intriguing and most important questions about the Rapture that believers and non-believers alike have asked over the course of my more than six decades in Gospel ministry!

Rapture ready!

misunderstandings about the Rapture that countless people labor under! One might expect unbelievers to be extremely confused about this pivotal prophetic event; but I have found even lifelong churchgoing, Bible-believing Christians stumbling in the dark over the details of this crucial coming occurrence!

But with the release of this book and companion DVD teaching, I put to rest every prevalent misconception about the Rapture.

Are the Rapture and the Second Coming of Christ the same event? Many believe so. This is wrong! However, this is just one among many questions that my book and DVD answer! Here are others:

1. If an individual has heard the Gospel and the Rapture occurs, will that person have another opportunity to accept Jesus as Lord during the Tribulation?
2. Are corruption and violence really on the increase? What might this have to do with Christ's return?
3. Pre-, mid-, or post-Tribulation — which position is correct?
4. Some have said that the nation of Israel itself is "a sign." What does this mean?
5. How does the connection between the U.S. and Russia factor into Rapture-related events? Why do some say America's relationship with Russia is "prophecy in fast-forward"?
6. What about earthquakes, global crime, and the many strange activities presently occurring in space? How do these signs suggest that Christ's return is at hand?

7. Does the Bible refer to the devastation of nuclear war when it talks about the elements "melting with fervent heat"?
8. What are the signs of Christ's return?
9. What is "Jacob's Time of Trouble"? How does it relate to you personally?
10. What is the correlation between Christ's resurrection and the Rapture of the Church? Why, even at "the time of the end," will the world go on eternally?
11. What is the marriage supper of the Lamb, and where will it take place?
12. What is the nature of the coming world church? How will this international institution cooperate with the world identification number "666" and the image of the Beast?
13. What is the prophetic significance of the re-gathering of Israel?
14. What is the Tribulation?
15. What prophecies concerning the Rapture are revealed in the book of Revelation?
16. What role will mankind itself play in ushering in the end of the age?
17. What signs exist in Israel today that provide clues to a rapidly approaching Tribulation period?
18. Who are the "144,000"? What is their role in the great revival to come? When will that revival take place?
19. Who composes Christ's Bride?
20. Who is the coming world ruler?

What is his role in latter-day prophecy? What connection will his appearance have to the rebuilding of the Temple in Jerusalem?

21. Who will be called the "dragon"? Why will the dragon be so powerful in the latter days? What part will he play in the revived Roman Empire?
22. Why are behavioral attitudes such as blasphemy, disobedience, lack of gratitude, ungodliness, lying, and broken promises signs of Christ's return?
23. Will Russia invade Israel? If so, under what circumstances? And more!

Latter-Day

SIN S Signs

By Dr. Jack Van Impe

In the second epistle of Paul to Timothy, chapter 3, verses 1 to 5, Paul deals with the hour when the church of Jesus Christ is resurrected and meets the Lord in the twinkling of an eye. The Lord Jesus Christ is coming again!

Signs of His Coming

Now, how do we know that the coming of the Lord draweth nigh? There are many tremendous signs given in the New Testament. Let's consider 2 Timothy 3:1-5: This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

Some say, "Haven't these signs always existed? How can these be signs pointing to His return when we have always experienced some of them?" The answer is found by comparing Romans 1:28-32 with 2 Timothy 3:1-5. Paul, in Romans 1, is speaking about the pagan world of the ungodly. However, in 2 Timothy 3, he is speaking about the conditions that shall prevail at the end of the age of Christendom among those who profess the Christian religion. Did you get that? In Romans 1, he is talking about things that are happening among the pagans. In 2 Timothy 3, he speaks about the deterioration of the professing church.

Never before have we seen signs so drastically predominant in the Christian church than at this present hour. The only comfort we find in these conditions is that they do tell us that the coming of the Lord is at hand. We must be ready every moment. Let's consider these signs one by one.

Selfishness

Men shall be lovers of their own selves...

What a picture of this present hour, when church members are so busy satisfying their flesh with the world's goodies and pleasures, that they have no time to pray or witness to lost souls. God help us! A certain scribe came to Jesus in Matthew 22:36-40, and said, Master, which is the great commandment...? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

But, we are so busy satisfying our bodily appetites in the professing church of Jesus Christ at the present hour that we do not have time to pray or win souls to Him. We are lovers of our own selves. One could expect this in the ungodly world of pagans, but how sad when one sees it among those who are supposedly of the family of God.

The Love of Money

Covetousness...

They will love money in the last days. In the first century, Peter could say, in Acts 3:6, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have, give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. The Church has wealth untold, but it does not have the power to perform miracles. We are living in the Laodicean age mentioned in Revelation 3:15-16, I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot. I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. God says, "You make me sick!" Why? Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked (Revelation 3:17).

So many in our churches today are in the upper crust. They have money so they think they are really something. They are so important that they have no time to help people, no time to do things for Christ, no time for the church, no time for devotions, no time for anything, except getting a few more dollars. In 1 Timothy 6:10, our God says, For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. I hope you are not one of the signs of the end. Do not try to get everything you can to build an empire here and neglect the work of Jesus Christ.

Pride

Boasters, proud...

God said, Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up (James 4:10).

A man recently came to me with tears in his eyes and said, “I was trying to win this young lady to Christ. Her parents are alcoholics and she had nothing to wear but an old tattered dress. I took her to our church — a fundamental, Bible-believing church. When she walked down the aisle, I heard a few snooty people behind me say, “Why do they bring that kind of trash to our church?”

Satan fell because of pride — in Isaiah 14:13-14, he said, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

Professing believers are so proud! A man recently came to me with tears in his eyes and said, “I was trying to win this young lady to Christ. Her parents are alcoholics and she had nothing to wear but an old tattered dress. I took her to our church — a fundamental, Bible-believing church. When she walked down the aisle, I heard a few snooty people behind me say, “Why do they bring that kind of trash to our church?” If you are so high and mighty, I pray that God will speak to your heart and show you that you are one of the signs that Jesus Christ is coming soon. Our Saviour said in Matthew 11:28-29, Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

Blasphemy

Blasphemers...

Blasphemy is a sin against the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul said in I Timothy 1:12-13, And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; Who was before a blasphemer... What did he do? He murdered Christians and hated the name of Jesus Christ. There are so many like that today. Our seminaries are filled with apostates who mock the doctrine of the Lord Jesus Christ — His virgin birth, His deity, His blood atonement, and His bodily resurrection. They talk about higher criticism and blaspheme Christ in the Scriptures. Seventy percent of the ministers are either affected or infected by this malady. God help us! Jesus Christ is coming soon!

Disobedience

Disobedient to parents...

Some young people say that they love Jesus Christ, but when their parents ask them to do something, they always answer back with a smart remark. Do they really believe the Bible? Listen, young man and young lady, to Ephesians 6:1-3, Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) that thou mayest live long on the earth. I was mightily moved not long ago as I studied John 19:26-27. Jesus Christ was hanging on the cross, dying for the sins of all sinners. Yet, in His last moments, He looked down and saw His wonderful mother, Mary, standing beneath the cross. Do you know what He said? Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! Even in the last moments of life, as Christ was dying for the entire world, He still loved His mother. He came to fulfill the Law, and He said in Matthew 19:19, Honour thy father and thy mother. You young people who are so disobedient and disrespectful are a sign that Jesus is coming soon.

Unthankfulness

Unthankful...

Look at some of the church members. They are ashamed to pray in a restaurant. When they do bow their heads, they sit there and scratch their eyebrows for a few seconds so that no one will think they are talking to the Almighty God.

Unholiness

Unholy...

What a picture of the 21st century. Godly separation from the world, according to the Bible, is sneered at as bigotry and puritanism. When one preaches against the dirty, lewd movies, the filthiness of much of this modern music called rock, the uncleanness of tobacco, the soul-damning habits of drug abuse and alcoholism, many church members say, “Let’s not talk about secondary issues.” My friend, the holiness of God and holy living are not secondary issues. First Thessalonians 4:7: For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. First Peter 1:16: Be ye holy; for I am holy. Again, this sign indicates that Jesus is coming soon. I repeat — all of the signs given in 2 Timothy 3 have to do with Christendom and the professing church in the latter days.

Lack of Love

Without natural affection...

This refers to the dissolution of families because of the lack of love. Look at the divorce rate, the murder of babies through abortion, the stories appearing in the papers concerning parents beating their little ones to death or strangling them, and you will know that this sign is being fulfilled.

Broken Promises

Trucebreakers...

Has someone told you a secret in order that you might pray for them? Did you keep it, or did you spread gossip about that person? Promise breaking is another sign now being fulfilled.

Lying

False accusers...

Churches from one end of America to the other are splitting because of the exaggerated stories (outright lies) church members tell about other people. When one does falsely accuse a brother, he breaks one of God’s commandments. Exodus 20:16 says, Thou shalt not bear false witness. Do you know what is going to happen to false accusers? Revelation 21:8 says, But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, heady, highminded are all self-explanatory.

Pleasure

Lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God...

In the last days, among professing Christians, men will be lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. This is certainly true! Not only is this true of the world, but churches go into the entertainment business in order to draw crowds. People must be amused, and the Church must meet the craving of pleasure-mad members. How else are godless hypocrites going to be held together? How can half-hearted members be attracted to the services? The latest Christian movie and the Christian minstrel show take the place of the Word of God. Beloved, God has not called us to run a showboat, but a lifeboat. We need to get souls into the kingdom of God.

Lack of Power

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof...

There is so little power today in the church of God. Again, Romans 1 is a picture of the pagan world while 2 Timothy 3 pictures the professing church just before Jesus comes. Study the 19 signs and you will come to one conclusion: Soon the trumpet of God shall sound and we shall hear three words, Come up hither (Revelation 4:1). We will sweep through the heavens and see Jesus in the twinkling of an eye. Are you saved? Are you ready? Jesus is coming soon! Let Him into your heart right now. Put Jesus Christ in first place. Soon we will see Him face-to-face. Are you ready for that day? 🙏 and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone (emphasis mine).

No Self-control

Incontinent...

This is the lack of control over sexual appetites. How often one hears today, “Live it up. Premarital and extra-marital sex is good and healthy.” Let God be true, but every man a liar (Romans 3:4). Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled (Hebrews 13:4). Sex is pure and holy in marriage. God goes on to say, But whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. As I look across this land of ours, I see so much of this debauchery going on among church members. Sins of all kinds are being condoned in this hour. Why? Because Jesus Christ is coming soon!

Temper

Fierce...

Some of you men would be minus your teeth if you talked to the waiter in the restaurant like you talk to your wife at home. Oh, but you love Jesus Christ. You are a great Christian at church, but what a fierce, vicious temper you have at home and at work. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice (Ephesians 4:31).

The signs despisers of those that are good, traitors,

Sometimes at night when I can't sleep," she continued, motioning toward the display of TV sets, "I look through the window and watch you!"

LOOKING THROUGH the WINDOW

By Dr. Rexella Van Impe

Have you ever heard the old gospel song that says, "This world is not my home, I'm just 'a passin' through"....?

Lately that's how I've been feeling — like "a stranger in a strange land." I'm completely out of step with a world filled with child abuse, wife abuse, animal abuse ... with a world filled with hatred, violence, war, and famine. I can't adjust my mind and heart to a place where many people accept no responsibility for their actions and feel no remorse for the bad things they do to others.

Nor am I able emotionally to cope with the throngs of homeless people on the streets of major metropolitan areas. Years ago on trips to several such large cities, I was appalled by the great numbers of people asking passersby for help. It's one thing to watch the news and hear statistics about the down-and-out people living in alleys and under bridges — but something else altogether to meet these unfortunate ones face-to-face and look into their eyes. While in Toronto, my heart was abruptly opened to the real tragedy of homeless people.

One night Jack and I went to dinner in a downtown area and decided to walk back to our hotel several blocks away. Our route took us past Eaton Center — an enclosed mall which is open late, with people milling around inside until all hours. We started across a busy intersection near a major department store, amazed at the throngs of people out and about so late at night. Jack and I have always felt very safe in this wonderful Canadian city.

Before we made it across the intersection, a beautiful young girl we'd passed on the corner came running after us. She came up behind me and fell into step. "Hello there," she said. "Where are you going?"

"Well, my husband and I have been to dinner and we're on our way back to our hotel," I said, noticing that she seemed to be one of the homeless crowd. Her face was smudged, and her clothing wrinkled and soiled. But I went ahead and asked, "Are you going home?"

"Oh, no," she responded, "I am home!" And she pointed to the streets.

We walked the final step or two across the street and stepped up on the sidewalk — beside the department store, its window ablaze with a display of television sets and video equipment. The girl touched my arm and peered up into my face and Jack's. "I told my friends who you were," she said. It was obvious she seemed to recognize us.

"Sometimes at night when

But I will never forget the touch of her hand and her simple words that seemed to bring the whole burden of her desperate situation crashing down upon my heart. "I look through the window and watch you," she said.

If only I could have a little more time to talk with her, I would tell her about God's love, about the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I can't sleep," she continued, motioning toward the display of TV sets, "I look through the window and watch you!"

As soon as she said it, she was gone, running, back to her friends on the street. Then a rush of people gathered behind and carried Jack and me on down the block. I looked back but I never caught sight of her again.

But I will never forget the touch of her hand and her simple words that seemed to bring the whole burden of her desperate situation crashing down upon my heart. "I look through the window and watch you," she said.

How I wished I could have held her hand and brought her along with me, to tell her she could have a better life. I have no idea what she had run away from or where she was trying to go. I do know that life on the streets so often ends in tragedy. If only I could have a little more time to talk with her, I would tell her about God's love, about the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

For days now, the Lord has been impressing upon my mind the fact that there are countless other people floundering in life who are looking through the window of our lives, seeking answers and looking for hope. Oh, you may not be on TV like Jack Van Impe and me, but your life, your light, is on view to someone trying to find a better way.

What would people see if they looked through the "window" at you? Are you living a life "like Christ," filled with love, joy, peace, and purity?

Is the glass of that window dingy and soil-streaked, or is it bright and clear, clean and sparkling? When someone who has lost their way looks through your window, can they see Jesus in you? Or is what you claim blurred by who you are and how you act?

Since I met that homeless girl who said she looked through the window and watched me, I've been checking up on myself. The Lord has given me three checkpoints:

Living the life

The great gospel singer, Mahalia Jackson, cried out, "I'm going to live the life I sing about in my song!" The life we live for God must be the same on Tuesday as on Sunday. We must treat our family and neighbors, the people at work and in the marketplace, the same way we treat the people at church when everybody is watching. I promise you that the way you act when you think nobody is looking is exactly what someone will see when they look through your window!

Offering a pure and simple testimony

The most effective testimony is simply to uplift Jesus — He will do the rest. We do not have to know scores of Scripture verses, or be able to explain the complexities of doctrine. All that is necessary is to say, "This is what Jesus has done for me." As one great Christian described it, "Our witness is really just one beggar telling another where to find bread" — the Bread of life!

Being consistent

A nursery rhyme describes a little girl, who, "when she was good she was very, very good, but when she was bad, she was horrid." Have you ever known a person who, on one day, was helpful and kind ... and on the next was cranky as can be? What does this kind of erratic behavior say about the depth and validity of our Christian experience? Our Lord is described as Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8). And we are to be like Him!

Being on television these last several years has been a real challenge and amazement to me. One thing I've learned is that the TV camera sees through our facades and reveals us as we really are to the view of the people. On screen you simply can't hide who you are. I believe this is why people say so often, "I know you. I've seen you on TV!"

I can never forget that the Lord has His divine TV camera on us all the time. He looks past our outer front and sees inside us to our very heart and soul. Lord, help me to live for You consistently.

Although I know our programs are seen throughout the United States and Canada, and in every nation overseas, it still boggles my mind to consider the numbers of people and the kinds of individuals in different walks of life who are being reached and touched by the program.

I could never have imagined a homeless street girl going up to a department store window late at night to watch Jack and me on TV through the glass. I hope and pray that something she saw and heard will stay with her ... and that God and His wonderful grace will reach her.

I will try to use all my time, all my talents, all my opportunities to shine out the story of Jesus to help all who may be looking through the window of my life.

On that day when we stand before the Lord, this young woman will discover that she need not stand outside on the sidewalk wistfully watching through a glass. For as her eyes catch a glimpse of Jesus and she reaches out to take His hand, He will throw open that window and make it a door — a grand entrance through which she can walk freely into His presence.

Waiting to go home

Never in my life have I felt more of a longing for the coming of the Lord than in recent days. "Oh I want to see Him, look upon His face, there to sing forever of His saving grace." I long to see Him and feel His arms wrapped around me. I can't wait to hear His voice saying, "Welcome home, thou good and faithful servant!" Oh, how I pray that my life will allow this salutation to be so.

The Apostle Paul wrote, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him" (1 Corinthians 2:9). How wonderful that will be.

God is so good to me even here in this life. His presence never leaves me, and I take joy in intimately communing with the Holy Spirit inside my heart. But more and more I feel a strange longing to be in heaven. And I sense that time is running out. Our Lord Jesus is coming soon.

First Corinthians 13:12 says, "For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."

But until then, I will keep on keeping on. I will try to use all my time, all my talents, all my opportunities to shine out the story of Jesus to help all who may be looking through the window of my life. With God's help, I will keep on living the life of love, joy, peace, and purity. I will keep on giving my pure and simple testimony about what the Lord has done for me. And I will endeavor to be consistent in my living for Jesus, daily keeping the window glass, looking into my life, clean, and unsmudged.

You can do it, too, God will help you. Join me in making a new commitment to Christ's commission and calling. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven (Mathew 5:16).

The Rapture is the next event on God's prophetic clock — and it is coming soon! If there is one event God's people should understand and be ready for, this is it! And this is why I have made a momentous

Do not be deceived — and do not leave your family and friends unprepared! Get the vital facts you need about the next event on the prophetic timeline: the Rapture of the Church! Many — perhaps millions — wrongly think of the Rapture and the Second Coming of Christ as the same event. Nothing could be further from the truth! But Dr. Jack Van Impe's book and DVD set the record straight and answer many more questions, including:

- If an individual has heard the Gospel and the Rapture occurs, will that person have another opportunity to accept Jesus as Lord during the Tribulation?
- What is the Tribulation? What is the purpose of the 21 Tribulation judgments? How drastic are they?
- What is the nature of the coming world church? How will this international institution cooperate with the world identification number "666" and the image of the Beast?
- Will Russia invade Israel? If so, under what circumstances?
- What are the signs of Christ's return?
- Who is the coming world ruler? What is his role in latter-day prophecy?
- The U.S. and Russia: How does their connection play into Rapture events? Why is it said that the U.S.-Russia relationship is prophecy in fast-forward?
- What about nuclear war? Does the Bible refer to nuclear devastation when it talks about the elements melting with fervent heat?
- And more!

This book and DVD will not only answer your questions, but will also help you share the answers when your friends or family members have questions about the Rapture and Bible prophecy (1 Peter 3:15).

Finally, all your questions about the Rapture are answered by the expert! Please request this fascinating book and video teaching combo today!

Prophecy in Context Book (B511)

“ I have been so blessed by your ministry. I watch your programs on the Internet now and am grateful for all that you and your husband share. ”

Dr. Jack Van Impe,

I am a 45-year-old land surveyor in Indianapolis, Indiana. I want to personally thank you and Rexella for the awesome work you are doing for the Lord.

I rededicated my life to Him after watching your program. When I realized how close we are to the return of our Lord Jesus Christ, I then asked Jesus back into my life!

I have purchased your Prophecy Bible and read it daily — it also has helped me grow closer to our Lord Jesus Christ! God has definitely blessed you with an awesome ministry! I watch your program on a weekly basis and admire the dedication both you and Rexella have for our Lord and each other. You both have a very special place in my heart! I will continue to pray for you and your mission to help bring lost souls to our precious Jesus! I look forward to one day meeting you in heaven!

Your Brother in Christ,
—C.H.

I am from Ohio and was, until recently, a semi owner-operator. I just retired. I parked my rig right across the street from your world headquarters for about eight years. I spent a lot of nights sleeping in my truck at that location. As I would walk down the street and pass your building, I would pray for your ministry and for the protection of you and your staff. It gave me comfort to sleep in that industrial park, knowing that many prayers were being sent to our Lord Jesus Christ.

—J.K.

Dear Rexella Van Impe:

I have been so blessed by your ministry. I watch your programs on the Internet now and am grateful for all that you and your husband share. I recently have been perusing your website and came across your devotionals. The three I've read just ministered to me so much. The most recent one is so timely for me. It is exactly what I've been studying these past days. The additional verses you shared also are ones the Lord has had me meditate on. I want God's love to be so real in my life and to be able to have it flow out of me to others.

I am 61 and living alone during the week, but have a husband who works elsewhere during the week and returns on the weekends. He was a Christian, but in October 2003, he rejected Jesus and began serving Satan. He is heavily involved in witchcraft and the occult. My son (22) and daughter (28) moved away last October and are free from their dad's torturous ways. God told me he will not change and will get worse. God is right, because this is what has happened. I need a breakthrough from the Lord.

I have come from a background of an ungodly, unbelieving, very controlling dad and now am married to someone just like him. I have struggled with being controlling and also selfish. I am desperate to obey God's Word concerning His command to die to myself, take up my cross daily, lose my life to gain the life God has for me, crucify my flesh, and deny myself. I accepted Jesus in high school but want Jesus to be Lord and Master of all my life and not just part of it.

I just wanted you to know that your devotionals have been such a confirmation to me as a double witness to what the Lord has been having me study, too. (One previous devotional on resting in the Lord is also something that He has been speaking about to me.) Thank you for your obedience to the Holy Spirit who obviously guided you to write them.

God's blessings to you and Jack.
Romans 15:13.

In God's Love,
—K.S.

Hi Jack and Rexella,

I just want to tell you how much I appreciate what you do and the shows you make to inform us all of what's going on in the world from a Christian viewpoint. What you provide is an invaluable resource of learning and wisdom in an Internet filled with ungodliness.

I am a struggling Christian from Northern Ireland. I am battling strongly against the forces of deception that want to lead me away from the path of truth that is in Christ. Watching your show has strengthened my resolve and given me hope. I am surrounded by people who do not believe in God, and not only that, they actively deny Him and speak hatred against those who believe in Him. It is daunting and scary.

I am a 29-year-old man, and I've recently been through some major upheavals in my life. I was diagnosed with testicular cancer a few months ago and that completely shook up my whole world, but I knew that the Lord was there and was teaching me how to live my life better, how to follow Him and to be more humble. I know how much hatred there is out there for us and toward our Savior. I know what difficulties I will face in the future for my belief, but it will all be worth it, and we will be with our Lord in heaven together one day.

Thank you both for what you do. Even here in Northern Ireland your show is heard and appreciated. Thank you so much for that.

—P.R.

Dear Dr. Jack and Rexella Van Impe,

I'm a big fan of your show! I've been watching since the age of 10 and I wanted to tell you what a blessing your ministry has been in my life!

I'm 24 years old now, and since I've started watching your program I've studied Bible prophecy. You've planted a seed in my heart and I've been on fire ever since! Although many Christians say to me that we don't need to worry about the coming of the Lord, and that I don't need to watch that program, I say to them: Read your Bible! Jesus commanded us in Mark 13 to watch!

I thank God for you two and your staff for standing up for God's Word! I want you both to know the Lord has used your ministry to set a fire within me and I don't care if my own mock me for preaching about His coming. Until He returns or I take my final breath and God calls me home, I will preach about His coming! God has used you in a mighty way not just in my life, but in many lives as well! I cannot wait for the day we meet each other in heaven and, more importantly, for the day we see our Lord Jesus Christ face to face. Oh, come soon, Lord Jesus!

—J.N.

Dearest Drs. Van Impe,

Your courage is from our God! I see joy and strength in your eyes and the straightforward speed of your speaking can only be empowered by the Holy Spirit. My chin drops and I smile when I hear Truth!

Wow! We listen weekly and listen to a program a couple times until it is digested!

We will be going home soon. We are the generation.

We will be praying more diligently as you do not tread lightly on the enemy's doorstep. More power, protection, and blessing to you both.

In His time,
—K.H.

Dear Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe,

I watch you faithfully and regularly and thank you for the depth of knowledge of God's Word

I watch your show. I have just given my life to the Lord and am working with the church I am attending to get me baptized. I am God-fearing and need all the guidance I can get. Please pray for me and my family so they might be saved too.

and its real implications for our lives — and for your love for Israel and the Jews. The Jews are the apple of God's eye — and whether people like it or not, they are God's chosen people and Israel is His elect.

I am a U.S. retired judge and a Jerusalem-born Jew, for whom Jesus is Lord. I lived there when it was still Palestine, as my parents had been lucky to leave Poland and go there before being killed by the Nazis, unlike other relatives who had stayed behind.

I was raised with the Moslem Arabs and love them (not the jihadists) as do all Israelis. At the age of 1½ years old, when I had decided to tour Jerusalem on my own, an Arab had brought me back to my parents, on a camel.

I have been just heartbroken about how Israel, Netanyahu, and really all Jews are now being treated, not just in other countries but by our own government....

I was there in Jerusalem, during the war for independence, and when it became a nation. I had a father who, from a young age, would tell me over and over to never forget that I was born in the city most important to the three main religions in the world — Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. I have not forgotten.

God bless you, dear and faithful people.

With Jesus' great love,
—E.E.

Thank you, Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe!

I enjoy your program every Sunday morning at 10 a.m. here in Brooklyn, NY. You have helped me learn and understand Scripture. You have opened my eyes to the love of the Lord Jesus Christ. I am a Roman Catholic and you have made me a Christian ALIVE!

God bless you and keep you both healthy and strong to continue your very important work. Thank you for speaking the truth about the atrocities taking place in our world today. I recognize the signs of the Lord about to come and pray He gets here soon!

Please continue your wonderful, loving work. I share your program with family and friends. I can't say it enough: God bless you both.

—N.P.

We just wanted to thank you for doing all you do to educate and encourage believers. I am from the UK, my husband is from the USA, and we live in Canada! We found your program a few months ago and every week we sit down as a family and watch and learn from you both. We find you to be biblically so strong and sound, and we find your Bible knowledge and recitation so amazing.

We want you to know that we appreciate your strong values, your strong stand on what the Bible says, and your interpretation of the end times. As parents of seven wonderful children, it is easy to be horrified and fearful about the future and what will happen to our world with extreme Islam running rampant, but we take great hope and encouragement from your show and your teachings.

We were very worried to hear that you have been receiving threats, and that the enemy has been moving against you. We pray for you and we love you both very much. You have such a touching love for each other, and it comes right through the TV screen!

Please don't stop what you are doing, saying what you are saying, because we need you more now than ever — and who knows how many other people will be led to watch you on TV?

God bless you both!

CHINA AIMS TO CHALLENGE U.S. AIR DOMINANCE

June 23, 2015 — Reuters reports: "China is mounting a serious effort to challenge U.S. military superiority in air and space, forcing the Pentagon to seek new technologies and systems to stay ahead of its rapidly developing rival, Deputy Defense Secretary Robert Work said on Monday.

The Pentagon's chief operating officer, speaking to a group of military and civilian aerospace experts, said China was 'quickly closing the technological gaps,' developing radar-evading aircraft, advanced reconnaissance planes, sophisticated missiles and top-notch electronic warfare equipment.

While hoping for a constructive relationship with China, the Pentagon 'cannot overlook the competitive aspects of our relationship, especially in the realm of military capabilities, an area in which China continues to improve at a very impressive rate,' he said.

China's state-run news agency Xinhua late on Monday cited Xu Qiliang, a vice chairman of the powerful Central Military Commission, as saying China must innovate even more.

'Our military's equipment construction is shifting from catch-up research to independent innovations,' Xu said...." (The

NIGERIAN SCHOOLGIRLS SLIT CHRISTIANS' THROATS UNDER ORDERS FROM BOKO HARAM

July 1, 2015 — Breitbart.com reports: "Schoolgirls that have been abducted by the Nigeria-based Boko Haram Muslim terror group are now being seen on the battlefield fighting on behalf of the terror entity, leading some to believe that they are being forced to join the murderous group.

Witnesses in Nigeria told the BBC that the young female soldiers are now being used as foot soldiers for the group, with some being used to 'terrorize other captives' and 'carrying out killings themselves.'

Three women who escaped Boko Haram told the BBC that a handful of schoolgirls have been 'brainwashed' to run operations in support of the jihadi organization.

The fighters said, according to the escapee: 'You women should learn from your husbands (who they were forced to marry) because they are giving their blood for the cause. We must go to war for Allah.'

In one such instance, 17-year-old Miriam, who escaped Boko Haram captivity, said that the Boko Haram jihadis forced Christian men to lay down then told the girls to 'cut their throats.'

Anna, 60, who fled captivity in the Sambisa forest, said of her time with the militant group: 'Young girls who couldn't recite [the Koran] were being flogged' by other girls as a means of punishment...." (More Muslim hatred and slaughter in the name of their god. See what Jesus called such

SHEIKH WHO TAUGHT ISIS JIHADISTS ASKS FOR BIBLE, SAYS HE'S 'SICK OF THE KILLING'

July 7, 2015 — ChristianToday.com reports: “A Saudi Sheikh who was responsible for training ISIS jihadists has reportedly asked for a Bible having grown sick of the group’s brutality, a missionary in the Middle East has said.

‘Julian,’ who works with mission organisation Operation Mobilisation and has lived in the Muslim world for many years, told Voice of the Martyrs Radio last week about accounts of Muslims in the Middle East, including members of ISIS, coming to faith in Christ.

‘God in his sovereignty is able to turn what is evil, and what the enemy intends for evil, into something that’s good,’ he said....

The Sheikh said he had been in Syria teaching the fighters ‘Jihad 101, the theology and practice of Jihad’ and said he was ‘sick of the killing, there must be something better than this’....” (This is the reason thousands of Muslims are turning to Christ. Rexella’s recent guest on television, Walid Shoebat, testified stating that in Islam you kill to get to heaven, while in Christianity, Christ died for our sins. Isaiah 53:4-7 tells us, “Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.”)

51% OF U.S. MUSLIMS WANT SHARIA; 25% OKAY WITH VIOLENCE AGAINST AMERICANS

June 25, 2015 — Breitbart.com reports: “The Center for Security Policy released a poll Tuesday that should give all Americans pause.

The results show that a startling number of American Muslims, our fellow citizens, agree that violence is a legitimate response to those who insult Islam. A full majority of 51% agreed that ‘Muslims in America should have the choice of being governed according to shariah....’

A full 25% of those polled agreed that ‘violence against Americans here in the United States can be justified as part of the global jihad....’” (The reason America is so hated is because it’s that it has the largest Christian population globally. Jesus said: “If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.” —John 15:18-20.)
