proclaim, The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined (Isaiah 9:2).

Today the world seems dark again. I know people who don’t even want to watch the news on TV or read the newspaper because everything looks so black and bleak. If ever we needed the light of the world, it’s today. There’s no other way out of the darkness. But if we follow Him, we can live in the joy of His sunshine in our lives.

Were you there at the place where Jesus said, “I thirst,” and from which now comes living water?

One of the worst forms of human suffering is to be thirsty. I remember being in Israel while we were taping a TV special. On a blindingly bright, blistering hot day (120 degrees Fahrenheit), I was recording a song on a hill overlooking Masada. The sun beat down mercilessly, and the desert wind swirled the sand around us.

After a while I got so thirsty I could hardly speak, much less sing. My mouth was almost too dry to swallow — it felt like waves of desperation mounting until I was finally given something to drink.

I thought of Jesus hanging on a cross, after having been beaten with whips, crowned with cruel thorns, and nailed to the beams that suspended Him between heaven and earth. In the midst of the agony of Jesus a drink, He realized that it contained something to help dull the pain of His suffering — and He refused it.”

crucifixion, He also was stricken with thirst.

When they offered Jesus a drink, He realized that it contained something to help dull the pain of His suffering — and He refused it. He allowed nothing to keep Him from experiencing the utter depths of the thirsty soul.

All of us have a thirst within that cannot be satisfied except by the Living Water of God. We may drink from the waters of pleasure and ambition, even taste the juice of riches and self-indulgence. But nothing earth has to offer can quench the thirsting of our souls.

Jesus said, Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life (John 4:14).

“Imagine the daylight hours as dark as midnight, when there was no light in the heavens and the sun refused to shine.”

Were you there for the weeping and sorrow which led to joy and blessings?

The cross of Calvary was a place of weeping and sorrow. The Bible says that women stood weeping at the foot of the cross. The disciples of Jesus were also overcome with sorrow. No doubt there were those who had been healed, taught, and blessed by the Lord who looked on that day. Their hearts must have been broken to see this Miracle Worker dying. And other followers who thought Jesus was to be Israel's new leader and deliverer must have been bitterly disappointed, too. "What's happening?" they cried. "We thought this was our Messiah!"

But if Jesus had not experienced such great sorrow, He would never have understood the sorrows of mankind. Isaiah prophesied, He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief ... surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows (Isaiah 53:3-4).

Because of His sacrifice, we know that all our tears will be wiped away and our sorrow replaced by divine joy.

Thank God, the psalmist wrote, Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning (Psalm 30:5).

Were you there for the time of anguish which provides our comfort?

On Calvary, Jesus gave His body and soul as a sacrifice for us. He suffered unendurable sorrow and pain. Here He bore our sins.

We cannot even imagine what it was like for the Perfect One, God in the flesh, to feel the defilement of every sin in the universe. Here was Jesus, who never did cheat, steal, lie, commit adultery, or do any other sin, suddenly burdened with the vileness and degradation of the whole world — for every person who would ever live!

It was absolutely overwhelming. No wonder the Savior cried out, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (Matthew 27:46). God the Father had to turn His head because He could not look on sin (Isaiah 59:2). So Jesus endured that anguish ... alone. And because He took our sins, we can now come to God.

Jesus knows the awful sadness and bitterness sin produces. And because He took our sins upon himself, He can comfort us in any situation. The Word of God says, For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need (Hebrews 4:15-16).

Were you there at the place of punishment from whence comes redemption?

The penalty for sin is death! That punishment must be endured — that penalty must be paid. And that was the reason for Christ's death on the cross — the purpose of Calvary. On that day, the place of punishment became the place of redemption for all mankind ... for the whole world.

Without the gallows of Golgotha there could be no salvation, no forgiveness of sin, no redemption.

The old spiritual concludes by asking, "Were you there when He rose up from the grave?" Thank God, through Christ our Lord, we were there!

Through His sacrifice, we've faced death and overcome it with life everlasting.

We've gone through the darkness of this world and moved into His marvelous light.

We've overcome the desperation of unquenchable thirst by receiving a well of living water springing up within our souls.

We've found the only source of joy and blessings that overcomes life's sorrows, and the only comfort in the time of anguish and tears.

And we've met Jesus at the place of punishment and found it has become a place of redemption.

Only by going to Calvary to see what Christ has done for us can we really experience the full joy of Easter! Were YOU there?

Oh, truly, "sometimes it causes me to tremble" to realize how much we owe — how rich we are. My mind can scarcely comprehend the wonder of it all. How marvelous!

No wonder Jesus commissioned us to go tell this great good news to every person in all the world! Let's go tell it to all who will hear! 🙏

*The Final Three Popes Signal
Christ's Return book (BF3P)*

According to an ancient prophecy of the Catholic Church, Pope Francis is the final Pope, the one who will allow the spirit of Antichrist into the Church!

Dr. Jack Van Impe's astonishing book guides you through Bible prophecy and church tradition to give you the truth about this astonishing fact. You will learn ...

- How was John Paul II dramatically used by God to engineer events on the prophetic calendar?
- Which prominent Jesuit was actually unhappy that the assassin failed in his attempt on Pope John Paul's life?
- What did Bishop Sheen, Pope John Paul II, and Pope Benedict believe about the possibility of a Pope actually destroying the Catholic Church?

- What radical position has Pope Francis already taken about same-sex marriage?
- Why was Pope Benedict targeted by radical Muslims with a "fatwa" (death decree)?
- Why did he shock the world and resign as Pope?
- What is Pope Francis's attitude toward Islam? The answer will shock you in the light of Islam's death threat upon Pope Benedict XVI.

Running Time: 75 minutes

Could your church be among those that are “falling away” from the cross of Jesus Christ?

Is your pastor among those who never utter the word “sin” — even though the Bible talks about it 613 times?

Is your church’s leadership afraid of preaching about heaven and hell, even though the Bible speaks of heaven 690 times and hell 162 times?

The great apostasy prophesied in Scripture is here — enemies of the cross are at battle with the true faith now. You must protect yourself and your family.

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe will help you stand in defense of the cross — with this powerful new video teaching. Here’s what you’ll learn in 75 fast-paced minutes:

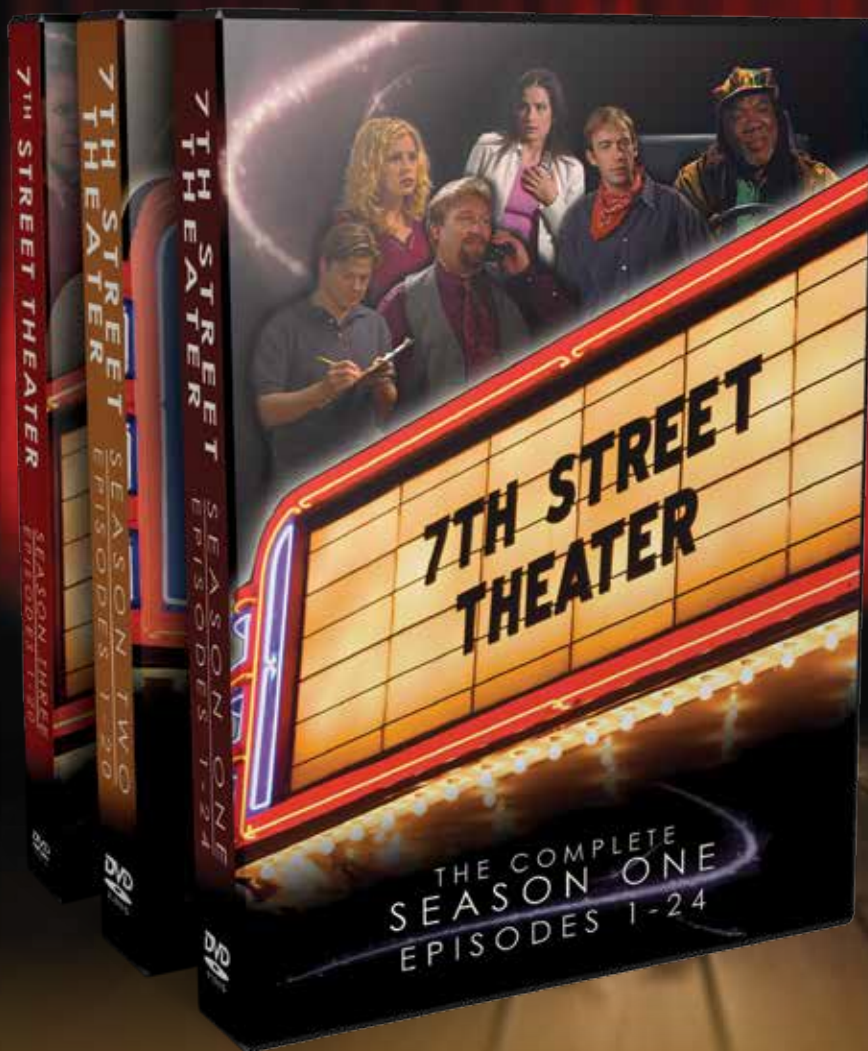

- What is apostasy? When will it happen?
- Can people deny Jesus as a “useless Savior” and still go to heaven?
- Is Jesus really the only way to heaven?
- Is there some other Jesus besides the Jesus of the Bible?
- What are the implications of the New Age Movement?
- Who are leaders of the New Age Movement who hypocritically claim the Christian faith?
- How can New Age leaders call themselves gods?
- Is there really meaning to the death of Christ? Was the cross useless?
- How are Wycliffe’s new Bible translations destroying Christianity?
- Does sin really exist?

- Why should we cling to “the old rugged cross”?
- Is the name of Jesus just a symbol that can represent many ways to the same God?
- What is Chrislam?
- What does the Bible say about the False Prophet?
- Why are Bible translators like Wycliffe, SIL, and Frontiers so very dangerous?
- Is it OK to omit Christ as the Son of God 91 times in Bibles for the Muslim world?
- What is the biblical foundation of the Christian faith?
- What are the five fundamentals of the Christian faith?
- What should we do with people who take the five fundamentals of faith out of the Gospel and out of the Bible? This will shock you.
- Do you think the current Pope will be in office when Christ returns? An amazing answer!
- What prophecy predicts that this Pope will lead us down the wrong path into a false world religion?
- What are the implications of a religion without the cross?
- Who will the final one world religion embrace as apostate religious members?
- What is the prophecy of St. Malachy?
- What is the danger of a Universalist Pope?
- Could the Pope destroy the Catholic Church?
- Are we in danger of our doctrine and faith being turned into fables?
- Does Pope Francis call Islam a religion of peace and non-violence?
- How can you be ready for the Lord’s return?
- And more!

Do not let your family, your church, or your friends be deceived in these critical moments of history! Stand with Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe in defense of the cross — request this video NOW!

Thanks to God, you, your TV podcasts, etc., my 21-year-old daughter accepted Christ as her personal Savior about a half-hour ago. I'm so excited I just want to shout so loud that the whole world can hear. I just had to tell you.

My parents urged me to watch, and I urged her to watch too. We are a family of Christians, and she is the last of our immediate family that we were worried about and praying for. Shortly after watching one of your podcasts, she called me from Florida, and I led her to Christ over the phone using what Jack says during his invitations. Praise JESUS, hallelujah, and amen!

May God continue to bless your ministry.

K.B.

“...I led her to Christ over the phone using what Jack says....”

I'm feeling blessed because JVI Ministries came into my life. I was a lost soul, but because of you, I'm one of many sinners entered into The Book of Life. Thank you.

W.W.

I just want to bless you and say thank you! Because of your ministry, 20 years ago this year I was born again.

Recently I was visiting my mom, and she was watching you on Sunday morning. I remembered praying with you then, and wanted to email you!

I was raised Catholic, saved as a child, but not walking with the Lord as an adult. I was attending a Christian church, and I would watch your prophecy show on TV. Every program you faithfully asked viewers to pray (bless you!), and so one day I thought, "What the heck...I'll just pray, it can't hurt!" So, in the fall of 1993, I was born-again, and my then-nine-year-old son was baptized.

Again, thank you for being faithful to God's Word!

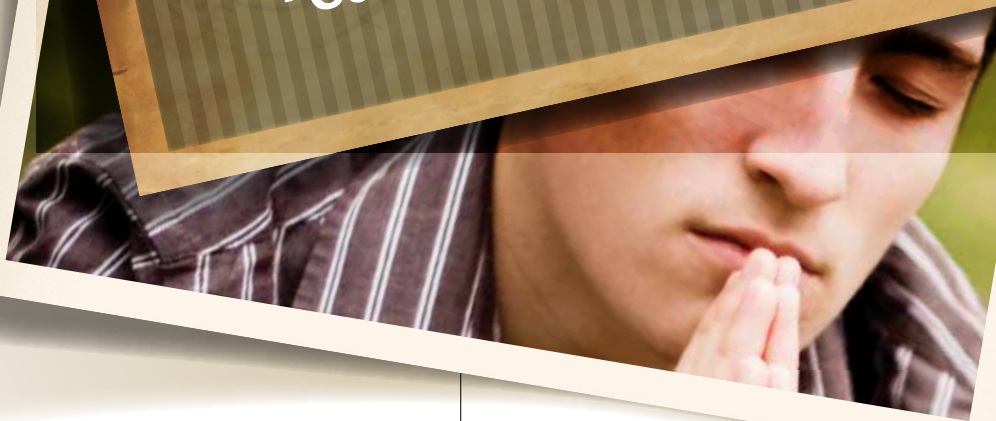

C.C.

I have never seen a more dedicated person doing the Lord's work than you. Please continue, as I know you will.

G.D.

Because of your ministry, two of our friends have come to know the Lord. We love to watch you and Rexella every week. What a blessing to us you are. * Looking forward to hearing those sweet words, "Come up hither."

B.W.

"I used to work on the tops of buildings. One day, I looked over and noticed your ministry headquarters.... You have been with me my entire Christian life, and I thank you for that."

“Thank you for shining the light of the Gospel on the cancer of Islam.”

I love you both and what you have taught me all these years! You both stand tall for our Lord Jesus Christ, and I'm most grateful for you and your true teaching. You're very interesting, and I like the way you present yourselves.

I've accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior and Lord. I'm so glad I have.

May God protect you both from evil. You're family to me, and you're welcome in my living room! I hope to meet you both in heaven one day. Thanks again.

S.L.

I just want to tell you that I appreciate your ministry very much. I have listened to you since 1972 when I became born-again. I grew up in Southfield, Michigan, and I used to work on the tops of buildings. One day, I looked over and noticed your ministry headquarters. I now live in Missouri. You have been with me my entire Christian life, and I thank you for that.

You and Rexella are rock solid. Yours is a clear voice that still proclaims the pure Gospel, and you do not tolerate garbage coming from any sector of society, including the lukewarm Church. God bless you.

R.B.

God bless you. Not only have you taught me so much the last few years, but everyone I have inspired to turn on your show whenever they ask where I get so much knowledge of the Word of God. You're truly a bother, even father figure, to me, though we've never spoken or met. I love you — the Lord loves you! He loves you and Rexella so very much, and he shows His love for us, His faithful children in Christ, by keeping you in our homes every week.

M.S.

I have watched your show for years. As these latter days are played out, thank you for being faithful to the Word of God. Thank you for shining the light of the Gospel on the cancer of Islam. Thank you for exposing the Rick Warren plan to derail true worship with Chrislam! While I'm afraid the world is ready for this damnable heresy, we must do everything in our power to expose the plan of Satan. God bless! Hebrews 6:10.

J.C.

As with so many viewers, your program, letters, emails, and printed materials have had a life-changing effect on me. I'm glad I discovered you and Rexella and your message before the Rapture.

J.C.

Your teaching touches my heart, and your prayer touches my soul. I'll meet you at the judgment seat of Christ when you receive your crowns. I am a blessed 87-year-old child of the King.

G.A.

Your brought me to Christ initially through your review of the book of Revelation, and progressed from there.

God bless you and Rexella!

R.B.

“YOUR FAITHFUL EXPOSITION OF BIBLE PROPHECY WAS POWERFULLY USED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT IN INTRODUCING ME TO MY SAVIOR, AND NOW, LORD OF MY LIFE.”

I was saved through your ministry around 2001 (I wish I'd written the date down when I called the ministry and trusted Christ as my Savior.)

From 1993 to 2000, for seven years, I'd faithfully recorded every one of your broadcasts and watched them at a more convenient hour. I was into mundane astrology. Initially, I found Bible prophecy to be an interesting parallel research for understanding current and future world events. I would listen up to the point of the "altar call."

After seven years, I finally recognized that as I came to believe in things to come, I had to accept prophecy uniquely and completely fulfilled by Jesus. Your faithful exposition of Bible prophecy was powerfully used by the Holy Spirit in introducing me to my Savior, and now, Lord of my life.

E.S.

We met you and Rexella years ago in Illinois, and you signed our Bibles. Our son was 10 years old at the time. You talked to him, telling him to serve Jesus. Today, he's 48 and loves the Lord with all his heart.

S.K.

Jack, I started at 12 years of age hearing you at a crusade. Now, at 65, you have been such a blessing to our family — children and grandchildren! Mother has gone home, 34 years ago. She loved you and how you preached the TRUTH! Keep on keeping on. We'll all be home one day. Until then, keep telling the truth and winning souls.

R.K.

Thank you for not backing down on the Chrislam issue. What they are doing is amazing and disturbing simultaneously.

Your boldness has encouraged me! Jesus Christ is the Son of God!

P.A.

I feel the utmost admiration and respect for your ministry and all that you do.

Though I was familiar with your ministry as a child, growing up in a Christian household, I did not watch regularly for many years. However, I would now like to confess that I am a born-again Christian, and I believe that only seen from this viewpoint, does the world make any sense. We are truly living in the end times. In my opinion, the biggest obstacle to people hearing the Word of God in our time is the relativism of postmodern society. With no objective truth, everything becomes just "choose what you want to believe." I have come to realize that such a worldview is completely false and in defiance of God. I could go on, but I just want you to know that you have one more faithful viewer who is currently in China. Thanks to your podcast, I can keep updated on the Truth!

Thank you for all you have done, and for touching our hearts and lives. You are in my prayers.

N.A.

“...you have one more faithful viewer who is currently in China.”

DERSHOWITZ: IRAN DEAL COULD BE A 'CHAMBERLAIN MOMENT'

Breitbart.com reports: "Harvard professor and noted civil rights and international law expert Alan Dershowitz criticized the nuclear deal with Iran sharply on Sunday [11/24/13], saying that it 'could become a Chamberlain moment' for President Barack Obama.

'I don't think that this deal was motivated by any anti-Israel sentiment,' Dershowitz told Breitbart News. 'I think that both President Obama and Secretary of State Kerry believe that the deal is in the best interest of the U.S. and Israel. But I think they're dead wrong.'

'When you do a risk-benefit analysis, the possibility that this will actually result in ending Iran's nuclear weapons program is probably in the range of 10%, and the risk that it will increase their likelihood of moving quickly toward developing a nuclear weapon is in the 20% to 30% range. The rest is uncertainty.

'I think it was a very bad example of negotiating from weakness rather than strength. The U.S. had Iran where we wanted them, in a much weakened position. And instead of continuing the pressure we sent three messages. 1. Sanctions are over. We are going to eliminate some now — it's only a few billion dollars' worth, but we are going to send a message to China and others that have been dying to do business with Iran that it's OK. And we will never get them back to that point of pressure. 2. I think we effectively took the military option off the table and made it much more difficult for Israel to pursue a military option in the next several months. 3. We gave them a yellow light, at least, if not quite a green one, as to continuing onto certain aspects of developing nuclear weapons — triggering devices and material that could be easily transposed to military use...." (Dershowitz is 100% right. Chamberlain of England went to Germany to negotiate a peace pact for England. He returned telling the citizens that Hitler was a man the UK could trust. He saw the love Germany's Fuhrer had for the British people, so he promoted the peace agreement he brought back throughout the nation. Winston Churchill rebuked Chamberlain and lived to see his beloved country repeatedly and mercilessly bombed. Chamberlain asked for forgiveness before he died. Beware, Obama — you seldom take anyone's advice.)

PALESTINIANS SEE WORRISOME TREND AS 'HONOR' KILLINGS RISE

Haaretz reports: "A silvery green olive grove set in the red soil of a Palestinian village is a crime scene — testament to a practice so sensitive that it is spoken of only in whispers.

One night in late November, Rasha Abu Ara, a 32-year-old mother of five, was beaten to death and strung from a gnarled tree branch as a gruesome badge of 'family honor' restored.

The woman's alleged sin was adultery, and her killer was either her own brother or husband, security sources told Reuters. Both are behind bars while an investigation continues.

Her murder brought to 27 the number of women slain in similar circumstances in Palestinian-run areas this year, according to rights groups — more than twice last year's victims.

The rise has led Palestinians to question hidebound laws they say are lax on killers, as well as a reluctance to name and shame in the media and society, which may contribute to a feeling of impunity among perpetrators.

'It feels like something that belongs to another time,' said one young man in Aqqaba who refused to give his name, the first hints of a beard on his chin. 'But, it's standard.'..." (Sharia law is deadly. Honor killing involves daughters who have experienced premarital sex. The father, brothers, or cousins then must put the daughter to death for bringing dishonor to the family name. Men who commit adultery only suffer for 80 seconds. How unfair to Islamic women who die for premarital sex. Afghanistan is a little tougher on adulterers, as they are lashed or stoned to death publically. All homosexuals are also put to death under Sharia law.)

U.S. PLAN GIVES JERUSALEM HOLY SITES TO VATICAN

WND.com reports: "Secretary of State John Kerry quietly presented a U.S. plan for eastern Jerusalem that calls for an international administrative mandate to control holy sites in the area, according to informed Palestinian and Israeli diplomatic sources.

The exact composition of the international mandate is up for discussion, the sources said, but Kerry's plan recommended a coalition that includes the Vatican, together with a group of Muslim countries such as Turkey and Saudi Arabia.

The international arrangement is being proposed as a temporary solution for about two to three years while security arrangements in Jerusalem between Israelis and Palestinians are finalized, said the sources.

Israel, the sources said, was not receptive to the particulars of Kerry's plan, especially the concept of Turkish participation in Jerusalem. Kerry told the Israelis he would hold talks with the Kingdom of Jordan about its playing a leading role in the proposal in the place of Turkey, the sources added..." (Our President, according to The Wall Street Journal, is the most anti-Semitic, anti-Jew president ever. He has promised Jerusalem to the Palestinians. Mr. President: God's Holy Word, the Bible, promises Jerusalem to the Jews 120 times. Dividing Jerusalem will bring World War III into existence — Joel 3:2.

The deck is stacked against the Jews, and Christ will soon return and make things right as He rules the world from David's Throne in Jerusalem — Psalm 22:6; Isaiah 59:20; and Luke 1:32-33.) 🕊️

You and your family must not be among the millions who are being deceived about the biblical truth of the Rapture and the Tribulation.

Too many Christian leaders are keeping the facts from their congregations — or preaching blatant falsehoods.

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe's video teaching gives you the Bible's facts and answers questions like:

- How does the Antichrist come to global power?
- Who is the false prophet?
- How close are we to the Rapture?
- What happens after Armageddon?

- Who prays the Lord's Prayer hypocritically right now?
- Who was the very first preacher to teach about the Rapture?
- How many of the 500 prophetic signs predicting the Rapture have already taken place?
- If the signs are all in place for us to read, why does the Bible say no one knows the day or the hour of Christ's return? (Think about different time zones!)
