to the Prophetic Truths of God's Word...

in the pages of the world's most extraordinary Bible!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

WHERE? Where in the world could you possibly find the incredible collection of insights into Bible prophecy — a literal lifetime of research and learning, covering 110,000 hours of study — the equivalent of 12 years of 24-hour days?

Where else could you find every prophetic verse in the entire Bible, one out of every four verses — a total of 10,350 verses in the Old and New Testaments — coded and highlighted to indicate instantly their prophetic context? Where else will you find comprehensive, user-friendly, verse-by-verse commentaries on both the book of Daniel and the book of Revelation?

Where else could you find my entire personal Scripture Memory System, and my comprehensive “A-to-Z Prophecy Index” — showing you at a glance, anyplace between Genesis and Revelation, whether a Bible verse refers to the Rapture, the Tribulation, the Second Coming, the Millennial Reign of Christ?

The answer is: no place else. The only way to experience this astonishing array of Bible study resources — this unparalleled combination of tools for understanding Bible prophecy — is in the Limited Edition Jack Van Impe Prophecy Bible ... truly the most comprehensive prophecy Bible ever produced!

No, you don't need an entire library of texts. No, you will not need to attend years of college courses. Thanks to this extraordinary study Bible, you don't need a Ph.D. or a seminary degree to grasp the amazing and beautiful truths of God's prophetic latter-days plan!

As you read and absorb the daily news, the headlines and news stories, the clamor of events unfolding around the world, you will have greater understanding, greater insight, greater peace, than ever before!

With events unfolding — hurtling forward at break-neck speeds — this study Bible has never been more critically important. God's plan, found throughout His Word, is happening — right before our eyes — just as the Bible predicts! The truths that I have been teaching since I began in Gospel ministry, 60 years ago, are coming to pass! You need to understand what's happening, according to the prophecies of the Bible, as you see financial chaos, the rise of a New World

I have the Jack Van Impe Prophecy Bible, and I want you to know, it's my favorite Bible. The print is easy to read, and I really like your explanation of the book of Revelation. You make it so easy to understand! Thank you for all you do — God bless you and Rexella!

Order, the advance of socialism, government takeovers, false prophets on the rise, terrorism — events moving more rapidly than we have ever seen before!

Especially right now, as we see the tragedy of “Christian” leaders turning away from the Word of God, the militant Islam pressing to crush Christianity around the world, you need this Prophecy Bible.

Don't be left out. If you already have the Jack Van Impe Prophecy Bible, get one to share with a loved one! Multitudes have already experienced its unique impact....

• “My son ordered me the Jack Van Impe Prophecy Bible as a Christmas gift to me,” a grateful father wrote. “It is a true blessing! Dr. Van Impe must have put a lot of time into it. It is a great reference tool!”

• “I have Dr. Van Impe’s Prophecy Bible,” another reader wrote, “and it is the joy of my heart reading through Daniel and then the interpretation from Dr. Van Impe. I love everything about it. Indeed, it is a treasure — God’s Word is alive!”

• From the U.K.: “I received the Prophecy Bible. Your labour over this beautiful Bible is surely a work of art in God’s honour!”

• “I recently received your Prophecy Bible, and I must say, ‘What a masterpiece!’ I’m so inspired by the prophecy of God’s Word, and you have helped make it very clear! I’m excited about Christ coming back! I’ve learned that it can happen at any God-given moment. In the twinkling of an eye when we hear the call to meet the Lord in the air — Amen!”

THE PURPOSE OF THE INCARNATION

The Birth of Jesus Christ

An eternal plan

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

Why did God come through the channel of a virgin's womb? Why was it necessary for God, in spirit form, to take upon Himself a body? Philippians 2:5-8 explicitly explains this great theological truth: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

The phrase, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross, is the focal point of this discussion. God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit held a meeting in eternity past and planned the entire program of redemption. All three were, at that time, in spirit form. God the Father was and still is a spirit (see John 4:24). The Holy Spirit was and still is a spirit (see John 16:13). Christ was a spirit because He was (past tense) in the form of God, which we have already proven to be a spirit form (see Philippians 2:6).

However, at this meeting of the Trinity in ages past, it was agreed that one of the three would eventually become a human with a covering of flesh, and Christ was the elected member to fulfill salvation's plan. This can all be proven from the Holy Scriptures. First Peter 1:20: Who [Christ] verily ... was manifest in these last times for you. Messiah means "sent one." If He is the sent One, He did not originate at Bethlehem's manger. Instead, Galatians 4:4-5 pictures the facts as they occurred. But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law.

Does this simplistic doctrinal truth penetrate your reasoning processes? Hear it again. God sent forth his Son, made of a woman. There it is — Christ's deity and humanity. His eternity and birth. God sent the Son who was in His presence, meaning that Christ existed as God before coming to earth. However, He was made of a woman when He was sent. This is, of course, the virgin birth which took place in the manger centuries ago when God became man.

When the Trinity outlined the plan, all the events of future history were foreknown. Remember, God knows everything. The plan progressed according to the omniscience of the Godhead. Since God knows everything about everything and all things about all things, the following points were known thousands, yes, millions of years before they occurred:

1 Man's disobedience and fall.

God placed man in the Garden of Eden with certain restrictions.

Genesis 2:17: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shall not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shall surely die. The slithering serpent came along and said in Genesis 3:4, Ye shall not surely die. Instead of listening to Jehovah God, Adam and Eve listened to the devil.

Say, all of us are so much like them. We certainly are chips off the old block. Genesis 3:6 states, And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. This wicked, disobedient act against the Lord God Almighty brought judgment upon the entire human race. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one [Christ] shall many be made righteous (Romans 5:19).

Not only did God foreknow the fall of man, but:

2 The Trinity foreordained the temporary sacrifice.

I imagine the conversation in the heavenlies went as follows: "Because man will yield to temptation and fall, there will need to be a sacrifice offered. Since sinful flesh is responsible and since the life of the flesh is in the blood (Leviticus 17:11), the decree is established in the counsels of eternity that the shedding of blood, which typifies DEATH to the flesh, will be the eternal sacrifice offered. It is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul (Leviticus

the life of the flesh is in the blood

17:11). Animal blood will be temporarily offered until one of us goes to present the permanent sacrifice." Let's investigate the facts and see if God's program was instituted.

After Adam and Eve sinned, they knew that they were naked (see Genesis 3:7). The pangs of a guilt-ridden conscience over sin were being experienced. They wanted to cover their bodies and did so by making fig leaf aprons. However, fig leaves that would shrivel up and die in a few days could not satisfactorily handle the situation. Also, dry fig leaves were bloodless and could not make an atonement for the soul. So God, in the cool of the day, visited this couple and covered them adequately — physically and spiritually. Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make coats of skins, and clothed them (Genesis 3:21). The skins of animals adequately covered them physically and spiritually. Why? Because in providing the skins, the blood of the animals was also shed.

We see the same story unfolded in Genesis 4 concerning Cain and Abel. Their parents, Adam and Eve, had taught them this soul-saving story about the animal skins. Now when the boys were of age and wanted to bring a sacrifice to God, Cain presented an offering of fruit; Abel, of animals. Genesis 4:3-5: And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering: But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect.

If you should think that I am stretching the point by stating dogmatically that Cain's offering was rejected because it was devoid of blood, I invite you to confirm this truth in your heart by studying Hebrews 11:4, which emphatically presents the teaching just considered. By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent [more acceptable] sacrifice than Cain.

Notice they brought their offerings as a sacrifice. God had decreed that blood alone could make an atonement for the soul. Abel, by faith, brought an animal. Notice why he did it. It was by faith. Romans 10:17 says, So then faith cometh by hearing. If he brought it by faith and faith comes by hearing, it is only a logical conclusion to say that he heard the story from the lips of his parents, accepted it, and practiced the shedding of blood because he believed God. Cain, the first liberal or modernist, said, "It's all bunk. I will offer my fruit which contains no blood, and God will have to be satisfied."

But God said, "Cain, I reject your bloodless sacrifice."

Many have rejected the only method of salvation God has given the world — the shedding or sacrifice of blood for the remission of sins. Self-righteous efforts, good works, prayers, creeds, and religious observances are but offerings of fruit. The Sermon on the Mount, the Golden Rule, and the observance of the Ten Commandments are but the waving of fig leaves in the face of Almighty God. Many of these things are good to practice because one is a Christian, but any method of trying to enter into eternal life that avoids or bypasses the blood will only result in eternal separation from the God who made the decree. It is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul (Leviticus 17:11). Now, let's go one step further.

3 The Trinity foreordained the permanent eternal sacrifice.

Again we hear the three members of the Godhead speaking in eternity past: "Animal blood will be only a temporary solution because it cannot take away sin, only cover it. Man's blood is tainted through Adam's sin. Therefore only one option or course of action is possible. One of the three of us will have to go to earth and take flesh as a covering.

This will be necessary because flesh contains the blood of the body. The One who is chosen to go will have to shed that blood to take away the sins of the human race which animal blood only covered.

The One who goes and takes upon Himself that body must have a special birth, because all humans born through natural generation or through the regular channels of birth inherit the old wicked sinful nature of Adam. Therefore, the One chosen will have to have a special birth in the womb of a virgin. The very body will be created and placed in that womb. By this special act of creation — detouring the normal means of reproduction through intercourse — the Savior will be born into the world. When His blood, holy and pure, is shed, it will take away sin.”

The eternal truth

Does this conversation of the Trinity in ages past seem farfetched to you? Are you wondering if this entire plan presented is really in the Bible? See Revelation 13:8: [Christ was] the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. When? In God’s mind it was planned at the time of the foundation of the world. That’s right, even before Adam and Eve were created. Christ’s shedding of His blood did not take Him by surprise nearly 2,000 years ago. Rather, it was part of the plan He had helped initiate before the world was formed. That’s why Acts 2:23 states, Him [Christ] being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. In other words, the wicked only did to Christ what the foreknowledge of God had planned.

Did it happen? Yes. God came into the world in human flesh to take a body that contained blood. It was special blood that did not have the taint of Adam’s sin integrated into it by Christ’s having a human father. Instead, the Father and the Holy Spirit placed this created miracle into the womb of the virgin without an act of intercourse or human insemination so that pure blood might course through the Redeemer’s veins. Then He shed that blood at Calvary to take away sin that had only been covered by animal sacrifices.

The proof of these truths is in the following Scripture (Hebrews 10:4): For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. Notice, animal blood could not take away sins. The Old Testament word atonement means “to cover” — only “to cover.” The priest offering the animal blood would say, “I know that this blood only covers the sinner’s sin until your sacrificial Lamb comes, dear God.”

Who was God’s Lamb? Hebrews 10:5: Wherefore [because animal blood could not take away sin] when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me. That body was prepared in the womb by God the Father and God the Holy Spirit. Luke 1:35: And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

When John the Baptist saw Christ upon the earth, he said in John 1:29, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. Praise God, this was the Lamb sent from heaven who could take away that which was only temporarily covered through the blood of animals. On the cross, Christ cried out, “It is finished.” He was not speaking about His life, but about the plan that had been foreordained before the foundation of the world. Am I certain of this? Yes. [We have been] redeemed ... with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

[We have been] redeemed ... with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot

Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world (1 Peter 1:18-20).

Imagine, this precious blood shed for your sins was planned for you before the world was formed. Seven hundred times the blood is mentioned as the only — THE ONLY — way of salvation. Believe it and receive the Christ who shed that pure blood for your transgressions. 🌿

DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

What makes the holiday season so exciting and enjoyable? There seems to be a special feeling in the air ... a festive atmosphere that lightens our footsteps and promotes smiles. The sights and sounds and smells of the holidays stir our memories and encourage us to pause and reflect, perhaps wistfully, hopefully ... gratefully.

It's easy to get so caught up in the duties, problems, and pressures of the day that we fail to focus on the blessings that are ours. "The world is too much with us," said the poet William Wordsworth, "getting and spending, we lay waste our powers ... we have given our hearts away..."

That's why I am so thankful for Thanksgiving! Although my husband, Jack, and I try to keep a grateful heart all year long, at Thanksgiving time we make it a point to recall — and give thanks for — the many friends who help make our outreach ministry possible, the good things we enjoy in our personal life together, and the rich blessings God continues to send our way.

I hope you will take time to be thankful during the holiday season this year. I promise that you will be richly blessed as you do. God's Word says, In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

But as Christmas approaches, I really wanted to talk to you about ... boxes! Have you ever noticed how very important boxes are to the whole atmosphere and joy of Christmas? When you walk into a home at Christmas time, usually there's a beautifully decorated tree, laden with colorful garlands, wonderful ornaments, and spectacular lights. And beneath the tree, in joyous profusion, the boxes! The gifts are wrapped, decorated, and trimmed with ribbons, bells, holly, and who knows what other wonderful things.

When I was a little girl, those gift boxes were always so enticing. I could hardly keep my hands off them — touching them, maybe even holding them, trying my best to figure out what might be inside! My mother had a wonderful talent for wrapping gifts, and she never put a box under the tree until it was decorated just right!

Although I'm not nearly as talented in wrapping gift boxes as my mother was, I share her belief that the gifts we present to others should be wrapped beautifully. I can't imagine giving someone an item still in the sack it came in from the store! Putting our gift inside a beautiful wrapping somehow reflects the love we want to show even before the recipient opens it.

So boxes are very, very important.

During the Christmas season, seeing the glorious decorations and the opportunities to share gifts with others, we can't help but think of the greatest gift of all that God gave to the world. The Bible says, For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son

(John 3:16). As one writer put it, "On the first Christmas, God came down the stairway to heaven with a baby in His arms!"

Because Jesus came, we can have His great gift in our lives — eternal life, forgiveness of sin now, and the promise that one day we will be with Him.

After Jesus came, why did He leave?

Did you ever wonder why Jesus left the earth? He could have stayed here for time and eternity. He didn't die when He left — He had already conquered death, hell, and the grave! So why did He return to heaven?

We know that our Lord went to serve as our mediator — the one who stands between and intervenes. The Apostle Paul wrote, For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 2:5).

But that's not all! Jesus said, Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you (John 16:7).

The Holy Spirit only came to remain in the world after Jesus ascended into heaven. And not just to this world — but also to a very special, intimate place inside our hearts. He is a very personal gift from Jesus to you and me (1 Corinthians 3:16)!

So why did Jesus leave? Because if He hadn't gone away, the Scripture says, the Comforter would not have come. And the Lord knew how desperately we would need the Comforter in our lives, especially now, in these days before Christ's return.

What a gift! He is our inner Guardian of who we are and what we are and what we are to become in Christ. In that sense, He is the box inside!

The precious Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity, is not installed by human efforts. He comes to dwell within us the moment we open our hearts to the Lord. And because He is a spirit, He knows no limitation — not time, nor place, nor space (Romans 8:9).

When Jesus was on the earth, He lived in human form and was subject to human limitations. In His whole life here, He probably didn't travel more than a few hundred miles. When He preached, His largest recorded crowd was about 5,000 men. He knew what it was like to suffer weariness, pain, and temptation. And He recognized that every human being at some time or another would need to be comforted and helped by a supernatural presence.

So He left the earth and went back into the Father's presence in heaven so He could send back the Holy Spirit to dwell in the hearts of men and women today. Because of that, He can now be everywhere at once, ministering moment by moment to all who call Him Lord.

In Old Testament times, the Holy Spirit revealed himself in periods of visitation. He came for a season; then departed. The Psalmist David cried out, Take not Your spirit from me! I love it when You're here with me (see Psalm 51:11). Jesus promised that we would never be left alone — that if He went back to the Father, the Comforter would come and abide with us and within us forever. The Holy Spirit is not just in one location ... not just in a hundred-mile radius — He's everywhere! And you do not have to try to find Him — He is always within you. You have the greatest gift of all where no one can take it from you — in the box inside (Psalms 139:7-10)!

Three truths you must know about God

Here are some glorious truths you must understand and never forget:

1 God never changes. In our world, everything seems to be constantly changing. Standards change from one moment to the next. If you buy a new computer, by the time it is installed it is obsolete! It's really amazing ... and bewildering. But God's Word says, For I am the Lord, I change not (Malachi 3:6). CHANGE NOT!

That means His standards don't change — Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8). Modern society proposes a new morality it calls "situational ethics" — if the situation calls for it, do it. Situational ethics say there are no absolutes — what is right depends on circumstances. This is why so many young people today, having no anchors in their world, flounder frantically from one situation to another, beset by uncertainty and doubt.

However, God promises that He will guide us into all truth (see John 16:13). Because He doesn't change, He guides us to know His will. Not only did the Word become flesh in the form of Jesus Christ, but God also gave us the written Word so that today we have the absolutes of His mind and never have to doubt or wonder. There is no wavering because God doesn't change!

2 The Holy Spirit comforts us. And how we need His comfort.

With all the peril, uncertainty, and threats in the world today, we don't have to be afraid. We are comforted.

A few years ago, there was somebody who had been so important to me from the time I was a little girl — my mother! Oh, how she comforted me. She always had a way of reaching out to me and to others to give comfort — that was her nature. All she had to do was put her hand on my head, and I felt reassured. Never once did she say when I came to her, "I'm too busy. I can't listen to you right now."

How wonderful that our heavenly Comforter, the Holy Spirit, is never too busy to comfort and love us. And He is always there.

I heard a story about a man who was traveling on a train and began talking with a fellow passenger. He told him that his wife had just died and that he felt so alone. He said, "Do you know, the only thing I have left is my pet bird. At least I find some comfort with my parakeet." His friend on the train, who was a pastor, said, "Oh, no, you've got something far better — you've got the Paraclete — the Comforter! He will never leave you or forsake you." In these troublesome days in which we live — the time just prior to the coming of the Lord — the Comforter is found in the third person of the Trinity ... in the box inside!

3 He gives us the power to do right. I may not always have the strength on my own to resist temptation and do what is right. But the Spirit of God will empower me and guide me into all truth. God doesn't say, "Thou shalt not" because He wants to limit me or make me unhappy. He says no because He knows the things of the world bring pain and unhappiness.

Adulterers are not happy people. Thieves are never satisfied with their ill-gotten gains. And murderers are never happy — never! Even in this day and age when fanatics are murdering people in the name of religion, they never find happiness or peace.

Only God can give us the ability to be happy and content. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you (Acts 1:8). Power to overcome the world is only found in the box inside! Galatians 5:16 says, This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. You might say, “There’s no way I can live for God — I just can’t do it.” And looking to your own strength and will, that’s true. But if you walk in the Spirit and allow the Spirit to live through you, the power is there ... in the box inside.

Not only does the Spirit of God give us power to overcome the things of the world, but He also empowers us to display the fruit of the Spirit. Galatians 5 goes on to say that if we live in the Spirit, we have the power to walk in the Spirit (see v. 25). And as we walk in that power, we can show the fruit of the Spirit ... love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance (vv. 22-23).

Can you imagine having the power to be all that we need to be in the day and age we’re living in right now? Not only can we overcome the world and find comfort, but we can also demonstrate — activate — the fruit of the Spirit. Where we go, He goes. We so desperately need this today — there’s so little joy out there, so little love, peace, gentleness, goodness, etc. But all of those attributes come alive within us when we receive the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Receive the Gift!

At Christmas time when beautifully wrapped presents are being opened, it’s not uncommon to see little children playing with the boxes instead of the gifts. They’re more fascinated with the package than by what was inside.

And sometimes I think we as Christians can be more attracted to the trappings than to the Gift. How sad to hold on to the ribbons and shiny paper and fail to look inside the box where the value is ... where the gift is!

At other times, I’ve seen people open a marvelously wrapped package, look inside, and then say in a somewhat subdued voice, “Oh, that’s nice. Thanks a lot.” You could tell that the gift inside did not measure up to the outside wrapping.

But when God gave His Gift, the inside was better than the outside! Jesus didn’t come all wrapped up in a palace — He came wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a humble manger. Yet He was the greatest gift ever given. And His story is greater than all telling!

Have you received “the box inside”? Don’t resist this precious gift because it seems too spiritual, too “mysterious.” Not only is the Holy Spirit a gift for you, but it is the only way you can relate to God now. Hear the words of Jesus — But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth (John 4:23-24).

I am so happy to have received the box inside! The Spirit of God continues to live inside — He lives within my heart!

What about you? 🌟

Dear Rexella,
You are truly Dr. Van Impe’s spiritual helpmate and a tremendous support in challenging us believers, searchers, as well as the misled, confused, and heretics. Your program is a great encouragement and joy.

WORLD Report

Quran? Torah? Churches 'will have to choose'

WorldNetDaily.com reports: "It barely qualifies as news in the U.S. when Islam and Islamic causes get prominent support from outside the Muslim community. At the White House dinner celebrating the Muslim holy month of Ramadan, President Obama used the occasion to reiterate his endorsement of a proposed mosque at Ground Zero, site of the 9/11 attacks in Lower Manhattan.

And just months ago (June 26, 2011), in a 'Shared Faith' project, 66 U.S.

churches in 32 states read from the Muslim Quran during Sunday services.

But a grassroots Christian movement is going in another direction. Recently (August 13-14) churches on six continents will join Jewish congregations reading certain passages from the Torah. The 'Shema heard around the world,' which will consist of reading the 'greatest commandment' found in Deuteronomy 6:4-9, is being organized by El Shaddai Ministries of Tacoma, Wash.

Rabbi Jeremy Gimpel, co-host of the Jerusalem-based 'Tuesday Night Live' television program, sees the initiative as a positive development because the West is faced with a choice 'very soon':

"To either side with Israel, history, facts and the Bible — or to try to appease the Arab world in its quest for world domination. The Christian world will have to choose between a G-d of love and life that our Scriptures speak of, and a G-d of submission and death that is being promoted by the Muslim Brotherhood,' he commented..." (I am a Christian who loves Israel and who stands with this great nation. Denominations proclaiming "Replacement Theology" and teaching that Israel is eternally finished in God's eyes are apostate anti-Semitic Jew haters, led by pastors who are biblically deceived by Satan — I Chronicles 21:1. Those who teach "Replacement Theology" twist the Scriptures 3,534 times stating 2,604 times that "Israel" has been replaced by "The Church" and "Jerusalem" has been replaced by "heaven" 930 times. How dangerous when one studies Deuteronomy 4:2 and Revelation 22:16,18-19. How ridiculously malicious and ignorant are such interpretations of God's Holy Word. Take God's Word for what it states: "Israel" is "Israel" and "Jerusalem" is "Jerusalem." If your pastor teaches such bigoted theology, find a church that loves the Jew like God does — Psalm 122:6; Deuteronomy 7:7-8; Isaiah

65:9,22; Zechariah 2:8.)

Israel expects to fight Weapons of Mass Destruction in ‘multi-front war’

WorldNetDaily.com reports: “The Israeli military, alarmed by the increasing hostility that is coming from Middle East and North African countries as a result of the ‘Arab Spring,’ is forecasting there is a ‘likelihood of an all-out war with the possibility of weapons of mass destruction being used,’ according to a report from Joseph Farah’s G2 Bulletin.

In an address before the Institute for National Security Studies, Home Front Command chief Maj. Gen. Eyal Eisenberg said that governments previously supported by the United States and Israel, particularly Egypt and Turkey, are turning against Israel.

‘After the Arab Spring, we assess that a winter of radical Islam will arrive and as a result the possibility for a multi-front war has increased including the potential use of weapons of mass destruction,’ Eisenberg said....” (The General is right according to biblical prophecy — Ezekiel 39:1-2,6; Joel 3:2,20,30; Malachi 4:1; Revelation 9:14-18. These texts are all fulfilled during Armageddon — Revelation 16:16 — which is fought over Israel. Proof can be found in Ezekiel 38:8,14,16-19; Ezekiel 39:2,4,7,9,11-12,17,22-23,25,29.)

WESTERN, MUSLIM SOCIETIES ‘IRRECONCILABLE’: POLL

The National Post reports: “A majority of Canadians believes conflict between Western nations and the Muslim world is ‘irreconcilable,’ according to a new national survey that revealed a strong strain of pessimism in the country that lead up to the 10th anniversary commemorations of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the U.S.

The survey of 1,500 Canadians, conducted over three days last week for the Montreal-based Association for Canadian Studies, showed 56% of respondents see Western and Muslim societies locked in an unending ideological struggle, while about 33% — just one-third of the population — held out hope that the conflict will eventually be overcome.

Another 11% of those polled didn’t answer the question.

ACS executive director Jack Jedwab said the finding has ‘serious ramifications’ for Canadian policies aimed at bridging divides between cultures, which are based on the premise that citizens believe significant progress in mending such religious and cultural conflicts is achievable.

The dark view expressed in the survey ‘contradicts a fundamental idea in multicultural democracies like ours, that conflicts between societies can be resolved through dialogue and negotiation,’ said Jedwab. ‘This is also a key element in multiculturalism, where Canada is often seen elsewhere in the world as a model in conflict resolution.’

He adds: ‘If a majority of Canadians feel it is irreconcilable, what does this imply for the various projects and programs in place that aim to bridge gaps?’

The online survey, carried out Sept. 6 to 8 by the firm Leger Marketing, is considered accurate to within 2.9 percentage points 19 times out of 20....”

(The Canadian citizens are correct as they predict war between the Western nations and the Muslim world. Daniel 11:40; Isaiah 17:1; Ezekiel 38:5-7; and Psalm 83:5-7 picture a united Arab federation joining Russia — Ezekiel 38-39 for one of the greatest wars ever fought — Daniel 11:40-45; Revelation 14:20.) 🌐

Give a year-end gift... get a tax advantage!

If you're 70½ years or older, you are in a great position to give a significant charitable gift and get a great tax advantage — when you act before December 31.

You can give a charitable contribution as a rollover from your IRA, and it won't add a single dollar to your taxable income for 2011! Plus, you receive the appropriate tax deduction as well.

But this benefit expires on December 31, so there's no time to wait.

Other important year-end options for giving to help Dr. Van Impe share the Good News and may bring you a tax advantage too:

- 1 An outright gift of cash, dated and postmarked by December 31, may be applied to your 2011 taxes.
- 2 A gift of appreciated stocks may help you avoid the capital gains tax you would ordinarily pay if you sold the stocks and donated the proceeds, and you get the tax deduction of the stock's value, too.
- 3 A donation of an unneeded life insurance policy may also generate a tax deduction for you.

These are easy ways to help support Jack Van Impe Ministries and help Drs. Jack and Rexella continue to share the truth that Jesus is coming soon! And you may reap a tax break, too.

Letters We Love

Thank you for your ministry. I think that I was one of those unconverted “Christians” until your broadcast. I knew that I needed Jesus, but was too afraid to proclaim Him. I prayed with Jack and would like to “confess with my mouth” that I have asked Jesus into my heart and received His forgiveness. Thank you!

—J.S.

After ordering your Prophecy Bible, I got a letter from you that I was very happy to get. I have no enemies and try to be a good man and a good father to my children — they never had a mother! They are in the military.

I felt that God wanted me to find Jesus and He led me to you. I honestly believe this! Because of you, Christ is in my heart and my children as well. They know who you are and the truth of God's Word.

I have four heroes: my children, who are serving their country, and Jack and Rexella, who are serving God. You have saved so many people. When I pray with Jack, it brings tears to my eyes. He has shown me that Bible prophecy is being fulfilled and that God is telling me to be ready, and to help others be ready.

I don't have a lot of money, but I will support you when I can — so you can help people like me!

Jack and Rexella, thank you for all you have done for ME!

One Sunday in July I was watching your program and was impacted by your discussion regarding changing one's life — to get away from the things of the world and embrace the things and commands of God. I am 69 years of age and have had a lifelong conflict with every sort of vice there is. Sexual impropriety, abuse of alcohol, lying, covetousness, theft, and immorality. I have had an ongoing battle of conscience for decades.

But today, I honestly believe, the Holy Spirit touched my heart through your message. Clearly I was destined for the express train to hell. Although I have heard it before, it NEVER impacted my heart as it did today. HATE the things of the world; embrace the things of God. I vow that with the help of the Holy Spirit, I shall do so. It is never too late for God to reclaim one of His lost children. Thanks to you, today, I honestly feel as if I have come home. God bless you both — thank you!

—R.S.

I watch your show all the time. You are very smart and wise. I prayed the prayer with you and your kind wife. Your show has changed my life for the better, and I am very grateful for your program! God bless!

—C.B.

I have been a Roman Catholic priest for 21 years. Having seen many evangelists on television, I wish to express my profound gratitude for your work. You have been very respectful of the teachings of Pope John Paul II and Benedict XVI and, in fact, have often underscored elements of their teachings which you Please be assured of my continuing prayers for you and your ministry.

—Rev. J.M.

I do look forward to your weekly TV show and your newsletter. You tell us what we need to hear, not the political correctness others tell us.

The Bible is the Word of God, and we must conform our lives to worship Him, not conform the Word to suit our lives. Amen.

I lived in Michigan all my life until two years ago when my husband and I moved to Charlotte, NC. That is when I first saw your show and learned of your ministry.

I too believe our Lord is coming soon; the signs are just so obvious, and we must prepare our souls to meet Him.

Thank you for all you do, for telling the truth, for bringing many into the fold of Jesus Christ. Please do not stop. You are reaching and helping people with their salvation! God bless you always.

—N.M.

I just wanted to say thank you for the many blessings that God has poured out upon you that you, in turn, share with your sisters and brothers in Christ. We watch you in the evenings right at bedtime. Many times I fall asleep meditating on a timely word from Dr. Jack, and other times I fall asleep with a smile on my face thinking about something warm and precious that

Dr. Rexella said.

I so very much appreciate the Truth, the one and only Gospel, being preached by you regardless of what others think. We need Truth — it is getting very dark, and Christ is coming soon!

Bless you both. You are in my prayers for God's protecting blood to be upon you — that you will remain bold in the task ahead of you, because it is never as great as the power behind you.

With love and blessings,
—M.G.

I have made a change in my life and I want to share it with you.

Your teaching on “drinking wine” was right from the Bible and it opened my eyes. For years I thought drinking wine and beer was okay until you showed me with Scripture how it is wrong.

Thank you, Jack — you are spot on when it comes to the Word of God, your stand on the truth, and the return of our Lord Jesus. There are so many false teachers nowadays. You and Rexella are sharing with the world light and truth. Please keep steadfast, my friends in Christ, His return is oh so near.

Your brother in Christ,
—P.G.

My family and I have enjoyed watching your program for several years. I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you both for telling the truth. In a time, in a world, where truth is seldom heard and rarely ever spoken, you have the strength and the courage to speak the truth to the masses. Thank you for spreading the Gospel to the nations and bringing have found significant. What is more, you have been calling for a return to Bible-based preaching ... AMEN!

I watched one episode recently in which you outlined the five central tenets of Christianity, which many have forgotten or even rejected. I have seen the same within Catholic circles too. After all, Christianity without Christ is not Christianity at all!

While we may differ on some theological matters, I have always appreciated your strong, knowledgeable approach to proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ. The utter joy with which you explain the faith lifts my heart. Also, although you are unwavering in exposing the errors present in modern-day Christianity, you always speak of others with great charity or without sarcasm. You are both a source of great joy!

prophecy into today's context. I appreciate what you are doing for us as a family, for our nation as a whole, and, indeed, for the entire world.

Please keep up the good work. I am certain you'll be blessed as you have been a blessing to others.

—A.W. and family

Thank you, Dr. Jack and Rexella, for continuing to take a firm stand for the Lord in the face of the darts from Satan, who tries to quiet you down. Too many pastors are not preaching the Good News from their pulpits these days. There are a few out there, ours being a pastor who does. The “feel-good gospel” won't save one soul ... only the Gospel of Jesus Christ has the power to save. Keep preaching — the Lord is by no means through with you yet.

God bless your ministry. We watch all the time.

—Capt. L.G. (ret.)

While I know you are receiving many letters of support, I felt it was important to express my thoughts on this issue. I have practiced law for more than 20 years and have slowly seen a deliberate chill placed upon free speech in this country. While this is frightening and dangerous enough, the trend occurs in tandem with an abandonment of common sense and abdication of what were once consensual values in our society. Until only a few years ago, just about everyone seemed to understand the importance of allowing free expression of ideas, whether they offended others or not. Today, under the guise of maintaining civility, attorneys are suspended or even removed from the profession merely for expressing their beliefs, religious or otherwise. When I publish articles or materials for the state bar, I have grown accustomed to having them edited for content.

It takes tremendous courage to speak out when others are silent. However, throughout history, a few individuals have done so. And the world is a far better place because of them. You are warning those who will listen, and identifying dangers which are otherwise not remarked upon. You have probably touched far more people than even you imagine. God bless you and your work!

Angels are everywhere at Christmastime ...
But how many people understand who angels really are?

Christmas angels.
Guardian angels.

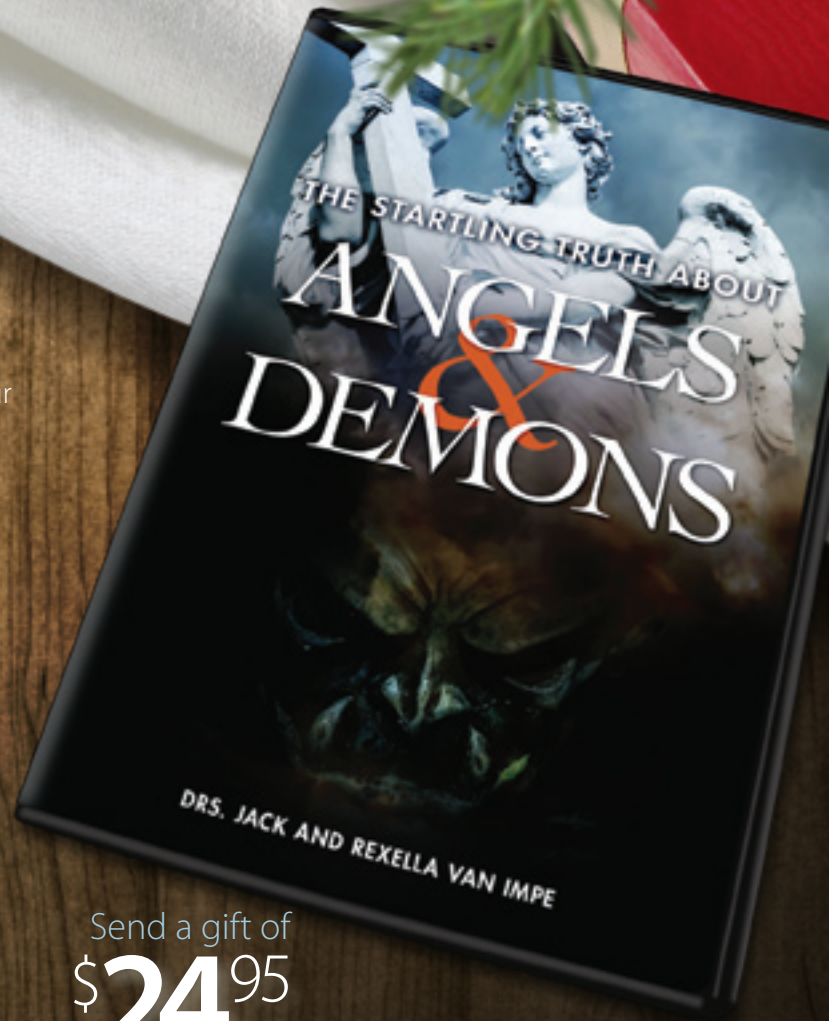

This time of year you see many angels represented in art and Christmas displays ... but most people don't know what the Bible has to say about angels — and their fallen counterparts, demons.

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe can help you and your family get the facts, in this comprehensive video study that covers:

- Do angels exist? How can we know for sure?
- How are demons different from angels?
- How long do angels live? Do they die?
- What do Jews and Muslims believe about angels?
- What will ultimately happen to Satan?
- How will Satan be involved in World War III?
- David slays Goliath — How were angels involved in the outcome?
- Angels are onsite in the Iraq war — How? Where? Why?
- What kind of intelligence do angels have?
- How do angels communicate?
- Where do angels live?

PLUS: The shocking things angels do!

This is great for your prophecy library and also makes a wonderful Christmas gift!

BEWARE!

Does the public embrace of Islam put North America in peril?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe say: YES!

And you cannot afford to miss a single crucial moment of their astounding video teaching, Attack on Christian America. You'll discover:

- President Obama's Islamic leanings — he won't allow the use of the phrase "Islamic terrorism" in his administration, and he remains completely silent about the slaughter of Christians in many Islamic nations.
- The sad truth that 50% of Americans doubt that President Obama is truly a Christian — and many believe he is, in fact, a Muslim.
- The President's key support for a United Nations "hate law" that favors Islam and endangers Christians all over the world!
- And much more.

You and your family, and everyone who believes in the values of North America's founding fathers, must understand these facts, especially in light of Bible prophecy regarding America and the Middle East. Be sure to send for this video today!

HISTORY'S FINAL DAY?

What if the new year is the last year?

It's astounding — multiple sources from disparate places and times all seem to predict December 21, 2012, will be "doomsday," the end of the world!

Experts say this prediction can be found in ...

- The records of ancient Rome!
- The traditions of the ancient Mayans.
- The prophecies of Nostradamus.
- The predictions of British seer Mother Shipton.
- The output of a modern-day financial forecasting program.
- And more!

But could all these sources know something that we don't? Could they be pointing toward Armageddon as prophesied in the Bible? Or is something more sinister at work?

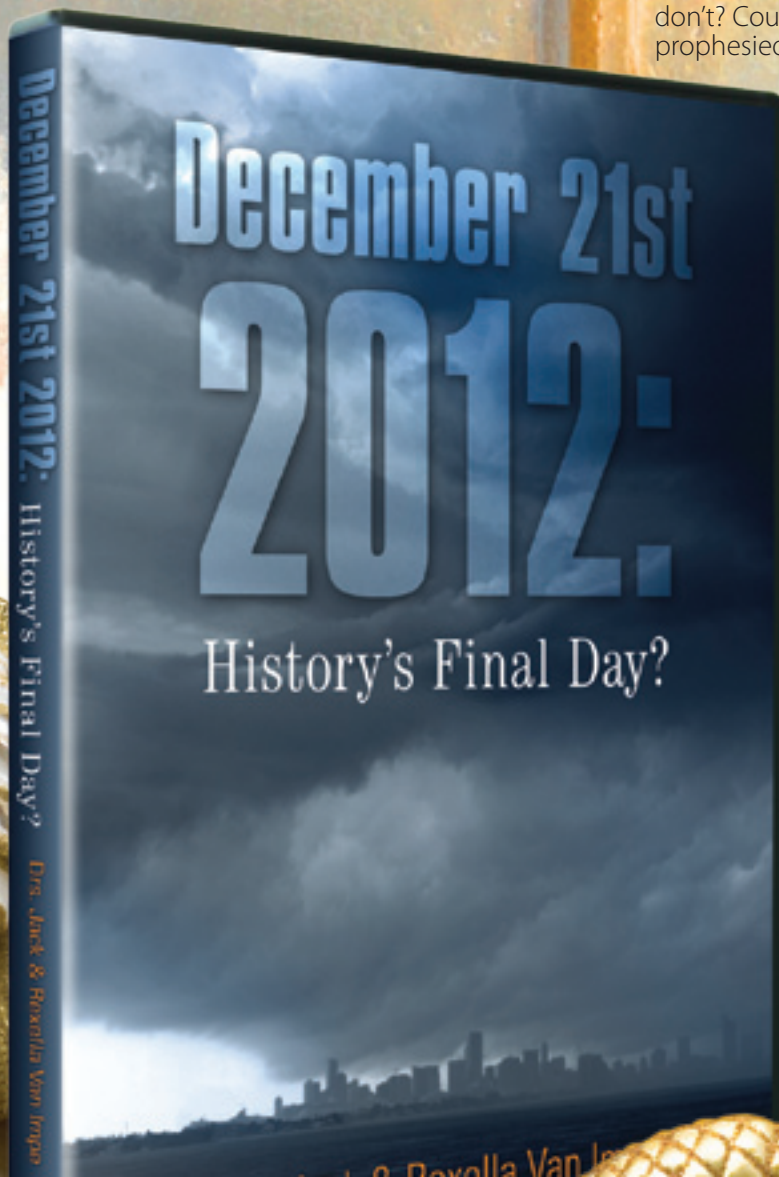

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe show you what the Bible says, and exactly which prophecies have already been fulfilled.

This is a great addition to your prophecy library, and a perfect Christmas gift for anyone who is worried by 2012 predictions of doom!

It was a shock — TBN refusing to run one Jack Van Impe Presents!

Why did they censor the program? Because Dr. Van Impe boldly named names — ministry leaders compromising God's Word.

TBN also warned the ministry that the network would not broadcast any other programs on the subject of "Reclaiming and Restoring Biblical Christianity."

"Too far!" Dr. Van Impe declared. He boldly pulled Jack Van Impe Presents off of the entire Trinity Broadcasting Network — and began working to add the program on dozens of secular stations ... with multiplied millions of non-Christian viewers!
