At least 140 dead in multiple attacks across Paris; France declares state of emergency, shuts borders

November 14, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: “Some 140 people were killed in a series of unprecedented attacks around Paris on Friday, police said, according to French news agencies. French President François Hollande closed the country’s borders and declared a state of emergency.

Reports from escaping hostages said gunmen were killing hostages in the theater one by one. They described carnage, with bodies strewn everywhere, and the attackers throwing explosives at the hostages. ‘Two to three people not wearing face masks went into the concert hall’ and opened fire. ‘They reloaded two or three times,’ said an eyewitness quoted on France 24 TV.

Deadly Paris attacks reveal ‘next stage of IS’

November 15, 2015 -- The Times of Israel reports: “The Islamic State group’s ability to carry out the deadly Paris attacks that it has claimed reveals the growing sophistication and reach of the global jihadist network, analysts said Saturday.

At least 128 people were killed in gun and bomb attacks in the French capital Friday, in what President François Hollande called ‘an act of war.’

IS’s online claim of responsibility boasted that ‘eight brothers wearing explosive belts and carrying assault rifles’ conducted a ‘blessed attack on... Crusader France.’

The coordinated assault came just a day after more than 40 people were killed in twin suicide bombings in a southern suburb of Beirut, in an attack also claimed by IS.

NEWS FROM ISRAEL

Abbas's Fatah: Murdering Israelis is our 'right'

November 18, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: “Palestinian Authority (PA) Chairman Mahmoud Abbas's Fatah faction is at it again, heaping praise on the Arab terrorist who stabbed two Jews to death in Jerusalem's Old City in early October and declaring that the murder of Jews is a Palestinian 'right.'”

Fatah Central Committee member Jamal Muhaisen took part in a rally honoring the terrorist Muhannad Halabi, as reported by the Palestinian Arab Ma'an News Agency and translated and revealed by Palestinian Media Watch (PMW).

Halabi murdered two Israelis and wounded the wife and two-year-old son of one of them in his attack, but Muhaisen 'saluted the soul of (the) martyr, who detonated the Jerusalem intifada,' referencing how Halabi conducted the first lethal stabbing attack of the huge terror wave that began in October.

The Fatah official went on to express his support of the murder and other more recent attacks and murders, saying Palestinian Arabs have the 'right' to cause 'Israeli women to cry.'

'It is the right of our young men to cause Israeli women to cry like our women are crying, even though our women make sounds of joy after their sons' and husbands' deaths as martyrs.'...” (Chairman Mahmoud Abbas, the Holy Spirit who was behind and backing the writers of God's Holy Word described you in the Gospel of John, chapter 8,

PA music video: Nothing beats 'martyrdom' shooting attacks

November 17, 2015 -- Israel National News reports: “The Palestinian Authority (PA), frequently held up as a 'peace partner' for Israel, just this Monday broadcast a new song on its official TV encouraging terrorist shooting attacks against Israelis to achieve Islamic martyrdom, in the latest of the PA's soundtrack of the intifada.

The lyrics of the song, translated and revealed by Palestinian Media Watch (PMW) on Tuesday, present an ideal of murdering and dying for 'Palestine,' with the lines: 'my blood belongs to my land' and 'there is nothing more beautiful than martyrdom.' Martyr is a term used to glorify terrorists who die conducting their nefarious attacks.

Palestinian Arabs have internalized

this culture of terrorism and death, asserts the song, willingly choosing to be 'righteous martyrs' to quench the 'thirst of the land' with their blood. PMW notes it has exposed at least four other broadcasts on official PA TV of children reciting the same poem, which criticizes Arab leaders of not heeding their own teachings, including the teaching demonizing Jews.

The poem ‘Visa’ by Hesham El-Gakh includes the following lines: ‘When I was young I was taught that Arabness is my honor.../and that our lands extend from one end to the other/ and that our wars were for the Al-Aqsa Mosque/and that our enemy, Zion, is Satan with a tail/and that our nation’s armies are outstanding.’

The Islamic State: Hastening the Apocalypse?

November 18, 2015 -- MorningStarNews.org reports: "Since summer 2014, the Islamist terrorist group ISIS – a.k.a. Islamic State – has devastated the political, geographic and combat landscape of the Middle East. At the same time, along with its ominous black banners, it has raised worrisome questions about the true nature of Islam.

For the Middle East's ancient Christian communities, the threats posed by ISIS' extraordinarily brutal warriors have been electrifying. In one haunting story after another, Islamic State jihadists have swept through Christian communities in Iraq and Syria, demanding that residents submit to Islam. Or flee from their ancestral homes. Or face the sword.

Other minorities in ISIS' path, such as Yazidis and Shi'a Muslims, have suffered even worse fates...

Although Christians may believe they can 'hasten the day of the Lord' through evangelism and prayer, most suppose that the grand finale on the world's stage will be played out solely according to God's timetable.

Apocalyptic Islamist ideology, on the other hand, teaches that Muslims must play an active role in bringing about the appearance of their messianic figure...
