America, changed... and shortchanged!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

He campaigned as a “change agent” for America. He was the “candidate of hope and change.” Nearly 67 million people were convinced, and voted for him. This is how Barack Hussein Obama became the 44th President of the United States.

And change has come.

But it is not the change that many hoped for, or expected, or could even foresee.

What we have witnessed in these years is perhaps the most astonishing and dangerous redirection of a nation in our lifetime.

I am committed to proclaiming the truth on our television program every week, but what must be said about this President cannot be said on our television program, because of the high likelihood of censorship, not only by the secular media, but even timid Christians.

Yet the stakes are so high for America and for Christianity, the truth must be proclaimed. Therefore, Rexella and I have produced a new and unprecedented DVD: The President of Change Shortchanges America. It is not a political statement; rather, it reveals how the truth of God’s Word is clashing with “principalities” and “powers” and “spiritual wickedness in high places” (Ephesians 6:12).

This extraordinary video explains the issues in play in America today — and how they relate to Bible prophecy, as it unfolds before our eyes! You will see how *the prophetic future is being determined right now for YOU, as a member of the Rapture generation!

The President of Change Shortchanges America answers these critically important questions, and more:

- How do we see the prophetic timetable moving forward, and the clock ticking toward Armageddon, in the actions of this Administration?
- How has America been betrayed to please the Muslims? Why does the President give preferential treatment to Muslim nations?

- How has Obama attacked Christians and their organizations? What motivates President Obama’s hostility toward people of biblical faith? Who said Barack Obama could be America’s most biblically hostile President — and why?
- How has our own President clearly positioned himself as the most anti-Jewish President in U.S. history?
- Did the U.S. government burn Bibles? And why? How could the U.S. military led by the Commander in Chief, President Barack Obama, call the Bible “trash” as well as having hundreds of copies burned in Afghanistan?
- How are demonic spirits controlling some of the most influential politicians, kings, and dictators of this world?
- How are plans for one world government and one world religion moving forward right now?
- How have radical allies influenced and imprinted Barack Obama?
- How is America being reshaped into a socialist state, and moving toward communism?

- How many ways are there to heaven? How can we know for sure? What does our President believe? How can President Obama (or anyone else) really be a Christian if they believe there are many ways to heaven?
- What are the chances of America being drawn into yet another, and even more devastating, Middle East war under this President?
- What are the origins of the current dangerous wave of pro-Islamic sympathy, which is endangering our lives, and the lives of our children and grandchildren?
- What cause do we Christians have for celebration in the midst of all this?
- What did noted pundit Peggy Noonan mean when she described President Obama as “devious” and “dishonest”?
- What does the Bible say about the greatest revival in history, yet to come? Why isn’t it happening now?
- What does the Islamic Koran say about Jesus and about people who believe in Him?
- What is the “blasphemy law” or defamation resolution promoted amongst the United Nations and backed by our President?
- What is the New Age plan for the world, and how is it being accomplished in Washington, D.C., at this very moment?
- What is the record-shattering fastest-developing sign of Jesus’ soon return?
- What is the truth about Obama’s secret deals with Russia, and his support for the Palestinians?

- What radical cadre of left-wing extremists is out to destroy the USA’s moral foundations?
- Where do we find the most blasphemous statements ever uttered about our precious Lord and Savior?
- Where will we Christians be during Armageddon?
- Which well-known Bible translators have changed God’s name to avoid offending Muslims?
- Who is the Communist Party’s officially designated favorite candidate for President?
- Who was the first “radical” known to man, and where is his kingdom?
- Why are Christians being persecuted as never before in our lifetime, even here in the U.S.?
- Why did President Obama call for the crosses of a Catholic university to be covered before he would speak there? Was he following the example of Mohammed, who hated crosses and had them smashed?
- Why doesn’t President Obama recognize the National Day of Prayer?
- And more!

The documentation in this video is extensive. The revelations are shocking. A gift manuscript, proving 50 times over Obama’s position on Christian believers, will accompany this video. I urge you to give a generous ministry gift and request The President of Change Shortchanges America and share this shocking breakthrough video with friends,

Jack Van Impe Prophecy Bible (BIB4)

WHITEWASHED OR WASHED WHITE?

Everything a Christian is or can ever become is because of the precious blood of Christ (1 Peter 1:19). Now if this is so — and it is — what does Christ’s blood accomplish, and why is it called “precious”?

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

We are saved by the blood

First, one is saved by the blood of Jesus. Have you ever heard a clergyman say, “The message of the cross is passé ... Enlightened humanity no longer believes in such a primitive message ... Doing one’s best is all God requires, so forget the fanatic’s ravings about Christ’s blood ... At best, this is but a 'slaughterhouse' religion...."?

Do you know why ministers make such blasphemous statements? The answer is found in 1 Corinthians 1:18: The preaching of the cross [and the blood] is to them that perish foolishness. Now, these Bible-rejecting perpetrators of error are literally enemies of the cross of Christ (Philippians 3:18). They literally mock the language of God's Book which states, He [was] brought as a lamb to the slaughter (Isaiah 53:7), and it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul (Leviticus 17:11).

Their bloodless religion proves that they are taking orders from another spirit, for 1 Timothy 4:1 declares, Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. Say, neighbor, instead of listening to men, begin believing Christ! He, at the first communion service, said, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins (Matthew 26:28). Believe Him!

We are justified by the blood

Second, a sinner is justified by the blood. Does this term boggle the mind? It need not. It is simple to grasp when the term justification is presented in laymen's language. Do the following. Break the word justify into syllables. The result: JUST-IF-I. Now add the words, HAD NEVER SINNED. There you have it, in all of its magnificent simplicity: "JUST IF I HAD NEVER SINNED." In other words, when one comes to Christ and has the shed blood applied for the remission of his personal sins, immediately, yea instantaneously, God looks upon that person as though he had never committed one single sin.

Is this possible? Yes, because God no longer sees the erring one, but He sees His Son and the merits of Christ's atoning blood covering the sinner. Say, isn't that startling news? You can have a new beginning in life today, for Jesus said, Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest (Matthew 11:28). Yes, all this is true for any and all who open their minds and hearts to Christ. When they do, they are justified by his blood (Romans 5:9). Yes, justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus ... through faith in his blood (Romans 3:24-25). Why continue being a loser when blessing unspeakable simply awaits your decision?

We experience redemption through the blood

Third, one experiences redemption through Christ's blood. Is this terminology confusing? Does it sound like a name given to a center issuing gifts for S&H Green Stamps? Well, the gift about to be discussed dwarfs man's most esteemed prizes. Why? What is redemption? It is to deliver a thing or person by paying a price. It is to buy back something (see Leviticus 25:47-49).

Let me illustrate. God placed Adam and Eve under a test of obedience in the Garden of Eden. He said in Genesis 2:17, But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. The slithering, slimy serpent said, Ye shall not surely die (Genesis 3:4). Eve listened to the devil rather than to God, for when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat (Genesis 3:6).

Immediately, this act of transgression brought sin into and upon the human race. This selling out of self to the devil placed all of Adam's descendants under Satan's bondage. That's why Romans 5:12 states, Wherefore, as by one man [Adam] sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Again, verse 18: By the offence of one [Adam] judgment came upon all men to condemnation. Hence, because of Adam's transgression, we find ourselves in bondage to Satan — yes, sold out to the devil!

You ask, "Who will redeem us, buy us back, liberate us, and set us free?" None other than the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior! It is He who paid the ransom price to buy us back from Satan's enslavement.

To fully appreciate what God will do for each of us, we must understand how another term, ransom, fits into this mighty work of redemption. In modern society, when a criminal kidnaps another person, he usually asks for ransom money to set the victim free. This is exactly what Christ did for sinners when He shed His blood. He paid the ransom price to buy back sinners. Matthew 20:28 states, The Son of man came ... to give his life a ransom for many. Also, There is ... one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all (1 Timothy 2:5-6).

This means that you do not have to be a slave to debauchery. You do not have to be in bondage to sin for an entire lifetime. Christ wants to set you free. He longs for you to experience redemption through his blood (Ephesians 1:7). WOW! It is joy unspeakable and full of glory to be redeemed through the precious blood of Christ (1 Peter 1:19).

Now let me illustrate what I have been saying with a thrilling story. Years ago, Dr. A. J. Gordon, after a long and tedious day, decided to take a walk for some relaxation. Soon he noticed a little boy from his Sunday school walking down the street with a cage full of sparrows.

He said, "Tommy, where are you going?"

"Preacher, I just caught these sparrows, and I am taking them home to my cat."

Dr. Gordon replied, "Tommy, that isn't very nice, is it? Let me tell you a better plan. I will buy the sparrows for a price."

"Oh, preacher, I could not sell you these birds because I would be cheating you. They are only insignificant sparrows."

But Dr. Gordon insisted, "Never mind, son, here is a dollar for each bird in your cage." The minister gave the little tyke $5, took the cage full of sparrows, prayed that none of his members would see him, dashed up an alley, opened the door of the cage, reached in, took out the sparrows, and hurled them into the air.

The next morning he related the episode in his sermon and said, "As the little birds flew into the heavenlies, I could almost hear them singing, 'Redeemed! How I love to proclaim it. Redeemed through Dr. Gordon's ransom money.'"

Friends, this is exactly what the Lord Jesus Christ did for lost humanity, for you and me. He shed His precious blood to pay the ransom price to set victimized sinners free. Receive this gift of love today and be redeemed! Let Christ buy you back from Adam's sell-out to Satan. When it happens, you will sing, "Redeemed! How I love to proclaim it. Redeemed by the blood of the Lamb."

Then, one day in eternity to come, in the presence of Christ Himself, you will eternally sing redemption's story. Revelation 5:9 describes the momentous event. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou [Christ] are worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain,

REDEEMED!
HOW I

and has redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. What a song, and what a day it will be when the largest choir in history sings about the blood of Jesus Christ the Lamb. Those who refuse to sing about His shed blood now because of intellectual snobbery or rejection of the truth shall be unable to sing in heaven's greatest assembly. What a loss! If you are a seeker for salvation and eternal life, get rid of all preconceived ideas and false reasoning today and trust in Christ's shed blood immediately for the remission of your sin! 🕊

Modern churches destroying CHRISTIANITY?

Biblical Christianity FORGOTTEN in North America?!

Today 50% of evangelicals say there are many ways to get to heaven —

This deception may come from Oprah Winfrey and President Obama, but not from the Bible! If anyone says there is more than one way to salvation, that person is not a Christian.

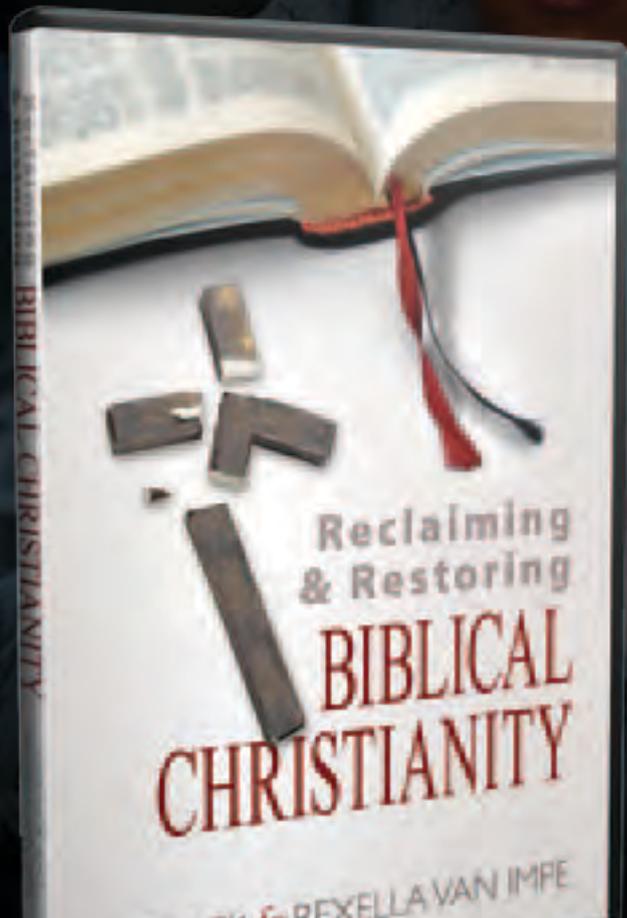

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe want to renew your heart with the basics of biblical Christianity and help you defend the faith with this exciting video teaching. It will show you:

- Why your words are critically important.
- How the Holy Spirit reacts to sin — you'll be shocked!
- Why some people preach that Jesus sinned!
- The truth about President Obama's religion.
- Why Christianity and Islam can't work together.
- How removing the cross from churches has significantly damaged modern Christianity.
- And much more!

This video was so controversial, it was CENSORED by TBN — but you and your family deserve to know the truth. Send for it today!

It's hard to verbalize my gratitude for the privilege of growing up in a happy, beautiful Christian home. My parents faithfully took me and my brothers to church from the time that we were able to walk.

And with the example of my mother, I started singing when I was five years old. You can imagine the fun, joy, and blessings we all had together. I only wish I could share this home life with every child in the world.

I must make an admission, however — I was spoiled. I have a multitude of beautiful memories, but a favorite of mine (being a typical girl) revolves around the times that my mother would say to me, “Would you like to go shopping?” In fact, my father used to say that the very first words in my vocabulary were “shopping ... let's go shopping.”

It wasn't that we had to buy something every time we enjoyed our outings — we often just went “window-shopping.” My heart is moved just thinking about those special times as we talked, laughed, and shared a lunch as part of our day together.

Today, I still enjoy shopping and I have been blessed with sales ladies who are friends and believers in the Lord — they enjoy helping me choose my clothing selection for TV. I also have one wonderfully talented Christian lady who alters my clothes, and no matter what needs to be done to make the clothes fit correctly, she can artistically make it happen. I've enjoyed fellowship with her and with all the girls at my favorite store. Let me share one thing that happened one day. Olga Menrath (my gifted alteration friend) was going to overhaul a complete outfit and found it necessary to take all of my measurements, something she had not done previously. So as she was working intently, I looked down and said, “All right my friend, what are my measurements?” We both started laughing because that is a pretty important priority to every woman.

Almost immediately the Holy Spirit seemed to impress upon my heart the importance of the inner person rather than the measurements of the outer person. I remember thinking, “What are my measurements within my heart?” There are so many areas of one’s character to examine, but three seemed to be of utmost importance to me.

Compassion

The first thing that the Lord spoke to me about was the aspect of my heart’s response to the needs of others. Yes, the dynamic aspect of compassion. I could not help but think about the story that is given to us in Luke 10 about the lawyer who tried to tempt Jesus, saying, “What shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

The question that this lawyer asked was one that was often debated by the Jews. The rabbis would get together and discuss theological matters in public. And this was a perfect opportunity to question our Lord — or was it more of an uneasy conscience speaking?

The Lord answered the lawyer, “What is written in the law? How readest thou?”

The lawyer answered saying, “‘Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.’ And he said unto him, ‘Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.’ But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbour?’”

He actually wanted to tempt the Lord. Can you imagine the audacity of any person trying to put the Lord on trial? Almost as if to say, Well, you think you know so much, tell me exactly who my neighbor is.

The Lord, without any hesitation, answered him with the story of the Good Samaritan and a traveler on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. Notice that the Bible does not call this a parable. If Jesus were to tell a parable (which is a short story that illustrates a moral attitude or religious principle) with a Samaritan being the hero, the Jews would have immediately rejected it. They would have said that there is no way that this would have happened — not with a Samaritan who did the right thing at the right time.

My husband and I have traveled from Jerusalem down to Jericho many, many times. It is about a 17-mile trip, and it earned the title, “The Way of Blood,” during the time of Christ because of the thieves who were there robbing those who passed by on their way to Jericho. It was a rather treacherous way to go. So it was a dynamic illustration that the Lord used that day. Everyone knew He spoke the truth when He spoke about a man who went from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell amongst thieves that stripped him, wounded him, and left him half dead. They all knew that the road was dangerous, full of curves and switchbacks, where thieves could lie in wait for travelers.

Here is the essence of the short story Jesus told that day. There came down a certain priest on his way to Jericho who saw a naked, beaten, wounded, half-dead man by the wayside and proceeded to pass by on the other side. Likewise, a Levite on his way to Jericho, when he was at the same place, stared at the dying man and reasoned that he could not take the time to help him, but rather continued on his journey.

I can’t help but think — what would I have done had I come across a man lying in the road, in his own blood, beaten and nearly dead — would I have reacted as these men reacted?

What if I had been a priest who had probably been lecturing in Jerusalem and now on my way to Jericho, tired because I had been busy all day. Would I have actually stopped and had compassion on this man in the street?

If I had been a Levite, who was looked up to during the time of Christ, and I had been in Jerusalem, possibly on business and now on my way to Jericho, would I have been too busy, too complacent, too unmoved by what I saw in the bushes there on the other side?

Perhaps these two men allowed fear to overcome their compassion. They could have thought that if they stopped to help this man, nothing would prevent them from ending up the same way. What if the robbers were still in the area waiting for someone to stop and help this man so they could attack them as well?

But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came and saw the dying man. When he stared at him, he had compassion on him, went to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil, and set him on his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. Yes, he gave his time, his financial assistance, and his enormous efforts to save a stranger’s life.

In my mind’s eye, I can picture what the reaction was of the people who heard this story when Jesus mentioned a Samaritan. Samaritans were descendents of colonists that the Assyrian kings brought into the land after the fall of the Northern Kingdom in 721 BC. They were despised by the Jews because of their mixed Gentile blood.

Let's glance once more at this heart-moving story. It would have been so much easier for the Samaritan to just get somebody to help the traveler, but he does all that he can do at that very moment. He did not just leave him in the inn, but said, I can do more than help him this one night. So he went into debt. The Bible says that he paid the innkeeper two pence — two days' wages. He stayed with him overnight and then promised to come back and pay for all the bills that the host had to spend to take care of this man until he was healed.

Can you imagine this? There was no logical reason for this man to rearrange his plans, spend his money just to help another human being in need. But compassion does not need a reason. Compassion does not look away from another person's grief, or another person's sorrow.

One of the best examples of compassion in action was my dear mother. Never once did I hear her say, "I don't have time to help you." My mother was the first one to say, "You have a need; I will take care of this, and will do this for you so you will not have to deal with it." Anytime there was someone who was emotionally hurting, she would say, "I am here to listen, to help in any way that I can." We truly need to listen to anyone who voices a need, whether it be physical, emotional, or spiritual. I think this is especially important of parents. No child should ever hear a parent say, "I don't have time for you now."

As I think about compassion, I pray that the Lord will help me not to ever avoid someone in need. May I always be like the Samaritan who followed our Lord's example. What did Jesus do when He saw the needs of others? He healed the sick; He fed the multitudes; He raised the dead. And though we may not have the power to do all of this, we can follow His example of compassion for others.

Faith

The next measurement that I proceeded to analyze was that giant word that is so important: faith.

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Hebrews 11:1).

This verse is a wonderful description of what faith does and how it works. Biblical faith is not blind optimism or "crossing your fingers" while saying, "I hope so." Warren Wiersbe describes faith this way: "True Bible faith is confident obedience to God's Word in spite of circumstances and consequences."

Wow, did you catch that? Obedience: in spite of circumstances and consequences. How wonderful it is to have that kind of faith. When I think of great faith I cannot help but reflect on the story in John 11:1-44 of Lazarus at Bethany. Time and space does not allow us to delve fully into this story, but I encourage you to take a moment and read this heart-moving passage.

What beautiful faith Mary and Martha had, but it was also a bit limited. When the Lord came to the tomb where Lazarus was laid after he died, they looked at Him and said, "If You had been here, he wouldn't have died." They knew that He had the power to heal, to perform miracles. But faith in our Lord can go far beyond that astounding statement. We can have the kind of faith that says, "Though he is now dead, dear Lord, you can raise him up again."

We can depend upon our eternal life with Him in the light of this strong kind of faith. And while on this earth, we can have faith that says, "Even though I face the hardest situations in life, I believe that God is in control. Even though my loved one has died and I'm hurting, the Lord has a reason and a loving purpose for this departure, and we will one day be reunited in our eternal home."

We all must die, unless we are alive when He comes again, but we can have the kind of faith that says, The moment I close my eyes, I am instantly with the Lord. We can say, "Death, where is your sting?" and "Grave, where is your victory?"

The beautiful story of Mary and Martha goes beyond the limited faith that was exhibited as the Lord approached the tomb of their beloved brother. Remember, our Lord raised Lazarus from the dead.

We will weep when our friends and loved ones depart in death, but thank the Lord for the great assurance of eternal life. We do not weep as others who have no hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13).

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life and he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." How comforting it is that our faith is not misplaced! It goes beyond the grave because our faith is in the Lord alone. "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith” (Hebrews 12:2). Let’s keep our eyes on Him and our faith will truly never cease to grow.

Love

The last and greatest aspect of our heart’s measurement — and one that we must take care to analyze — is that beautiful four letter word, love.

Love is the essence of God’s nature. “And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love” (1 Corinthians 13:13). He puts great emphasis on this attribute in the Bible.

Right outside the kitchen door of our world headquarters hangs this plaque:

1 Corinthians 13:4-7,13

Love is patient and kind

Love is not jealous or boastful, it is not arrogant or rude

Love does not insist on its own way, it is not irritable or resentful,

Love does not think evil, it does not rejoice at wrong but rejoices in the right.

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

So, faith, hope, love abide — these three — but the greatest of these is love.

What a commanding challenge to measure our hearts with these verses in mind.

Love is patient and kind

That sets the bar pretty high right at the outset. Am I patient and kind? In this fast-paced world we live in, it is so easy to become impatient and unkind, especially if someone is not responding as quickly as we desire. How do you react when you have to go to a store for just one item and you find yourself in line behind someone who is struggling and taking too much time? Perhaps it is a young mother with small children, or an elderly person who is having difficulty finding what they need in their wallet or purse. How do you respond?

Do you try to be helpful or do you sigh loudly and mutter in a frustrated way under your breath?

Love is not jealous or boastful, it is not arrogant or rude

Love is not jealous; this means that love is content with its lot in life. We know that life is full of inequalities, some people have more than they could ever use, while others have to struggle from day to day just to exist. How do you react when you see the success of others? Are you happy for them or filled with anger thinking that it should be you who has the success? Those who have pure love rejoice as much at the happiness, the honor, and the comfort of others as they can do in their own life.

Love is not boastful; it does not do things for its own recognition. Love works behind the scenes; it does not seek out the spotlight.

Love is not arrogant or rude, it is not puffed up. Love is not inflated with its own sense of importance, because love realizes that all we have is from God, and we deserve nothing that we have received.

Love does not insist on its own way, it is not irritable or resentful

Love is an utter enemy to selfishness. Love does not seek its own praise, profit, or pleasure. In fact, love often neglects its own good for the sake of others. I did not know this at the time, but when my brothers and I were going to college, my parents mortgaged their home to pay for our education, room, and board. They did not want us to work during the school year; however, we did maintain jobs during the summer. When I found out years later about this beautiful sacrifice my parents had given, they said that it was their joy to be able to do this for their loving children.

Love wants to do things for others; it is not something that is forced. Ladies, what would you do if your husband came home on your anniversary and said to you,

I am thankful for the day I discovered you.

You both are in my prayers daily — two very special people who are a clear witness of God's love for all of us in these latter days. I pray your faithful teaching will continue to win many souls to Christ.

—B.L.

“Tradition tells me that I have to give you this gift on this day. We have been married for 12 years, and according to this, I have to give you a gift of silk or linen. So because of that; here is my gift — Happy anniversary.” I think for many people, that would be the most miserable anniversary they could have. Love is not like that — love always loves to give.

Love does not think evil, it does not rejoice at wrong but rejoices in the right

Love gives everyone the benefit of the doubt. Love never supposes that a good action would have a bad motive. Love will never indulge suspicion without solid proofs. If those suspicions prove to be true, love does not rejoice in the faults and failings of another. If you hear something bad about someone who is your enemy, or whom you do not like, do you rejoice? Do you say, “It’s about time they were taken down a peg or two”? Or does it make you sad to see even an enemy suffer?

On the other hand, love rejoices in the right, and in the truth. Those who are filled with the love of God rejoice in spreading the Gospel, which is the Truth, and rejoice to see the lives that are changed when a person becomes a new creature in Christ.

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things

Some translations say that love conceals all things, or contains and keeps all things. This means that love never makes the sins, faults, or imperfections of any person the subject of conversation. Love covers them as far as it can, and if love alone knows of these faults, love keeps that knowledge locked away. This has to deal with gossip. All too often we hear believers say, “I need to tell you all that is going on with so-and-so so that you can pray more intelligently.” Love does not do that; love just says, “pray.”

Love is ready to believe the best of every person, and it will not think evil of anyone without absolute proof.

When there is no place left for believing good of a person, love steps in with hope and anticipation of repentance and restoration of a fallen brother.

Love bears up under all persecutions and mistreatments from enemies, and professed friends. Love remains strong through all testing.

so, faith, hope, love abide — these three — but the greatest of these is love

To me this is the greatest measurement that any of us could have today. “By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (John 13:35).

The best way that someone knows that I follow Jesus is because I follow Him with this aspect of my measurement. And that is how I love people. Do I really show love to everyone? The Lord never distinguishes color or social status in life. He associated with and had His arms outstretched to the wealthy, but He also moved with love among the very poor.

He will delight himself in us if we follow in this aspect. And of course, this is the ultimate in love — 1 John 3:16 — “He laid down his life for us...” God loved us enough to die for us.

There have been those down through history who have had enough love to give their lives for others — David Livingston left a lucrative business in England to go to Africa to give the Gospel, the message of God's love, there. It was there that he gave his life as the first missionary to that continent. Some of us will never be called upon to die for others, but sometimes it may be a more emphatic statement of the measurement of our heart to live a life of love for our Lord. If ever we needed to show love in this world, it is right now.

After careful thought to these three important aspects of our Christian walk, I feel my heart whelm up in a quiet prayer. Perhaps you feel it also. I would pray:

“Dear Lord, forgive me for being so concerned about my own life that I forget about those around me who need my help, my attention, and my focus. Thank You for the faith You have given to me, and may it never stop growing until the day I see all that I now accept by faith. Above all, may my love for You, dear Lord, and for others shine brightly as an evidence of the Holy Spirit living in my heart. May the measurements of my heart be all that You want them to be. Amen.”

I trust that you also may be encouraged to ask yourself that all important question: What are my measurements? 🙏

- The incredible truth about Barack Obama
- The facts, finally revealed, about his anti-Christian, anti-Jewish bias
- Chilling documentation of secret deals, brazen hostility, and more!

Has the U.S. President who was elected on a platform of change brought the drastic changes predicted in Bible prophecy?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe examine the dramatic impact of the Obama administration and help give you the answers to critical questions such as ...

- Who has the Communist Party endorsed for President?
- How is America being reshaped into a socialist state?
- Who are Barack Obama's radical allies? What has he learned from them?
- What does the Islamic Koran say about Jesus, and about people who believe in Him?
- How many ways are there to heaven? How can we know for sure?
- How is the New Age plan for the world being accomplished in Washington, D.C., today?
- Which Bible translators have changed God's name to avoid offending Muslims?
- What progress is being made right now toward establishment of one world government and one world religion?
- What is the sign of Jesus' soon return that has developed faster than any other sign, ever?
- What are America's prospects for a new and far more cataclysmic Middle East war under this President?
- What does the Bible say about the greatest revival in history, yet to come? Why isn't it happening yet?
- And many more!

Time is short! You need to know the truth about President Barack Obama, and many of the facts presented here CANNOT BE BROADCAST on TV!

Letters

Hi,

I am living in a tiny town where many people are Mennonites and Amish. It is a community where horse-and-buggies drive in front of my house every day. I truly admire these wonderful people who are true and faithful Christians, same as you and me. I asked them about Revelation, and surprisingly they are aware of the coming of Jesus Christ. They too are looking for the “Rapture,” eager as I am! I am hoping that this year, 2012, will be the calling of us to go home — our blessed hope.

I’m thankful to get your weekly program. I’m still behind you both about the mess we’re living in, and we need to get this country to wake up! I am feeling real good, and watching your program makes my day. I still support your ministry with my limited income — no job and my Social Security check is less than $600 per month. I may be poor but have great faith in God. I still talk to my true friend, Jesus, every minute of every day. Also still study the Scriptures, the only book I ever trust, or read!

Keep on preaching the Word of God and stand firm on it. Lots of love to you both.

From your sister in Christ,
—G.D.

Drs. Jack & Rexella,

Since I’ve made the commitment to help your cause to further the Gospel, I’ve seen things in my life that were not there before — worry about shortages and how to pay bills has vanished as somehow the money always shows up one way or another. Don’t let Satan win. Keep up the fight, and thanks for letting me help you to do it.

—Rev. R.C.

Dear Drs. Jack & Rexella,

I am glad to be back as a partner with you again. You two are the reason I am not going to hell. The other ministries helped too, but no one else has the heart, love, and desire to save people and teach the Bible and the Lord as you two do. When I watch you, it’s pure joy. Please, I beg you both:

don't ever go off the air. If I have to I will raise viewers somehow for your airtime. But, I can assure you God will not let that happen.

Drs. Jack & Rexella, thank you for saving my soul. Thank you for feeding me the truth, thank you both for not letting anyone intimidate you. I stand behind you and for you. Remember, one day you both will hear: "Job well done, my mighty and faithful servants." I can see your crowns now! God bless.

—D.S.

Jack & Rexella,

Thanks for your show. Keep preaching!!

Last weekend, my wife and I tried a popular Pentecostal church.

To our amazement, and disappointment, we felt out of place due to our dressing up.

We followed in people who were in shorts, tennis shoes, jeans, t-shirts, and a few wore no shoes at all. Even though we dressed up for our King, this stunned us.

We had this kind of dress-down starting where we went also. Very few were dressed appropriately. We were also surprised at the people who stood through worship with hardly any reaction to the music, or just had their hands in their pockets. The minister also had on jeans, a white shirt not tucked in, and a sport coat.

Even though the worship and the message were good, the leisure of dress code amazed us. WE ARE BEFORE THE KING OF KINGS!!! Delivering a HOLY message!!

In Jesus,
—C.A.

Dear Dr. Van Impe,

For years I have listened to your wonderful show on Wednesday nights at 9:30 p.m. on TBN. You have been a shining light to a dark and dying world for so long that it is now impossible to measure the massive degree of positive impact your ministry has had on our culture. You are without peer — a national treasure. The powerful manner in which you assimilate and process the prophetic word with current news is insightful and profound to say the least. You have utilized the gifts our Father has blessed you with to levels most can but stand back and marvel at. You have carried God's banner of truth to the extent that I feel I can safely proclaim, you are God's Champion of Truth for our generation. I thank God that in His infinite mercy, He blessed this world with a man of your unyielding character and integrity. Hallelujah and praise to the great God of all creation for the incredible gift of Jack Van Impe!

Dr. Van Impe, there are no words to convey how disappointed I was that you left your time slot on Wednesday nights. You were a Wednesday night institution in our home. We always made sure that we were home from church to hear your ministry program. I was so upset with TBN's decision that I wrote Paul Crouch a personal letter decrying your censorship by TBN. I have enclosed a copy of that letter, along with the pathetically impotent response I received back from TBN. I know you have probably already seen their form letter.

Dr. Van Impe, I believe your censorship by TBN is in direct fulfillment of the prophetic word that you have taught us for decades. The end will not come until the “falling away” takes place first, and that the time would come when they would no longer receive “sound doctrine” and “the truth.” That they would heap unto themselves preachers to tickle their itching ears. Well, I guess this is what our Lord was warning us about. Now, I must herald your decision to stand for truth and the untainted Word of God. God help those lost and deceived people who He has blessed so wonderfully and generously. To whom much is given, much shall be required. Lord help them.

Dr. Van Impe, I am glad to report that I have found your show in our area in Savannah, Georgia, on Sunday morning. I now tape the show and then our family watches it on Wednesday night at 9:30 when we get home from church. So the enemy’s attempt to silence your voice has failed completely, and you have now been restored to us because of your faithfulness. Praise God and hallelujah to the great and mighty Lamb of God, Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

God Bless you, sir. Keep up the good fight, and may God bless you and your precious wife with many more years of faithful service unto Him.

I am sincerely your friend,
—G.E.

Hello Staff,

I have supported this ministry since 1983 I think. WOW!! I have grown in the Lord and love Dr. Jack Van Impe’s teaching. I look forward to spending some time with him when we all get to heaven one day. Until then, let’s keep looking up. “Perhaps Today” Jesus will return for His Bride. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Many blessings.

—K.G.

Dear Jack,

We were shocked today in a church we just started attending when the pastor said his wife drinks wine and he likes beer (but they are not lushes). We were dismayed because many people struggle with alcohol and we read your book about alcohol and agree with it. It was a liberal church and we won’t be going back.

God bless you, and thank you for all you do.

—J.&M.

Dear Jack and Rexella,

I love you both dearly and appreciate all your work winning souls while there is still time. Thank you!

I was making out an order wondering if I should spend the money, and I opened your letter! Well, the Lord spoke to my heart — how could I possibly use His money for myself? — so I am sending the whole amount (pennies included) to help you in your work.

No thanks to me, only to our dear Lord who continues to bless me over and over in spite of my humanness! The glory all belongs to Him! He keeps blessing and blessing our family. Times can be really tough, but He is always there, through death and sorrow, pain and more pain, and physical and mental fiery darts. Our God is faithful and true!

I await Jesus' return for us in the clouds. God bless you both, and may His favor be continually upon you both! I love you.

—B.P.

Dearest Drs. Jack & Rexella,

Several years ago, I too was flipping through the channels. I passed your program a few times, but always wondered, "Who is that Jack Van Impe?" I tuned in and was somewhat skeptical at first, for I am a believer, being raised in the Lutheran religion.

Since then, you have really opened my eyes! Thank you! I love the Prophecy Bible.

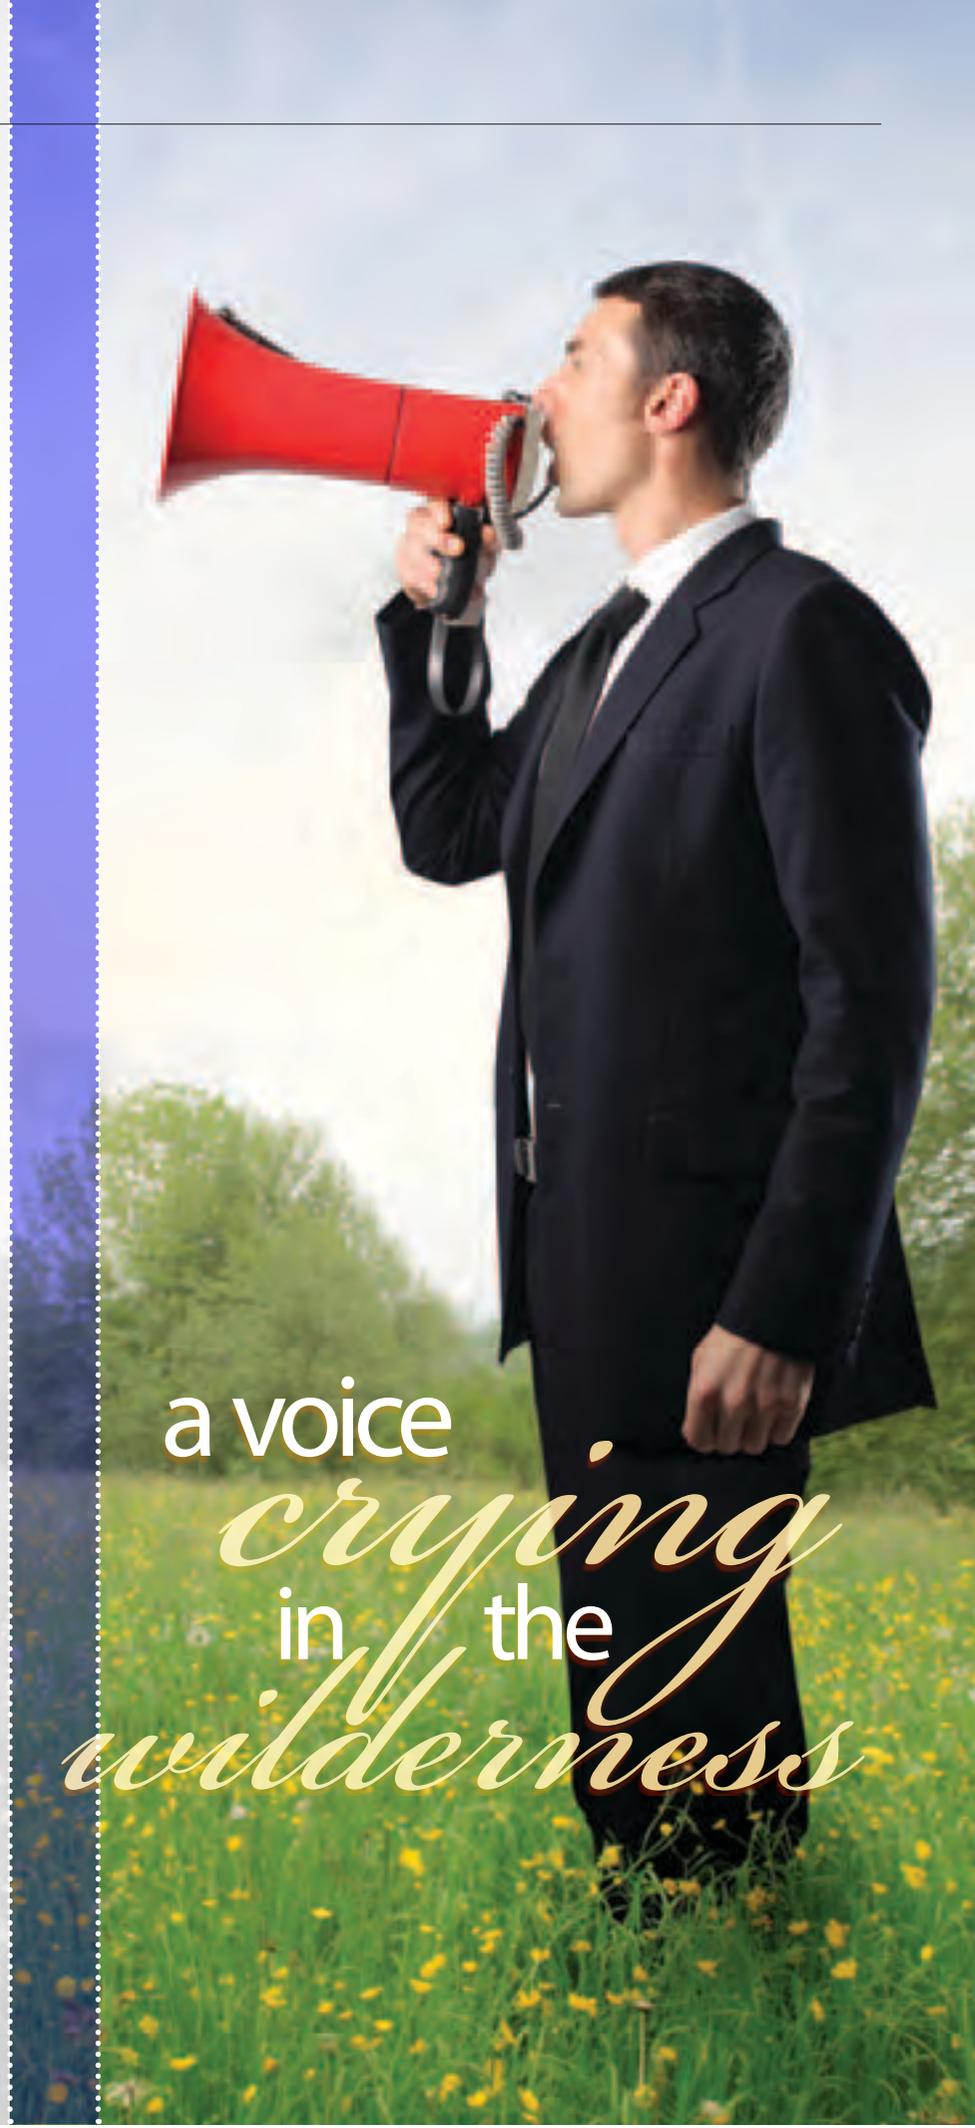

—M.H.

Dear Drs. Jack & Rexella,

I've been watching your program for quite a while. I believe your message. In my mind, I relate you to John the Baptist — "A voice crying in the wilderness." Webster's definition of "wilderness" is also a "state of confusion." The whole world is in a state of confusion. So I say that you two are that voice crying in the wilderness!

I pray that Jesus gives you His mighty protection and strength to continue "crying in the wilderness." My spinal arthritis causes terrible "electric" pain, but you give me hope. Jesus is coming! The sooner the better!

—B.B.

Who has betrayed the faith?

The answer will shock you!

- Wycliffe Bible Translators behind an immense blasphemy?
- The U.S. President spouting lies about Christianity?
- Persecution of Christians ignored by the mainstream media?
- Christian leaders unwilling to confront global persecution?
- President Obama the most anti-Israel president?
- Conservative Christians lured in by political leaders?

Apostasy, heresy, blasphemy — it is happening now within the walls of the Church itself and throughout Christendom!

How can you protect yourself and your family, so you can remain strong in these critical days as the return of the Lord draws ever nearer?

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe help you find your way in these confusing times with strength to remain true to the Gospel. Send for this video today, and be sure to share it with your pastor, church, and friends.

WORLD

Report

IRAN: THERE WILL BE WAR — AND WE’LL WIN

WND.com reports: “Just days after the breakdown of talks with the West over Iran’s nuclear program, the deputy chief commander of the Revolutionary Guards announced that there soon will be war — and that Allah will ensure his forces are victorious.

The last round of talks between Iran and the P5+1 (the United States, Britain, France, China, Russia and Germany) ended in Moscow without any agreement on Iran’s illicit nuclear program.

Gen. Hossein Salami, in a televised interview, boasted that, ‘Iran has complete control of all the enemy’s interests around the world and is on a path to reach equivalency with world powers.’ The commander emphasized that Iran’s nuclear program is irreversible, the Islamic Republic News Agency reported.

Salami said war is inevitable, and the Iranian forces are ready....” (Ezekiel 38:5 has Persia, which changed its name to Iran in 1935, aligned with Russia for World War III. They lose — Ezekiel 39:1-2,6,12-13. This will make the boastful and arrogant headline above a lot of Iranian hot air.)

IRAN LEADER: WE MUST PREP FOR ‘END OF TIMES’

WND.com reports: “Iran’s supreme leader, for the first time, is telling his nation that it must prepare for war and ‘the end of times’ as it continues to develop nuclear weapons.

State-owned media outlets, in a coordinated effort, all ran a similar story highlighting Ayatollah Ali Khamenei’s message on the coming of the last Islamic messiah.

Until now, the Iranian media would mostly quote clerics from seminaries on the issue of the last Islamic messiah to avoid the regime being labeled messianic. However, the wide publication of Khamenei’s statements on a need to prepare for the end of times as it confronts the West over its illicit nuclear program is alarming to Western leaders...

Shiite theology holds that great wars must engulf the Earth, during which one-third of the world’s population will die in the fighting and another third from hunger, lawlessness and havoc. Israel is to be destroyed, and only then will the 12th imam, Mahdi, reappear and kill all the infidels, raising the flag of Islam in all corners of the world...” (The above warning should be sounded from every pulpit in America and Canada. The Islamic goal to raise their flag over all the world is not an idle threat. Five global Islamic leaders are sounding the same warning. Citizens of North America, horrendous days are ahead. It’s time to do away with our rock and roll, latte-filled morning services and fall on our faces in old-fashioned godly prayer obeying 2 Chronicles 7:14: If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.)

NEW MOVIE: JESUS IS PRODUCT OF MARY BEING RAPED

WND.com reports: “A new Hollywood film in the works that some are already calling blasphemous will portray Jesus as the product of His mother Mary being raped by a Roman soldier, and show that miracles mentioned in the New Testament were not real.

Paul Verhoeven, who directed previous hits including ‘Robocop,’ ‘Total Recall’ and ‘Basic Instinct,’ is basing the movie on his 2008 book, 'Jesus of Nazareth.'

According to Deadline.com, Verhoeven's take on the life of Jesus discounts all the miracles mentioned in Scripture, including the virgin birth and the resurrection, as Verhoeven doesn't believe any of them actually took place...." (I am going to fight this anti-Christ production globally through television. God will deal with this blaspheming filmmaker whose damnable heresies concerning the Virgin Mary and the Lord Jesus Christ are simply "...the doctrines of demons..." — 1 Timothy 4:1. See also 2 Peter 2:1 and Jude 1:3-4, 14-15.)

RUSSIA HAS WORLD'S LARGEST NUKE ARSENAL — 10,000 WARHEADS

Israel National News reports: "Russia, which is helping Iran develop nuclear power, has more nuclear warheads than any country in the world, according to the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute's annual report.

Worldwide, there are an estimated 19,000 nuclear warheads held by eight countries. The list of countries includes Israel, which the Institute estimates has 80 nuclear warheads. Israel officially has a policy of 'nuclear ambiguity' but is assumed by most everyone to have manufactured nuclear warheads. Previous estimates have been around 200.

The United States has the second largest nuclear arsenal, with 8,000 nuclear warheads. Both superpowers possess more than 90 percent of the world's nuclear weapons, France is estimated to possess 300, followed by China with 240, Britain with 225, and India and Pakistan with around 100 each...." (The Russian bear is again raising his communist head and ignoring the non-proliferation treaty he signed with President Obama. If our president knew and believed Ezekiel 38:1-2,8,16, and Joel 2:3,20,30, he would never have signed such a devastating and destructive agreement. These texts predict the largest and deadliest world war with Russia.)

15,000 GATHER TO APPLY SHARIAH IN U.S.

WND.com reports: "Shariah law is famous for making headlines in the West over its penalties, such as beheadings and amputations; its treatment of women and the violence that is allowed, and its relegation to those who follow other faiths to a subservient status.

Now, it seems, there's a new move to expand its influence in the United States, with a weekend conference in Hartford, Conn., on 'Understanding Shariah' and 'how to apply Shariah in a society where most people are not of the same faith.'

The conference is being assembled by the Islamic Circle of North America, which earlier was revealed through a campaign by Stop Islamization of Nations, to be trying to 'mainstream Shariah.'

Officials say they expect some 15,000 to attend the events at the 37th annual ICNA convention...." (Shariah law is the most ungodly and undemocratic piece of legislation any country could ever employ or survive under. Honor killing alone becomes horrendous for Muslim daughters if the law is passed. If a girl has sex and is discovered, her father, brother, or another family member must put her to death. This is murder — Exodus 20:12; Revelation 21:8; 22:15.)
