Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe keep you and your family from error and show you the true way to life in Christ with their new teaching

Reclaiming and Restoring Biblical Christianity

Today 50% of evangelicals say there are many ways to get to heaven — that comes from Oprah Winfrey and President Obama, but not from the Bible! If anyone says there is more than one way to salvation, that person is not a Christian!"

your family be led astray!

The Bible says in these latter days the love of many will grow cold — apostasy will set in — and supposed religious leaders will have a form of godliness but lack its power.

WE'RE SEEING THESE PROPHECIES FULFILLED TODAY!

You and your family deserve to know the facts — the truth that many supposed "Christian" leaders want to hide from you!

There is only one way to heaven — through salvation in Jesus Christ. Choosing Christ means a change in lifestyle ... and many preachers today just don't want to tell people that they must be transformed!

But Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe set the record straight in their timely new landmark teaching video, Reclaiming and Restoring Biblical Christianity.

You'll discover:

- What biblical Christianity was and how we've gone astray!
- How the modern Church is destroying Christianity!
- Why your words are critically important.
- How the Holy Spirit reacts to sin you'll be shocked!
- The serious consequences of receiving communion with sin in your life.
- Why some people preach that Jesus sinned!
- The truth about President Obama's religion.
- Why Christianity and Islam can't work together.
- How removing the cross from churches has significantly damaged modern Christianity.
- And much more!

Do not allow your family and friends to be led astray by modern Christian leaders who just tell people what they want to hear. Get the critical facts about your salvation, and share this video with your pastor and church.

America's False Prophets

By Dr. Jack Van Impe

n a recent letter to you I stated: I am shocked and saddened to say that false prophets — yes, many pastors of our churches — are planning the strategy for the destruction of the Old Time Religion for a one world church! This global irreligious monstrosity is being launched now.

I have spent hundreds of hours in 2011 collecting documentation for the strongest video study I have ever released, entitled:

RECLAIMING & RESTORING BIBLICAL CHRISTIANITY

This is a powerfully prophetic teaching — and I warn you: I do not mince words. I name names of major Christian leaders who are deceiving the masses through their mamby-pamby sugar-coated messages and bold-faced errors.

We have no choice but to expose the enemy's apostasy, deceptions, and heresies — and proclaim God's unchanging, eternal, infallible Word! We must proclaim the power of the cross ... we must lift up Jesus ... we must fight the good fight of faith by revealing the plans being laid for the satanic one world religion.

I believe as you study my new video, you will have no choice but to say, "I have never heard such strong words from Dr. Van Impe's mouth!" In this video, I tell the truth about ministers who are proclaiming damnable heresies (2 Peter 2:1) and doctrines of demons (I Timothy 4:1). Beloved, the world church is emerging this very moment.

Those who deny the Cross of Christ must be named. Those who deny the necessity of salvation through Christ alone must be exposed. People are dying without our Lord Jesus, slipping into a Christ-less eternity, and my video message CANNOT WAIT. There is no question that Jesus is coming soon! When the one world government and the one world religion appear, we believers will be gone.

The Antichrist forces are at work. The "Beast" (world dictator) and "False Prophet" are alive and waiting in the wings. I predicted and proclaimed such apostasy in 1998. It's presently being fulfilled in shocking ways in 2011. Here are a few excerpts from my notes:

The Errors of Irreverent Reverends

Christ is God. But instead of recognizing and reverencing and black is white; light is darkness and darkness is light; bitter is sweet and sweet is bitter! Yes, even the movie marquee shouts out, "It's a mad, mad, mad, mad world!"

What's the problem with multiplied clergymen and their parishioners? St. John sums it up accurately and precisely in Christ as the God-man, modern theologians and religious leaders of the liberal school tear Jesus Christ down from His throne of deity and substitute sinful men thereon.

These ordained wolves in sheep's clothing favor the abolition of "unjust laws" so that young people may practice perversion (called "love"), pre-marital relations, and every kind of abomination under the approval of the Church. In uplifting men as gods and God as a man, they make Jesus the founder and cornerstone of the worldly Christian church which turns our Lord into a hippie or a clam-digger in their youth literature; they also condone the sin of teenagers by blessing their barnyard morals by encouraging the lowering of the drinking age, and by condoning the imbibing of booze. God help us! White is black chapter 3, verse 19, when he says, This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. The Apostle Paul agrees. He says in Romans 1:21-25, Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

Wow! What a powerful portion of Scripture. Forget the ramblings of Freud, the Viennese psychologist, and believe what God has to say about the weird behaviorism of ancient, as well as modern-day, homo sapiens. Now, most of us dislike what God says about us with a "purple passion." Why? Because created creatures think that they know as much or more than God does about them. Well, the Bible lays bare the condition of the populated world. It strips man of his hypocritical explanations of "why" he does what he does and reveals that every human born into the world is a sinner by nature — and in need of a Savior! Hence, man can shout and argue from now until judgment day about his basic goodness and his ability to change the world - but the Bible doesn't waste time answering such silliness for a creature who can't create the breath he uses to denounce the truth!

There it is — God's graphic indictment against the human race, wherein the details of man's sinfulness and fulfillment of his lusts are laid out in no uncertain terms. It is a modernday picture of the moral and spiritual condition of socalled "Christian America," but God's payday is coming, for the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Be not deceived: neither fornicators, [premarital sex], nor idolaters, nor adulterers [extramarital flings], nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards [including holiday boozers], nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God (I Corinthians 6:9-10).

Starting the second week in May, the following promo will be aired to the world:

America's greatest need is the reclaiming and restoring of biblical Christianity. Why?

Presently, many ministers are attempting to eliminate the "Old Time Religion." Doctrinal sermons have been replaced by selfesteem, psycho-babble nonsense.

Worse yet, contemporary services have turned the sanctuary and worship service into a circus sideshow featuring rock

Dear Dr. Van Impe, I thank God for you both. Thank God someone who has a voice is willing to take a stand for Jesus Christ, for the Bible, for the truth of the prophetic times we are in!

> bands and often times songs with meaningless lyrics.

Let's restore the preaching of God's Word, the old Hymns, the Ten Commandments, and God's demands for holy living.

Let's turn away from practicing Hollywood's barnyard morals covering every form of promiscuous sexual behavior.

One prominent American minister presents the following rules to ministers for building a mega-church and pleasing the ungodly:

- 1. Don't mention sin.
- 2. Remodel the sanctuary to look like a night club or casino.
- 3. Remove every cross inside and outside of the building.
- 4. Don't give invitations to receive Christ.

Who are America's and Christianity's false prophets? Why are they so popular, and embraced?

I want to deal with an important scriptural issue, the health and wealth message and "prosperity truth." Some ministers make statements such as: "It is not God's will that anyone be sick. No Christian need ever suffer, furthermore, all believers should have a superabundance of material goods." Such teachings sound attractive as their promoters pull isolated texts out of context. However, multiplied numbers of Christians are left in a state of despondency because they remain sick or poor.

May I speak to every child of God who is currently experiencing deep trial and agony of soul. May I comfort the sick and impoverished. You are not out of the will of God. It is not sin or unbelief in your life that keeps you from being healed or becoming wealthy. Let's allow the God of the Scriptures to speak for himself. Yea, let God be true and every man a liar (Romans 3:4).

First, Jesus never taught health and wealth for all. The Bible teaches that Christ was born in a borrowed stable, was laid in a borrowed manger and, 33 years later, ended up in the borrowed grave prepared for Joseph of Arimathaea (Mark 15:43). He was so poor that when a certain scribe came, and said unto him. Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. [Jesus replied,] The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man hath not where to lay his head (Matthew 8:19,20).

Think of it! Every creature had a place to sleep at night except Jesus, the Lord of Glory. Why did our Lord — the God of the universe — the One who created heaven and earth become a poverty-stricken pauper, if I may use the term reverently? The answer to this overwhelming question is best expressed in 2 Corinthians 8:9, Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich (as Creator Colossians 1:16-17), yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

Oh, if Jesus had only understood prosperity truth — He might have been born in a palace, been reared in a mansion, eaten at the Waldorf Astoria, and been buried in a star studded casket. No, He became poor, physically, so that you and I might become rich, spiritually. Yes, spiritually. Allow me to prove my position convincingly and scripturally.

Suffering — The Hallmark of Godliness

Troubled, heartbroken child of God, you are not being ignored by the Heavenly Father because of a lack of faith, instead, suffering is often the hallmark of godliness. Paul could say in 2 Timothy 3:10-12, But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsujfering, charity, patience, persecutions, afflictions which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. He quickly adds, Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

Don't fret, then, beloved, when testing comes. It is the will of God for your life. God has never promised "moonlight and roses" for His children. That is a man-made teaching. The Holy Spirit says, For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for His sake (Philippians 1:29). When the promised trials and tribulations hit — don't give up — don't quit! You are not a bumbling backslider.

Instead, you are in the center of His will! So rejoice in the midst of the adversary's attacks, for crowns and rewards are being earned for all eternity! That's why 1 Peter 1:7 declares, that the trial of your  faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. James also has this honor in mind when he says in chapter 1, verse 12, Blessed is the man that endureth temptation (testing): for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to them that love him.

Regardless of the circumstances, then, whether sickness, hunger, poverty, or even martyrdom, remember that God loves you and is working out His glory through you. Paul constantly taught that the Christian life is one, which brings repercussions. Still, he reassured his converts that in the midst of Satan's attacks they could be victorious. He did not say they could live without trials, heartaches, sickness and poverty. Rather, he promised that the Lord would be with them when these tragedies occurred.

Romans 8:35-39 states, Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Wow! What a blow this is to "prosperity truth"! Do all of God's children suffer? At times yes. Can faith put an end to heartache, poverty and death through disease or tragedy? Of course not. It is appointed unto man once to die (Hebrews 9:27). If it were so, then the greatest saints of all ages were spiritual flops! Here is more proof.

The New Testament writers, with the exception of John, laid down their lives for the Saviour. Matthew died from the wounds of a halberd. Mark was dragged through the streets by a team of wild horses until death ensued. Luke was hanged. John was thrown into boiling oil. Though he lived, he was disfigured for life. Peter and Jude were crucified, and James was smashed to death with a club.

Paul, last but not least, suffered more than the others combined. He could say in 1 Corinthians 4:10-13,16, We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; And labour, working with our own hands (a tent maker): being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off scouring of all things unto this day. I beseech you [plead with you, beg of you], be ye followers of me.

In 1 Corinthians 15:31, Paul says, I die daily. And in 2 Corinthians 4:8-10 he continues, We are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus.

Again, in 2 Corinthians 11:23-28, Paul cries out, In labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

They scourged Paul with the forerunner of the Roman cato-nine-tails. Three times they used clubs on his body and once crushed his head with rocks. Thinking he was dead, they discarded his body at the garbage dump of Lystra (see Acts 14:19).

Yes, discipleship producing crowns and rewards to be rewarded at the Judgment Seat of Christ is costly. Those who do not sacrifice here will have nothing in that day. They shall stand in Christ's presence ashamed (1 John 2:28). They shall suffer loss of all rewards (see 1 Corinthians 3:15). One who has been a disciple, a follower of Christ throughout this earthly pilgrimage, will have no regrets when eternity approaches.

Listen to Paul again in 2 Timothy 4:6-8. He is about to have his life ended by decapitation, his head will soon roll from his body as the sword severs it. Is he remorseful, regretful, and sorry? Would he like to relive his life without all of the sorrow experienced as Christ's follower? Well, had he heard about the health and wealth message, the name it and claim it philosophy, the prosperity Gospel everything would have been honky dory (gravy & peachy per Webster's dictionary).

Instead he victoriously and joyously said I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. "There are no regrets. I am going home to be with Jesus forever," and long to hear Him say: "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

Believer, don't seek to live a life of ease in Zion. If there are no scars, there will be no crowns. Don't let the present day teachers of "the health-and-wealth" gospel rob you of eternal rewards. Remember Matthew 5:10-12 promises, Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. 🕑

WORLD WAR III:

WORLD WAR III:

Gould 2012 be the end of the world, as many people believe? Is the next World War going to be Armageddon? Does the Bible predict nuclear annihilation?

Prophecy experts Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe have created a powerful video teaching that will bring peace to believers and help non-believers see the importance of making a decision for Jesus right now.

Request World War III: 2012? right now, and you'll get the answers to intriguing questions such as:

- What two nations must become super-powers before the battle of Armageddon and has this already happened?
- What does a revived Roman Empire look like and does it exist today?
- Where does the Bible say Israel must be united as one nation before Armageddon — and what does it mean that this prophecy has already been fulfilled?
- What does it mean for your future that many sources, from ancient history to a modern computer program, have predicted the year 2012 as a time of catastrophe?

This dramatic video is a great addition to your prophecy library and will be a blessing to your non-Christian friends, too.

I grew up with a healthy appreciation of the arts. All through my school years, I learned to recognize the genius of the great masters of painting, sculpture, architectural design, and, of course, music. As a singer at school and in church, I was in awe of the classical composers who could hear, create, and capture such glorious melodies and rich harmonies, making them come alive again and again in different places and times.

So when Jack and I were married and made our first trip to Belgium to meet all his relatives, it was an unbelievable joy to me. In addition to the welcoming and wonderful fellowship with the extended Van Impe family, the history and culture of old Europe was everywhere — the food, the traditions, the sights, sounds, smells — the very atmosphere itself. Except for being seasick on the voyage over (we decided to fly on future trips), I loved every moment of our adventure.

When we strolled through the streets of Brussels and suddenly came upon the Grote Markt/Grand-Place, the amazing marketplace and celebration center of the capital city, my mouth flew open in amazement. There were flowers everywhere surrounding little booths and open-air shops that offered fresh produce, baked goods, candies, handicrafts of all kinds, and wandering troupes of street entertainers. There was color, sound, and life as far as the eye could see in every direction!

And surrounding it all, framing the pulsing heart of the inner city, were the great, historic seventeenth century buildings with elaborate facades of brick and stone and glass, filled with shops, offices, and apartment flats. Amazing!

To this day, Brussels' Grand-Place is one of my favorite spots in all the world, an everchanging spectacle of vitality and excitement. But on my first trip to Europe as a young bride, the experience was almost overwhelming.

To further highlight my first visit to Europe, Jack and I got a car and drove from Brussels to Paris! I don't have the words to describe my excitement at seeing the countryside, villages, and towns — most of them with their own marketplaces bustling with life — and soaking up the sounds of old languages accented with laughter and shouts. The people were real, live characters from folk literature, with costumes that would have seemed too elaborate even for my active imagination.

And then we were in Paris, standing outside perhaps the most famous art museum in the world, the Louvre! Could this really be happening to me? I'd always loved great art, and enjoyed visiting fine museums during family outings and school field trips. But the Louvre? As we walked through galleries filled with some of the most famous works of art in the world, I was literally overwhelmed. My mind could barely take in the reality of seeing the Mona Lisa and works by Rembrandt, Van Gogh, Michelangelo, Monet, El Greco, and scores of other great masters from the past. Too soon my brief visit was ended — I could have spent days there.

Fortunately, Jack and I got to go back to Europe to spend time with his relatives about every other year, and on each trip we tried to take in some notable or worthwhile place. I learned so much each time we went for a visit.

Life is all around you — don't miss it!

Here at home, my husband and I also try to keep up with significant news developments and often visit historically important places. Connected with our ministry on our trips abroad — we've been in about 50 countries — we've explored noteworthy local sites and sought to better understand the people and cultures. Of course, Jack is always aware and sensitive to people, places, and events around the world with prophetic significance.

So many times as we've visited some historic site or an area with prophetic importance, suddenly the realization would hit me that I was seeing something important ... that I was literally part of something significant or noteworthy. I felt a little nudge that I should pay special attention to what was around me moment — as if the Holy Spirit were whispering, "He that hath an ear, let him hear...." (see Revelation 2-3).

That happened to me again just this week! While Jack was getting his hair cut, I wandered through a little antique shop nearby and soon found myself browsing a small art exhibit. I'd never heard of the artist before, but he was extremely talented — I'd put him in the category of a great masterpainter. I was drawn to a powerful work he had done that captured the images of two young girls. As I looked at them, it seemed they took on a life of their own as they laughed together and looked out on the vista before them.

The girls seemed so much more real than just a painting. They seemed so relaxed, so comfortable, so real. I felt that I should know them ... that I'd like to know them. As I stood there for several long moments, I actually said aloud, "Who are you?"

It was the kind of deeply introspective moment a person may have in his life on occasion when he looks into a mirror and wonders, "Does anybody know who I am? Do I even know? Does God know that I'm here?"

As I looked into the skillfully created faces of those two youngsters in the painting, I whispered again, "Who are you?" And I thought in response, "I know Someone who knows you better than this artist, and that is the Lord. No matter where you are today, He knows you!"

I didn't see anybody else in the quietness of that little gallery, but in that instant I became keenly aware that the "Someone" I'd just thought about had seen me ... and recognized me ... and knew me!

God knows us even before we are born

God spoke to Jeremiah and said, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee" (Jeremiah 1:5). What a phenomenal statement. When did Jeremiah become a "viable," individual person? At conception?

At some point in the prenatal process? At birth? According to the Lord God, He knew Jeremiah long before.

When Jesus said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me" (Mark 10:14), the Greek word used for "children" — brephos — can refer to born and unborn, I'm told. This would mean that Jesus was not just saying, "let these children come unto me, but all children those who have been born ... and those who are not yet born."

I have a little sister in heaven who was miscarried. I have a brother in heaven who was born but lived only three hours. I will see them both in heaven someday! Every child who was ever conceived is known of God. He declared that before a child is formed in the belly or is born, He knew that baby! Before I was completely developed in my mother's womb, God knew that I would be born and called Rexella Shelton. He knew who I was before I was!

I know He knows our names because in Revelation 3:5 He declares that He will not blot our name out of the Book of Life. Every name is in the Book — it can only be blotted out if a person rejects the Lord. That's why every child goes to heaven, no matter what. Jesus Himself said that our names are written in heaven (see Luke 10:20).

What a great promise! So many children's lives have been snuffed out in wars, epidemics, and famines. Millions more have been destroyed by abortion. But, thank God, how wonderful to know that every child is safe with Him ... and He knows them all by name! Every single one of these precious lives is now with the Lord. Oh, that blesses me!

God walks with us in life

Have you ever needed to know that you were not walking life's road all alone? Did you ever need the strong shoulder of the Lord to lean on in life's hard places?

Thank God, the Word says, "For the Lord thy God walketh in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee" (Deuteronomy 23:14).

I believe all of us have plenty of occasions when we need to be delivered. The longer I serve the Lord, the more times I recognize His presence in my camp, walking close beside me to deliver me from all harm and danger.

I remember getting up to sing one night to an audience of 8,000 people. As I looked over the crowd, I saw four men in the fifth row with stockings over their heads. God gave me peace so I was not afraid to go ahead and minister, although it was obvious the men were there to try and disrupt the service or intimidate Jack and me. We later learned there was great turmoil in that city because a number of drug dealers had been converted, and the drug bosses wanted to threaten our lives. But God protected us from violence.

Another time, in South America, we were on our way to the airport when a huge riot broke out. We were trapped in the middle of the violence, but God's hand kept us safe.

Over the years, we've received threats in the mail and over the phone, but Jack and I never were afraid, knowing that: "There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways" (Psalm 91:10-11).

More recently, I was not afraid

Dear Jack, and Rexella, I thank God for your deep dedication. You've touched the lives of countless folks around the world, and I'm happy to be counted as one of them.

when Jack was attacked by a serious, life-threatening physical illness. Somehow the Holy Spirit reminded me that God was in control and that my husband would be delivered. And he was! How sad when people — even believers — lose contact with the presence of the Lord who is always with us. How tragic when they can no longer see the hand of God at work in their lives and are overwhelmed by despair. Thinking that nobody cares for them or is looking out for them, they try walking alone through the dark valleys of this world and are overwhelmed. The sad statistics reveal that more and more people are committing suicide, taking matters into their own hands.

Recently a member of our team, Chuck Ohman, had a long-time friend who committed suicide. Some time ago, a pastor friend of our family in Detroit took his own life. Another Detroit pastor we knew well had lunch with his daughter, kissed her and sent her on her way, then went into his office bathroom to hang himself.

How sad to see these precious souls reach such a state of futility that they tried ending it all. Oh, if we had known their need! It hurts so much to see people destroy themselves in despair. Oh, if they had just come to us — or some other believer for encouragement and help. Perhaps someone could have helped them find the answer to the question, Who are you? The answer for them — and for all of us — is: "I am the beloved child of my Father, God Almighty!" If we know who we are, then we know there is help for the helpless and hope for the hopeless in Jesus. Nothing or no one is more powerful than God, and no one cares more than the Lord.

God remembers us in death

Several years ago I was in Israel interviewing some of the more influential members of the Israeli government, including members of the Knesset and various other leaders. One person I was to interview was the heroic military leader General Moshe Dayan. He was standing on a staircase, in uniform, complete with his trademark eye patch, ready to begin. As I greeted him, he suddenly said brusquely, "I am not going to do this interview!"

I was stunned because I had worked hard to make all the necessary arrangements, and I politely inquired what had happened to change his mind. "Oh, it's nothing you have done," he said. "I've just realized that this is pointless because no one will remember me when I am dead anyway!" And he walked away.

I believe General Dayan was wrong. A great many people knew and cared about him. They appreciated his patriotism, and his heroic efforts to preserve the nation of Israel in the face of overwhelming odds. To this day, his name is remembered and revered as a great soldier and leader.

But even if no one on earth remembered Dayan after his career and his life were ended, there is Someone who will not — who cannot — forget who you are in birth, in life, and in death. This friend is aware of even the most minute details of our lives — He is the Lord! The Bible says that even the very hairs of your head are all numbered (Luke 12:7).

I have interviewed some 250 outstanding leaders and world figures, and I made it a practice to try, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to share something uplifting with them as well as seeking information and comments from them. I wish I'd had the opportunity to witness to General Dayan. I'd love to have been able to tell him that, indeed, someone would remember him and walk with him — after death. Someone would remember, and walk with him through the valley of the shadow of death. He is God Almighty!

Perhaps you think your life has been less distinguished and noteworthy than someone like General Dayan. But you are not less important to God. He has been with you before birth, and throughout life. And He will not desert you when you come to the end of life in this world. Who are you? You are God's child ... and one of His favorite traveling companions!

The time will come for all of us when it is time to cross over from this world to the next. And the Lord will walk with us, faithful to the end, until the shadows of life are illuminated by the light of heaven. So we can make that final walk in confidence.

The Bible says, "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord" (2 Corinthians 5:8). My husband, Jack, says that the phrases "absent from the body, present with the Lord" in the Greek are both instantaneous and simultaneous!

When the time comes, just as you close your eyes — you're there!

And He will have been with you all the way!

Bible prophecy foretold how the modern Church would

China cyber-warfare capability a 'formidable concern'

BBC News reports: "China's growing capabilities in cyberwarfare and intelligence gathering have been described as a 'formidable concern' to the United States.

James Clapper, the US Director of National Intelligence, made the comments in testimony to the US Senate.

From Canada and Britain, France and South Korea, there have been growing reports of online attacks on computer networks around the world.

The finger of suspicion is often pointed at China.

In evidence to the US Senate's Armed Services Committee, Mr. Clapper said last year saw a 'dramatic increase' in malicious cyber-activity targeting US computers and networks.

He did not mention who might be behind the surge in attempts to steal information from government ministries, major companies and others.

But he added that China had made 'a substantial investment' in cyber-warfare and intelligence gathering, saying it had a 'very large organization devoted to it and they're pretty aggressive'.

'This is just another way in which they glean information about us and collect on us for technology purposes, so it's a very formidable concern,' he said...." (The rapidly growing cyber-attack threats are more serious than the world's citizenship realizes. This problem, along with solar storms predicted by NASA for December 21st, 2012, or the carrying out by enemy nations using the electromagnetic pulse explosion over a nation, could be either one of the three to destroy the electrical system from coast to coast in any nation under attack, bringing total darkness and paralysis to a nation for weeks or even months — II Timothy 3:1; Luke 21:25: "And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity....")

Iranian President: World People Tired of Western World Order

The Fars News Agency reports: "Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad reiterated on Monday that the recent uprisings and revolutions in the Middle-East and North Africa indicate that nations are tired of the present world order and intend to change the entire system of the management of world affairs.

Addressing the US and the European countries, Ahmadinejad said, 'It is now long years that you made your arrogant rule dominant over the world and made all relations unilateral and cruel, but now people are tired of your behavior and you can no more keep human beings in a cage.'

'We are witnessing that massive awakening is taking place in the entire world and today all the world nations describe justice and monotheism as their main demand,' he added.

Also in similar remarks

22 | Perhaps Today | May-June 2011

earlier this month, Ahmadinejad had underlined in a meeting with visiting Bolivian President of the Chamber of Deputies Hector Arce here in Tehran that hegemonic powers are incompetent to manage world affairs, and added that future belongs to the freedom-seeking nations.

President Ahmadinejad noted that today all countries have realized that the arrogant powers (imperialist countries) cannot administer the world any longer because they are facing numerous problems.

Ahmadinejad pointed out that the arrogant powers (global imperialism) are against dignity, independence and progress of other countries.

'Hence, the world needs a new order based on justice and those who feel being brothers and close to each other have a greater burden on their shoulders for setting the new world order,' he added .... " (My video; New World Order Rising, has broken all orders ever for Jack Van Impe Ministries. In it, I discuss the Revived Roman Empire, which is today's European Union. Now that Iran's President has enlisted Syria, Venezuela's Chavez, and China as leaders in an Islamic New World Order, I see now that the image Nebuchadnezzar saw in his dream in Daniel 2:34-35 portrayed kingdom number four in verse 4 as having two legs. I only mentioned one — the European Union. Now I believe the two legs envision a united Roman Empire with the second leg as Constantinople, the government of Islamic Turkey! Presently, the Club of Rome has drawn up a 10-division global empire groups one through five is the European Union; groups six through 10 is Islam. Daniel 2:41, 42; 7:7, 8, 20, 24; Revelation 12:3, 13:1, 17:3, 7, 12, 16.)

Quartet 'giving up hope' of renewing Israeli-Palestinian talks

Haaretz reports: "Growing pessimism about the prospects of a breakthrough in Israeli-Palestinian peace negotiations is prompting new international calls for the unilateral establishment of a Palestinian state.

Representatives of the Middle East Quartet — the United States, Russia, the European Union and the United Nations — who attended talks held in Tel Aviv and Ramallah last week with Israeli and Palestinian negotiators emerged without much hope for the resumption of peace negotiations in the near future, according to senior Israeli officials and European diplomats. The representatives said that the differences between the two sides were far too wide to get negotiations back on track.

On Tuesday, French Foreign Minister Alain Juppe said recognition of a Palestinian state by the European Union is a 'possibility that should be kept in mind.' Speaking at the parliamentary foreign affairs committee, the newly appointed minister said: 'There's no point in recognizing the Palestinian state on our own. It must be done together.' His statement comes amid mounting international pressure on Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to make an overture to the Palestinians...." (It should be the Jewish people giving up hope. Why? President Obama of America wants to give Jerusalem to the Palestinians, mainly Muslims. The United Nations constantly shows their animosity toward Israel while allowing Ahmadinejad liberty to spew out anti-Semitic (Jewish) hatred at UN international meetings. The European Union is horribly anti-Israel at this period in history and Russia will along with Iran try to destroy God's Chosen People. See what Jesus said to His Jewish brethren: Matthew 24:9; John 16:12. See what Russia and Persia [Iran] do in their attempt to wipe the Jews out of existence in Ezekiel 38: 8, 11, 14, 16, 17, 18; 39:2, 4, 7, 9, 11, 12, 17, 22, 25, 29.)

It is great to see how the Lord has used both of you in winning so many to the Lord — and you give God the glory and praise. You are a very special couple, so happy in the Lord.

Through your ministry in 2005, I got on my knees and prayed the sinner's prayer to make sure of my salvation. I was living with someone then; God spoke to my heart: never again. It was like a big burden was lifted off my back. I told the person I was living with how the Lord changed my life around.

My life is to please the Lord from now on — my desire is to put God first.

Keep up the good work. God bless you both!

Dear Jack and Rexella,

Approximately one year ago, I was flipping channels on the TV and your program was on. I listened to it, and you were advertising your Prophecy Bible. I mentioned to my wife that I wouldn't mind having it.

To backtrack a bit, I became a born-again Christian when I was 12 years old. However, as too many stories go, I went through some agonizing circumstances. I doubted my Christianity and blamed God. I began doing things "my way" and became a "functioning" alcoholic — and miserable (work had become a god to me).

Much to my surprise, my wife ordered your Bible.

Having been interested in Bible prophecy from my earlier years, I was impressed how you have explained God's Word to be much more substantial and essential in these chaotic days, with referencing Scriptures to back it up! In my 50s now, I have given my life to our Savior, and peace has finally come into my life.

God has His hand upon you and Rexella. May our blessed Jesus continue to bless your ministry.

—B.A.

I listen to you and Rexella every Monday night. I was told in January I have Parkinson's disease. I have given my soul to Christ and believe He is the only way to heaven.

Thank you for helping me make that decision. I will keep watching as long as we are all here.

—С.Е.

Jack and Rexella,

I always look so forward to watching your weekly program, and I receive your email newsletter. I have not written to you yet because it seems I just can't find enough words to tell you both how much you mean to me. My life just wouldn't be the same without you. I have often thought: What if they weren't there?

I just want you to know how much I appreciate your obedience to God and all you do. I know God would take care of me if you weren't there doing what you do. He would teach me and give me understanding, showing me what is to come but right now, He uses you to do this.

Both of you are a HUGE part of my life, and we will meet one day when it is all done. THANK YOU!

-L.S.

Dear Drs. Jack and Rexella,

Greetings in the precious name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Words cannot express what a blessing you are to me! I read every one of your newsletters without fail.

By God's grace, you seem to know today what will happen tomorrow, and, as such, nothing in this world occurring now seems to take you both by surprise.

Thank you for giving us timely warning. Forewarned is to be forearmed, it is said, and how very true it is. I know what you say is true, and I do heed your advice, as it is revealed to you from above. Whatever happens around me, I can still find peace with God through you. My grateful thanks to you both once again, and may the never-failing good Lord bless you both now, always and in all ways.

—J.M.

Dear Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe,

I want to say "thank you so much" for entering my life and opening my eyes again after so many years of being skeptical about "Is there really a God?"

I think as years go by, we start to see the big picture about life and start to realize everything really does happen for a reason. But it wasn't until I started watching your show that I became a REAL believer.

Both of you have really made me believe our lives surely should be devoted to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and not all material things in life we think we MUST have. Life should be just that — to be the best person we can possibly be, and to love and care for one another. I am so happy to have Jesus back in my life and enjoy having you in my home each and every week, and hopefully for many more weeks to come.

My first and best purchase has been the "Dictator: Alive and Waiting in the Wings" DVD. Thank you so much again for the REAL news! Love you both!

—K.R.

Dr. Jack Van Impe, All the good you have done here on earth through the power of the Holy Spirit will be revealed in heaven.

I want to thank you for a wonderful sermon you preached in 1958, in Newton, North Carolina. On that Wednesday night, God spoke to my heart, and I knew I was lost, although I had attended church all my life with my family. I was convicted of sin by the Holy Spirit, and God gave me His wonderful peace.

Now, I am truly one of God's children. Praise God for His wonderful love for me!

Thank you for being a faithful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. —J.S.

NORTH AMERICA

Does the public embrace of Islam put North America in peril?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe say: YES! And you cannot afford to miss a single crucial moment of their astounding video teaching, Attack on Christian America. You'll discover:

 President Obama's Islamic leanings

 he won't allow the use of the phrase "Islamic terrorism" in his administration, and he remains completely silent about the slaughter of Christians in many Islamic nations.

- The sad truth that 50% of Americans doubt that President Obama is truly a Christian — and many believe he is, in fact, a Muslim.
- The President's key support for a United Nations "hate law" that favors Islam and endangers Christians all over the world!
