WORLDWIDE TERRORISM — ISIS —

ISIS 'held public screenings' of pilot being burned to death

February 4, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: "The Islamic State terrorist group (ISIS) reportedly broadcast footage of its fighters burning alive a Jordanian pilot in public areas throughout its de-facto capitol of Raqqa in northern Syria.

'Raqqa is Being Slaughtered Silently' - a group made up of anonymous activists who risk their lives to expose ISIS atrocities in areas under its control - first reported news of the gruesome spectacle, which played out throughout the city following the release of the video Tuesday.

'Using large viewing screens and Movie projectors across the City of al Raqqa, #ISIS Played the Burning of the #JordanianPilot... Mouaz Al Kasasbeh for the public to watch over and over again...' the group said in a series of Twitter posts.

ISIS regularly publicizes its executions and other forms of brutal punishments as a way of instilling fear in local populations and discourage them against rebelling despite their desperate conditions. In Raqqa - once a hub of relative modernity in Syria - residents say they have suffered greatly since ISIS took over and implemented its authoritarian Islamic law, with food shortages and regular power outages compounding their misery.

The video is possibly the most gruesome yet by ISIS, which has tended to behead previous hostages..." (Romans 3:13 – 18 describes the barbaric acts of the murderous Islamic terrorists found in 47 different groups: "Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God before their eyes." See the next 3 reports.)

ISIS is crucifying and burying children alive, says UN

February 5, 2015 -- ChristianToday.com reports: "Islamic State militants continue to defy international humanitarian laws by selling abducted Syrian and Iraqi children as sex slaves, torturing them, and crucifying and burying them alive, a United Nations watchdog reported on Wednesday.

The abducted children are mostly from Christian communities and some are Shi'ites and Sunnis.

'We are really deeply concerned at the torture and murder of those children, especially those belonging to minorities, but not only from minorities. The scope of the problem is huge,' UN Committee expert Renate Winter told the press.

According to Reuters, the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child said that the militants have been using Iraqi boys aged under 18 as suicide bombers, bomb makers, informants or human shields to protect facilities against U.S.-led air strikes.

'We have had reports of children, especially children who are mentally challenged, who have been used as suicide bombers, most probably without them even understanding,' Winter said. 'There was a video placed [online] that showed children at a very young age, approximately eight years of age and younger, to be trained already to become child soldiers...' (Jesus who loved children said in defense of these innocent babes: "...whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea" – Mark 9:42.)

ISIS confirms it executed Japanese hostage

January 25, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: "The Islamic State group's radio confirmed on Sunday that its terrorists have executed Japanese security contractor Haruna Yukawa, following the release of a video announcing the hostage's death, according to AFP.

'The Islamic State has carried out its threat... it has executed Japanese hostage Haruna Yukawa after the expiry of the deadline given,' the Sunni extremist group said on Al-Bayan radio.

'The second hostage (Kenji Goto) is calling on his relatives to put pressure on the (Japanese) government for the release of our sister Sajida al-Rishawi, held in the jails of the oppressors in Jordan, in exchange for his release,' it said.

Rishawi is a would-be Iraqi female suicide bomber on death row in Jordan in connection with triple hotel bomb attacks in Amman that killed 60 people on November 9, 2005.

On Saturday, a video uploaded to the terror organization's Twitter account showed the second hostage, Kenji Goto, holding a gruesome photo showing the beheaded body of Yukawa.

The video was released with an audio recording in which a man claiming to be Goto blames Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe for his fellow captive's death because he failed to pay ISIS a $200 million ransom by the end of the 72-hour deadline it announced Tuesday.

The voice also reveals a new demand for the release Rishawi, saying the terrorists are no longer demanding money to save his life, but want 'their sister' to be freed. 'It is simple. You give them Sajida and I will be released,' the voice says..."

Islamic State says it has beheaded second Japanese hostage Goto

February 1, 2015 -- Reuters reports: "Islamic State militants said they had beheaded a second Japanese hostage, journalist Kenji Goto, prompting Prime Minister Shinzo Abe to vow to step up humanitarian aid to the group's opponents in the Middle East and help bring his killers to justice.

'I feel intense indignation at this utterly cruel and despicable act of terrorism,' a grim-faced Abe told an emergency Cabinet meeting early on Sunday, shortly after a video surfaced purporting to show the beheading of Goto, after the failure of international efforts to secure his release through a prisoner swap.

The hardline Islamist group, which controls large parts of Syria and Iraq, released the video showing a hooded man standing over Goto with a knife to his throat, followed by footage of a head put on the back of a human body. Japanese Defense Minister Gen Nakatani said the video appeared to be genuine.

The video was released exactly a week after footage appearing to show the beheaded body of another Japanese hostage, Haruna Yukawa..."

ISIS executes Imams for condemning burning of Jordanian pilot

February 6, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: "The Islamic State (ISIS/ISIL) executed six people after they condemned the terrorist group for burning Jordanian pilot Mu'ath Kasasbeh alive. Muslims from around the world condemned the burning because 'such a form of killing was considered despicable by Islam, no matter the context.'

'ISIS executed the Imam of Nabi Yunis mosque, Sheikh Abdullah Fahad and the Imam of Kabir Mosque, Sheikh Ayub Abdul Wahab in Mosul,' said one source.

The militants murdered the clerics by firing squad. They also beheaded four civilians in another neighborhood.

'We have received reports and information, indicating ISIS beheaded four civilians in 17 Tamuz neighborhood of Mosul for criticizing the burning of the Jordanian pilot Mouath Kasasbeh via facebook,' said Mohamed Shawqi al-Nadawi, the spokesman for the Iraqi human rights observatory.

A Twitter account connected to Al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula, the group responsible for the massacre at Charlie Hebdo in Paris, said the murder of the pilot is 'conclusive proof of Isis' deviance.' Ahmed al-Tayib, Grand Sheikf of Al-Azhar University in Cairo, announced the militants 'must face 'killing, crucifixion and chopping of the limbs'' and called the group 'satanic.'

Saudi Arabia, whose death penalties were compared to the Islamic State, called the terrorist group 'enemies of Islam.' ISIS executes ten more doctors in Mosul for refusing to treat jihadis

January 29, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: "The Islamic State (ISIS/ISIL) continues to execute doctors in Mosul, Iraq, who refuse to treat wounded jihadis returning from the front lines. The terrorist group reportedly murdered ten more doctors this week.

'Elements of the organization (ISIS) executed physicians Tareq Jassim and Adil Ayham, working in the Department of Surgery of the Republican General Hospital in Mosul,' said Dr. Firas al-Hamdani, a top health official. 'The bodies of the doctors arrived at the hospital morgue this evening after being executed by ISIS firing squad.'

The Mosul Health Department claimed the Islamic State 'ordered all doctors to work round the clock.' On December 28, militants murdered Dr. Tareq Jassim and Dr. Adil Ayham.

'Dozens of doctors in the hospital were arrested and executed because they refused to go with [ISIS] to their strongholds, and the fate of many of them is still unknown,' said Hassan Fadel Allaf, director of Ibn Sina Teaching Hospital in Mosul.

January 18, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “The Islamic State terrorist group has released new images through its social media outlets of a series of gruesome executions in Mosul, the second-largest city in Iraq. Two men are seen crucified, a woman stoned to death, and two men thrown off a tall building for ‘sodomy.’

The images were posted on January 15 on the website justpaste.it, which both the Islamic State and other jihadist groups often use for such purposes. According to Radio Free Europe, the photo series showing a man being thrown off a building included a caption stating that he had committed the crimes of the ‘people of Lot,’ meaning sodomy, and that the sentence of being killed by being ‘thrown from a high place’ was issued by the Wilayat Nineveh Sharia court, using the name ‘Nineveh’ to mean the entire region around Mosul...”

Islamic State continues expansion into new areas, eyes Mecca & Medina

January 20, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “The continuing flare-ups on Saudi Arabia’s northern border with Iraq have led some to believe that the Islamic State is set on an eventual push towards the Islamic holy cities of Mecca and Medina.

Islamic State ‘Caliph’ Abu Bakr Al Baghdadi has frequently called for attacks inside Saudi territory, with hopes of the eventual capture of Mecca and Medina. ‘It is likely [Baghdadi] realizes that no one can claim to be the Islamic State without controlling the holy sites in and around Mecca and Medina and the wealth that comes with them,’ writes Newsweek’s William Young.

Not only has the Islamic State frequently prodded the Saudi border, the terror group also sees Lebanon as a target of prime importance.

The Islamic State has successfully recruited as many as 700 Syrian opposition fighters, whose recruitment was of chief interest due to their strategic location on Syria’s border with Lebanon, according to The Telegraph. The fighters have reportedly swelled on the border, as ISIS has continued to threaten an imminent invasion.

ISIS plans on killing ‘hundreds of millions’ in ‘religious cleansing’

January 18, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Jurgen Todenhofer, the first Western reporter to embed with Islamic State fighters and not be killed in the process, spoke to Al Jazeera about his time with the terror group.

Todenhofer lived side by side with the jihadist fighters for ten days in the Islamic State-stronghold city of Mosul, Iraq. He was accompanied only by his son, who served as his cameraman.

‘I always asked them about the value of mercy in Islam,’ but ‘I didn’t see any mercy in their behavior,’ explained Todenhofer. He added, ‘Something that I don’t understand at all is the enthusiasm in their plan of religious cleansing, planning to kill the non-believers... They also will kill Muslim democrats because they believe that non-ISIL-Muslims put the laws of human beings above the commandments of God.’

The German reporter then elaborated on how shocked he was about how ‘willing to kill’ the ISIS fighters are. He said that they were ready to commit genocide. ‘They were talking about [killing] hundreds of millions. They were enthusiastic about it, and I just cannot understand that,’ said Todenhofer

He warned that the Islamic State ‘is much stronger than we think,’ and that their recruiting has brought motivated jihadis from across the globe. ‘Each day, hundreds of new enthusiastic fighters are arriving,’ explained Todenhofer. ‘There is an incredible enthusiasm that I have never seen in any other war zones I have been to.’...” (This headline is actually Islam’s plan for preparing and putting in place a one world religion under the Islamic flag. WORLDWIDE TERRORISM – BOKO HARAM –

More than 100 killed by Boko Haram in Cameroon

February 5, 2015 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Boko Haram fighters have killed more than 100 people in the north Cameroon town of Fotokol, murdering residents inside their homes and a mosque, a local civic leader said on Wednesday.

The massacre comes amid a major regional offensive against the Islamic group, which has kidnapped hundreds and killed thousands in neighbouring northern Nigeria and has mounted increasingly bloody cross-border raids.

‘Boko Haram entered Fotokol through Gambaru early in the morning and they killed more than 100 people in the mosque, in the houses and they burned property,’ said the civic leader Abatchou Abatcha, reached by telephone.

The militants shot and killed one of his sons during the raid, he added.

Many of the dead were found with their throats slit, according to Cameroon’s L’Oeil du Sahel newspaper.

Cameroon’s information minister Issa Tchiroma declined to comment on the massacre. He said the Cameroon army pushed Boko Haram out of the border town after heavy fighting, which killed 50 militants and six of its own soldiers...”

Boko Haram ‘abducts 50 children’ in Cameroon

January 19, 2015 -- Sky News reports: “Suspected Boko Haram fighters have abducted up to 80 people, many of them children, in a deadly assault on villages in northern Cameroon, officials say.

‘According to our initial information, around 30 adults, most of them herders, and 50 young girls and boys aged between 10 and 15 years were abducted,’ a senior army officer deployed to northern Cameroon told news agency Reuters.

That would make it Boko Haram’s largest abduction in Cameroon to date.

He said soldiers had intervened and exchanged fire with the assailants for around two hours...”

Boko Haram displaces 1.6 million Nigerians in five years

January 26, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “In the past five years, Boko Haram has forced over 1.6 million people to flee Nigeria — and, increasingly, border areas of Cameroon — due to numerous attacks intended to expand their ‘caliphate.’ The Muslim group recently attacked Maiduguri, the capital of Borno State and the largest city in the northeast...”

After years of operating exclusively in Nigeria, Boko Haram has begun to target neighboring Cameroon. On January 20, over 10,000 Cameroonians fled inland away from the vulnerable border towns. Boko Haram attacked ‘at least two dozen villages and towns’ in January. Attacks caused ten schools in the area to close. A total of 140 schools in the country are closed.

For most of its history, Boko Haram has attacked only vulnerable small villages, but on January 25, the group attacked Maiduguri as Secretary of State John Kerry is in Lagos to meet with President Goodluck Jonathan. Over 200 fighters died in the attack. Militants also violated small villages around the capital. Survivors claim the terrorists attacked towns 125 miles south of Maiduguri, ‘slitting throats of residents, looting and burning homes and abducting dozens of trapped women and children.’ The militants captured Monguno, 80 miles north of Maiduguri.

‘Monguno has fallen, Monguno has fallen,’ a senior military official told the media. ‘We fought them all night long but they took over the town, including the military barracks there.’...”

Boko Haram closes in on regional capital, two million under threat

January 30, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Boko Haram jihadists have reportedly closed in on the Nigerian city of Maiduguri, which has an estimated population of two million, along with another 200,000 who are currently taking refuge within its borders.

Residents have said that the Boko Haram terrorists warned them that they are readying ‘a big grave’ for Maiduguri’s residents and that ‘there will be no mercy.’

A local resident told the CBC regarding Boko Haram, ‘They kept saying they were chasing us so that we can all run into the big grave they are preparing for us in Maiduguri.’

Residents are said to be too afraid to leave the city, but also fearful that the militants may imminently launch an offensive into Maiduguri.

Two local state legislators, Adamu Kamale and Emmanuel Kwache, have begged the Nigerian military to send troops into the area to protect its residents. ‘They don’t spare anything: they slaughter people like rams and they burned down our houses after looting food,’ said Kwache. ‘There’s no presence of troops, some residents are hiding on top of hills, while those that could not run were abducted, particularly youths and women,’ he added...”

Islamic Tribunal confirmed in Texas; Attorney claims 'It's voluntary'

January 28, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: "An Islamic Tribunal using Sharia law in Texas has been confirmed by Breitbart Texas. The tribunal is operating as a non-profit organization in Dallas. One of the attorneys for the tribunal said participation and acceptance of the tribunal's decisions are 'voluntary.'

Breitbart Texas spoke with one of the 'judges,' Dr. Taher El-badawi. He said the tribunal operates under Sharia law as a form of 'non-binding dispute resolution.' El-badawi said their organization is 'a tribunal, not arbitration.' A tribunal is defined by Meriam-Webster's Dictionary as 'a court or forum of justice.' The four Islamic attorneys call themselves 'judges' not 'arbitrators.'

El-badawi said the tribunal follows Sharia law to resolve civil disputes in family and business matters. He said they also resolve workplace disputes.

In matters of divorce, El-badawi said that 'while participation in the tribunal is voluntary, a married couple cannot be considered divorced by the Islamic community unless it is granted by the tribunal.' He compared their divorce, known as 'Talaq,' as something similar to the Catholic practice of annulment in that the church does not recognize civil divorce proceedings as ending a marriage..."

Is Islamic indoctrination being taught in LA public schools?

February 3, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: "Concerns have arisen over the perceived teaching of Islam in California's seventh grade school curriculum. Questions have been raised as to whether the education within these classrooms are merely teaching about Islam or preaching the faith, in what many now view as a scandal of indoctrination of youth.

That question was central to a recent lecture and discussion addressing the topic of Islam in public elementary schools hosted by the American Freedom Alliance (AFA) at the Luxe Hotel in Los Angeles. A panel of four speakers, three of whom are public educators, conveyed their personal experiences with this subject.

One of the textbooks in question was History Alive, which was approved and adopted by the Palo Alto-based California state Board of Education in 1998. The text is part of their adoption of the History, Social Science Content Standards for CA Public Schools.

While teaching Islam, along with Christianity and Judaism, is an important part of history, the educators present at the AFA lecture pointed out that History Alive pays an enormous amount of time and attention to Islam (55 pages) in the seventh grade. When teachers were asked whether Christianity (16 pages, which focused mainly on the Crusades) and Judaism (1 page) were given the same amount of attention in the classroom, they were told yes — but in sixth grade.

This proved to be untrue — Jewish and Christian curriculums were reportedly given half as much attention as Islam was. The lecturers found this to be particularly concerning when noting America's Judeo-Christian foundation, where there is a separation of church and state. In Islam, there is no separation of church and state..."

NO-GO ZONES IN AMERICA AND EUROPE

Islam experts: No-go zones looming for America

January 23, 2015 -- WND.com reports: "The 'no-go zones' in some Western nations, where law enforcement has lost control because of the influence of Islamic law, are coming to America.

That's according to several Islam experts interviewed by WND who believe the kind of Muslim enclaves that have developed in Europe due to a lack of assimilation will eventually arise in the U.S. as the Muslim population grows.

The contention that 'no-go' zones exist is controversial, as evidenced by the widespread ridicule that arose when an analyst said in a Fox News interview shortly after the Charlie Hebdo terrorist attack in Paris that the major English city of Birmingham was a 'no-go' zone itself.

The analyst apologized, but only for exaggerating his point, not for asserting 'no-go' zones exist.

As WND reported, the government of France has identified 751 Zones Urbaines Sensibles, or Sensitive Urban Zones, that the state does not fully control, citing Middle East foreign policy expert Daniel Pipes, director of the Middle East Forum.

The zones are enclaves where Muslim immigrants have chosen not to assimilate, and law enforcement has lost some degree of control..." (No-Go Zones are sweeping across the European Union. 55 already exist in Sweden. Media have reported 'no-go' zones for a decade

January 26, 2015 -- WND.com reports: "While longtime counter-terrorism expert Steven Emerson was strongly criticized by establishment media for his remarks in a Fox News interview about Muslim 'no-go' zones in Europe where police have lost control, many of the same news outlets have repeatedly used the term for at least a decade.

"The political left in the mainstream media has decided to demonize me," Emerson said in a WND interview. "It's outrageous for media outlets to apologize, saying 'no-go zones' don't exist in Europe, when even the New York Times for years has published articles documenting Muslim 'no-go zones' do exist in European countries like France."

In a Fox News interview Jan. 11, days after two Muslim French citizens murdered 12 people while shouting 'Allahu Akbar,' Emerson said 'there are actual cities like Birmingham that are totally Muslim, where non-Muslims just simply don't go in.' He has acknowledged making an overstatement, but his critics have charged his claim has no basis whatsoever and ridiculed him for asserting that there is such a thing as 'no-go' zones in Europe.

But NBC News, the New York Times, the Associated Press and others were using the term 'no-go' zones for Muslim-majority neighborhoods in Paris when Muslim youth gangs were rampaging through the streets and setting cars on fire.

Emerson said he recently was in a television interview with BBC News in which 'they were attacking me that 'no-go zones' don't exist in Europe.'

"So I pulled up one of their own articles the BBC published, which referenced 'no-go zones' in print," he said.

"They were so embarrassed, they didn't know what to say..."

No-go zones? Census data shows 100-plus in Britain

February 4, 2015 -- WND.com reports: "There are more than 100 'Muslim enclaves' in the United Kingdom that are 'de facto off limits to non-Muslims due to a number of factors, including the lawlessness, insecurity or religious intimidation that often pervades these areas,' according to a new report.

The report cites the nation's own census data.

"An erroneous claim on American television that Birmingham, England, is 'totally Muslim' and off-limits to non-Muslims has ignited a political charged debate about the existence of no-go zones in Britain and other European countries," wrote Soeren Kern, a senior fellow at the New York-based Gatestone Institute, in a report about Muslim 'no-go' zones.

Kern said that in some no-go zones, 'host-country authorities are unable or unwilling to provide even basic public aid, such as police, fire fighting and ambulance services, out of fear of being attacked by Muslim gangs that sometimes claim control over such areas.'

And they are 'breeding grounds for Islamic radicalism.'

"The problem of no-go zones is well documented, but multiculturalists and their politically correct supporters vehemently deny that they exist. Some are now engaged in a concerted campaign to discredit and even silence those who draw attention to the issue – often by deliberately mischaracterizing the term ‘no-go zone,’ he said.

He quoted Islam expert Andrew C. McCarthy’s definition: ‘It is not that they [non-Muslims] are not permitted to enter these enclaves; it is that they avoid entering because doing so is dangerous if they are flaunting Western modes of dress and conduct.’...”

Arabs attack with sticks in Haifa, shout ‘slaughter the Jew’

January 27, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: “Several young Arab assailants armed with rubber straps, sticks and rocks entered the Hadar neighborhood in Haifa on Sunday, where they began beating passersby with the sticks and shouting ‘slaughter the Jew’ in Arabic.

According to one of the testimonies from the attack, at around 11 p.m. the Arab youths arrived at Michael Street in the neighborhood and started threatening haredi residents on the street, with the sticks in their hands.

The haredi passersby fled from the threat of the Arab assailants, taking shelter in a Talmud Torah religious school, and from there they called up police forces who quickly arrived on the scene.

However, one of the residents who was coming home from a synagogue was less fortunate, as the Arab attackers began raining blows on him with the sticks and rocks.

Within minutes, police had arrested the attackers, and it became clear that they were minors. Police investigators from the Coastal District have opened an investigation into the circumstances of the attack...”

PA cleric on TV calls Jews ‘apes and pigs, slaves of deities’

February 6, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: “While the Palestinian Authority (PA) is commonly touted in international circles as a ‘moderate’ alternative to its unity partner Hamas, a PA cleric’s sermon broadcast on official PA TV last Friday put any doubts about the organization’s virulent Islamic anti-Semitism to rest.

Palestinian Media Watch (PMW) exposed and translated the sermon made on the Muslim day of rest, in which the cleric demonized Jews as ‘apes and pigs’ in classic Muslim anti-Semitic trope, and likewise called them the ‘slaves of deities.’

‘Many Muslims are being harmed these days by a group whose hearts were sealed by Allah. ‘He made of them (Jews) apes and pigs and slaves of deities,’ the cleric can be seen saying, quoting the Koran (5:60).

He added ‘they are harming the livelihood of the believers (Muslims)... they withhold their (Palestinian Arabs’) money and collect interest on it.’

PMW points out that in no less than three places (Suras 2:65, 5:60 and 7:166) the Koran says Allah turned Jews into apes and/or pigs...”

On Monday, a senior official in Iran's Revolutionary Guards, General Ramezan Sharif, declared that the airstrike 'will accelerate the collapse of the Zionist regime.'

'Undoubtedly, the bloods shed in the front of awakening the Islamic Ummah have provided the ground more than ever for wiping out the Zionist regime,' Sharif said in Tehran, according to the Fars news agency.

He called on Muslim states to unite and said that the Islamic countries should desist from provoking rifts and use all their capacities to fight 'the child-killing Zionist regime' instead.

Another Iranian official, General Mohammad Reza Naqdi, said that the airstrike justified 'striking painful blows at the Zionist regime.'

Naqdi warned 'the Zionists' that they would soon be forced to leave 'the occupied Palestinian territories', and added, according to Fars, 'They will not experience tranquility, these bloods will not remain without a response and they should remain fully alerted until complete annihilation of the Zionist regime.'..."

Arab official: Hamas may join Hezbollah to attack Israel

January 29, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: "Hamas may join Hezbollah in fighting against Israel in an effort to cozy up to Iran, a senior intelligence official from an Arab country said Wednesday, as an Israeli army patrol on the northern border came under fire from the Lebanese terror group in a major escalation of cross-border hostilities.

The official, who spoke under condition of anonymity, said Hamas support could include firing rockets out of Gaza at southern Israeli cities, opening a second front as Israel deals with fire from Lebanon and Syria.

The official said Hamas had made clear in recent days its support for Hezbollah's right to respond to an airstrike earlier this month that killed its top commander in the Syrian Golan Heights, along with an Iranian general and at least five others..."

NATO agrees to boost defenses after Russian 'aggression'

February 6, 2015 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: "NATO agreed Thursday to dramatically boost its defenses with six command centers in eastern Europe and a spearhead force of 5,000 troops, to counter what the alliance called Russian aggression in Ukraine.

Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg insisted that the increase approved by defense ministers in Brussels was purely defensive, but it is likely to rile a Moscow that is more wary than ever of Western military intentions.

'This is the biggest reinforcement of our collective defense since the end of the Cold War,' Stoltenberg told the ministers.

He said the decision to step up the 28-nation group's defenses to the east were 'as a response to the aggressive actions we have seen from Russia, violating international law and annexing Crimea.'

France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Poland and Britain agreed to take the lead in forming the spearhead rapid reaction force, which would be available to deploy within a week in a crisis, Stoltenberg said..." (I began preaching on the coming war with Russia in 1958. The message brought tens of thousands to our 800 church revivals and ten million to 220 mass city-wide crusades in America's and Canada's major cities. Fifty-seven years later I have not had to change one detail in this Holy Spirit directed and empowered message. This war is soon to take place – Ezekiel 38:1, 2, 5, 8, 16; Ezekiel 39: 1, 2, 12, and 13. See the next report. Soon World War III, Armageddon will occur. I believe the Rapture will happen before this climactic war – "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth" – Revelation 3:10.)

1,500 Russian troops, military equipment enter Ukraine

February 9, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: "At least 1,500 Russian troops and convoys of military hardware entered Ukraine over the weekend, the Ukrainian military said on Monday.

'One thousand five hundred Russian soldiers and 300 pieces of military equipment, including Grad missile systems, crossed the Ukraine-Russia border on February 7 and 8,' Ukraine military spokesman Andriy Lysenko told journalists.

Around 170 vehicles, including trucks, petrol tankers and cars, also crossed the border, he said.

Ukraine and the West accuse Moscow of supplying troops and equipment to pro-Russian separatists battling the Kiev military in the east of the country, something Russia denies..."
