POPE FRANCIS, ARMAGEDDON, AND CHRIST'S RETURN

Is the New Pope the Last Pope?

The world was shocked — the secular media went into a frenzy — to learn that Pope Benedict XVI would become the first Pope of the Roman Catholic Church in nearly six centuries to resign rather than rule until his death. Governments were rattled by the news. Even Benedict's closest aides were stunned to hear his pronouncement!

What does such a surprise mean to you? How does it fit into the biblical prophecies regarding the latter days in which we are living?

I was compelled by the Spirit of God to rush into our television studio and create a video teaching for you, to explain the prophetic scriptural foundations of the events that have rocked the world over the past several weeks. I want you to have this brand-new video, Pope Francis, Armageddon, and Christ's Return.

God was not surprised by Benedict's resignation. This move fits precisely into God's latter-days agenda. Look at what Benedict urged the Cardinals to do, in light of his resignation:

He declared that the Church needed a new Pope who would be charismatic on television. Our pews are empty, he said. It's no longer the pulpit but television that's reaching people!

(I thank God that He called us to television decades ago. We are reaching into every nation on earth every single week!)

Then Benedict, the outgoing Pope, went further. He said:

*I am asking all the Cardinals to pray

Thank you for your continued stand for righteousness. In this day of spineless and contemporary churches and pastors, it's refreshing to see you preach the TRUE Gospel throughout the world!

-J.W.

much so that in choosing the next Pope, we do not get a Pope who destroys the Church.

Why would Benedict make such a strange suggestion? Here's why: Benedict is well aware of the great prophecy by Saint Malachy, made 800 years ago, who predicted that the 113th Pope would be the defective Pope.

Which Pope was Benedict? #112. The next Pope — Pope Francis — is #113.

What does the Bible say? In Revelation 13:1 we have the rise of the world dictator. But with him, we also have a religious prophet who rules during Armageddon and Christ's Return according to the prophecy — and this is what concerned Pope Benedict XVI.

Look at the forces at work in the world today. Catholicism is under assault by the forces of jihadist Islam, from Africa all the way across the globe to Indonesia. Christian communities in the Holy Land are being subjected to violence at the hands of Muslims. You remember the man who tried to kill Pope John Paul II (and who has now been released from prison, in spite of the fact that he was sentenced to life behind bars). Pope Benedict has been under death threats by the Muslims. Two million Christians have died at the hands of Muslims. Ayatollah Seyed Ali Khamenei, Supreme Leader of the Islamic Revolution, has announced that uprisings in Muslim countries will serve as a prelude to greater things — and the rule of Islam over the whole world. Islam's "Mahdi," they say, will offer the religion of Islam to the Jews and Christians; if they accept it they will be spared, otherwise they will be killed. And the "prophet" Jesus, they claim, will be the executioner!

The Bible teaches — and Iran's President Ahmadinejad has been constantly talking — about the new world order. This is not merely the European Union. The Bible says in Revelation 17:10 that there are seven heads and 10 horns. The 10 horns are the 10 regions of the world planned by the Club of Rome (Daniel 7:7,8,20,24; Revelation 12:3; 13:1; 17:3,7,12,16). But of the seven heads, three of them are Islamic nations. Both Luther and Calvin, 500 years ago, taught that the two legs of the beast of Daniel 2:31-32 will be the twin final empires of history: the Christian one and the Islamic one. And as we review the names of the seven heads, we find that four of them — Assyria, Egypt, Babylon, and Medo-Persia — are all Muslim nations today! The others constitute the Roman Empire, which controlled much of the world for many centuries — but then the Bible says, at the end they will grow and multiply, both Christianity and Islam. All of this will happen, and soon. Jesus is coming! We must prepare — and we must reach out to the unsaved before it is eternally too late!

This is the mission of our evangelistic ministry. And it's why I urge you to request Pope Francis, Armageddon, and Christ's Return.

This video reveals the truth about the shocking sudden succession of the Pope, but also reveals:

- » The prophetic significance of the massive meteor that recently struck Russia
- » The plans of Islam specifically for the Catholics
- » Are we facing World War III and possibly Armageddon?
- » Who is the real force behind the march toward global war?
- » What are Islam's four major goals regarding America?
- » Why do Christians need to respond to the threat of Islamic Shariah law?
- » What are the differences between Christianity and Islam?
- » What Christian leaders and organizations are involving themselves with Islam today?
- » And more.

TAMMIN the TONGU

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

WE KNOW THAT HUMILITY, PRAYER, AND CONFESSION ARE PREREQUISITES FOR REVIVAL. LET'S CONTINUE BY CONSIDERING SINS THAT HINDER THE WORKING OF THE BLESSED HOLY SPIRIT OF GOD IN OUR LIFE. REMEMBER,

If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me [PSALMS 66:18].

A DESTRUCTIVE SIN CALLED "GOSSIP" DEAFENS THE EARS OF ALMIGHTY GOD AS ONE PRAYS TO HIM.

Nothing in the history of mankind has wrought more havoc and sorrow than the uncontrolled tongue of human beings. A wise proverb states, "He that thinketh by the inch and speaketh by the yard should be kicked by the foot." Again, "Loose tongues get their owners into tight places."

God says in James 3:6, The tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. Verses 9-10: Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

A slanderous, vile, malicious tongue is indicative of one of two conditions:

(1) THE SLANDERER MAY BE A HELL-BOUND SINNER.

If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain (James 1:26). A wagging tongue is usually a symbol of an empty heart. God said so.

The Lord, speaking about those who are filled with all unrighteousness in Romans 1:28-32, mentions fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness, envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whispering, backbiting, and other abominable practices. Now notice carefully that maliciousness (character assassination), envy (jealousy which produces gossip), debate (leading to boisterous argumentation), malignity, whispering (gossip in quiet, hushed tones), and backbiting are all partakers of the same judgment that shall be pronounced upon fornicators (sex-hungry maniacs) and murderers. Look at verse 32: Who knowing the Judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death.

In Galatians 5:19-21, the Holy Spirit lists 17 abominations, and uncleanness (a dirty, smut-filled mouth), hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, heresies, and envying — all having to do with the REASON FOR or the RESULT OF a poison-filled, uncontrollable tongue — are under the anathema or condemnation of God. The devil's reward, at the end of the trail, for gossipers is stated in verse 21: They which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

God hates these sins. How easy it is for self-righteous church members to condemn the sins of the flesh practiced by some, and overlook the wickedness of their own lives as they lacerate, mutilate, and cut to shreds other members of the human race with their razor-sharp tongues. However, Proverbs 6:16-18 states,

These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

Friend, what about the deadly tongue you possess? Will your tongue, described in the Bible as a fire, lead you into the fires of eternal doom? Fall on your face, confess your sin, get washed in Christ's blood, and be saved for eternity.

(2) SECOND, A LOOSE-TONGUED PERSON MAY BE SAVED, BUT CARNAL.

Each hearer must determine his own spiritual condition before God. Both situations are taught in God's Holy Word, and a true messenger must present both viewpoints, and then allow the individual, under the direction of the Holy Spirit, to determine his own personal state before God.

The Corinthian church was filled with fighting, carping Christians. Paul, in writing to this carnal assembly, says, I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? (1 Corinthians 3:1-3).

Fighting, bickering, and sowing discord among brethren is not a sign of spirituality, but of extreme carnality. Many who claim to be dominated by the Holy Spirit are constantly running off at the mouth. You are professing a lie if this is the case. It is easy to call the working of the Holy Spirit a second work of grace, an infilling, a baptism, and loudly proclaim an experience with the third member of the Trinity through signs and wonders. The real evidence, however, is in a love-filled heart and Spirit-controlled tongue. You don't believe it? Hear God in James 3:2: If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man. Again, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance (Galatians 5:22-23).

I was asked, "Do you believe in the infilling of the Holy Spirit?" Amen. "Have you had the evidence?" Which one? There are at least nine in 1 Corinthians 12-14, and a host of others found throughout the New Testament.

They replied, "Tongues."

I answered, "Beloved I am seeking to control the one I have." That's right; the fruit of the Spirit is love, peace, long-suffering, gentleness. These have to do with getting along with others and loving them when they treat you like dirt. You don't retaliate by spreading venom about them with the tongue. That is not the mark of a Spirit-filled human being.

You argue that the gifts and the fruit are two different things? Quit quibbling; they go hand-in-hand. That is what God is trying to say in 1 Corinthians 13. Charity, which is love, is the evidence of the blessed Holy Spirit's presence in one's life. One can talk about his experiences and visions until doomsday, but if the fruit of the Spirit — LOVE — is absent, all the speaking in tongues is but projected from the diaphragm. Don't get angry now, because that will prove my point that LOVE, the true evidence, is missing in your experience.

Listen to the Spirit of God as He writes, through Paul, 1 Corinthians 13:1: Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. (More simply: Though I speak with angelic tongues and fight with everyone, I am just a lot of noise). The real evidence is found in verses 4-7:

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not [is not jealous]; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up [saying "I have the gift and you don't; I am spiritual and you apparently aren't"], doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in truth; Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things [yes, endures all things and will not try to get back with the tongue].

GOD SAYS IF YOU WANT TO SPARE YOURSELF
HEARTACHE AND DIVINE JUDGMENT,
judge this sin in your own life
AND PUT IT AWAY.

Is this your experience? If so, you have the evidence of the Spirit. Languages, signs, and wonders can be faked; but the above-mentioned love can only be produced by the Holy Spirit.

Some of you have roast preacher every week. You talk against every spiritual leader of the Church. One day your children will curse God and turn their backs on religion, and your uncontrollable tongue will have been the cause. God hates gossip. The Word proves it:

Lying lips are abomination to the Lord (Proverbs 12:22).

A true witness delivereth souls; but a deceitful witness speaketh lies (Proverbs 14:25).

Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones (Proverbs 16:24).

A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue (Proverbs 17:4).

A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish (Proverbs 19:9).

Speak the truth in love (Ephesians 4:15).

Let your speech be always with grace (Colossians 4:6).

AN UNFORGIVING SPIRIT

Some of you reading this newsletter have been hurt by another's vicious remarks. Because of it, you have harbored ill will toward that person. This is human, I know, but it is not divine. We who are filled with the Spirit can live on a higher plane. "To err is human; to forgive divine." If animosity, envy, ill-will, and jealousy continue, this internal bitterness will destroy one's communion with the Lord.

In Ephesians 4:30 we find: And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. It is evident that when the Spirit of God, living within a believer, is grieved, the believer feels the mood of the grief-stricken Spirit and shares in the misery. Because of it, fellowship with God is broken.

What causes the Spirit to be grieved? Verses 31-32: Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And [get it, please] be ye kind one to another; tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

The same truth is taught in Colossians 3:13: Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

Since we are to forgive others as Christ did, what did He do differently? In Luke 23, we see the Savior hanging on the cross. Thorns stick into the flesh surrounding the skull. Spikes fasten Him to the tree. One sees a mutilated, mangled form suspended between heaven and earth.

Is Christ bitter? NO! He looks at His torturers and cries, Father forgive them; for they know not what they do (Luke 23:34). Had they crucified Him daily for the last 1,900 years, He would still pray for their forgiveness. I know that from Matthew 18:21-35. Peter says to Christ, How oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? til seven times [49 times]? Jesus said, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven [490 times]. Oh, what love and what grace. If God expects us to forgive 490 times, then He too will always open His arms to those who come to Him with broken, heavy-laden hearts. Thousands reading this newsletter today, who had the vilest of sins canceled at the cross, now harbor bitterness toward some other brother over some insignificant nonsense that "once upon a time" occurred. Oh, you will be ashamed when you see Christ for not obeying His Holy Word: Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath for given you (Ephesians 4:32).

Stephen had this spirit of forgiveness. As angry mobs crushed him to death with rocks in Acts 7:59-60, he cried, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. He was as human as any of us, but was filled with the Spirit of God (verse 55).

It is easy to "fly off the handle," gossip about others, and run around with a grudge while talking about the power of the Holy Spirit — but it is all a farce. His Spirit will make you turn the other cheek; will make you love the unlovable, and will never seek revenge by hurting the one who hurt you.

God says if you want to spare yourself heartache and divine judgment, judge this sin in your own life and put it away. I am calling upon you to do this now. Remember, if my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land (2 Corinthians 7:14). 🙏

Their years on earth are few, but their impact is immeasurable!

How can we know for sure our pets will be with us in eternity?

Animals are a beautiful part of God's creation ... and our pets are like dear members of our family. We've all wondered if we would see them again, in heaven....

Now Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe show you how the Bible supports the idea that the pets we love will be with us in eternity!

Using Scripture that refers to the many animals in heaven, and with the insight of great theologians throughout the ages, this video explains how our pets can be with us for eternity. Among the notables whose teachings are explained:

- Martin Luther
- John Calvin
- John Wesley
- John F. Walvoord
- J. Vernon McGee
- W.A. Criswell
- M.R. de Haan
- And others!

An encouraging video for every animal-lover, and a great comfort for anyone who has lost a pet.

Why Am I Surprised?

IT'S VERY HARD FOR ME TO DESCRIBE MY FEELINGS — perhaps a sense of awe, humility, and gratitude? — when I think about the wonderful opportunity God has given to my husband and me to reach around the world via television each week with the Gospel. I definitely believe the Holy Spirit impressed Jack to find a format that so many people watch.

When we first knew we were going to have a program that would be beamed around the world, we had prayerfully planned an unusual approach that seemed really exciting. Then, about a week before we were to start production, Jack came to me and said, “Rexella, I believe we are to do a different format. I sense that we are to gather news from around the world — global headlines — and connect them to the Word of God.

With all my heart, I believe the Lord directed my husband in that decision. Today we get hundreds of pounds of mail every week from viewers who ordinarily would not watch a church-related or religious program. One day we walked into a restaurant and were recognized by a group of some 20 Jewish people. “Oh, Dr. and Rexella,” they said, “we love your program and try to tune in every week!”

In the same restaurant, we met a smaller group of Arab people who smiled and said, “Thank you for your TV program — we appreciate it so much!”

I was also stopped by the wife of a state senator who said, “I don’t know if you know this, Rexella, but the first thing on the agenda of many of the senators on Monday morning is to get together over coffee and discuss your program!”

On the street in Toronto not too long ago, we were stopped by a Muslim man who said, “Many people in our community here watch your telecast often — we enjoy it so much.” I couldn’t help asking, “Why are you attracted to a Christian program that presents the Gospel and quotes the words of Jesus? Why would you want to watch that?”

His answer was so humbling: “We trust you!”

So many calls and letters we receive are from people like this who might never go to church or watch another religious program. Our media consultants (who also work with numerous other ministries) say that we are seeing more response to the invitation for salvation than perhaps any other program on the air today.

Many people write to say, “We couldn’t make it through our week without hearing your analysis and encouragement.”

And not long ago, I got a letter that brought tears to my eyes. A young girl who had decided to commit suicide was flipping through the TV channels and stopped on our program. She wrote, “Rexella, you looked straight into the camera at me and said, ‘God cares about you . . . and so do I!’ That changed my whole thinking . . . and saved my life.”

Preparing for the promised days

Jack and I pray earnestly as we prepare for each program. We are keenly aware of the responsibility that is ours because we truly believe we are living in the days just prior to the coming of the Lord. We don’t like to use the phrase “last days” because it’s not a countdown to the world ending. Actually, it’s the promised days — just before Christ will come back to earth, set up His kingdom, and stop all the mayhem and madness. It will be the beginning of a thousand years of peace on the earth.

I believe we are now living in the time the Bible refers to as the “hour of temptation” that will come upon all the world and try those who live on planet earth (see Revelation 3:10). But Jesus surely is coming very soon!

When is He coming? Each week on television, we talk about the events the Bible says are signs of His coming. We share news reports about wars, rumors of wars, famines, pestilences, earthquakes, and countless other distresses and fateful events.

Often people will say, “The world has always had war and famine and trouble — all these things. Are today’s events any different? Why do they have special significance now?”

The answer is found in two key verses. Jesus said, “And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end (end of the age) come” (Matthew 24:14). Only recently, in our generation, could it be said that the Gospel has been preached in all the world, witnessing to all nations.

Secondly, the Bible doesn’t say, “when you see wars, look up” or “when you see famine and pestilence, the time is near.” Look carefully at what Jesus said in Matthew 24:33 — when ye shall see ALL these things, in conjunction with Israel becoming a nation in 1948 and taking control of Jerusalem in 1967 — know that it is near, even at the doors” (emphasis mine). All these things, all at once — simultaneously! That’s the key Jesus said to watch for, and I’m telling you, that day has come!

There are many places in the Word that talk about things that will come to pass — there’s a whole list of them, but I’ve chosen to write about just four, perhaps the top four, that have to come together before the coming of the Lord.

So today we must do all that we can to point the lost to the Answer — not a theory, a contract, a plan — but to the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world. That’s what Jack and I do every week on our worldwide telecast.

Hunger and pestilence (Revelation 6:8)

The second thing that shocks me is how there can be famine, privation, and deathly need and starvation in a world where there is such abundance. Why am I surprised? Often there can be unimaginable opulence and wealth at one end of the street, and hunger, want, and terrible suffering at the other end of the same street.

The hunger, disease, and pestilence around the world hurt my heart so much. Today we have many, many billionaires all over the world — people with so much wealth that they literally cannot even count it all. There are billionaires not only in prosperous, wealthy countries, but also in poor, underdeveloped nations. Outside the gates of these billionaires’ estates — in the very shadow of their elegant palaces of privilege — starving people die in the darkness.

In nations ravaged by famine, with millions of starving children, cruel dictators hoard the country’s meager resources and even confiscate the humanitarian aid sent by other nations for their own personal gain. No wonder the Word reminds us that the heart (of man) is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked (Jeremiah 17:9).

Most of us are not billionaires. Perhaps we do not even have much to spare beyond our basic needs. But in the words of American writer Edward Everett Hale:

I am only one, but still

I am one.

I cannot do everything, but still I can do something.

And because I cannot do everything,

I will not refuse to do something I can do.

There is always something we can do to help share the Gospel with those who do not know the Lord. Even when the physical needs of nations and people are beyond our means to change, we can point them to Jesus and His words of eternal life. In many impoverished regions where television is not available to very many, we are broadcasting the message of Christ’s soon return on radio, hoping that somehow we can get through to some of the people.

God intended for us to love our neighbor as ourselves, to have a love for everyone, no matter who they are.

Without natural affection (2 Timothy 3:3)

Recently on our telecast, I read a horrifying headline and story about a mother who cut off the hands of her children because they were disobedient! Can you believe it? That's not the affection of a mother's heart. How could a parent's mind get so twisted as to mistake brutal, bloody amputation and dismemberment as loving discipline? Truly we are living in "perilous times."

Do you believe we are living in a day when people are without natural affection? We see and hear about it all the time. There are many husbands who beat and abuse their wives, even wives who are abusive. There have also been numerous cases of children who have murdered their parents, or beat or injured a younger brother or sister.

Why am I surprised? We live in an age when sexual predators stalk children on the playgrounds of schools. Even teachers and religious leaders have been involved in horrible sexual abuse of young boys and girls. I just reported a story on our telecast recently about a man who had the names of 36,000 young boys on his computer. Investigators suspected that he had probably actually had sex with hundreds of them.

That's not a natural heart! That is a person without natural affection. You do not prey on children — I don't care who you are or what "logic" you use to rationalize it. God intended for us to love our neighbor as ourselves, to have a love for everyone, no matter who they are. Betraying the trust and dependence of children and family is unnatural!

The Bible warns us about a whole laundry list of terrible behavioral practices that become common in the world before the end of the age comes. The Apostle Paul wrote, For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away (2 Timothy 3:2-5).

Do you recognize any of these things in our society today? Are they happening around where you live? Then pay attention. This is a biblical, prophetic sign of the promised days just prior to Christ's coming!

Worldwide terrorism (Matthew 24:37; Genesis 6:11; Luke 21:9)

Worldwide terrorism! Why am I surprised? Jesus said, But as the days of Noe [Noah] were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be (Matthew 24:37).

What was it like in Noah's day? The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence (Genesis 6:11). Does that description fit the world you know? I think so.

Finally, Jesus said, But when ye shall hear of wars and (violent) commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass . . . nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom . . . (Luke 21:9-10).

Terrorism is certainly on the upswing right now. But we must not be surprised when it strikes. Jesus said these things must come to pass — terrorism will continue at some level right up until the coming of the Lord!

This is why I am so excited, positive, and thankful about the incredible tool the Lord has given to us with our weekly telecast, Jack Van Impe Presents. We don't come on each week with global news and gloom and doom. We say, "Yes, we do see terrorism, just as Jesus foretold. But let not your heart be troubled — these things must come to pass. They precede the coming of the Lord." We're trying to prepare people with a positive outlook, knowing that trials teach us trust in our Heavenly Father!

Yes, there have been some dark days. There may well be dark times again. But don't be afraid of "the power of darkness." I believe darkness doesn't really have any power of its own — it's only the absence of light! If you carry light with you, it always dispels darkness! Darkness has no power if you hold up the light of the world, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, our Savior and our Lord. He said, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid (John 14:27).

Today, let us allow God to comfort our souls and give us hope for tomorrow. Be ready and watching for His return. With all my heart, I believe He is coming very soon!

Don't be surprised! ☺

It is so good to be reminded of the big picture, God's picture, when I get bogged down in daily frustrations and issues. I can read your words and be immediately refreshed and feel the strength of the Lord.

Jack Van Impe Presents

Tune in this week and every week!

P E A C E O F M I N D —

You're helping Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe share the Good News about the soon return of the Savior ... and we appreciate your faithfulness!

Now you can have peace of mind knowing you can continue serving with the Van Impes in ministry, even after you go home to be with Jesus.

A last will that names JVI Ministries with a bequest is one great way people can make a significant gift upon their death.

Another option is an estate plan that includes a charitable gift annuity or another giving vehicle — this option may even yield tax breaks and regular income for you for the rest of your lifetime.

THE LAST POPE BEFORE...

ARMAGEDDON

800

YEARS AGO, Saint Malachy predicted that the 113th pope in Catholic history would be the last pope — the traitorous one who allows the spirit of the Antichrist into the Church.

Pope Benedict was #112 — and his recent replacement, Pope Francis, is the 113th!

Is he the last pope? | Will his administration be part of the Antichrist's rise to power? Why did Benedict resign from a "lifetime" position? | And why did he seem to feel the Cardinals might elect a pope who would destroy the Church?

"I am asking all the Cardinals to pray much so that in choosing the next Pope, we do not get a Pope who destroys the Church," Benedict instructed the Cardinals. Why would he have made such a strange suggestion? The answer can only be that he was aware of Malachy's prophecy and feared it would come true!

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe can show you the importance of this 113th papacy and where it fits in Bible prophecy — as soon as the new pope was elected, they rushed into the studio to create this powerful and timely teaching video, Pope Francis, Armageddon, and Christ's Return.

This teaching reveals the truth about the shocking sudden succession of the pope, but also reveals:

- » The prophetic significance of the massive meteor that recently struck Russia
- » The plans of Islam specifically for the Catholics
- » Are we facing World War III and possibly Armageddon?
- » Who is the real force behind the march toward global war?
- » What are Islam's four major goals regarding America?
- » Why do Christians need to respond to the threat of Islamic Shariah law?
- » What are the differences between Christianity and Islam?
- » What Christian leaders and organizations are involving themselves with Islam today?
- » And more.

“I was compelled by the Spirit of God to rush into our television studio and create a video teaching for you, to explain the prophetic scriptural foundations of the events that have rocked the world. I want you to have this brand-new video, Pope Francis, Armageddon, and Christ’s Return.”

ARMAGEDDON?!?

Request the video today, and be sure to share it with your family, church, and all your friends! Prophetic events are unfolding now, and it’s time to prepare yourself and your family.

We love

About 23 years ago, your program came on one of our channels late at night. Whenever I would come across it while surfing channels, I would curse you and your program, disbelieving anything you had to say. I abhorred you both. I was a lost person at the time who did not believe in God whatsoever or anything that had to do with Him.

Many years later my eyes were opened, and I was saved. I have been a believer for 15 years now, and I look forward to your program every time I can find it on. I have done much study on my own, and also with your help, and have realized for several years now that what you say and teach is the absolute truth, with confirmation.

"You will know how you have passed from death to life because you love the brethren." I love you both very much and realize you are wise people who love God and have much experience and study behind the words that you speak.

Thank you for your exhaustive efforts to get the true Word out to unbelieving and dying people, to sound the trumpet as watchmen on the wall. I have come to depend on your wisdom in world and spiritual matters for my growth. I'm eternally grateful!

—J.I.

"...I love you both very much..."

I want you to know what a treasure you are and a powerful vessel for Jesus Christ. I look forward all week to watching you and Rexella. I have such respect for you for having the courage to tell it like it is! I can't wait to meet you someday soon in heaven! May God bless you.

—S.G.

My mom turned away from God several years ago. This past year she started watching your show. PTL! She's listening to the Word again! Thank you for all you do!

—E.B.

Your ministry was in great part responsible for leading my daughter out of her great, dark fear of God and the "end days." She could become physically ill from fear (she has mild autism). I began watching your program with her and found peace in understanding for myself and for her. I have laid my faith in following the Lord through your ministry and acknowledge that I am an evangelical Christian.

Thank you, Dr. Van Impe, for your hard work and great study in the service of our Lord. Thank you, Dr. Rexella, for your faithful partnership with him in the Lord. God bless you both.

—S.B.

You and Rexella are devoted, day by day, to making every person who can hear or see you two God-fearing Christians. I'm so proud you are willing to stand up to all the non-believers and people who call themselves "Christians." I know you want to save SOULS. And you are!

So many people will be in heaven because of your kind heart. Your love for God, Rexella, and your faith is so infectious. It's REAL! Thank you for coming into my home and informing me of so much.

—M.G.

You and Rexella have been such a blessing to us. We have been watching you faithfully for years. I'm the third generation in our family to watch your TV program! We get more teaching from your half-hour show than sitting through most church services. We love you both and it is an honor to be a small part of your ministry. If we never get a chance to meet face-to-face on this earth, we'll see you soon in heaven!

—D.H.

I watch your program most every week. I did pray with you and asked Jesus to save me, forgive me, and fill me with the Holy Spirit of God. Amen. Thanks for all you do — both you and your staff.

—G.J.

“... We get more teaching from your half-hour show than sitting through most church services...”

Your words and faith have seen us through more than we could ever express in a single note. You took the time out of your busy day several years ago to personally call to thank us for a gift we sent you. We were not home at the time, but the call itself has always been cherished by us. We still have the recording and listen to it from time to time.

Dr. Van Impe, you are a man of great conviction and love for the Lord and for people. I was a police officer for 30 years in the fourth largest city, so I have seen a lot. So it's with great love and respect for you and your teachings that we say: We look forward to meeting you in person on that fateful day!

—G.P.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! — for making a bold stand against syncretism creeping into the Church.

I teach in the women's ministry at a Baptist church in Illinois. Because of your teaching and deep insight about the deceptive interfaith movement, I am speaking out about Chrislam and other “harmony of religion” movements which are gradually being accepted in the Church.

Lord, have mercy and awaken Your people!

Your boldness has been an inspiration, and I have taken some “flack,” too, but nothing compared to what you've had to endure this year.

May God bless and protect you both! Maranatha!!

—M.Y.

As I was preparing to send a gift to the ministry, I thought to myself: It sure is good to know wholeheartedly that I can trust you to do what you say you will do with this money. For even though God has blessed me, I am far from rich, and these are tough times. However, I love the Lord, and I love you, Jack, because of your faithful service to Him, whom I believe we shall soon see.

Keep on keeping on.

—S.R.

Thank you for the work you do. I pray you will continue to do it until Jesus comes. You are a true blessing and man of the Lord. Your sermons have touched us in so many ways we can't begin to explain. We pray that one day we can be as obedient and close to the Lord as you.

Your knowledge is a mystery to us. For two years now, I have been studying the Bible from front to back — more on the New Testament, and I acknowledge: I can quote very little! God bless you for your love and service and faith!!

—G.C.

...YOU TOOK THE TIME OUT OF YOUR BUSY DAY SEVERAL YEARS AGO TO PERSONALLY CALL TO THANK US...

How relevant your teachings are in the times we find ourselves in. I accepted Jesus over 50 years ago, but went the wrong direction for many years due to my young age and not really seeking God's guidance. May He forgive me. I know He will because He loves me in spite of myself. I prayed with Jack at the end of one video to reaffirm my faith. Although I do not always understand what the Lord is trying to tell me, I have faith that He will walk with me and give me guidance as I try my best.

God bless you, Jack. My 83-year-old friend prayed the prayer with you as we were watching your show while we were on the phone together.

Thank you for your dedication. I admire your ability to quote Bible verses so fast. I am encouraging my family and friends to watch your program.

—M.N.

Thank you so much for your hard but joyful work! I was saved at the age of 12, but then lost my way for many years. Eleven years ago or so I was going through the channels and there you and your wife were — using headlines and Scripture! Wow, what a concept!!

Well, you woke up my poor lost soul, and I've never looked back. Thank you, and God bless you!

—M.L.

I have been watching you and your lovely wife since the early '80s when I was part of a Special Forces unit in the Army.

Thank you for helping to save my soul and the souls of my family.

More than anyone, you and Rexella have helped me stay close to the Lord.

Protection and blessings on the two of you!

Already more than 120,000 people have received the crucial information in the Van Impes' video teaching New World Order Rising, but God has given Dr. Jack Van Impe an incredible burden that hundreds of thousands more must receive it!

This two-video combo pack combines teachings that will help you discover the answers to crucial questions such as:

- Who are the seven major organizations dedicated to creating a "new world order"?
- What is the importance of the years 2012 to 2019?
- Who said, "We have a rendezvous with the world dictator, and his appearance may be soon"?
- "Europe is looking for a man so powerful that he will hold the allegiance of all the people. Be he man or devil, we are ready to receive him." Who said it?
- What does the E.U. represent in Bible prophecy?
- What shadowy power-brokering groups champion the cause of a one world government?
- And much more!

This information is so crucial, the Van Impes want you to have and share it right away, so they've put the two videos together in a combo set just for you. Request it today — watch them — then share them!

WORLD Report

TEXAS CAIR: 'WE ARE ABOVE THE LAW OF THE LAND'

WND.com reports: "A leader for the Texas branch of the Council on American Islamic Relations has told a crowd at a rally for Islam that members of the faith really shouldn't be bound by American law.

'If we are practicing Muslims, we are above the law of the land,' said Mustafa Carroll, the executive director of the Dallas-Fort Worth CAIR branch, a keynote speaker at the recent rally.

The event was a rally in Austin, a part of the nationwide effort to hold 'Muslim Capitol Day' events....

CAIR also had on its advisory board Siraj Wahhaj, an unindicted co-conspirator in the attempted 1993 WTC bombings. It was the same Siraj Wahhaj who was asked to deliver the "Juma," or invocation, at the Democratic National Convention for President Obama. He also once remarked, "It is my duty and our duty as Muslims to replace the U.S. Constitution with the Quran"...." (America is in trouble. The above headline is a third warning within a few months that this dangerous law is being promoted in our nation. U.S. law is based on the Judeo-Christian Ten Commandments. Sharia law gives death sentences to unmarried daughters who have sex, homosexuals, apostates, Muslims who deviate in word or deed against Mohammed or the Koran, and infidels — all religions but primarily Christianity. When the Antichrist and false religious prophet rule, they will changes times and laws — Daniel 7:25. It's coming, and soon!)

U.S. WARNED: AL-QAIDA HIT-SQUADS COMING

WND.com reports: "A senior Iranian Revolutionary Guard commander has warned America and Europe that al-Qaida operatives will soon attack them.

And a source in the Islamic regime's Intelligence Ministry told WND that another terror team is about to enter the United States. Should the West not accept Iran's rights to its nuclear program within six months, the terrorists will attack, he said.

The potential targets in the U.S. include high-voltage towers to create blackouts, cell towers, water supplies, public transportation and various buildings belonging to the Defense Department and military.

The source said six U.S. politicians who have promoted tougher measures against the regime are on the hit list, along with such targets as the Washington National Cathedral and Lincoln Memorial in D.C. and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York...." (The 'religion of peace' is planning new ways of killing their enemies. It's time to bring our boys home from Afghanistan to protect our great nation and its people, especially America's Christians, and also to heed the words of Jesus, who said in Luke 22:36: "He that has no sword [to defend himself] let him sell his garments, and buy one." Amen!)

IRAN ORDERS TERRORISTS: PREPARE FOR WAR

WND.com reports: "Iran's supreme leader, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, has ordered all of the Islamic regime's armed forces to prepare for war, WND learned.

According to a source in the Revolutionary Guards intelligence unit, the regime believes Israel is on the verge of an attack, which could then draw America into the conflict.

Hundreds of ballistic missiles are ready to be launched against Israel and U.S. military bases in the region, the source said, and all terror groups that have long been positioned in Europe and America are ready to act should war break out.

While the regime has called the negotiations held in Kazakhstan ‘a turning point’ between Iran and the 5-plus-1 countries — the permanent members of the U.N. Security Council plus Germany — it is stalling for time to complete its nuclear weapons development, at which point it believes Israel and the West will have no choice but to accept a nuclear-armed Iran, the source said. However, regime officials do not believe Israel will wait it out and hence the preparations for war, he added....” (Russia will lead the warring nations including Iran and an Islamic confederation during Armageddon — Revelation 16. See Ezekiel 38 and 39. Persia in Ezekiel 38:5-7 is Iran and Psalm 83:5-7 completes the Muslim nations joining Russia for one purpose — “They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee.”)

NORTH KOREA SAYS NUCLEAR WEAPONS CAN REACH U.S.

SpaceDaily.com reports: “North Korea warned that the U.S. mainland was ‘well within’ the range of its nuclear weapons, as Pyongyang continued to ramp up the bellicose rhetoric after its recent nuclear test.

“North Korea warned that the U.S. mainland was ‘well within’ the range of its nuclear weapons.”

In an article posted on the official Uriminzokkiri website, a member of the Korean National Peace Committee — a propaganda body — said the North was now a ‘fully-independent rocket and nuclear weapons state.’

‘The United States should be acutely aware that the U.S. mainland is now well within the range of our strategic rockets and nuclear weapons,’ the signed commentary said.

North Korea made a similar claim in October last year, saying it possessed rockets capable of striking the continental United States.

That was largely dismissed as bluster, but that was before Pyongyang conducted a successful long-range rocket launch in December, followed by its third nuclear test on February 12.

Although most experts believe the North has a long way to go to developing a dependable inter-continental ballistic missile, the December launch was a strong step in the right direction.

And this month’s nuclear test also fuelled concerns that North Korea is refining the technical ability to place a miniaturised nuclear warhead on a long-range missile....” (During the 3.5-year Armageddon campaign — Daniel 9:27 — Russia will be defeated — Ezekiel 39:1-2,12-13. At this point the “Kings of the East,” China and other Oriental nations, will arrive to unite with Russia’s and Islam’s defeated armies — Revelation 16:2 — for the greatest continuation of slaughter in the annals of history. See Revelation 9:14-18.)
