Kayla Mueller in captivity: Courage, selflessness as she defened Christian faith to ISIS executioner 'Jihadi John'

September 2, 2016 -- ABCNews.com reports: “American hostage Kayla Mueller was tortured, verbally abused, forced into slave labor for ISIS commanders in Syria and raped by the group’s top leader, but her fellow hostages say she never surrendered hope, she selflessly put the welfare of fellow captives above her own and she even stood up to executioner ‘Jihadi John’ to defend her Christian faith.

Four former hostages who shared cells with Mueller, speaking publicly for the first time about their shared ordeal for ABC News’ ‘20/20’ broadcast, ‘The Girl Left Behind,’ airing Friday, say the Prescott, Arizona, humanitarian aid worker was a courageous 25-year-old who inspired them.

Their ISIS guards were overseen by the British tough Mohammed Emwazi, who would later be dubbed Jihadi John, as he carried out the beheadings and killings of 10 hostages. The Londoner led three other Britons who oversaw the hostage operation. Their prisoners called them ‘The Beatles.’...” (The Lord Jesus Christ announced what would happen to faithful soul winning Christians as one of the final signs happening upon earth at the time of His Return: “...be faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life” – Revelation 2:10. Asia Bibi’s last appeal against death sentence for blasphemy to be heard in October

August 24, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “Asia Bibi, the Christian on death row for blasphemy in Pakistan, will have her final appeal heard by the Supreme Court in the second week of October.

The hearing will be Bibi’s last chance to overturn the decision which sentenced her to death in 2010 under Pakistan’s controversial blasphemy laws. The date for Bibi’s return to court was confirmed to International Christian Concern (ICC) and is the final legal avenue available to avoid execution.

Advocate Said-ul-Malook, Bibi’s lawyer, told the persecution charity ICC: ‘I will appear before the Supreme Court of Pakistan and argue her case while she will remain in prison.

‘I hope the result will be an acquittal.’

The case stems from a dispute that took place between Bibi and a group of Muslim women in June 2009. An argument allegedly erupted after Bibi, who says the Islamic women considered her unclean because of her Christian faith, drank from the same water bowl as them...

She was sentenced to death in 2010 by a local court in Punjab before her High Court appeal was delayed and rescheduled seven times. It was finally held on October 16, 2014 at the Lahore High Court but Justice Anwar-ul-Haq, one of the two judges hearing the appeal, confirmed her death sentence...

If Bibi's appeal is overruled, her only chance of avoiding execution would be through a presidential pardon..."

Muslims slaughter 13 Christians, run hundreds off their land

August 11, 2016 -- WND.com reports: "Muslim Fulani herdsmen attacked a cluster of Christian villages in Kaduna state in northern Nigeria last week, killing at least 13 Christians and scattering members of three churches, area sources said.

A survivor of the attacks told Morning Star News that the herdsmen killed two Christian women in Ninte village on Aug. 1, and that she knew of eight Christians killed in Gada Biyu on Aug. 2. Local newspapers reported nine people were killed in Gada Biyu, with another two men killed in Akwa'a on Aug. 3.

News of the massacre comes on the same day a new report was released by Media Research Center showing the U.S. media have covered up the genocide of Christians in the Middle East.

One of hundreds of Christians displaced from the area, Martha Yohanna of Alheri Baptist Church in Gada Biyu village, told Morning Star News that the attacks on Ninte and Gada Biyu villages were carried out by Muslim Fulani herdsmen. Muslim persecution of Christians called 'systematic'

August 31, 2016 -- WND.com reports: "While the Obama administration has been pursuing Islamist refugees from Syria to bring thousands to the safe haven of the United States, Christians have been under fire – often literally – and losing their property and lives in Iraq and Uganda.

And Syria, Bangladesh and Congo.

Also, Philippines, Egypt, Tanzania, Pakistan, Azerbaijan, Eritrea, Turkey, Iran and Nigeria.

Even Germany.

By Muslims.

A new report from Gatestone Institute finds that although the Muslims doing the persecution are minority, there's no doubt, 'persecution of Christians by Muslims is growing.'

China province terminates social security for practicing Christians

August 11, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: "Local communist authorities in China's Guizhou province have announced the termination of welfare and social security benefits for Christians who are caught attending church services.

One local source said that officials had announced that practicing Christians would no longer be eligible for social security benefits or old-age insurance. County officials then 'called on the government in the towns and villages to order believers to sign a guarantee, stating that if they gathered again, their welfare would be cut off,' the source said.

According to the U.S.-based rights group China Aid, the announcement was made on July 2, but has only now been publicized.

The Chinese government has ratcheted up its persecution of 'unofficial' religion not under government control, especially against Christianity which is experiencing dramatic growth in the country.

Turkish Daily: ISIL training children in Ankara school

September 1, 2016 -- The Fars News Agency reports: “The Turkish newspaper Milliyet reported that the ISIL is administering a school in Ankara, training Wahhabi thoughts and ideology to children and teenagers.

ARA News quoted Milliyet as reporting that the ISIL has a school in Turkey’s capital in which it trains 30 children and teenagers between the ages 9 to 17 years old, including the girls.

Stressing that the Turkish officials are fully informed of the ISIL school, Milliyet reported that the militant group has rented the 5-story building in Ulucanlar street as an office but it is using the place as a school to teach and train the children.

It added that the ISIL has done the children’s application registration and admission through social media and will give them a certificate after the end of their training...

The report on the ISIL school in Ankara surfaced after security sources in Nineveh disclosed that the terrorist group has named a German teen for leading its execution squad in the province.

The boy, who was sent by the ISIS terror group to kill locals in the predominantly Kurdish city, was captured hours after another suicide bomber blew himself up near a mosque in Kirkuk, wounding three.

Terror cops investigate ‘British boy’ shooting prisoner in new ISIS video August 28, 2016 -- Breitbart.com reports: “One of the boys shown murdering prisoners in Islamic State’s new propaganda video is British, the terror group alleges.

The footage shows five boys dressed in camouflage standing behind a row of kneeling prisoners in orange jumpsuits. After one boy makes a statement in Arabic the others raise their guns before shooting the prisoners, who are referred to in the video only as ‘atheist Kurds’, dead.

The white child in the video is captioned as being called Abu Abdullah al-Britani, indicating that he is British. The name ‘al-Britani’ (the Briton) has been taken on by many of the jihadists who left Britain to fight with Islamic State in Iraq and Syria.

The other boys are captioned as al-Masri (the Egyptian), al-Tunisi (the Tunisian), al-Kurdi (the Kurd) and al-Uzbaki (the Uzbek).

During the video, the youth identified as a Tunisian announces to the camera: ‘To the atheist Kurds, what is between me and you are days during which the hair of young children turns grey. PA to kids: Don’t be afraid to die martyr’s death

The brief clip was posted online on August 4 and shows the niqab-wearing child singing an Islamic State song and wielding a knife. The film was translated from Arabic by the Middle East Media Research Institute on Sunday.

According to a Heavy report, the video was released by an IS sympathizer on a German Telegram channel with the title 'The new generation is raised.' The Heavy report identifies the child as a prepubescent boy, whereas the MEMRI report said it was a girl.

Lone suspect dead after anti-terror operation in Ontario town

August 11, 2016 -- The National Post reports: "A suspect whom police feared planned to set off a bomb in a major Canadian city was killed Wednesday by police in a Strathroy home.

More details about what the RCMP describe as a 'potential terrorism threat' and a possible link to a heavy police presence in a northwest London neighborhood are expected to be revealed at a news conference Thursday.

The suspect was identified as Aaron Driver. He was originally from Winnipeg and in his mid-20s. A supporter of the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant, he was the subject of a peace bond after he was detained by RCMP in Winnipeg in June 2015.

The bond stated there are 'reasonable grounds to fear that he may participate, contribute directly or indirectly in the activity of a terrorist group.'

Driver was living in Strathroy, a community of about 20,000 about 40 kilometers west of London.

Driver had detonated a device that

U.S. churches warned of ‘lone wolf’ terror threat

September 2, 2016 -- ChristianToday.com reports: “U.S. churches are being told to arm themselves in preparation for potential terror attacks, following rising threat levels in the UK and growing fears that churches could be targeted.

Chuck Chadwick of the National Organisation of Church Security & Safety Management warned U.S. churches to be vigilant. ‘What we over here can expect is the lone wolf attack,’ he said, ‘and it looks like bombing is becoming popular again’.

Speaking to One News Now, Chadwick suggested that the solution is armed security. ‘Having a person who is armed and can respond in deadly force may be an option’ he said, adding that churches of all sizes should be ready. ‘If it does happen, we’re prepared; if it doesn’t happen, all glory to God.’

Chadwick’s organization, which is based in Texas, specializes in church security and safety; its ‘Gatekeeper’ program has put hundreds of armed security officers in churches across the state.

But despite the fact that Israel is aware of this, he continued, Israel's policy is meant to deliberately expel the 'original' inhabitants of Jerusalem from their homes, including by demolishing their houses and imposing taxes on them.

Husayni called on UNESCO, the UN's cultural organization, to act immediately against the excavations carried out by Israel in the Old City of Jerusalem.

The comeback of Iran's Mahmoud Ahmadinejad?

August 23, 2016 -- The Jerusalem Post reports: "It is clear that Iran's former firebrand-in-chief Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, president from 2005-2013, is attempting a political comeback.

First were the well-timed media profiles of visitors making the pilgrimage to his home in Tehran's Narmak neighborhood seeking favors; next, the Iranian press accounts of Ahmadinejad's opportunistic trips to Iran's provinces; then rumors from spokespeople that he intends to run for the presidency in 2017; and now a public letter to the president of the United States seeking the repatriation of $2 billion of assets frozen in the U.S.

But will all of these efforts and publicity help him succeed in reclaiming the presidency, and winning the mandate of the Islamic Republic's hardliners?

An Iran poll survey suggests that the former president now trails incumbent Hassan Rouhani by just eight percentage points in a head-to-head match-up, compared with 27 points in May 2015.
