CHRIST'S RETURN Millions Deceived

YOU AND YOUR FAMILY DESERVE TRUTH!

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

There is one damnable lie that deceives even the elect — one far-reaching and dangerous falsehood that I desperately want to refute for the sake of you and your family and all who call upon the name of the Lord — and here it is:

That the doctrine of the Rapture was somehow “invented”... that it was created in 1830 by John Darby — and none of the great men of God or founding Church fathers up to that time had ever heard of or preached the Rapture!

This is simply not true. And in my new video, I name many Bible-believing church leaders and founders, from as far back as the First Century, who preached the Rapture doctrine continuously down through the ages!

Why now are millions of believers deceived about this timeless truth of Bible prophecy? The Holy Spirit has revealed to me the seducing spirits of this age (1 Timothy 4:1) who want to keep believers spiritually in the dark about the soon- return of the Savior — and have succeeded in darkening the minds of even Christian leaders and ministers — using them to preach their unsound doctrine!

This is critically important: You and your family must not be deceived by this or any other lie promulgated by the evil one and his powers and principalities. This is why I am urging you to request my new video, watch it, and share it with your family and your church. Such critical information must get out — against all opposition and despite all demonic threats. We must share these truths.

Christ's Return Millions Deceived
This hard-hitting new two-part video teaching “blows the lid off” every deception about

Thank you for your faithfulness in getting the truth out to the Church and those needing salvation. Much shall be your reward when you come before our King of Kings, Jesus Christ.”

—J.F.

the latter days that the evil spirits of this world who using apostate Christian ministers want to persuade lost souls and even unsuspecting believers to damnable heresies (II Peter 2:1,2).

DECEPTION ① Preterism.

This diabolical teaching declares that all prophecy was fulfilled by 70 A.D. Therefore, it says, there can be no return of the Lord in our day because all the prophetic signs in the Bible are outdated and don't speak to us now. Despite the 10,385 verses predicting the return of the Lord, Preterists deny it. What a monstrous viewpoint!

DECEPTION ② Replacement Theology. This outrageous system of interpreting the Scriptures insists that Israel is no longer home to God's Chosen People and that where we read "Israel" in Scripture, we must replace it with "the Church." Replacement Theology says holy Scripture is wrong all 3,417 times it refers to the nation of Israel. Of course, this crooked foundation for reading the Bible results in a crooked way of misinterpreting biblical prophecy. Shameful! And yet — this deception is taught by four major denominations!

DECEPTION ③ We can't know when Christ will return in the air. Even those who believe in the Rapture sometimes fall prey to this deception — and it is a lie just like the rest! The Bible says we cannot know the "day and the hour," but there is a reason for this (which I reveal in the video) — but we can know that the Rapture is at hand, and could happen at any moment ... because of all the signs and prophecies that have already been fulfilled!

Oh beloved, there is so much more to this power-packed resource — because the Holy Spirit has opened my eyes to the threat that these deceptions pose, and to their origins as well: these lies come straight from the Evil One, Satan!

The seducing spirits of 1 Timothy 4:1 lead ministers into deception — and because they quote Scripture, they are able to deceive their followers — even though they are misinterpreting what the Bible says. And this will only get worse! Revelation 9:20 says that during the Tribulation, these duped and deceived "Christians" will not repent because they have been worshipping demons (Rev. 9:20)!

I plead with you, dear friend in Christ Jesus, to protect yourself, your family, and your church from this peril. Request the Christ Returns Millions Deceived video as soon as possible. In it, you will find answers to questions such as ...

- ▶ Who first taught the doctrine of the Rapture?
- ▶ What is the "7th Day" of Bible prophecy — and how close are we to it?

- ▶ Why are modern Israel and the city of Jerusalem so critical to Bible prophecy?
- ▶ How soon can we expect to see the Lord coming in the clouds?
- ▶ How are famines, earthquakes, and other natural disasters related to the biblical predictions of the latter days?
- ▶ What are Christian leaders doing to pander to Muslims — and where was this prophesied in Scripture?
- ▶ Where can you find missiles, rockets, and even the atomic bomb in Scripture?
- ▶ Should we be afraid of persecution, violence, and terrorism?
- ▶ When will the Antichrist be revealed?
- ▶ How will he try to destroy Israel and the Jewish people?
- ▶ How can you and your family be assured of avoiding the Tribulation?
- ▶ And much more!

Let me get this powerful two-part video teaching to you. 2 Peter 3:10 says the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night — but these abounding falsehoods deny this prophecy and fail to prepare the world for the soon-coming King. Don't be deceived, or let your family be deceived, at the peril of their very souls! 🙏

Someday, perhaps very soon, every Christian must meet God for an investigative judgment of his entire life.

This moment will be a time of jubilant victory for some. On the other hand, this moment will be a time of weeping for others. Paul, dealing with this hour of judgment, states in 2 Corinthians 5:11, Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men.

“Terror”? Yes, terror! How often Christians hilariously shout, “Praise the Lord, Jesus is coming soon!” Though His return will be the most joyous event of the ages for some, it will also be a time of intense and immense sorrow for others. First John 2:28 declares, And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ASHAMED before him at his coming (emphasis mine).

Notice carefully that when Christ returns, all believers are summoned into His presence — both the confident and the ashamed. The confident appear before the tribunal with “good works” whereas the ashamed have naught but “bad works” (2 Corinthians 5:10). This fact is exceedingly important because multitudes today think that one sin can keep a child of God out of heaven. The text plainly states that the “ashamed” meet Christ at His appearing.

At the sound of the trumpet, when the dead in Christ rise first and living believers join them to meet Christ in the clouds (1 Thessalonians 4:17), the “ashamed” also enter heaven. However, the abundant entrance is reserved for those who earned it upon earth (2 Peter 1:11). This text proves that the wayward go home to meet Christ though ashamed. Since one can only bear shame for error and wrongdoing, then it is dogmatically clear that the wrongdoers meet Christ at His appearing or return. I grant you that they are embarrassed and lose all of their rewards, but they are nevertheless present at the roll call of the ages, and saved so as by fire (1 Corinthians 3:25) or “by the skin of their teeth,” to use a modern-day expression.

What produces their embarrassment and humiliation as believers?

NEGLECTED OPPORTUNITIES

Multitudes of God’s people could do so much more for Christ if they would, but the flesh stands in the way. When they do serve, it is often with selfish motives. Their hue and cry is, “What will I get out of this? What is in it for me?” The result? Modern Christianity has become big business. Though saved by fire, their works will dissolve into incinerated ashes. The wood, hay, and stubble will disintegrate because they had their reward. About face, Christian!

Then again, there are those who have little or no time for spiritual exercises. They seldom read God’s Holy Word, seldom attend God’s house, seldom give their tithes, and never win souls. This is sin! James 4:17 states, Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin. These sins of omission — failing to do God’s will — also produce remorse in that day.

Friend, if I am describing you, it is not too late to change. As long as one has the breath of life, he can decide to do the will of God. Confess your sins, seek again your first love of Christ, rekindle the flames of devotion to the Lord Jesus immediately. Then use your opportunities to serve Him wisely. One who obeys God will not be sorry. The faithful will be rewarded a hundred-fold at the Bema Seat. Scholars calculate this to be a 10,000 percent yield! Believe me — tithing and service will be rewarded.

Christian, your heavenly mansion will only be as beautiful as you build it now. Jesus said in John 14:2, In my Father's house are many mansions. The literal rendering should state, "In my Father's house are numerous and differing kinds of dwelling places." Not all mansions will be identical. Building blocks for one's eternal home are being sent ahead from earth. Jesus said, Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven (Matthew 6:19–20).

If one's earthly treasure is piled up in stocks and bonds and banks, he has his reward. On the other hand, if the treasure is sent ahead, it awaits the believer with added and fantastic dividends. Take your choice, Christian. You can have it here for 70 years, die, and leave it for the ungodly to spend; or you may send it ahead for eternal blessings. Hang on and lose it, or let go and retain it forever. It is up to you! (Those who supported our ministry can rejoice in the knowledge of the rewards they will have in heaven because they helped us reach 2.5 million who made decisions for Christ through our television programs and world radio broadcasts in the languages of the people.)

May I share a heart-moving experience with you? When Rexella and I were in Hershey, Pennsylvania, a man sitting in a wheelchair asked to speak to us. When we reached the area where he sat, he began to weep, saying, "I am an invalid, as you can see. I have multiple sclerosis and osteoarthritis. The pain is great, and my pain medication costs me $100 per month.

Nevertheless, I have made a decision after much prayer. I want to give you the hundred dollars and do without this month's medicine. It is the least I can do for Christ who suffered such agony for me. Please take the money and use it for His glory." Rexella and I, both in tears, replied, "We cannot accept this gift." Again weeping audibly, the man said, "Would you deprive me of a blessing? Take it for the glory of God and the salvation of souls."

How many thousands who have a superabundance of material blessings — stocks, bonds, bank accounts, and other possessions — do nothing but "tip" God occasionally. Do you still think there will be no difference at the time rewards are given? Do you honestly believe that it will be the same for all? Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap (Galatians 6:7). We are all going home soon — either confident or ashamed. Will it be a time of victory or anguish, triumph or tears for YOU? It is not too late to make a new start.

NEGLECTED HOLINESS

There will also be tears in heaven because of neglected holiness. There is no doubt about it. God demands that His people live holy lives. For God hath not called us to uncleanness, but unto holiness (1 Thessalonians 4:7). Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling... (2 Timothy 1:9). Follow peace with all men, and holiness (Hebrews 12:14). Be ye holy, for I am holy (1 Peter 1:16). This means that we are not to fashion ourselves according to the former lusts (1 Peter 1:14); instead we are to abstain from fleshly lusts (1 Peter 2:11) and to put on Christ and not make any provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof (Romans 13:14).

How different from the lowly standards held by many carnal church members who constantly play "musical chairs" with the pagans of this world. These indifferent backsliders run with the world. Are they saved? God alone really knows! One thing is certain — if they are Christ's, their double standards will be investigated. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be GOOD or BAD (2 Corinthians 5:10, emphasis mine).

Oh, what weeping, what wailing, what travail, what heartache and heartbreak as they meet Jesus face-to-face. Their entrance into God's presence will not be "abundant" (2 Peter 1:11). They shall be tremendously "ashamed" (1 John 2:28). The "terror of the Lord" will be meted out in judgment (2 Corinthians 5:11) and they will suffer the loss of all rewards (1 Corinthians 3:15). No wonder the lukewarm are weeping. They suffer the loss of all things except their salvation.

"...IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO CHANGE.

AS LONG AS ONE HAS THE BREATH OF LIFE, HE CAN DECIDE TO DO THE WILL OF GOD."

This loss extends beyond the loss of rewards for a meaningless life. It includes losing, through foolish living, rewards previously earned during years of spiritual service! Yes, God has a system of addition and subtraction, pluses and minuses, in His bookkeeping system. Therefore, one's accumulation of "good works" can be swiftly destroyed through disobedience.

You do not believe these statements? Here is proof: Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought [or earned], that we receive a full reward (2 John 8). God is saying, in effect, "Be careful how you live, where you go, how you serve, if you want a full reward."

Again, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown (Revelation 3:11). In simpler terminology, God is saying, "Hang on to your earned crown and do not let anyone entice you, mislead you, drag you down, or destroy the good works you have accumulated or you will suffer loss."

Paul, led by the Holy Spirit, also declares in I Corinthians 9:27, But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway [a reject for rewards]. He could not mean the loss of salvation by this term because we have already seen that the "ashamed" are present at heaven's roll call, though saved by fire. Instead, Paul is saying, "Look, I am a red-blooded man with desires similar to others. However, I simply will not allow my flesh to control me. Instead, I constantly battle and batter my fleshly appetites into subjection. Yes, I keep my bodily appetites under control lest I lose everything I have ever earned."

Now if this was true for Paul, it is equally true for all. In fact, Paul's service record is unparalleled in the history of Christendom. No one suffered as he did except the Lord Jesus himself.

Wow! What a servant of God — beaten, battered, stoned, crushed, robbed, persecuted, hated, and starved. Surely this portfolio of earned works would bring Paul heaven's greatest "Emmy." It would if he remained faithful! Remember, he said as quoted earlier, "If I did not keep my body under and bring it into subjection, I myself would be a castaway, disapproved, and rejected for heaven's 'Emmy Awards.' Therefore, I fight the good fight of faith — fight the world, the flesh, and the devil — so that my Savior will say to me in that day, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'"

How about YOU, Christian? If the Judgment Seat took place within the next 24 hours, would you lose some or all of your rewards? Millions are going home ashamed, embarrassed, or red-faced!

TEARS IN HEAVEN

The result will be intermittent weeping for 1,007 years. This is proven by studying the chronological outline of the Book of Revelation. Chapter 1, verse 19, states, Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter. One immediately notices the three tenses of the English language — past, present, and future. Chapter 1 is the past, Chapters 2 and 3 contain the present, and Chapters 4 through 22 reveal the future.

We are presently awaiting the homegoing of believers — the Rapture — which is described in Revelation 4:1 when God says, Come up hither. The seven years of Tribulation follow in Chapters 6 through 18. Christ returns to earth as King of Kings and Lord of Lords in Chapter 19, verses 11–16, rules the earth for 1,000 years (20:4–6), and judges the world after His millennial reign (20:11–15). Then, finally and forever, God wipes away all tears from the eyes of His children (21:4). Thus, from the Rapture call in Revelation 4:1 to the wiping away of tears in 21:4, there is intermittent and spasmodic weeping for 1,007 years!

Is your carnal episode with the world that important to you? Will it have been worth it all when we see Jesus? Turn from the path of sin to the path of service, and prepare for a glorious, triumphant entrance into the presence of the King! Then at that hour, you will receive crowns to place at the feet of your beautiful Savior (Revelation 4:10–11).

Am I ADDICTED?

By Dr. Rexella Van Impe

When we hear the words “addict” or “addiction,” it seems that our chest involuntarily tightens and our heart drops in dread and alarm. Alcoholism and drug dependency — whether marijuana, crack cocaine, methamphetamines, heroin, ecstasy, or powerful prescription painkillers — are problems of crisis proportion in virtually every community in our nation.

Literally billions of dollars are being spent waging a futile battle against drugs. It is a war we are losing and cannot win because it is a key prophetic sign of the latter days, pointing to the soon coming of our Lord. Almost weekly, media sources try to personalize this pervasive plague, showing various individuals, often young people, who have surrendered their minds and given their bodies over to horrendous, destructive addictions.

Have you ever known an addict? Perhaps this person wasted all of his or her resources on drugs, maybe even stole from family and friends, or got involved in crime or prostitution to feed his or her enslaving habit. It's heartbreaking to see bright, decent people sink so low that they literally can't help themselves. I've known drug-enslaved youngsters who went into rehabilitation programs and seemed to be all right for a while. But too often they ended up right back on drugs, more hopeless than before.

Is addiction killing America?

Besides alcohol and drugs, Americans struggle with countless other awful addictions. Millions are obsessed by gambling, uncontrolled spending, pornography, illicit sex, and other vicious vices. Millions more spend hour after hour surfing the Internet, playing video games, or sitting like zombies in front of TV sets watching inane and immoral programs. And in a land of abundance and excess, two-thirds of Americans are literally eating themselves to death, fatally addicted to food!

Is this addiction? I believe so. When these activities habitually and obsessively control people's behavior, causing them to develop a compulsive need for whatever controls them, they are addicts! And these kinds of addictions are powerful ... and potentially deadly.

I'll never forget a teenage girl I met on the street in downtown Toronto a few years ago. Jack and I were there to enjoy a few days of relaxation and rest and had gone out for a late-night walk. Summertime Toronto is a very safe and wonderful place to walk, with thousands of other people out enjoying the lights and sights of the city.

When we stopped at a corner to wait for the traffic light to change, this teenager came up to me and said, "I know you — I've seen you on television." I greeted her, and we talked for a brief moment. I sensed from her appearance and facial expressions that she probably was part of the drug culture. She told me that sometimes when she couldn't sleep at night, she went over to a store window with a display of television sets and watched our program, "Jack Van Impe Presents."

Then she asked, "Where are you going, Rexella?"

I replied that Jack and I were on our way back to our hotel — that it was about bedtime for us. And I asked, "Are you going home tonight?"

Her answer burned into my very soul — "I am home," she said, "I live on the street!"

Just then the stoplight changed, and a flood of people surged off the sidewalk into the street, carrying us along with them. Somehow I lost my new friend in the crowd. I looked for her when I got to the corner ... I even went back across the street trying to find her. But I never saw her again. The Lord knows where she is — where all of the lost and addicted souls are who are wandering in the dark.

I often think about that teenager and the sad look on her face whenever I pray about the problem of addicts. I hope she watched our telecast again and received words of hope and encouragement, and that the Lord has helped her get off the streets and free from her addiction.

Can we be addicted to good?

According to the dictionary, one of the definitions for addiction could have a positive connotation: "a compelling motivation." I believe this is what the Apostle Paul was exhibiting when he declared in 1 Corinthians 9:16, Woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

He was saying, "I am compelled to share the Gospel. There is something about my calling that is so powerful that it is like an addiction. There is nothing else I can do but preach — I can't help it, I must do this." No wonder he wrote in Romans 1:15, I am ready to preach the gospel....

Paul's calling must have been a "compelling motivation," because he traveled all over the known world of his day preaching the Gospel, making converts, and planting churches. In some areas he was accepted, honored, and lauded, but in many other places he was met with opposition and persecution. No doubt there were plenty of times when he might have turned back had it not been for his addiction to the Gospel and carrying out the Great Commission.

Acts 14 relates how unbelievers sought to stone Paul and Barnabas in Iconium, but they escaped and went to preach at Lystra. Then his persecutors did stone Paul there and left him for dead. But he managed to get up and go to Derbe, another city in the area, to preach. After teaching many people there, Paul headed right back to Lystra and Iconium to minister in the very places where people had tried to kill him.

Later Paul listed some of the persecution and trouble he faced in order to carry out his calling. He spoke of being in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness,

But many, many others have given their all to the cause of Christ — they became addicts who gave themselves so completely to the Lord that they could do nothing else.

We have a great host of tremendous examples, all the way back to the first disciples. All of them became martyrs for the Lord — they were all murdered for their faith, every single one. And there are other great Christian champions in almost every era.

Some years ago, Jack and I were in Europe visiting England, where I was privileged to interview some noted church leaders in that country. During a visit to historic Westminster Abbey, I was particularly drawn to the burial site of David Livingstone, the renowned missionary to Africa.

amazing one-third of the continent. When Livingstone died on May 1, 1873, kneeling by his cot in prayer, his faithful African friends buried his heart at the foot of a giant tree, mummified his body, and carried it almost a thousand miles to the coast. A ship carried his remains to London, where he was buried in Westminster Abbey on April 18, 1874. That day was an official day of national mourning in England.

When I stood in that famous old church and read the memorial marker for Livingstone, I was impressed by both his total life sacrifice and his remarkable accomplishments for the Lord. “Compelled by the love of Christ,” he helped change the course of history in Africa and strike a powerful blow against slavery worldwide.

Buried next to Livingstone in Westminster Abbey is David’s brother, John. While David was preparing himself for a lifetime of missionary service, John’s ambition was to find a way to earn lots of money. Apparently, he was successful and became very wealthy. I believe he also became a famous cricket player, and enjoyed fame and adulation in addition to his affluent lifestyle.

Why would Paul take such risks and endure such pain and hardship?

in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness (2 Corinthians 11:23-27).

Why would Paul take such risks and endure such pain and hardship? He was an addict to his calling. He had to go, even if it meant facing persecution. “I have to do it,” he said, “for woe is me if I preach not the gospel!”

Paying the price

There is a price to be paid for serving God. Those who are not sold out, soul and body, to their commitment to Christ and their calling to His commission may find the Christian lifestyle too arduous and difficult. Some have turned back and said, “This is not for me.”

Livingstone was born into a poor Scottish family and began working 14-hour days in the cotton mill at age 10. He went to night school for two hours after work each day, and would also prop books on his machine so he could study while working. Later he studied medicine and theology in Glasgow, and soon felt called to go to Africa as a missionary.

Asked why he would leave Britain to go to the “dark continent,” where he most likely would give his life and die, Livingstone said simply, “I am compelled by the love of Christ.”

For the next 30 years, he served God in Africa as a missionary preacher, physician, scientist, anti-slavery activist, and explorer. He trekked over and mapped an

None of these things were worthy of consideration when John’s memorial marker was inscribed. There is no mention of his wealth, fame, or position. The marker reads simply: “John Livingstone, The brother of David Livingstone.”

Isn't that astounding? All of John's riches and his privileged lifestyle amounted to nothing in the end. But David Livingstone's addiction to the Gospel — being compelled by the love of Christ — will be recognized forever, both here and in heaven.

I live with an addict!

For an example of a person "addicted" to the work of the Lord, let me take you a little closer to home — in fact, to my home. I have had the privilege of spending a lifetime with my dear husband, Dr. Jack Van Impe. And from the beginning of our life together, I realized that he was absolutely an addict when it came to serving the Lord.

For many years, we traveled all over the world ministering in churches, later in large community auditoriums and stadiums, and doing everything possible to win souls to our Lord. In those days, we spent far more time on the road than we did at home. It took dedication, hard work, and an all-consuming passion for soul-winning and for giving people hope and comfort in a troubled world.

But that's not all. There is absolutely no way for me to fully describe Jack's determination — no, compulsion! — to memorize the Word of God. For weeks, months, years, he spent hours every day studying handwritten cards with Bible verses written on them. Not only did he memorize each verse and where it was found in the Bible, but also its subject. That's why today, it's not unusual to hear him quote a dozen verses from various parts of the Bible relating to a specific topic. It's amazing, even to me after all these years.

But I know what it cost him — hours and hours and hours of daily study to memorize them ... and ongoing hours and hours every year to review and refresh those verses in his mind, even today.

And that's still not all. For many, many years now, Jack has averaged reading at least one book a day, studying the Bible and prophetic topics, as well as history, current events, and international politics. When he speaks so authoritatively on television, applying the Word of God to today's news about events and world leaders, he knows what he is talking about. He is an absolute addict to his ministry!

By the way, Jack and I produce 52 television programs a year, in addition to the videos, books, magazines, and other ministry projects. The average TV sitcom does only 27 or 28 shows per year. We've been producing 52 programs annually for years; the total is now 1,560 programs. Is the extra work worth it? Absolutely! We get thousands of letters from people who say they prayed the prayer with Jack at the end of the program and accepted Christ into their hearts.

When we go out to a restaurant or a shopping center, we're almost always bombarded by people who've seen us on TV and just want to say hello or share a brief testimony. One evening we were stopped 19 times on a short walk.

Our office has record of more than 2,500,000 precious people who have come to Christ through the outreaches of Jack Van Impe Ministries. At a time when others might be thinking of slowing down, he still is addicted to helping others open their hearts and lives to our Lord! Full speed ahead!

Are you an addict?

What about you? Even if you are not called to a pulpit ministry, or to minister on television, or in a church setting, I believe God has given you a special gift to share with others. There is a way you can serve the Lord — in fact, there may well be people you can reach with the Gospel who might not respond to anyone else in the whole world.

Wherever God has placed you is your mission field! How can you be a witness to those in your world? Are you taking advantage of your unique opportunities to be used of the Lord?

What if you set a goal to share a testimony, a word of witness, or to stand up for what is right at least once each day? You wouldn't have to be a preacher, or have dozens of Bible verses memorized, or be a trained counselor. What if you just shared what God has done in your life? If you are willing to do it, someone will listen!

Become an addict for good, for God ... driven by an all-consuming passion to do something — anything — for the Lord today. 🌍

I feel very blessed to be able to hear and watch you both preaching every Sunday morning. I adore you, Rexella. You have such a sweet spirit. Thank you so much for giving us the whole truth. May God continue to bless you!

Too many Christian leaders don't understand or refuse to acknowledge the truth about the Rapture and the Great Tribulation — so millions are deceived!

Don't let your family remain in darkness.

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe can show you what the Bible actually says — and help you answer critical questions like:

- ▶ How does the Antichrist come to global power?
- ▶ How and why does he attempt to eradicate all Jewish people?
- ▶ Who is the false prophet?
- ▶ Who are Armageddon's international players?
- ▶ What is the exact prophetic timeline for these events?
- ▶ When does Christ return bodily to this earth?
- ▶ What about the end of the world?
- ▶ How close are we to the Rapture?
- ▶ What happens after Armageddon?
- ▶ Will there be a millennium of Christ's rule on earth?
- ▶ Who will rule and reign with Christ?
- ▶ Who prays the Lord's prayer hypocritically right now?
- ▶ What are the two resurrections in Scripture?
- ▶ Who was the very first preacher to teach about the Rapture?
- ▶ Who is judged at the Judgment Seat of Christ?
- ▶ How many judgments are executed during the Great Tribulation?
- ▶ How many of the 500 prophetic signs predicting the Rapture have already taken place?
- ▶ If the signs are all in place for us to read, why does the Bible say no one knows the day or the hour of Christ's return? (Think about different time zones!)
- ▶ Are we already in the "7th Day" of Bible prophecy?
- ▶ Where does the Bible predict "road rage"?
- ▶ Can you find rockets and missiles in the book of Isaiah?
- ▶ Famines, earthquakes, and the rising of false prophets — are these prophecies already being fulfilled?
- ▶ Did the Bible predict the atomic bomb?
- ▶ Who wants to destroy Jews and Christians?
- ▶ Who is slaughtering Christians right now?
- ▶ Why do signs like persecution, violence, and terrorism mean we should actually rejoice?

And many more!

Hello. I am 23 years of age.
I believe I wrote to you not too long ago.

At the time, I was incarcerated in a Texas Justice Center. I want to thank you for writing me back and for your prayers. I was being held on a false accusation. I was in jail for seven months, but never through those seven months did I lose faith one bit. I converted and never looked back.

Last Wednesday night, as I was kneeling and praying to the Lord Almighty, I asked Him to make me a free man so I could help my family and friends and many of the youth convert to Christianity. I told Him that regardless of what happens, I would serve Him all the days of my life.

Last Friday, I was released. I was so surprised because it all happened in a matter of minutes. God was answering my prayer right before my eyes. The jailer pulled me off to the side and said, "You're getting released." I couldn't believe my ears. I kept asking him, "Are you sure it's me? Are you sure you have the right guy?" And his reply was, "Yes, we don't even know why you are here. We don't have any charges against you."

After seven months of praise and worship and faith in God, He answered me. I had left it all in God's hands and knew it was all His timing. Sure enough, I was right.

He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. To this day, I am speechless and overwhelmed, but I know this was His work and His way of getting my attention before His coming.

I want to thank you for your precious words of inspiration and hope. I thank the Lord for your being there when I needed someone's help to maintain, because you and your wife are a big key to my converting. For that I am eternally grateful for you and your ministry.

May the Lord truly bless you until we meet in heaven, my friend.

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings as eagles" (Isaiah 40:31).

“I want to thank you for your precious words of inspiration and hope.”

Thank you SO much for your relentless, loving work in sharing the Gospel of Jesus and warning us about the scary future events that are coming against America and our fellow Christ-loving Christians around the world.

Because of your wonderful ministry, my husband (who comes from a background of Latter Day Saints) gave his life to Jesus during one of your awesome TV programs!

Every week we watch your show faithfully. We love you both, and Chuck Ohman too.

I am so blessed in Jesus to say that I've followed your ministry since the late 1970s! I still have and cherish my Perhaps Today pin from more than 20 years ago.

—G.S.

I want to take a moment to thank you both for standing for Jesus, for taking the chance on losing your life for what you convey in your weekly ministry. You have done so much for the Lord and have brought millions to Him from around the world.

It has been my honor to be a part of your weekly preaching. Thank you, truly, for all that you do in the name of Jesus Christ. God bless.

—T.C.

I've followed your ministry for many years and have some of your literature and recordings (which resulted in one of my best friends' salvation).

I'm on a fixed income now and cannot make any gifts to your ministry at this time, but I pray for you daily. I can only see you on TV twice a week.

I want to thank you from the depths of my heart for standing up in defense of the truth — naming of names of those who abandoned God's work; and though you lost stations, it will be their loss for not standing with you.

Keep it up. You're rattling the modernist's chain, and Satan doesn't like it. We're on the winning side and I'm glad to have you on the air. God will bless you regardless of those who quit because of being unpopular. Those who protested and had you taken off the air were against God, and they failed to get to God by using His servant.

—G.J.

I have been a long-time fan and viewer of your television program. Your insight and information regarding the Bible, prophecy, and current world events and how it all will affect everyone on this earth, whether you see and believe it or not, have been a blessing to me for 20+ years.

Thank you, Drs. Jack and Rexella, for raising me and my family up in Christ. I give God all the glory for the both of you and your ministry!

—T.A.

As a born-again Christian, I just love to read and hear Bible prophecy. The Word of God is so powerful and relevant in our age. I learned from your programs the importance of our connection to the Jews, Jerusalem, and Israel.

Keep up the great work. May God continue to bless your ministry. We may never meet in this life, but I'm looking forward to meeting you both and Chuck Ohman in heaven. God bless, take care, and thank you for your ministry.

—B.H.

I ordered one of your DVDs. It's GREAT. The article you sent me has truly been used. I've been going to Staples — to copy, copy, copy. I've mailed articles to three ministers and have used it as a mission to inform others. I have put articles into the hands of about 30 people.

Thank you so much, and God bless you.

—R.S.

I thank God for bringing us to Himself through you. Now it is 20 years later and I am still watching your program. My wife is with the Lord now since April 6, 2004. I am waiting for the return of Jesus very soon.

I have been following your ministry since I was a baby Christian almost 20 years ago. I can't thank you enough for the truthful preaching and standing on God's Word and not holding back because someone might be offended. I look forward to your weekly podcasts and the newsletter that I pass on to as many people as I can.

May God richly bless you both!

—K.G.

You ministered at my grandfather's church back in the '50s, and my father attended and came forward to give his heart to the Lord. He passed away in August 2012, and I know because of that day, and his life after, he is in heaven with Jesus and my mother. Thank you.

“Don't let up, Jack and Rexella. I owe my salvation to you! Christ did the work. You delivered the message to me!!”

—J.C.

I am a minister in the UK, and one of my congregants watched your programmes on Sky TV over here. When the shows stopped, she was upset, so I got in touch with you through your website. Since then, I have had your emails and passed them on to her.

I have preached a series on Revelation twice, but your study showed me how much I had missed seeing. I have been encouraged.

The series on Daniel has been eye-opening as well; it was a book I had never done a series on. But you have inspired me to study for a forthcoming series. Now, your present subject is so exciting to me. As you may see, the warnings are preached forth in our church so that no one has the chance to say "I never knew."

Thank you for all you do on our behalf.

—C.M.

Just letting you dear people know that I enjoy your ministry very much. I am so glad to know there are people in the world who still proclaim the Gospel, without changing. You have been consistent ever since I first heard you on the radio.

—B.B.

I am ordering your Prophecy Bible for my 15-year-old granddaughter who has accepted Christ and is hungry for knowledge. I know she will use it and grow closer to Jesus because of it. I have one of my own, given to me by a dear friend at her husband's death. It has given me many hours of peace in these last days as Jesus said, "My peace I give unto you."

I use much of your material to convey to others things I cannot convey myself. Thank you for your work for Christ. God bless you and Rexella for your soul-winning work.

—R.P.

You and Rexella have been with me since 1982. It was the lowest time of my life (I thought of suicide), but listening to the two of you saved me. Thank you.

—K.M.

I listen to your DVDs over and over again. They are so informative and knowledgeable. I can't wait for the Rapture and meeting my Lord in the sky.

Since retiring, I've come back to the "fold," renewed my faith, and re-reading the Word. It is so wonderful to be one of His children again.

—M.H.

“God bless you and Rexella for your soul-winning work.”

Their years on earth are few, but their impact is immeasurable!

Revelation Revealed

study shows impact of JVI prison ministry

Thanks to the love and support of friends like you, Jack Van Impe Ministries is able to place prophecy resources into the hands of convicts in prison. These books, videos, and audio CDs are like treasures for men and women behind bars.

One group of inmates recently studied together through the Revelation Revealed series. Their reactions show how important these resources are to them:

- › “Both books have helped me gain a deep understanding of the prophecy books. I have always stayed away from the book of Revelation as being too complicated to understand. Your book walked me through step by step and verse by verse and opened the door of understanding.”
- › “By far, this book breaks down the book of Revelation in a clear and easy-to-understand way which helps the reader to compare with scriptures in the Bible.”
- › “Your books have helped me gain a greater understanding of all prophecy, especially the book of Revelation.”
- › “Dr. Jack Van Impe, I thank you again for your work. Because of it I have benefitted so much.”
- › “I am currently incarcerated, but yet truly I am freer than I ever have been. Most people will not believe or understand it.”

Thank you for helping to get God’s Word out through Jack Van Impe Presents and important Bible prophecy studies and into the prison system.

MOVE OVER JESUS: MUHAMMAD THE NEW 'SAVIOR OF HUMANITY'

WND.com reports: "At this turbulent time in history when many people are looking for answers to their problems, a brand-new TV campaign calling the Islamic prophet Muhammad the 'savior of humanity' is about to saturate the airwaves of Australia.

'Tens of thousands' of dollars have reportedly been raised by the Muslim community to fund a series of 30-second commercials to begin airing on the country's biggest networks starting July 9.

The ads are produced by My Peace, an Australian group looking to build bridges between the Muslim community and other citizens of the land Down Under.

The prime-time spots will air over the course of several months, and feature famous historical figures such as Mahatma Gandhi and George Bernard Shaw praising the virtues of Muhammad.

'This is a response to misinformation. Not many (Australians) are aware of who the prophet is and why we regard him so highly and so emotionally,' My Peace founder Diaa Mohamed told the Sydney Daily Telegraph.

'The commercials will be animated with voiceovers and will have quotes on the screen.

'Muhammad is the most influential man in history and the commercials will show what scholars and historians have said about him.'

Gandhi said the prophet 'holds undisputed sway over the hearts of millions' and Shaw called him the 'savior of humanity'...." (Four hundred times the Word of God states that Jesus is the Savior of the world. I John 4:14-15 states: *And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. Jesus said in John 5:43: I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. II Peter 2:1-3 states: But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. God awaken the sleeping, unconcerned ministers of America and Australia to warn their nations!)

MODERATE CLERIC HASSAN ROWHANI TO BE IRAN'S NEXT PRESIDENT

Haaretz reports: "Moderate cleric Hassan Rowhani won Iran's presidential election on Saturday [6/15/13], the interior ministry said, scoring a surprising landslide victory over conservative hardliners without the need of a second round run-off.

Interior Minister Mostafa Mohammad-Najjar announced on state television that Rowhani secured just over 50 percent of the ballot based on a 72 percent turnout of 50 million eligible voters. 'Mr Hassan Rowhani ... got the absolute majority of votes and was elected as president,' Najjar said.

The outcome will not soon transform Iran's long tense relations with the West, call into question its disputed pursuit of nuclear power or lessen its support of Syria's president in the civil war there — matters of national security that remain the domain of Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei.

But the president runs the economy and wields important influence in decision-making and Rowhani's meteoric rise could offer latitude for a thaw in Iran's foreign relations and more social freedoms at home after eight years of confrontation and repression under hardline President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, who was legally barred from seeking a third consecutive term.

Though an establishment figure, Rowhani is a former chief nuclear negotiator known for his nuanced, conciliatory approach. He has pledged to promote a policy of 'constructive interaction with the world' and to enact a domestic 'civil rights charter'...." (It's a relief to rid the world of the obnoxious second Hitler of our day. I collected over 500 headlines wherein Ahmadinejad constantly threatened America and Israel. Hopefully President Rowhani will be a little more conciliatory and gracious. However, Imam Khamenei who controls Iran and its people still pulls the puppet's strings. However, we know that Persia, which changed its name to Iran in 1935, marches with Russia for Armageddon — Ezekiel 38:1-2,5.)

SPOKESMAN SAYS IRAN'S PRESIDENT 'WILL RETURN WITH HIDDEN IMAM'

Radio Free Europe Radio Liberty reports: "An Iranian government spokesman has said that outgoing President Mahmud Ahmadinejad will return with the Hidden Imam, who according to Shi'ite belief went into hiding in the 10th century and will reappear to bring justice to Earth.

'God willing, with the manifestation of Imam Mehdi, Ahmadinejad will also return and work for the establishment of pure Islam,' spokesman Gholam Hossein Elham was quoted as saying by Iranian news agencies.

Ahmadinejad and his close aides have been criticized in Iran over their repeated references to Mahdi and signs of his imminent coming.

Ahmadinejad came under fire in March for saying that former Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez will be resurrected alongside Jesus and the Hidden Imam...." (This is a deadly headline. Past President Ahmadinejad is now looking for Islam's messiah, Mahdi. In past headlines this former president stated "I must kill all Jews before my messiah comes." Let's hope and pray that he can't find him in order to avoid a global tragedy. However, no nation or person will rid the world of God's Chosen People — Deuteronomy 7:7-8 — because Yahweh, our God, has given Israel an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off — Isaiah 56:5.)

CHINA AND RUSSIA CONDUCT JOINT NAVAL DRILL

BBC News reports: "China and Russia are beginning joint naval drills which Beijing has described as the country's largest with a foreign partner.

The drills, which are taking place in the Sea of Japan, last from 5-12 July.

People's Liberation Army chief

Gen Fang Fenghui said the drills did not 'target any third parties,' but aimed to deepen ties with Russia.

However they come amid tensions with regional neighbours including Japan and the Philippines over maritime disputes.

China has overlapping claims with Tokyo and Manila in the East China and South China Sea respectively — something which has led to a marked deterioration in ties in recent years as China has pressed its claim more assertively.

Last month the US and Japanese navies held joint exercises off San Diego...." (China and Russia become headlines in the final war, Armageddon — Revelation 16:16. The first invasion is headed by Russia, aligned with an Islamic group of nations, one being Iran — Ezekiel 38:1-2,5,8,16. The second invasion is headed up by China and the leftover armies of Russia and Islam — Daniel 11:44; Revelation 16:12; and Revelation 9:14-18. The third and final invasion is when all nations converge upon Jerusalem and Christ returns to end the battle and set up His kingdom in Jerusalem — Zechariah 14:2,4; Luke 1:32-33.)

God save us from Chrislam!

The unholy "blending" of Christianity and Islam is an abomination — and yet some Christian leaders like Rick Warren have seemingly embraced it.

Such apostasy is predicted in Bible prophecy — and you need to protect yourself and your family from it.

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe's video teaching will help you find the truth and discover:

- What two powerful world leaders are promoting Chrislam?
- How many religious leaders are also on board? (You'll be surprised!)
- What has led to even prestigious universities being infiltrated by Chrislam?
- Do these developments reflect the "falling away" predicted in Bible prophecy?
- Is it true that even Christian ministers fall into apostasy?
- If and where does the Bible refer to Chrislam?
- And much more!
