Revelation Revealed CDs and book (CDRRP)
Running Time: 10 hours

You can know the truth and understand the book of Revelation

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

Don't be deceived!

For centuries, Satan has persuaded Christians that the Bible's final book is too deep, mysterious, and complicated for them to understand. What a lie! Why would God promise to bless you for reading, hearing, and keeping the teachings of this book, in Revelation 1:3, if He had made it incomprehensible?

Revelation is the most graphic book of the Bible, filled with fantastic glimpses of the world to come: angels, beasts, dragons, villains, heroes, and more! And yet, it is amazingly understandable.

Centuries before anyone could comprehend the warnings of this book of Revelation, the prophets declared that the mysteries of Revelation would not be understood until the latter days. That time is on the horizon, and now, you, too, can discover the thrilling drama of the climax of all of history.

Don't believe the experts who say that Revelation was written only for the First Century Church, that Nero was the Antichrist, and all the prophecies were fulfilled 2,000 years ago.

But how could anyone say the prophecies of Revelation were fulfilled in the First Century — when we have not yet heard the “Come up hither” of Revelation 4:1? How could the prophecies already have taken place, when the Rapture of the saints has not yet occurred?

This confusion is the reason I believe God directed me to conduct a verse-by-verse study of the entire book of Revelation, Revelation Revealed.

It is clear the prophecies of Revelation were not intended only for First Century Christians, but for you and me, as we await the trumpet call that signals the Lord's coming. I hope and pray you will let me tell you more, about the Revelation Revealed book and 11-CD audio series.

In all my life and ministry, totaling more than 120,000 hours in Bible study over the course of 65 years, plus memorizing 15,000 verses of Scripture, I can emphatically declare to you that Rexella and I have never produced a single more extraordinary work than this Revelation Revealed teaching. It walks you verse-by-verse through the entire book of Revelation ... in a completely understandable, totally user-friendly format.

As you begin to listen to the CDs, you will find yourself engrossed in a fascinating latter-days journey. In my study, the Holy Spirit revealed great truths to me; I faithfully wrote each insight down and included them in this amazing teaching covering 10 hours of in-depth study on 11 CDs, plus the 311-page book! You will discover every important aspect of Bible prophecy, including:

- Christ’s return as King of Kings and Lord of Lords!
- The Rapture of the saints!
- Seven candlesticks, seven churches, seven messages for today!
- The Judgment Seat of Christ!
- A musical extravaganza involving millions!

- The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse!
- Volcanoes, astronomical bombardments, ecological disasters!
- Demon worship, drugs, deadly sex-enslaved humans!
- Clouds, rainbows, thunderings, lightning ... the mystery of God!
- A television spectacular: two executed witnesses resurrected!
- Extra-terrestrials warring in space!
- Antichrist, world government, and “666” — the mystery number!
- Mideast upheaval: a 200-mile river of blood!
- A smoke-filled Temple in a non-smoking area!
- Armageddon consisting of 200,000,000 oriental troops! (Revelation 9:14-18)
- Exposé of a harlot’s daughter!
- America’s Babylonian connection!

Revelation Revealed explains, emphasizes, and clarifies every verse plus each important development and significant point of this most thrilling and dramatic book of the Bible. When you understand Revelation, it will mean no more confusion, no more fear, about the so-called “end of the world” and the stunning prophetic events happening all around us!

Latter-Days SINS & SIGNS

BY DR. JACK VAN IMPE

In the second epistle of Paul to Timothy, chapter 3, verses 1-5, Paul deals with the hour when the church of Jesus Christ is resurrected and meets the Lord in the twinkling of an eye. The Lord Jesus Christ is coming again! Take a moment and read John 14:2-3; 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18; and 1 Corinthians 15:51-52.

Signs of His Coming

Now, how do we know that the coming of the Lord draweth nigh? There are many tremendous signs given in the New Testament. Let's consider 2 Timothy 3:1-5: This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

Some say, "Haven't these signs always existed? How can these be signs pointing to His return when we have always experienced some of them?" The answer is found by comparing Romans 1:28-32 with 2 Timothy 3:1-5. Paul, in Romans 1, is speaking about the pagan world of the ungodly. However, in 2 Timothy 3, he is speaking about the conditions that shall prevail at the end of the age of Christendom among those who profess the Christian religion. Did you get that? In Romans 1, he is talking about things that are happening among the pagans. In 2 Timothy 3, he speaks about the deterioration of the professing Church.

Never before have we seen signs so drastically predominant in the Christian Church than at this present hour. The only comfort we find in these conditions is that they do tell us that the coming of the Lord is at hand. We must be ready every moment. Let's consider these signs one by one.

Selfishness — Men shall be lovers of their own selves...

What a picture of this present hour, when church members are so busy satisfying their flesh with the world's goodies and pleasures, that they have no time to pray or witness to lost souls. God help us! A certain scribe came to Jesus in Matthew 22:36-40 and said, Master, which is the great commandment...? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

But, we are so busy satisfying our bodily appetites in the professing Church of Jesus Christ at the present hour that we do not have time to pray or win souls to Him. We are lovers of our own selves. One could expect this in the ungodly world of pagans, but how sad when one sees it among those who are supposedly of the family of God.

The Love of Money — Covetousness...

They will love money in the last days. In the first century, Peter could say, in Acts 3:6, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have, give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. The Church has wealth untold, but it does not have the power to perform miracles.

So many in our churches today are in the upper crust. They have money, so they think they are really something. They are so important that they have no time to help people, no time to do things for Christ, no time for the church, no time for devotions, no time for anything, except getting a few more dollars. In 1 Timothy 6:10 God says, For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. I hope you are not one of the signs of the end. Do not try to get everything you can to build an empire here and neglect the work of Jesus Christ.

Pride — Boasters, proud...

God said, Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up (James 4:10).

Satan fell because of pride.

In Isaiah 14:13-14 he said, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;

I will be like the most High.

Professing believers are so proud! A man recently came to me with tears in his eyes and said, "I was trying to win this young lady to Christ. Her parents are alcoholics, and she had nothing to wear but an old tattered dress. I took her to our church — a fundamental, Bible-believing church. When she walked down the aisle, I heard a few snooty people behind me say, 'Why do they bring that kind of trash to our church?'" If you are so high and mighty, I pray that God will speak to your heart and show you that you are one of the signs that Jesus Christ is coming soon. Our Savior said in Matthew 11:28-29, Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

Blasphemy — Blasphemers...

Blasphemy is a sin against the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul said in 1 Timothy 1:12-13, And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; Who was before a blasphemer... What did he do? He murdered Christians and hated the name of Jesus Christ. There are so many like that today. Our seminaries are filled with apostates who mock the doctrine of the Lord Jesus Christ — His virgin birth, His deity, His blood atonement, and His bodily resurrection. They talk about higher criticism and blaspheme Christ in the Scriptures. Seventy percent of the ministers are either affected or infected by this malady. God help us! Jesus Christ is coming soon!

Disobedience — Disobedient to parents...

Some young people say that they love Jesus Christ, but when their parents ask them to do something, they always answer back with a smart remark. Do they really believe the Bible? Listen, young man and young lady, to Ephesians 6:1-3: Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) that thou mayest live long on the earth. I was mightily moved not long ago as I studied John 19:26-27. Jesus Christ was hanging on the cross, dying for the sins of all sinners. Yet, in His last moments, He looked down and saw His wonderful mother; Mary, standing beneath the cross. Do you know what He said? Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! Even in the last moments of life as Christ was dying for the entire world, He still loved His mother.

He came to fulfill the Law, and He said in Matthew 19:19, Honour thy father and thy mother. You young people who are so disobedient and disrespectful are a sign that Jesus is coming soon.

Look at some the church members. They are ashamed to pray in a restaurant. When they do bow their heads, they sit there and scratch their eyebrows for a few seconds so that no one will think they are talking to the Almighty God.

Unholiness — Unholy...

What a picture of the 20th century. Godly separation from the world, according to the Bible, is sneered at as bigotry and puritanism. When one preaches against the dirty, lewd movies, the filthiness of much of this modern music called rock, the uncleanness of tobacco, the soul-damning habits of drug abuse and alcoholism, many church members say, "Let's not talk about secondary issues." My friend, the holiness of God and holy living are not secondary issues. First Thessalonians 4:7: For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. First Peter 1:16: Be ye holy; for I am holy. Again, this sign indicates that Jesus is coming soon. I repeat — all of the signs given in 2 Timothy 3 have to do with Christendom and the professing Church in the last days.

Lack of Love — Without natural affection...

This refers to the dissolution of families because of the lack of love. Look at the divorce rate, the murder of babies through abortion, the stories appearing in the papers concerning parents beating their little ones to death or strangling them, and you will know that this sign is being fulfilled.

Broken Promises — Trucebreakers...

Has someone told you a secret in order that you might pray for them? Did you keep it, or did you spread gossip about that person? Promise breaking is another sign now being fulfilled.

Lying — False accusers...

Churches from one end of America to the other are splitting because of the exaggerated stories (outright lies) church members tell about other people. When one does falsely accuse a brother, he breaks one of God's commandments. Exodus 20:16 says: Thou shalt not bear false witness. Do you know what is going to happen to false accusers? Revelation 21:8 says, But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone (emphasis mine).

No Self-control — Incontinent...

This is the lack of control over sexual appetites. How often one hears today, "Live it up. Premarital and extra-marital sex is good and healthy." Let God be true, but every man a liar (Romans 3:4). Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled (Hebrews 13:4). Sex is pure and holy in marriage. God goes on to say, But whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. As I look across this land of ours, I see so much of this debauchery going on among church members. Sins of all kinds are being condoned in this hour. Why? Because Jesus Christ is coming soon!

Temper — Fierce...

Some of you men would be minus your teeth if you talked to the waiter in the restaurant like you talk to your wife at home. Oh, but you love Jesus Christ. You are a great Christian at church, but what a fierce, vicious temper you have at home and at work. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice (Ephesians 4:31).

The signs — despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded — are all self-explanatory.

Pleasure — Lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God...

In the last days, among professing

Christians, men will be lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. This is certainly true! Not only is this true of the world, but churches go into the entertainment business in order to draw crowds. People must be amused, and the Church must meet the craving of pleasure-mad members. How else are godless hypocrites going to be held together? How can half-hearted members be attracted to the services? The latest Christian movie and the Christian minstrel show take the place of the Word of God. Beloved, God has not called us to run a showboat, but a lifeboat. We need to get souls into the kingdom of God.

Many of our religious telecasts and crusades have to feature pagan movie stars whose lives are a mockery to God, but it is done because entertainers draw crowds. The modern evangelistic crusades feature people who are still working full-time in nightclubs, where drinking, gambling, filthy jokes, and solicitation for sex are prevalent. They say, "It does not matter, though, because the end justifies the means. If these religious fakes draw crowds, then it is the right thing to do." God forgive us!

Through it all, Christless souls are lulled to sleep and made to feel religious while every carnal desire of the flesh is gratified under the sanction of the Church. Here is God's way to reach souls in the last days, They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him (Psalm 126:5-6).

Lack of Power — Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof...

There is so little power today in the Church of God. Again, Romans 1 is a picture of the pagan world, while 2 Timothy 3 pictures the professing Church just before Jesus comes. Study the 19 signs and you will come to one conclusion: Soon the trumpet of God shall sound, and we shall hear three words, Come up hither (Revelation 4:1). We will sweep through the heavenlies and see Jesus in the twinkling of an eye. Are you saved? Are you ready? Jesus is coming soon! Let Him into your heart right now. Put Jesus Christ in first place. Soon we will see Him face-to-face. Are you ready for that day? 🙏

Baffled, Bewildered, Befuddled

DR. REXELLA VAN IMPE

Searching for security in a world without meaning

Take a walk down Main Street in your hometown, or visit the local shopping mall. Look at those around you, and study the faces in the crowds coming out of sports arenas or entertainment auditoriums. Notice how few seem to be really enjoying themselves, or laughing, genuinely having a good time.

Even if they put up a jovial front with those around them, watch how soon the laughter dies and the smiles fade when they are alone again and confront the reality of daily living. For too many individuals, the world seems to be a grim and joyless place.

My husband, Jack, and I hear from so many people each week, and often they say, “I can’t stand to watch the TV news anymore. Everything that’s on is bad or ugly. The way the world is going is frightening and depressing. The more I see and hear, the more baffled, bewildered, and befuddled I get!”

A good many of these folks go on to say, “We just couldn’t make it through the week without seeing the ‘Jack Van Impe Presents’ telecast. It’s the only good news we hear. You always have a message of hope — that God is still in control!”

What does it all mean?

Baffled, According to the dictionary, means “confused, puzzled, frustrated.” Bewildered speaks of losing one’s bearings, being perplexed and overwhelmed by the complexity and the multitude of considerations. Befuddled means to muddle about, virtually stupefied, unable to cope with the complications.

Have you ever had feelings like these?

Certainly there seem to be more concerns and problems in the world today than ever before in human history. Perhaps many of them were there but we just didn’t know about all of them. Today’s communications technology makes us aware of conflicts and trouble going on in every part of the world.

One thing we do know is that Jesus didn’t say that if we saw wars or famines or pestilences or persecutions His coming is near. In Matthew 23:33, He said, when ye shall see ALL these things, (including Israel’s statehood and the capture of Jerusalem), you will know that it is near, even at the doors. It seems to me that all the signs are now there!

Lately I’ve been asking the people I meet in my weekly activities about what issues they are concerned with, and I feel sure that what they’ve told me probably includes the same things that trouble you. I believe the world once again has plunged to the low point of being as it was in the days of Noah, when the earth was totally corrupt and filled with violence. So surely this means that it’s time to look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh (Luke 21:28).

When and where will terrorists strike again?

The number one thing on people’s minds, I think, is the threat of international terrorism. The 9/11 attacks certainly changed the outlook of all Americans. And the later terrorist attacks in England and other European countries have made millions of other people realize that the whole world is vulnerable. Most thinking people now realize that it’s not a question of if there will be major terrorist attacks again, but when!

Another concern is the growing threat of nuclear war. It seems everyone is talking about nuclear proliferation involving more countries, like North Korea and Iran. And of course, huge nations like India, China, and Russia are flexing their muscles and saying, “You can’t tell us what to do.” So there are opportunities for confrontation on every corner. There’s no peace in the world at all.

In fact, there have been more wars in the twentieth century than in all prior centuries put together. In the last 2,000 years, it’s constantly been nation against nation, kingdom against kingdom. As a result, millions have died from warfare, including genocide — the systematic slaughter of entire ethnic groups, as well as from starvation and famines. But the frightening part today is that more nations have nuclear weapons that could wipe out entire continents!

Is the world getting too warm?

There is also a growing concern around the world about global warming. Many scientists believe that the impact of mankind’s pollution is upsetting the delicate balance of nature. Our oceans and waterways are becoming fouled, and the very atmosphere is being damaged. The resulting increases in average temperatures, say the experts, might already be affecting weather patterns, producing record numbers of violent storms like typhoons, hurricanes, and tsunamis. They say the warming trend ultimately could kill most marine life, destroy agricultural food production, and eventually melt the remaining glaciers and ice packs, putting more low-lying land under water. Not everyone agrees with these dire predictions, but while the debate rages on, more and more people are becoming fearful of what the future holds.

Are sickness and disease getting worse?

In addition to these major concerns, there is heightened awareness of the expansion of both new and old diseases. Cancer, heart disease, mental disorders, Alzheimer's disease, and other deadly maladies affect millions. In America, the cost of medical care is so great that even major corporations are saying they cannot afford to provide health insurance for employees. Often the elderly have to choose between buying food or the prescription drugs that help keep them alive!

Worldwide, diseases once thought to be eradicated are coming back with a vengeance, especially in poverty-stricken areas where there is poor nutrition and virtually no hygiene. AIDS and HIV-related disease have literally decimated the populations of many African nations, producing millions of AIDS orphans.

Add to these fears the problems of animal disorders like Mad Cow disease and avian (or bird) flu that could threaten food supplies and perhaps even pose the threat of infecting humans.

World health experts have no answers, no workable plans to conquer the threatened pandemics of killer diseases. No wonder there is a growing universal lack of confidence.

The curse of pharmakeia

Perhaps these things help explain why so many have turned to drugs and alcohol in their desperate attempts to cope with such grim problems in their world. It seems obvious that the war against drugs is over — and we lost! Drug trafficking appears to be almost unrestrained, not only in the United States but worldwide. And the abuse is not limited to illegal drugs, but also to over-the-counter medications and prescription drugs as well. The battle against drug abuse of all kinds seems almost hopeless. In 2003, there were 1.74 million arrests for illegal drug abuse in the U.S. — probably only a small percentage of the people actually involved!

The Bible refers specifically to this problem in Revelation and Galatians using the Greek word pharmakeia, which is the source word for our term, pharmacy. Sometimes the word has been mistranslated as “sorcery” or “witchcraft,” but many biblical scholars, including my husband, believe the Scriptures are actually referring to drugs and drug abuse!

The number one drug problem — or substance abuse — in America is alcohol! Over 50 million Americans are dependent on alcohol — 500,000 of them between the ages of 9 and 12! Our citizens spend $90 billion a year on booze — and $5.5 billion of it is spent by students. Alcohol is involved in half of all U.S. driving fatalities, 40 percent of all industrial fatalities, and 47 percent of industrial injuries.

The problem certainly is not isolated to America. There are similar — or worse — statistics for virtually any country in the world. Throughout Europe, alcoholic beverages are served freely to children, and in certain areas in Russia, alcoholism has helped to produce extremely high unemployment.

“Without natural affection” — why?

Space does not permit me to list all the other issues that trouble people today — things like the decay of morality, virtue, and values that has produced unprecedented sexual promiscuity, and the alarming rise of physical and sexual abuse against children, women, even animals! Hardly a week goes by without a major news report of a father destroying his whole family, or a mother maiming or killing her children — a direct fulfillment of the prophetic sign that people will be “without natural affection.” Spousal abuse is epidemic. There are 50,000 reports of suspected child abuse or neglect every week in America. And how often do you read news accounts or see TV reports of pets or livestock being tortured, abused, and killed?

No wonder so many can't stand to read the newspaper or watch the evening news! No wonder people are baffled, bewildered, and befuddled by the goings on in their neighborhood, their city, their world. How can one understand, rationalize, or explain what is happening? How can one deal with the resulting confusion, perplexity, anger, and frustration, or cope with the endless barrage of bad news and challenges that defy human solution?

Has anyone you know tried to “end it all”?

Sadly, suicide is on the rise — it is the 11th leading cause of death in the U.S. Suicide deaths outnumber homicide deaths by a five-to-three margin, numbering 29,350 in the year 2000. And among children, adolescents, and young adults, the suicide rate is escalating. Suicide was the third leading cause of death of youngsters in both the 10-14 and 15-24 age ranges. And older adults, who comprise 13 percent of the U.S. population, account for 18 percent of the suicide deaths! So suicide knows no age boundaries, striking victims from childhood to age 85.

These statistics from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services are alarming. But America is not the only nation with this problem. Suicide rates are soaring around the world. In fact, Japan is the number one country in the world for total suicides.

So we can see that people are in deep despair, feeling baffled, bewildered, befuddled ... and totally hopeless. Feeling that life is not worth living, too frightened to face the future, they destroy themselves. How tragic! How my heart aches for those whose pain and desolation sweeps them to utter destruction.

Is there no hope for the world and its people?

Oh, yes! There is hope and healing and deliverance! This is my Father’s world, and He is still in control. Man’s wisdom may fail. Scholars and scientists may admit defeat. Politicians can seldom deliver on their promises of peace. But God is all powerful. And He is never baffled, bewildered, or befuddled!

God has given us His wisdom and direction — His mind — on every subject in His Word, the Holy Bible. He gave us the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:3-17) as guidelines for happiness and success. The commandments were not to restrict us or make us unhappy, but to keep us from things that could hurt us.

Then, Jesus told us not to fear when we saw today’s world conditions coming to pass. Don’t be terrified! Don’t be anxious! Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid (Matthew 24:6, Luke 21:9, John 14:27).

We know that human agencies and alliances can never solve the problems of the world. They never get it quite right. For example, on the front of the United Nations building in New York City is a Scriptural quotation from Isaiah 2:4: they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. The implication is that this is what the U.N. will accomplish.

There’s just one problem — they left out God. In the previous verses (see 2:2-3), Isaiah says these things will happen “in the last days” when people begin to say, “Come, let us go up to the house of God— He will teach us His ways, and we will walk in His paths.”

The Word of God is quite specific that the answers mankind is seeking will not come from the U.N., the European Union, or any other earthly alliance. Acts 4:12 says, Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

Yet, we can clearly see where the world is headed. Paul-Henri Spaak, the founder of the European Common Market and the general secretary of NATO, emphatically declared in a speech:

“We don’t want another committee - we already have enough of them. What we want is a man of such stature that he be capable to gain the alliance of peace - the politics to pull us out of the economic chaos into which we are sinking. Send us this man, and be he god or the devil, we will welcome him!”

This is the baffled, bewildered, befuddled mindset that will usher in the Antichrist. For the day will come — and soon — when such a man will emerge out of the European Union and bewitch the political leaders of the world. He will announce a grand scheme for universal peace and prosperity that the world's leaders will agree to, and draw up a seven-year contract. All nations — even Israel — will sign it. But in the middle of the peace, after three and a half years, everything falls apart and deadly conflicts break out again, culminating in the prophetic battle of Armageddon, in Israel's Valley of Megiddo.

Then, thank the Lord, Jesus does come back and stops all the warfare before mankind destroys the whole world and all its inhabitants.

It's all spelled out for us in the Word of God, the Holy Bible. Everything we need to know is there so we can do all God wants us to do. As we rely on the Word and seek God in prayer every day of our lives, we can live in calm assurance. As we keep our attention focused on Him, we can have peace in the midst of the storm.

How can you overcome the desperate feelings of being baffled, bewildered, and befuddled in today's world? George Mueller wrote, "The beginning of anxiety is the end of faith; the beginning of faith and trust is the end of anxiety."

As you explore how to overcome the obstacles and challenges of modern life that can keep you from living in quiet confidence and strength, you'll discover how to deal victoriously with the world's complications and confusions. And you will be able to affirm, in the words of an old, old Gospel song —

Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand,
But I know Who holds the future,
And I know Who holds my hand.

Dear Jack and Rexella,
I have followed your ministry for many years, and I want you to know that I am very encouraged by the fact that you stand up for the truth — often at great personal cost. Rexella is as sweet as she can be, and Jack's intellect and biblical knowledge are something I admire.

we love

Thank you both for all the wonderful things you do. The Prophecy Bibles you sent are very beautiful. I presented one to my sister, and she really loves it. I love both of you and pray that God will bless your ministry in the years to come.

I have prayed the prayer with Jack on television and have accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Lord and Savior. Thank you, Jack and Rexella, for all you do for all of us.

—W.S.

I enjoy viewing your broadcasts each week and look forward to them. Thank you for sharing your knowledge and the warnings of the soon coming of the Lord.

Please inform Dr. Rexella that I did open my heart and pray with her to show me the right steps in this new direction to get closer to our Lord Jesus.

Thank you so much!

I would like to request the free book, First Steps in a New Direction. I have asked the Lord to save me, and I need direction in my quest to living a Christian life. I admit that I still struggle with sin and could use a book to help me.

P.S. I LOVE the show — keep up the good work!

—C.W.

God bless you and keep you, Rexella, and your cats. Four years ago, I joined the church that I still attend today because of watching you two. Two years ago, I was water baptized at my church. I'm on fire for the Lord. Thank you so much.

—C.B.

It is wonderful to watch you stand strong against the evil in our time. It helps us ALL to be strong in Christ. Keep saving souls for Jesus! Hallelujah!

—R.R.

Praise the Lord!

I have accepted the Lord Jesus

Christ! Thank you in advance. Both of you are doing a great service to Christ's glory!

—W.T.

We have been familiar with your ministry since the late 1960s. We saw you in person in Kingsford, MI, and in Escanaba, MI. What a blessing you have been through the years! My sister was saved at one of your crusades.

—V.O.

I always believed I couldn't go to heaven because I was a sinner — so I gave up hope. But then I saw your program one night, and through it I was saved! Thank you!! God bless you and Rexella.

—N.R.

I really enjoy reading how much your ministry is growing. I just want to say "Thank you" again for helping to renew my faith more than two years ago.

—K.T.

I've been thinking about writing you for a long time.

I've always believed in our Lord Jesus and I pray almost every night. Jesus has always been there for me and my family. Growing up on a farm in Kansas, every day was a day of work. "Sundays," I'm sorry to say, were just another day.

Over the years, I've listened to many pastor and ministers, but none could ever hold my interest until one night I was going through the channels after the news, and there you and Rexella were. I've been watching you ever since, and Jack, I see in your eyes the love and excitement, and a voice that touched me like no other minister.

You've brought me so much closer to God. Thank you!

—J.S.

We would like you to know how much we appreciate your ministry. We have been following you and Rexella for more than 30 years. Your holding to the Truth of the Word is so vital to the Body of Christ.

You are a preacher of righteousness.

—F.N.

Around the world — you're impacting lives!

INTERNATIONAL RESPONSE TO THE MINISTRY

I want to thank you for always telling me the truth and for giving me instruction and teaching me about our Lord.

I talk and witness to many people every day that Jesus saves and is the only way to our Father — only through Him.

I was miserable, sad, and without hope until the Lord saved me.

You are turning back many lost souls into God's kingdom with the Word. Praise be to our Lord Jesus Christ who you are serving.

I am very much delighted to watch and get teachings on the fulfillment of prophecies. Jack, the way you quote Scripture is astounding. The many territories you cover in one program is so educative, I make sure that I watch you. Your program is watched by Ethiopian Christians. Keep delivering the message boldly in relation to the latter days. You make a difference in the lives

I was so delighted watching your video teachings, especially the one I just got recently, Christianity Seduced. It encourages me to be biblically equipped in order to stand against all the odds going on that come against the Word of God. Yes, as you have said often, “Let God be true, and every man a liar” (Romans 3:4).

Thank you very much! May God continue to bless your hearts to do His will, saving the lost, as we look forward to His glorious appearing on the clouds of heaven. Amen!!

Thank you very much, and God bless the ministry.

I take this golden opportunity to thank you very much for what you are doing for us listeners of Radio East Africa. Before, I have to say, I was not worthy at all in the eyes of God. But, listening to you has completely changed my life. I now walk as a servant of God. So please continue with God’s work, for He chose you to His service.

I first heard your program at a neighbor’s house. I enjoyed the message very much. I now listen to you regularly and have found a way of witnessing to my non-Christian friends by inviting them to listen to your program.

Thank you for your wonderful work. You are lifting high the banner of Christ.

Report

U.S. LAWMAKER: IRAN MAY HAVE HEZBOLLAH OPERATIVES IN U.S.

Voice of America News reports: “The Republican chairman of the House Homeland Security Committee, Peter King, said the Iranian-backed militant group Hezbollah may have hundreds of operatives based in the United States, and he said

Hezbollah, and not al-Qaida, poses the greatest terrorist threat to Americans.

King held a hearing with former government officials testifying.

House Homeland Security Committee Chairman Peter King of New York takes U.S. national security very seriously, and he says the terrorist threat to the United States may be shifting.

‘Now, as Iran moves closer to nuclear weapons, and there is increasing concern over war between Iran and Israel, we must also focus on Iran’s secret operatives and their number one terrorist proxy force, Hezbollah, which we know is in America,’ said King...” (Iran claims to have 40,000 suicide bombers trained and waiting to wreak mass devastation upon American lives and soil. The above information makes it clear that many terrorists are already present in our nation. Troublesome days are ahead: 2 Timothy 3:1; Luke 21:25.)

EGYPT JAILS CHRISTIAN STUDENT TO THREE YEARS IN JAIL FOR INSULTING ISLAM

Reuters reports: “An Egyptian court sentenced a 17-year-old Christian boy to three years in jail for publishing cartoons on his Facebook page that mocked Islam and the Prophet Mohammad, actions that sparked sectarian violence.

Gamal Abdou Massoud was also accused of distributing some of his cartoons to his school friends in a village in the southern city of Assiut, home to a large Christian population and the hometown of the late Coptic Orthodox Pope Shenouda.

‘Assiut child’s court ordered the jailing of Gamal Abdou Massoud ... for three years after he insulted Islam and published and distributed pictures that insulted Islam and its Prophet,’ the court said in a statement seen by Reuters...” (If Christian nations imprisoned the millions of members who spoke out against our wonderful Lord Jesus Christ, our prisons would be unable to hold the horrendous number of Christ-haters. the eternal judgment of God: Exodus 20:7; Jude 1:14-15.)

MUSLIM CHIEF DEMANDS DESTRUCTION OF CHURCHES

WND.com reports: “A Muslim leader in Saudi Arabia is calling for the destruction of all Christian churches in Kuwait because he believes that is what Islam demands, according to a report.

In an article published by the Middle East Forum, Raymond Ibrahim, a Shillman Fellow at the David Horowitz Freedom Center and an associate fellow at the Middle East Forum, cites several Arabic language web publications that quoted Sheik Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah, the grand mufti of Saudi Arabia, declaring it is ‘necessary to destroy all the churches of the region.’

Ibrahim reported the Muslim leader’s comment was in response to a question by a delegation from Kuwait, where a member of parliament recently also called for churches to be removed.

‘Accordingly, the grand mufti ‘stressed that Kuwait was a part of the Arabian Peninsula, and therefore it is necessary to destroy all churches in it,’ Ibrahim reported....” (Imagine men like Rick Warren promoting the similarities between Islam and Christianity — the Koran and God’s Holy Word, the Bible. Our Lord Jesus predicted such leaders just before His return — 2 Thessalonians 2:3-12; Matthew 24:5,11,24.)

MUSLIMS ANNOUNCE PLANS TO ‘ERADICATE’ CHRISTIANITY

WND.com reports: “Members of the Muslim jihadist group Boko Haram are vowing to ‘eradicate Christianity’ in Nigeria.

Reports coming out of Nigeria show that the group whose name means ‘Western education is evil’ is launching a new terror campaign aimed at killing Christians and Jews in northern Nigeria.

The Nigerian news site Bikya Masr reports that the jihadi group has declared war on all Christians living in northern Nigeria.

Human-rights group International Christian Concern’s Jonathan Racho confirms the reports and says the news is ‘alarming.’

“The reports indicate that members of Boko Haram recently declared a war on Christians in northern Nigeria. The group vowed to eradicate Christians from certain areas in Nigeria,’ Racho said....” (The hour has arrived for the fulfillment of the above headline — Matthew 24:9; John 16:2; John 15:18-20; Revelation 6:9; Revelation 20:4.)

U.S. MISCALCULATES CHINA MILITARY GROWTH

SpaceWar.com reports: “The United States has underestimated the growth of China’s military as policymakers have taken public statements at face value or failed to understand Beijing’s thinking, a study said....

The report prepared for the US-China Economic and Security Review Commission said the United States had a mixed record on predicting the rising power’s new weaponry, including largely missing the emergence of more advanced submarines.

As for the speed of military modernization, the study found ‘identifiable cases of miscalculation’ with China developing anti-ship ballistic missiles and stealth fighter-jets earlier than the United States expected.

US analysis could have improved if more experts read Chinese or even looked at open publications such as academic technical journals, it said.

‘US observers should not take at face value statements from the Chinese government on military policy, as they could either be deceptive, or simply issued by agencies’ such as the foreign ministry ‘that have no real say over military matters,’ it said....” (China prepares for one of the most devastating wars in history.
