China and Russia build massive database from hacks to use against America

September 1, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “According to U.S. officials cited by the L.A. Times, China and Russia are cross-indexing the mountain of data stolen in the Office of Personnel Management hack earlier this year with other major data breaches, including stolen airline bookings and the Ashley Madison subscriber database, to identify intelligence officials, their agents, and assets.

By searching this cross-indexed data for certain patterns, it becomes possible to pick out individuals whose behavior and interaction with known intelligence agents suggests they might be spies, or contacts for secret agents. The enemy can also use this data to target American assets that could be susceptible to recruitment or blackmail.

‘A foreign spy agency now has the ability to cross-check who has a security clearance, via the OPM breach, with who was cheating on their wife via the Ashley Madison breach, and thus identify someone to target for blackmail,’ explained Peter W. Singer of the New America Foundation. Top-shelf spy agencies conduct this sort of data analysis all the time, but they do not usually have the sheer volume of information fed to them by the OPM hack – the Rosetta Stone that will help them interpret, and weaponize, the data exposed in many lesser breaches.

When the Times asked counter-intelligence chief William Evanina if these data-mining weapons had already been used against American operatives, he replied, ‘Absolutely.’

Other officials cited in the article stated that ‘at least one clandestine network of American engineers and scientists who provide technical assistance to U.S. undercover operatives and agents overseas has been compromised.’...” (Russia, Ezekiel 38 & 39, Persia [today’s Iran], and China, Revelation 16:12, will all unite against the U.S.A. for Armageddon – Revelation 16:16 – as described in Revelation 9:14 – 18. ## Chinese naval ships spotted off Alaska coast during Obama visit to state

September 3, 2015 -- The Guardian reports: “The Pentagon has confirmed the presence of five Chinese naval vessels in the Bering Sea between Russia and Alaska, which Barack Obama is currently visiting.

It was believed to be the first time Chinese military ships have been spotted in the area and is another sign of China’s global presence expanding far beyond its own shores.

‘We respect the freedom of all nations to operate military vessels in international waters in accordance with international law. We are aware of the five People’s Liberation Army Navy (PLAN) ships in the Bering Sea,’ said Commander Bill Urban, a Pentagon spokesman, confirming a story first reported by the Wall Street Journal.

‘This is the first time we have observed PLAN ships in the Bering Sea.’

The vessels are in international waters near the Aleutians, a chain of islands that fan out from the Alaskan mainland. The boats comprise three combat ships, an amphibious ship and a replenishment vessel...”

Russian e-warriors render aircraft carriers useless

August 25, 2015 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: “Russia has developed a ‘noiseless’ system of neutralizing aircraft carrier battle groups without missiles or torpedoes.

The notion of ‘unsinkable’ aircraft carriers may soon become history for the simple reason that the planes they carry will be rendered totally useless.

Aircraft carriers have long been considered the world’s most powerful and deadliest weapons systems only a nuclear warhead can destroy, again if it is lucky enough to cut through the flattop’s powerful missile defenses.

No more. You no longer need to go around the carrier’s air defenses or launch missile and torpedo attacks. All you need to do is cut the onboard planes’ communications with the mother ship and jam their ‘friend or foe’ electronic identification system.

Russian know-how in this tricky field of electronic warfare is really second to none and the upcoming MAKS-2015 airspace expo will showcase the country’s latest systems of electronic jamming...” (Knowledge shall be drastically extended and increased just preceding Christ’s return – Daniel 12:4 and Matthew 6:10. September 3, 2015 -- The Telegraph.co.uk reports: “China showed off a new missile reportedly capable of destroying an aircraft carrier on Thursday as it flexed its military muscle with a huge parade marking 70 years since the defeat of Japan in World War Two.

The parade, which was shunned by most Western leaders, witnessed 12,000 troops file past President Xi Jinping, along with formations of tanks and armored vehicles as warplanes screamed overhead.

The show of strength saw the People’s Liberation Army (PLA) unveil some of its newest hardware, including the DF-21D missile, which is labelled by state media as a ‘carrier killer’.

The weapon was described as a ‘trump card’ by a commentator on state broadcaster China Central Television (CCTV)...”

U.S. sees space as next potential battlefield with China

August 20, 2015 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: “The United States must take a defensive posture in space to counter threats posed by Chinese anti-satellite capabilities, Booz Allen Hamilton Executive Vice President Henry Obering said on Wednesday.

‘We must treat space for what it is, it is a domain in which we must be prepared to fight and win,’ Obering stated at a Hudson Institute conference on advanced military threats from China.

Over the past decade, China has demonstrated increasing capabilities to counter advanced space assets. It tested last year an anti-satellite interceptor missile capable of destroying a satellite in low-earth-orbit.

U.S. Department of Defense officials have expressed further concerns that China also has developed missiles capable of reaching satellites in high-earth orbit, which could jeopardize the full spectrum of U.S. satellites...” (There shall be devastating signs in space including in the sun, moon, and stars preceding Christ’s return – Matthew 24:29, & 30. ### Russia to engage U.S. in space wars with new Electronic Warfare technology

August 19, 2015 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: “The Russian Defense Ministry has developed new technology to counter U.S. battle stations in space, said Igor Nasenkov, the first deputy head of Russia’s Radio-Electronic Technologies Concern (RETC), according to Russian media sources.

‘If the United States starts developing and launching its battle stations into space, Russia will have to respond in kind – namely with the development of high-performance Electronic Warfare (EW) tools on different types of bases; the use of these tools will be a distinct advantage [for Russia],’ Nasenkov said, as quoted by Rossiyskaya Gazeta.

All Russia needs right now is a political decision and appropriate funding to kick start the project, Nasenkov said...”

U.S. Army held missile defense war games to subvert ‘Russian jamming’

August 18, 2015 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: “In an effort shore up its missile defense capabilities, the U.S. military has conducted a massive electronic warfare exercise. The concern? Russian radar jamming technology.

Last spring, the U.S. Army conducted a highly classified exercise deep in the New Mexico desert. Held at White Sands Missile Range, the electronic warfare drills were designed to find weaknesses in the Pentagon’s missile defense capabilities.

To accomplish this, the military mimicked a series of offensive jamming attacks to test the readiness of the defense system. Evidently, those networks need a lot of improvement, as the results of the exercise produced nearly 70 terabytes of data, roughly twice the size of Wikipedia.

But the prime reason for the drills is concern that Russian and Chinese technology is too advanced for the U.S. military to confront. According to Brig. Gen. Neil Thurgood, the Army's Program Executive Officer (PEO) for Missiles and Space, America's principal foes have developed advanced digital jamming far beyond old-school analog technology.

That advanced tech is not only capable of blocking missile defense radars from intercepting incoming signals, but can also fool the defenses with a false radar pulse.

Essentially, Russian and Chinese jammers can trick U.S. missile defense networks into firing at empty sky..." (See the information on the opening article of this briefing.)

Child dressed as jihadi beheads his teddy bear

August 24, 2015 -- The Jerusalem Post reports: "A video circulated on Arab social media on Sunday showing a child dressed as a jihadi warrior enthusiastically beheading his teddy bear with a hunting knife.

In the video, a little boy appearing to be about pre-school age, entered a staged room dressed in traditional jihadist clothing brandishing a hunting knife as he approached a stage set with a white teddy bear with red polka-dot paws sitting in front of a large ISIS flag. With Islamic music playing in the background, the child brandished the knife and began to carefully behead the teddy bear.

When the child stalled halfway through the beheading, a man not seen on camera calls out 'Takbir!' which is an expression of faith in Islam.

The child smiles at the camera, and appears to be encouraged by the man's words, returning to his task with renewed vigor..." (Beheading is basically Islam's way of destroying enemies, especially during Armageddon, World War III – Revelation 20:4. See the next report.)

90 people executed by IS in Syria this month

August 30, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: "The Islamic State jihadist group has executed more than 90 people, a third of them civilians, over the past month in areas of war-torn Syria under its control, a monitoring group said Sunday.

The Syrian Observatory for Human Rights said 32 civilians were among 91 people executed for 'crimes' in the jihadist group's self-proclaimed caliphate between July 29 and August 29.

The toll included IS members, rebel fighters and forces loyal to President Bashar Assad.

Witchcraft, homosexual acts and working with the U.S.-led coalition fighting IS in Iraq and Syria are among 'crimes' punishable by death for the group.

Since it announced its 'caliphate' in June 2014, IS has swept across Syria, seizing swaths of land in central Hama and Homs provinces, Deir Ezzor and Hasakeh in the east, and the north's Raqa and Aleppo.

According to the Britain-based Observatory, the latest monthly toll has brought to 3,156 people the number of IS executions in Syria since the caliphate was announced.

The number includes 1,841 civilians..."

ISIS enshrines a theology of rape

August 13, 2015 -- The New York Times reports: "In the moments before he raped the 12-year-old girl, the Islamic State fighter took the time to explain that what he was about to do was not a sin. Because the preteen girl practiced a religion other than Islam, the Quran not only gave him the right to rape her — it condoned and encouraged it, he insisted.

He bound her hands and gagged her. Then he knelt beside the bed and prostrated himself in prayer before getting on top of her.

When it was over, he knelt to pray again, bookending the rape with acts of religious devotion..." (Muslim hypocrisy. ## 'I want a blue-eyed Yazidi': Teen describes Islamic State slave market

September 2, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: "Kidnapped, beaten, sold and raped: the Islamic State group is running an international market in Iraq where Christian and Yazidi women are sold as sexual slaves, a teenager who escaped told AFP Tuesday.

Jinan, 18, a Yazidi, was captured in early 2014 and held by Islamic State jihadists for three months before she managed to flee, she said on a visit to Paris ahead of the publication Friday of a book about her ordeal.

Seized as Islamic State fighters swept through northern regions inhabited by the Yazidi religious minority, Jinan was moved around between several locations before being bought by two men, a former policeman and an imam.

She described to AFP how she and other Yazidi prisoners were locked up in a house.

‘They tortured us, tried to forcefully convert us. If we refused we were beaten, chained outdoors in the sun, forced to drink water with dead mice in it. Sometimes they threatened to torture us with electricity,’ she said.

‘These men are not human. They only think of death, killing. They take drugs constantly. They seek vengeance against everyone. They say that one day Islamic State will rule over the whole world.’...

ISIS executes Taliban ‘apostates’ by forcing them to kneel on bombs

August 12, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “The Islamic State (ISIS/ISIL) has developed a new method for murdering prisoners: forcing them to kneel on buried explosives. That is the treatment ISIS militants gave to ten ‘apostates,’ according to the UK

Daily Mail. Even more disturbing, these executions were carried out not in Iraq or Syria, but Afghanistan, where ISIS has been working to establish a presence.

In the new ISIS murder video, uploaded to jihadi social media accounts on Sunday night, a group of ten men believed to be from the Shinwari tribe are led, blindfolded, to kneel atop buried bombs by black-clad Islamic State militants. Militant leaders theatrically prance around on horses across the fog-shrouded hills, and each dramatic cut in the video is accompanied by the sound of a sword slashing. The victims — identified as fighters in the pro-government Popular Mobilization forces from southern Iraq — were suspended from a swingset-like metal structure by chains attached to their hands and feet, then set on fire.

IS, which overran large parts of Iraq last year and still controls much of the country’s west, said the murders were in revenge for the alleged burning of four men by pro-government forces.

August 28, 2015 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Four out of five evangelicals believe their ability to share their faith is being harmed by government policies to tackle extremism. Most also no longer believe that Britain can be said to be a Christian country.

In new research into British ‘values’, the Evangelical Alliance surveyed more than 1,700 evangelicals and found wide concern about ‘unintended consequences’ of the government response to extremism.

More than seven in ten support government plans to define and promote British values and nearly six in ten consider it a reasonable response to extremism. Three-quarters also agreed that freedom of speech needs greater protection.

Syria: Islamic State moves kidnapped Christians, bulldozes monastery

The group has also transferred several dozen Christians, captured during its offensive, to a location near its stronghold in northeastern Syria.

Militants used bulldozers to raze the monastery in the town of Qaryatain, which they had captured in early August, the Britain-based Syrian Observatory for Human Rights said.

Government warplanes were still pounding the area with air strikes two weeks after Islamic State took the town, the monitor said.

THE IRANIAN NUCLEAR DEAL

Iran thumbs nose at U.S. even as Obama rallies support for nuke deal

September 4, 2015 -- Fox News reports: “Even as President Obama was securing the Senate support necessary to assure passage of the nuclear deal with Iran, Tehran’s top defense officials were scoffing at U.S. claims the pact will restrict the Islamic Republic’s military ambitions.

The president has been twisting arms and Secretary of State John Kerry reassuring lawmakers that the deal between Iran and the P5 +1 – members of the UN Security Council plus Germany – will ensure international inspections and bar Iran from ever developing nuclear weapons. This week, Sen. Barbara Mikulski, D-Md., became the 34th member of the Senate to back the controversial and unpopular deal, meaning that if it is defeated in a vote as expected, Obama will have enough support to sustain his certain veto. But Iran’s military brass has answered the U.S. nose-counting by thumbing their nose at America.

‘Iran does not plan to issue permission for the [International Atomic Energy Agency] to inspect every site,’ Iranian Defense Minister Brig. Gen. Hossein Dehqan told Al Mayadeen News Wednesday. ‘U.S. officials make boastful remarks and imagine that they can impose anything on the Iranian nation because they lack a proper knowledge of the Iranian nation.’

September 2, 2015 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: “The United States remains Iran’s ‘number one enemy’ despite a recent nuclear deal with world powers, the chief of Tehran’s top clerical committee said on Tuesday, Iranian media reported.

The Assembly of Experts is among Iran’s most influential institutions, comprising 86 elected clerics who appoint and can dismiss the country’s supreme leader.

It is led by the ultraconservative Ayatollah Mohammad Yazdi.

The nuclear agreement should not ‘change our foreign policy’ of opposition to America, ‘our number one enemy, whose crimes are uncountable’, Yazdi said in a speech opening the annual two-day assembly meeting.

‘The U.S. and Israel are the source of the situation in the region and (their) goal is to protect the Zionist regime in the Middle East,’ he was quoted as saying, blaming the two countries for the conflicts in Syria, Iraq and Yemen.

Iran: No nuclear inspectors will be allowed without approval

August 19, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: “A senior Iranian official has placed another roadblock in the UN’s atomic energy agency attempts to inspect his country’s nuclear sites, The Washington Free Beacon reports.

According to the website, Iran’s deputy foreign minister Abbas Araqchi declared on Monday that international nuclear inspectors from the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) would only be permitted into the country once they receive approval from the Islamic Republic’s Intelligence Ministry.

Araqchi, who also served as one of Iran’s top negotiators in talks that led to the recently inked nuclear deal, was quoted as having told the country’s state-controlled press that Iran’s intelligence apparatus must approve of any inspector who is issued a visa to enter Iran.

This requirement could complicate efforts to prove to the world that Iran is being fully transparent and that nuclear inspectors inside the country are neutral.

Iran has already stated that no American inspector would be permitted into the country under the deal. The accord also grants Iran a 24-day notice period before inspectors enter any site suspected of being used for nuclear weapons work.

‘Any individual, out of IAEA’s Inspection group, who is not approved by the Islamic Republic of Iran cannot enter the country as the agency’s inspector,’ Araqchi was quoted as telling the Islamic Consultative Assembly News Agency (ICANA), a government news outlet, according to The Free Beacon.

This type of screening is fully permitted under the nuclear accord, Araqchi said.

The deal ‘has been set within the framework of the additional protocol and all limitations and supervisions are within the protocol and not beyond that,’ he added...”

‘Today, the Islamic Republic of Iran has reached self-sufficiency in building different types of military equipment and enjoys the capability of producing certain weapons whose technology has not yet been developed or given to all countries, and therefore, they are owned by some limited world states,’ Army Commander in Northeastern Iran Brigadier General Ali Jahanshahi told FNA on Wednesday.

To supply or produce its military needs and equip its army with different types of equipment and weapons, Iran doesn’t need to take permission from any country and anyone, he said, and ‘if any country or anyone wants to intrude in this regard, it will certainly face our crushing response.’

Jahanshani also downplayed the military threats by certain regional countries, and said, ‘The Islamic Republic of Iran’s borders are secure for our friends and insecure for our enemies and we advise the enemy to consider its size and power when threatening the Islamic Republic of Iran and we stress that our response to the slightest military move will be the Islamic Republic of Iran’s iron fist.’...” (Proverbs 11:14: “Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.”)

August 25, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: “A senior Iranian official on Tuesday said Israel ‘should be annihilated,’ and that the thawing relations with the West would not translate into a shift in Tehran’s position concerning the Jewish state.

Hussein Sheikholeslam, a foreign affairs adviser to parliament speaker Ali Larijani, told Iranian media that contrary to remarks by British Foreign Secretary Philip Hammond, ‘Our positions against the usurper Zionist regime have not changed at all; Israel should be annihilated and this is our ultimate slogan.’...” (More idiotic trash from Iranian anti-Bible windbags. God said “...Satan stood up against Israel...” that settles the matter.

Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God. So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel. Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day whereof I have spoken. ### New Iranian clip shows ‘destruction of Jerusalem’ by Muslims

August 20, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: “An animated clip hailing the imminent destruction of Israel, newly published on an Iranian website and on YouTube, shows soldiers standing on a hilltop overlooking Jerusalem, apparently before conquering it.

The clip, in boxy computer animation reminiscent of video games from the mid-1990s, opens with close-up shots of four soldiers with covered faces lacing their boots and preparing their weapons. The soldiers wear the insignia of Iran’s Revolutionary Guards, Iraq’s Badr Organization, Hamas’s Izz ad-Din al Qassam Brigades, and Hezbollah.

As the camera pans out, a group of fighters is seen on the hill overlooking Jerusalem. Then thousands of commandos are seen waiting for the order to attack, as the iconic al-Aqsa Mosque gleams in the background.

A line of text appears, reading, ‘The youth will definitely see that day when it comes’ — referring to the destruction of Israel at the hands of the Muslims, or, as the text states, its ‘erasure from the annals of history.’...”

Khamenei’s new book ‘Palestine’: A guide to Iran’s true intentions

September 4, 2015 -- Breitbart.com reports: “While Senator Sen. Barbara Mikulski’s (D-MD) announcement she will support the Iranian nuclear deal seems to give President Obama the crucial 34th vote he needs to ensure its survival, all members of Congress may want to read the English-language excerpts available of Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei’s recently published book Palestine before casting their final vote.

The fact Khamenei has no reservations about publishing this book—clearly stating what lies ahead for Israel and the U.S.—before Congress has even voted on the agreement is most telling. He appears to believe Tehran’s destiny is sealed by Allah’s double blessing: its enemy, ‘the Great Satan,’ is led not only by an incompetent U.S. president but an incompetent Congress as well.

Khamenei’s book is simply titled Palestine, but it goes beyond the issue the title suggests. According to the excerpts in English now available, the book not only makes clear the Palestinian people are to be returned to the land Israel now holds—a goal to be accomplished by that nation’s destruction—but it also mandates America’s destruction. President Obama may tell us the mullahs’ calls for ‘Death to America’ are for domestic consumption only, but the book tells us Khamenei is a man with a plan to make the chant a reality...”

Khamenei aide: Fighting the ‘Zionist regime’ is our policy

August 30, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: “Iran is continuing its verbal attacks on Israel, with the latest remarks coming on Saturday by a close aide to the Islamic Republic’s Supreme Leader, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei.

The aide, Seyed Mahmoud Nabavi, was replying to British Foreign Secretary Phillip Hammond’s recent remarks that Tehran has changed its policy on Israel, and underlined that fighting the ‘Zionist regime’ is Iran’s everlasting policy.

‘Fight against the illegal Zionist regime is one of the immutable policies of Iran which has always been maintained,’ Nabavi told the semi-official FARS News Agency.

'The Islamic Revolution will continue enhancing its preparedness until it overthrows Israel and liberates Palestine,' the IRGC's Tehran province commander, Brigadier General Mohsen Kazzemeini, said in an address in Tehran, the semi-state Fars News Agency reported.

He also vowed that Iran would maintain its aid to those who fight Israel. 'We will continue defending not just our own country, but also all the oppressed people of the world, specially those countries that are standing on the forefront of confrontation with the Zionists,' Kazzemeini said.

Khamenei: Iran will block U.S. influence

August 18, 2015 -- Voice of America News reports: "Iran's supreme leader, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, vowed that even if a nuclear deal goes through, Iran will not open its doors to foreign influence. Khamenei's feisty speech Monday came as Iran's chief negotiator worked to solidify an agreement that for Iran will mean relief from crippling economic sanctions as it accepts curbs and monitoring meant to block it from developing a nuclear weapon.

Ayatollah Khamenei addressed a crowd in Tehran Monday that included members of the press.

'They thought this deal – and it is not clear if it will be passed in Iran or in America – would open up Iran to their influence. We blocked this path and will definitely block it in the future,' he said.

Khamenei's speech was interspersed with his audience chanting calls for death to America, Israel and Britain. Israel's government and many U.S. lawmakers fiercely oppose a deal with Tehran because of its support for terrorist groups that have attacked Israel. The cleric's defiant remarks Monday gave fodder to those who argue that easing economic sanctions against Iran would enable it to expand such influence.

Khamenei urges Islamic unity against real enemies: U.S. and Israel

August 22, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: "Iran's supreme leader claimed Saturday that Islamic nations were being manipulated into internal strife by the world's 'bullies' and urged Islamic unity in the face of what he identified as the Umma's two greatest enemies: the U.S. and Israel.

Ayatollah Ali Khamenei said the U.S. had long sought to incite 'third-party' states against Iran but 'such third parties are only deceived puppets,' the Islamic Republic's Fars News Agency reported.

'The root cause of the problems returns to their real enemies, the U.S. and Israel,' he said.

The bullying powers, as he called them, are conspiring 'against the Quran and not Shiism and Iran, because they know that the Quran and Islam are the center of awakening nations.'

Iranians, he said, 'have realized that their real stubborn enemy is the world arrogance and Zionism and that's why they chant slogans against the U.S. and Zionism.'..."

Iran promises to 'set fire' to U.S. interests

September 4, 2015 -- The Washington Free Beacon reports: "A senior Iranian military official has vowed to 'set fire' to all U.S. interests in the region and maintained that the Islamic Republic welcomes war with America, according to regional reports demonstrating that Tehran is still committed to fighting the United States in the wake of a recently inked nuclear accord.

'In threatening remarks,' a top Iranian commander of the Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) stated that Iran is prepared to 'annihilate' U.S. and Israeli war forces should they 'take the slightest military move against Iran,' according to Iran's state-controlled Fars News Agency.

'We monitor their acts day and night and will take every opportunity to set fire to all their economic and political interests if they do a wrong deed,' Brigadier General Hossein Salami, the IRGC's lieutenant commander, was quoted as saying in Tehran on Thursday.

In a direct threat to both the United States and Israel, Salami promised to 'cut off enemies' hands and fingers and then send its dust to the air,' according to the report..." (What ridiculous prattle from an Iranian leader. Soon God's promise in Galatians 6:7 will hit like a tornado: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.")
