TERROR IN BRUSSELS

Dozens killed in 4 Brussels bombings in airport, subway stations

March 22, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “The Zaventem airport in Brussels was rocked by at least two explosions early on Tuesday morning, Reuters reports. The exact death toll in the attacks is unclear at this time, with estimates ranging from 13 according to the BBC to 17 as reported by Russia Today. An additional 35-40 people have been wounded.

London-based Sky News has reported that at least one of the explosions was a suicide bombing.

The blasts reportedly occurred in the departures lounge and near the American Airlines desk. These reports have yet to be confirmed by an official source.

Just an hour after explosions rocked the Zaventem airport at least two bombings were reported at subway stations in Brussels.

Both the Maalbeek and Schuman stations have reportedly been hit, leaving at least 10 dead, bringing the total death toll in Belgium to between 23-27.

The metro bombings took place just a few hundred yards away from the seat of the European Union government.

Travelers are being evacuated and the airport is now on lockdown. The Brussels metro system has now been shut down, leaving thousands of desperate travelers stranded at the bombed Zaventem airport.

Witnesses reported that gun shots were fired prior to the airport bombings, accompanied by shouting in Arabic...” (My relatives are Belgians living in the birthplace of my parents. ## Brussels attacks: nuclear officer found dead, security pass stolen

March 26, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Belgium is on high alert after a security officer for a nuclear plant was found dead with his work pass stolen.

The concerning development, which occurred on Thursday but was only reported today by Dernière Heure, comes after concerns the Brussels bombers had been plotting to create a radioactive ‘dirty bomb’ that would scatter nuclear material in a crowded public place.

The security officer was reportedly shot dead as he walked his dog in the city of Charleroi. Authorities quickly cancelled his pass.

While the motive for the murder remains unknown, police are looking into the theory he was killed to steal his pass and gain access to a nuclear facility.

Breitbart London reported yesterday that eleven nuclear workers have had their security passes revoked amid fears the Brussels attackers wanted to steal nuclear material to build a dirty bomb.

Seven workers at the Tihange nuclear power station had their passes cancelled, with a further four revoked after being reviewed by a committee composed of intelligence and security agencies.

Police discovered hidden camera footage of a senior nuclear worker while they were searching the flat belonging to the girlfriend of Mohammed Bakkali, a key figure in both the Brussels and Paris bombings...” (I want my readers to know that these Islamic killers were not Belgian Christians but instead mainly Moroccan immigrants who settled in Belgium. ### Bakraui brothers may have planned to blow up Belgium’s nuclear power plants

March 24, 2016 -- SputnikNews.com reports: “Belgian police gave testimony suggesting that a larger attack against Belgian nuclear power plants may have been averted by the capture of Salah Abdeslam, which made other suicide bombers more frantic in carrying out their plans.

The brothers Ibrahim and Khalid El Bakraoui may have aimed to blow up a nuclear power plant in Brussels, Belgian newspaper Derniere Heure reported.

According to the newspaper, the police in December had seized a video shortly after the attacks in Paris, which showed that Daesh may have been monitoring movements of the chief of the Belgian nuclear program through a hidden camera outside of his house...” (Look for the names within this article. ### ISIS takes responsibility for Brussels slaughter

March 22, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “Members of the Islamic State (ISIS) terrorist organization claimed responsibility for the series of bombings in Brussels on Tuesday, in which at least 34 victims were murdered and 186 more were wounded.

ISIS took responsibility for the bombings through a news website affiliated with it, as cited by Reuters.

The attack would mark the latest in a series of high-profile attacks on European soil by the jihadist group; last November ISIS launched a series of six coordinated attacks in Paris which left 130 people murdered.

Security forces continue to work to hunt down the suspects involved in Tuesday’s attacks.

Those attacks included two explosions in the Zaventem Airport, where at least 14 were murdered and some 90 wounded. A ceiling in the airport collapsed in the wake of the explosion, trapping dozens of travelers and complicating efforts to recover victims of the attack.

Just an hour after explosions rocked the airport the Maalbeek metro station in Brussels was hit by an explosion, leaving at least 20 murdered and 60 wounded. The metro bombing took place just a few hundred yards away from the seat of the European Union government...” (ISIS is but one of eleven terrorist organizations slaughtering believers globally. ### Sick Jihadi poll mocks Europe, asking ‘what color will the Eiffel Tower be next?’

March 25, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Euphoric Islamic State supporters rejoicing at news of Tuesday’s terrorist attacks in Brussels have launched an online poll asking: ‘Which color will the Eiffel Tower be next?’ Worryingly, half of the respondents have opted for the red, white and blue of Britain’s Union Jack.

As news broke of the bombings, which left more than 30 people dead on Tuesday, Europe erupted into an outpouring of grief and anguish, with many of the continent’s monuments lit up in red yellow and black, the colors of the Belgian national flag.

But making a mockery of Europe’s grief, jihadi supporters took to social media and online forums to celebrate the deaths. It was there that one forum member took the opportunity to pose the question: ‘What will be the color of the Eiffel Tower in the next attacks?’

The United Kingdom came out at the top of the poll, with half of respondents saying they wanted to see another attack on British soil next. Russia and the United States were also popular options, the Daily Mail has reported...” (These Muslim executioners rejoice at the slaughter of 34 victims and injury of an additional 300 human beings. # COMING TO AMERICA?

Top Jihadist claims Brussels, Paris are terror rehearsals for 'big' attack inside U.S.

March 27, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “The deadly terrorist attacks in Brussels last week and in Paris last November are dress rehearsals for a coming ‘big’ attack inside the United States, a leading Islamic State-allied militant claimed in an exclusive interview.

Abu al-Ayna al-Ansari, a Salafist movement senior official in the Gaza Strip, made the claim in a pre-recorded, hour-long interview to air in full on Sunday on ‘Aaron Klein Investigative Radio,’ the popular weekend talk radio program broadcast on New York’s AM 970 The Answer and NewsTalk 990 AM in Philadelphia. Klein doubles as Breitbart’s senior investigative reporter and Jerusalem bureau chief.

Klein asked Ansari whether IS maintains cells inside the U.S. and if the terrorist group is ‘planning anything in America.’

Ansari responded:

‘Aaron, the battle with America is a very long one, a very tough one, a very hard one. America has a black record with the mujahedeen, and this black record will not be purified but with blood, and lots of blood. Only blood will cleanse what America did to the mujahedeen. ## 2,000 ‘ticking time bombs’ in U.S. – and counting

April 4, 2016 -- WND.com reports: “... Experts on Islamic terrorism are calling the estimated 2,500 to 3,100 mosques in America ‘ticking time bombs.’

Every state now has at least one. California and New York lead the way, each with more than 500 mosques, followed by Texas with just over 300.

As the number of mosques increase, so do acts of Islamic terror in the U.S.

FBI Director James Comey told Congress recently that his agency is stretched to the limit trying to keep up with nearly 1,000 active ISIS investigations in all 50 states, and that does not include probes tied to al-Qaida, al-Shabab or other Islamic groups.

While the FBI is able to foil the vast majority of Islamic terror plots, last year was particularly bloody with jihadist shootings in Chattanooga that killed five U.S. servicemen and another attack that took 14 lives at a Christmas party in San Bernardino.

Jihadist knife attacks at a restaurant in Columbus, Ohio, and on the campus of University of California at Merced have recently injured at least a dozen others, some critically.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father’s house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. # CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH

John Allen: Global war on Christianity, '200 million daily at risk' of assault, torture, death

March 25, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: 'On Breitbart News Daily, John L. Allen painted a gruesome picture of the ordeal of millions of Christians throughout the world, and the scandalous ignorance and indifference to their plight in the West.

One of the world's leading experts on Christian persecution and the author of the 2013 bestseller The Global War on Christians, Allen spoke with Breitbart News Executive Chairman and SiriusXM host Stephen K. Bannon on Thursday, recounting the rising tide of violence targeting Christians worldwide.

Allen insisted that the term 'war' against Christians is a precise description of what is going on, not in the sense of 'a unified command structure' but in the massive 'body count' and the cohesive motive of hatred against the Christian faith.

'The high-end estimate for the number of new Christian martyrs every year is around 100 thousand,' Allen stated. 'The low-end estimate is about 7 or 8 thousand. Which works out to one casualty either every five minutes or every hour, of every day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. If that's not a war, I'm not sure we've ever seen one.'

The war on Christians is also 'global,' Allen argued, with some '200 million Christians in the world today who are daily at risk of physical assault, arrest, imprisonment, torture or death...' (I, Dr. Jack Van Impe, ask you to read this report carefully and then open your hearts to the Savior's concerns. ## Pakistan explosion leaves many dead at Lahore park

March 27, 2016 -- BBC News reports: "At least 50 people have been killed and many others injured in an explosion at a park in the eastern Pakistani city of Lahore, officials say.

It happened in the early evening when the park was crowded with families.

Police told the BBC it appeared to be a suicide bomb. No group has said it was behind the blast.

There is speculation that Christian families out for the Easter weekend may have been the target, says the BBC's Shaimaa Khalil, in Lahore.

All the major hospitals in the area have been put on an emergency footing, local media report.

The explosion appears to have been at the main gate to the Gulshan-e-Iqbal park in an area where cars are usually left – and a short distance from the children's swings.

Most of the dead and injured are women and children, a senior local police officer told Reuters news agency..."

Lahore attack: 'The target was Christians' says Taliban

March 28, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: "The Taliban faction who killed at least 70 in Lahore on Sunday have said their target was Christians.

Jamaat-ul-Ahrar, a faction of the Pakistani Taliban, claimed responsibility for the attack late on Sunday night, and issued a direct challenge to the government.

'The target was Christians,' said a faction spokesman, Ehsanullah Ehsan. 'We want to send this message to Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif that we have entered Lahore.'

The attack hit a busy park in the eastern city of Lahore, the powerbase of Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif. Most of those killed were women and children enjoying an Easter weekend outing. Pakistan is a majority-Muslim state but has more than 2 million Christians, making up less than 2 per cent of the population.

It was the deadliest attack in Pakistan since the December 2014 massacre of 134 school children at a military run academy in the city of Peshawar that prompted a big government crackdown on Islamist militancy..."

Genocide: Christian population in Iraq drops by 80% in just over a decade

March 31, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: "The Christian population in Iraq has been decimated in a little over a decade, dropping from 1.4 million in 2003 to just 275,000 today, according to a report released this month.

The recent joint report, compiled by the Knights of Columbus and In Defense of Christians (IDC), tells a horrific story of a religious and ethnic purge in the Middle East that has produced the systematic eradication of Christians from the territory.

Christianity's roots in Iraq date back as far as the first century and yet now has fallen prey to Islamist militant groups committed to the extermination of Christians.

The Chaldean Archbishop of Erbil, Bashar Warda, has testified that for many long centuries the Christians of Iraq have experienced hardships and persecutions 'but what we have now experienced are the worst acts of genocide in our homeland. We are facing the extinction of Christianity as a religion in Iraq.'

The tactics employed by the Islamic State to drive away Christians are by now well known. The report states that Christians have been subject to 'repeated threats of death in the form of a gun to the head or a sword to the throat.' They were also subjected to 'beatings, choking, threats of rape, and mock executions. They had their electricity and water cut off, and were deprived of basic sanitation.’...”

Stabbed and left for dead by Islamist radicals: The cost of being a Christian in Pakistan

March 28, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Ali Husnain was 17 when he was attacked and stabbed by members of a fundamentalist Islamic group in his hometown in Pakistan. A year earlier, he had converted to Christianity while visiting an aunt in England, having grown up in a prominent, wealthy Shia Muslim family. He’d kept his conversion quiet for 12 months; he had no Bible to read and couldn’t go to church, but prayed relentlessly at night, and says he dreamt of Jesus many times. It kept him strong in his faith.

But then Ali talked about sin with some friends at school, and told them Jesus was the only who could offer true forgiveness. One of them told their father, a member of an Islamist group, and the next day Ali was attacked outside the school gates and left to die on the side of the road. ‘I remember being thrown to the ground and a man with a beard said: ‘You tried to evangelize our children, now I’m going to kill you and you’ll go to hell,’ he told Christian Today. ‘Then he stabbed me, and I fell unconscious’...”

ISIS claims killing of Christian in Bangladesh as a ‘lesson to others’

March 23, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Islamic State has claimed responsibility for stabbing a Christian to death in Bangladesh.

The group said Hussein Ali was killed as a ‘lesson to others’, an online group that monitors extremist activity said.

Three attackers approached the 68-year-old on a motorbike while he was taking his regular morning walk in the town of Kurigram and then stabbed him in the neck. He had been aware of the dangers he faced, once telling a member of staff from Redcliffe College in Gloucester: ‘They don’t know anything, they don’t understand, forgive them.’ He prayed that God would ‘place me under Your control’.

Bangladesh has seen a surge in Islamist violence in which liberal activists, members of minority Muslim sects and other religious groups have been targeted.

Oxford theology students can now avoid studying Christianity

April 3, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “It’s one of the oldest degrees on offer in the world, but from next September undergraduate theology students at Oxford University will no longer have to study Christianity beyond the first year of their degree. Instead they will be able to focus on ‘Feminist Approaches’ or ‘Buddhism in Space and Time,’ should they so choose.

The university says it is making the change in response to demand from students and tutors, who are increasingly interested in religions and theologies other than Christianity. Students will still have to study The Bible and the figure of Jesus in their first year, but in their second and third years will be free to completely avoid exploration of the Christian faith altogether, if they want to.

Instead they will be able to opt for courses such as ‘Islam in the Classical Period’, ‘Mysticism’ and ‘Feminist Approaches to Theology and Religion’. First year students will also be able to avoid learning classical Hebrew, Greek or Latin and will instead be able to study Qur’anic Arabic or Pali, a language native to the Indian subcontinent in which many early Buddhist texts are written.

‘We recognize that the people who come to study at Oxford come from a variety of different backgrounds and have legitimately different interests,’ Johannes Zachhuber, board chairman of the theology faculty told the Times Higher Education magazine...”

THE GROWING NUCLEAR THREAT

A nuclear-armed ISIS? It’s not that far-fetched, expert says

March 30, 2016 -- Defense One reports: “The murder of a security guard at a Belgian nuclear facility just two days after the Brussels attacks, coupled with evidence that Islamic State operatives had been watching researchers there, has re-ignited fears about ISIS and nuclear terrorism. Some experts, including ones cited by the New York Times and others, dismiss the possibility that ISIS could make even a crude nuclear bomb. But Matthew Bunn, the co-principal investigator at the Project on Managing the Atom at Harvard’s Belfer Center, says that the threat is quite real.

Belgium has seen numerous suspicious events related to nuclear material and facilities. In August 2014, a worker at the Doel-4 nuclear power reactor opened a valve and drained a turbine of lubricant.

The valve wasn’t near any nuclear material, but the act caused at least $100 million in damage and perhaps twice that. Later, Belgian authorities discovered that a man named Ilyass Boughalab had left his job at Doel-4 to join the Islamic State in Syria. (His last background check was 2009.)

In November, shortly after the Paris attacks, Belgian authorities arrested a man named Mohammed Bakkali and discovered that he had video surveillance footage of an expert at Belgium's SCK-CEN nuclear research facility in Mol. It now seems that the footage was collected by Ibrahim and Khalid el-Bakraoui, two of the suicide bombers in the recent Brussels attacks.

Then on March 24, a guard was found shot at Belgium's national radioactive elements institute at Fleurus. A Belgian prosecutor declared the death unrelated to terrorism and denied reports that the guard's security pass had been stolen and hastily de-activated..." (The above headline is being planned between 2016 and 2017. God help and bless America. I am dogmatic when I state this global shaking event could occur as predicted through nuclear weapons. I also believe this world shaking event would take the lives of millions. Revelation 9: 14 – 18 is the prophecy describing Armageddon: "...Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths." The good news is that I dogmatically believe that this battle is fought after the Rapture: "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth" – Revelation 3:10; "...I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter" – Revelation 4:1; "...the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord" – I Thessalonians 4:16 – 18. ### Islamic State threat raises stakes for U.S. nuclear summit

March 31, 2016 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: "The specter of the Islamic State group obtaining a 'dirty bomb' will loom over a top-level nuclear security summit hosted by President Barack Obama in Washington on Thursday and Friday.

Obama welcomes several leaders from countries as diverse as China and Nigeria, as well as representatives from nearly 50 other nations, for the summit aimed at elevating the problem of shaky safeguards from the desks of technocrats to the highest corridors of power.

The meeting comes just days after 32 people were killed and 340 were injured in bombings at Brussels airport and the Belgian capital's metro.

The attacks featured conventional explosives, but two of the suicide bombers — Ibrahim and Khalid El Bakraoui — have been linked to possible efforts by the Islamic State (IS) group to secure fissile material.

THE KINGS OF THE EAST

North Korea nuke-capable missiles 'can reach U.S. mainland'

March 27, 2016 -- WND.com reports: "With the world focused on a major terrorist attack in Belgium and the intensifying presidential race, a renowned expert on the Far East says North Korean missile tests and their detention of an American college student ought to be very concerning to the Obama administration and other world leaders.

In recent days, North Korea test-fired numerous ballistic missiles in a manner designed to menace its neighbors and also sentenced University of Virginia student Otto Warmbier to 15 years of hard labor for tearing down a poster of the late Kim Jong-Il inside a North Korean hotel.

The missile tests followed a statement from Dictator Kim Jong-Un that he wanted the military to have nuclear weapons ready for use ‘at any time.’

Columnist and author Gordon Chang has studied China and North Korea up close for years and is author of ‘Nuclear Showdown: North Korea Takes on the World.’ He says the communist regime has reasons for doing what it’s doing.

‘North Korea will continue to test short and intermediate-range missiles,’ Chang told WND and Radio America. ‘They want to show their customers that these things work. Also, they want to rattle the international community.’

But he said the U.S. had better be paying attention, too.

‘What we’re concerned about, however, is their testing of long-range missiles,’ Chang said. ‘They do have two launchers that can reach 48 states. Therefore, we’ve got to be concerned because, eventually, if not now, they’ll be able to put nuclear warheads on those missiles and, therefore, threaten America.’...

North Korean propaganda video depicts nuclear strike on Washington

March 26, 2016 -- The New York Times reports: “North Korea released a propaganda video on Saturday that depicts a nuclear strike on Washington, along with a warning to ‘American imperialists’ not to provoke the North.

The four-minute video clip, titled ‘Last Chance,’ uses computer animation to show what looks like an intercontinental ballistic missile flying through the earth’s atmosphere before slamming into Washington, near what appears to be the Lincoln Memorial. A nuclear explosion follows.

‘If the American imperialists provoke us a bit, we will not hesitate to slap them with a pre-emptive nuclear strike,’ read the Korean subtitles in the video, which was uploaded to the YouTube channel of D.P.R.K. Today, a North Korean website. ‘The United States must choose! It’s up to you whether the nation called the United States exists on this planet or not.’...

North Korea: We are ready for ‘pre-emptive nuclear strike’ on U.S.

March 30, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “North Korea has once again asserted that it will use its nuclear weapons arsenal against the United States. Unlike previous statements, however, a note from the rogue state’s foreign minister on Monday insisted that North Korea is fully equipped and ready to use a nuclear weapon on the United States, not just willing to do so.

Foreign Minister Lee Su-yong insisted in a statement Monday that Pyongyang would not hesitate to use their nuclear weapons against America, and they now no longer needed to wait for their scientists to build the weapons necessary for such an attack. ‘In response to the U.S. frenzied hysteria for unleashing a nuclear war, we have fully transferred our army from the form of military response to the form of delivering a pre-emptive strike and we state resolutely about the readiness to deliver a pre-emptive nuclear strike,’ he said, adding that North Korea ‘faces the dilemma: a thermonuclear war or peace.’...

South Korea and American allies face ‘miserable end’, says North Korea

March 24, 2016 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: “North Korea threatened a ‘miserable end’ for South Korea’s president and her American allies on Wednesday, in its latest colorfully worded attack.

Pyongyang declared it would wage a ‘retaliatory battle of justice’ against Park Geun-Hye, with its artillery units standing ready to turn her office into a ‘sea of flames and ashes’.

‘What the DPRK warns is not hot air. It will be clearly proved by the miserable end the U.S. and the Park group will meet while going reckless,’ said the Committee for the Peaceful Reunification of Korea (CPRK), using the formal name for North Korea.

The latest volley comes as Seoul and ally Washington stage their annual Key Resolve and Foal Eagle military drills, which this year are the largest ever, in the wake of a recent North Korean nuclear test and long-range rocket launch.

The massive drills — which include air strike exercises targeting key facilities in the North — are a ‘thrice-cursed provocation’ against Pyongyang’s leadership, the CPRK said, according to the KCMA news agency.

Seoul urged the North to stop ‘base and vulgar’ threats and warned of a ‘relentless retaliation’ against any future provocations.’...

ISIS supporters release video with exploding Eiffel Tower

March 26, 2016 -- PJMedia.com reports: "A new video posted online by ISIS supporters shows the Eiffel Tower exploding and crashing to the ground in stylized, video game animation.

The video begins with a river of blood pooling and dripping off a wooden table filled with stacks of American money, guns, knives and bullets.

It's ripped from a video game, as betrayed by the name of a video game designer with a U.S. company carved in the wood of the animated table.

The video is titled 'A message to the Western Kafir [Disbelievers] from the Supporters of the Caliphate.' It's narrated in English and subtitled in Arabic, and was posted on YouTube and other file-sharing sites..."

ISIS cell planned to bomb security forces in Jerusalem

March 29, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: "Charges were filed today (Monday) at Jerusalem District Court against two residents of Tzur Baher in eastern Jerusalem who planned a terror attack on behalf of the so-called Islamic State (ISIS).

According to the charges against them, Muasab Alian, 23, and Samir Abed Rabo, 38, had planned to carry out a car bombing attack against security forces in Jerusalem.

Both were charged with conspiracy to aid the enemy in wartime. In addition, Alian was indicted on charges of membership in and activity on behalf of an illegal organization, membership in a terrorist organization, providing support to a terrorist organization and attempting to leave the country illegally.

Abed Rabo was also charged with supporting a terrorist organization and making contact with a foreign agent..." (The above headline is very dangerous and possible. Hamas and Hezbollah, two radical death dealing anti-Semitic Jew hating Muslims look ahead joyfully for the hour of Israel's destruction. It will never happen. Attempted yes, destroyed never. In Isaiah 56:5 God states that He will give Israel an everlasting name. Thank you Lord. See the next report.)

Radical sheikh: This land will vomit Israeli 'occupation'

April 4, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: "The Middle East Media Research Institute (MEMRI) has translated and released a video of radical Sheikh Raed Salah delivering an inciting speech late last month.

In the sermon, delivered on March 25 in Jatt, Salah, who heads the northern branch of the Islamic Movement in Israel which was recently outlawed, called for 'jihad' and promised the audience that 'the Israeli occupation' will vanish just like the Roman and Persian empires and British and French colonialism.

'Jihad is worthless without a struggle. This land is a blessed land, a land of ribat, a land of Jihad, hence, it is a land of struggle between its people and any invaders coveting it. We are the land's people, and others who covet it are invaders,' said Salah. 'They may be colonialists, occupiers, corrupters, oppressors, or villains, but we are [part of] this land. Others who covet it have declared war against this land and against us. May Allah fight them. This is a very important point, my brothers. If this land is a blessed land of ribat and Jihad, then it is a land of struggle. Note how many [nations] coveted this land, and Allah be praised, they have vanished.'

Salah continued, 'The Roman Empire flexed its muscles here at one point, but it has vanished. Then the Persian Empire flexed its muscles, and it has vanished as well. Then along came the Crusaders, but they have vanished too. The Tatars came and vanished. British colonialism came and vanished. French colonialism came and vanished. The Israeli occupation will also vanish. 'There is no doubt about it.'..."

ISIS claims bomb attack in Russia

March 30, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: "Islamic State has claimed responsibility for an attack in Russia on Tuesday night.

Two vehicles were blown up by an explosive device in the Dagestan region. It is not yet clear how many are dead. Russian police said one officer was killed and two injured, whereas an ISIS-affiliated news channel said the death toll stood at 10.

'Two cars were blown up, the type of explosive device has not been established yet,' Fatina Ubaidatova, a spokeswoman for the Dagestani police, told Reuters.

The Amaq news agency, which supports ISIS, posted a statement online saying its local affiliate was behind the attack.

ISIS has in the past said it was behind violent attacks on security forces in the North Caucasus, the volatile mainly Muslim part of Russia where Dagestan is located. Critics of the Kremlin have said widespread poverty and corruption have fed religious extremism in the region. A number of militants in Dagestan have sworn allegiance to ISIS..." (Russia is the leader of the anti-Semitic, Jew hating global force including communist China and most Muslim nations. It's called Armageddon – Revelation 16:16; and World War III. The above headline will be attempted, but fail.)
