Generation Gap Explodes!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

Amazing movie proves:
No one is too young or too old to win souls!

“Generation gap”? No. Not when the Holy Spirit is at work!

Too young to share your faith? Too old to be effective in evangelism? Never!

God’s heart longs to reach every lost soul before it’s eternally too late!

“The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness,” 2 Peter 3:9 declares; “but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.”

God can use YOU, beloved, to share His prophetic story, His life-transforming Truth, His destiny-shaping Gospel!

And now, a beautiful new motion picture will show you how.

The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry is a tremendous video drama, produced by Rich Christiano, whose dynamic movies Time Changer and Unidentified have broken records for response from our ministry family!

The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry stars beloved character actors Gavin MacLeod and Robert Guillaume. It’s a seemingly simple but highly entertaining story about an elderly Christian widower and the young boy who mows his lawn.

But in the end it’s a powerful tale of forgiveness and surrender to Jesus. The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry is “must-see” viewing for entire families!

How long has it been since your family, or closest circle of friends, sat down to watch a movie together? THIS NEEDS TO BE IT — and soon!

In this extraordinary film...

- You’re going to discover a biblical method for helping you and others who may be in turmoil or fear regarding the perilous times in which we live (II Timothy 3:1).
- You’ll also see for yourself the critical importance of reading and memorizing God’s Word in these closing days of human history.
- And this movie will inspire you to share the gift of God’s forgiveness through Christ so that those around you can experience “the peace of God, which passeth all understanding” (Philippians 4:6-7).

Sharing The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry with your family and friends — either in person or by giving the DVD to them as a gift — will give you an ideal platform for presenting the message of salvation.

At the end of this moving and dramatic film, you’ll have plenty to talk about!

And I’m going to be praying that the Lord will place in your heart exactly the right words in that conversation ... words of grace and love, words of truth and power ... to lead that unsaved loved one to faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Please let me send you the film, as you support Jack Van Impe Ministries with a gift of $25. Your gift will help us lead multitudes more to Jesus! Thank you! 🙏

Dear Dr. Van Impe,

I love your wonderful show! God bless you for telling the Gospel truth and spreading Bible prophecy to the world! If more preachers were like you, there wouldn’t be so many false churches deceiving souls. Keep up the good work!!!

LATTER-DAY Sins & Signs

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

In the second epistle of Paul to Timothy, chapter 3, verses 1 to 5, Paul deals with the hour when the church of Jesus Christ is resurrected and meets the Lord in the twinkling of an eye. The Lord Jesus Christ is coming again! Our Saviour said in John 14:2-3, In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself that where I am, there ye may be also. First Thessalonians 4:16-18: For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. First Corinthians 15:51-52: Behold, I shew you a mystery;

The Church began with men in the "upper room" agonizing — and today is ending with men in the supper room organizing. The Church began in revival; we are ending in ritual. We started virile; we are ending sterile.

—Leonard Ravenhill

My dear friends, there is only one explanation for the state of the Christian church today. It is the work of the Philistines. The water is there, so why do we not see it? Why are we not able to drink of it? The Philistines have been here, and they have filled the wells with the earth and the rubbish and the refuse.

—Martyn Lloyd-Jones

The moon of revival has not yet risen on this hellbound, Christ-rejecting, speeding-to-judgment generation. We don't "sit at ease" in Zion any more. We have gone past that; we just sleep. In the church, pillars have given place to pillows.

—Leonard Ravenhill

We believers are lean, lazy, luxury-loving, loveless, and lacking.

—Leonard Ravenhill

I love musicians and I have some great musicians in my revival team, but musicians cause us to lie when we sing. Do you ever sing,

“Like a mighty army Moves the church of God”?

If you do, get down on your knees and ask God to forgive you for lying. If the average army moved like the average church, it couldn't win a battle against a bunch of pygmies.

—Martyn Lloyd-Jones

No wonder a modernist has declared that men will weep for souls — if the price is right — aye, like Judas, they will be weeping when it is too late.

—Leonard Ravenhill

The man whose sermon is “repent” sets himself against his age and will for the time being be battered mercilessly by the age whose moral tone he challenges. There is but one end for such a man — “off with his head!” You had better not try to preach repentance until you have pledged your head to heaven.

—Joseph Parker

Tradition says, Paul was only four feet six inches in height, then he was the greatest dwarf that ever lived. He out-paced, out-prayed, and out-passioned all his contemporaries. On his escutcheon was blazed: “One thing I do.” He was blind to all that other men gloried in.

—Leonard Ravenhill

But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

—2 Timothy 3:13

THE ROOT OF
WHICH
COVETED AFTER,
THEY HAVE ERRED
FROM THE FAITH, AND PIERCED THEMSELVES
THROUGH WITH MANY SORROWS.

We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

Signs of His Coming

Now, how do we know that the coming of the Lord draweth nigh? There are many tremendous signs given in the New Testament. Let's consider 2 Timothy 3:1-5: This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

Some say, “Haven't these signs always existed? How can these be signs pointing to His return when we have always experienced some of them?” The answer is found by comparing Romans 1:28-32 with 2 Timothy 3:1-5. Paul, in Romans 1, is speaking about the pagan world of the ungodly. However, in 2 Timothy 3, he is speaking about the conditions that shall prevail at the end of the age of Christendom among those who profess the Christian religion. Did you get that? In Romans 1, he is talking about things that are happening among the pagans. In 2 Timothy 3, he speaks about the deterioration of the professing church.

Never before have we seen signs so drastically predominant in the Christian church than at this present hour. The only comfort we find in these conditions is that they do tell us that the coming of the Lord is at hand. We must be ready every moment. Let's consider these signs one by one.

Selfishness

Men shall be lovers of their own selves...

What a picture of this present hour, when church members are so busy satisfying their flesh with the world's goodies and pleasures, that they have no time to pray or witness to lost souls. God help us! A certain scribe came to Jesus in Matthew 22:36-40, and said, Master, which is the great commandment...? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

But, we are so busy satisfying our bodily appetites in the professing church of Jesus Christ at the present hour that we do not have time to pray or win souls to Him. We are lovers of our own selves. One could expect this in the ungodly world of pagans, but how sad when one sees it among those who are supposedly of the family of God.

The Love of Money

Covetousness...

They will love money in the last days. In the first century, Peter could say, in Acts 3:6, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have, give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. The Church has wealth untold, but it does not have the power to perform miracles. We are living in the Laodicean age mentioned in Revelation 3:15-16, I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot. I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. God says, "You make me sick!" Why? Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked (Revelation 3:17).

So many in our churches today are in the upper crust. They have money so they think they are really something. They are so important that they have no time to help people, no time to do things for Christ, no time for the church, no time for devotions, no time for anything, except getting a few more dollars. In 1 Timothy 6:10, our God says, For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. How sad it is in our day and age to pick up Christian periodicals and read, "Do you want to make $75,000 or $100,000 a year?" as though this was a believer's goal. Thank God when He blesses believers and they use it for His glory. I hope you are not one of the signs of the end. Do not try to get everything you can to build an empire here and neglect the work of Jesus Christ.

Pride

Boasters, proud...

God said, Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up (James 4:10). Satan fell because of pride — In Isaiah 14:13-14, he said, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

Professing believers are so proud! A man recently came to me with tears in his eyes and said, "I was trying to win this young lady to Christ. Her parents are alcoholics and she had nothing to wear but an old tattered dress. I took her to our church — a fundamental, Bible-believing church. When she walked down the aisle, I heard a few snooty people behind me say, "Why do they bring that kind of trash to our church?" If you are so high and mighty, I pray that God will speak to your heart and show you that you are one of the signs that Jesus Christ is coming soon. Our Saviour said in Matthew 11:28-29, Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

Blasphemy

Blasphemers...

Blasphemy is a sin against the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul said in 1 Timothy 1:12-13, And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; Who was before a blasphemer... What did he do? He murdered Christians and hated the name of Jesus Christ. There are so many like that today. Our seminaries are filled with apostates who mock the doctrine of the Lord Jesus Christ — His virgin birth, His deity, His blood atonement, and His bodily resurrection.

PEOPLE MUST BE AMUSED, AND THE CHURCH MUST MEET THE CRAVING OF PLEASURE-MAD MEMBERS. HOW ELSE ARE GODLESS HYPOCRITES GOING TO BE HELD TOGETHER?

They talk about higher criticism and blaspheme Christ in the Scriptures. Seventy percent of the ministers are either affected or infected by this malady. God help us! Jesus Christ is coming soon!

Disobedience

Disobedient to parents...

Some young people say that they love Jesus Christ, but when their parents ask them to do something, they always answer back with a smart remark. Do they really believe the Bible? Listen, young man and young lady, to Ephesians 6:1-3, Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) that thou mayest live long on the earth. I was mightily moved not long ago as I studied John 19:26-27. Jesus Christ was hanging on the cross, dying for the sins of all sinners. Yet, in His last moments, He looked down and saw His wonderful mother, Mary, standing beneath the cross. Do you know what He said? Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! Even in the last moments of life, as Christ was dying for the entire world, He still loved His mother. He came to fulfill the Law, and He said in Matthew 19:19, Honour thy father and thy mother. You young people who are so disobedient and disrespectful are a sign that Jesus is coming soon.

Unthankfulness

Unthankful...

Look at some of the church members. They are ashamed to pray in a restaurant. When they do bow their heads, they sit there and scratch their eyebrows for a few seconds so that no one will think they are talking to the Almighty God.

Unholiness

Unholy...

What a picture of the 21st century. Godly separation from the world, according to the Bible, is sneered at as bigotry and puritanism. When one preaches against the dirty, lewd movies, the filthiness of much of this modern music called rock, the uncleanness of tobacco, the soul-damning habits of drug abuse and alcoholism, many church members say, "Let's not talk about secondary issues." My friend, the holiness of God and holy living are not secondary issues. First Thessalonians 4:7: For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. First Peter 1:16: Be ye holy; for I am holy. Again, this sign indicates that Jesus is coming soon. I repeat — all of the signs given in 2 Timothy 3 have to do with Christendom and the professing church in the latter days.

Lack of Love

Without natural affection...

This refers to the dissolution of families because of the lack of love. Look at the divorce rate, the murder of babies through abortion, the stories appearing in the papers concerning parents beating their little ones to death or strangling them, and you will know that this sign is being fulfilled.

Broken Promises

Trucebreakers...

Has someone told you a secret in order that you might pray for them? Did you keep it, or did you spread gossip about that person? Promise breaking is another sign now being fulfilled.

Lying

False accusers...

Churches from one end of America to the other are splitting because of the exaggerated stories (outright lies) church members tell about other people. When one does falsely accuse a brother, he breaks one of God's commandments. Exodus 20:16 says, Thou shalt not bear false witness. Do you know what is going to happen to false accusers? Revelation 21:8 says, But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone (emphasis mine).

No Self-control

Incontinent...

This is the lack of control over sexual appetites. How often one hears today, "Live it up. Premarital and extra-marital sex is good and healthy." Let God be true, but every man a liar (Romans 3:4). Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled (Hebrews 13:4). Sex is pure and holy in marriage. God goes on to say, But whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. As I look across this land of ours, I see so much of this debauchery going on among church members. Sins of all kinds are being condoned in this hour. Why? Because Jesus Christ is coming soon!

Temper

Fierce...

Some of you men would be minus your teeth if you talked to the waiter in the restaurant like you talk to your wife at home. Oh, but you love Jesus Christ. You are a great Christian at church, but what a fierce, vicious temper you have at home and at work. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice (Ephesians 4:31).

The signs despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded are all self-explanatory.

Pleasure

Lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God...

In the last days, among professing Christians, men will be lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. This is certainly true! Not only is this true of the world, but churches go into the entertainment business in order to draw crowds. People must be amused, and the Church must meet the craving of pleasure-mad members. How else are godless hypocrites going to be held together? How can half-hearted members be attracted to the services? The latest Christian rock band and the Christian minstrel show take the place of the Word of God. Beloved, God has not called us to run a showboat, but a lifeboat. We need to get souls into the kingdom of God.

Many of our religious telecasts and crusades have to feature pagan movie stars whose lives are a mockery to God, but it is done because entertainers draw crowds. The modern evangelistic crusades feature people who are still working full-time in nightclubs, where drinking, gambling, filthy jokes, and solicitation for sex are prevalent. They say, "It does not matter, though, because the end justifies the means. If these religious fakes draw crowds, then it is the right thing to do." God forgive us!

Through it all, Christless souls are lulled to sleep and made to feel religious while every carnal desire of the flesh is gratified under the sanction of the Church. Here is God's way to reach souls in the latter days: They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him (Psalm 126:5-6).

Lack of Power

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof...

There is so little power today in the church of God. Again, Romans 1 is a picture of the pagan world while 2 Timothy 3 pictures the professing church just before Jesus comes. Study the 19 signs and you will come to one conclusion: Soon the trumpet of God shall sound and we shall hear three words, Come up hither (Revelation 4:1). We will sweep through the heavenlies and see Jesus in the twinkling of an eye. Are you saved? Are you ready? Jesus is coming soon! Let Him into your heart right now. Put Jesus Christ in first place. Soon we will see Him face-to-face. Are you ready for that day? ☞

LO

BY DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

Have you ever heard the old gospel song that says, “This world is not my home, I’m just ‘a passin’ through”....?

Lately that’s how I’ve been feeling — like “a stranger in a strange land.” I’m completely out of step with a world filled with child abuse, wife abuse, animal abuse ... with a world filled with hatred, violence, war, and famine. I can’t adjust my mind and heart to a place where many people accept no responsibility for their actions and feel no remorse for the bad things they do to others.

Nor am I able emotionally to cope with the throngs of homeless people on the streets of major metropolitan areas. On recent trips to several such large cities, I was appalled by the great numbers of people asking passersby for help. It’s one thing to watch the news and hear statistics about the down-and-out people living in alleys and under bridges — but something else altogether to meet these unfortunate ones face-to-face and look into their eyes. While in Toronto, my heart was abruptly opened to the real tragedy of homeless people.

One night Jack and I went to dinner in a downtown area and decided to walk back to our hotel several blocks away. Our route took us past Eaton Center — an enclosed mall which is open late, with people milling around inside until all hours. We started across a busy intersection near a major department store, amazed at the throngs of people out and about so late at night. Jack and I have always felt very safe in this wonderful Canadian city.

Before we made it across the intersection, a beautiful young girl we’d passed on the corner came running after us. She came up behind me and fell into step. “Hello there,” she said. “Where are you going?”

“Well, my husband and I have been to dinner and we’re on our way back to our hotel,” I said,

LOOKING

Through the Window

“SOMETIMES AT NIGHT WHEN I CAN’T SLEEP,” SHE CONTINUED, MOTIONING TOWARD THE DISPLAY OF TV SETS, “I LOOK THROUGH THE WINDOW AND WATCH YOU!”

noticing that she seemed to be one of the homeless crowd. Her face was smudged, and her clothing wrinkled and soiled. But I went ahead and asked, “Are you going home?”

“Oh, no,” she responded, “I am home!” And she pointed to the streets.

We walked the final step or two across the street and stepped up on the sidewalk — beside the department store, its window ablaze with a display of television sets and video equipment. The girl touched my arm and peered up into my face and Jack’s. “I told my friends who you were,” she said. It was obvious she seemed to recognize us.

“Sometimes at night when I can’t sleep,” she continued, motioning toward the display of TV sets, “I look through the window and watch you!”

As soon as she said it, she was gone, running, back to her friends on the street. Then a rush of people gathered behind and carried Jack and me on down the block. I looked back but I never caught sight of her again.

But I will never forget the touch of her hand and her simple words that seemed to bring the whole burden of her desperate situation crashing down upon my heart. “I look through the window and watch you,” she said.

How I wished I could have held her hand and brought her along with me, to tell her she could have a better life. I have no idea what she had run away from or where she was trying to go. I do know that life on the streets so often ends in tragedy. If only I could have a little more time to talk with her, I would tell her about God’s love, about the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I feel almost compelled to go back to Toronto soon and spend some time in the area where I first saw her. I can only hope the Lord will allow me to find her and spend some time witnessing to her. Somehow, my heart is so impacted by her words that I just can't let go until I've at least tried to find her again.

For days now, the Lord has been impressing upon my mind the fact that there are countless other people floundering in life who are looking through the window of our lives, seeking answers and looking for hope. Oh, you may not be on TV like Jack Van Impe and me, but your life, your light, is on view to someone trying to find a better way.

What would people see if they looked through the “window” at you? Are you living a life “like Christ,” filled with love, joy, peace, and purity?

Is the glass of that window dingy and soil-streaked, or is it bright and clear, clean and sparkling? When someone who has lost their way looks through your window, can they see Jesus in you? Or is what you claim blurred by who you are and how you act?

Since I met that homeless girl who said she looked through

When someone who has lost their way looks through your window, can they see Jesus in you? Or is what you claim blurred by who you are and how you act?

the window and watched me, I've been checking up on myself. The Lord has given me three checkpoints:

1. Living the life.

The great gospel singer, Mahalia Jackson, cried out, “I'm going to live the life I sing about in my song!” The life we live for God must be the same on Tuesday as on Sunday. We must treat our family and neighbors, the people at work and in the marketplace, the same way we treat the people at church when everybody is watching. I promise you that the way you act when you think nobody is looking is exactly what someone will see when they look through your window!

2. Offering a pure and simple testimony.

The most effective testimony is simply to uplift Jesus — He will do the rest. We do not have to know scores of Scripture verses, or be able to explain the complexities of doctrine. All that is necessary is to say, “This is what Jesus has done for me.” As one great Christian described it, “Our witness is really just one beggar telling another where to find bread” — the Bread of life!

3. Being consistent.

A nursery rhyme describes a little girl, who, “when she was good she was very, very good, but when she was bad, she was horrid.” Have you ever known a person who, on one day, was helpful and kind ... and on the next was cranky as can be? What does this kind of erratic behavior say about the depth and validity of our Christian experience? Our Lord is described as Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8). And we are to be like Him!

Being on television has been a real challenge and amazement to me. One thing I've learned is that the TV camera sees through our facades and reveals us as we really are to the view of the people. On screen you simply can't hide who you are. I believe this is why people say so often, "I know you. I've seen you on TV!"

I can never forget that the Lord has His divine TV camera on us all the time. He looks past our outer front and sees inside us to our very heart and soul. Lord, help me to live for You consistently.

Although I know our programs are seen throughout the United States and Canada, and all around the world, it still boggles my mind to consider the numbers of people and the kinds of individuals in different walks of life who are being reached and touched by the program.

I could never have imagined a homeless street girl going up to a department store window late at night to watch Jack and me on TV through the glass. I hope and pray that something she saw and heard will stay with her ... and that God and His wonderful grace will reach her.

On that day when we stand before the Lord, this young woman will discover that she need not stand outside on the sidewalk wistfully watching through a glass. For as her eyes catch a glimpse of Jesus and she reaches out to take His hand, He will throw open that window and make it a door — a grand entrance through which she can walk freely into His presence.

Waiting to go home

Never in my life have I felt more of a longing for the coming of the Lord than in recent days. "Oh I want to see Him, look upon His face, there to sing forever of His saving grace." I long to see Him and feel His arms wrapped around me. I can't wait to hear His voice saying, "Welcome home, thou good and faithful servant!" Oh, how I pray that my life will allow this salutation to be so.

The Apostle Paul wrote, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him" (1 Corinthians 2:9). How wonderful that will be.

God is so good to me even here in this life. His presence never leaves me, and I take joy in intimately communing with the Holy Spirit inside my heart. But more and more I feel a strange longing to be in heaven. And I sense that time is running out. Our Lord Jesus is coming soon.

First Corinthians 13:12 says, "For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."

But until then, I will keep on keeping on. I will try to use all my time, all my talents, all my opportunities to shine out the story of Jesus to help all who may be looking through the window

Sister Rexella,

I know God is real because He is working through the two of you. I look forward to the day when we are gathered around the throne worshipping our Lord and God. I respect your wisdom and appreciate your kindness in all you do.

—J.M.

I love you both! You always manage to calm me and cheer me up even though you are talking about all the carnage in the world. And you make me look forward to the Rapture — coming soon — maybe today?

Great work bringing the Gospel to the world!

of my life. With God's help, I will keep on living the life of love, joy, peace, and purity. I will keep on giving my pure and simple testimony about what the Lord has done for me. And I will endeavor to be consistent in my living for Jesus, daily keeping the window glass, looking into my life, clean, and unsmudged.

You can do it, too, God will help you. Join me in making a new commitment to Christ's commission and calling. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven

Report

IRAN TO 'HIDE NUCLEAR PLANTS INSIDE MOUNTAINS'

Agency France Presse reports: "Iran said it is considering plans to build two new uranium enrichment plants concealed inside mountains to avert air strikes, drawing condemnation from the United States.

The announcement from Iran's atomic chief Ali Akbar Salehi came soon after top U.S. General David Petraeus warned that Washington would now pursue a 'pressure track' against Iran to thwart its galloping nuclear programme.

'Inshallah (God willing), in the next Iranian year (starting in March) as ordered by the president we may start the construction of two new enrichment sites,' Salehi told ISNA news agency.

Last November, President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad announced Iran would build 10 new uranium enrichment plants, after Tehran was strongly rebuked by world powers for building a second enrichment plant near the Shiite holy city of Qom.

Salehi said the enrichment capacities of the new sites would be similar to the existing facility in the central city of Natanz, where a defiant Tehran is refining uranium despite three sets of UN sanctions.

According to the latest UN nuclear watchdog report, Iran has installed in Natanz 8,610 centrifuges, the device which rotates at supersonic speed to enrich uranium.

Of these, 3,772 centrifuges are actively enriching uranium under the supervision of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA).

Salehi said the new plants will be equipped with new generation centrifuges and the facilities would be hidden in mountains so as to protect them from 'any attacks'...." (Their scheme will fail — Ezekiel 39:1-2,12-13. See also Isaiah 34:3 and Ezekiel 38:20. Could these three Biblical texts unfold God's plan to bring down Ahmadinejad's hidden plants inside mountainous terrain?)

ANTI-AIRCRAFT MISSILES INTERCEPTED FROM NORTH KOREA ALARMS SCIENTISTS

Voice of America News reports: "A group of American scientists is expressing alarm at a possible attempt by North Korea to ship portable anti-aircraft missile systems abroad. The missiles were part of an airborne cargo intercepted by authorities in Thailand in December.

The Federation of American Scientists, based in Washington, is urging more vigilance by the international community after the discovery of so-called MANPADS missile systems aboard a cargo plane loaded in North Korea.

The plane was intercepted during a landing in Thailand. The U.S. group cites a report to the United Nations Security Council as saying the plane contained ‘five crates’ of MANPADS, which stands for man-portable air defense system.

‘These are normally shoulder-fired, always man-portable, surface-to-air missiles,’ said Matt Schroeder, the manager of the FAS Arms Sales Monitoring Project.

The missiles are usually built to target the heat signature of airplane engines. Schroeder says when used properly, they can literally empower a single individual to take down an aircraft.

‘They’ve been used in 48 confirmed instances against civilian aircraft, which has resulted in 45 shoot-downs. Recent hotspots for illicit MANPADS activity are Somalia, the horn of Africa, Iraq, and then Russia — that was when the Chechen conflict was heating up,’ he said.

International diplomats say shipping such weapons is a clear violation of United Nations sanctions against North Korea following its second test of a nuclear weapon last May. Schroeder says it presents a unique challenge for global leaders....” (This weapon is exceedingly dangerous as terrorists using it could bring down planes with a simple shoulder-fired missile by a terrorist who is lying in a field or any concealed place. “Men’s hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken” — Luke 21:26.) 🌀

AHMADINEJAD: ARAB WORLD WILL USHER IN NEW MIDEAST WITHOUT ZIONISTS

Haaretz reports: “Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad said that Arab nations will usher in a new Middle East without Zionists and without colonialists.

Ahmadinejad made the comments during his visit in Syria, where he met with President Bashar Assad, opening a two-day visit that follows U.S. efforts to break up Syria’s 30-year alliance with Tehran.

The Iranian president also said that ‘if the Zionist regime wants to repeat its past mistakes, this will constitute its demise and annihilation.’

Assad signaled his strong support for Iran, saying America’s stance toward the country is a ‘new situation of colonialism in the region.’

Ahmadinejad said Iran, Syria, Iraq and Lebanon will all stand against Israel.

‘(The Americans) want to dominate the region but they feel Iran and Syria are preventing that,’ Ahmadinejad said during a news conference with Assad. ‘We tell them that instead of interfering in the region’s affairs, to pack their things and leave.’

Ahmadinejad is also scheduled to meet senior officials from the militant groups Hamas and Hezbollah, Syria’s state-run news agency said.

Before leaving Tehran, Ahmadinejad told reporters that ‘the Zionist regime and its sponsors’ are rapidly approaching a dead-end, according to the Iranian Students News Agency. Ahmadinejad also said that Iran and Syria have common viewpoints and stances and Syria is on the frontline against Israel....” (Isaiah 56:5 is God’s promise that this 21st century Hitler will not have his heart’s desire fulfilled because Yahweh God will give Israel “an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.”)

Do not be Deceived!

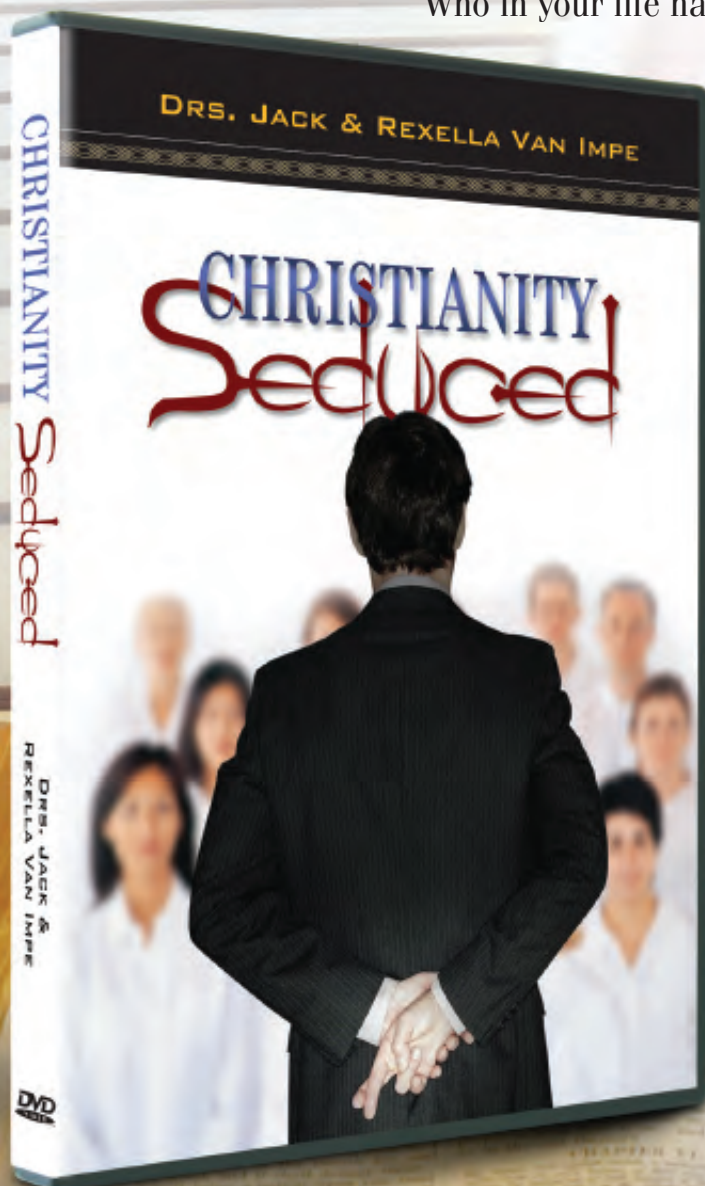

As prophesied in Scripture, in these latter days, unsound doctrine has entered even the halls of the church as some pastors try to focus on unity and feel-good philosophy over devotion to Christ alone! In modern Christian churches, some abominable heresies are being taught, such as:

- Everyone goes to heaven
- All faiths lead to the same God
- There is no such thing as sin

The astonishing teaching video by Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe will protect you, your family, and your church from the onslaught of this kind of unsound doctrine in the USA today.

Who in your life has been deceived? How sure are you that your church or pastor is not falling away from sound doctrine? You must be able to understand, avoid, and give biblical answers to this current apostasy ... and this video will help you!

Letters

We Love

I've listened and watched your program for about 10 years now, and I have never been so stirred for love of my Lord. I cannot tell you how you have influenced my life and that of my family. When I started watching your program, my two sons were heavily into drugs and stealing to get them. I was sick with worry until the night I surrendered to Jesus on your program. I learned to place my faith in the Lord and I must tell you that this very day both are saved and have music ministries in their church. They are both married to godly women and have baby daughters whom they are raising for the Lord.

I just want to take this time to say "thank you" for being there, and for caring about God's vessels. May He continue to bless you and your ministry.

—P.D.

Dear Dr. Van Impe,

My family and I wish to thank you for telling the truth about Christ's return being so near. I know some people in this world do not like that you speak the truth no matter what it is, but you do. I like that you are not afraid to give names of possible people and events happening now that point to Christ's return. Your Dictator of the New World Order video drew me to pull out my Bible again and look at the verses you were speaking of regarding the Rapture. Everything you said backed up by God's Word was the truth as I decided to read for myself. I feel God wanted me to.

Before watching you and watching your videos, my family and I were post-Tribulation believers, I guess you could say, as we were so despaired by what was coming and what we would have to go through. I now know that we will be raptured before then ... and it is coming very soon. I know now that God wants all of us to spread His Word as much as possible since the Rapture is so near.

Thank you again for not being afraid to speak the truth!

—D.F.

Thank you for teaching me the truth concerning God's Word. I thank God every single day for you and Rexella. Both of you are extremely brave to come forward with such an unpopular message in today's world, but we need to hear it!

It is such a relief to know my family and I can now face what is yet to come without overwhelming fear. That fear has now turned to excitement. Yay!!

Dr. Van Impe, I also want to let you know that my two daughters grew up watching you. They did not always want to sit down and watch the program with my husband and me. We heard many huffs and puffs, but we made them watch anyway. Now, they are both in their mid-20s, saved, and knowledgeable. Thank you so much. What a burden lifted. My children are going to be with me in heaven. PRAISE GOD!

—L.W.

Dear Jack,

It is my opinion we are in the "end-time" period.

It is stated in the Bible that Satan would be ruling the world completely in these times. If you really study socialism, you will discover it is a form of Satanism. All of the tenets are within it. Also, although it is highly intellectual, when it is boiled down to its essence, it equals chaos.

Many people are not aware that Hitler was indoctrinated by Soviet agents long before he was known to the world in general. Then there were the other Satanists, Stalin, Mao, Pol Pot, etc. To unbelievers, this is silly and a lot of religious fanaticism. But to those who have been watching and believe, as you have recently stated, Jesus could come through from the spiritual dimension at any moment.

Thank you for your ongoing work, and may God bless you and Rexella.

—J.J.

I'm so glad that one day you will stand before God and He'll say to you, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

God has used you to make me see that some of the things I did in the past would keep me from going to heaven. Thanks for making me wake up.

—L.J.

My husband and I want to thank you for having the courage to speak the truth about Mr. Obama and his views of Christianity. As far as we can see, you are the only Christian leader who has any kind of backbone in our country. We are so troubled by what we see happening in our country, our culture, and our churches. Keep up the good fight; we appreciate what you are doing by standing firm in the Word of God.

—A.S.

Words cannot begin to express how much we love and appreciate both of you for the wonderful teachings, both on TV and through emails received. You have enriched our lives and our knowledge of the Bible and have brought it to life. What a joy to have received from you the understanding of the Bible!

We look forward to meeting you personally one of these days (after the Rapture!), and to be able to give you both a big hug to say “thank you.”

We can't wait for your next email — and are never disappointed. We always receive more than we expect (and our expectation is HUGE!). May God pour His richest blessings on you both. With Christian love from East London, South Africa ...

—J.W.

Dr. Jack,

It's through your ministries that I came back to Christ after being a back-slider for more than 20 years.

You tell it like it is. All the truth I've found out and learned from you about our current president and his partnering with our enemies concerning the U.S. — and we the people don't know anything. You let the people know things that are not in our newspapers — but should be.

I've been a partner with your ministry for over 11 years now, and you never disappointed me on current events. I learn from you, so therefore I can tell others. God bless!

—W.G.

Dear Jack and Rexella,

Y'all are a true blessing to me. There are many churches out there that don't preach the true Gospel of Jesus. I'm a former LDS, and the Spirit nagged at me for two years letting me know something just wasn't right about their doctrine. I would listen to your broadcasts, and you voiced most of the things that were on my mind. I'm now reading daily your old email messages.

They are truly a God-send to me. I know now that the only way to be saved is by accepting Jesus into my heart by confession of sin and claiming Him as my personal Savior. A GIFT FROM GOD.

Thank you, and praise God for His Word!

—T.C.

I would like to say that I enjoy your show very much. I have a lot of respect for your work and appreciate you telling us about the return of our Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ. I recently prayed with Jack, inviting Jesus into my life. I've made a lot of mistakes, but I look forward to my new life in Him.

Once again, thank you for all that you do to help us prepare for our Lord's return.

—C.S.

“When will I see my beloved pet again?”

If you've loved and lost a dear pet-friend, take heart. Bible prophecy specifically mentions several beasts in the life to come, and now Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe show you how the Bible endorses the idea that our pets go to heaven!

Other biblical giants who believed it:

- Dr. W.A. Criswell — Past president of the Southern Baptist Convention.
- Dr. Billy Graham — America's greatest global evangelist of the 20th century.
- Dr. J. Vernon McGee — Author of the spectacular series entitled Through the Bible. What he says is literally astounding about the “four beasts” who praise God in Revelation 4:6-9 and Revelation 5:13-14.
- Dr. John Walvoord — Past president of Dallas Theological Seminary and the greatest prophetic genius of the 20th century.

Their words and Dr. Jack Van Impe's prophetic insight will give you hope that you'll see your beloved pet again.

Be sure to share this video with any friends who are grieving the loss of a pet, and keep it in your prophecy library, too.

“I recently ordered your Animals In Heaven DVD. It couldn't have come at a better time, because my sister lost the beloved dog she had for over 15 years.
