FOR THE BATTLE IS THE LORD'S

'Hand of God sent missile into sea'

August 6, 2014 -- WND.com reports: "More claims of divine intervention are being reported in the ongoing conflict between Israel and Hamas, with an operator of Israel's Iron Dome missile-defense system saying he personally witnessed "the hand of God" diverting an incoming rocket out of harm's way.

Israel Today translated a report from a Hebrew-language news site, which noted the Iron Dome battery failed three times to intercept an incoming rocket headed toward Tel Aviv last week.

The commander recalled: "A missile was fired from Gaza. Iron Dome precisely calculated [its trajectory]. We know where these missiles are going to land down to a radius of 200 meters. This particular missile was going to hit either the Azrieli Towers, the Kirya (Israel's equivalent of the Pentagon) or [a central Tel Aviv railway station]. Hundreds could have died.

"We fired the first [interceptor]. It missed. Second [interceptor]. It missed. This is very rare. I was in shock. At this point we had just four seconds until the missile lands. We had already notified emergency services to converge on the target location and had warned of a mass-casualty incident.

"Suddenly, Iron Dome (which calculates wind speeds, among other things) shows a major wind coming from the east, a strong wind that ... sends the missile into the sea. We were all stunned. I stood up and shouted, 'There is a God!...' ("God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early" – Psalm 46:1 – 5. See the next two reports.)

'Their God changes path of rockets in mid-air'

August 6, 2014 -- WND.com reports: "As Israel continues to deal with the threat of terrorist rockets flying through its skies, a recent newspaper headline trumpeted the possibility of supernatural protection.

"Their God changes the path of our rockets in mid-air, said a terrorist," was the headline in the July 18 edition of the Jewish Telegraph.

It was a partial quote from Barbara Ordman, who lives in Ma'ale Adumim on the West Bank.

Her exact quotation was: 'As one of the terrorists from Gaza was reported to say when asked why they couldn't aim their rockets more effectively: 'We do aim them, but their God changes their path in mid-air.'..."

Senior infantry officer describes divine protection in Gaza

August 6, 2014 -- The Times of Israel reports: "An Orthodox infantry brigade commander said that divine miracles protected his soldiers during the fighting in the Gaza Strip.

Givati Brigade commander Col. Ofer Winter, who made the claims in an interview with the ultra-Orthodox weekly Mishpacha, met with criticism recently for rallying his troops with religious messages...Winter claimed to have witnessed a miraculous occurrence, the likes of which he had never seen before during his military career.

He said that a predawn raid that was intended to make use of the dark as concealment was delayed, forcing the soldiers to move toward their objective as the sun was about to rise. The soldiers were in danger of being revealed in the light but, Winter recalled, a heavy fog descended to cover their movements until the objective was achieved.

'Suddenly a cloud protected us,' he said, make a reference to the clouds that the Bible says protected the Israelites as they wandered in the desert. 'Clouds of glory.'

Only when the soldiers were in a secure position did the fog dissipate, he said.

'It really was a fulfillment of the verse 'For the Lord your God is the one who goes with you to give you victory,' he said, quoting a passage from Deuteronomy...'

Leading Rabbi: This war is God's war, and Israel will win

July 25, 2014 -- Israel National News reports: "Chairman of the Bnei Akiva Yeshivas and head of Yeshivat Or Etzion, Rabbi Haim Druckman, gave a special blessing to troops serving in Operation Protective Edge in an interview with Arutz Sheva on Friday.

Rabbi Druckman referred to the concept of milchemet mitzvah, whereby certain wars are Torah-mandated for men to serve - such as to defend the Jewish people from attack.

'Our soldiers are fighting God's War,' he said. 'This war determines our very existence in this country.'

'This war is for real peace, as told about in Isaiah: 'And your peers shall have swords ... and no nation shall lift up a sword against your nation, which is not knowing another war.,' he added.

'Israel does not strive for another war, for deaths; each Iron Dome cost a fortune - who needs it?' he continued. 'But there is evil in the world and we must fight that evil.'

Rabbi Druckman had no doubt who will win this war, as Operation Protective Edge enters its eighteenth day.

'Our ancestors fought, Abraham fought, Moses fought,' he reassured. 'Our aspirations are indeed that 'the wolf will live with the lamb' [citing the verse in Isaiah about the Messianic era - ed.] but if the sheep does not deal with the wolf, nothing will be left of the sheep.'

'This is a holy war by all accounts, a war of salvation and for the existence of Israel in its homeland,' he said...'' CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH

'They would not convert and it cost them their life'

August 6, 2014 -- ChristianToday.com reports: "Canon Andrew White, the Vicar of Baghdad, who has witnessed extreme sufferings of Christians being killed and persecuted in recent weeks, has accused the British Government of doing nothing to help fleeing Christians. Bishops and other church leaders have added their voices his concerns.

Catholic bishops in England and Wales have called on Christians to join with people across Iraq 'in praying for an end to the violent persecution that threatens to extinguish the ancient Iraqi Christian community.'...

Canon White, vicar of St. George's Baghdad, posted on his Facebook page: 'You know I love to show photos but the photo I was sent today was the most awful I have ever seen. A family of eight all shot through the face laying in a pool of blood with their Bible open on the couch. They would not convert; it cost them their life. I thought of asking if anybody wanted to see the picture but it is just too awful to show to anybody. This is Iraq today.'...'' ISIS to Iraqi Christians in Mosul: convert or die

July 20, 2014 -- Breitbart.com reports: "The Islamic State of Iraq and Syria distributed leaflets to Christian leaders in the northern Iraqi city of Mosul this week, threatening violence if they don't convert.

Christians who do not accept Islam or fail to pay extra taxes to the Islamic Sharia courts, the letters warned, will face 'death by the sword.'

Christians who do not agree to ISIS demands were also given the option to leave Mosul. According to a message from ISIS leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi, non-complying Christians were permitted to 'evacuate themselves only from the caliphate state' by 12 p.m. local time on Saturday or their 'only option is the sword.'...

After 2,000 years, the last Christian is forced to leave Mosul

July 21, 2014 -- Breitbart.com reports: "The last Christian reportedly left Iraq's second largest city of Mosul at 12:00pm on Saturday, ending over 6,000 years of Assyrian history in the city. Assyrians have lived in Mosul for over 6,000 years, converting to Christianity over 2,000 years ago. This all came to an end on Saturday, when the last Assyrian Christian left the city.

On Thursday, July 17th, the Islamic State (IS)-- formerly the Islamic State of Iraq and al-Sham (ISIS)-- released a statement demanding the Christians in Mosul either to convert to Islam, paying the jizya (tax on non-Muslims), leave the city, or be killed. The threat was to be implemented on Saturday. It is being reported locally that by noon yesterday, every Christian had chosen to leave..." (Our Lord Jesus Christ will deal with these ungodly Islamic terrorists when He returns saying: "You serpents, you generation of vipers [snakes] how shall you escape the damnation of hell?" – Matthew 23:33. Iraq crisis: end 'very near' for Christianity after ISIS takeover, says Bishop July 27, 2014 -- The Independent.co.uk reports: "The vicar of the only Anglican church in Iraq has warned the end for Christians in the country appears 'very near' as he appealed for help after a deadline set by Islamic militants to convert or be killed expired.

Canon Andrew White, dubbed 'the bishop of Baghdad' for his work at St. George's church in the capital, spoke after the ultimatum handed to Christians in the northern city of Mosul by the Islamic State of Iraq Levant (ISIS) to convert, pay a tax or be put to death passed last week.

For those Christians who did not comply with the decree by July 19, Isis warned that 'there is nothing to give them but the sword.' Many have since fled their homes and Rev. Andrew-White told BBC Radio 4 Today desperate Christians were trapped in the desert or on the streets with nowhere to go.

'Things are so desperate, our people are disappearing,' he said. 'We have had people massacred, their heads chopped off.

'Are we seeing the end of Christianity? We are committed come what may, we will keep going to the end, but it looks as though the end could be very near.'..."

Call from Iraqi Christians: "Obama, Obama, Where are You?"

July 28, 2014 -- Breitbart.com reports: "Several hundred people gathered in front of the White House on Saturday, chanting, 'Obama, Obama, where are you? Iraqi Christians call for you!'

Iraqi Christians held demonstrations in a number of cities on Saturday, including Washington, Paris, The Hague, Cologne, and London, in order to bring attention to the current assault on Christians by the Islamic State (IS) -- formerly the Islamic State of Iraq and al-Sham (ISIS) jihadists. One week ago, Christians were forced out of Mosul, Iraq's second largest city, and many Christian monasteries, shrines and churches have since been destroyed.

His Grace Mar Paulus Benjamin, a bishop in the Assyrian Church of the East, made the 12-hour bus ride from Chicago with parishioners to attend the demonstration in Washington. I spoke with him in front of the White House: 'Iraq's Christians are being ignored by the United States, the United Nations, and the human rights organizations,' the Bishop said. 'For us, America is a symbol of freedom and protection of human rights. I think of America in World War II, when America came to the rescue of Europe. Then, the enemy was the Nazis. Today it is ISIS. The names are different, but the religious cleansing is the same.'

After I spoke with the Bishop I was approached by a man who quietly said to me, 'You know, we are Muslims here as well.' Yasir is a Muslim from Baghdad who left Iraq in 1966. 'What I see today in the world is not the Islam I grew up with. I had many Christian friends growing up. I attended the Jesuit College in Baghdad. I am here today to show my support for my Christian friends.'..."

Iranian Christian to have lips burnt for eating during Ramadan

July 24, 2014 -- Israel National News reports: "An Iranian judge sentenced a Christian man to have his lips burnt with a cigarette for eating during the day in the Muslim holy month of Ramadan, The Daily Mail reported.

The barbaric punishment was carried out in public in a square in the city of Kermanshah.

Five other Muslim men were also flogged in public with 70 lashes for not fasting during Ramadan, the city's deputy governor Ali Ashraf Karami said.

A spokesperson from The National Council of Resistance of Iran, a political coalition which opposes the government, denounced the treatment as 'savage' and called on western countries to take action.

'The silence of the world community, especially of western countries, vis-à-vis these medieval punishments under the excuse of having nuclear talks with Iran has intensified the brutal and systematic violation of human rights in Iran,' said the council, according to the Daily Mail.

'This will ultimately embolden the Iranian regime to continue its nuclear projects more than before,' it added.

Australian boy ‘displays severed head in Syria’

August 11, 2014 -- BBC News reports: “Australian PM Tony Abbott has voiced strong condemnation after an image emerged showing a boy, reportedly the son of an Australian ex-terror convict, holding a Syrian’s severed head.

The image was posted on the Twitter account of Khaled Sharrouf, The Australian newspaper reported.

Sharrouf, who served time for planning attacks in Australia, has now joined Islamic State (IS) militants in Syria.

Mr. Abbott said the image showed ‘just how barbaric’ IS militants were.

The image shows a young boy - who looks to be of early primary school age - wearing a baseball cap and a blue shirt, using both hands to hold aloft the severed head.

A caption was included that read ‘That’s my boy’, The Australian said. It said the image was taken in the northern Syrian city of Raqa.

Another picture showed Sharrouf wearing combat fatigues posing with three children believed by security personnel to be his sons, the newspaper reported.

‘What we’ve got to appreciate is that Islamic State... is not just a terrorist group, it’s a terrorist army and they’re seeking not just a terrorist enclave but effectively a terrorist state,’ Mr. Abbott told Australian radio from the Netherlands, where he is discussing issues related to flight MH17, the passenger plane brought down in Ukraine.

‘And this does pose extraordinary problems... not just for the people of the Middle East but for the wider world...’

40,000 Iraqis stranded on mountain as ISIS jihadists threaten death

August 7, 2014 -- The Guardian.co.uk reports: “Tens of thousands of members of one of Iraq’s oldest minorities have been stranded on a mountain in the country’s north-west, facing slaughter at the hands of jihadists surrounding them below if they flee, or death by dehydration if they stay.

UN groups say at least 40,000 members of the Yazidi sect, many of them women and children, have taken refuge in nine locations on Mount Sinjar, a craggy, mile-high ridge identified in local legend as the final resting place of Noah’s ark.

At least 130,000 more people, many from the Yazidi stronghold of Sinjar, have fled to Dohuk, in the Kurdish north, or to Irbil, where regional authorities have been struggling since June to deal with one of the biggest and most rapid refugee movements in decades.

Sinjar itself has been all but emptied of its 300,000 residents since jihadists stormed the city late on Saturday, but an estimated 25,000 people remain. ‘We are being told to convert or to lose our heads,’ said Khuldoon Atyas, who has stayed behind to guard his family’s crops. ‘There is no one coming to help.’

Another man, who is hiding in the mountains and identified himself as Nafi’ee, said: ‘Food is low, ammunition is low, and so is water. We have one piece of bread to share between 10 people. We have to walk 2km to get water. There were some air strikes yesterday [against the jihadists], but they have made no difference.’

At least 500 Yazidis, including 40 children, have been killed in the past week, local officials say. Many more have received direct threats, either from the advancing militants or members of nearby Sunni communities allied with them. ‘They were our neighbours and now they are our killers,’ said Atyas...’

Islamic State extremists deliver ultimatum to Yazidis: ‘Convert today - or die’

August 10, 2014 -- The Telegraph.co.uk reports: “Hundreds of terrified families belonging to the besieged Yazidi sect have reportedly been threatened with execution if they refuse to convert to Islam today, according to reports.

Yazidi refugees who are stranded on Mount Sinjar said they have received calls from family members trapped behind enemy lines in villages now controlled by Islamic State jihadists.

They have reportedly been handed a brutal ultimatum: convert to Islam – or die.

Iraq says Islamic State killed 500 Yazidis, buried some victims alive

August 10, 2014 -- Reuters reports: “Islamic State militants have killed at least 500 members of Iraq’s Yazidi ethnic minority during their offensive in the north, Iraq’s human rights minister told Reuters on Sunday.

Mohammed Shia al-Sudani said the Sunni militants had also buried alive some of their victims, including women and children. Some 300 women were kidnapped as slaves, he added.

‘We have striking evidence obtained from Yazidis fleeing Sinjar and some who escaped death, and also crime scene images that show indisputably that the gangs of the Islamic States have executed at least 500 Yazidis after seizing Sinjar,’ Sudani said in a telephone interview, in his first remarks to the media on the issue.

Sinjar is the ancient home of the Yazidis, one of the towns captured by the Sunni militants who view the community as ‘devil worshipers’ and tell them to convert to Islam or face death.

A deadline passed at midday on Sunday for 300 Yazidi families to convert to Islam or face death at the hands of the militants. It was not immediately clear whether the Iraqi minister was talking about the fate of those families or others in the conflict.

‘Some of the victims, including women and children were buried alive in scattered mass graves in and around Sinjar,’ Sudani said...’ (Islam is a slaughterhouse religion using the sword for the plan of salvation – Shariah Law.)

Italian Muslim cleric calls to ‘kill the Jews’

Hamas TV: Muslims to exterminate the Jews

July 31, 2014 -- Breitbart.com reports: "Though glossed over in major media reporting on the Israel-Gaza confrontation, the Hamas conflict with the Jewish State remains deeply ideological. Lieberman rejects Hamas demands: 'Terror must not pay'

August 11, 2014 -- Israel National News reports: "As Israeli negotiators arrived in Cairo early Monday afternoon a 72-hour ceasefire with Hamas began the night before, Foreign Minister Avigdor Liberman (Yisrael Beytenu) stated that Israel must not allow Hamas's terror on Israel to pay off for the Gaza-based organization.

Hamas leader: We 'love death for Allah like you love life'

August 1, 2014 -- WND.com reports: "A top Hamas leader mocked the Israel Defense Forces, declaring they are fighting 'divine soldiers' who love death.

'Today you [Israelis] are fighting divine soldiers, who love death for Allah like you love life, and who compete among themselves for Martyrdom like you flee from death,' said Hamas Chief of Staff Muhammad Deif in a recorded statement broadcast Wednesday by Al Aqsa TV, the Hamas channel.

Palestinian Media Watch, which translated the statement and posted video of it, noted Deif is commander of Hamas' military wing, the Izz A-Din Al-Qassam Brigades. The terrorist group is responsible of the death of hundreds of Israeli civilians in suicide bombings and other terror attacks.

Hamas TV also broadcast Wednesday a previous declaration by former Hamas Prime Minister Ismail Haniyeh.

'We love death like our enemies love life!' he said. 'We love martyrdom, the way in which [Hamas] leaders died.'..."

U.S. mosque leaders try to chop off man's hand

July 22, 2014 -- WND.com reports: "A Philadelphia Muslim leader is in jail today and another wanted for attempting to usher in Islamic law in their mosque – with a machete.

According to police, on July 14, the amir and imam of the Al-Masjid Ur-Razzaq Ul-Karim mosque in the Overbrook neighborhood of Philadelphia accused a 46-year-old mosque member of stealing money following the early morning prayer service.

Investigators say the two Muslim leaders then dragged the alleged thief to the rear of the property and attempted to enforce Islam's Shariah penalty for robbery: namely, dismemberment.

'They threw the victim to the ground and held his right arm against a log,' Police Lt. John Walker told reporters. 'One of the offenders grabbed a machete from inside the mosque and struck the victim near his wrist.'

Walker explained the 2-foot machete 'cut through his skin and cut his tendons, but didn't make it all the way' because the blade was dull..." (Islamic leaders have vicious ways of dealing with theft. Christianity is so different. "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God" – I Corinthians 6:9, 10. Conclusion for every type of sin is forgiveness because of the Saviors sacrifice on Calvary: "And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God" – I Corinthians 6:11.)

PLAGUES AND PESTILENCES

Ebola: 'It's close, it's at our front door'

July 30, 2014 -- WND.com reports: "Patrick Sawyer, the infected man who boarded an international flight last week carrying the deadly Ebola virus and set off alarms about the disease escaping Africa, was not only an American citizen but was planning to come to the U.S. in August.

'Patrick was coming here,' his wife, Deontee, told the St. Paul, Minnesota, Pioneer Press. 'What if he still wasn't displaying symptoms yet and came?'

'He could have brought Ebola here,' she said. 'Someone else could bring Ebola here.'

Deontee Sawyer of Coon Rapids, Minnesota, says she is coming forward about her husband's infection and subsequent death from the disease to highlight the threat of Ebola coming to the U.S.

'It's a global problem, because Patrick could've easily come home with Ebola,' Deontee told KSTP-TV in Minneapolis. 'Easy. Easy. It's close, it's at our front door. It knocked down my front door.'..." (Pestilences constitute the final signs occurring during the seven year tribulation period. The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse of Revelation 6:1 – 8 predicts the greatest twenty-one calamities occurring just before Christ's return to set up His kingdom upon earth – Revelation 19:11, 14, 16; 20:4. But number four of the twenty-one judgments has to do with disease that destroys one fourth of earth's inhabitants – "And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth" – Revelation 6:7, 8. See the next report.)

Asia on alert for Ebola outbreak

August 8, 2014 -- Voice of America News reports: "The largest known outbreak of the lethal Ebola virus in West Africa is prompting authorities as far away as Asia to take preventive measures, although scientists say a global spread of the disease is unlikely.

At South Korea's Incheon International airport, a major hub for air travel in Asia, quarantine inspections of arriving passengers are being enhanced.

Authorities say all passengers are being recorded by an infrared camera to detect fevers.

South Korea Foreign Ministry spokesperson Han Hye-jin says this is being done because Ebola is becoming a big concern.

She says the South Korean government, in association with health authorities, is paying attention and carefully determining if additional measures are needed.

The country's Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says it established an Ebola task force in April and is prepared for possible infections in South Korea..."
