Bin Laden's son calls to target Jewish, U.S., Western interests

May 10, 2016 -- The Jerusalem Post reports: “Hamza Bin Laden, the son of former al-Qaida leader Osama bin Laden, is calling for the targeting of Jewish and Western interests and the building of an army to ‘liberate Jerusalem.’”

According to a new al-Qaida video discovered by the Jihad and Terrorism Threat Monitor of MEMRI (the Middle East Media Research Institute) and shared with The Jerusalem Post, Hamza praised the stabbing attacks by Palestinians against Israelis and called on Muslims from around the world to join the fight to defend Jerusalem, urging them to ‘participate in the intifada’ of their Palestinian brethren by ‘killing the Jews and attacking their interests everywhere.’

In addition, Hamza called for Muslims to attack the interests of U.S. and Western countries in the Muslim world because of their support for Israel.

The supporters of the Jews ‘must pay the bill in their blood’ and must feel what Palestinians in Gaza and elsewhere have been feeling, he said.

According to the report, Hamza stressed the obligation of jihad upon every Muslim in order to defend al-Aksa Mosque on the Temple Mount and Muslim women, who he claimed are being killed by Jews in cold blood.

He also suggested building a mega army based primarily in Syria to ‘liberate Palestine.’...” (I call Bin Laden’s son a despicable liar, no media source has claimed that God’s chosen and beloved people have killed Muslim women in disastrous bloody ways. And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. FBI tracking nearly 800 ISIS-related cases across U.S., FBI Director says

May 12, 2016 -- ABC News reports: “Of the nearly 1,000 FBI cases across the country looking at people who may have been radicalized online, about 80 percent of them are tied to ISIS, FBI Director James Comey said today.

‘ISIS’ ability to motivate troubled souls, to inspire them, remains a persistent presence in the United States,’ Comey said. ‘We have north of 1,000 cases where we’re trying to evaluate where somebody is on the spectrum from consuming ISIS propaganda to acting, and that number continues to tick up slowly.’

However, Comey said ISIS — also known as the Islamic State — has been losing its ability to recruit people to Iraq or Syria, with the FBI seeing a ‘drop in the number of people traveling or attempting to travel’ overseas to join the group.

‘The so-called Islamic State brand has lost significant power in the United States,’ Comey said. ‘They’ve lost their ability to attract people to their Caliphate from the United States.’...”

Islamic State 'kill lists' target average American civilians

May 12, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: "Islamic State (ISIS/ISIL) supporters are disseminating 'kill lists' that contain the names, addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses of ordinary American citizens, reports the Wall Street Journal (WSJ)."

"A list distributed late last month contained the names of more than 2,000 New Yorkers, while another listed about 1,500 Texans," notes the report.

The list was published on April 20 by United Cyber Caliphate, described as a person or entity that supports ISIS. It was first distributed via the Telegram encrypted messaging service and it then spread onto Twitter, the Journal learned from counterterrorism officials.

Citing those officials, WSJ reports, "Many of the 3,500 names on the list were duplicates, and officials believe the true number of people on it was closer to 2,000."

Al Qaeda's online magazine tells terrorists to target U.S. business leaders in their homes

May 16, 2016 -- The Washington Times reports: "Al Qaeda's Inspire online magazine is calling on jihadis to damage the American economy by killing business leaders and entrepreneurs in their homes.

Articles in the May 14 edition, its 15th, also urge radical Islamic terrorists to emulate the Palestinian street-killings of Jews by walking up to Americans and stabbing them to death.

Inspire's cover carries the headline 'Professional Assassinations' and the subhead 'Home Assassinations.' It depicts the dark profile of a hooded killer stalking a victim who lives in an upscale American home.

RUSSIA AND THE KINGS OF THE EAST

Putin says Russia will 'neutralize threats' after U.S. opens missile base

May 16, 2016 -- BBC News reports: "President Vladimir Putin has escalated Russian criticism of a new U.S. missile defense station in Romania, saying his country will 'neutralize emerging threats'."

He argued it was aimed at weakening Russia's nuclear power and vowed to increase Russian defence spending.

U.S. President Barack Obama voiced concern about Russia's 'growing aggressive military presence'.

NATO says the base is aimed at potential threats from the Middle East.

The U.S. on Thursday activated the estimated $800m (£550m; €700m) missile shield in Deveselu, southern Romania...

Speaking to Russian officials in Moscow, Mr. Putin said: "This is not a defence system. This is part of a U.S.

nuclear strategic potential brought on to a periphery.

"In this case, Eastern Europe is such a periphery. Those people taking such decisions must know that until now they have lived calm, fairly well-off and in safety.

Russia threatens to make Romania 'smoking ruins'

May 13, 2016 -- WND.com reports: "Russian officials in a report on Thursday speculated that a nuclear war could leave Romania a 'smoking ruins' just as Britain said it intercepted several Russian transports that refused to identify themselves as they approached the Baltic States.

The amped up talk of death and destruction could, analysts warn, return the world to the hair-trigger tensions that shadowed America and the Soviet Union both in the years before President Ronald Reagan demands of Mikhail Gorbachev to 'tear down this wall.'

It was the New York Times that said American officials were celebrating the opening of a missile defense system in Europe this week while the discussion in Moscow turned dark.

"We have been saying right from when this story started that our experts are convinced that the deployment of the ABM system poses a certain threat to the Russian Federation," Kremlin spokesman, Dmitri S. Peskov, told reporters in a conference call.

‘Measures are being taken to ensure the necessary level of security for Russia,’ he said. ‘The president himself, let me remind you, has repeatedly asked who the system will work against.’...”

China to send nuclear-armed submarines into Pacific amid tensions with U.S.

May 26, 2016 -- The Guardian reports: “The Chinese military is poised to send submarines armed with nuclear missiles into the Pacific Ocean for the first time, arguing that new U.S. weapons systems have so undermined Beijing’s existing deterrent force that it has been left with no alternative.

Chinese military officials are not commenting on the timing of a maiden patrol, but insist the move is inevitable.

They point to plans unveiled in March to station the U.S. Thaad anti-ballistic system in South Korea, and the development of hypersonic glide missiles potentially capable of hitting China less than an hour after launch, as huge threats to the effectiveness of its land-based deterrent force.

A recent Pentagon report to Congress predicted that ‘China will probably conduct its first nuclear deterrence patrol sometime in 2016’, though top U.S. officers have made such predictions before...”

Beijing warns critics over South China Sea dispute

May 6, 2016 -- Voice of America News reports: “As China awaits an international arbitration ruling over its claims to almost all of the South China Sea, Beijing issued a warning Friday to its critics, stating that the more they challenge its position regarding disputed territories in one of the world’s busiest waterways, the more it will push back.

Speaking at a special briefing on the dispute, Ouyang Yujing, director-general of the Chinese Foreign Ministry’s Department of Boundary and Ocean Affairs, said China is willing to take into consideration constructive comments and criticism from relevant countries.

‘But if they are aimed at putting pressure on China or blackening its name, then you can view it like a spring, which has an applied force and a counterforce. The more the pressure, the greater the reaction,’ he said...”

Islamic State executes ‘Iraqi spies’ by dropping them in vat of acid

May 20, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “The Islamic State has executed 25 purported ‘Iraqi spies’ by lowering them into a vat of nitric acid, where they remained until their organs dissolved.

The report comes from Iraqi News, whose source described the horrifying execution in Mosul.

The 25 victims were accused of ‘spying and collaborating with Iraqi security forces.’ Each victim was tied with a rope and lowered into a tub of acid inside an ISIS headquarters building.

‘Nitric acid is a colorless, yellow or red, fuming liquid with an acrid, suffocating odor which is highly corrosive to all parts of the human body. It is normally used in manufacturing ammonium nitrate for fertilizer and explosives, organic synthesis, photoengraving, etching steel, and reprocessing spent nuclear fuel,’ the UK Daily Mail explains.

Iraq: ISIL burns own members alive on charges of fleeing battlefields

May 23, 2016 -- The Fars News Agency reports: “Sources in the ISIL-held city of Mosul North of Iraq disclosed that the terrorist group has burnt at least eight of its own fighters after they escaped from the battlefield in Anbar province.

‘The ISIL burnt eight of its members in a bakery’s oven on charge of fleeing battle with the Iraqi army in Rataba region,’ the sources said, adding, ‘Then the ISIL left the burnt bodies of its members in the Mosul’s streets to make its fighters aware of the terrorist group’s harsh response to such cases of treason.’

ISIS's silent Libyan crucifixion campaign revealed

May 18, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: "A top human rights group on Wednesday exposed the largely underreported atrocities being committed by Islamic State's (ISIS) affiliate in Libya, in the port city of Sirte that has been under their control.

Those abuses include beheading dozens of residents accused of being 'spies' and 'sorcerers,' crucifying many others and flogging men for the 'crimes' of smoking or listening to music, according to the Human Rights Watch (HRW) report as cited by Associated Press.

The 'scenes of horror' described by witnesses who spoke to HRW date as far back as February 2015.

Libya has been in chaos for the past several years, with rival factions vying for control ever since the NATO-backed ouster of longtime dictator Muammar Qaddafi in 2011 as part of the 'Arab Spring.' ISIS has been gaining a hold in the North African state, even as its control in Syria and Iraq slowly dwindles.

HRW's report is based on interviews with 45 residents of Sirte that took place last March. The 45 Libyans were part of the two thirds of Sirte's 80,000 residents who fled after ISIS conquered the coastal city.

'While the world's attention is focused on atrocities in Syria and Iraq, ISIS is also getting away with murder in Libya,' said Letta Tayler, a senior terrorism and counter-terror researcher at the New York-based human rights organization..."

Push for hudud law raises tensions in Malaysia

May 31, 2016 -- CNN.com reports: "A proposal in Malaysia's Parliament to introduce the strict Islamic penal code known as hudud law is threatening to split the country's government apart.

The proposed bill was introduced in parliament last Thursday by Abdul Hadi Awang, the president of the country's opposition Pan-Malaysian Islamic Party.

Islamic State Jihadi posts slaves for sale on Facebook

May 31, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: "A series of Facebook posts, quickly removed by the social media platform's administrators, apparently offered two female slaves for sale at a price of $8,000 each.

'To all the bros thinking about buying a slave, this one is $8,000,' said the first post sourced to an Islamic State fighter who calls himself Abu Assad Almani. The Washington Post describes the girl in the accompanying photo as 'young, perhaps 18, with olive skin and dark bangs that droop onto her face.'

Almani soon posted another photo, a woman who had 'a pale young face with weepy red eyes,' and said, 'Another sabiyah, also about $8,000. Yay, or nay?' Sabiyah means 'slave.'

The Washington Post notes it is 'unclear whether the account's owner was doing the selling himself or commenting about women being sold by other fighters.'

In any case, Almani hung around to exchange comments with readers of his posts, discussing whether $8,000 was a good price for the women — he argued the prices were set by 'supply and demand' — and even fielding some criticism for posting pictures of unveiled women.

These posts are grimly consistent with reports that the Islamic State is running out of money and turning to the slave trade as a new income stream, complete with official regulations for how slaves should be handled..." (Does all this filthy sex that Muslim leaders sell plus the 72 virgins these sexual godless sinners promote for those who kill others by it make heaven an eternal whorehouse honor God? CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH

Pope shocker: Promotes socialism, likens Jesus to ISIS

May 20, 2016 -- WND.com reports: "Pope Francis, in an interview with the French newspaper La Croix, suggested a likeness between ISIS and Jesus by explaining that while 'the idea of conquest is inherent in the soul of Islam,' it was quite possible to interpret certain passages of the Gospels, particularly in Matthew's, as a call for Christians to go forth with this 'same idea of conquest' in their discipleship.

He also faulted the free market for driving poverty, saying economies need 'a state to monitor and balance them;' gun manufactures for fueling wars; and the failures of Christians in Europe to properly assimilate with Muslims as causing much of the tensions of recent times – ostensibly, to include acts of terror.

His specific words, according to an English interpretation of his comments: "Today, I don't think that there is a fear of Islam as such but of ISIS and its war of conquest, which is partly drawn from

Islam. It is true that the idea of conquest is inherent in the soul of Islam. However, it is also possible to interpret the objective in Matthew's Gospel, where Jesus sends his disciples to all nations, in terms of the same idea of conquest.'

He also said 'co-existence between Christians and Muslims is still possible,' citing his own growing years in a country 'where they co-habit on good terms.'...'
(Pope Francis, your statement is blasphemy. The message of God is not Socialism, but rather the Gospel – “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand... For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:” -- I Corinthians 15:1, 3, 4. And: “...though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed” – Galatians 1:8, 9.)

Pope and top imam embrace in historic Vatican meeting

May 25, 2016 -- The Times of Israel reports: “Pope Francis embraced the grand imam of Cairo’s Al-Azhar Mosque at the Vatican on Monday in a historic encounter both sides hope will lead to greater understanding and dialogue between the two faiths.

The first Vatican meeting between the leader of the world’s Catholics and the highest authority in Sunni Islam marks the culmination of a significant improvement in relations between the two faiths since Francis took office in 2013.

‘Our meeting is the message,’ Francis said in a brief comment at the start of his meeting with Sheikh Ahmed al-Tayeb, shortly after he had hugged and kissed his guest, Vatican officials told a small pool of reporters covering the event.

In a statement on the trip, Al-Azhar, an institution that also comprises a prestigious seat of learning, said the two sides had agreed to convene a ‘peace conference.’

China sees sevenfold increase in persecution against Christians

May 24, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Persecution against Christians in China has increased sevenfold since 2008, according to the latest report by China Aid.

The Texas-based charity paints a damning picture of religious freedom in China as it describes the state’s attempt to take control of the nation’s churches.

Religious ‘nones’ outnumber Christians in England and Wales

May 24, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “More people in England and Wales say they have no religion than say they are Christians, according to new analysis – and the number is increasing.

Stephen Bullivant, senior lecturer in theology and ethics at St. Mary’s Catholic University in Twickenham, analyzed data collected through British Social Attitudes surveys over three decades.

He found that the number of people saying they had no religion – or ‘nones’ – was 48.5 percent in 2014, almost double the figure of 25 percent in 2011. Christians made up 43.5 percent of the population.

‘The striking thing is the clear sense of the growth of ‘no religion’ as a proportion of the population,’ Bullivant said.

‘The main driver is people who were brought up with some religion now saying they have no religion. What we’re seeing is an acceleration in the numbers of people not only not practicing their faith on a regular basis, but not even ticking the box. The reason for that is the big question in the sociology of religion.’...’ (1 John 2:19: “They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.” This Holy text describes the sad situation of 21st Century Christianity just before Christ’s return. Ahmadinejad’s return to public eye in Iran fuels talk of comeback

May 13, 2016 -- Voice of America News reports: “On a podium decorated as a bunker from the Iran-Iraq war, Mahmoud Ahmadinejad woos a crowd of hundreds with an anti-Western speech reminiscent of his fiery addresses as Iran’s president.

At the end of the event in Jiroft in southeast Iran, held partly to honor victims of the 1980-88 war, some of the crowd chant: ‘The slogan of any man is that Ahmadinejad is coming back.’

After nearly three years out of the public eye following two terms as president, Ahmadinejad has made a handful of appearances in the past few weeks, including his speech last week in Jiroft, which have stoked talk of a political comeback.

The 59-year-old conservative and populist has made no announcement about his future or addressed speculation that he plans to stand in the next presidential election, due in 2017.

Iran’s Supreme Leader: U.S. ‘surrendered’ to Iran in nuclear deal

May 31, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Last week, Iran’s Supreme Leader Ayatollah Khamenei called for the Islamic Republic to remain vigilant against the West’s ‘soft war’ and warned Iran’s ‘enemies,’ specifically the West, were trying to manipulate and control the nation’s policies.

‘Our officials and all parts of the establishment should be vigilant about the West’s continued soft war against Iran... the enemies want to weaken the system from inside,’ Khamenei said, according to Reuters. According to Iran’s state-run Press TV, the supreme leader also touched upon the historic nuclear Iran deal (Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action), asserting that the United States’s concessions were a form of surrender to the Islamic Republic’s ‘own power.’

‘There was time when enemies would not accept even a single centrifuge inside Iran, but they finally surrendered in the face of Iran’s nuclear might,’ Khamenei said, according to Press TV. ‘In fact, it was not the Americans who gave us this concession; we got it with our own power,’ he said...”

He also said that post-sanctions Tehran was ‘intent on opening the road of exports to the world countries.’ The first step, he said, was ‘for the government to open the doors that were shut in the past.’

NEWS FROM ISRAEL AND THE MIDDLE EAST

ISIS threatens global war with Israel

May 20, 2016 -- The Jerusalem Post reports: “Islamic State threatens Israel in an article in its weekly newsletter this week, saying that unlike Hamas, the ‘war on Israel will not be limited by geographical boundaries or by international norms.’

According to the article in the Al-Naba newsletter identified by the Jihad and Terrorism Threat Monitor of MEMRI (the Middle East Media Research Institute) and shared with The Jerusalem Post, Israel feels threatened by ISIS because of the ‘collapse’ of neighboring states and the Sunni terrorist group’s advance toward the borders of the Jewish state.

For this reason, Israel has started to fight against Islamic State in Sinai and Syria, it says, adding that the entire world is now an arena for the fight against all the ‘polytheist combatants, including the Jews,’ who are legitimate targets. Israel is using jets to attack Islamic State in Sinai, the article claims...

The article also claims that the group is more capable than others have been in the past of attacking Israel since it is closer to Israel.

However, notes the MEMRI report, the Islamic State ideology does not view Israel as its primary target, but rather as one to be fought later, after the organization conquers the Arab countries surrounding it.

‘Let the Jews bomb with their planes, they are not harsher on us than the Crusaders’ planes and Allah enabled us to persevere against those.... With Allah’s permission they will be overpowered, and then they will be taken to hell,’ the ISIS article concludes...”

In new Gaza clip, kids urge ‘martyrdom, blowing up enemies’

May 12, 2016 -- The Times of Israel reports: “New footage to emerge out of a children’s festival in the Gaza Strip shows play-acting Palestinian kids urging each other to ‘die as martyrs’ and ‘blow up their enemies,’ and includes mock presentations of them capturing Israeli soldiers and running through what appears to be a tunnel.

A video of the events, part of the eighth annual ‘Childhood Festival’ by the Islamic Association in Khan Younis in April, was uploaded to the internet this week, and was made available by the Middle East Media Research Institute.

During one segment, a young girl calls on her ‘child’ to ‘join the battle! Die as a martyr, and blow up the enemies.’

Others show young boys clasping toy assault rifles as they strike poses in formation and run through what appears to be a tunnel.

Children are also shown ‘capturing’ an Israeli soldier and throwing rocks at Israeli policemen. The setting appears to be Jerusalem’s Temple Mount, with boys dressed as ultra-Orthodox Jews seen praying the background.

Two young girls then declare that ‘the young people of Jerusalem are staging a knife revolution?...’ (“Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!” – Matthew 18:4 – 7.)

Muslim preacher: Jews ‘trying to uproot Islam’

May 15, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “Jews are trying to ‘uproot

Islam,’ a Syrian preacher claimed last week.

‘Treachery is one of the characteristics of the Jews, just as slyness is one of the characteristics of foxes,’ Sheikh Muhammad Ma’moun Rahma stated to a crowd at the Umayyad Mosque of Damascus in a Friday sermon. His comments were translated into English by the Middle East Research Media Institute (MEMRI).

‘The Jews dream of ruling the world from their false ‘Temple,’ said the preacher.

‘Are you aware, o Muslims and Arabs, that global Jewry holds the political reins in the world’s superpowers?’ he added.

‘The entire world knows that the Jews control the sources of knowledge and fortune, in order to take hold of the reins of culture and economy. In America and in Europe, they are now kings of finance, the leaders of the media, and the owners of publishing houses.’...” (I think any intelligent person who follows the daily news as I do knows its Islam that wants and strives to control the world. They will fail because God promises Israel an everlasting name that shall not be cut off – Isaiah 56:5.)

London’s iconic red buses to declare ‘glory to Allah’

May 8, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Britain’s largest Islamic charity says it wants to ‘break down barriers’ and portray Islam positively by launching a new advertising campaign which will slap the phrase ‘glory to Allah’ on the side of London buses.

The new campaign by Islamic Relief is, ostensibly, targeted at raising donations for their Ramadan aid to Syria, but is attracting attention for the ‘hundreds’ of buses which will be decorated with the phrase ‘Subhan’Allah’, or ‘Glory to Allah’.

Muslims reading the advert are told that to ‘gather the rewards of Ramadan’, they must to donate to Islamic Relief, an organization which had its accounts with banking giant HSBC closed due to ‘concerns that cash for aid could end up with terrorist groups abroad’.

Public transport has been chosen for the Islamic re-branding in London, Manchester, Leicester, Birmingham, and Bradford – all UK locations with high and growing Muslim populations, reports the Sunday Times.

That the announcement of the new campaign came the day after London crowned its first Muslim leader, Mayor Sadiq Khan. Islamic Relief called it a ‘nice irony’ that the two events coincided...” (God protect the Queen and millions of UK Christians. Why? The deity Allah states eight times in the Koran that anyone who accepts the Doctrine of the Trinity or calls Jesus the Son of God will burn in hell forever. These passages are found in Suras [chapters] 4, 5, 7, 9, 12, 13, 19:33; 88. See the next report.)

Islam tightens hold on Europe with election victory

May 8, 2016 -- WND.com reports: “The results from this week that will leave the capital of the United Kingdom under the rule of a Muslim – for the first time in history – is evidence of Islam’s tightening grip on Europe, critics say.

The vote gave the Labour Party’s Sadiq Khan a victory over the Conservative Party’s Zac Goldsmith.

The highly divisive campaign reflected the growing ethnic and religious divisions within the city, where many areas are set to be majority Muslim within a matter of years...”
