SHARIA LAW ≠ DEMOCRACY

Canadian PM: Sharia law is compatible with democracy

February 6, 2018 -- Israel National News reports: “Canada continues to support and implement Sharia Law.

The American Center for Democracy (ACD) quotes Imam Aasim Rashid of Vancouver, British Columbia, who spoke in October 2017 at Thompson Rivers University, explaining why the Canadian government wants to implement Sharia Law.

‘I’ll tell you who wants to bring Sharia Law,’ Thompson said then. ‘The Canadian government wants to bring Sharia Law and this is not a joke. Why? Because Sharia Law is simply the way Muslims are doing things.’

‘The Canadian government wanted the Muslims to be able to regulate their own issues...to solve their problems amongst themselves [according] to Sharia Law, so it is not a burden on the court system which is already so bogged down.

‘The government told us – we would like you to have this system, and we would like to work on these initiatives with you.’ Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau told CBC in January 2016 that ‘Islam is not incompatible with Western secular democracy.’

ACD, however, has challenged this assumption with various facts on Islam and Islamists:

For example, the Quran states that ‘Men are caretakers of women... As for women of whom you fear rebellion, convince them, and leave them apart in beds, and beat them (lightly without causing injury)’ (Quran 4:34)

In his book, Human Rights in Islam and Common Misconceptions, Abdul-Rahman al-Sheha writes that ‘the non-Muslim residents of an Islamic state are required to pay a minimal tax called ‘Jizyah.’

He also notes that ‘Allah set the penalty of cutting the hand as a penalty for theft,’ and says that ‘if the robber kills and seizes the money, the punishment may be killing and crucifixion. If he takes money and threatens but does not kill or assault, the punishment may be amputation of his hand and leg. If he kills the victim but does not take his money, he may be executed as in murder.’...” (Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau is horrifyingly mistaken in his statement. As I have shared numerous times on our program and in the Van Impe Intelligence Briefing, the American Thinker web page lists the top ten reasons why sharia is bad for all societies coming to the conclusion that Sharia Law ultimately degrades societies and diminishes freedom:

- Islam commands offensive, aggressive and unjust jihad which is a holy war
 - Islam orders apostates to be killed
 - Islam orders death for Muslims and death for non-Muslim critics of Muhammad and the Quran, and even Sharia itself
 - Islam orders unmarried fornicators to be whipped, put to death, and adulterers to be stoned
 - Islam commands all homosexuals to be executed
 - Islam commands that highway robbers should be crucified or mutilated
 - Islam commands that a male and female thief must have a hand cut off
 - Islam allows an injured plaintiff to exact legal revenge, physical eye for physical eye
 - Islam allows husbands to beat their wives
 - Islam commands that drinkers and gamblers be beaten

Indonesian Province Orders Female Flight Crews to Don Hijabs or Face ‘Punishment’

January 31, 2018 -- Breitbart.com reports: “The Indonesian province of Aceh has ordered female flight attendants transiting the region to don a hijab prior to landing – or face punishment by religious police.

The command to wear the Islamic-compliant headscarf has been made under sharia law which also demands non-Muslim females wear ‘modest clothing’ instead of western clothing while visiting Aceh.

Australia’s Special Broadcasting Service (SBS) reports that Aceh has been forced to issue the new regulations because of flight crew who use the local airport during layovers. Mawardy Ali, head of Aceh Besar district which includes provincial capital Banda Aceh, said:

- I hope the airlines respect the uniqueness of Aceh where Sharia (Islamic law) is implemented.
- We are disseminating this regulation to the airlines through the end of this week. Later, we’ll talk about punishment if we find there have been violations.
- If a (Muslim) crew member fails to comply, we will reprimand her. If she does it repeatedly, I will order Sharia police to nab her.

Indonesia is the world’s most populous Muslim country, and Aceh province in western Indonesia is the most Islamic region in the country. Aceh is known as the ‘Gateway to Mecca,’ both because it is the westernmost tip of the Indonesian archipelago and thus a good starting point for the Islamic pilgrimage (hajj) and because of its long association with Islam...”

British Government Promotes ‘Liberation’ of Hijab at London Event, Avoids Commenting for A Week

February 7, 2018 -- Breitbart.com reports: “The Foreign and Commonwealth Office of the United Kingdom (FCO) has promoted the wearing of the Islamic veil amongst its London staff, using the February 1st occasion of ‘World Hijab Day’ to promote the head covering and even issue ‘free scarves’ to those who chose to try it.

The department of the British government also promoted the idea of ‘liberation’ when wearing the veil that Muslim women across the world have shunned as an antiquated, oppressive, religious tool.

The FCO — Britain’s equivalent of the U.S. Department of State — issued invites to its staff ahead of the event, stating:

- Would you like to try on a Hijab or learn why Muslim women wear the headscarf? Come along to our walk-in event. Free scarves for all those that choose to wear it for the day or part of the day. Muslim women, along with followers of many other religions, choose to wear the Hijab. Many find liberation, respect and security through wearing it. #StrongInHijab. Join us for #WorldHijabDay...”

(Why do women wear a hijab? The answer is simple. If they do not, they face assault, rape, and even death. Dawn Perlmutter wrote an article entitled: “Hijab Shame: Rape, Murder, and Loss of Face” - <https://www.frontpagemag.com/fpm/269304/hijab-shame-rape-murder-and-loss-face-dawn-perlmutter> which states: “Sonia Ossorio and other so-called feminists interpret the wearing of hijab from their own cultural perspective as if all women wear it of their own free will. They do not understand that one of the fundamental reasons that women must be covered is that modesty is intrinsically intertwined with Islamic concepts of purity, honor and shame. These feminist fashionistas do not realize that no matter how pretty the hijab head scarf, it is essentially a prison uniform...” She goes on to say: “Uncovered women are viewed as prostitutes and adulterers and the prevailing attitude is that if an uncovered woman is raped she asked for it... The function of hijab is not simply protecting modesty, it also protects purity and family honor. Hijab needs to be understood in the context of honor shame cultures in which any violation brings dishonor to the family. Uncovered women signify immodesty or unfaithfulness which forfeits a woman’s honor and shames the men in the family. Breaking tradition has serious consequences and family members are obligated to restore honor and cleanse the family of the shame. Consequently, not wearing hijab has resulted in “honor violence.” Both Muslim and Western women have been the victims of beatings, rape, torture, disfigurement and death for not wearing hijab in Western and Middle East Countries. This violence is considered a justifiable method to punish and restore honor to the family who could not control their women...” She concludes her article with: “Muslim women who choose to wear hijab have internalized their own oppression. Western non-Muslim women who wear hijab have been indoctrinated into social justice myths of Islamophobia. World Hijab Day, founded by a Muslim activist/operative, is part of the stealth jihad strategy to slowly introduce Sharia law into Western culture. The president of the New York Chapter of the National Organization for Women thinks women should wear hijab as part of the resistance against President Trump. Macy’s, an American institution, is marketing garments of slavery and glamorizing the subjugation of women. Shame on everyone.” Very well said Dawn Perlmutter.)

THE RELIGION OF PEACE?

New ISIS Video Sings to U.S. Jihadists: ‘It is Now Time to Rise, Slit Their Throats, Watch Them Die’

January 29, 2018 -- PJMedia.com

reports: “The Islamic State issued a new video today calling on ‘brothers in Europe, America, Russia, Australia and elsewhere’ to ‘kill them all’ as ‘it is now time to rise.’

The English-language nasheed, inspirational songs frequently released by terror groups, shows scenes of Western terrorists’ handiwork — including the March 2017 Westminster Bridge attack and the ISIS pledge video recorded by Berlin Christmas market terrorist Anis Amri — mingled with ISIS battlefield scenes and beheadings in Syria.

The video from ISIS' official Al-Hayat Media Center was distributed widely on YouTube and social media platforms Twitter and Facebook, along with being posted on file-sharing sites.

'Your brothers in your lands have absolved themselves of blame, so leap onto their tracks and take an example from their actions and know that jannah [paradise] is beneath the shadows of swords,' a narrator says before the nasheed starts.

'Go answer the call, don't spare none, kill them all, it is now time to rise, slit their throats, watch them die,' goes the nasheed. 'The Islamic State stands, and it stands and demands, that you worship the one, whom besides there is none.'...'
(Killing is rewarded in Islam. Not only do they receive 72 virgins as righteous and martyred godly men, but what even more shocking is they get to choose 70 relatives and friends to go to heaven. Their plan of winning the lost is a sick one and against God's plan which is: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" – John 3:16. See the next report.)

Al-Qaeda calls on Muslims to 'rise and attack Jews, Americans'

January 23, 2018 -- Israel National News reports: "A senior Al-Qaeda leader has called on Muslims

'everywhere' to rise up and kill Jews and Americans in response to U.S. President Donald Trump's decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital.

In a video released Monday, Khalid Batarfi said Trump's decision was 'a declaration of a new Jewish-Crusader war' and every Muslim had a duty to 'liberate' the holy city, the SITE Intelligence monitoring group reported. 'No Muslim has the right to cede Jerusalem no matter what happens,' said Batarfi, a top commander with the group's powerful Yemen-based branch. 'Only a traitor would give it up or hand it over.' 'Let them [Muslims] rise and attack the Jews and the Americans everywhere,' he said, in the 18-minute video entitled 'Our Duty Towards Our Jerusalem'.

Trump on December 6 said his administration would recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, and move its embassy from Tel Aviv to the city.

On Monday, U.S. Vice President Mike Pence pledged to move the embassy by the end of 2019, in a speech to Israel's parliament.

In the video, Batarfi dismissed U.S. allies' protests as not genuine and 'nothing but dust thrown in the eyes'.

'The greatest responsibility lies upon the Muslims in America and the Western countries in the world,' he said. 'The Muslims inside the occupied land must kill every Jew, by running him over, or stabbing him, or by using against him any weapon, or by burning their homes.'...'

Made-up to look beautiful. Sent out to die.

February 8, 2018 -- BBC News reports: "Falmata is getting a full beauty treatment – a thick paste of henna, with its delicate pointed swirls, adorns her feet.

While it dries, a woman is battling with her hair. Comb in hand she's stretching and straightening Falmata's tight curls.

'We were allowed to choose any style for the hair and the henna,' remembers Falmata. 'We got the henna to dye our hands, legs and sometimes even the neck.'

Falmata knows she is going to look beautiful. But there's a deadly consequence.

Once she's been made up, a suicide bomb will be attached to her waist.

Falmata is one of hundreds of young women, most of them teenagers, who have been abducted by militants in Nigeria and forced to carry out missions for them..." (What a heartbreaking story. Falmata was actually abducted twice, and sent out with a suicide bomb twice. She was able to get away both times. You can read the full story at: http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/resources/idt-sh/made_up_to_look_beautiful_sent_out_to_die.

What murderous barbarians these groups are. Their hatred knows no limits. Jesus said in Matthew 18:6 – "But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.")

CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH

Roman Colosseum to Be Lit Blood Red for Persecuted Christians

February 12, 2018 -- Breitbart.com reports: "The Roman Colosseum along with two churches in Mosul and Aleppo will be lit up by red lights later this month to draw attention to the global persecution of Christians.

'Christians are the victims of at least 75 percent of all religiously-motivated violence and oppression,' declared the latest report from Aid to the Church in Need (ACN), the group organizing the event, and moreover 'the extent of this persecution is largely ignored by our media.'

In a gesture meant to combat global indifference to the plight of persecuted Christians, on Saturday, Feb. 24, one of Rome’s most iconic structures—the Colosseum—will be illuminated in red, representing Christians who have shed their blood for the faith.

At the same time, prominent churches in Syria and Iraq will be illuminated with red lights as well. In Aleppo, the St. Elijah Maronite Cathedral will be lit up in red, as will the Church of St. Paul in Mosul. Turning on the lights in Mosul, said the Chaldean Catholic Patriarch Louis Raphael Sako I, ‘means bringing back hope to Iraqi Christians who have suffered so much.’

According to Alfredo Mantovano, president of ACN-Italy, the media event is meant as a denunciation of ‘the martyrdom suffered by our brothers and sisters.’ It is our intention, he said, ‘to involve them directly through two of the communities who have suffered the most in recent years, those of Syria and Iraq.’...” (“Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death” – Revelation 2:10, 11. Christians who suffer and die for Christ will receive the “Crown of Life” to place at the feet of Jesus – James 1:12; Revelation 2:10. The 24 elders represent 12 Old Testament Tribes and 12 New Testament Apostles – saved Jews and redeemed Christians. In Revelation 4: 10 & 11 they cast their earned crowns before the Lord Jesus Christ. Question – Will you be among them?)

Chinese Pastors Ordered to Post Signs on Churches Forbidding Entry to Minors

February 11, 2018 -- Breitbart.com reports: “As part of its most recent clampdown on Christian churches, Chinese authorities have instructed priests and pastors to post signs on churches barring entry to minors.

The instruction is part of a new set of communist party-controlled regulations on religious activities that went into effect on February 1 and is aimed at preventing children and young people from getting religious instruction or taking an active part in Christian worship.

According to a report Thursday from ucanews, the leading independent Catholic news source in Asia, authorities have begun enforcing the government ban on minors in church in several regions, while forcing a number of Protestant house churches in Henan province to close.

The new regulations are an expansion of bans already tried out in certain regions. As Breitbart News reported last August, communist officials had already issued ‘notices’ to over a hundred churches in Wenzhou, within the largely Christian Zhejiang province, informing Christians that children are no longer permitted to enter any church. The notices stated that minors attempting to enter a church would be turned away at the door, even if accompanied by their parents.

Chinese authorities stated that church attendance and religious instruction keep young persons from developing ‘a correct worldview and set of values.’...” (“Train us a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it” – Proverbs 22:6. Psalm 127:3 states: “Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord...” Paul wrote to Timothy: “I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day. Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; when I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that in thee also” – II Timothy 1:3-5. How sad that China is attempting to prevent children from attending church.)

JERUSALEM: A CUP OF TREMBLING

Abbas Rips Into Trump: Palestinians Are Original Canaanites, Were in Jerusalem Before the Jews

January 17, 2018 -- Haaretz reports: “Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas lashed out on Wednesday at U.S. President Donald Trump over his decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel’s capital. In Cairo, Abbas also said that the Palestinians were the ‘original Canaanites’ and were in Jerusalem from before the Jews. ‘Every American administration has cursed its predecessor and promised something new but nothing came of it,’ the Palestinian president said at summit on Jerusalem at Cairo’s Al-Azhar university, the 1,000-year-old seat of Sunni Muslim learning. ‘How can we have faith that the super-power would be a mediator between us and the Israelis?’ he asked. After Trump’s ‘sinful’ decision in December to change the status of Jerusalem and his decision to relocate the American embassy, ‘the U.S. has pulled itself out of the diplomatic process and can no longer be a mediator or sponsor,’ he said. ‘Our position is that we want a state within the 1967 borders with East Jerusalem as its capital and a resolution of all key issues,’ Abbas said. Abbas, a long-time opponent of violence, said that Palestinians ‘will continue to peacefully pursue our demands until we win back our rights.’ He said the Palestinians would continue to support peace, ‘but not at every price.’

Abbas said that the Palestinians are the ‘original Canaanites’ and that they were in Jerusalem from before the Jews, a claim he also voiced in his landmark speech a few days ago in which he said that the ‘Oslo accords are dead.’ In a speech on Sunday, Abbas said that ‘any future negotiations will take place only within the context of the international community, by an international committee created in the framework of an international conference. Allow me to be clear: We will not accept America leadership of a political process involving negotiations.’...” (Mahmoud Abbas does not know his history, or the Qur’an – “And [mention, O Muhammad], when Moses said to his people, "O my people, remember the favor of Allah [God] upon you when He appointed among you prophets and made you possessors and gave you that which He had not given anyone among the worlds. O my people, enter the Holy Land which Allah has assigned to you and do not turn back and [thus] become losers." — Quran, Surah Al-Ma'idah 5:20-21. And he does not know the Bible -- Genesis 15:18 states: “In the same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates” and in Joshua 1:4 we read: “From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.” These verses encompass all of the land modern Israel currently possesses, plus all of the land of the Palestinians (the West Bank and Gaza), plus some of Egypt and Syria, plus all of Jordan, plus some of Saudi Arabia and Iraq. Israel currently possesses only a fraction of the land God has promised. See the next two reports.)

‘Jerusalem will be the capital of the Islamic Caliphate’

February 5, 2018 -- Israel National News reports: “Sheikh Kamal al-Khatib, Deputy Head of the illegal Islamic Movement in Israel, published an article expressing his opinion what Jerusalem’s status should be.

The article, published in the Gaza newspaper Falestin, slams those who talk a lot about their love and connection to Al-Aqsa Mosque and notes that those who really love Al-Aqsa are the ones ‘who are active on the ground, hold Islamic activities in the mosque, renovate Muslims’ homes in the Old City of Jerusalem, and were arrested or forced to pay a fine for their activities.’

According to al-Khatib, the Palestinian Authority is ‘competing with us in their love for Jerusalem’ but they are also the ones who negotiated Jerusalem during the Oslo Accords and were willing to negotiate regarding Jerusalem. Today, when Jerusalem is becoming more Jewish, they cry crocodile tears.

‘The city of Al-Quds is the capital city of the Islamic Caliphate, which is run properly,’ al-Khatib wrote. ‘With the help of Allah, this will soon become reality.’...”

Jordan King Calls for Palestinian Capital in East Jerusalem

January 28, 2018 -- Voice of America News reports: “Jordan’s king affirmed his support Sunday for establishing a Palestinian capital in east Jerusalem, highlighting his differences with the Trump administration on a central issue in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Abdullah II spoke at the start of a meeting with German President Frank-Walter Steinmeier, who also expressed concern about President Donald Trump’s recognition last month of contested Jerusalem as Israel’s capital.

‘I think there are very good reasons to question the theory that unilateral recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel would contribute to the consolidation of peace in the Middle East,’ Steinmeier was quoted as telling the Jordanian daily Al-Ghad in an interview published Sunday.

One of the pillars of Germany’s position on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict ‘is the need to preserve the status of holy sites and to negotiate the final status of Jerusalem within the framework of the two-state solution,’ Steinmeier, a former foreign minister, told Al-Ghad.

Jordan’s monarch serves as custodian of a major Muslim shrine in Israeli-annexed east Jerusalem and the kingdom’s Hashemite dynasty derives much of its political legitimacy from its special role in Jerusalem. Jordan is also home to a large Palestinian population.

‘I think our views on Palestine and Jerusalem are well known to you,’ the king told the German president Sunday. ‘We do believe in a two-state solution, with [east] Jerusalem as a capital for the Palestinians.’...”

Netanyahu at Davos: Jerusalem to remain capital under any peace agreement

January 26, 2018 -- The Jerusalem Post reports: “Netanyahu was interviewed by CNN’s Fareed Zakaria on the main Davos stage on Thursday, saying: ‘Under any peace agreement the capital of Israel will continue to be in Jerusalem.’

Netanyahu reiterated that the seat of Israeli government is in Israel, and that Jerusalem has been the capital of the Jewish people for 3000 years. Donald Trump did ‘a great service for peace, because peace can only be based on truth. You can’t build peace on fantasy,’ the PM said.

When asked whether there wasn’t anything to be said for the Arabs’ historical connection to Jerusalem, Netanyahu stated that ‘Israel’s position is that Jerusalem should remain united under Israeli sovereignty with complete freedom for everyone to practice their faiths as they choose.’

He further claimed that if that were to change, ‘you could see Israel descend into the sectorial violence that categorizes other places in the Middle East.’

‘The Palestinians should have all the power to govern themselves but none of the power to threaten us,’ Netanyahu said. ‘In any political arrangement the Jews must retain security control in the area, because otherwise you’ll have ISIS... We have a mosaic of failed states in the Middle East, and we don’t want another one.’...” (930 times God promises Jerusalem forever to the Jews. Soon all Hell will break loose in the Middle East. Joel 3:2 warns today’s politicians that World War III occurs because of parting God’s land. It won’t succeed. Christ will return, stop the horrendous war and reign over the world from the Throne of David in Jerusalem forever – Revelation 11:18; Luke 1:32, 33. Psalm 122:6 – “Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.”)

NEWS FROM ISRAEL & THE MIDDLE EAST

Hezbollah official warns terror group can destroy Israeli army

January 29, 2018 -- The Jerusalem Post reports: “Hezbollah has called an article written by IDF Spokesman Brig.-Gen. Ronen Manelis and published on Lebanese opposition websites ‘provocative words published by a coward.’

‘The article is nonsense and a provocation that is published by someone who is a coward,’ Hajj Muhammad Raad, the head of Hezbollah’s ‘Loyalty to Resistance’ Lebanese Parliamentary bloc, wrote on the Ahewar website.

‘Israel should not act foolishly and complicate itself in a war that will be destructive for it. Hezbollah is stronger today and has capabilities that can destroy the Israeli Army. Israel today has become a regional and international isolationist, and the media spins that come out of it are meant to cover up its distress, because it wants to present itself as strong,’ he continued.

On Sunday, an article written by Manelis appeared on several Arab-language media outlets, including being published on the Hezbollah-friendly al-Masdar website and broadcast on the Voice of Beirut radio station.

‘The authority of the Zionist entity, whatever it tries, will not be able to persuade the Arab-Muslim peoples to give up the idea of resisting the Zionist occupation,’ Raad wrote Monday.

‘The day will come when Hezbollah’s flag will be raised over the honorable city of Jerusalem and the Palestinians will regain their occupied land.’...” (Baseless boasting. The nations may say: “...Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance” – Psalm 83:4. It won’t work -- “...I will give them [Israel] an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off” – Isaiah 56:5. See the next report.)

Hezbollah threatens Israel

February 12, 2018 -- Israel National News reports: “Al-Haj Hassan Khawab Allah, a Hezbollah official in charge of the ‘Palestinian issue’, on Sunday issued a threat to Israel following the military escalation in which the Israel Air Force downed an Iranian drone that infiltrated Israeli territory and an Israeli F16 was shot down by Syrian anti-aircraft fire.

In an interview with the Hamas daily Al-Risala, Khawab Allah said that Israel would carry out an ‘act of stupidity’ if it initiated ‘aggression’ against Syria, Lebanon or Gaza.

He added that the events of the past several days would cause Israel to carefully consider its steps before making such a ‘stupid’ move.

‘The meaning of the downing of the hostile Israeli aircraft in Syria is that from this day it will not be able to ‘warm up’ in the skies of Syria without confrontation. This is the message that Syria and behind it the axis of resistance has sent (to Israel),’ claimed the Hezbollah official.

He threatened that any ‘foolish’ move against Lebanon, Syria or Gaza would result in Israel paying a high and painful price. He further said that the incidents of the past few days would provide a tailwind to the Palestinian intifada...”

Netanyahu: We will not allow Iran to destroy us

January 26, 2018 -- Israel National News reports: “Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu spoke on Thursday evening at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland.

Netanyahu criticized the nuclear deal with Iran and said, ‘I think that the current agreement is so flawed that it promises that Iran will have everything necessary to create nuclear weapons, including the enrichment of fissile material on a huge scale.’

‘What they can do today, at best, is enrich uranium for one bomb. Under the current agreement, they will be able to enrich enough uranium for a hundred or two hundred bombs,’ the prime minister warned.

‘They will be able to break through, to quickly create an arsenal of nuclear weapons without any international agreement preventing them from doing so. In fact, the agreement allows them to do so.’

It is for this reason, Netanyahu stressed, that the deal with Iran is so bad. ‘Because it gives Iran, the most significant terrorist state in this era, the means to create nuclear weapons, atomic bombs. They will be able to pass them on to their agents, to the terrorists, they could use it themselves. That’s where we do not want to go.’

‘I do not care if the agreement is fixed, cancelled, or kept. What is important to me is to prevent Iran from obtaining a nuclear arsenal. Because not only does Iran spread terror all over the world, Iran openly says that it will use these weapons and any weapons it possesses in order to destroy Israel. We will not let that happen,’ he reiterated...” (As I quoted earlier - Isaiah 56:5 states: “I will give them [Israel] an everlasting name...” Also, Christ returns, sits upon David’s Throne in Jerusalem and reigns over the world from Israel – Luke 1:32, 33. It’s Iran who won’t be around as Christ rules the world as the “King of kings, and Lord of lords” – Revelation 19:16. See the next report.)

‘We’ll teach Iran a lesson it’ll never forget’

February 12, 2018 -- Israel National News reports: “Transportation and Intelligence Minister Yisrael Katz (Likud) said on Sunday that ‘If Iran continues to threaten and carry out offensive actions against Israel from Syria, we will teach it a lesson that it will never forget.’

In an interview with the Saudi Arabian newspaper Elaph, Katz said, as quoted by Ma’ariv, ‘This is not the first time that Syria has launched missiles at Israel Air Force planes. Israel will continue to maintain aerial superiority and control the skies of the region.’

The interview came following Saturday’s incident in which an Iranian drone entered Israeli airspace from Syria, remaining in Israel some 90 seconds before the IAF shot it down.

In response to the provocation, Israel attacked the drone’s command center. During the IAF operation, Syrian surface-to-air missiles downed an Israeli F-16I fighter jet. Both pilots suffered injuries, and ejected after reaching Israeli territory.

Katz stressed in the Elaph interview that Israel is not interested in an escalation, but would continue to implement the red lines it had set, as it did in Saturday’s incident.

‘Israel stresses that it will not accept an Iranian presence in Syria, damage to its sovereignty, and development and construction of missiles for Hezbollah in Lebanon by Iran,’ the minister said.

He made it clear that Iran is playing with fire, and that the Syrian army, which adopts the Iranian agenda, will find itself under fire...

Palestinian Journalist: Judaism Is A ‘Religion Of Hatred’ Worse Than Nazism

January 16, 2018 -- Breitbart.com reports: “Judaism is a ‘religion of hatred’ that is more cruel than Nazism, a Palestinian columnist claimed in an anti-Semitic oped translated last week by the Middle East Media Research Institute.

Writing in the Omani Al-Watan daily, Palestinian journalist Jawad Al-Bashiti, who resides in Jordan, wrote that Judaism ‘represents 3,000 years of hostility and hatred ... toward mankind as a whole.’

‘According to every criterion of human development and progress, cultural, ethical and scientific, especially in the 21st century, there is nothing worse than devotion, in theory and in practice, to the Jewish religion – the Torah and the Talmud – and there is nothing worse than when this devotion takes on a Zionist and political form,’ Al-Bashiti wrote.

He falsely charged that Jews avoided assimilation by adopting a ‘culture of war’ that is characterized by ‘beastliness and hostility toward non-Jews.’

The Jews ‘invented a god,’ Al-Bashiti posited, and “Judaized” the heavens so that they could Judaize the land, in other words, the land of the others, i.e. Palestine, which they saw in their Talmudic visions as the Promised Land.”

The Jews’ god is ‘angry, rapacious, cruel, hostile and vengeful,’ the article, which was first published in August, reads...”

(This is nothing new, all throughout history the Jewish people have long been blamed for all of the world’s ills. Incredibly, even the awful plague of the Black Death that swept Europe was blamed on the Jews. They were accused of having poisoned wells with a powder made of spiders, frog legs, Christian entrails, and consecrated hosts (Communion bread). The public wrath that resulted from that fantastic tale brought about the slaughter of thousands of Jews and the complete extermination of two hundred Jewish communities. This can be traced back to the father of anti-Semitism – Satan who “...stood up against Israel” – I Chronicles 21:1. God loves His Chosen People – “...I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee” – Jeremiah 31:3.)

A NUCLEAR WORLD

Kissinger: Nuclear North Korea ‘immediate challenge’ of our time

January 26, 2018 -- SpaceDaily.com

reports: “North Korea poses the most immediate threat to global security, former U.S. secretary of state Henry Kissinger told Congress Thursday, stressing that denuclearization of the regime must be a ‘fundamental’ American foreign policy goal.

Kissinger also pointed to Iran as a primary challenge, and said that opposing the Islamic republic's 'hegemonic expansion' and pursuit of nuclear weapons should remain high Washington priorities.

Kissinger, who at age 94 continues to advise on foreign policy matters, joined two other foreign policy heavyweights — former secretary of state George Shultz, 97, and ex-deputy secretary of state Richard Armitage, 72 — in testifying before a Senate panel about global security challenges.

The elder statesmen presented a picture of mounting international threats, including nuclear proliferation, Chinese authoritarianism, and Russia's interference in U.S. elections and its interventions in Eastern Europe.

'The most immediate challenge to international security is posed by the evolution of the North Korea nuclear program,' Kissinger told the Senate Armed Services Committee, describing an 'unprecedented' scenario.

North Korea, like Iran, has advanced its nuclear capability at the very time an international effort sought to prevent a 'radical regime' from developing such capacity.

'For the second time in a decade, an outcome that was widely considered unacceptable is now on the verge of becoming irreversible,' he said...' (Kissinger is right. Pence: U.S. 'ready for any eventuality' on North Korea February 9, 2018 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: "Vice President Mike Pence said on Thursday the United States was 'ready for any eventuality' with regard to North Korea and warned that 'all options were on the table' to deal with Pyongyang's threats.

Speaking to U.S. and Japanese troops at the Yokota Air Base outside Tokyo, Pence vowed to continue the 'maximum pressure campaign' on North Korea in a bid to force Pyongyang to give up its nuclear missile programme.

Pence's trip to Asia comes amid an apparent thaw on the Korean peninsula, spurred by North Korea's participation in what is being hailed the 'peace' Olympics in Pyeongchang in the South.

But he struck a tough tone, citing a string of rights abuses and stressing: 'Those who dare threaten us would do well not to underestimate the capabilities of the armed forces of the United States.

'Let the world know, from here in Yokota Air Base and beyond, we are ready for any eventuality.

'Let our adversaries know: All options are on the table and the American armed forces and self-defence forces of Japan will be ready to defend our people and our way of life.'

Any provocation, including any use of nuclear weapons, would result in a 'response that is rapid, overwhelming and effective', he vowed..."

Pentagon pushes nuclear weapons expansion, modernization

February 5, 2018 -- SpaceDaily.com reports: "The Pentagon called for the United States to develop two new types of weapons in an update of its nuclear policy Friday.

The new policy — the first update of the Nuclear Posture Review since 2010 — pushes modernization of U.S. nuclear weapons, infrastructure and delivery systems. It overturns years of Obama-era policy that sought to reduce the size and power of the United States' nuclear arsenal.

It calls for a 'lower-yield' options for ballistic and cruise missiles launched at sea.

'Expanding flexible U.S. nuclear options now, to include low-yield options, is important for the preservation of credible deterrence against regional aggression,' the report says.

President Donald Trump ordered Secretary of Defense Jim Mattis to conduct the Nuclear Posture Review one year ago.

In an introductory statement, Mattis said, 'We must look reality in the eye and see the world as it is, not as we wish it to be ... in no way does this approach lower the nuclear threshold.'

In his own statement, Trump said the updated strategy develops capabilities so that use of a nuclear weapon is less likely..."
