The last two signs have already been fulfilled!

Welcome to the Rapture Generation!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

Prepare!

The incredible moment of 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17 is coming soon!

“For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.”

This is the Rapture — and every follower of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior can look forward to this amazing event with joy! Keen anticipation! We will finally see Jesus face to face!

But when? When will it happen? This is the question that has seized the imagination of Christians from the time of the apostles.

Perhaps today? Maybe this year?

Paul’s words in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52 call to us! “Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed”! For 2,000 years, Christians have been asking: When? When, Lord?

Today, we have evidence that we may be part of the “Rapture generation”!

Yes — many will be shocked to learn — the signs of the times show us clearly that we as 21st Century believers could be living at the moment of the Rapture!

I do not make such a bold claim lightly. I make it only on the clear authority of the Word of God.

The Bible is absolutely clear

“Every follower of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior can look forward to this amazing event with joy!”

about the signs of the times. I have spent my life studying the Scriptures and carefully comparing prophetic passages with current events. I have spent more than 140,000 lifetime hours in study over the course of 67 years — in addition, I have devoured more than 12,000 books in my search for truth.

And as a result, today I can state definitively that every sign indicated in the Bible is now aligning — today, in our lifetime — and furthermore, the FINAL TWO SIGNS have only been witnessed by today's generation of believers!

Oh beloved, I want you to understand it all, so you can turn on the news and rejoice — unlike the throngs of unbelievers who quake in fear and confusion! (As you give in support of Jack Van Impe Ministries, you are helping us to reach them with the hope-filled truth!)

Now you can grasp the beautiful truth about the soon-coming return of Christ — because Rexella and I have produced a new video for you:

THE LORD
JESUS CHRIST:

✠ BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE ✠

Each of us is familiar with the term substitute. During our school days when the regular teacher became ill, another instructor filled his or her position. The replacement was called a “substitute” teacher. He was one who took the place of another.

In theological studies, this principle is contained in the doctrine of the substitutionary or “vicarious” work of Christ. In other words, the Son of God, because of His enormous love for sinners, took our place or became our substitute.

Christ bore our sin

In His substitutionary work, the Lord Jesus Christ took upon himself the sinner’s sin. Oh, what love that a Holy God should leave heaven for earth’s misery, in order that He might — in a body of flesh — take upon himself our sin. Yes, Jesus is God. God was manifest in the flesh (1 Timothy 3:16). In Hebrews 1:8, the Father, speaking to His Son, says, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever. Jesus was in the form of God (a spirit) and came to earth to be made in the likeness of men (see Philippians 2:6-7). He did so in order that He might take the place of each sinner, thereby becoming the sinner’s substitute.

prophet uttered that phrase — once for each member of the Trinity.

He continued in verse 5, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips. What made Isaiah feel so lowly? He had witnessed the holiness of God. The remainder of the verse tells the story. For mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. I believe the one Isaiah saw was Jesus Christ because He is the one who bears the title, “KING OF KINGS.”

In Revelation 19:11, the Lord Jesus Christ returns to earth, and the text states, I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True. Verse 13: And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood [this speaks of Christ’s redemptive work as Saviour by the LORD OF LORDS.

Oh, dear friend, Jesus was, is, and always will be the Holy One. While upon earth He did no sin (see 1 Peter 2:22); He knew no sin (see 2 Corinthians 5:21); and He could victoriously challenge the crowds with the words, Which of you convinceth me of sin? (John 8:46).

The tremendous truth that I am about to present is that this totally holy, spotless Christ was willing to take mankind’s filthy, vile, loathsome, abominable sin upon His being at Calvary. The Prophet Isaiah, so humbled as he beheld the King in His beauty and holiness, also saw Him bearing the degraded, depraved wickedness of all of earth’s race. Thus, in chapter 53, verse 6, he said, All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

the sinner’s substitute

As the God-man, He never experienced or tasted the dregs of sin because He was the Holy One. Isaiah was overwhelmed with the holiness of God, and he said in chapter 6, verse 3, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. Three times the shedding of His blood]: and his name is called The Word of God [this ties in with His preexistence as expressed in John 1:1]. Then, in verse 16, we are presented with His glorious title: And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS. AND

This agrees with 2 Corinthians 5:21: For he [Yahweh] hath made him [Christ] to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. This is the good news — Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again the third day (see 1 Corinthians 15:3-4). Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree (1 Peter 2:24). Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood (Revelation 1:5).

Our sin grieved Christ

Can you imagine this Holy One bearing all the filth of the world at Calvary? This is what so deeply disturbed the Lord Jesus Christ in Gethsemane. He knew He had come to shed His blood for sinners, for He planned it with the Father and Holy Spirit before the world was created. Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world (1 Peter 1:20). Jesus Christ is the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world (Revelation 13:8). The crucifixion was not taking Him by surprise, for He had helped plan it.

His reason for crying out, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death, and O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me (Matthew 26:38-39), was His dreadful hatred of sin — my sin and your sin! The iniquity of all sinners, heaped upon Christ at His crucifixion, caused His Father to turn His face away from Him — forsaking Him during the hours that He was hanging upon that tree, bearing our wickedness.

Jesus knew that soon the cry of Matthew 27:46, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why has thou forsaken me? would become a reality. Just the thought of the weight of bearing all this sin was undeniably heavy for the Holy One who had never sinned. Nevertheless, He took our place and became our substitute. He bore our grief and sorrow as He filled our shoes. Isaiah 53:4 says, Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows.

Consider the extent of Christ's grief by meditating upon John 19:34: But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. Medical men at one time thought this to be an impossibility. The human body does not have enough water in that particular area to produce a flow. Through advanced science and technology in the medical field, today's doctors inform us that water may freely run from that area if an incision is made after one dies in grief. The supreme sacrifice made to save us, through the shedding of His blood, tormented and broke Christ's heart as revealed through the flowing of water from His side.

To bear every sinner's sin is an experience that none of us shall ever taste because Christ, the Holy One, has already endured it for us and was the only One who could. However, many of you know the torment of mind you are presently experiencing because of some hidden secret sin you are harboring. Multiply this billions of times or trillions of times and you will begin to comprehend just what Jesus experienced at Golgotha.

First Corinthians 6:9-11 lists just a few of the sins that Christ bore as He took our place: Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators [the sex sin between the unmarried], nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind [homosexuals], nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. Wait! The next verse says, And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Christ, through His blood, can remove any and all sin if one will just call on Him. Read Romans 1:28-32 and Galatians 5:19-21 and discover that Christ also bore wickedness, maliciousness, envy, murder, deceit, backbiting, hatred of God, pride, disrespect for parents, uncleanness (or dirty, double-meaning jokes), lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft (which comes from the Greek word pharmakeia meaning “drug use”), hatred of others, strife and fighting, heresies, and drunkenness. Yes, He even died to save false, heretical teachers who deny the virgin birth, the deity of Christ, the blood atonement, and the bodily resurrection. The precious blood of the Lord Jesus Christ is so powerful and efficacious that nearly 2,000 years after it was shed, all these sins, plus many others not mentioned, will be immediately blotted out when one comes to Christ, for the blood of Jesus Christ his [God's] Son cleanseth us from all sin (1 John 1:7).

The total meaning of Christ's substitutionary sacrifice is best expressed in 2 Corinthians 5:21: For he [God] hath made him [Christ] to be sin for us ... that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Christ died our death

The Bible states, The soul that sinneth, it shall die (Ezekiel 18:4). For the wages of sin is death

(Romans 6:23). Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death (James 1:15). This is not only referring to the first death (the grave), but also the “second death” which is the lake of fire (see Revelation 20:14-15).

There is no doubt about physical death being experienced by the Lord Jesus at the cross. Christ died that we might live. Yet, He said, He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die (John 11:25-26). That which we call death today is but a transference into a richer, greater experience if one is born again. Philippians 1:21 states, To die is gain. Why? For the Christian, to be absent from the body (that’s what death is, a departure from the body) is to be present with the Lord (see 2 Corinthians 5:8).

What, then, is the “second death” or the lake of fire? It is a place of eternal suffering and separation from God. Not only did Jesus suffer physically at Calvary, He also suffered took place twice — once before He was crucified (see Matthew 27:34) and again while He was dying upon the cross (verse 48). Gall was a pain killer. Verse 34 continues, And when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. In effect, Christ was saying, “No, no, I’ve come to bear the sentence of death for the sinner in My body and in My soul, physically and spiritually, and I will bear every pang. Away with your narcotic pain killer.”

As stated previously, the water which flowed from the Saviour’s side indicated that tremendous grief was experienced as His body and soul were made an offering for sin. Surely all the fires of eternal hell surrounded Him as He hung upon the cross. No wonder He said, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (Matthew 27:46). Yahweh would have nothing to do with a place filled with sin, such as hell eventually becomes (see Revelation 20:11-15). Thus, when all the sins that will populate hell were laid upon Jesus Christ, the Father could not

John 1:12: As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God. When you receive Him, your judgment day will be past. [We are] passed from death [judgment or condemnation] unto life (John 5:24). Romans 8:1: There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus. Why? He paid the penalty for you. When you receive Christ, God says, [Your] sins and iniquities will I remember no more (Hebrews 8:12 and 10:17).

Potentially, your sin has been paid for by Christ through the cross. Experientially, you must receive what has been provided. Think of it! No sin, no judgment, and no hell. No sin because His blood can cleanse all from every stain and taint of the past. No judgment because His blood does such a thorough job of cleansing sinners that there’s nothing left to judge. No hell because one whose sins have been washed away and whose sins cannot be found in God’s book spiritually — being forsaken of God during His hours of agony. Because the vicarious or substitutionary sacrifice of Christ included the giving of His body and soul (physical and spiritual death), we see that the Lord Jesus Christ also bore the punishment of our second death (separation from the Father).

Yes, Jesus also suffered spiritually upon the cruel cross, for Isaiah 53:10 states, Thou [Yahweh] shalt make his soul an offering for sin. This means that during those excruciating hours on the cross, the Lord Jesus Christ bore in His soul every pang and pain our eternal judgment would have brought to us. Matthew 27:34 states, They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall. Notice that this look at His Son until the sacrifice was completed. Praise God, when our Substitute finished His sacrifice, the Father approved and looked upon Him once again. That is the meaning of the Resurrection (see Romans 4:25).

May I suggest that you read all of the accounts of the crucifixion story (Psalm 22, Isaiah 53, Matthew 27, Mark 15, Luke 23, and John 19) and then reread them. You will clearly see that the Lord Jesus Christ took both your first death and second death — the grave and the lake of fire — upon himself when He died. Because He took your place, bearing your sin and taking your penalty, you can receive forgiveness and eternal life simply by receiving what Christ did for you.

Praise the Lord! Your past can be liquidated, obliterated, and forgotten — and this will be your blessed experience today if you let Jesus Christ come into your life. If you reject Him, however, your sins will take you into the grave and then into the second death — the lake of fire — to be separated from the presence of God forever and forever and forever. Oh, be ready to meet Jesus Christ when the call to leave this world comes. Receive Him right now! 🇸🇰

APOSTATES, ANTICHRISTS, SUPER DECEIVERS— THEIR HOUR HAS ARRIVED!

The Bible warns that in the latter days ministers will betray the Lord Jesus Christ via apostates, antichrists, and super deceivers all giving heed to “seducing spirits and doctrines of demons” (1 Timothy 4:1). That hour has arrived!

GIVE ME YOUR hand

IN MY DAILY BIBLE READING, I'VE BEEN NOTICING HOW MUCH IS MENTIONED ABOUT THE HANDS OF OUR LORD. » AGAIN AND AGAIN THE GOSPELS RELATE HOW HE REACHED OUT TO PEOPLE IN THEIR NEED AND HURT AND SORROW. AND WHEN HE TOUCHED THEM, THEY WERE NEVER THE SAME AGAIN.

HIS HANDS HEALED THE SICK

After He began His earthly ministry, great multitudes thronged about Him wherever He went. Those who were sick, blind, and lame — even those marked for death with the curse of leprosy — came to Him seeking to be healed and made whole.

When the hands of Jesus touched them, pain and suffering ceased, diseases and infirmities were cured, and lives shattered and ruined by sickness were restored.

HIS HANDS FED THE MULTITUDE

It was the hands of Jesus that fed the multitudes who followed Him out into the desert to hear His words. When evening came, Christ's disciples urged Him to send the people away. But Jesus saw their hunger and weariness and, in compassion, desired to minister to them.

Taking a few small loaves and fishes — barely enough for one small boy's lunch — the Lord blesses the food. Then His hands began to break and divide the bread and fish into portions which he gave to His disciples to serve.

We're told that 5,000 men were fed that day, not counting the women and children. And when everybody had eaten all they wanted, there were 12 baskets full of leftovers! The hands of Jesus not only provided enough ... but plenty to spare.

HIS HANDS BLESSED THE CHILDREN

Loving children as I do, my heart is touched to read the biblical account of how the hands of Jesus blessed and comforted the little children. He specifically told His disciples not to prevent them from coming to Him. And in my mind's eye, I can see the Lord sitting down and opening His arms to them. As they eagerly jostled about, perhaps He lifted a toddler onto His lap, shook hands with an older lad, touched the cheek of a shy little girl. And as His gentle hands patted little shoulders and smoothed tousled hair, the Lord blessed these little ones. Somehow I think they probably never forgot that day when the hands of Jesus touched them.

THE HANDS OF THE MASTER

No doubt the hands of Jesus were strong and powerful. Growing up around Joseph's carpenter shop, He probably learned to hold and use various tools to shape and assemble wood into useful items. His hands knew how to work.

It was those strong hands that later would grasp a whip as an indignant Jesus drove the callous money changers out of the holy halls of the Temple. Those hands were instruments of righteousness and justice.

It was those hands that reached out to lift and save impetuous Peter who, after walking on the water toward Jesus, took his eyes off the Lord and began to sink.

There are so many other references to the hands of Jesus. But the single most important reference to Christ's hands is when they were nailed to the cross.

A very dear, life-long friend gave me a beautiful wall plaque, which I have hanging in our kitchen. It says:

*I asked Jesus, "How much do You love me?"
"This much," He answered, and He stretched out His arms and died.
Greater love hath no man than this, said Jesus, that a man lay down his life for his friends (John 15:13).*

And who is Jesus' friend? The deeply spiritual and very religious? The learned and respectable? The proud traditionalists?

No, our Lord said that He was called a friend of ... sinners! (Luke 7:34).

The Apostle Paul reminds us that Christ died for the ungodly ... in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:6,8).

It is strangely and beautifully significant that the first person to benefit from Christ's sacrifice at Calvary was a thief on the cross next to His! Think of it — the first person to whom the Lord stretched out His nail-pierced hands was someone totally unworthy of His love.

LOVE- SCARRED HANDS

Some time ago, Jack and I were guests at a Christian fellowship dinner in another city. During the meal, I got acquainted and began talking with a dear little mother who sat next to me. After a while, with tears streaming down her cheeks, she leaned over and whispered the sad story of a wayward daughter who had run away from home, fallen into the very depths of sin, and, sad to say, even into a life of prostitution.

"I pray for her every day," she said, "and every time I hear from her I beg her to come home. My husband doesn't make a lot of money, so I got a job to help pay off the debts our daughter made. I'm doing everything I know how to do to help her. Please pray with me."

When I reached out to take hold of this precious mother's hands to comfort her, they were rough and calloused, scarred by long hours of hard work, week after month after year. Those hands were scarred by love ... by a mother's selfless sacrifice and desperate desire to reach and save her wayward daughter.

As I held those hands and prayed, I was reminded of Christ's nail-scarred hands that also were pierced for that lost daughter ... and for every lost sinner in the whole world. They were scarred for me ... and for you!

Just as the hands of our Lord ministered to men and women, boys and girls, wherever He went during His time on earth, so we today can feel the touch of His hands in our daily lives. His power is still available to us today.

In our times of pain and suffering, He is still the Great Physician who lays His hands upon us and restores our bodies. Whether our healing comes through medication, the skill of a surgeon, or by the power of faith alone, we know that He is the source of all healing.

When we are hungry and experiencing a lack of supply — when we're empty physically, emotionally, spiritually — Christ's hands will bless and multiply the smallest things we have to offer Him and make it sufficient to meet our need ... with plenty to spare.

When we've tried and failed — when, like Peter, we're sinking into the depths of trials and tribulations, with no hope in sight — He will come to us, walking on the waters of our stormy sea. His hand will save us, lift us up, and lead us safely to the solid rock!

THE CHALLENGE OF EASTER

I love spring! There's something special about seeing the sun light up winter's gray skies and nature stir the grass and trees into new life. Surely it is no coincidence that we celebrate Easter in the springtime.

Each Easter we are reminded that Christ died for us — but He rose again! Without Easter, we might be tempted to forget that it is through the outstretched arms and nail-pierced hands of Jesus that we have life eternal. Had it not been for His sacrifice on Calvary and His bodily resurrection, there would be no everlasting life.

As we look around us and see all of nature coming back to life anew, let us be reminded of Christ's great love for us.

But let us also be challenged to reach out in His love into every man's world with a helping hand. Let us emulate our Lord's great example and use the resurrection power that flows through us to minister to the needs of those around us.

Never forget that for many people in the world, their first glimpse of Christ may be in you ... the only hands that will touch them in love, that will comfort, lift, and bless them, may be your hands.

Reach out whenever you can, wherever you can, to whomever you can. However unlovely or unworthy the person you find may be, remember that Christ's sacrifice is sufficient ... and that He loves that individual just as much as He loves you.

Do not be afraid to stretch forth your hand to anybody. For you minister, not in your own strength and ability, but in His love. So when you reach out, it will not be just your hand that touches them, but the hand of God through you!

I love the beautiful gospel chorus that cries out:

*Oh, to feel His hand extended,
Reaching out to the oppressed,
Let me touch Him,
let me touch Jesus,
So that others may know and be blessed.*

Look around you today and find someone who is hurting or needy, someone who is in trouble. Ask God to guide you to someone who needs Jesus.

When you find them, don't hesitate or delay. Go to them with a smile filled with the light of His love and simply say ...

“Give me your hand.”

LETTERS we love

“Anyone not seeing the U.S. falling away is just not awake.”

We just received your letter and were shocked to learn that you two are being harassed by someone right here in the “Land of the Free.” This should not be tolerated for one minute.

I am a 91-year-old WWII combat veteran, and that makes me wonder why I flew those missions during the war. What kind of foolishness is being allowed here?

I do know that under our current leadership, our nation has pretty much lost its way. We are suffering from what I call “creeping paralysis.” We are no longer enjoying national prominence achieved through a nation founded under godly principles. A nation whose motto is “In God We Trust.” Anyone not seeing the U.S. falling away is just not awake. Not to mention what is going on in Europe and the far East.

I retired after 31 years with the U.S. Air Force. Three years military, 28 as civilian employee. My wife and I received salvation in 1972. We and our four children later moved from Maryland to Florida where I studied for the ministry. For the next 20 years, we had a ministry called “Solomon’s Porch,” a ministry of exhortation. We wrote letters based on the Bible, mixed at time with a little patriotism.

We are now a bit too old to do much about what is going on in our nation, but the Lord knows that we are available for whatever He has in mind. If He assigns either or both of us to perform some task, we know He will also provide all we need to get it done.

After reading your letter, we held a short pow-wow and decided that we will double our monthly contribution. And just as important, maybe even more important, we will keep you two in prayer. In His service and yours... A.P.

Dr. Jack Van Impe, I am from Honolulu, Hawaii. I watch your program on TV and prayed the repentance prayer to receive Jesus in my heart as Lord and Savior, so I can be ready at His return. I have come to love God because of your show. R.O.

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks for all you have meant to me and my family. It was through your continuous teaching of the truth that I studied my way out of the Seventh Day Adventist Church!

I always brag to my friends that you do not sell the Gospel, and that your programs are available for the sharing.

I praise God for you and wish you all the best. C.M.

You have been a very big blessing in my life. Because of your dedication to the Word of God, I have been delivered out of 13 years of backsliding. I thank God for you two as one in the name of Christ Jesus. May God bless you. I am more than happy to be a dedicated partner in your ministry. C.B.

God has used you in a special way. And you continue to do His will with your lives.

I began watching your program as a teenager many years ago. You continue today to touch my heart with the truth of God's Word. I will be 52 years old in November.

About 10 years ago, I really allowed God to open my eyes and ears and gave my heart to Jesus! How wonderful He is!

I pray right now that you two continue to spread the Good News about Jesus. I look for the hour that I meet you in the glorious place He has prepared for us.

Thank you so much for staying so strong in the faith.

Both of you are truly an inspiration to millions of people who have the hope of His return. R.C.

I recently subscribed to your weekly e-newsletter and started watching you on TV. I just want to say to the both of you that I salute you for teaching the TRUTH. I am also a seeker of biblical truth and want God to use me to refute the wrong teachings of people. I believe that it is time that the lies of Satan, and they are so MANY, be destroyed!

I believed many of his lies myself for most of my life, but it was because of a lack of knowledge. And because of that same reason, many people don't see the Truth.

I learn a lot from you and thank God for using you both to spread the Gospel and teach His people the truth about so many things. May He bless you two even more. S.A.

“... I'VE BEEN DELIVERED OUT OF 13 YEARS OF BACKSLIDING.”

“...stunned to think the coming of Jesus is so very close.”

“Thank you for what you do in Jesus’ name by pointing out the wrong paths some in the ministry and government are going.”

I have been watching your program for so many years, I don’t know exactly when I got started — ‘80s probably! Two things:

1. Thank you so much for your faithfulness to the Lord and His Word! It thrills me every week!
2. Jack Van Impe Presents is by far the fastest half-hour on television. It seems to be over when it just got started. Every word you two say is fascinating and life-giving.

Again, thank you, a million times. JJ.

Your love and passion for our Savior Jesus is awesome. Your challenge to us to live a holy and pure life is convicting. Thank you for what you do in Jesus’ name by pointing out the wrong paths some in the ministry and government are going. You, with your age, biblical and God-given wisdom, are highly qualified to do such things, and I respect for you for doing it.

D.K.

I watched one of your videos and was so very stunned to think the coming of Jesus is so very close.

I came to Jesus as a young adult — 13, to be exact — and there for a while, I followed Him. But I found it harder and harder as the years went by, and slowly I fell away from Him. It is just in the past couple of weeks that I have rededicated my life to Him.

I lost my dad six years ago to cancer. I was so distraught over this. I loved my father very much — still do to this very day. I had made a decision to end my life one night, but I believe Jesus heard my cries. He sent a wonderful man into my life, who is a Christian.

He talked me out of committing suicide that night, and now, after all these years, I watched a video my mother had purchased through your ministry and rededicated my life to the Lord.

I just want to say a very special thank you to you, Rexella, and the team. I pray God will richly bless you with this ministry! S.M.

“HE TALKED ME OUT OF COMMITTING SUICIDE THAT NIGHT....”

“ I watched a video my mother had purchased through your ministry and rededicated my life to the Lord. ”

I just want to tell you how much I appreciate what you do and the shows you make to inform us all of what's going on in the world from a Christian viewpoint. What you provide is an invaluable resource of learning and wisdom in an internet filled with ungodliness. I am a struggling Christian from Northern Ireland. I am battling strongly against the forces of deception that want to lead me away from the path of truth that is in Christ. Watching your show from time to time has strengthened my resolve and given me hope. I am surrounded by people who do not believe in God, and not only that, they actively deny him and speak hatred against those who believe in him. It is daunting and scary.

I am a 29 year old man and I've recently been through some major upheavals in my life. I was diagnosed with testicular cancer a few months ago and that completely shook up my whole world, but I knew that the Lord was there and was teaching me how to live my life better, how to follow him and how to be more humble. When I look out at the future I am terrified to be persecuted as a Christian, because I know how much hatred there is out there for us and towards our Savior. I know what difficulties I will face in the future for my belief, but it will all be worth it and we will be with our Lord in Heaven together one day.

Please forgive me that this email is not as short as I had planned. I really just wanted to thank you both for what you do, and even here in Northern Ireland your show is heard and appreciated. Thank you so much for that. P.R.

“ What you provide is an invaluable resource of learning and wisdom in an internet filled with ungodliness. ”

We look up to you and Rexella for your faithful stand on the Bible. Stay strong and continue fighting in the faith for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Your message weekly inspires me to keep pushing to the crown of life. God bless you both. R.C.

I want to tell you how much we enjoy your show. My boyfriend and I watch you every Sunday night. We make it our weekly date, because we both enjoy it and are too poor to go out on a date. But we look forward to Sunday nights the same. I would like to also let you know that we both pray along with Jack.

I only have one complaint: the show is not long enough :).

Thank you — please stay on the air. Other TV options are not any good. C.L.

ISIS' GUIDE TO RAISING JIHADI BABIES

January 2, 2015 — Haaretz reports: “A guide for mothers on how to raise a jihadi baby has appeared online and is being attributed to Islamic State (also known as ISIS and ISIL), the Mail Online reports.

The guide, titled ‘Sister’s Role in Jihad,’ was unearthed by the Middle East Media Research Institute (MEMRI) on jihadi websites. Though the source of the guide is unknown, MEMRI believes it was issued by ISIS or its followers.

It recommends showing children jihadi websites, reading tales of jihad at bedtime, and encourages sports such as darts to improve their aim.

The ‘most important’ way women can contribute to the Islamic State is by indoctrinating children with the militant group’s values, the guide says.

‘Don’t wait until they are seven to start, for it may be too late by then!’ the guide urges. ‘Don’t underestimate the lasting effect of what those little ears and eyes take in during the first few years of life!’

Training for children should be ‘fun,’ the guide says, though it stressed that ‘fun does not mean music and dancing, as is portrayed by Western children’s TV.’ The latter, it comments, ‘mostly teaches shamelessness, anarchy, and random violence.’

Instead, it suggests that children practice target-shooting with toy guns to help direct their anger, though parents should ‘make it very clear who their target should be, and who their target should not be.’...” (Jesus predicted the future of these brutal murderers: And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea — Mark 9:42; and Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? — Matthew 23:33.)

2014: THE YEAR OF THE CHRISTIAN GENOCIDE

January 5, 2015 — Breitbart.com reports: “The year 2014 saw more global persecution of Christians than any other year in recent history, and can only be compared to the first centuries when Christians were hunted down as criminals in the Roman Empire. The policy of the Emperor Diocletian, in fact, who reigned from 284-305 AD, was remarkably similar to that taken by the Islamic

State and Boko Haram: ‘Convert or die.’

A look around the globe reveals an unprecedented pattern of persecution that has shifted from isolated incidents of hostility to a systematic campaign to exterminate Christians in places where they have lived peacefully for centuries.

From the kidnapped school girls and massacres in Nigeria and the displacement of thousands in the Central African Republic, to the believers arrested for having a Bible study in Central Asia, to Meriam Ibrahim being sentenced to death in Sudan, to the ISIS slaughters, to the couple burned alive for blasphemy and hundreds of girls kidnapped in Pakistan, Christians throughout the world saw a major escalation in persecution in 2014....” (This report breaks my heart. My new video Beware: False Prophets, Damnable Heresies, and Doctrines of Demons tells the stories of the blasphemous practices by Wycliffe, SIL, and Frontiers as they removed the Son of God passages 91 times, and thus destroyed Christianity’s total message. God forgive these apostates who are thoroughly exposed in my new video study. Get an additional copy for your pastor. Here is what God thinks about these personalities: *Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us — 1 John 2:18-19. What does God call these translators? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son — 1 John 2:22. This leads to eternal loss. Salvation is impossible if Christ is not the Son of God — 1 John 5:11-13.)

ISRAEL OMITTED FROM ATLASSES SOLD TO GULF STATES

January 2, 2015 — Breitbart.com reports: “HarperCollins, one of the world’s largest publishing houses, has left Israel off the map in atlases sold to schools in the Middle East, leading to the Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales accusing the publisher of harming peace efforts.

The atlases are printed by Collins Bartholomew, a subsidiary of HarperCollins which specializes in maps and atlases. A spokesman for that company told Catholic weekly The Tablet that Israel was omitted because including the country would have been ‘unacceptable’ to its customers in the Gulf region, and that they had wanted to incorporate ‘local preferences.’ The West Bank and Gaza are both shown.

It has been reported that customs officials in one Gulf nation have only been allowing atlases to reach schoolchildren provided that Israel is struck out by hand in every copy.

Bishop Declan Lang, chairman of the Bishops’ Conference Department of International Affairs, told The Tablet: “The publication of this atlas will confirm Israel’s belief that there exists a hostility towards their country from parts of the Arab world. It will not help to build up a spirit of trust leading to peaceful co-existence.’

‘Maps can be a very powerful tool in terms of de-legitimizing ‘the other’ and can lead to confusion rather than clarity. We would be keen to see relevant bodies ensure that all atlases anywhere reflect the official United Nations position on nations, boundaries and all political features,’ added Dr. Jane Clements, director of the Council of Christians and Jews....” (The Mideast situation is a fulfillment of what non-Spirit-guided Christians have practiced. Satan stood against Israel and provoked David to number Israel. Anti-Semitism was rampant as it is today. Numerous denominations have manipulated over 3,500 Bible verses to eliminate any mention of Israel forever. God says in Isaiah 56:5, I will give Israel an everlasting name. We have apostates trying to bring Christianity and Islam together as they try to wipe Israel out of God’s Holy Word 3,534 times.)
