THE RUSSIAN BEAR AWAKENS

Russian officials in Egypt to discuss arms deal

Israel National News reports: "The most senior Russian officials to visit Egypt in years will arrive Wednesday [11/13/13] to discuss weapons deals, further signaling Egypt's shift in alliance from the U.S. to Russia. Al Jazeera reports that the delegation includes Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov and Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu.

Their visit comes amid reports that Russian President Vladimir Putin will visit Egypt as well later this month, further solidifying the new alignment between Russia and Egypt.

The Russian Foreign Ministry issued a statement that the delegation would discuss 'the full spectrum' of ties between the two countries, including 'military-technical cooperation.'

Talk of an Egyptian $15 billion dollar arms deal with Russia partially funded by Saudi Arabia, which similarly seems to be turning from the U.S. to Russia, appears to be materializing in the visit. The deal reportedly would have Egypt purchase MiG-29 planes and other military equipment..." (I, in 1951 began warning America and Canada that Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39 predicted in verses 1 and 2 of both

Egypt announces expanded cooperation with Russia

Israel National News reports: "On Saturday [11/9/13] Egyptian Foreign Minister Nabil Fahmy said his country will expand cooperation with Russia following a cooling of relations with the U.S. that has stretched on since former President Mohammed Morsi was deposed in July.

Reports indicate that Russian President Vladimir Putin will visit Egypt later this month where he is expected to announce a $15 billion arms deal between the two nations partially funded by Saudi Arabia, which likewise is experiencing a crisis in its relations with the U.S.

Fahmy said Egypt is beginning a 'new phase' as ties with America weaken. He stated, according to Al Arabiya, that 'independence is having choices. So the objective of this foreign policy is to provide Egypt with choices, more choices. So I'm not going to substitute. I'm going to add....'

Iran holds talks with Russia to boost military cooperation

SpaceDaily.com reports: "The head of Russia's air force, General Viktor Bondarev, met his Iranian counterparts in Tehran to discuss boosting military cooperation between the countries, local media reported Monday [10/21/13].

Talks centred on 'electronic listening systems, radar and missiles,' Brigadier General Farzad Esmaili, head of Khatam-ol-Anbia Air Defence Base, said in comments quoted by daily Sharq.

Esmaili also said that Bondarev had discussed the delivery of Russian-built S-300 ballistic missiles with Iranian air force chiefs...”

Putin called Saudi King, next U.S. ally lost?

Israel National News reports: “Russian President Vladimir Putin called King Abdullah of Saudi Arabia on Sunday [11/10/13], according to Al Arabiya. The overture hints that Saudi Arabia, like Egypt, is poised to shift alliances from the U.S. to Russia.

The two leaders discussed ties between the two countries as well as regional issues such as the Syrian conflict and Iranian nuclear talks. Russian officials told AFP that the two leaders ‘expressed a mutual interest in furthering cooperation and maintaining contacts at various levels.’

The overtures between Russia and Saudi Arabia mirror recent announcements of cooperation between Russia and Egypt. The rapprochement between those two nations is anticipated to be sealed in a $15 billion arms deal largely funded by Saudi Arabia.

U.S. removing Navy from Mid-East as Russia enters

Israel National News reports: “The American aircraft carrier USS Nimitz was recalled from the Persian Gulf on Friday [11/8/13], along with the destroyer USS Graveley from the Mediterranean Sea. The move comes less than a week after Russia sent its most powerful warships to the Mediterranean.

Al Jazeera reports the Nimitz moved through the Suez Canal into the Red Sea, and is anticipated to reach the U.S. in late December. It was scheduled to return in August but was left in the region for a military presence.

The U.S. ships were assigned to the region months ago as U.S. President Barack Obama considered a military strike on Syrian President Bashar Assad’s regime. On Friday the U.S. Defense Department announced their removal, signaling the Obama administration’s total abandonment of a Syrian military option.

The move further signals a weakening of U.S. military presence in the Middle East, precisely as Russia stands to heighten its influence...” (Our President is playing into the hands of our upcoming enemies. Michigan Muslims plot Islamic-law court WND.com reports: “A leader in a front group for the movement that aims to turn the U.S. into an Islamic state is among the Muslims in the Detroit area talking about establishing religious courts that would grant women a divorce under Islamic law, or Sharia.

About 15 Muslim leaders – including Dawud Walid, executive director of the Council on American-Islamic Relations’ Michigan chapter – discussed the issue at a monthly gathering Sept. 25.

The discussion was prompted by a story in the Arab American News that described the difficulties that Muslim women experience when their husbands refuse to grant them a religious divorce, noted the blog Creeping Sharia.

Obama Homeland Security official: U.S. is an Islamic country

Israel National News reports: “Mohamed Elibiary, a member of the Department of Homeland Security Advisory Council, is under fire for tweeting that America is ‘an Islamic country,’ reported the Washington Free Beacon.

‘America and yes I do consider the United States of America an Islamic country with an Islamically compliant constitution. Move On!’

The back-and-forth between Elibiary and the Twitter user, who identified himself as Tim Lee, started when Elibiary said the conservative perception of Islam needed to ‘evolve.’

Brunei announces tough new code of Islamic law

BBC News reports: “The sultanate of Brunei has announced it will enforce a tough new Sharia law penal code.

The code - to apply only to Muslims - is expected to introduce death by stoning for adulterers and the severing of limbs for theft.

Brunei already adheres to a stronger form of Islamic law than neighbouring Malaysia and Indonesia, banning the sale and consumption of alcohol.

The new code, to be enforced in six months, will strengthen that policy.

Punishments could also include flogging for such crimes as consumption of alcohol or abortion, according to a copy of the code seen by news agency AFP.

Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, 67, who is one of the world’s wealthiest men, introduced the code, calling it ‘a part of the great history of our nation’.

Yemeni ‘burns daughter to death for contacting fiancé’

BBC News reports: “A 15-year-old Yemeni girl was burned to death by her father for getting in touch with her fiancé before their wedding, police say.

The 35-year-old man was arrested after the teenager’s death in the remote village of Shabaa, in Taiz province.

‘The father committed this heinous crime on the pretext that his daughter had been keeping in contact with her fiancé,’ a police statement claimed.

Local news websites said he had caught the pair chatting on the telephone.

Traditional tribal customs in some parts of Yemen prohibit contact between men and women before marriage.

Last year, the U.N. Human Rights council raised concerns about so-called ‘honour killings’ in the country. Perpetrators were not charged with murder, and faced only a six-month to one-year prison sentence, it found.

Al-Qaeda teaches on Twitter how to ‘kindly’ cut off human head

The Fars News Agency reports: “Al-Qaeda which is getting super-active using the charged insurgency in Syria is now teaching followers how to ‘kindly’ cut a human’s head as it teaches followers how to be like them, media reports said.

An article in Lebanese daily As-Safir has taken a look into al-Qaeda’s increasing use of social media networks and media technology in spreading its ideology and even teaching people how to kill with kindness.

Malak Hamoud, the writer of the article, says al-Qaeda’s active offshoot in Syria, the Islamic State of Iraq and Levant (ISIL), which was previously just Islamic State of Iraq during the years of wars in Iraq is gaining more power in the social media, silencing almost every strong voice that is raised against them, Al-Alam reported.

The author says it is surprising that how al-Qaeda has come to get this much power; ‘Do it [sic] destroy them and make them invisible?’

The ISIL which is called ‘Daesh’ in Arabic, is forcing itself in all types of media, reports, TV programs and now it is raising up in the internet space.

CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH

Christianity ‘under attack as never before’

ChristianToday.com reports: “Lord Carey has criticised a top judge’s comments that courts are ‘no longer Christian’ in multi-cultural Britain.

Sir James Munby, president of the Family Division of the High Court, said in a speech in London this week [10/28/13] that, as Britain was a multicultural nation, judges must take an ‘essentially neutral view of religious beliefs’ and should not ‘weigh one religion against another’.

‘Once upon a time, the perceived function of the judges was to promote virtue and discourage vice and immorality,’ he said. ‘I doubt one would now hear that from the judicial bench.’

Writing in the Daily Mail, Lord Carey, the former Archbishop of Canterbury, challenged his view, saying that Britain’s legal system had its roots in Christian ethics and that the Christian faith was the foundation of British culture.

He also warned that Christianity was being increasingly marginalised in British society.

‘The concepts of honesty, personal responsibility, opposition to violence, concern for others and respect for their property — which are all part of the fabric of our laws — lie at the heart of the gospels,’ he said.

Rand Paul calls for defense of Christians

WND.com reports: “Sen. Rand Paul, R-Ky., is leading an effort by politicians and human rights groups to push the United States government to make the fight against Christian persecution a policy priority, including increased pressure on Iran to free American pastor Saeed Abedini.

In a bipartisan move, 23 U. S. senators have sent President Obama a letter asking him to step up pressure on Iran to release Abedini, held for being a Christian since September 2012.

In a statement, the American Center for Law and Justice said the letter is further evidence of the Senate’s commitment to Abedini’s freedom.

‘Led by Sen. Ted Cruz, R-Texas, the letter calls Pastor Saeed’s transfer a potential ‘death sentence’ and urges President Obama to immediately speak out for his freedom. Now nearly a quarter of the U.S. Senate is urging action from the U.S. government on Pastor Saeed’s behalf,’ ACLJ said.

Mother of U.S. missionary jailed in N. Korea says he is ‘alone and ailing’

Voice of America News reports: “The mother of jailed U.S. missionary Kenneth Bae, who is serving a 15-year sentence for state subversion in North Korea, said that her son remained isolated and was desperate for contact with the outside world a year after he was first detained.

Myunghee Bae, in an op-ed published in the Seattle Times, provided details about her October visit to the Pyongyang hospital where her son, who is diabetic, was recovering from health ailments that saw him lose 50 pounds in three months.

‘It pained me to see how starved he was for a connection to home and the outside world, alone and ailing in a foreign prison,’ Bae wrote in the piece, published on Sunday [11/3/13]. ‘I tried to reassure him that he was not forgotten.’

‘He has been isolated for one year without anybody to talk to other than his guards and doctors. I could not imagine how hard that must have been for Kenneth, who has always been so outgoing and talkative,’ she wrote.

Kenneth Bae, 45, was detained Nov. 3, 2012 as he led a tour group through the northern region of the country. The country’s Supreme Court said he used his tourism business to form groups aimed at overthrowing the government and sentenced him to 15 years of hard labor in May.

U.S. pastor in Iran moved to ‘more dangerous’ prison

WND.com reports: “The American pastor held in Iran since September 2012 has been moved from the notorious Evin Prison to the ‘even more dangerous’ Rajai Shahr prison in Karaj, an hour and a half from Tehran, officials say.

The American Center for Law and Justice, which has been working to free Pastor Saeed Abedini, said the move was discovered while Abedini’s family members attempted a visit, but were told he had been transported to the ‘life threatening’ prison in Karaj.

In an exclusive interview with WND, ACLJ Executive Director Jordan Sekulow said the severity of Abedini’s situation has increased.

‘It’s more notorious in its scale. It’s a place where people disappear. It’s a place where people murder each other. There are a lot of convicted murderers; there are convicted rapists there,’ Sekulow said.

Bishop: Pope leading church to ‘disaster’

WND.com reports: “Citing the famous prophecies of Fatima, traditionalist Roman Catholic Bishop Bernard Fellay warned in an address in Kansas City that Pope Francis is precipitating the church’s decline and could be a herald that the world is entering the age of the Antichrist.

Fellay, who leads a society that has no canonical status in the Roman Catholic Church, said the ‘modernist views’ professed by the pontiff are at odds with traditional Catholic teaching.

‘The situation in the Catholic Church is a real disaster and the present pope is making it 10,000 times worse,’ Fellay charged Oct. 12 at the Angelus Press Conference in Kansas City.

Fellay is superior general of the Society of St. Pius X, whose ministers, according to the Vatican, do not legitimately exercise ministry in the church...

Fellay attacked Francis for advancing a new format for the Catholic Mass, following in the path of Vatican II, and for suggesting the Catholic Church condemns homosexuality, but not homosexuals, and that even atheists might achieve salvation if they live according to conscience.

Claiming these are ‘very scary times,’ Fellay spoke of abortion as a sin that cries to Heaven for vengeance. China flexes muscles with show of submarine force SpaceWar.com reports: “Beijing has put its nuclear-powered submarine fleet on public display, with state media Tuesday [10/29/13] touting the move as unprecedented and necessary to show other countries China’s strike capabilities as territorial tensions mount.

In an overt declaration of China’s high-seas strength, several state-run papers ran front-page stories on the four-decade-old submarine fleet, while state broadcaster CCTV has devoted much airtime in recent days to its drills and exercises.

China’s first nuclear-powered submarine was launched in 1970, the Global Times said, but had not been properly taken into account by others.

‘China is powerful in possessing a credible second-strike nuclear capability,’ it said in an editorial Tuesday, adding: ‘Some countries haven’t taken this into serious consideration when constituting their China policy, leading to a frivolous attitude toward China in public opinion.’

Report: Pyongyang developing EMP bomb

Israel National News reports: “According to French press agency AFP, South Korea’s intelligence services claim that North Korea is using Russian technology to develop nuclear electromagnetic pulse (EMP) weapons aimed at paralyzing Seoul’s military electronic equipment.

Seoul’s National Intelligence Service (NIS) said in a recent report to parliament that the North had purchased Russian electromagnetic pulse (EMP) weaponry in order to develop its own versions of the weapon, for possible use against South Korea.

EMP weapons are detonated at high altitudes to damage computers and other electronic equipment across a very large territory, effectively sending the affected area into the Stone Age without directly killing anyone.

Arutz Sheva analyst Mark Langfan, who has been warning of the EMP threat for a long time, notes that North Korea and Iran have long been cooperating in the nuclear field, and that technology that reaches Pyongyang can be assumed to have reached Iran as well.

Mufti: Jerusalem is ‘Islamic’

Israel National News reports: “The Supreme Palestinian Mufti, Sheikh Mohammed Hussein, has issued a warning against what he says are the dangerous repercussions of excavation work Israel is allegedly carrying out next to the Al-Aqsa Mosque, in territory he says is under the control of the Muslim Waqf trust, which administers the Islamic Al-Aqsa complex.

He accuses Israel of trying to take over the mosque.

Iran: Israel enemy of establishment of peace, tranquility in region

The Fars News Agency reports: "The Iranian foreign minister censured the war-mongering nature of the Zionist regime of Israel, saying such a regime which was born in tension survives in tension too.

'The Zionist regime (of Israel) and its supporters in the United States survive on tension and crisis. Therefore, they do not want the regional problems to be solved and that is why they are worried,' the Iranian top diplomat said in an interview with the state TV channel 2 on Monday [11/11/13].

He also said the angry remarks by Israel and its American supporters show that they are not happy about the considerable progress that was achieved during the latest round of talks between Iran and the world powers over Tehran's nuclear program in Geneva.

On Sunday, Secretary of Iran's Expediency Council (EC) Mohsen Rezayee lambasted the Zionist regime for its attempts to spoil the positive atmosphere of the talks between Iran and the world powers in Geneva through its proteges.

Iran’s Revolutionary Guards committed to ‘Death to America’

YnetNews.com reports: “The Revolutionary Guards, the elite Iranian regime’s army, said Saturday [11/2/13] they are committed to the slogan ‘Death to America,’ chanted at official ceremonies, just days before the 34th anniversary of the storming of the American Embassy in Tehran.

‘The slogan Death to America is the symbol of strength and determination of the Iranian nation against the dominance of the United States, which is an oppressive and untrustworthy nation,’ said the Revolutionary Guards on their official website.

In recent weeks, a debate was launched in Iran on the merits of continuing to chant ‘Death to America’ during official ceremonies, while some relaxation occurred in relations between Tehran and Washington since the election in June of moderate President Hassan Rohani.

‘Telephone espionage by the United States government against the people of other countries are proof that you cannot trust the leadership of the White House’, the military group said...” (This and more empty and arrogant boasting appear in the next two reports. U.S. threatened with ‘heaviest damage in history’

WND.com reports: “In a pointed message to Washington, the second in just days, an Iranian general has warned of great destruction being delivered to the United States.

‘The Americans’ catch-phrase ‘the military option is on the table’ (over the nuclear issue) is a bluff,’ said Gen. Massoud Jazayeri, deputy chief of staff of Iran’s armed forces.

‘They are aware of the Islamic Republic of Iran’s capabilities. The slightest military mistake against Iran will make the Americans witness the heaviest damage in their history in their own eyes,’ the semi-official Fars News Agency reported Monday [11/11/13].

On Saturday the general said,

‘America’s interests and all of Israel are within the range of the Islamic Republic and there is not the slightest doubt among Iran’s armed forces to confront the American government and the Zionists (Israel).’

Jazayeri said Israel is pulling the strings of Washington and ‘the American government is one of the most hated and evil governments in the world.’...”

Bennett: Iranian nuclear weapon a threat to the West

Israel National News reports: “In an interview with Fox News Sunday [11/10/13], Economics Minister Naftali Bennett said that Iran must be stopped from acquiring nuclear weapons ‘at all costs.’

An Iranian bomb would, without doubt, be used against the West he said.

Now is the time to prevent a nuclear 9/11,’ he declared, referring to the 2001 attacks by Al Qaeda against the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

The West, indeed, is in danger, Bennett said in the interview. ‘The deal we need to strive for is one that will remove from Iran its ability to manufacture nuclear weapons. Today Iran has some 18,000 centrifuges, and we want to dismantle them,’ he said...”

Belgium: proposed euthanasia of minors alarms religious leaders

Israel National News reports: “A controversial proposal to allow euthanasia for minors in Belgium intensified today (Wednesday [11/6/13]), as supporters and opponents both tried to press their sides of the case, AFP reports.

Belgium is currently one of the few countries in the world to allow euthanasia for adults, along with the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Belgium logged a record 1,432 cases of euthanasia in 2012, up 25 percent. However, mercy-killing laws in the Netherlands allows euthanasia for children under the age of 12 in cases of incurable diseases, whereas Belgian law currently does not.

On Wednesday, 16 pediatricians called on lawmakers to vote for a practice some experts say already happens outside the law.

‘Why deprive minors of this last possibility,’ they said in an open letter, arguing that under-18s were able to make an informed and mature decision when facing death. ‘Experience shows us that in cases of serious illness and imminent death, minors develop very quickly a great maturity, to the point where they are often better able to reflect and express themselves on life than healthy people.’

75% of Belgians currently support the bill, as long as minors have the ability to make the decision for themselves. Despite this, the move has drawn strong criticism from some public figures, including much of the religious population, who claim that euthanasia of minors could negatively impact the very fabric of society...” (The first three nations to begin the original Roman Empire centuries ago were the three mentioned in this report.
