HOW LONG UNTIL THE FLAG OF ISLAM FLIES OVER

THE WHITE HOUSE?

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

Old Glory flying over the White House — you’ve seen the image more times than you can count. We hardly even think about it, because it’s such a common sight. The Stars and Stripes represents America, and the White House stands for America too.

Or does it?

Could the American flag come down? Could the flag of Islam go up in its place?

Could the judges in our courts be replaced by Islamic “imams” in turbans? Could our constitutional rule of law, and the biblical principles on which our nation was founded, be pushed aside in favor of Islam’s brutal “shariah” law, with its mutilations and beheadings?

These may have seemed like empty rhetorical questions a generation ago — but today, the world is hurtling toward Armageddon, as radical Islamic extremists press toward their diabolical goal of world domination. Islam is committed to taking over the entire world — including the United States and Canada!

They have already advanced further than you may realize.

We have reports that some 3,000 traitorous U.S. citizens are in Syria, right now, engaged in the process of studying and preparing to become suicide bombers!

Islamic shariah law is already being forced into European courts.

A former Archbishop of Canterbury has admitted publicly that Anglicans are afraid to speak about their faith because of the threat of death under Islam’s shariah law.

The head of the British Broadcasting Corporation has admitted that the network can air anything it wants about Jesus and nobody complains — but not a single word against Allah, because of the likelihood of Muslims with AK-47s threatening violence against them.

Muslim jihadists want to kill Christians and Jews — they don’t believe “infidels” deserve to live — but most world leaders, President Obama included, remain silent about the murderous targeting of people of non-Islamic faiths.

Islam is taking over nation after nation, not just in the Middle East but in Africa and beyond.

Islam’s greatest friend in the Western Hemisphere also happens to be the “leader of the Free World”: our own anti-Israel President of the United States, Barack Hussein Obama!

What we in North America are witnessing today is a “perfect storm” of President Obama appeasing radical Islamists and our preachers accommodating radical Islam, preaching the heresy of “co-existence”: the delusional “Chrislam” melding of Christianity and a supposedly peaceful Islam!

The Spirit of the Lord awakened me on four separate mornings with revelations from the ancient book of Daniel — demonstrating that Satan and his demons are waging war amongst the nations.

Ephesians 6:12 says we wrestle not against flesh and blood, other human beings, but against principalities, against powers. What are principalities and powers? Territories and jurisdictions! The demons of hell are taking over region after region, nation after nation. We are seeing it, before our very eyes!

Oh beloved, we’re living in the final hours. Just before Armageddon, the Antichrist arises and comes to power — how? On a peace platform (Daniel 11:21,24). But in reality it’s a contract of death and hell (Isaiah 25:15). Why? Because “by peace he destroys many” (Daniel 8:25). How could people be so fooled? Because satanic powers have made them believe that all is well. This is the tragic deception we’re witnessing at this very moment!

There’s much, much more, I want to share with you. In the face of such enormous, dangerous errors, we must sound the alarm. We must proclaim the truth before it’s too late! This is the compelling incentive behind the production of our brand-new video teaching: ISLAM’S FLAG OVER THE WHITE HOUSE?

Beloved, you need this fast-paced 60-minute video, to understand the truth about what is happening in your nation and your world. This is for your own protection. It is also a crucial resource to share with your friends and family.

Islamic cleric Anjem Choudary told ABC’s Christiane Amanpour that one day the flag of Islam will fly over the White House. This is how the network correspondent replied: “Those who dismiss his statement as the ranting of the radical fringe aren’t listening.”

In this extraordinary presentation, Rexella and I will reveal to you the answers to life-or-death questions:

1. How is Islam planning its global takeover?
2. Where are the gruesome ISIS beheadings predicted in the Bible?
3. Where have four demons been unleashed in our lifetime in the Middle East?
4. Who is Muhammad Hisham Kabbani, and what has he said about a new world order based on Islam?
5. Why do Christians need to know, and speak up, about the advance of Islam?
6. What threat do jihadists really pose to our national security?
7. How is the Obama Administration demonstrating support, by billions of dollars annually, for Islamic countries?
8. What is President Obama’s stance toward Israel?
9. How could Islam’s flag actually come to fly over the White House?
10. What is the explanation for the world growing dramatically more violent?
11. What hope can Christians

- have in the midst of growing turmoil and danger?
12. What are ayatollahs and other Islamic leaders saying about Islam’s intention to take over the world?
13. How is Islam intertwined with sinister powers?
14. What are media leaders like Bill O’Reilly and Charles Krauthammer saying about Islam?
15. How are Israel’s enemies shaping the road to Armageddon?
16. Why are Christians in the military being censored, while Muslims are allowed to serve as military chaplains?
17. What exactly is shariah law?
18. How are women treated under shariah law? How does this differ from the treatment of women in Christianity?
19. How close is Armageddon to happening, really?
20. And much more!

There is no question that you and your friends and family need this video. It not only exposes the truth and issues a clear warning — it also calls the lost to faith in Jesus Christ, Son of the One True God!

I urge you to request it as you give generously in support of our evangelistic television ministry, reaching every nation on earth! Your generosity will mean lost people being led to faith in Jesus Christ — and you will enable us to continue proclaiming the truth about Islam’s dangerous advance.

WOW. Keep up the good work in spreading the message of Jesus Christ to the multitudes of believers and unbelievers. We pray that all who hear will be open to receiving. God bless you mightily.”

DON'T BELIEVE THE LIES ABOUT YOUR LORD!

Experience the shocking prophetic insights of
THE JESUS OF JUDAISM, CHRISTIANITY & ISLAM

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

The lies are astonishing. Outrageous.

Radical Islam has mounted an incredible global assault on our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ — proclaiming absolutely astounding untruths, distortions, deceptions.

They are successfully misleading multitudes — driving them down the path of a Christless eternity!

Of course you might expect such a campaign of hateful falsehoods throughout the Islamic nations of the Middle East — but Islam's "disinformation" efforts are no longer limited to the populations of their Muslim homelands. They have brought their perverse P.R. campaign to North America. They have succeeded in persuading major "Christian" leaders to believe that our Christian faith can co-exist with the evil of Islam. They claim that the two faiths have a number of "similarities."

So they are selling a diabolical "Chrislam," which combines Christianity and Islam. Alarming, vast numbers of unsuspecting men and women across America and around the world are being taken in by this hugely dangerous and destructive heresy!

Rexella and I have determined to launch a massive counter-offensive to proclaim the truth about Jesus — before it's too late and Islam overwhelms Europe and then North America, dragging millions into an eternal hell. We are striking a massive blow with our new video: The Jesus of Judaism, Christianity & Islam.

This is a powerful 100-minute video experience, a startling exposé of the lies that Islam

We must defend the Cross of Christ. You must understand the prophetic impact of this worldwide assault on the name of our Lord Jesus (John 15:18-20). I need your encouragement as I have received two more death threats by Muslims in the past few months. Let's stand together for our precious Lord and Savior. is deviously promoting. But that's not all. The Jesus of Judaism, Christianity & Islam also reveals how these massive deceptions are preparing our world for the final global conflagration of Armageddon! THIS REPORT WILL SHOCK YOU. You will see how Islam is already preparing for — and promoting — this global war!

This video will arm you against the deceptions and delusions about Jesus that are seeping into our culture. Through this extraordinary teaching, you will come to know the Jesus of your own faith as never before! Perhaps most importantly, you will be able to share the truth with your friends and loved ones.

This fast-paced video answers crucial questions like:

1. What does Islam teach about Jesus as the Son of God, about Jesus' crucifixion, about salvation through Jesus?
2. What are Muslims told to do to infidels?
3. How does Islam fuel anti-Christian persecution?
4. What is jihad really about? Are world leaders telling us the truth about it?
5. Is God done with the Jews? How does He feel about them? How should we Christians feel about them? (See Psalm 122:6.)
6. How does Israel becoming a nation in 1948 and taking Jerusalem in 1967 prove that Jesus is coming back very soon? (In this video, we prove we are the Rapture generation!)

7. What is the future of the Jewish people?
8. What does the Old Testament teach about the trinity? the virgin birth? the deity of Jesus? His second coming and reign?
9. Is Barack Obama a Christian?
10. Who is the Messiah of Islam, and how does he rule over the Prophet Jesus of Islam?
11. Did the Jews know Jesus would be crucified? That He would rise again?
12. What are the five fundamentals of the Christian faith?
13. What are the differences between Christianity, Judaism, and Islam?
14. Do Islam and Christianity share the same God?
15. Is the Jesus of the Koran the same as the Jesus of the Bible? (This will shock you because I quote chapters and verses from the Koran, exposing each blasphemous statement.)

And many more!

Beloved, I urge you to request this video as you give in support of our global evangelistic television ministry, because it could be the key to eternal life for that unsaved loved one for whom you've been praying ... and that neighbor to whom you've been witnessing ... perhaps that child or grandchild for whose salvation you've been pleading with God!

As you view this video, your own prophetic future will appear before your eyes — you will be confronted by the incredible, comprehensive truth about who your Jesus really is — and I believe you will never be the same!

You're going to experience more hope than ever before! You'll long as never before for that moment when we see Jesus face-to-face! # LET THE DOVES SPEAK

“HAVE YOU EVER HEARD THE VOICE OF A DOVE? THEIR SINGING
MAY BE SOFT AND SOOTHING, BUT IT IS PERSISTENT. THE VOICES OF DOVES WILL NOT BE HUSHED.”

I had the great privilege while I was growing up to sit under the ministry of a great teacher, Dr. H. H. Savage. He was the only pastor I ever had, a brilliant man with a great passion for souls and a far-reaching vision for missions. He was an articulate speaker who could reach out and touch one’s heart each time he entered the pulpit.

He was one of the first ministers to start a Christian radio program in the state of Michigan, along with the “Radio Bible Class” in Grand Rapids. On the air or in person, he was able to make Christianity a dramatic and exciting adventure. For example, out of the 103 young people in my teenage class, more than 20 of us felt a call to enter the ministry and ultimately went into full-time Christian work.

Because my brothers and I were musically talented and began singing at a very young age, I had the privilege of singing in the church and on Dr. Savage’s radio program from the time I was five years old. He was such an encouragement and blessing to me. Yes, he gave me the vision of being part of God’s work.

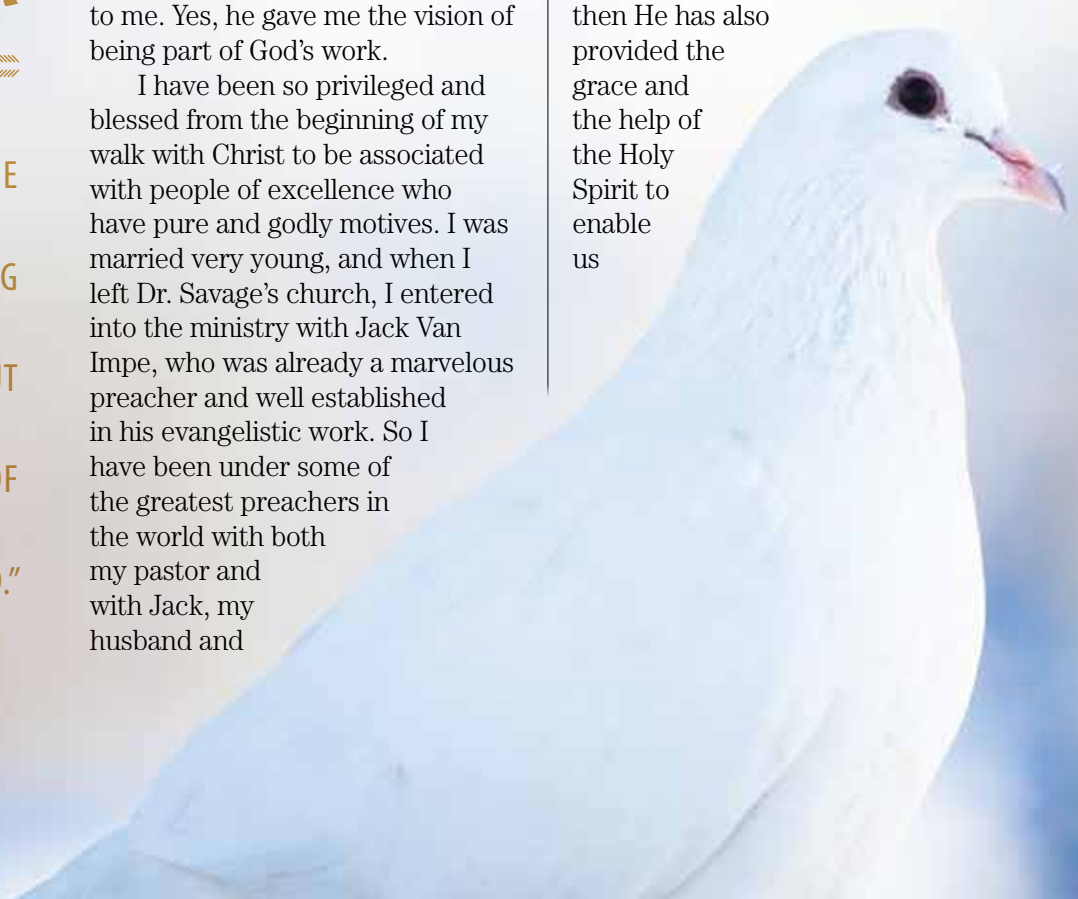

I have been so privileged and blessed from the beginning of my walk with Christ to be associated with people of excellence who have pure and godly motives. I was married very young, and when I left Dr. Savage’s church, I entered into the ministry with Jack Van Impe, who was already a marvelous preacher and well established in his evangelistic work. So I have been under some of the greatest preachers in the world with both my pastor and with Jack, my husband and ministry partner.

For as long as I have known him, Jack has been a great student of the Word, and it has blessed my heart to see him develop into one of the greatest prophetic teachers and preachers in the world today. Truly I believe that God chose Jack to be born for this day and age, and I certainly know that I was born to serve with him. How wonderful that is!

Recently in my personal devotional time, I read and reflected upon Matthew 5:3–11, the part of Jesus’ monumental Sermon on the Mount known as the Beatitudes. It had been some time since I’d read this passage, and it struck me that no one else could have given such a compelling sermon as this — not even Dr. H. H. Savage or Dr. Jack Van Impe.

This powerful message is not legalistic or impractical idealism. Instead, it is a call for a new way of life. Our Lord would not have given it to us if it were not attainable and workable. If He has called us to do it — and unquestionably He has — then He has also provided the grace and the help of the Holy Spirit to enable us to achieve it in our daily practical living.

Let's take a look at these eight simple but profound statements — the Beatitudes:

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven (MATTHEW 5:3).

Each of the Beatitudes begins with the word blessed, which means “to be highly favored, honored, or set aside.” It speaks of the deep soul contentment that comes not from what we experience as much as who we are. I want to be blessed, don't you?

In this first Beatitude, I believe “poor in spirit” refers to humility, the authentic attitude of the heart. It is the kind of spiritual poverty that is overcome only by total dependence upon Christ. At the same time, the person who is truly poor in spirit also recognizes that everything is his because of God's great gifts.

Jesus demonstrated true humility when He knelt down and washed the feet of His disciples (see John 13:3-9). I can hardly imagine the God of this universe kneeling to wash the feet of these men, including Judas; the man Jesus knew would betray Him. This kind of humility comes only from the Lord.

The gospel account says that Peter's initial reaction to the humility of Jesus was to refuse to allow his feet to be washed. But Jesus said, “If I don't wash you then you have no part with me.” So impulsive, reactionary Peter then pleaded, “Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.”

Maybe the essential point of this whole exchange was the Lord's declaration that experiencing His humility is essential to a relationship with Him. If we don't have that kind of humility, we have nothing. But if we experience it, we are blessed ... and the kingdom of heaven is ours! What an amazing promise.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted (MATTHEW 5:4).

How can mourning be blessed? When it is for the needs and hurts of others! Our mourning is blessed when we are moved with a tender heart and compassionate spirit for the lost and those who suffer. Bob Pierce, the wonderful missionary who founded both World Vision and Samaritan's Purse, once prayed, “Let my heart be broken with the things that break the heart of God!” That's the kind of mourning about which this verse is speaking. And without it, it is almost impossible for us to give comfort — or to receive it.

Do you remember Jesus' story of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:30-35)? A traveler was attacked by thieves who robbed him, beat him, and left him for dead by the side of the road. A priest came by and then a Levite, but they passed by without helping him. Then a Samaritan saw him and had great compassion on him. He gave the man first aid, put him on his donkey, and carried him to an inn. There he paid for the man's care.

Perhaps the priest and the Levite felt pity for the unfortunate man, but they passed by. Pity says, “Oh, that's terrible. I'm so sorry.” But the Bible says the Samaritan had compassion, which mourns with one's suffering and says, “Here, let me help!”

During His earthly ministry, Jesus certainly demonstrated compassion to people everywhere He went. He once ministered to a crowd of 5,000, and when they became hungry, He fed them all. When He saw sick people, He healed them. When He saw lost sinners, He loved them. Do you see the pattern? Pity costs nothing. But compassion feeds, heals, and loves!

Have you ever needed to be comforted? Is there a chance you will ever need it again? That blessing comes only to those who weep and mourn for the suffering of others ... and give until it helps.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK OF YOUR MINISTRY!

And Rexella, you have such a soothing tone to your voice. I love to hear you say, “God cares for you, and so do we, so very much.”

—B.K.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth (MATTHEW 5:5).

Blessing comes to those with a gentle spirit and a calm attitude. Meekness is not weakness — it is the kind of strength that remains calm in the face of calamity. It is the person who can confront someone who has done wrong and keep his emotions under control, reaching out as a gentle servant of the Lord to lift up and restore the fallen.

Jesus sent His disciples out to minister, telling them to be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves (Matthew 10:16). Have you ever heard the voice of a dove? Their singing may be soft and soothing, but it is persistent. The voices of doves will not be hushed. The wisdom of the Lord enables us to deal with problems, with opposition, with the pressures of the world in meekness — not with anger and violence, but with gentle strength.

During one of the huge crusade rallies Jack and I conducted several years ago, a crisis situation arose. Jack was still speaking to people in the auditorium after some had already gone to the prayer room for counseling. Someone came to me and said, “Several motorcycle gang members are causing trouble in the counseling room — can you come do something?”

and the rest of his friends looked startled — almost shocked. They didn't know what to do with gentle strength.”

As I entered the room I saw seven or eight big tough-looking guys, mocking and laughing at what had happened as another counselor spoke with them. I said, “I’m Mrs. Van Impe, and in this room we ask everybody to stay in an attitude of prayer.” One of them replied, “Aww, your husband spoke on hell tonight, and there’s no such place — it’s just a joke!”

With that, the Holy Spirit came on me, and I leaned close to the young man, looked him straight in the face, and said, “You may not believe it, but one day you will feel it. Every word Jack spoke tonight is backed up by the Bible, God’s Word, whether you believe it or not.”

The biker and the rest of his friends looked startled — almost shocked. They didn’t know what to do with gentle strength. However, the Holy Spirit did His work and before they left the prayer room I led them all to the Lord. Praise the Lord! God blesses when we stand upon the Word and show gentle strength.

I believe we need to be different from the world. In the midst of the rush, let’s not forget to be gentle and have time for people. I believe once more we can experience what Solomon described: The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land (Song of Solomon 2:12 NKJV). Walking in the gentle strength of meekness, we shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled (MATTHEW 5:6).

I believe this Beatitude refers to our having a desire to see justice around us, in our own country and around the world. Those who are blessed by God, foreseeing the needs of others, do things to help just because it is the right thing to do. They speak up for the poor and needy and for people in other lands who have not had the opportunity to live in freedom. Are we concerned enough about righteousness and holiness to be driven by these holy characteristics as urgently as our bodies respond to hunger and thirst?

This verse also makes me a bit introspective. I read it and ask, “How can I be righteous? How can I be right as I walk in this world?” I must die to self and selfishness and allow Christ to live His life in and through me! The apostle Paul said, the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me (Galatians 2:20).

I believe that you and I can claim this blessing only when we truly hunger and thirst after holiness and doing what is right. Then what happens? We shall be filled ... with righteousness and with His glory.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy (MATTHEW 5:7).

Mercy and righteousness are inextricably linked together. If we truly want righteousness, we get involved, we extend help to the needy, we assist, and we forgive those who have sinned against us. If it is within our power, we must show this kind of mercy to those we encounter. Can we not share the mercy that we ourselves have received?

The writer of Lamentations cried, It is of the Lord’s mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness (3:22-23).

What a blessing to have the promise of God’s mercy as we show tenderness to others. What a joy to realize that goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life (Psalm 23:6).

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God (MATTHEW 5:8).

Everything that we have seen and experienced so far is by faith. None of us has ever had the joy of really looking at God. We have seen His handiwork, we have witnessed His love for us by sending His Son, and we have seen the attributes in Christ that He wants us to have. But we have never seen Him.

One day we will — if our hearts are pure. That is His promise.

To me, that will be the best thing about heaven. I’m not the most excited about seeing the golden streets and magnificent surroundings.

I love and miss my wonderful mom, dad, and brother who are there (and I do want to see them with all of my heart), but the first one I want to see in heaven is the Lord, my Savior and my God!

How, then, can my heart be pure? My pretenses and masks must go because purity of heart cannot be falsified — it must be genuine and sincere. My entire being cries out, Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me (Psalm 51:10).

This Beatitude, to my mind, is a foundation stone. It gets down to the crux of everything, doesn't it? If you don't have a pure heart, where is the authenticity to want to do the right thing? Without a pure heart, how can you be merciful?

Indeed, without a pure heart, I cannot see Him. And oh, more than anything in this world, I want to look upon His face!

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God (MATTHEW 5:9).

The Bible teaches that if it were possible we are to live peaceably with all men (see Romans 12:18). The Lord doesn't want us to harbor hate, animosity, or intolerance. There will be no place in heaven for racists. Humbly and gently, we are to seek solutions and to disarm hostility. The Bible says, A soft answer turneth away wrath (Proverbs 15:1). I believe that we should seek to be the kind of person who — at home, at church, at work, or wherever we go — can simply enter a room and change the atmosphere.

Another way we can bring peace is to help bring order out of chaos. Where there is clutter and confusion, simply stepping in to help organize and restore order reduces stress and tension. And we can have the courage to do this by calling upon the wisdom and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Word of God says that everywhere Jesus went He did good and destroyed the works of the devil — which produced peace (see Acts 10:38; 1 John 3:8). And Jesus said that if we believe on Him, the works He did we can do also, and even greater (John 14:12). So as we go out and do what Jesus did, we will make peace, because He was, and is, the Prince of Peace, the greatest peacemaker the world has ever known, or will ever know.

If you give this a try, don't be surprised if people start calling you a child of God. After all, that is the Lord's promise!

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you (MATTHEW 5:10-12).

The idea of persecution being a blessing seems very strange, especially for believers in America. We have never experienced most of the things that missionaries and other Christians around the world have been forced to endure for the sake of the Gospel. Yet Jesus said that we would have tribulation and suffering in this world. And for such monumental sacrifices, He said there would be great rewards and crowns.

I had great admiration for one of the girls in my home church. She married a minister and they went to South America as missionaries. The team with whom they were working was attacked by primitive warriors from the Auca Indian tribe, and my friend's husband was one of the men who was killed.

The incident attracted international news coverage, and I vividly recall seeing a television interview with the father of the martyred young man. He was asked, "If you could have kept your son from going to South America and being killed as a missionary, would you have done so?"

I'll never forget his answer. He shook his head and said, "Would I rob my son of the martyr's crown?" Of course that father felt grief for his son's death, but he expressed no bitterness or regret. He genuinely believed that his son would be blessed with a great reward in heaven because of the persecution he endured for the Lord (Revelation 2:10).

I truly believe all those who lose loved ones in God's work receive a special measure of divine comfort. I believe God might well speak to their hearts saying, "I understand how you feel — I sent My Son into the world, and they crucified Him also."

The psalmist declared, weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning (Psalm 30:5).

My challenge to you:

I encourage you to underscore Matthew 5:3-11 in your Bible and read those few verses often. Life itself is in that short passage. Let the Holy Spirit impress each phrase of the Beatitudes on your heart and stamp them indelibly in your mind.

Remember, this kind of living is possible! Jesus would not have spoken these truths if they were not accessible for all of us! I believe that when you and I hide these words within our hearts and then open our mouths to speak, the Holy Spirit will give us the words that we should say. And when these utterances come forth from our mouths ...

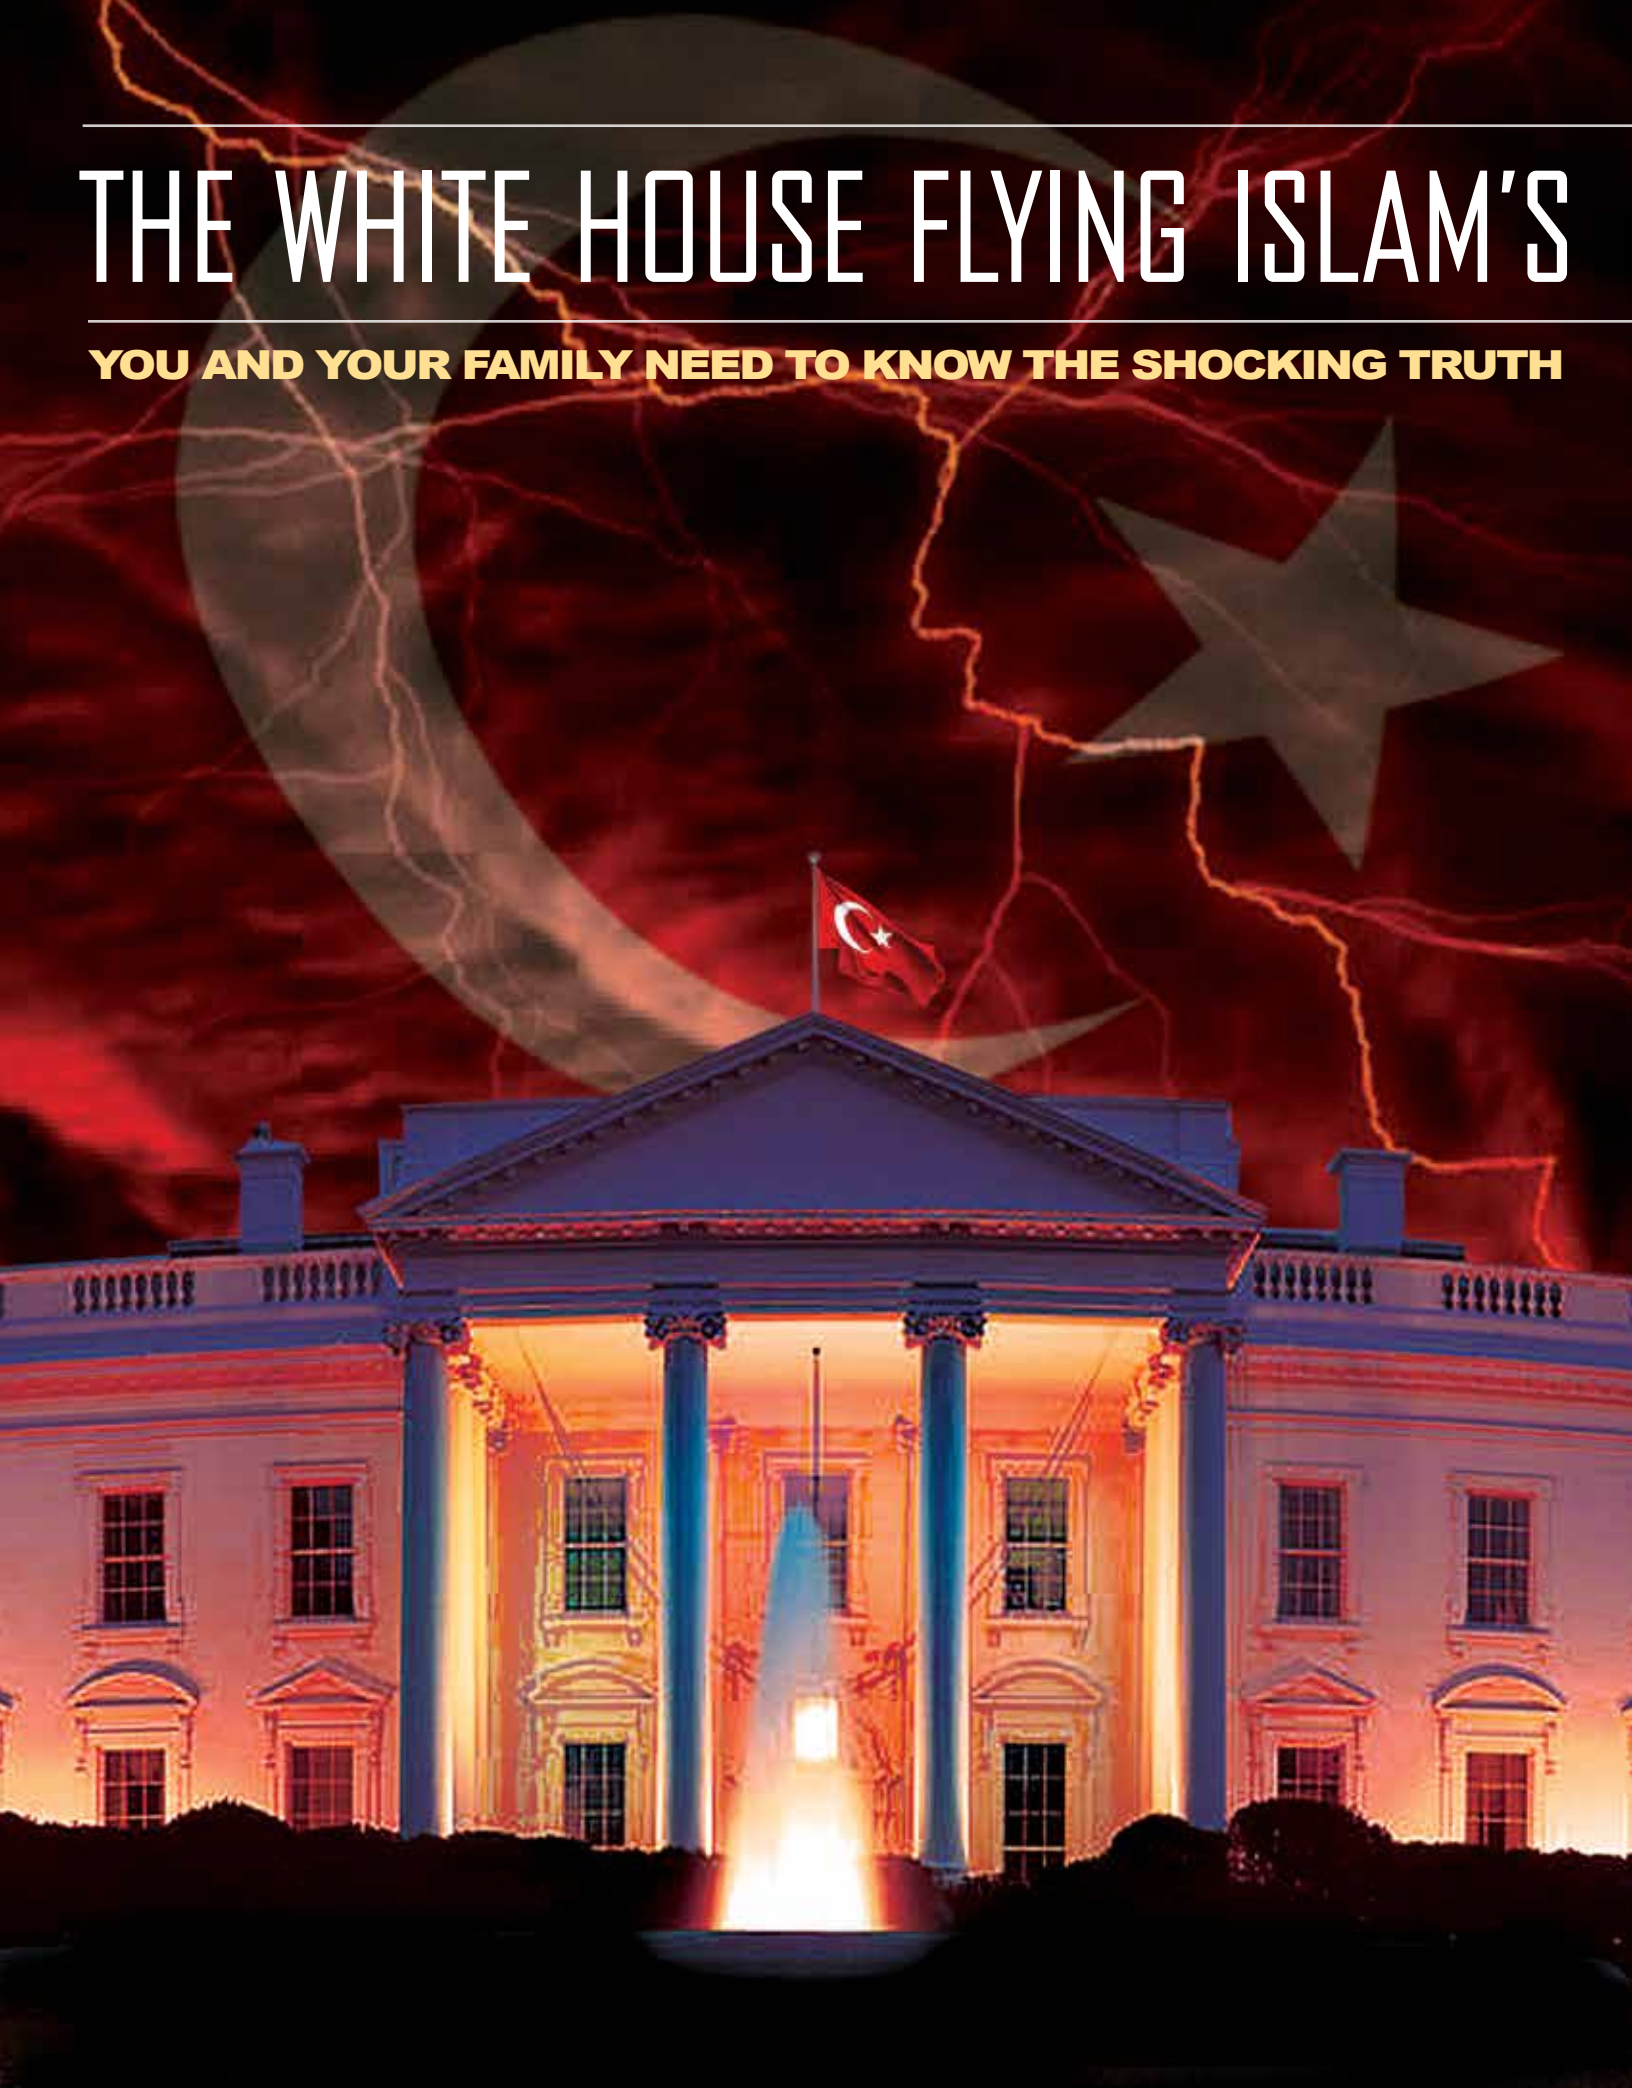

... the voices of the doves will be heard! 🕊️

My cousin, age 58, had lost his job and then his wife to another man. He was then homeless. A few months later, he was diagnosed with stage 4 cancer.

I had him watch a VHS from my collection of your tapes. I saw his face become lightened, and he accepted Christ in answer to our prayers. He died two months later a changed man, full of hope. We read the Bible together daily, and I'll never forget the closeness shared by him, me, and our Savior! God bless. S.W.

“...a changed man, full of hope.”

Go get 'em, Jack! You and Rexella have been awesome on TV. My wife and I watch your truthfulness and love for all people, but what I admire most is your spirit and love for Jesus.

May you both continue to witness and tell the world to get ready! Our King is coming! Jack, you're at top speed now. Don't slow down! We love you both. C.S.

I felt I needed to send you two a thank-you!

Years ago, my husband was led to the Lord after listening to one of Jack's sermons. He went into his sister's room and "took" a tape thinking there would be some good music on it, and there was instead a sermon by Jack! Praise God!

I love your boldness, and each Sunday evening after church, we enjoy sitting in the den watching your show. You are the only folks I know of who give names and specific information. Please continue your work in the Lord Jesus Christ, and we will continue to pray for your safety and good health.

Thanks to your program, I have a keen interest in Revelation and end-times books as well. I feel that I can't get enough information, and the credit for that longing I give to your program. May God richly bless you both, and when we are raptured home, I'm certain you will both have many, many crowns to lay at the feet of our Lord! W.H.

I always look forward to your next program, which I watch on my computer. I pray for you and Rexella often. I so appreciate your brave courage in speaking the truth, which is so rare. And I, too, want to see many saved before it is too late.

You and Rexella are such beautiful, dear servants of the Lord. I don't think Rexella will need much makeover for her new body. She is so beautiful, and looks so young.

I am amazed at your talents.

Dr. Jack, you must have a photographic memory to memorize so many verses, and a genius IQ to read so fast and so much. And, if that isn't enough, you could play "Flight of the Bumblebee" on the accordion! I, too, am an accordionist. I have played for more than 11 years. I hope there will be accordions in heaven (not hell, as some joke).

When Rexella sings, she sounds like an angel. And she has such a kind, sweet personality.

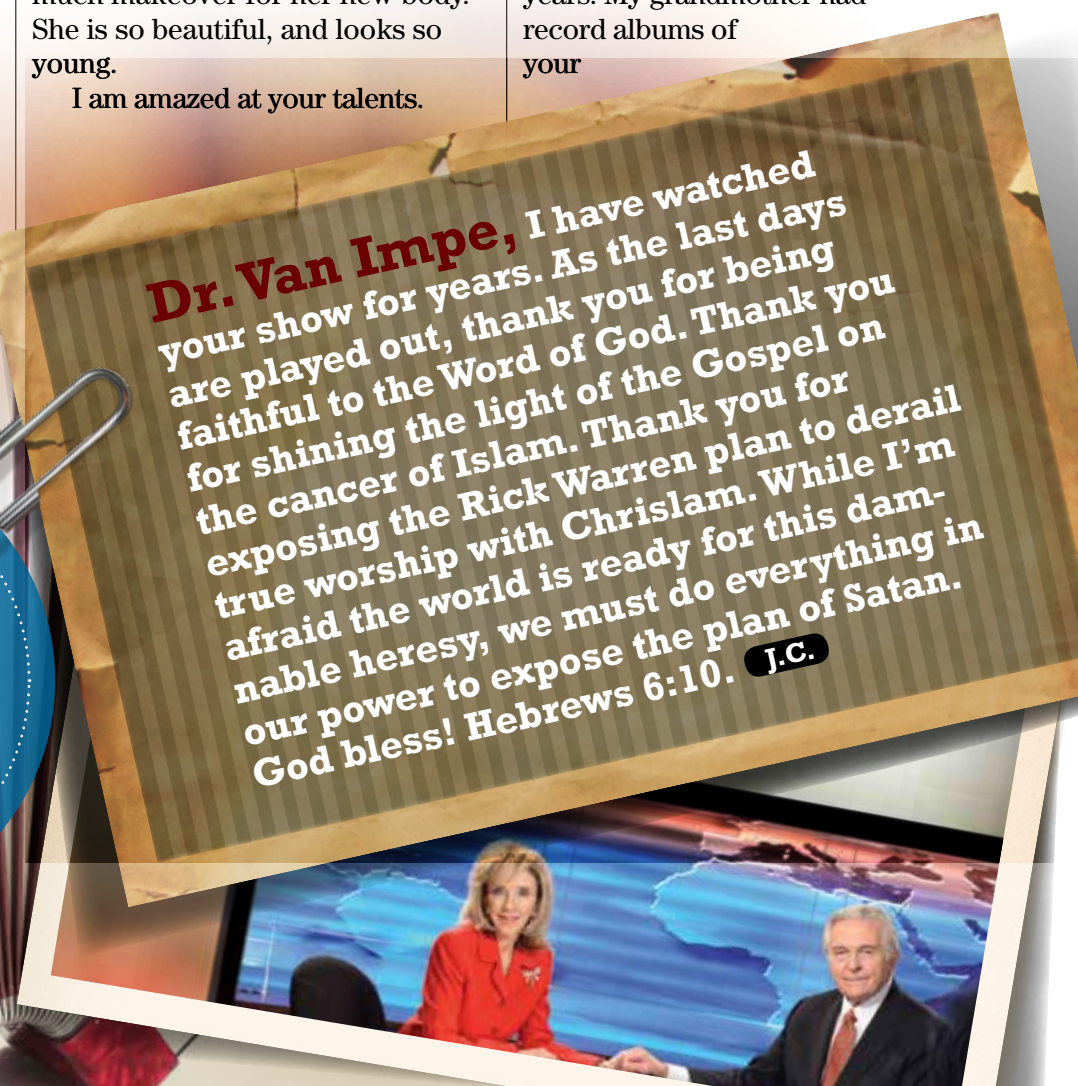

May your ministry continue until the Lord takes us away! A.S.

I am so grateful for your devotion to the truth of Jesus, the one and only Son of God and King of Kings — the Messiah.

I have listened to you for years. My grandmother had record albums of your

Dr. Van Impe, I have watched your show for years. As the last days are played out, thank you for being faithful to the Word of God. Thank you for shining the light of the Gospel on the cancer of Islam. Thank you for exposing the Rick Warren plan to derail true worship with Chrislam. While I'm afraid the world is ready for this damnable heresy, we must do everything in our power to expose the plan of Satan. God bless! Hebrews 6:10. J.C.

I am amazed at your talents.... [Y]ou could play 'Flight of the Bumblebee' on the accordion!

teachings. I would listen with great expectation of the return of Jesus, and, dear bother and sister, it's near. I watched a recent broadcast pointing out two churches, the Philadelphian church and the Laodecian church — WOW! I left a church of 18 years because they became a church-business mega building, promoting Rick Warren and other authors and their take on the truth. NEVER should any man, author, or teaching have center stage in our churches on Sunday morning or any other time. I'm with you, dear Brother Jack — it's the Holy Bible, the true Word of God, that we should read, hear, teach, admonish, etc.

God bless you, and I look forward to hearing you again. S.L.

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Just a note and gift to you for use wherever you need it most. We really love you, Jack and Rexella, and we praise God daily for you and the work you are doing.

You led both my wife and me to the Lord, and we will never stop thanking you.

We thank Jesus daily for you not backing down from preaching God's Word as it is, and not pulling any punches. We can't wait for your program to come on each Sunday. C.C.

I'm a born-again believer and watch your show almost every week. I was really disturbed about a recent program stating that certain people in Canada are coming against the Jews. I ask God to forgive us for our foolishness and that He would pour out His mercy and grace on our nation. There are a lot of believers that love the Jewish people, and our Prime Minister is one of them.

My wife and I really enjoy your show and trust that you will always preach God's Word no matter what anyone says. Blessings! B.R.

I expect to be called “Come hither!” very soon. Please, Rexella and Jack, make time for my wife Robyn and me to meet you in the Kingdom so we can both thank you for bringing us to Jesus. God bless you both. See you soon! J.G.

I have watched you and Rexella for over 20 years and have never been disappointed. With every new show, I am absolutely fascinated and glued to the edge of my seat just waiting to hear more. You are better than any movie I've ever seen. And, I know with certainty how this one ends. I believe you are a modern-day St. Paul, and I pray for you and Rexella often.

I have grown, and continue to grow, nearer to the Lord as a direct result of your show. C.H.

Greetings in the blessed name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

I take, as a great pleasure, this privilege to write you this brief note. May I begin by saying a heartfelt thanks to you for preaching “the faith once delivered to the saints.” We need men of God who preach with the power and unction of the Holy Spirit, and it is evident that you do.

Thank you for taking the stand you take, the names you call, and the truth you set forth for a needy world to consider. If we had more men of God like you in the pulpits of America, then I doubt America would be in the messes we are in.

It is good to hear someone preach the truth about Islam and warn our apostate churches of the truth about where we actually are.

I take the same position you do in reference to Rick Warren and his ungodly move toward creating something called Chrislam. The lack of spiritual insight in our nation’s churches is amazing but sad. But isn’t the fact that so many are following Rick Warren evidence of this truth?

As I continue to pray for you, I would ask that you pray for me. I have the privilege of presenting before some of the State of West Virginia’s legislators the dangers of shariah law and the need to put something in place that will insure that our state’s judicial system and its constitutional integrity be preserved. It seems to me that far too many in our nation are blind by choice. I choose not to be one of those who is.

I also ask that you pray for me as I continue to warn the people I have the privilege of pastoring and preaching to about the dangerous, perilous, apostate days we are living in. I know I (we) don’t have long until the Lord comes. But until He does, I am glad to know that some will be found faithful in declaring the truth, and I plan to be one of those that are.

I will continue to pray for the ministry that God has graciously called you to. Thanks for being a voice of and for THE Truth. T.P.

I love you both and what you have taught me all these years! You stand tall for our Lord Jesus Christ, and I’m most grateful for you and your true teaching. You’re very interesting, and I like the way you present yourselves.

I’ve accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior and Lord. I’m so glad I have. Thank you again!

May God protect you both from evil. You’re family to me, and you’re welcomed in my living room! I hope to meet you both in heaven. S.L.

God bless you. I always enjoy your program Sunday mornings. Jack, you are truly filled with the Holy Spirit.

I want to thank you, Jack and Rexella, for standing up for the TRUTH, the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I do my best to watch you every week.

I have nothing but respect for you and Dr. Billy Graham. You live Christianity, not just preach it! To live by example as our Lord did.

It’s not important what we’ve done in our lives; what is important is how we lived — compassion, empathy, sensitivity, and love, which are lacking in society today.

I’m disabled — neuropathy, barely able to walk or use my hands, going blind and deaf. Jack, I have no family at all. I’m 61 years old and found there are only two people I could depend on in life — Jesus and myself.

When I listen to you, your message is clear to those who truly want to hear God’s Word. I am looking forward to the day I’m called home to be with my Lord Jesus Christ. Then I will have the love, respect, and family I’ve never had here on earth. I have God’s promise on that!

God bless you and Rexella. You are my family. Be strong in the Word! R.F.

But if this blessed moment comes before the Rapture — if you die before the Lord's return — how can you be assured that the resources of your estate continue to proclaim the Good News for others?

A last will and testament that names JVI Ministries with a bequest is one great way people can make a significant gift upon their death.

Another option is an estate plan that includes a charitable trust or another giving vehicle — which may even yield tax breaks and regular income for you for the rest of your lifetime.

Video/book combo:

Drs. Jack & Rexella Van Impe divulge an 800-year-old prediction that Pope Francis will be the last Pope ever! Amazing video reveals what the Bible says about:

- the rise of a world dictator and a false prophet —
- Islamic radicals attacking Christians —
- how Iran fits into latter-day prophecy —
- what the Russian meteor strike means —
- who says Jesus Himself will destroy Christianity —
- how soon should we expect World War III and Armageddon —
- and much more!

Plus: engaging book answers these critical questions:

- What did Bishop Sheen, Pope John Paul II, and Pope Benedict believe about the possibility of a Pope actually destroying the Catholic Church?
- What radical position has Pope Francis already taken about same-sex marriage?
- Why was Pope Benedict targeted by radical Muslims with a “fatwa” (death decree)?
- Why did he shock the world and resign as Pope?
- What is Pope Francis’s attitude toward Islam? The answer will shock you in the light of Islam’s death threat upon Pope Benedict XVI.

Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe's video teaching gives you solid biblical answers to questions like these:

- How does the Antichrist come to global power?
- Who is the false prophet?
- How close are we to the Rapture?
- What happens after Armageddon?
- How many of the 500 prophetic signs predicting the Rapture have already taken place?

- If the signs are all in place for us to read, why does the Bible say no one knows the day or the hour of Christ's return? (Think about different time zones!)

Make sure you and your family are not deceived — share Christ's Return: Millions Deceived with your pastor and church, too.

Let Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe show you the truth about prophetic events that are happening right now!

ISIS CHANGES NAME, DECLARES ISLAMIC 'CALIPHATE'

June 29, 2014 — Haaretz reports: “An offshoot of Al-Qaida which has captured territory in Iraq and Syria has declared itself an Islamic ‘caliphate’ and called on factions worldwide to pledge their allegiance, a statement posted on Islamist websites and Twitter said on Sunday.

The move poses a direct challenge to the central leadership of Al-Qaida, which has already disowned it, and to conservative Gulf Arab rulers.

The group, previously known as the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS) and also known as ISIL, has renamed itself ‘Islamic State’ and proclaimed its leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi as ‘Caliph’ — the head of the state, the statement said.

‘He is the imam and khalifah (Caliph) for the Muslims everywhere,’ the group’s spokesman Abu Muhammad al-Adnani said in the statement, which was translated into several languages and read out in an Arabic audio speech.

‘Accordingly, the ‘Iraq and Sham’

(Levant) in the name of the Islamic State is henceforth removed from all official deliberations and communications, and the official name is the Islamic State from the date of this declaration,’ he said....” (A caliphate must be instituted by the Muslims of the 57 Islamic nations. This caliph has set himself up without the approval of all Muslim nations. In reality, this ruler, he has defied shariah law, which namely proclaims a death sentence to the man who sets himself up as the unelected leader. Let’s see what happens to the self-proclaimed caliph.)

TOP MALAYSIAN COURT RULES ‘ALLAH’ ONLY FOR MUSLIMS

June 23, 2014 — Voice of America News reports: “Malaysia’s highest court has upheld a government ban against a Roman Catholic newspaper using the world ‘Allah’ to refer to God.

The Federal Court ruled in a four-to-three decision Monday that the church’s Malay-language newspaper, The Herald, had no grounds to appeal a lower court decision last year that Allah should be reserved exclusively for Muslims, because if other religions use the word, it could be confusing and lead Muslims to convert.

Such conversion is illegal in Malaysia, where more than 60 percent of the population of 30 million are Muslim — the country’s official religion. Just over 9 percent are Christian.

Monday’s ruling ends a dispute that has been ongoing since 2007, when Malaysia’s Home Ministry threatened to revoke the publishing permit of The Herald for using the Arabic word in its Malay-language edition....” (We have religious leaders like Dr. Schuller, Rick Warren, and 300 others who signed the “Yale Covenant” which states: ‘We will call our Judeo-Christian God Allah.’ Apostasy reigns in 2014. Please look at the above headline again. Malaysian leaders forbid Christians from using and defiling the name of their god ‘Allah.’ What a rebuke to alleged latter-day Christian apostates.)

BOY KILLED BECAUSE HE MIGHT GROW UP CHRISTIAN

May 14, 2014 — WND.com reports: “A Christian girl who fled Nigeria after Islamic terrorists killed her family on Tuesday relayed to journalists in Washington the macabre conversation Boko Haram members had just before they shot and killed her brother.

The terrorists, in 2011, had just killed her father, a Christian pastor, and while one member of a Boko Haram hit squad that came to her home argued to let the young boy live, the other two agreed that he should be shot and killed because he might grow up to be a Christian pastor.

The stunning testimony is part of what Deborah Peters, now a student in the United States, related at an event set up by the Hudson Institute.

Peters, 15, originally from Chibok, where hundreds of her contemporaries and friends recently were kidnapped by Boko Haram in what has developed into a crisis for global proportions, said three Islamists in the Boko Haram terror group stormed into her family’s home.

Her father, a Christian pastor, was in the bathroom showering when they arrived.

‘It was 7:30 and three men knocked on the door and asked where my dad is,’ she said. ‘They drug him from the bathroom and shouted for him to deny his faith. He said he wouldn’t ... and they shot him three times in the chest.’

Then they debated killing her younger brother.

They concluded leaving him alive was a danger they could not risk, because he might grow up to be a Christian pastor too....” (“...Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven” — Matthew 19:14. “...Whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea” — Mark 9:42.)

JERUSALEM IMAM URGES MUSLIMS TO INVADE ISRAEL

May 19, 2014 — WND.com reports: “An imam at the Al Aqsa Mosque atop Jerusalem’s Temple

Mount has publicly urged the armies of the Arab world to invade Israel thus fulfill the great Muslim longing of destroying the hated ‘Zionist entity.’

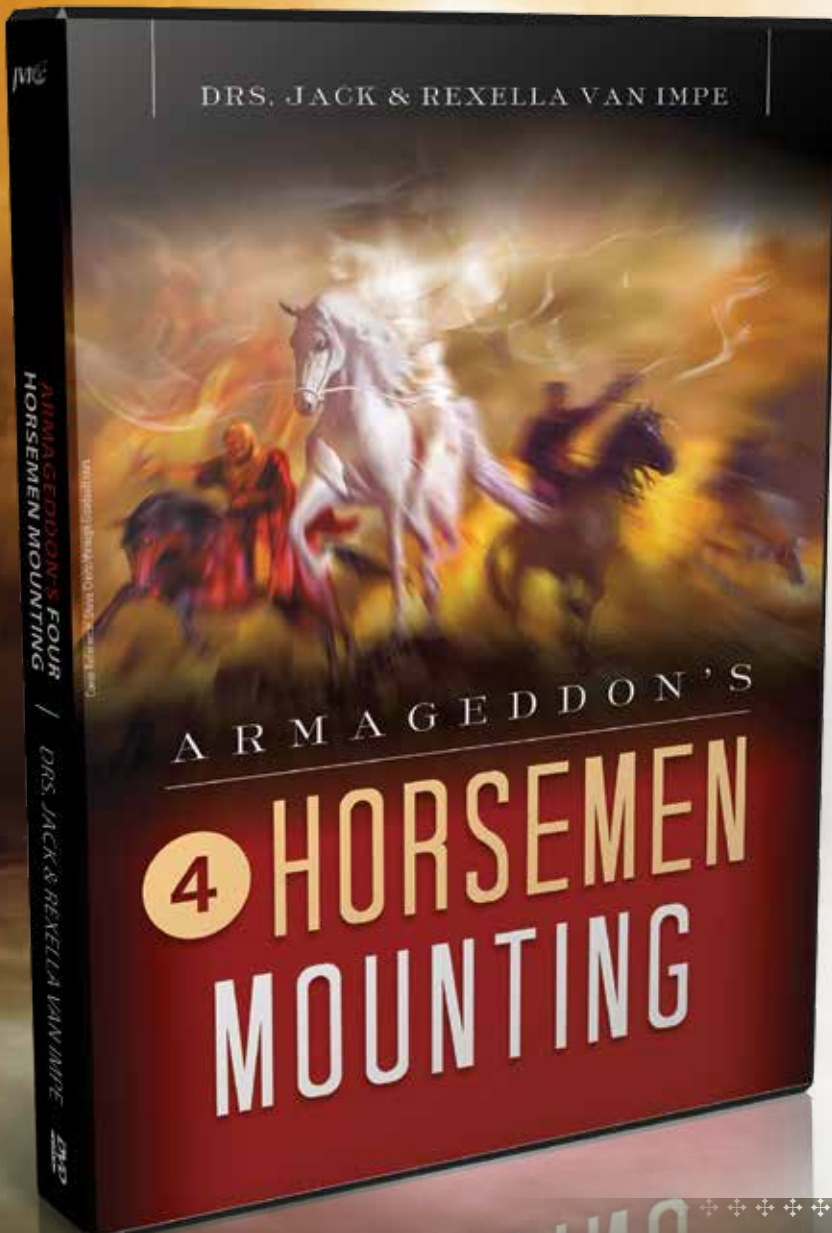

In a televised sermon from Milan, Italy, that was broadcast by Al Jazeera, Imam Raed Al-Daan said that Muslims everywhere are beginning to realize that ‘the Jewish state will vanish, and that the morning sun will rise on Palestine.’

Al-Daan went on to state that he and the other clerics who serve on the Temple Mount as part of the Palestinian Authority-appointed Islamic Trust (Waqf) ‘await the legions of the conquerors. We await the armies from Tunisia, from Jordan, from Egypt, from Iraq, from the Maghreb (Morocco and Algeria), and from the Hijaz (Saudi Arabia)’....” (How ungodly and contrary to the message of the Judeo-Christian God: “Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee” — Psalm 122:6.)

Behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him.... (Revelation 6:8)

THE 4 DEADLY HORSEMEN OF PROPHECY ARE ABOUT TO RIDE!

The signs of the times are everywhere ... current events signal the rise of the Antichrist, the return of the Lord Jesus, and the approach of the final four riders, the horsemen of the Apocalypse!

This sobering video teaching from Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe explains the role of these mysterious riders and reveals the answers to these gripping questions:

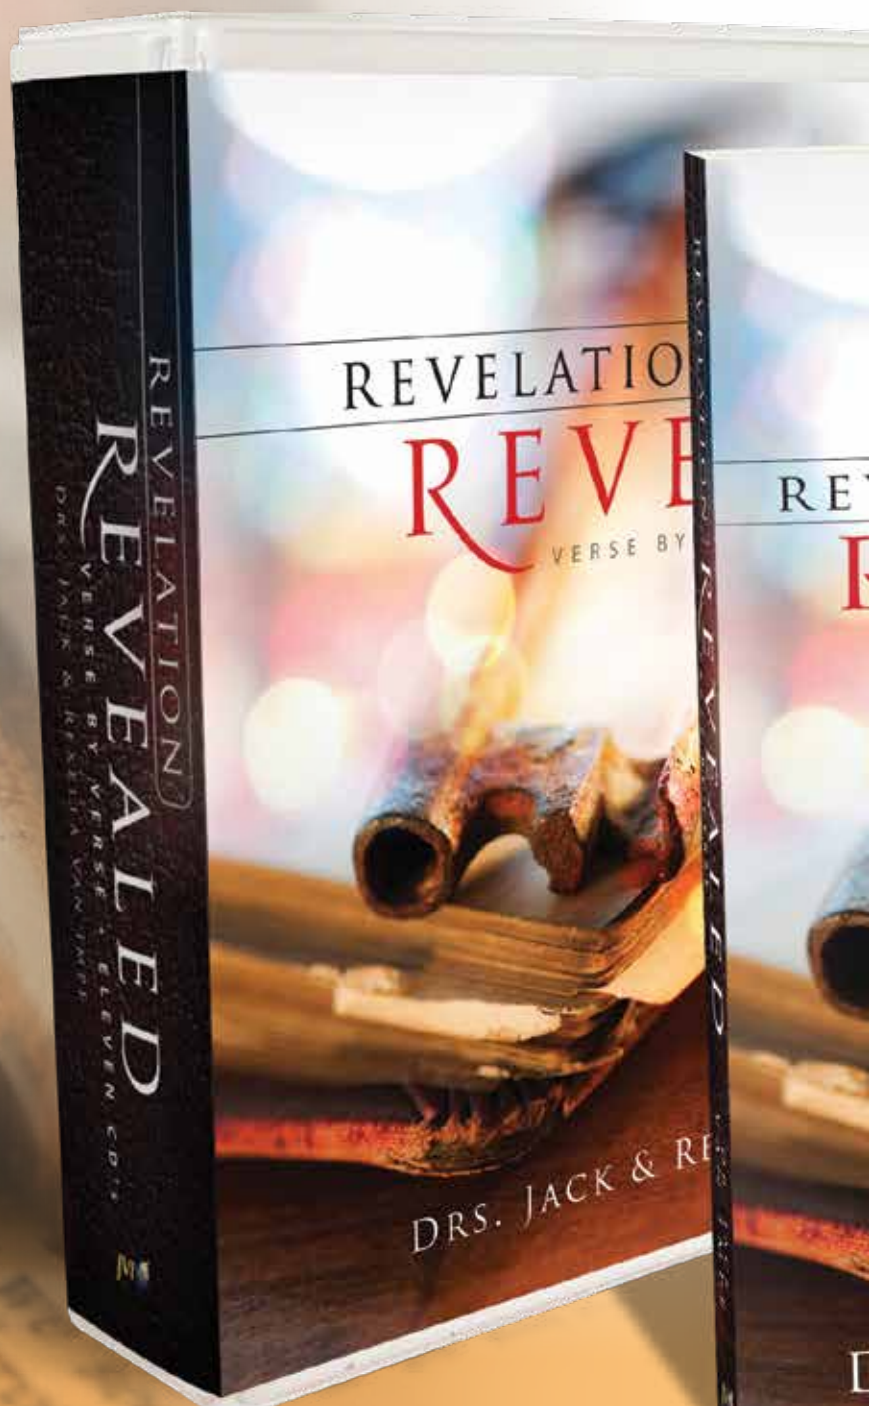

- ✦ Who are the four horsemen?
- ✦ How will the leader of the New World Order be related to the four horsemen? What will he bring to the world?
- ✦ How can we know if the horseman producing terrorism is waiting in the wings?
- ✦ What prophecy says that Pope Francis probably will be the last Pope before the Antichrist arises?
- ✦ When will there be peace in the Middle East?
- ✦ Which armies join with Russia in World War III?
