

“And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh” - Luke 21:28

BETTER A MILLSTONE BE HUNG AROUND THEIR NECK

Girls as young as 11 in war-torn Syria forced to marry in exchange for money

November 11, 2016 --

ChristianToday.com reports: “Syrian girls as young as 11 are being married off by their families in exchange for money, and children as young as seven recruited to fight in the war that has been raging since 2011, according to Christian persecution charity Open Doors.

A field worker in Syria said: ‘Very young children are being used in child labor and girls as young as eleven are being married off, sometimes in exchange for rent and other necessities.’

‘Many children have been directly impacted by the violence, suffering from physical and psychological trauma and being forced to leave their homes,’ he added.

‘Children as young as seven are being recruited into the armed conflict, many suffer from increased levels of physical abuse at home, and young girls are at particular risk of sexual abuse, abduction, and exploitation.’...” (Jesus loved children and reacted to the attitude of His Disciples by saying: “...Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 19:14; Mark 10:14, and Luke 16:18. See the next three reports.)

When ISIL came to town: Yazidis tell of child murders and ‘meat markets’ for sex slaves

November 4, 2016 -- The National Post reports: “As her newborn baby died in her arms she cried out in anguish, but rather than finding sympathy, her ISIL captors beat her for disturbing their peace, a Yazidi woman says as her eyes well up with tears.

She asked where her three other children were.

‘They were laughing and said all of them have died,’ she says in Kurdish to a delegation from Canada visiting Iraq. ‘They showed me my three children. I was crying and kissing them, and calling them,’ before their bodies were taken away.

The Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant fighters published photos of the dead children on social media as a warning, saying this was punishment for her, deemed a sex slave, trying to escape, she says.

She is one of the thousands of Yazidis captured when ISIL soldiers swept through Sinjar in northern Iraq in 2014, home to most of the world’s Yazidis, a religious minority in Iraq...” (These Islamic hate mongers and sex fiends will face their debauchery at Judgment Day – “Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.” – I Corinthians 6:9, 10.)

Babies beaten, girls raped and tortured: the Yazidis suffering under ISIS

October 12, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “After escaping rape, torture and enslavement at the hands of Islamic State, Yazidi women and girls are being failed by the international community, Amnesty International said on Monday.

A damning report from the charity said that survivors needed greater support to cope with the long-term implications of their trauma.

UN researchers have confirmed that when ISIS militants took over the Sinjar region in northern Iraq in August 2014, up to 5,000 Yazidi men were killed in a series of massacres that forced more than 400,000 people to flee.

Thousands of women were taken captive and disturbing accounts have emerged from those who have since managed to escape. Women and children have been brutally raped and abused; bartered and sold among jihadists for pennies.

Amnesty researchers spoke to 18 women and girls abducted by ISIS and now living in the Kurdish region of Iraq...”

ISIS genocide of Yazidi boys, men: shot or beheaded, ‘family members often forced to witness the killings’

October 7, 2016 -- CNSNews.com reports: “In its report on the genocide of the Yazidi people in Sinjar, Iraq, at the hands of the Islamic State, the United Nations documented that thousands of men and boys (12 or older) were slaughtered in the streets – shot in the head or throats cut (beheaded) – and that ‘family members were often forced to witness the killings.’

As one witness, a 16-year-old girl who was held captive for seven months and sold as a sex slave, told the UN, ‘After we were captured, ISIS forced us to watch them beheading some of our Yazidi men. They made the men kneel in a line in the street, with their hands tied behind their backs. The ISIS fighters took knives and cut their throats.’

The UN Human Rights Council report, They Came to Destroy: ISIS Crimes Against the Yazidis, is based upon 45 interviews of survivors, smugglers, activists, doctors, nurses, and journalists, which corroborated information and material collected by the Independent International Commission of Inquiry on the Syrian Arab Republic.

The Islamic State forces attacked the Yazidi villages in Sinjar in northern Iraq on Aug. 3, 2014. It is estimated that at least 5,000 Yazidis have been killed, so far, by ISIS as a direct act of genocide...”

ISIS shoots disabled girl who was delaying convoys

October 27, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “The UN Human Rights Commission described a number of the atrocities being perpetrated by ISIS operatives during the course of the Mosul offensive in the past week. For example, three women and three young girls were shot to death because one disabled girl could not maintain the pace of a group of villagers who had been evacuated from the place they were in by the terrorists.

UN officials claim this is just one of a number of cases of civilian executions by ISIS in the past week. Civilians were also used as human shields against the attacks of the Iraqi army and the Kurds. 70 other dead civilians were discovered with gunshot wounds, as well as 50 policemen.

In the village of Sapina, 45 kilometers south of Mosul, 15 civilians were shot dead and their bodies thrown into a river. Other civilians related to one of the Kurdish commanders were tied to a vehicle and dragged through the streets of an ISIS-controlled village.

Last week it was reported that ISIS had executed 284 men, women and children and thrown their bodies into mass graves. An anonymous source from the Iraqi army said that all victims had been shot to death...” (ISIS is the worst group of murderers among the Muslim groups. Jude 1:10 calls them “brute beasts” and they are. Hell won’t be hot enough for these ungodly tyrants.)

A MATTER OF HONOR?

Honor killing: two men in Pakistan rip sister’s eyes out, cut her feet off

November 6, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Two Pakistani men have been accused of cutting their 40-year-old sister’s eyes out ‘with a sharp knife’ and chopping off her feet, marking the latest high-profile ‘honor’ killing in the Muslim-majority country where such murders are on the rise and many go unreported.

The mother-of-five was savagely murdered in Muzaffargarh, Punjab, after she allegedly kidnapped the daughter of one of her attackers.

Authorities have also charged Muhammad Aslam in connection with the murder for allegedly luring the woman to a spot on the pretense of a court hearing.

‘One of the suspects, identified as Muhammad Afzal, had suspected that his sister — Shareefan Bibi, 40 and mother of five — was involved in the abduction of his daughter [identified only as] Asia,’ reports the Express Tribune in Pakistan...” (This is a result of Shariah law – all the women who bring “dishonor” upon their family by premarital sex, extramarital sex, or marrying an unapproved husband, or any other offense, such as becoming too “Westernized” are to be slaughtered. This is to be carried out by the father, brother, or uncle. This headline breaks my heart. Presently seven daughters in the U.S. are dead and buried by honor killings. See the next three reports.)

Jordanians charged with killing sisters for ‘family honor’

October 16, 2016 -- The Times of Israel reports: “Two Jordanian brothers were charged with murdering their two sisters in apparent ‘honor killings,’ a court official said Sunday.

The men, aged 22 and 24, were charged with murdering their sisters on Thursday evening in Naur, 20 kilometers (12 miles) southwest of Jordan’s capital Amman.

The official, who asked to remain anonymous, said the brothers claimed they had killed the women, aged 20 and 34, ‘to defend the family’s honor.’

‘The two brothers were looking for their older sister, who had been away from the family home,’ he said. ‘They found her in the house of the younger sister, who had married without the knowledge or consent of the family.’

They shot the younger sister twice and the older one five times, including once to the head, the official said.

The younger sister’s husband, who informed the brothers where the women were, was also arrested.

‘The public prosecutor charged all three of the arrested men with murder,’ the official added.

Another source familiar with the investigation said the two brothers had ‘claimed during questioning that they had carried out the crime for honor.’...”

Muslim man says he had ‘no choice’ but to kill sister who married a Christian

October 5, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “A Pakistani man who executed his sister with a bullet to the head because she married a Christian man said he had ‘no choice’ but to kill her because of her shameful act that brought dishonor on her family.

While his younger sister, Tasleem, was sitting in their kitchen with their mother and sister, Mubeen Rajhu shot her in the head at their home in Lahore this past August.

Eighteen-year-old Tasleem had married a Christian man named Jehangir, who even agreed to convert to Islam to please her family, but this wasn’t sufficient to stop her brother from killing her.

Rajhu now faces life in prison, but he has no regrets about the ‘honor killing,’ which he claims was the right thing to do.

‘I could not let it go. It was all I could think about. I had to kill her,’ Rajhu said matter-of-factly in a video interview released by the Associated Press. ‘I had no choice.’...”

Ohio Muslim immigrant kills own daughter

October 2, 2016 -- WND.com reports: “Police say they can’t figure out the motive behind an Ohio father’s horrific crime of violence against his own daughter, and the media won’t touch the topic, but some say the answer lies hidden in plain view.

Jamal Mansour, 63, of Rocky River, Ohio, walked into his adult daughter’s bedroom at 1:15 a.m. Tuesday and shot her twice in the head while she slept. His daughter, Tahini Mansour, 27, died about 10 hours later at a local hospital.

‘We don’t have a solid motive other than an argument occurred between a father and his daughter,’ said Lt. George Lichman with Rocky River Police.

Islam experts and former Muslims say the suspect’s behavior is rife with clues but don’t look for the police or media to flesh them out and share those clues with the public.

Mansour is a Muslim immigrant from Jordan and his alleged execution-style killing of his daughter bears the hallmarks of Islamic honor violence, says Daniel Akbari, a former top Shariah lawyer in Iran who defected to the U.S. several years ago and now lives in Texas...”

NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Russia unveils ‘Satan 2’ nuclear missile capable of wiping out Texas or France

October 27, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “A Russian missile design company has revealed an image of Russia’s newest weapon: the Sarmat intercontinental ballistic missile, nicknamed ‘Satan 2.’

Russian state media outlet Sputnik reported in May that the Sarmat rocket ‘is capable of wiping out parts of the earth the size of Texas or France,’ according to CNN.

The Makeyev Rocket Design Bureau published the image on its website.

Russian Deputy Defense Minister Yuri Borisov said the Sarmat warhead could destroy targets flying across both North and South Poles, Russian state news agency TASS reported Tuesday.

The Sarmat rocket is being co-designed with the Russian military, and its aim is ‘to provide strategic Russian forces with a guaranteed and effective fulfillment of nuclear deterrence tasks,’ according to a statement posted on the maker’s website...” (Russia will lead the armies of China, North Korea, and Iran in the battle of Armageddon – Revelation 16:16. Ezekiel 38 and 39 is the source for this report. It will be a global war using atomic weapons – Psalm 97:3; Isaiah 66:15; Ezekiel 20:47; Joel; 2:3, 30; Zephaniah 1:18 and Malachi 4:1. The battle is against Israel mentioned 18 times in Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39, and described in Revelation 9:14 – 16. See the next three reports.)

Russia deploys nuclear-capable missiles on NATO doorstep

October 10, 2016 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: “Russia is again deploying nuclear-capable Iskander missiles into its Kaliningrad outpost that borders two NATO members, Lithuania said Saturday, warning the move was aimed at pressuring the West into making concessions over Syria and Ukraine.

Poland also reacted angrily to Moscow’s move while Lithuania added that it could breach a key nuclear weapons treaty.

‘Russia is holding military exercises in Kaliningrad, and its scenario includes deployment of Iskander missile systems and the possible use of them. We are aware of it,’ Lithuanian Foreign Minister Linas Linkevicius told AFP.

He said modified Iskander missiles had a range of up to 700 kilometers (435 miles) which means they could reach the German capital Berlin from the Russian exclave, which is sandwiched between Poland and Lithuania.

Linkevicius said that this time he thought Moscow was using the move to ‘seek concessions from the West’.

Polish Defense Minister Antoni Macierewicz on Saturday called Russia’s activities ‘very alarming’.

Lithuania meanwhile said the Iskander deployment could breach the international nuclear arms treaty...”

Russia vows inevitable response to possible new U.S. sanctions

October 25, 2016 -- Sputnik News reports: “Russia will invariably respond to a possible new round of sanctions imposed by the United States, Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov said Tuesday.

‘That is not how he put it. He said we will definitely respond if there are new sanctions,’ Lavrov told Russia’s RBC news channel when asked to explain Deputy Foreign Minister Sergey Ryabkov’s previous remarks indicating a ‘series activities’ prepared in retaliation.

‘First we will see what happens with the intention of our U.S. colleagues who threaten, but continue to speak with us,’ Lavrov added...”

Russia beefs up Baltic Fleet with ships armed with cruise missiles

October 26, 2016 -- Reuters reports: “Russia is reinforcing its Baltic Fleet in Kaliningrad with two small warships armed with long-range cruise missiles to counter what it sees as a worrying NATO build-up in the region, Russia’s daily Izvestia reported on Wednesday.

There was no official confirmation from Moscow, but the report will raise tensions in the Baltic already heightened since Russia’s 2014 annexation of Crimea and is likely to cause particular consternation in Poland and Lithuania which share land borders with Kaliningrad.

The reported deployment comes at a time when NATO is planning its biggest military build-up on Russia’s borders since the Cold War to counter Moscow, and Russian military analysts said the move looked like a direct response to NATO.

Izvestia cited an unnamed military source as saying that the two ships, the Serpukhov and the Zeleny Dol, had already entered the Baltic Sea and would soon become part of a newly formed division...”

JERUSALEM: A CUP OF TREMBLING

U.N. body votes Temple Mount no longer Jewish

October 14, 2016 -- WND.com reports: “UNESCO, the United Nations committee responsible for ‘cultural understanding,’ has given preliminary approval to a resolution that denies the documented historic Jewish connection to the Temple Mount and the Western Wall.

The vote was 24-6 with another 26 nations abstaining. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu immediately condemned the resolution as ‘the theater of the absurd.’

The proposed resolution, submitted by seven Muslim nations under the title ‘Item 25: Occupied Palestine’ refers to parts of the site by the Muslim terms, ‘Al-Aqsa Mosque’ and ‘Haram al-Sharif’ and emphasizes the historic and religious significance of the site to Islam, but simply ignores evidence of Jewish history at the same site.

The document refers to Israel throughout as ‘the occupying Power’ and accuses it of ‘aggressions and illegal measures’ at the holy site.

UNESCO ‘firmly deplors the continuous storming of Al-Aqsa Mosque/Al-Haram Al-Sharif by Israeli right-wing extremists and uniformed forces, and urges Israel, the occupying power, to take necessary measures to prevent provocative abuses that violate the sanctity and integrity of Al-Aqsa Mosque/Al-Haram Al-Sharif.’...” (Israel will be the invaded nation during World War III “Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee” – Psalm 122:6. But Israel will be saved because God’s promise to His beloved people states: “...I will give them [Israel] an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off” – Isaiah 56:5. Amen! See the next three reports.)

Hamas: neither temple ever existed

October 21, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “Senior Hamas official and head of the Jerusalem Palestinian Parliament Ahmad Abu Helbiya praised UNESCO’s declaration that there is no connection between Jews and the Temple Mount and called on the UN to investigate ‘Israeli war crimes’ committed against Al-Aqsa mosque.

At a Gaza news conference, Abu Helbiya called UNESCO’s decision ‘brave,’ since it ignored the ‘Zionist narrative’ proving that there was once a Holy Temple on the Temple Mount. He also called the Temple ‘imaginary’ and claimed there have never been any remnants of a Temple found on the Temple Mount...”

Islam originally recognized Jews as owners of Israel

October 20, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “In the wake of the latest UNESCO decision, Prof. Nissim Dana of the Middle Eastern Affairs Department at Ariel University discussed in an Arutz Sheva interview the early Islamic attitude towards the connection between Jerusalem and Israel and Judaism.

Dana stated that he had investigated the early Islamic sources and had even published a book on the subject entitled To Whom Does This Land Belong?: New Insights into the Koran, revealing that Islam absolutely does not have a claim on the Land of Israel – even by its own standards – as it recognizes the Jews as the owners of this country and of Jerusalem.

Nowadays, however, he explained, Muslims seem to be following the maxim ‘Don’t confuse us with the facts’ and it is impossible to change beliefs which they have assimilated over the last few generations even by presenting them with facts from their own sources.

Dana said that ‘Islam was born in the seventh century C.E. and the Jewish Temple existed many years before that so that it is impossible to mistake those historical facts. Hundreds of years before Islam there was a connection between Jews and Jerusalem.’...”

Centuries before trying to deny it, Muslims carved Jewish link to Jerusalem into mosque

November 1, 2016 -- The Times of Israel reports: “A recently studied inscription from a mosque near Hebron offers insight into how, until the mid-20th century, the Muslim world considered Jerusalem’s Dome of the Rock to be the successor to two ancient Jewish shrines that formerly stood atop the Temple Mount.

The previously overlooked dedicatory inscription from the Mosque of Umar in Nuba, a village nearly 26 kilometers (16 miles) southwest of Jerusalem, mentions the village as an endowment for the Dome of the Rock and Al-Aqsa Mosque. But what’s striking is that the Dome of the Rock is referred to in the text as ‘the rock of the Bayt al-Maqdis’ — literally, ‘The Holy Temple’ — a verbatim translation of the Hebrew term for the Jerusalem temple that early Muslims employed to refer to Jerusalem as a whole, and the gold-domed shrine in particular.

Local tradition ascribed the construction of the mosque to Caliph Umar ibn al-Khattab, under whose rule Arab armies conquered Jerusalem and the rest of Byzantine Palestine in the mid-7th century. It was under his eventual successor Abd al-Malik, the fifth caliph, that the Dome of the Rock was completed in 691 CE...”

CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH

American Christians cave on core beliefs

October 30, 2016 -- WND.com reports: “The number of professing Christians is declining in America. And it’s not just because of the media, the public schools or even activism by atheists. It’s because Christians themselves are genuinely ignorant about the tenets of their faith, according to a new study.

Americans, who still overwhelmingly identify as Christian, hold contradictory, confused and even heretical beliefs when it comes to God, according to the ‘State of American Theology Study 2016.’

It found 64 percent agreed ‘strongly’ or ‘somewhat’ with the statement ‘God accepts the worship of all religions, including Christianity, Judaism and Islam.’

Sixty percent of Americans agreed with the statement ‘heaven is a place where all people will ultimately be reunited with their loved ones.’

And only 40 percent of those surveyed agreed ‘hell is an eternal place of judgment where God sends all people who do not personally trust in Jesus Christ.’...” (This Bible prediction now inundates American thinking because of the false Christs and false prophets filling the nation’s pulpits – Matthew 24:5, 11, and 24. II Peter 2:1, 2 states: “...there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.” If any of your pastors are guilty of proclaiming these damnable heresies – leave that ungodly pagan church as fast as possible – II Corinthians 1:14 – 18.)

Christian persecution on the rise in Uzbekistan where just owning a Bible is illegal October 5, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Increasing numbers of Christians in Uzbekistan are being punished simply for the ‘crime’ of having religious literature at home.

The persecution charity Open Doors is asking Christians worldwide to pray for Christians living under the harsh central Asia dictatorship.

One Christian, Stanislav Kim, was sentenced to two years’ corrective labor in Urgench for having religious books at home.

He is now under effective house arrest, living at home with restrictions placed on his movements and a fifth of his wages seized by the state.

This is the second time Kim, a Baptist from the north-western Khorezm region, has been found guilty of this offense, according to Open Doors.

Earlier this summer, a Presbyterian Christian in the capital Tashkent was fined for having religious literature at home. The Christian literature was ordered to be handed to the state-backed Muslim Board...” (I am not shocked by this and the next two reports. President Obama has created this same type of blasphemous hatred toward Christians and the Holy Bible. Soon I am releasing statements wherein he has created and enforced 100 anti-Christian and anti-American pronouncements. See the next two reports.)

No churches, violence and harassment: life for Christians in Afghanistan

October 12, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Non-Muslims in Afghanistan continue to suffer violence and harassment and there are still no public places of Christian worship.

Just a few places of worship for Sikhs, Hindus, and Jews remain but the last public Christian church in Afghanistan was destroyed in March 2010, the report says.

Conversion from Islam to another religion is apostasy punishable by death for men and life imprisonment for women.

Hindus, Sikhs, Bahais, and Christians make up about 0.3 percent of the 32.6 million population in Afghanistan. There is one Jewish person left in the entire country, according to the latest International Religious Freedom report from the U.S. State Department. His name is Zablon Simintov. He is a businessman whose wife and two daughters live in Israel.

The report says individuals who convert from Islam continued to risk annulment of their marriages, rejection by their families and communities, loss of employment, and possibly the death penalty.

There were no reports of prosecutions for blasphemy or apostasy in 2015 but one person convicted of blasphemy in 2013 is still in prison serving a 20-year sentence...”

China tells citizens to report parents who ‘lure’ kids into religion

October 17, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “In a new set of education rules, the Chinese Communist Party is urging citizens to spy on their neighbors and report parents who raise their children in a religious faith or have them attend religious services.

In the northwestern region of Xinjiang, the government released the new education norms on Wednesday, with special emphasis on religious formation, according to the U.S.-based human rights group China Aid.

The new rules, which will go into effect on November 1, stipulate that parents cannot ‘organize, lure or force minors into attending religious activities,’ or force them to wear religious dress or symbols. Moreover, they cannot even ‘tolerate’ that children attend ‘underground scripture studies.’

If parents are seen to be encouraging religion, ‘any group or person has the right to stop these kinds of behaviors and report them to the public security authorities,’ the norms state.

While China officially guarantees the right to religious freedom, the Communist Party tightly regulates religious activities, including religious education, and discourages minors from receiving religious formation.

Chinese law prohibits children under the age of 18 from receiving any religious education, and the government approved Christian church, the ‘Three-Self Patriotic Movement,’ explicitly bans its members from bringing their children up in the Christian faith, labeling the practice ‘brainwashing.’...”

NEWS FROM ISRAEL AND THE MIDDLE EAST

Netanyahu: Iran supports 360 degree terror

November 11, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu on Thursday warned about Iran’s drive to carry out terror attacks. His comments were made during a meeting with Russian Prime Minister Dmitry Medvedev at the Prime Minister’s Office in Jerusalem.

‘We would like to take advantage of the great opportunities of the new world, but there are those who would like to take us backward to the old world of the dark and murderous Middle Ages, and we are partners in the war on radical Islamic terror,’ said Netanyahu.

‘Israel, Russia and the U.S. and many other countries share the goal of eliminating Daesh,’ continued Netanyahu, using the Arabic acronym for the Islamic State (ISIS).

‘I think that cooperation between all of the elements I have said toward this goal serves each one of us and also serves humanity.

‘To the same extent,’ he warned, ‘we are also concerned by the second element leading radical Islam and this is Iran which champions the destruction of Israel and also supports 360 degree terror on five continents.

‘We are determined to do two things: First, prevent Iran from achieving nuclear weapons and second, to prevent Iran – in any situation that arises in Syria, with or without an agreement – from establishing itself militarily in Syria, on the ground, in the air or at sea. We are also determined to prevent it from bringing about the establishment of Shi’ite militias, which it is organizing, and of course, the arming of Hezbollah with dangerous weapons aimed at us,’ said the Prime Minister...” (This mess has been created by President Obama and his ungodly contract with Iran, a nation of Shi’ite liars and covenant breakers. Trouble is coming soon. See the next three reports.)

Top Iranian general: Tehran gave Hezbollah missiles it used against Israel

November 11, 2016 -- The Times of Israel reports: “Iran’s top general said the Islamic Republic set up a missile factory in Syria which transferred supplies to Hezbollah to use in the 2006 war against Israel.

‘Iran established the missile industry for Syria in Aleppo in the past years and produced missiles and they were used during the 33-day war against Israel,’ Iran’s semi-official Fars news agency quoted General Mohammad Hossein Bagher as saying.

The conflict in 2006 began after Hezbollah killed five IDF soldiers at the Israel-Lebanon border and snatched the bodies of two — Ehud Goldwasser and Eldad Regev — sparking a bloody, month-long war. The fighting resulted in the deaths of 43 Israeli civilians and 119 IDF soldiers, and over 1,700 dead on the Lebanese side, including 600 to 800 Hezbollah combatants, according to IDF figures.

During the 34 days of fighting, Hezbollah launched over 4,000 rockets at Israel, an average of over 100 a day...”

Rouhani: Trump can’t overturn the nuclear deal

November 10, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “Iran’s President Hassan Rouhani said on Wednesday there was “no possibility” that the nuclear deal with world powers would be overturned by United States president-elect Donald Trump, despite his threat to rip it up.

“Iran’s understanding in the nuclear deal was that the accord was not concluded with one country or government but was approved by a resolution of the UN Security Council and there is no possibility that it can be changed by a single government,” Rouhani was quoted by AFP as having told his cabinet.

Last year’s agreement with world powers saw international sanctions on Iran lifted in exchange for guarantees that it would not pursue a nuclear weapons capability.

During the election campaign, Trump described the deal as “disastrous” and said it would be his “number one priority” to dismantle it.

Iranian officials have repeatedly said, however, that Trump will not be able to overturn the deal...”

Iran’s FM: Israel is the biggest threat to humanity

November 9, 2016 -- Israel National News reports: “Iran’s Foreign Minister, Mohammad Javad Zarif, on Tuesday attacked Israel and claimed it is the biggest threat to humanity, world peace and international security.

‘The most serious threat to our region and the world of humanity is the Zionist regime. This colonial phenomenon is the source of all threats to peace, security and human rights,’ Zarif said in Beirut, Lebanon, according to the Iranian Tasnim news agency.

He further claimed that Israel is ‘the most dangerous enemy of human rights’ because it possesses at least 200 nuclear warheads, implements aggressive policies and violates all international regulations.

Zarif also said that the Palestinian Arab issue remains to the Islamic world’s overriding concern, according to Tasnim...”

ISIS ATROCITIES

Experts: criticism of Islam may be banned in U.S.

November 7, 2016 -- WND.com reports: “Dutch politician Geert Wilders has spent years speaking out against the threat Islam poses to his country, and now he finds himself in legal trouble for it.

The controversial lawmaker went on trial this week on charges of ‘inciting discrimination and hatred of Moroccans,’ according to the Guardian.

The charges stem from a March 2014 rally in which Wilders asked a room full of supporters if they wanted ‘more or fewer Moroccans’ in the country. When the audience chanted, ‘Fewer, fewer!’ Wilders responded, ‘Well, we’ll arrange that, then.’

This led the Dutch government to prosecute Wilders for ‘offending members of a group based on their race, and hate speech and discrimination,’ according to the New York Times.

The paper added Wilders could face up to two years in prison if convicted, although other offenders in similar cases are usually fined or slapped with community service.

Don’t think for a moment something like this couldn’t happen to an American politician, says American Freedom Defense Initiative president Pamela Geller – especially if Hillary Clinton becomes our next president.

‘While she was secretary of State, the U.S. voted for U.N. Human Rights Council Resolution 16/18, which calls for criminalization of ‘incitement to religious hatred,’ a subjective category that allows for the criminalization of any dissenting voice,’ Geller told WND...” (I agree 100% with Pamela Geller’s warning. Hillary was following Obama’s damnable contract with Iran’s leading terrorist. God save America from the great onslaught of Islam against America and all the world. It’s their goal. The motto of the Muslim Brotherhood is: “Allah is our objective; the Prophet is our leader; the Quran is our law...dying in the way of Allah is our highest hope” – as it promotes jihad, or holy war. See the next three reports.)

Crucifixions and vice patrols show Islamic State maintains Mosul grip

November 10, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Islamic State militants fighting to hold on to their Mosul stronghold have displayed the crucified bodies of five people they said gave information to ‘the enemy’, and are back on the city streets policing the length of men’s beards, residents say.

The five bodies were put on display at a road junction, a clear message to the city’s remaining 1.5 million residents that the ultra-hardline Islamists are still in charge, despite losing territory to the east of the city.

Thousands of Islamic State fighters have run Mosul, the largest city under their control in Iraq and neighboring Syria, since they conquered large parts of northern Iraq in 2014.

They are now battling a 100,000-strong coalition including Iraqi troops, security forces, Kurdish Peshmerga and mainly Shi’ite paramilitary groups, which has almost surrounded the city and has broken into eastern neighborhoods.

Residents contacted by telephone late on Tuesday said many parts of the city were calmer than they had been for days, allowing people to venture out to seek food, even in areas which have seen heavy fighting over the last week.

‘I went out in my car for the first time since the start of the clashes in the eastern districts,’ said one Mosul resident. ‘I saw some of the Hisba elements of Daesh (Islamic State) checking people’s beards and clothes and looking for smokers’...”

Report: Islamic State incinerates Jihadis in burning oil for fleeing Mosul battle

October 27, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Islamic State (ISIS/ISIL) terrorists executed nine fellow jihadis who fled battle by tossing them in burning oil trenches used to impede the vision of U.S.-backed Iraqi military troops fighting to push the militants out Iraq’s second-largest city Mosul, reports the Arabic-language Al Sumaria News, according to various translations.

The jihadis appeared to be burned alive.

‘ISIS terrorist gangs executed nine of its members for fleeing the battle against the security forces in Mosul, by throwing them in trenches containing a burning oil, after tying their hands and legs,’ reportedly notes Al Sumaria News.

‘ISIS used the burning oil trenches to impede the vision of the Iraqi Army Aviation and international coalition air force,’ it added.

Iraqi News noted that ‘ISIS is using the ugliest methods to murder its rebellious members, to prevent them from fleeing the battles against the security forces.’...”

Shocking ISIS pamphlets detail horrific treatment of sex slaves

November 2, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Shocking new ISIS propaganda shows in detail the group’s strict teaching on issues from beard length to how to treat women taken as sex slaves.

The documents obtained in former ISIS-held villages in Northern Iraq show in minute detail the jihadis’ rules. The colorful posters and pamphlets with the group’s logo were found by Reuters in offices allegedly used by the militants until just a few days ago.

The question of how to treat female captives was answered by 32 questions and answers on one pink and red leaflet with another green insert showing how to pray properly.

The documents reportedly taught that ‘non-Muslim women can be taken as concubines’ and senior ISIS clerics have the authority to distribute female slaves among fighters...”